Around The Square

With Mack

Mayor Jack Muirhead has returned from a vacation trip, and looks as fit as a fiddle. He dropped in early today and asked that we announce to citizens of the city that he is back on the job, and ready to do their bidding. It passed through our mind that he might be able to do something about the water situation, so we just boldly told him that the citizens would all be happy and look over any short-comings he may have, if he would just let it rain.

He didn't give us an immediate answer so we imagine he will pic-nic-hole the request at the next regular meeting of the council. Seems that we can't get anybody interested in water at all.

We will say, in all due fairness, that the council and city manager are busy at this time, trying to get a little water. If they do not succeed we may go the way of pioneers who landed in West Texas before it ever rained. They did alright until they sucked all the water out of the cactus plants, but after that we understand they had a pretty tough time.

Fact is most of them had just about decided to go back to Arkansas when along came a good rain. One old corder told them that history always repeated itself, and for the last 100 years they with their posterity have remained here waiting for the second rain. They may win next month if we can get a couple of well developed hurricanes right fresh from the West Indies. Until then we'll split soup with the turtles.

Price Daniel who has made Texas a red-hot attorney general, still has plenty fire, even if he has won the nomination for Senator. He doesn't like Adlai's attitude, and he is now trying to find a law that will enable to vote for Ike, and still retain "party" citizenship. Price, we all know you are a good democrat, but you have to much sense to vote for any man who tells you in advance that he will steal your tidelands, as well as everything else that isn't bolted down.

We are a mere buck private in the Democratic ranks, but we are going to support Ike, and smile while we do it. Just follow the crowd and you'll do the same. Texas doesn't have all the votes, but they have enough to make a Democratic nominee tremble in his boots, when he thinks about losing them. That's what Adlai has done, or maybe we should say, what Harry has done for him. Harry has only two good friends on earth—Dess and Margaret—and they are beginning to have their doubts.

We understand Gov. Shivers will be in Eastland on election day, and will help us seine the City Lake. If Price cares to get in on this fishing party, we hereby extend him an invitation, and guarantee a hearty welcome. If they want to vote while here they may do so, for Adlai's name will likely not appear on the Eastland ballot. It will be "Ike" only. If you really wish to vote for Harry and Adlai, you will be forced to go up to Giles County, Tenn., or some other foreign airport to find a ballot carrying such names.

In Texas we are going to vote for the man who will gather up all the plunder Harry and his gang have taken, and return it to rightful owners.

CONFESSES—Ray E. Farmer, 26-year-old "salesman" who was fired by Brink's Inc. two years ago for allegedly associating with members of a teenage group called the "pimple-faced gang", has confessed to the robbery of one of the company's armored trucks of $65,000 in Washington, D. C. After night-long questioning, Farmer led officers to the spot in the woods near an amusement park where he had hidden the money in a canvas bag. (NEA Telephoto).

Hobbs Family Is Presented Many Fine Gifts

Information concerning donations to the J. C. Hobbs family reached us early today. The people of Eastland has responded again, and much happiness is noted. No individual has been untidly taxed, but the family in question has many things to be thankful for.

According to Mrs. Johnnie Aaron, many gifts have been received. Clothing, bedding, covers, dishes, cooking utensils, and similar items have been coming in from day to day. Friendship Class of First Christian Church, sent in $7.00 Tuesday, and the ladies said they had other items to be delivered later.

It now appears that the children will be enabled to start to school on September, 2nd.

Right now there is desperate need for a few straight chairs, and a dresser or chest of drawers of some kind. Such items are likely found in store rooms, garages, etc., and while they are not doing owners any good, they would be welcomed by this family.

Call the Telegram or Mrs. Johnnie Aaron, and let us know what you have.

New Price Chief Will Fet Women's Prize Viewpoint

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (UP)—Tighe E. Woods said he will consult American housewives before making any decisions in his new job as price stabilizer. Woods, who will step down as rent stabilizer, told a reporter the "consumer's viewpoint" will help him handle such "big issues" as how to control prices, effects of the steel price increase on the nation's economy, and how the recent drought will affect food prices.

These are the principal issues on which Ellis Arnall, the outgoing price chief, has clashed with other administration officials. "My feeling is that people generally realize the danger of a constantly-rising cost of living," Woods said, "but it's like the weather. Everybody talks about it but no one seems to know what to do about it."

Woods said he would confer with Arnall Wednesday or Thursday and then take a month to "get acquainted" with his new job and take a trip to "talk with consumers and learn the ideas the public has about price controls."

THE GENERAL MARCHES—Gen. Dwight Eisenhower waves as he heads the Kansas delegation of the American Legion as the Legionnaires begin their 10 hour long parade in New York. Eisenhower, in his address to the Legion convention, said his aim was "to end corruption in public office, at every level of government." (NEA Telephoto).

Two Government Departments Work Stevenson Tideland Plan

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (UP)—Staff experts of two government departments and a Senate committee already are working on Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson's proposal for legislation to settle the tidelands oil dispute, it was learned Wednesday.

The Democratic presidential nominee announced last week and that he opposes state ownership of the oil-rich submerged coastal lands because the Supreme Court has ruled the federal government has "paramount rights" to them. He called the legislation "mindful" of both state and federal interests to administer the lands and distribute revenues from their oil.

Staff members of the Interior and Justice Departments and the Senate Interior committee promptly started "exploratory conferences" to see what sort of compromise could be worked out.

Will Be Prepared
One participant, who declined to be quoted by name, said the purpose was to "be prepared" in case Stevenson wins the presidency.

He said the staff conferences are discussing the possibility of giving the coastal states a share in control of the submerged lands and a bigger cut of the oil revenues than federal control bills previously have proposed. An estimated $40 billion worth of oil reserves lie off the shores of Texas, Louisiana and California.

Meanwhile, Sen. Allen J. Ellender D-La. said he will introduce another state ownership bill when the new Congress convenes in January. President Truman vetoed a similar measure last May.

Says He Assured Louisianans
Ellender said Stevenson's stand on the tidelands issue "seriously jeopardizes his chance of carrying Louisiana." He said the Democratic nominee's statement "will cause a lot of people to vote for General Eisenhower," but that it is to early to predict which man will win in Louisiana.

Ellender said he will vote for Stevenson even though he disagrees with the governor on the tidelands issue.

"I'm a Democrat," he said.

Husband Advised To Be Patient With "Trouble"

CHICAGO, Aug. 27 (UP)—Circuit Judge Leonard C. Reid advised Roger R. Hathorn, 27, an unhappy husband, to be more patient, even though his mother-in-law had over-extended her visit.

"Be nice to her," Reid said. "She might move out voluntarily."

Hathorn's 22-year-old wife, Kathryn, had sued for support payments for herself and their 10-month old baby as a result of the marital rift caused by the extended visit.

Gov. Gordon Browning of Tennessee permitted the composer to attend the centennial celebration at Big Spring where his work was given its premier performance. Browning later pardoned Grandstaff.

Here when witnesses identified him as the man who broke into a west side apartment. He told the court Tuesday that a movie company is planning a film based on his life with Henry Fonda playing the title role.

LIST HEADED BY SHIVERS AS GOP MOVES FOR DEMO BALLOTS

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 27 (UP)—Texas Republicans made it painless Wednesday for the traditionally doggedly-Democratic Lone Star state to pick Dwight D. Eisenhower for president and still "vote 'er straight."

In an unprecedented action, the GOP at its state convention unanimously embraced the entire state Democratic ticket of 15 nominees, headed by dissident Democratic Gov. Allan Shivers.

It also includes Attorney General Price Daniel, the U. S. senatorial nominee, who earlier this week urged a Texas "revolt" against national party candidates and leaders and selection of a double set of presidential electors—one set pledged to Eisenhower—for the Democratic column on the general election ballot.

By "cross-filing" the entire Democratic state ticket, the Republicans took advantage of a new Texas law permitting listing of a candidate on the November general election ballot as the nominee of more than one party.

Candidate May Refuse
Unless a Democratic nominee for state office specifically withdraws as a Republican nominee within 20 days, his name will appear on election day in both the GOP and Democratic columns.

If a Democrat does not choose to run for the GOP, the Republican executive committee was empowered to choose another nominee for the post.

Acceptance or rejection of the bid to be Republicans, too, was expected from the Democrats Sept. 9, when they hold their state convention at Amarillo.

The "New Guard" GOP, swept to power in Texas with Eisenhower at Chicago, smoothly engineered the cross-filing at the closing session of the Republican convention Tuesday.

Try For GOP Texas
It was an admitted effort to lure to the Republican column Texas voters who only once in history have voted Republican, for Herbert Hoover against Al Smith in 1928.

The tidelands controversy did much to spur the Republican action.

Shivers flew to Springfield, Ill., last Saturday in a last attempt to Gov. Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee, to the Texas viewpoint on tidelands.

Shivers was rebuffed by Stevenson, who said further he would, as President Truman twice has done, veto any legislation returning tidelands to the states.

Both Shivers and Daniel since

Texas To Keep Fame, Fish Data

AUSTIN, Aug.—The Executive Secretary of the Game & Fish Commission said arrangements are being made to make a record of unusual specimens of wild game and fish harvested in Texas.

He said cooperation of individuals, sportsmen's clubs, newspapers, radio stations and other facilities will be recruited to provide a permanent, accurate file of the rare specimens.

The Executive Secretary said the plan, which is the outgrowth of a suggestion formally submitted to the Commission by Kenneth Force, outdoor editor of the Dallas News, will be valuable for several reasons.

"It will be designed primarily to provide maximum pleasure for the hunter or fisherman harvesting the biggest trophy," he explained. "But, if the system can be established on an accurate basis, much vital information will be obtained for Game Commission purposes."

"We know that some species change over the years. Some become larger, others become smaller. This method may enable us to expand present facilities for keeping tab of periodic changes. The Commission personnel now uses available data showing trends in game management routine."

The Executive Secretary said present plans are to chronicle practically every kind of species encountered by hunters and fishermen. For example, extraordinary game fish and rough fish catches alike would be registered.

He said present plans are to set up the system through distribution of literature in time for the main fall hunting season.

WEEKLY WILDLIFE WISDOM

Funds for wildlife restoration work in Texas for years have been attributed to the Pittman Robertson Act. This Federal law levies a special tax on sporting arms and ammunition. Another measure, the Digell-Johnson Act, which similarly taxes sports fishing equipment, helps improve fishing. The different states get back the amount collected from their sportsmen through the taxes. It is allocated to the state on the basis of the number of licenses sold and also on the basis of the state's area. The money reimburses states for Federal-aid approved projects. Three dollars of the Federal-assigned money is allowed to every $1 of state game department funds advanced for the particular purpose.

Personal Loan Plan Popular In State of Texas

Nearly 100 per cent of the San Antonians answering a recent mail poll, involving thousands of small loan borrowers, said that the charges for personal loans obtained under the conditions provided by Senate Bill 339, the new Texas lending law, were satisfactory, according to Leo Brewer, San Antonio attorney.

"Nearly all the borrowers reported that the charge for personal loans under the new Act, which is the discount, or flat dollar charge method, is satisfactory," Brewer said. "Nearly all of the borrowers stated they would continue to borrow in the future, if and when necessary, with lenders who offer the services provided by the new Texas discount lending law," he declared.

"The new lending law," Brewer explained, "because effective in September 1951. Since then, statewide inquiries to tens of thousands of small loan borrowers have revealed that Texans overwhelmingly favor this new Act which provides for examination of all lenders by the State Department of Banking."

Notice

I wish to correct the rumor in Eastland about the McGough Springs failing and salty. It is untrue.

I lived there for 30 years and it has never failed. The stream has gotten clogged up so bad the water is backing over the spring, but there is about a four inch stream and it has not been cared for and has been leased for stock and grass for the past four years. The water is there and always will be and it has been analyzed at Austin and rated 98 percent.

The old place is highly valued by the family and they don't appreciate such untrue rumors. Signed the McGough family.

The game warden emphasized that summertime docility of male deer usually turns into dangerous hostility by fall.

He suggested it might be well for all concerned that this buck begin showing wariness before the big game hunting season. "I shudder to think what might happen," said Warden Shaw, "if some buck-fever victim should wake up in his tent some November night and find this 10 point rack in his sack."

Modern Times Billy The Kid Loses In Court

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27 (UP)—A modern day "Billy the Kid" who killed six persons, was one step closer to execution Wednesday after California's Supreme Court turned down a plea for reversal of his conviction.

The court Tuesday ruled against William E. Cook, 24-year-old

Joplin, Mo., dishwasher's helper, condemned to die for the Jan. 6, 1951, robbery-killing of Robert H. Dewey, of Seattle, Wash., on a southern California desert highway.

Cook, who was nicknamed "Billy the Kid", during his killing rampage last year, claimed his prosecutors stirred up "public wrath" against him during his trial in El Centro, Calif.

He had pleaded not guilty by reason of insanity, but the seven judge court Tuesday said "the verdict that he was sane at the time of the homicide is amply supported by the evidence."

At the time of the Dewey killing, Cook was the object of a nation-wide police search as the kidnap-slayer of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mosser, Atwood, Ill., and their three children.

The bodies of the Mosser family were found in an abandoned mine shaft near Cook's home.

During his flight, Cook kidnaped a Plythe, Calif., sheriff's deputy, stole his official car, and left him tied up by the side of the road.

He later kidnaped two El Centro men and held them for eight days, freeing them at Baja, Calif.

Police captured the desperado in a Santa Rosalia, Mex., cafe after an intensive search of the Southwest.

Cook is now in San Quentin prison's death row awaiting execution. Besides the death sentence, he received jail sentences totaling 300 years for kidnap.

Squalls Show No New Signs Of Hurricanes

MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 27 (UP)—The pack of squalls forming 1952's first big tropical storm drifted sluggishly through the Atlantic Wednesday, showing no fresh sign of becoming a full-blown hurricane.

Weather bureau reports indicated its "eye" still lacked sharpness characteristic of a true hurricane and its winds, seeded at 55-mile per hour gale force, had but little organized circular movements.

The Miami weather bureau located the poorly defined center of the squally area at about 250 miles northeast of San Juan, Puerto Rico, and said it was slowly moving westward.

The weather bureau predicted the continued movement toward west or northwest at about eight miles per hour, with little change in intensity.

Its present direction threatened no land area but in a report from the weather bureau Tuesday three ships were said to be in the storm's path. They were not believed in danger.
