D. Hromas Runs Away With Contest Cash

Former Bovinan Darren Hromas, now of Tomball, Texas, won first place in week four of the Bovina Blade Football Contest. He and seven other contestants correctly picked eleven of fourteen games. The Dallas 12-Oakland 13 tie-breaker score was only thirteen points off his guess of Dallas 19-Oakland 19. This earned him $20.

Games Hromas missed were Arkansas-Alabama, Baltimore-Cincinnati and New York Giants-San Diego games.

Virginia Steele followed close behind with her tie-breaker score guess that was only fifteen points off the final score. She won second place and $10 for her efforts.

Jason Kerby, Doyle Garner and Gilda Garner all were sixteen points off the tie-breaker score. They share the third place spot and each earned $5. This was the second week in a row for the Garner husband-wife team to split third place.

Other contestants who guessed eleven games but missed out on the weekly cash were Kay Roach, Jake Steelman and Glenden Sudderth.

Fifteen contestants correctly guessed ten of fourteen games. They were Rick Anderson, Elida Arce, Ronnie Cary, Blake Clements, Al Kerby Jr., Jeanne Kerby, Susan Kerby, Jeff Procter, Jerry Roach, Janie Sherbon, Christen Stowers, Janie Sudderth, Jan Smith, Chris Shufelberger, and Frances Willard.

Scott Sudderth is joined this week in the lead for the grand prize of $150. Doyle and Gilda Garner and last week's first place winner, Jan Smith, each have 41 total points. This is the first week Scott has had company in this distinguished spot. Look out Scott!

Josh Kerby, J.T. and Jerry Roach, Virginia Steele, Christen and Dorothy Stowers and Glenden Sudderth all have 40 points.

A list of contestants' scores can be found elsewhere in this issue and at the Bovina Blade office.

Contestants have nine more weeks left to build their scores for a chance at the glory of being the Grand Prize Winner. You'll keep picking and we'll keep writing the checks!

THERE'S GOOD NEWS AND BAD NEWS. Okay, the good news first. Did you hear that the House of Representatives in Washington voted us a tax cut last week? Wow! This bill is designed to benefit families with incomes under $75,000.

The tax cut would raise the standard deduction for married taxpayers who pay more than they would if they were single. This is called the "marriage penalty."

Self-employed folks, small-business operators and farmers could take 100 per cent deductions for those expensive health insurance premiums.

The new tax cut would exempt the first $200 that individuals earn from interest and dividends on their savings accounts. About 32 million people would no longer have to pay any tax on their savings. I think it is really irritating to squeeze out a few dollars to put in savings (this is salary money that has already been taxed) and then when the savings earns a small pittance of interest, you get taxed on that, too.

Current tax-exempt status for public college tuition would be extended to include private colleges and universities. Also school districts would be allowed to keep more bond proceeds for construction purposes.

Income averaging for farmers, which lets them smooth out income ups and downs, would be made permanent.

"Republicans believe that Americans have worked hard for their money and deserve to keep as much of it as possible," says Speaker Newt Gingrich, R-Georgia.

Bill Archer, R-Texas, notes "For 40 years we squandered people's taxes and increased spending the Democrats' way. Now it's our turn. It's time to reduce the size of government and let people keep some of the tax dollars that belong to them."

The BAD NEWS is, the bill needs 60 votes in the Senate to pass and there are only 55 Republicans there. Even if it squeaks by the Senate, that horny hillbilly who occupies the oval office has promised to veto the bill.

The Dems are claiming that the tax cuts would undermine the projected Social Security surplus. Under existing projections, Social Security is predicted to go into the red 34 years from now. But Archer, who is chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, says with our $1.6 trillion budget surplus over the next ten years, we can afford both a long-term fix for Social Security plus some immediate tax relief for lower-income tax payers.

They're talking about raising the minimum wage again, which just makes it harder for young people to get a start in the work force, and of course postage is going to go up again, so we really need all the help we can get in the way of tax relief.

The grade school teacher was trying to teach her students the value of money. She took a half dollar from her purse and laid it out on the desk. "Can any of you tell me what this is?" she asked.

From the rear of the room came the voice of a small student: "It's tails!"

County Welfare Board Fights Child Abuse

The Parmer County Child Welfare Board works closely with the Texas Department of Protective and Regulatory Services known as Child Protection Services. In meeting our goals we meet with the caseworkers on an ongoing basis to be sure that all children in foster care are having their needs met and that all children are safe.

Texas Law requires anybody who believes that a child has been or may be abused or neglected to make a report to the Child Protective Services (CPS) program of the Texas Department of Protective and Regulatory Services or to a law enforcement agency. The law requires Child Protective Services to investigate all reports of child abuse or neglect for the primary purpose of protecting children.

The child Protective Service program receives, investigates, and assesses reports of child abuse and neglect by parents, family, friends or household members. CPS offers services after investigations if: children are not immediately safe from abuse or neglect; or a reasonable likelihood exists that children will be abused or neglected in the foreseeable future and families have demonstrated that they cannot control factors placing children at risk or abuse or neglect.

If needed, services are offered to parents to help them solve their problems and learn how to care for and discipline their children in ways that do not harm them or place them at risk of abuse or neglect. These services may include counseling, day care, homemaker, evaluation and treatment, and parenting training.

Foster families are always needed. A specific training program is in place in Amarillo to train families so that children can be placed with them. We currently have two families in Friona, Parmer County. They are the Jose Chico family and the Raymonds.

Parmer County Child Welfare Board Members are available for programs to the community and churches. Also the Child Protective Services Caseworkers are available for programs within our county.

Child Protective Service's office is in Hereford and the caseworkers cover Parmer, Deaf Smith and Oldham Counties. The current caseworkers are Ben Larson, Ron Campbell and Amy Rodriguez.

THE CHILD ABUSE HOT LINE PHONE NUMBER IS 1-800-252-5400.

Remember that our children today are our future tomorrow.

For any information locally you may contact any Parmer County Child Welfare Board member: Jo Blackwell, Ann Norton, Bonnie Clayton, Tonya Gober, Porter Roberts, Peggy Monroe or Carla Kaltwasser.

"What's A Guy Gotta' Do To Get An Award?"

They sat out there on 14th Street between Walnut and Cemetery Road for years without much attention.

It appeared to be a small ghost town. A once thriving 60-unit apartment complex, divided into north and south buildings with a two-story unit of one bedrooms on the east side, now sat dilapidated.

It was called Saratoga Gardens, but even the sign had run down. Windows were broken, years of roof leaks had rotted the interiors, and of course vandals had done their handiwork too.

I talked to some folks around here that lived in the apartments in the early '70s. They said they were really nice apartments then, full of young couples and friendly folks.

There were 60 apartment units but only one electric meter. Electricity and water was included in the monthly rent back then.

It was before the energy crisis of the mid-70s, when electric bills didn't take 25% of a weekly paycheck.

Old-timers say that the apartments went downhill as renters began to abuse the property. In some of the units, two or three families moved in for periods of time.

A certain rowdiness among tenants started to drive non-rowdy tenants away. One old-timer told me that since utilities were included, people would turn the air-conditioner down low and open their upstairs windows.

When someone else is paying the bills, well you know, people often become uncivilized. If you have ever been a landlord, I guess you already know that.

A lot of people, including me, would drive by the rundown property and think "that is a shame. Somebody ought to do something with those apartments." In the meantime, trash piled up, weeds grew, and the roof continued to leak.

Nobody seemed to know who owned the property. It changed hands a few times and folks lost track of the owners. Or just didn't care.

If you have moved to Friona recently, like I did 3 1/2 years ago, you know that finding a place to rent can be a problem. But renovating the old Saratoga Gardens complex would be a big problem that most investors would not want to tackle.

Enter Paul and Diane Sullivan of Southlake, Texas. They should get an award from the Chamber of Commerce or the Friona Economic Development Council or the Mayor and City Council. Here's the background.

Paul Sullivan makes a living buying, remodeling, and selling older houses. He started parttime when he was in graduate school at North Texas University in Denton, after graduating from Texas Tech.

Most of his work has been in the Dallas, Grand Prairie, north Texas, Ft. Worth areas. He does the construction work and wife Diane helps with bookkeeping and decorating.

At any one time, the New Mexico native says, he has 10-12 projects under construction.

He had never ventured far from his Southlake home area until a friend in Hereford told him about this long dormant property in Friona.

Not really interested, but always open to a good deal, Paul finally located the owner and made him an offer, which was rejected. But tax problems and cash flow forced the owner to negotiate and in 1996, Paul and Diane Sullivan bought the property.

He tried to get a federal HUD backed loan, but the bureaucracy, paperwork, and endless delay caused him to drop HUD and go to Plan B. One concern from HUD, he said, was that they didn't think the property could stay open and occupied if something happened to Excel.

He talked briefly with banks in Friona and Hereford, before landing financing to purchase the apartments through an Amarillo Bank. But buying the units was only the start. In early 1997, Paul came to Friona to assess the damages and begin remodeling. He had to replace all the wiring because it was aluminum wire.

He had to arrange with SPS to meter the apartments separately so renters would have to pay their own electric bills. And set individual gas meters with Energas for each unit too.

He found out he couldn't do individual water meters since there are two main water lines under the foundations of the buildings and they couldn't be torn up.

When he turned the water on at the property after all those years, there were numerous leaks from rotten pipes, so he had to replace most of the plumbing.

Interiors had long since rotted too from leaking roofs and neglect. As local electricians replaced wiring, local carpenters replaced all the sheetrock in every unit, replaced most flooring, and rebuilt stairs. (Most of the units' bedrooms are upstairs).

Early on he was discovered using what the city considered an unlicensed plumber and fined $1,500. He says the plumber was recommended to him and he didn't think to check for licenses.

He put new, sloped metal roofs on the buildings. A Panhandle wind storm ripped one of them off not long after it was finished.

He had a $5,000 riding mower stolen even though it was chained to a steel pole at the apartments. He replaced shrubs and replanted the yard. He resurfaced the parking lots and put up new fences.

Then, as construction was completed, he invested in new appliances. All 60 units got a new refrigerator, air conditioner, stove, and 48 out of the 60 got new water heaters.

Every unit also got new carpet and paint. The name was changed to Cottonwood Townhomes and the leasing finally began two years after he bought the place.

He did not want to reveal the purchase price of the rundown apartments. What he did say was that all the improvements we listed above, the repairs and remodeling, came to more than $700,000.

A quarter of a million dollar investment in Friona should get a guy some recognition. At least he should be invited to speak at the Lion's Club or something.

Instead, he made two or three special trips to Friona to negotiate with the city council who wanted to assess him $750 a month for trash dumpsters and $10 per unit for sewer.

He says they worked it out and he has a "deal" he is satisfied with.

Now all he needs to start recouping some of the $700,000 investment is renters. He has marketed his apartments in Friona, Clovis, Hereford, and at Excel.

Leasing has been slower than he thought, but today he has about 20 units rented and lots of people looking. Rent is $298 for one-bedroom, $390 for two- and $436 for 3-bedrooms.

You can get more information by calling 250-5288. Holly Campbell will answer that number. Paul hired her as leasing agent. Paul hired and paid many Friona people during the remodeling.

That is the kind of fellow he is, a heck of a nice young man with a heck of a lot of money invested here.

If you see him around, tell him thanks. It may be the only award he gets.

PAUL & DIANE SULLIVAN have spent almost $1 million in Friona. Shown here in one of their furnished model apartments, now they would like to start earning it back. See Ron Carr's Out Here column for details.

Panhandle leads in farm income

IRRIGATION is a significant contributing factor toward high crop yields in the Texas Panhandle, which led the state in farm income from 1994 to 1996. Fifty counties throughout the state produced 83 percent of Texas' agricultural income, with an annual statewide average of $2.38 billion from 1994-96.

423 Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN ZEHTI

This is a dramatized version of facts taken from the book of I Samuel intending to show some of the customs of these ancient and traditional times

DAVID'S fighting courage
DAVID IS PREPARING FOR A BATTLE WITH THE PHILISTINES, IN WHICH HE IS GREATLY OUTNUMBERED—AND IN WHICH KING SAUL HOPES DAVID WILL BE KILLED....

IF WE STAND TO FIGHT THE PHILISTINES ON THIS GENTLE SLOPE, O' DAVID, WE WILL BE OVER RUN BY THEIR VAST NUMBERS!

NO, NOW! DO WE NOT FIGHT THE BATTLE FOR THE LORD? WILL NOT THE LORD GIVE US STRENGTH AND WISDOM TO PREVAIL?!

HERE, ALONG THIS RIDGE, WILL WE DIG A PIT TO HIDE MOST OF OUR MEN FROM THE EYE OF THE ENEMY?

LATER... NOW, OUR SHARP-EYED ARCHERS SHALL HIDE IN THIS PIT, WHILE THE REST OF US WILL STAND AT THE FOOT OF THE SLOPE!

WHEN THE PHILISTINE SEES OUR MEAGER NUMBERS, HE SHALL BECOME AS A BOLD LION WHICH RUNNETH AFTER THE LAMB!

BUT WHEN I CAUSE A BLAST TO BE BLOWN ON THE HORN—THEN EVERY MAN AND HIS BROTHER WHICH FLEEETH BEFORE THE ENEMY SHALL FALL TO THE EARTH AND THE ARCHERS WILL ARISE FROM THEIR PIT TO GREET THE PHILISTINE WITH THE SHARP ARROWS OF THE LORD!

AND SO IT COMES TO PASS, AS THE PHILISTINE HORDE ADVANCES OVER THE COUNTRYSIDE....

BEHOLD! ISRAELITES! HOW FEW THEIR NUMBERS! HOW EASY TO SLAUGHTER!

Next Week - The battle

Scooter's Scoops

By SCOOTER RUSSELL

It was a surprise when the last of summer was so chilly. We were in Spearman that day and the high there was only 48 degrees and the wind and drizzle caused the chill factor to be 29 degrees. It did rain and drizzle there all day and it was much needed.

Reports from Amarillo were only 55 for a high. They also reported that this had been the hottest, deadliest and costliest summer that Texas had ever experienced. 131 people died from the heat.

Dean McCallum had bypass surgery on his heart last April and had to enter the hospital again week before last. His daughter-in-law said he had ademia caused from the by-pass surgery and was only observed and examined. He can be treated with medication and is getting along well. He had the open heart surgery on Tuesday of last week and was released on Friday.

down south. Krysta's twin brother, Aaron, is a student at Texas Tech.

Some of our people have been to beautiful South Fork, Colorado on vacation. They were Sam and Shirley Garrison, Dick and Mary Steelman, Vi and Gene Hutto and they are joined by former Bovina residents, Eugene and Molly Griffin.

Each of them had their campers and enjoyed sightseeing, visiting, and Dickie fished. They went to Lake City one day and to Pagosa Springs, Colorado.

Shirley said the weather was pleasant and the aspens were beginning to turn.

Evelyn Vineyard of Glenrose, Texas, has been in Bovina visiting with her brothers, Eddie Gayle and Dickie Steelman and their families. She also had a good visit with her dad, Amos Steelman.

Our family celebrated our granddaughter Jamie Kunselman's 16th birthday with a meal and birthday cake in Spearman on September 22, (last day of summer) and it was very cold this year!

Don and Juanda Murphy will be celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary on October 10, with a reception in their honor.

Congratulations to two fine people! We love you.

SMILE: A couple of country fishermen were lying about their catches. "And what was your haul, Bill?" asked one.

"Haven't caught anything worth mentioning?" "No," said Bill. "The only one I caught was too small to take home, so I got a couple of fellows to help me throw it back in."

Thanks for helping with the Scoops...Scooter.

IT WAS A CRAZY week around school. Every day was designated with a special theme. Here, middle school teacher Peggy Arnold, and students Flor Sanchez and Sandra Guevara, get in the homecoming spirit during crazy hat & crazy hair day.

DR. SUESS CHARACTERS.....These characters are really eighth graders Mike Olvera and Sergio Antillon who were decked out in the spirit of "crazy hat" day this week during homecoming fun.

KATY THE CONEHEAD.....This pretty little miss is not really a conehead. First grader Katy Chavez went to great lengths to participate in the "crazy hair" day during homecoming week.

ENJOYING HOMECOMING Parents Night were BHS cheerleader Yvette Marquez with her sister Emily Barraza and her mother Myrna Barraza.

Gaylon Rhodes' mother, Maybian Rhodes of Friona had congestive heart failure and had to have a stint put in an artery. She was a patient at the Baptist St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo from Wednesday of last week until this past Tuesday. She is getting along real well, according to her daughter-in-law, Shelby Rhodes of Bovina.

Jim and I are great grandparents of our fifth baby, Billy Anthony, born September 9, in California. His parents are Jason and Sandi Griffin of San Jose, California. They have two daughters, Kaitlyn who is almost three years old and Ivy, who is seventeen months. We're proud of our little "B.A."

Delphia Vinson was hospitalized for six weeks in Lubbock with problems from diabetes. She is back in the nursing home there and friends said she is unresponsive and her condition is serious.

Ophelia and Kenneth Estes are now in Bovina and family members said Ophelia is working at the school cafeteria. We understand Kenneth and son Lance brought the Estes' daughter, Krysta and her new baby boy to Bovina and her husband will soon be moving when he finishes his work
