

The National Safety Council says the straight and narrow path can lead to trouble: Seventy-seven per cent of the fatal motor vehicle accidents last year occurred on straight roads, according to the 1953 edition of "Accident Facts," the Safety Council's statistical yearbook.

Unfavorable road conditions, such as wet, muddy, snowy or icy surface, were reported in only one of five fatal accidents.

From the same source we learned that last year no less than 8,600 Americans literally walked themselves to death. They were pedestrians killed in motor vehicle accidents. Pedestrian deaths were higher among city dwellers, and more than 3,000 were more than 65 years of age.

Only one in every 12 had physical defect, such as defective hearing, eyesight or illness.

Not a very pretty picture for the reckless driver.

The Armistice has been signed, and firing has ceased on the Korean front, yet this news did not thrill America as did the armistice in 1918.

Months and even years have been spent on this armistice, and both contending factions have been giving and taking. The best we can see for it is that firing has ceased while discussions follow.

President Rhee of South Korea is bitterly opposed to it, though he has promised to abide by its terms, for the present, but doesn't promise to do so at a later date.

Three Games Scheduled By Pierson Rockets

Don Pierson's Rockets are to have a heavy schedule this week. Not satisfied with just an occasional game, the boys this week have arranged for at least three battles, and the week is still young.

All games this week will be played at Fireman's Field in Eastland.

Tuesday night Olden Hornets are coming over, and this may be a real honest to goodness game. The Hornets were defeated by the Rockets last week, but they gave a good account of themselves, and a win is entirely possible.

On Thursday the Rockets will meet the Abilene Wheaties from Abilene. We have never seen this team in action, so just see for yourselves what they really have.

Friday night Gorman will be over with her all-star team, and if you attend you will get your money's worth.

City Manager Rotary Guest

While attendance was just a little off at the Rotary luncheon this week, probably due to vacation season, a splendid meeting was held.

President Cyrus Frost was in Colorado and unable to attend, so Roland Phillips served as pinch hitter. It was Dr. Caton's program, but he had as his guest and speaker for the day our new City Manager, E. A. Taylor.

Mr. Taylor gave us his first impressions of Eastland, and they were good. He says the city is in good shape financially, and that considerable improving may be expected in the very near future.

Among other things to be given consideration will be our city park. The swimming pool and other things out there need to be brightened up after standing idle for a year or so during the drought.

Street work was also mentioned, and the Manager and City Council are working on this right now. Maybe, before the close of the summer, we may see the street program well under way.

All of his remarks had a tone of progress, and our future at this time is bright.

Rotary District Governor Is To Visit Eastland

The Rotary Club of Eastland August 3, will be host to Grady Halbert, Governor of the 186th District of Rotary International, who is making his annual official visit to each of the thirty one Rotary Clubs in District 186. He will confer with President Cyrus B. Frost, Jr., Secretary Bill Brown, Jr., and other local officers on Rotary administration and service activities at a Club Assembly to be held on the morning of August 3. He will address the club at its regular noon meeting.

Mr. Halbert is a farmer in Ford County and is a member of the Rotary Club of Crowell. He was elected District Governor of Rotary International for 1953-54 fiscal year at the annual Rotary Convention in Paris, France, last May. He is one of the 212 District Governors supervising the activities of some 8,000 Rotary Clubs which have a membership of 372,000 business and professional executives in 86 countries and geographical regions throughout the world.

Wherever Rotary Clubs are located, their activities are similar to those of the Rotary Club of Eastland because they are based on the same general objectives—developing better understanding and fellowship among business and professional men, promoting community-betterment, undertaking, raising the standards of business and professions, and fostering the advancement of good will, understanding and peace among all the peoples of the world.

Each year this world-wide service organization continues to grow in numbers and in strength. During the past fiscal year, for example, 217 new Rotary Clubs were organized in 42 countries of North, South and Central America, Europe, Asia, Africa, and the Islands of the Pacific.

EDUCATED FAMILY

Beef Is Question Mark—

Food Prices At 1950 Level

Housewives in the Eastland County vicinity can now buy a standard list of 28 grocery items for the same total price she paid just before the Korean War started—more than three years ago.

At least, that's the finding as a result of a spot-check of area grocers today.

True, only a few of the individual items cost the same. Most have gone up, and a few down. But those that went down—mainly beef—have been steep cuts. And the market basket of twenty-eight items averages $11.72, the same price as before the war.

How long the "beef bargain" will remain so is, of course, a big question. Cattle raisers, commission men, slaughterers and wholesale and retail meat handlers in the Eastland County area describe the beef market in one word: "unsettled."

The big drop in beef prices came about three weeks ago in the midst of drought talk. Then came the promise of federal aid to cattlemen, and some prices shot up again.

"The aid was a little slow in coming," said one grocer, "and there was rain in some parts, so prices took another little drop. Now producers are waiting on the help to come, and buyers are waiting on the producers."

Peef is still "a pretty good buy," he added.

Choice, heavy beef round steak, for instance, was selling as low as 79c a pound. Club steaks were down about 10c a pound lower than last month—and 32c a pound lower than on the eve of the Korean war. Even ground meat cost 21c a pound less than it did before Korea. And calf chuck roasts were as little as 33c a pound, a price that one industry spokesman called "unusually low."

With heavy shipments of live stock to market every day, beef was definitely still "a buyers' market." But housewives were warned that when the federal aid program takes effect "it will start the ball rolling upward in many cuts."

The $11.72 average price for the twenty-eight grocery items today was the lowest since the $11.50 total March 7, when the total actually fell below pre-Korean levels. Since the year's peak in June, the total has dropped 60c.

And housewives can buy the whole pack for $1.10 less than she did in July of last year.

The food surveys, made regularly by this newspaper since the Korean war, show the peak of $13.57 was reached in October, 1951. Today's totals were $1.85 lower.

Only three items: Milk, lemons and toilet soap, averaged the same price that they did before Korea. Eggs averaged 27c a dozen higher; coffee was up 14c a pound; bacon, up 31c a pound. These sharp increases were offset by such reductions as 30c a pound in seven roasts and liver; 22c a pound in T-bone steaks, and 7c a pound in margarine.

Stephenville Production Credit Annual Met To Be Held August 1

The annual meeting of the stockholders of Stephenville Production Credit will be held at the City Recreation Hall in Stephenville the morning of August 4th at 9:30 a.m. This will be the twentieth meeting of the association which was chartered in February of 1933.

The Eastland County program committee composed of Lou Horn, Vernon Humphreys, C. M. McCain, Travis Parmer and K. M. Turner have worked up an interesting and different type program for the current meeting. One outstanding attraction will be a free movie featuring Gene Autrey at one of the Stephenville theaters for all children of the association stockholders.

Another added attraction will be prizes for wives of the members who are present during the drawing at the morning hour of the session.

The three year term of Director R. Cal McCurdy of Wise County will expire at this meeting. The stockholders will hear a report from the nominating committee, and then cast their vote for one stockholder to serve on the board of directors for the next three years. The nominating committee from Eastland County is H. Durham.

The annual barbecue dinner will be served by a Fort Worth catering service and the Texo Hired Hands will be on hand during the dinner hour. During the registration hour from 8:30 to 9:30 Eddie Ray Seals and Joe Sones, better known as "Glem and Ears", will render musical entertainment for the pleasure of the stockholders.

In a Nutshell Rain? Maybe Hot? Sizzling!

The weather story today is the same old story.

The U. S. Weather Bureau—as usual—forecast hot, clear to partly cloudy . . . and . . . the possibility of needed rains for the Eastland County vicinity Tuesday and Wednesday.

The mercury—both days—is due to swoop up into the top 90s and possibly will hit the sweltering 100-degree level.

Tonight's coolest reading on area thermometers will be about 70 degrees.

The North Central and West Texas forecast of the Weather Bureau experts calls for partly cloudy Tuesday and Wednesday, with widely scattered afternoon and evening thundershowers. Not much change in temperature.

Mrs. Barber, 68, Dies Monday; To Be Buried Today

Mrs. Mary Effie Barber, 68, wife of Robert P. Barber, passed away at the family home in Eastland Monday, July 27, following an illness of many months duration. Funeral services will be conducted this afternoon at 5:30 p.m. from the Hamner Funeral Chapel, with Rev. Jack C. Oglesby, pastor of First Methodist Church in charge. Interment will be in Eastland cemetery immediately after the service.

Mrs. Barber had been in ill health for some time, and only recently spent several weeks in a hospital. She had been living in and around Eastland for almost sixty years, and had a great host of friends. Many of these she had known for half a century or more.

Survivors include her husband, Robert P. Barber of the home address in Eastland, a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Alford, and two grandsons, Norman Lee and Jerry Lynn, all of Eastland, as well as a large host of other relatives and friends.

Farm Ponds Are Now Being Used, Many Purposes

Farm ponds are wonderful for fishing and fun but they can also be money-makers, says the August issue of Country Gentleman.

A number of fire-insurance companies have recently reduced premium rates for farms on which ponds have been built. Sometimes these reductions run up to 45 per cent. Usually the pond must be no more than 500 feet from the buildings and the fire company pumper must be able to get within 30 feet of the pond.

As a water hole for stock a pond may be worth from $5 to $20 or more per head. Cattlemen have found that a water hole located so that it will save stock an extra mile of travel will also keep them from walking off one-half pound of beef per day in hot weather. Dairymen know that a water supply easily available all the time can mean a difference of 20 per cent in milk production.

As irrigation reservoirs, one-acre ponds in humid regions can be counted on to irrigate 3 to 4 acres of pasture.

NEWSPAPERMEN INVITED TO ATTEND HORNED TOAD DERBY

The newspaperman who made Old Rip world-famous has been invited back to Eastland as guest of honor at the annual Horned Toad Derby, August 8, marking the twenty-fifth anniversary of Rip's emerging from the courthouse cornerstone, alive.

Byce House was editor of the Eastland paper back in 1928 when he learned that a live horned frog had been placed in the courthouse cornerstone in 1897 and he sent out a dispatch. Then some weeks afterward, the old building was torn down and the cornerstone was opened, revealing Old Rip, and it was House who told the world about it.

House has lived in Fort Worth for many years and is a freelance writer. To his credit are articles in the Saturday Evening Post, the motion picture "Boom Town", hundreds of after-dinner speeches, numerous radio and television programs and 12 books, one of them being "I Give You Texas", the No. 1 all-time Texas best seller.

But Eastland remembers him best for his making Old Rip into a Texas legend—hence the invitation to return for the Horned Toad Derby.

On the way he collapsed and was transferred to an ambulance, though he died before reaching the hospital.

SUPPORT PRICES FOR PEANUTS ARE LISTED

In Washington the Agriculture Department today announced minimum levels at which it will support grower prices of 1953-crop peanuts by types and producing areas.

The supports are designed to protect a national average of not less than $237.60 a ton. That figure is 90 per cent of parity April 24, when the minimum national support average was announced.

Should 90 per cent of parity be higher than $237.60 at the start of the marketing year Aug. 1, the support average and the individual support levels for the various types would be increased accordingly.

The minimum supports by type included:

Virginia: $229 a ton for peanuts containing 65 per cent sound nature kernels.

Runners: $213 a ton for peanuts containing 65 per cent sound nature kernels.

Spanish: $230 for peanuts west of the Mississippi containing 70 per cent sound mature kernels.

Valencias: for this type suitable for cleaning and roasting, the same as for Virginia type. Other Valencia-type will be the same as for Spanish.

The cease fire in Korea brought bad news from selective service at Austin to Eastland County and other Texas Eastlands.

Regulations under which fathers will be eligible for the draft Aug. 15 and thereafter were announced by State Director Paul L. Wakefield.

Exempt from the Aug. 25 order will be fathers whose children were conceived before that date, and who make proper certification of the fact to their local boards.

Also exempt will be men who are fathers already, but who must also notify their draft boards of the fact on or before Aug. 25.

Fat fathers of children conceived after Aug. 25 are subject to call, local boards were told. The chance should result in a drop in the number of men under 20 called up.

clothing in time of war than they do during peace times. So there are many angles to be considered, and most anything may happen as most any time. Shortly after the signing our president spoke to the nation. He was encouraged and prayerfully thrilled, yet he told us of storm clouds which might play havoc just a little later. He suggested that we go about our business in the usual manner, and that we pray for the best. We were urged to stay close to God as a nation. We feel that we are right and that in the end may expect aid and comfort from Him. It's too early to begin predictions. Let us watch and pray.

Spotted showers continue to fall in many sections of West Texas, and they are quite welcome, yet so far as we are able to learn, Eastland county is in pretty good shape. It appears that our peanut crop is almost sure to make a good yield, and feed is likely to be plentiful. This could mean an era of prosperity for this section.

We notice quite a bit of high grass and weeds scattered over the city. In fact the grass in our yard was knee high when we came to work today, and may be two or three inches taller before we get in tonight. It has already passed the lawn mower stage, and looks rather snakey. In another week it will be ready for a combine. The wife insists that we harvest this hay right now.

RANCHERS SUFFER, BUT ARE NOT ASKING FEDERAL BAIL-OUT; DEMAND FREE MARKET

"It is heartening that in the face of still-continuing drops in the price of their one cash crop, the beef growers not only failed to shriek for the government to bail them out but have openly declared their intention to stake their futures on the operation of a free market," says an editorial in the current (July 11th) issue of The Saturday Evening Post.

Written by Edmund Christopherson, it points out that the current price slump, the cattlemen's first setback in twelve years of prosperity, began about eighteen months ago. It says that the ranchers were spurred by the continued high beef prices to increase their herds so that the cattle population reached an all-time high and prices began an orderly downward adjustment.

Then came the drought which hit a lot of the grass-feeding areas last summer. The resulting feed shortage caused forced sales of animals that normally would have been carried through the winter.

As an example of the price drop, the editorial cites how two men in Montana recently sold their year's production of coming two-year-old steers, weighing a sleek 900 pounds, for twenty and a half cents a pound. A year before, identical beef from this same cow outfit brought them thirty-one cents a pound, or about ninety-five dollars more per animal.

"Still, in spite of these facts, and intense discussion of them among the stock growers affected," the editorial continues, "not one of the more than a hundred range cattlemen's organizations favors a federal bail-out."

"Never, even in the grim '30's, when prime steers sold for four cents a pound and the government bought, slaughtered and buried range cows, paying three quarters of a cent a pound for animals delivered to the slaughter point, have stockmen sought government supports."

"They reason that along with federal supports they would lose

Antelope Hunt Being Readied

Persons interested in competing for permits to hunt antelope in Texas this fall were advised by the Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission to write for a formal application.

Those writing will receive a blank to be filled out and returned with $5 covering cost of a license. The license money will be refunded to those whose names are not picked in the drawing to be held at the Commission headquarters in Austin early in September.

The Executive Secretary said the applications must be in the Austin headquarters before midnight, Monday, August 31.

Dates for the annual antelope harvest were set by the Commission for October 1 to 6, inclusive, in the Big Bend country and for October 20 through 24 and for October 27 through 31 in the Panhandle.

The Commission estimated the probable harvest of male antelope in the Big Bend at from three hundred to three hundred and fifty and the harvest in the Panhandle at about three hundred bucks. The final license total will depend on surveys now being conducted.

Persons, who are awarded a license through the drawings in Austin make their own arrangements with ranchers who are permitted to charge up to $40 for each licensed hunter.

Kathleen Williamson; P. L. Crossley Repeat Wedding Vows In Childress

High beauty and solemnity characterized the wedding Saturday, July 18 at eight of Miss Kathleen LaVeele Williamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williamson of Childress and Pleasant Lewis Crossley of Eastland. The First Methodist Church was the setting for the nuptials and the wedding guests were received and shown to their seats by ushers who were: C. C. Elliott of Abilene, Marshall Morris of Fort Worth, Glenn Boyd of Dallas, Elbert Johnson of Lubbock, and Dr. Ggo. Roy Spear of Houston.

White standards bearing white tapers and tied with white satin bows starred the ends of the pews marking a pathway for the bridal couple.

Prior to their entrance Mrs. J. B. Johnson, as organist, played nuptial and pre-nuptial music. Mrs. Alvis Maddox sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "The Rosary".

The altar and choir chancel rail presented a breath-taking picture. The chancel rail was banked with plumosa fern. The central arrangement was Holy Cross flanked by many tiered candles which carried the eye to the beautiful arrangement of pink gladioli in basket arrangements. The background was of fern and huge crushed bows of pink satin ribbon centered the gladioli.

Candlelighters entered and were Mrs. Jack Hall, cousin of the bride from Lubbock, and Mrs. Jon Bennett of Fort Worth.

Acting as carpet rollers were Jim Farrell of Amarillo and Gene Hammill of Shamrock.

At the first strains of the wedding march Rev. C. E. Holcomb, Jr., and Dr. E. E. White entered, followed by the groom and his best man, Buddy Barron of Lubbock.

The brides maids entered and were Mrs. Glenn Boyd of Dallas, Mrs. Buddy Barron of Lubbock, matching accessories and wore a white rose corsage.

Immediately following a reception was held at the Childress Country Club. The pink color scheme was seen again in the decorations.

Mrs. Williamson, mother of the bride, presented the young married couple and Mr. and Mrs. Crossley, groom's parents, and members of the wedding party to guests.

Mrs. Charles Armstrong of Dimmit registered the guests in the bride's book which was graced by a crystal vase holding two specimen pink rose buds.

The party table was laid in a cut work cloth over pink. The center mirror held the bride's bouquet which was surrounded with spun sugar roses in pink. Pink tapers in crystal holders flanked the three tiered wedding cake which was decorated with spun sugar roses of pink. The porcelain bride and groom topping the cake stood under a silver tulle which was literally ablaze with tiny sweetheart roses. Mrs. Roy Furr, aunt of the bride of Lubbock and Mrs. Joe B. Mills, cut the cake.

Pink punch was served from the crystal service by Miss Jane Witcher and Miss Gay Parrish of Garland, Texas. Those in the house party were Mrs. John T. Fowler, Charles Churchill, Bert Hargrave, Kenneth Givens, T. E. Carter, Roger Denton, all of Childress; Miss Jeanine Brown of Waco; Miss Dee Dee Claremont and Miss Glenda Beavers of Lubbock; and Scharlyn Daniels of Brownfield.

Assisting in the party service wearing formal could be seen the Misses Ida Lou Anderson, Annette Cochran, Jerry Denton, Linda Carter, Wana Broughton and Sarah Smith.

The bride chose as her going away costume a navy raw silk shantung two piece dress with whirling poka dot trim. Her accessories were bright navy and white. She pinned a corsage of pink sweetheart roses to her shoulder.

Salmon Loaf Is Mealtime Classic

A CLASSIC mealtime favorite, and for good reason, is the Salmon Loaf. Each moist, light-textured slice gives you that delicate, distinctive salmon flavor, captured in convenient, nutritious canned salmon. Canned salmon is a complete protein food to build strong bodies, and full of health-giving vitamins and minerals (vitamins A and D, niacin and riboflavin, calcium and phosphorus). Few other foods offer such an abundance of essential nutrients.

At the same time, canned salmon is an economical food, considering that every ounce of it is solid edible meat and nutritious juices from the fish itself. There's no waste, no commercial oil added.

For a good meal, serve canned salmon loaf with a creamed pea sauce.

Hot Salmon Loaf With Green Pea Sauce

1 1-pound can salmon
1/2 cup evaporated milk
1 cup dry bread stuffing
1 egg, well beaten
1 tablespoon minced parsley
1 small onion, minced
1/2 teaspoon salt
Drain salmon, reserve liquid. Flake salmon. Combine salmon

1/2 teaspoon monosodium glutamate
1/4 teaspoon Tabasco
1 cup well-seasoned medium white sauce
1 cup cooked or canned peas

liquid and evaporated milk; add enough water to make 1 1/4 cups; pour over stuffing; let stand until soft. Combine salmon, stuffing mixture, egg, parsley, onion, salt, monosodium glutamate and Tabasco; mix well. Pack into greased loaf pan 7 1/2 x 3 1/2 x 2 1/2 inches. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) 50 minutes, or until center is firm. Serve with hot white sauce to which peas have been added. Yield: 4 generous servings.

Note: If desired, substitute 2 cups soft bread crumbs for dry bread stuffing. Add 1/4 teaspoon poultry seasoning; omit water.

Cheaney HD Club Meets Thursday

Mrs. Bill Tucker was hostess to the Cheaney Home Demonstration Club Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and also presided over the meeting. Roll call was answered by the members with "my favorite hobby and what it has meant to me."

Mrs. R. W. Gordon demonstrated the tooling of a copper picture. The method is known as antiquing, using a formula of sulphur for acidizing, and then burnishing to a gleaming copper finish, with outlines in a dark, dull oriental tone. When framed, these metal pictures may be adapted to any room, especially one with a western theme.

Crafts will be continued at the next meeting, on August 13, when the club meets with Mrs. Gordon in Ranger. Others interested in crafts are cordially invited to attend.

Sprays Peril Texas Fishes

The Chief Aquatic Biologist of the Game and Fish Commission said the usual summer hot weather hazards to fish are being enhanced by agricultural and livestock sprays.

He said extreme heat and windless days are common dangers to fish, particularly in small, shallow water areas. He advised interested persons to help restore oxygen to these places by using ordinary outdoor motors to stir up the surface.

The increasing use of agricultural sprays, the Chief Aquatic Biologist explained, is a comparatively new menace. He cited a recent case where fish in two-ranch tanks died mysteriously. The rancher said he had not used any sprays but investigation showed a neighbor in the same watershed had. A shower washed the poisonous chemicals into the water.

He said algae can be a common mid-summer threat to fish. This aquatic growth breathes oxygen and if there is an excessive amount present during cloudy, still weather, it competes with fish. Furthermore, the hotter the water becomes, the less oxygen it holds and the more is the demand for oxygen by fish.

The U. S. mint coined the first copper one-cent pieces on April 2, 1792. A one-half-cent copper coin was issued on the same date.

FRIGIDAIRE Live-Water Action

Gets rid of "deep-down" dirt ordinary washers can't touch!

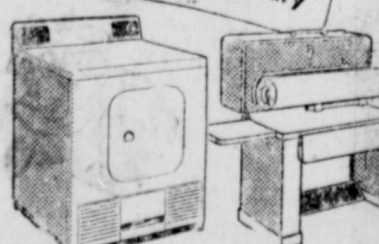

A Frigidaire Automatic Washer doesn't fool with dirt. Surging Live-Water currents of hot, sudsy water go through and through the clothes, flushing out the grimeiest, toughest, ground-in dirt...yet so gently does it work that nylons, woolsens and rayons are safe! New fresh-water Floater-over Rinse...Rapidly Spin, too!

New Presto-Matic Electric Ironer

Frigidaire's exclusive foot-operated Presto-Matic control leaves both hands free to guide clothes. Lets you sit down, relax to do a better, faster job of ironing...electrically! Come in, see a demonstration!
