

People's Ideas Invited

Public Meeting Set Monday By Trustees

"Every person within the boundaries of Bovina Independent School District is invited and urged to attend the open public meeting at 7:30 p.m. Monday in Bovina Schools cafeteria to air his views concerning any further school construction program," Otis Spears, superintendent, said this week.

The public meeting was called by the school board at a meeting December 12 following the second failure to pass a bond issue presented tax payers on Dec. 3.

The school board members say they would appreciate hearing what the people want in the way of a construction program for the Bovina Schools.

Those attending the open meeting will be invited to express their ideas, or any plans they might have formulated for consideration and discussion.

On hand to discuss the feasibility of any ideas extended in the meeting will be Bob Estes, fiscal agent; Arnold Maeker of Lubbock, architect; and members of the school board, Grady Sorley, president of the board, will preside at the meeting.

In addition to interested persons attending, Spears said that it would be desirable for all civic organizations and churches in the district to be represented at the meeting.

With enrollment increasing yearly and classrooms already crowded in Bovina Schools, the school board is faced with a problem of providing adequate facilities for school students, according to Spears.

On December 3 voters turned down a $268,000 bond issue that would have provided a new elementary school, football stadium and field house.

This proposal was made after trimming a larger issue vetoed in April totaling about $600,000 which would have included remodeling of some present facilities, the building of a new elementary school, improvement to athletic facilities, and the construction of a new gymnasium.

Various ideas have been expressed, officials say, concerning solutions to the problem and the school board is open to any and all these plans. Some have included erecting only a portion of a new school building, constructing all-new facilities for a high school, selling $50 seat options to raise funds to construct a more adequate football stadium and field house, and others.

THE NEWSPAPER THAT WORKS FOR A BIGGER, BETTER BOVINA

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 4, 1967 Bovina, Texas VOL XI, NO. 27

WHITTLIN'

By DOLPH MOTEN

What old-fashioned, community-wide meetings lack in concise efficiency, they often make up for in eventual productivity and agreement.

Such an open meeting is scheduled Monday night in the school cafeteria. Purpose of the session will be to discuss building and improvements for the school district's facilities.

Voters, during 1966, rejected two proposed school bond elections which would have provided funds for classroom construction and additions to the athletic facilities. After the defeat of the second bond election, which was for considerably less money than the first, somebody figured out that we'd better "come reason together."

That's exactly what the Monday night session is for and why it was called.

If we need a building program, we need to figure out the best way to successfully go about it. If we don't, we need to decide that, too, and quit worrying about it. This open meeting is an ideal time to come to a meeting of the minds or at least to find out how and why a majority of the people feel as they do.

For all concerned -- and aren't we all? -- it would be good to have a large crowd out to discuss one of the most important parts of our community, the school system.

School board members and their advisers will be on hand to tell how they feel about the situation. They'll also be in a position to hear how Mr. Everyday Taxpayer and Mrs. Average Citizen feel about it, too.

If enough people turn out and express their opinions, this meeting could be the beginning to the solution to the problem. At worst, it won't hurt anything or anybody.

The meeting is for everybody in the school district. One person is just as "invited" as the next. If you have something to say, an opinion to express, or are just interested in listening, be there.

This is one of the "good old American ways" to do things.

Isn't it nice that the holidays are over? By that we don't mean that they weren't enjoyable, but, at the same time, it is a welcome relief to us to return to our normal, disorganized schedule. Holidays on Mondays are rough on weekly newspapers with a Wednesday publication and the last two Mondays have been holidays. That sorta throws things out of gear all week long, it seems.

B. M. Nelson, the publisher of The Castro County News over at Dimmitt, wrote last week that the week between Christmas and New Year's was the hardest time on the calendar to put out a paper.

He's right, of course, but we want to throw in the first week of the new year for his consideration, too, especially when New Year's Day makes Monday a holiday.

Was Izzard, the conservative editor and page one columnist of The Amarillo Daily News, is the greatest booster of current times for Panhandle weather. He has a point, too -- the weather here isn't always as bad as it's made out to be in other sections of the country.

However, during the present cold spell, the weather had needed some bragging on to make people who had outside work to do appreciate it. It's been as cold as that well-digger's feet you've heard about. There may be some consolation

Parmer Co. Officials Take Oaths Of Office

Nine Parmer County officials were administered the oath of office in ceremonies held at 2:30 p.m. Friday in the county courthouse at Farwell.

County Clerk Bonnie Warren administered the oath, while at the same time receiving it.

The nine officials included Wilbur Charles, Justice of the Peace of Precinct 3, Bovina, who was nominated as the Democratic candidate in a run-off last June and had no opponent in the November general election; and C. H. Jefferson, commissioner of Precinct 2, Bovina and Rhea.

Others taking office Friday were Loyde A. Brewer, county judge; Mrs. Mabel Reynolds, county treasurer; Mrs. Dorothy Quickel, district clerk; Raymond Treider, Jr., commissioner of Precinct 4, Lazbuddie; J. R. Thornton, Justice of the Peace, Precinct 1, Farwell; and J. W. Roberts, Justice of the Peace, Precinct 2, Friona.

Also winning the nod in a run-off election last year was J. W. Roberts in Friona for the Justice of the Peace position. Mrs. Bonnie Warren was the only other official having an opponent.

Re-elected without opposition were Brewer, Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Quickel, Jefferson and G. W. Crain as commissioner of Precinct 4, Lazbuddie. Following the death of Mr. Crain in the fall, Treider was appointed by the Commissioner's Court to fill the term and was then elected in the general election in November.

All were elected to four-year terms.

James B. Fowler --

Father Victim In Home Fire

James B. Fowler, 55, of Lubbock, and father of Rev. J. B. Fowler, Jr. of Bovina, died in his home Monday night when fire apparently broke out in the front portion of the house and completely gutted the structure.

Mr. Fowler was found near the front door of his home after neighbors saw the house ablaze about 9 p.m. He had apparently tried to escape from the burning house and was overcome by smoke and fire.

Several years ago, Mr. Fowler had received severe injuries in an automobile accident and was left disabled. However, he had regained use of his limbs, somewhat, in recent years.

Rev. Fowler was summoned to Lubbock Monday night and was accompanied by friends here.

Funeral services were pending at Rix Funeral Home in Lubbock Tuesday, awaiting word from his son in Puerto Rico.

Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. Lewis McCuistian of Plainview, Mrs. Lewis Berry of Levelland, Mrs. Tommy Franklin and Miss Susie Fowler, both of Lubbock; five sons, J. B., Jr. of Bovina, Gene of Hampton, Va., Doyle of Puerto Rico, Neal of Houston, and Roger of Lubbock; and a number of grandchildren.

School's Mid-Term January 20

January 20 marks the halfway point of the year in the Bovina Schools, officials announced, as students returned to classrooms Tuesday morning following the Christmas - New Year's holidays.

Mid-term examinations will be given during the week prior to January 20, the week beginning January 16. Students will have two weeks preparation time before the examinations begin.

Farmers Will Elect Committee Jan. 10

Qualified voters will name their choices in the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 election Tuesday when Parmer County selects two county committeemen, and decides whether or not to admit three counties to the organization.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m. Tuesday at Wilson-Brock Insurance Co. in Bovina for agricultural real estate property owners in Parmer County, who are otherwise also qualified or registered voters, according to Carl Rea of Bovina, election judge.

In addition to the two committeemen, Ross Goodwin of Muleshoe appears on the ballot for re-election as Director of Precinct 3.

Voters in Parmer County Precinct 4 (Lazbuddie) will name a county committeeman while all Parmer farmers will elect a committeeman at large.

The names of H. L. Ivy and Wesley Barnes appear for one place in Commissioner Precinct 4. Ivy has served one term as a committeeman.

To replace Walter Kaltwasser of Farwell, who has served two terms as county commissioner at large, voters will pick one man from a list of four, Ernest Anthony of Friona, J. D. Kirkpatrick of Bovina, Henry Haseloff of Farwell and Jim Ray Daniel of Friona.

In separate issues, farmers will vote for or against the admittance of Hale County, Swisher County and Crosby County into the High Plains Under-ground Conservation Water District, and also for or against the counties assuming their share of indebtedness and/or maintenance taxes that may be owed, contracted or authorized by or for the Water District.

Officials here say there has been little interest in the past in electing county committeemen to the Water District. However, they point out that "water is our most important resource -- and as the water goes, so does Parmer County."

Six Sessions Planned

Management School Set At Hub Center

The most intensive Extension Service farm and home management program ever conducted in the county will be held each Tuesday for six consecutive weeks starting Jan. 10 and continuing through Feb. 14.

Called "Get In Step for 1967-Management School," the educational program will feature 16 authorities and will cover a wide range of management topics, according to County Extension Agents Cricket B. Taylor and Ronny F. McNutt.

Each of the six Tuesday sessions will be held from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. in the Hub Community Center.

Taylor and McNutt said everyone in the county is invited to attend any of the sessions.

"We designed these meetings primarily for farm and ranch couples, but everyone is welcome," Mrs. Taylor said. "We feel that attendance at all six meetings could have tremendous impact on any family's financial future."

The two Extension Agents said registration forms for the meetings are available at their office in the courthouse, at banks throughout the county, at the County ASCS office and PCA office in Friona.

They expressed hope that those planning to attend any or all sessions will complete one of the forms so that they will have some idea of the crowd to expect.

Topics to be covered at the "Get In Step for 1967-- Management School" range from income tax and insurance to estate planning and equipping the farm and home business center.

Speakers will include extension specialists, a Texas Tech agricultural economist, a Muleshoe accountant, an Amarillo investment broker, and a Clovis social security representative.

Parmer County people slated to make presentations at the meetings include Bill Boling, Farmers Home Administration; John Aldridge, attorney; Prentice Mills, ASCS director; and Joe Jones, Security State Bank.

The Feb. 7 meeting on insurance will be presented by Dan Ethridge of Friona, Mrs. Bob Estes of Bovina, and Jimmy Ware of Bovina.

The local insurance agents will cover life, medical, education, fire, casualty, liability and crops insurance.

The coordinator of the new Panhandle Economic Program, James Murphrey of Amarillo, will be one of the speakers at the first meeting of the management school Tuesday, Jan. 10.

Murphrey, who is also an Extension Service farm management specialist, will talk on "Understanding Financial Management."

Deaf Smith County Home Agent, Mrs. Argen Draper, will also speak at the first session. Her topic will be "Planning for Spending." She will discuss spending of the family, farm and business.

Chairman of the first session will be Fremam Davis of the Parmer County Farmers Union. Hostesses will be members of the County Home Demonstration Council.

Records and family business centers will be discussed at the second session of the "Get In Step for 1967 -- Management School." This second meeting will be on Tuesday, Jan. 17.

Extension Home Management Specialist Joy Arrington of College Station will explain the equipment, organization, files in the fact that this isn't the only place that it's been cold. Cold in itself isn't bad. When we get discouraged, and we're not alone in this feeling, is at the start of the second week of below-freezing temperatures and 20 to 30 mile-an-hour winds each day.

Brrrrrr. Makes us glad that Spring can't be far away.

We're not really expecting anyone to write us a letter and tell us how correct our prediction of the Green Bay-Dallas professional football playoff game was. And we shouldn't. After all, we said Green Bay would win by 10 points and the margin turned out to be seven.

We wouldn't mention the prediction at all, but we're trying to build up our sports analyzing image after picking the LA Dodgers to win over Baltimore in the World Series back in October.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT HEADACHES

An estimated 85% of the American people are victims of headaches at one time or another, yet the headache is one of mankind's most misunderstood ailments.

1. The major underlying cause of headaches is emotional strain, and the vascular headache, which constitutes about 90%, is the most common type of headache.
2. The pain of the vascular headache is caused when the blood vessels inside the head swell, because of emotional tension, and press on sensitive nerves.
3. In a severe vascular headache, a secondary muscle-contraction may cause pain to extend over the eyes, forehead, bridge of nose, and temples. Often called a tension headache, it's really an extension of the vascular type.
4. Many remedies relieve headache pain, but don't lessen the flow of blood in the head to ease vascular pressure, so the pain can recur. Vanquish, a new headache remedy, combines 5 ingredients to relieve both pain and vascular pressure.
5. Studies show a relation between the level of education and frequency of headaches. In one survey, 70% of a group of college graduates suffered from this complaint, compared to 31% in a non-graduate group.
6. The typical sufferer of vascular headaches is the nervous person who has trouble relaxing. Today, doctors help patients to understand the emotional causes of headaches in an effort to lessen their occurrence.

Know The Truth
By Lavern Stewart

Does fear of your own weakness hinder you from becoming a Christian? Some people say that they are just too weak to live a Christian life. They that say such are trusting too little in the Lord. Notice Romans 14:4, "Who art thou that judgest the servant of another? To his own lord he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be made to stand; for the Lord hath power to make him stand." Naturally, God requires that we do all we can to resist temptation and to faithfully serve Him, Revelation 2:10, ". . . Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee the crown of life." He commands steadfastness and promises to reward the faithful servant, 1 Corinthians 15:58, "Wherefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord." There is a part for man and a part for God, Jude 21, "Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life." Four verses further on the text affirms that God is able to guard us from stumbling. We are promised in Hebrews 13:5, that the Lord will not wise fail or forsake us. Too, in 1 Corinthians 10:12, the warning is given against being overly confident of our spiritual status, and then in the next verse a promise follows the warning that God will not allow one to be tempted too far, but will provide a way of escape -- we must hold on until the way of escape is revealed. Sinner friend, will you learn to trust Jesus to "make your stand" and become a Christian now?

From

TEN YEARS AGO

Jan. 2, 1957

Bovina coffee drinkers are possibly taking a dim view of 1957.

They are faced with having to pay ten cents a cup for their favorite liquid.

"It looks to me like we are quite likely to have a real problem with encephalitis in Parmer County next year. In time to come, I expect that we'll stop worrying about the polio, and start worrying about encephalitis." So warned Dr. Paul Spring, Parmer County health officer this week.

With the closing of Bovina Drug Dec. 22, Bovina was left without a bus stop for New Mexico Transportation Company, the bus line that runs through Bovina.

However, officials of the bus company have completed arrangements with Paul Jones Service Station and that business on Highway 60 will serve as the bus stop in the future.

Bovina Junior Chamber of Commerce will sponsor an open meeting to discuss building a ball park for Bovina.

Folks here in Parmer County know it anyway, but the U. S. Department of Commerce is just now beginning to find out what an excellent cotton crop this area produced in 1956.

A report that included figures on ginnings up to Dec. 1 has been released by the department and in it, Parmer County is listed as having 53,286 bales at that point in the harvest.

Scooter Queen was elected president of the Bovina ex-students association at the annual banquet Saturday night. Other officers elected were Thelma Barron, vice-president; Alfred Moody, treasurer; and Mrs. Pat Read, secretary.

SIX YEARS AGO
Jan. 4, 1961

Bovina's boys and girls basketball teams brought home trophies from delayed Friona invitational tournament last weekend.

Coach Hallie Gee's Mustangs won third place in their bracket. Coach Malcolm Kennedy's Fillies took consolation honors.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Smith left here Saturday for Dallas and Monday's Cotton Bowl football game between Arkansas and Duke. Smith won the trip in a contest sponsored by Bovina businesses in The Blade.

Warren Morton, superintendent of Bovina Schools, was speaker at annual meeting of Bovina High Ex-Students Association Saturday night in school cafeteria.

The banquet was attended by some 35 people. Bovina Stallions, outsiders' basketball team, helped keep Bovina's name on the basketball map last week as they won first place in a tournament at Springlake.

Two newly-elected members of the Parmer County Commissioners Court, and three re-elected county officials took their oaths of office at the Parmer County Courthouse in Farwell Monday morning.

Sworn in were Thomas Lewellen, commissioner Precinct 1; Guy Cox, commissioner Precinct 3; Hershell Harding, attorney; and Chas Lovelace, sheriff; and Lee Thompson, assessor-collector.

Miss Barbara Taylor hosted a class reunion for Bovina graduating class of 1959 last Friday in her home.

Diphtheria cases reported as near as Dimmitt were being viewed with concern by school and health officials in the county this week.

As Parmer County farmers begin making preparations for the new year, 1961, few changes are anticipated in the farm program which has governed operations during the past several years.

Texas railroads paid $35,130 in taxes in Parmer County during 1959, according to the Texas Railroad Association.

THE GOLDEN HOARD

About $15,500 million worth of gold is being hoarded throughout the world; of this total, $4,100 million is being held by the population of France.

HIT THE SKIDS

When Craig Breedlove was attempting to set a land speed record in his jet-powered "Spirit of America" at Bonneville Salt Flats, Utah, in 1964, he skidded for nearly six miles!

"I'll say this about your sermons - I always feel better when they're over."

IF ALL ELSE FAILS

Most of us do not attempt to follow the directions Jesus has given us for the living of our lives until we have tried every fad, placed our trust in almost every kind of object and failed to find our security there! And when we try to find security in things, objects, and fads it is an indication that we are not willing to admit to ourselves that life is the way it really is. Yet life is full of crises, ambiguities, uncertainties. And the thing we push into the back of our minds and act as if it wasn't there - death itself!

And all of the knowledge in the world -- all of the boats, swimming pools, camping outfits, athletic awards, cosmetics, and TVs will not save us from the ambiguities, crises, and uncertainties of life. As long as we live we cannot escape from any of these things - for this is the way life is. But, thanks be to God, we have been given that Word which enables us to live creatively. We have been given the directions in the life and teaching of Jesus for living life as God intended life to be lived - even in the midst of all the confusion, chaos, and uncertainties. Perhaps our one Resolution for 1967 should be to live our lives by God's directions first, not after all else fails.
