Up The Canyon

By TOM RUSSOM

The sunshine is drying the ground so the farmers can get back into the fields in our area. Lots of grain has been harvested, but there is still a lot more to harvest.

There is a lot unplanted ground yet to be planted. With such fine working weather, farmers are really working. All crops will be late this year.

Some of the farmers are baling their oats and some are threshing. The baled oats are real good feed for livestock.

The Rev. and Mrs. Charles Williams, pastor at Pioneer Church, had Rev. Williams' mother and grandmother of Midland, in their home over the week end.

Tommie Dan McCoy and Dylene McCoy, children of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin McCoy of Midland, attended church at Pioneer Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Russom and son, Donald, were in Big Spring Saturday, visiting J. B. Sloan and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gray, relatives of Mrs. Russom. The Russoms also drove over a lot of the farming area north of Big Spring in the Knot and Ackerly area. All of the cotton was up in that area.

Louis Cook, rancher just atop the divide, said he has been turning off a lot of hard work at his ranch. He is trying to harvest some oats.

The Farmer's Union of our area is getting off to a good start. They got the charter last week and directors were elected and all ready to go. Joe McDuff, farmer north of Merkel, was elected president. Joe wants to extend an invitation to all farmers to join the organization, and all get to working.

The children of the late J. D. Jones and wife, will hold their family reunion at the Butman Community Center July 4th. Some of the daughters are Mrs. Bill Butman, Mrs. Lake Renfro and Mrs. Val White, all of Merkel. Others from Pyote and also California will attend the reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Irl Walker attended the commencement exercises at North Texas State University where Mrs. Gaston Walker received her master's degree.

TRENT STUDENT HEARS ATOM TALK

Twenty-eight students and teachers from the area served by West Texas Utilities Company attended the Fifth Annual Nuclear Science Symposium at the University of Texas. The conference began Sunday, June 6, and ended Wednesday, June 9.

The Symposium was jointly sponsored by the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation and the University of Texas. West Texas Utilities Company is one of these companies.

Some 500 selected high school science students and teachers who attended the sessions in Austin enjoyed the opportunity of hearing lectures by some of the nation's outstanding nuclear scientists.

The Foundation is formed for the primary purpose of conducting the world's first and largest privately financed research effort in the field of nuclear energy. Currently, the Foundation and General Dynamics Corporation are jointly sponsoring a program

City Ordinance Requires Dogs Be Registered By July 1

COOPERATION ASKED VACCINATE ANIMALS FOR PROTECTION

Some people, especially children become so attached to dogs and other pets as for them to seem a part of the household. Other people like beautiful yards, and spend a great deal of time, work and money to beautify their yards and home with flowers and shrubs. When dogs leave home, roaming around town, turning over trash barrels, using other people's yards and even their porches for outhouses, digging up, breaking down and destroying flowers and shrubs, they change from pets to nuisances.

People whose property is damaged, mutilated and destroyed are rightly due damages just the same as if a cow or horse were let loose in some ones yard, or vandals breaking out windows or in any manner doing damage to property.

No town the sizes of Merkel can afford the cost of a City Pound and a dog catcher. A City Ordinance requires all dogs to be registered by July first each year.

Reports coming in from various parts of town indicate that many families are neglectful of keeping their dogs at home.

The cooperative effort of all people who have dogs to keep them at home is asked, to avoid having to take drastic measures to stop this vandalism, on the part of the dogs that run loose and damage other peoples' property.

Sincerely
JOHNNY COX, Mayor

July 1 is getting near. July 1st is a very important date for animal lovers in Merkel. It's the final registration date for dogs.

"A City ordinance requires that dogs be registered on or before July 1st," said Mrs. James H. West, acting city secretary. "In checking the books," said Mrs. West, "I find that the fee is $1.00 for male and unsexed dogs and $2.00 for female dogs. Registration may be done at City Hall from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. each day, Monday through Friday."

"A veterinarian comes to Merkel once or twice a year," said Mrs. West, "to vaccinate dogs and cats. Although there is no connection between the city dog license and the vaccination dog owners are encouraged to have their animals vaccinated."

According to the City Ordinance any dog found roaming the street without a dog license after July 1, may be picked up and disposed of. "However," said Mrs. West, "if the dog has a tag, every effort will be made to contact its owner."

Just who is responsible for picking up untagged dogs? "The city police has that responsibility now," said Johnny Cox, Merkel Mayor. "If we had to pick up many dogs, it would keep our city policeman too busy," said Cox. "To build a dog pound, buy a truck and cab, would cost approximately $15,000," said Cox, "and a minimum of $5,000 per year to operate."

"For the months ahead," said Mayor Cox, "protect yourself, your family and your dog with a rabies vaccination and get your dog registered at City Hall."

Members Attend 4-H Encampment

Members attending the 4-H Encampment at Lueders from Noodle were Sandra Womack, Faye and Martha Cochran, Karen Sullivan and Marilyn Maxwell.

The group participated in several activities such as washer games, horse - shoe throwing, swimming and isometrics. They also attended a record book workshop.

Faye Cochran won a ribbon in swimming in the junior division. Marilyn Maxwell and Sandra Womack won first place in washers in the senior division. Karen Sullivan and Carolyn Vinson won second place in horse shoe throwing.

Leaders attending the encampment were Mrs. Billy Maxwell and Mrs. Hubert Sullivan.

APPRECIATION GIVEN FOR SCHOOL PROJECTS

Have you been up around the school grounds lately? Why not take a drive up and look at all the improvements — new fence, shrubbery, newly painted flagpoles.

All these improvements didn't "just happen so." Someone is responsible for these progressive improvements and most often it turns out to be a collection of people in the form of some kind of club or organization.

"We have a lot of people to thank for our many school improvements," said Mr. Mack Fisher, Merkel School superintendent. "Many people working together with school improvements in mind," said Fisher. "We have the Merkel Parents Teacher Association to thank for the fence project — something that has been needed for a long time."

The Merkel Band Parents Club was given recognition by Fisher for their contributions to the band and to the school. "The fine support they have given the band program is greatly appreciated," said Fisher.

The Fortnightly Study Club, a local club of Merkel, gave the schools $50 to purchase a flagpole for the football field. "I have looked around quite a bit," said Fisher, "and I believe I have a firm all set to come out and put the pole up."

Principal Edwin Read said he "depend a great deal upon the fine things the people of Merkel do for our schools. Their work and cooperation is greatly appreciated — as individuals and as club members."

Concession stands at the football fields help to bring in money for the various projects sponsored by the Parents - Teachers Association and the Band Parents Club.

The Parents - Teachers Association recently presented the play "Mama's Getting Married," which helped defray project expenses. Proceeds from the Beauty Pageant, which was sponsored by the Band Parents' Club, helped in the band projects.

Fisher expressed thanks to all the clubs and organizations in Merkel who helped so generously with school improvements. "The projects supported by our clubs and organizations are all appreciated by your school staff," said Fisher.

PENSION PROBLEM

My Dear Friend: My problem, which is really not mine but my sister's, who like me is now a widow. Her husband, a WWI veteran died last October. She receives $103.20 a month social security. And under the present law, that income allows her $27 a month widow's pension. She is nearly seventy and could probably work some part time for a while yet, but under the Veterans rule she would lose her pension even if she only earned $5.00 a week. There is one thing that worries me very much. Her husband was wounded in the war and received $38.00 a month until his death. Yet my sister is under the same classification as the WWI widows whose husbands were not wounded and receiving a small disability. It seems a little rough for the Veterans Bureau even considers a gift of money as income and says in effect you either live on $130.20 a month or lose your $27.00 pension. I would live to hear from you.

DONNA

Dear Donna: I have studied your letter carefully, also my material on Veterans' pensions, and talked with two friends who helped me on such questions in the past. The net result is that I have to come up with an unsatisfactory answer — for two reasons. First, the regulations administered by the Veterans Bureau have to cover so very many situations and such a variety of dates, types of service, etc. that it takes a Philadelphia lawyer to analyze them. Second, it would not be fair to you or to the V. A. for an "outsider" to try to interpret the Bureau's responsibilities. I get many letters about social security, pensions, welfare, etc., which sound like things are being handled unfairly. But perhaps if you and I had to do the job, we couldn't do as well. My suggestion is, if you haven't already done so, write the V.A. in Washington everything you put in your letter to me. That's the only place you can get an authoritative answer.

Miss Watts, Kenith Hogan Wed In Methodist Church June 12

Nancy Rebecca Watts and Kenith Lanch Hogan were married June 12th in the First Methodist Church of Merkel.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earle M. Watts of Merkel and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hogan of Merkel.

Officiating for the double-ring ceremony was the Rev. Howard Marcom, former Methodist pastor at Merkel. Organist was Mrs. J. H. (Junior) Clark and soloist for the occasion was Dan Allen.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of bridal taffeta. The gently scooped neckline was encircled with a floral design of re-embroidered alencon lace and seed pearls. The flower motif was repeated on the front panel of the full skirt which swept into a chapel length train in back. A butterfly bustle carried out the floral motif in re-embroidered alencon lace. The bride's headpiece was a delicate crown of seed pearls and held her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried an orchid in a circle of rosebuds on a white Bible and a white linen handkerchief which was also carried by the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Ford Smith Sr., in her wedding.

Mrs. Martin Nelson (Ned) Watts, sister in law of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Ann Tipton, Carol McAninch and Gayle Gladden. Their gowns were fashioned of misty blue Love Light Organza over blue bridal taffeta. Head dresses were of matching cabbage rose with circular veils and each carried a single rosebud.

Terry Sue Wozencraft of Merkel and Guy Gamble of Abilene were candle lighters.

Flower girl was Rebecca Lynn Watts and ring bearer was Russell Earle (Rusty) Watts, neice and nephew of the bride.

Sammy Smith was best man and groomsmen were Martin (Ned) Wats, brother of the bride, Johnny Ford Henslee of Fort Worth and Bobby Campbell.

Ushers were Karl Irvin and Kenneth Ray.

The bride's parents were hosts for the reception in Fellowship Hall assisted by Mrs. Jim Merritt of Fort Worth, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Ben R. Hicks, Mrs. Andy Shouse, Mrs. Ray Wilson, Mrs. Grif Barnett of Anson, Mrs. Ralph Russell of Bossier City, La., and Mrs. Raymond Ferguson. Miss Wilma Smith was at the register. At the serving table were Pat Tate, Cherry Davis, Jo Lynn Buntin, Aleta Scott, Lois Givens and Linda Rutledge.

The bride is a 1965 graduate of Merkel High School and the groom is a McMurry College se-

Famous Postal Error on Exhibit

Postmaster Wrenn Durham today suggested residents of Merkel visit the special post office and exhibit if they attend the New York World's Fair.

Highlight of the display is the nation's most famous postal error, the 1918 twenty-four-cent airmail stamp with the upside-down mail plane, the postmaster said.

In addition to original die proofs of the "mistake" and other philatelic rarities connected with the airmail invert, the post office features an exhibit on the development of the John F. Kennedy Memorial Stamp, and a special branch of the Post Office Department's Philatelic Sales Agency, offering a complete stock of all commemorative issues now available.

Visitors to the modern postal installation will receive a free commemorative cachet envelope picturing the post office.

The most up to date postal equipment in use, and several experimental models, are installed in the World's Fair Post Office.

One mechanism mechanically places letters on their long end, spots the stamp and, if necessary, flips the envelopes so that they are in the proper position and then cancels them. Another device over 70 feet long, contains 12 stations from which postal clerks direct letters into nearly 300 bins as they separate the mail for speedy delivery.

The World's Fair Post Office processes approximately 250,000 pieces of mail each day. Visitors are able to see all operations from a ramp which circles the work area. A tape recorded commentary explains the action.

Counselor Needed In Areas of State

Due to anticipated expansions in youth counseling services, the Texas Employment Commission will need many new employment counselors in several areas of the state. Russell E. Shrader, director of the merit system council in Austin, said these are specialized, professional positions requiring college graduation with a major course of study in fields dealing with people.

Employment counselors are responsible for work involving the rendering of an effective counseling service by analyzing unusual applicant - employment problems and needs, assisting these applicants in making a vocational choice, developing an employment plan, and assisting applicants in making job adjustments which will increase their opportunity for successful employment.

The appointments will be made from registers which are established through open - competitive examinations. Shrader said that qualified persons, male and female, interested in this challenging counseling opportunity should visit the nearest local office of the Texas Employment Commission or write the Merit System Council, Post Office Box 1389 in Austin for additional information. He added that the entrance salary is $453 per month and that salary advancement and promotional opportunities are excellent.

A gift tea, complimenting Sherry Davis, bride - elect of Alan Carl Doan, will be held in the home of Mrs. Robert J. Gilmer, 1502 Sunset, Friday, June 18 at 7:30 p.m.

Old Buildings at Fort Richardson by E. M. Schiwezt

... a long time between paydays!

Across the western face of Texas, the brooding ruins of forts . . . here and there a restored barracks or hospital bring back a bloody page in history. A history that tells of marauding redskins thundering southward from Indian Territory, killing in their wake, pushing on to the Mexican border. A history that tells too of the hard and lonely life of the U.S. Army troopers who manned these strategic forts.

Fort Richardson, near Jacksboro, was one of the more important of these outposts. Here Kiowa Chieftains Satanta and Big Tree were incarcerated before their trial for a bloody massacre. But life in all frontier posts was much the same . . . best expressed by the soldiers themselves, "a long time between paydays."

BUT IT ISN'T SO FAR BETWEEN PAYDAYS NOW
... with U. S. Savings Bonds!

Today, there can also be a long time between paydays for those who have not established the thrift habit. But through the U.S. Savings Bonds program you can take care of this situation quickly and effectively.

For example, with as little as 63¢ a day you can buy an $18.75 Savings Bond every month. Keep this up for 40 months and you'll own a stack of Bonds worth $1,000, at maturity, which cost you only $750 in easy installments.

Buy U.S. Savings Bonds every payday automatically through the payroll savings plan.

Keep Freedom in Your Future with U. S. SAVINGS BONDS

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" By C. WILSON HARDER

It is interesting to note the ridicule often heaped on General Charles DeGaulle. Of course, the apparent necessary histrionics to appeal to the Gallic temperament have a flavor foreign to Americans.

In Washington the French President is not so funny since he announced that France is starting to redeem American dollars held by them for American gold. This has created a drive to seek legislation removing the legally required gold backing of U. S. currency. If this is not done, it is feared that foreigners cashing in their dollars for gold will put the nation into bankruptcy.

There is no definite way of ascertaining what goes on in the DeGaulle mind. But it does seem more than significant that pressure was not put by France on dollar until after British and American elections.

It is very possible DeGaulle does not feel comfortable with a socialistic form of government in England, and thus by attacking the dollar he knows that the British pound, and hence British influence, will be weakened.

It may be that the French leader reflects on the fact that succession of prewar Socialistic governments in France headed by Leon Blum and others so demoralized the nation that it was a sitting duck for conquest in 1940. He objected to the acceptance by the Western powers during the war that all was sweetness and light with Russia's Stalin, and at the liberation of Paris, despite obstacles thrown into his path, stopped French communists from taking over nation.

In short, DeGaulle has been an unremitting, uncompromising foe of communism. He has also given indications he is somewhat of a realist.

France is potentially a very economically prosperous nation. Not only does it have resources and industry, but its farm productivity puts it in a position of being one of the few nations in the world that can adequately feed its own population.

Yet despite the potential wealth of France when he totted up the balance sheet and saw that it was costing France more to stay in Algeria and Vietnam than the country could take out, or even hope to make a profit in the future, he pulled out and concentrated on developing the French economy at home.

This position can perhaps be criticized as displaying an indifference toward the fate of the world.

But there is also the possibility that DeGaulle, after witnessing the fall of France undermined by years of socialism, also believes if the world goes more and more socialistic, there will be an inevitable collapse. Hence, he takes every measure he can to keep France from once again being mixed down by socialism.

Hester Family Has Record For Attendance

Quite often you hear or read about a family of children all being born on July 4th, or having birthdays on Christmas Day, or some other out of the ordinary happening. But how many times do you read where there's four children in a family — all with perfect school attendance, — all with straight A's? Now that's an item breaking record.

Weeds and Grass Continue to Grow

The battle cry of many Texas farmers for the immediate future may well be "Let's get 'em down with weeds and grass!" Muddy fields have kept machinery idle but not weeds and grass, says Fred C. Elliott, cotton specialist for the Agricultural Extension Service at Texas A&M University. Elliott said that farmers now have available more post-emergence herbicides than ever before to help them in the fight but that the number one weed control practice was still mechanical — rotary hoe equipped tractors. More than 51,000 were used last year in 173 counties, he added, and they did a good job. Careful attention to the operation of this equipment is the secret of its success, he said.

As of the herbicides, Elliott said herbicidal oil gives very effective control of small weeds and grass. This is an old practice, he added, and can be used to get out of the grass for about $1.50 an acre. Conditions must be right for its use, timing must be correct and application made with precision, he added.

He listed the following as other recommended post-emergence herbicides and herbicide mixtures. Diuron or caparol plus a surfactant — they are effective in the control of a wide range of weed species and do the best job on small actively growing weeds. They are used after the cotton is too large for lateral oiling.

DSMA plus a surfactant is effective against many grass species including the cocklebur, he said. It is more effective under hot dry conditions, above 75 degrees F. Its effectiveness is reduced when applied under cool, wet conditions, the specialist said.

Good weed fighting weather could really give a boost to control practices, and chemicals, machines and hoe hands, will probably all be needed, Elliott said.

Summer Pastimes Can Be Dangerous

Today people are taking to the water like ducks, but unfortunately, they don't swim anywhere near as well.

A generation or two ago water sports consisted chiefly of leaping into the old swimmin' hole or rowing around the lake.

But today, more people than ever before are seeking their summer pastimes in an aquatic setting — and literally dying from it.

Several hundred will drown this year in Texas, according to a projection of previous records. On a nation-wide scale, 6,000 persons are predicted to drown from a variety of aquatic sports and activities.

Scuba and skin diving, surf-boarding, water skiing and high-powered boating have added to the hazards of conventional swimming, diving and boating.

Let's take a look at the type of injuries that accompany the various sports, and from this investigation we can gain clues to prevention.

Sailing accidents often are head injuries from a swinging boom. Power-boating accidents are frequently lacerations and amputations from motor boat propellers and collisions.

Common injuries among water skiers are finger, wrist, nose and face abrasions or fractures, mostly occurring from a fall onto the skis while in motion.

Some of the dangers of skin diving and underwater swimming include hyperventilation, malfunctioning scuba apparatus, face mask squeeze, middle ear squeeze and water pressure.

The dangers from these aquatic sports depend, of course, on your proximity to water — fresh or salt.

If you live close to the water, or plan to vacation by the waterfront this summer, follow this plan.

Make sure you and your family are trained in survival treatment. Check your local health department or civil defense director about the medical — self help courses.

Merkel Graduate Promoted in A. F.

Robert W. Berry, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Berry of Rt. 3, Merkel, has been promoted to master sergeant in the U. S. Air Force at Randolph AFB, Tex. Sergeant Berry as an administrative supervisor in a unit that supports the Air Training Command mission of training airmen and officers in the diverse skills required by the nation's aerospace force.

A graduate of Merkel High School, the sergeant attended Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, and Texas Technological College at Lubbock.

His wife, Virginia, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bradley of Rt. 1, Merkel.

Agriculture Is A Mighty Industry

Almost 40 per cent of the nation's labor force works directly or indirectly in the agricultural industry. About 8 per cent of the nation's population does the world's finest producing job; another six million people work at supplying the goods and services needed by farmers and their families and 10 million others transport, store, process, service and sell farm products.
