Up The Canyon

By TOM
RUSSOM

We have felt the first fall weather the past few days, bringing cool and damp days. Everyone set their fires to going. We are having some big dews at night and it is slowing down harvest of the crops. Lots of water is still standing in the fields and it will be some time before farmers can plow the land.

There is a lot of volunteer oats and wheat is up and making a good growth. Stockmen think it will make grazing soon.

The rains were a big help to the late feed. Some farmers and stockmen are planning to graze the feed; others plan to cut it for hay this winter, which will be needed very much. Cattle like their hay in the winter time, and as the saying goes "you can't heat a little hay and cake on a cold day."

The last of the lambs are going to market now. Joe Swinney was sending his lambs to San Angelo this week. Tom Russom had a load of lambs on the market there, also. Maurice Johnson, who ranches on the east side of the Canyon, said he was feeding his lambs and would be sending them to market in a few days. You will recall that about a month ago I reported how fine the crops were in the Nolan area. Well, about ten days ago they had an awful bad storm in that area, almost destroying some of the cotton. The wind did a lot of damage, too.

We read about the storm and a few days later we got in our car and made a drive to the storm area. We drive up Mountain Pass area to Mrs. W. T. Perry's ranch. We saw her goat shed had the roof blown off. Then the next damage we saw was on the Will Butman ranch about five Game time against the Yellowhammers will be 7:30 p.m. Previous preconference games have been started at 8 o'clock.

Meanwhile the B-team will play the Roscoe B team at Roscoe at 7 p.m. Thursday night. The B team is playing a good defensive game but is still suffering from quarterback blues.

The Badgers face their first conference game with two losses and one victory.

DICK WEST WRITES ON 'MERKEL UNCLES'

An interesting article came to The Merkel Mail via Mr. Henry West, well-known Merkelite. It concerned his son, Dick, who left our merry surroundings several years ago — in body, not in thoughts.

After graduating from Merkel High School, Dick completed four years at Trinity University in San Antonio, and was then well on his way in the writing career — a career that now sees him on the staff of the United Press International, with headquarters in Washington, D.C. Approximately 150 newspapers carry Dick's article "The Lighter Side," of which contents we are about to print.

It seems that Mr. Dick West was answering a query about small towns. And some of the questions asked were: "What are the advantages of small-town living?" "What are the disadvantages?" "If you once lived in a small town but moved away, what made you decide to leave?"

"Being a small town boy myself," said Dick. "I am delighted to participate in the survey."

And here is Dick's reply: "What you should do is pay a visit to my old hometown in Texas. Within a few short blocks, you would pass the homes of my Aunt Elma, Aunt Pearl, Aunt Olga, Aunt Eunice, Aunt Opal and Aunt Vera.

"Investigation would disclose that these dear ladies have one thing in common. All of them are widows.

"From the male standpoint, this is probably the main disadvantage of living in small towns. It is rough on uncles.

Those of my uncles who moved to the city are still in pretty good shape. But of those who stayed at home, only one now survives. And he recently fell off a ladder.

"Apparently there is something about small town living that affects uncles adversely. If you can use your anthropological training to isolate the trouble, you will be performing a valuable service.

"Unless something is done to make uncles less hazardous, the future of small towns in our society is very bleak. Before long, they won't have any men left.

"As soon as a chap starts acquiring nieces and nephews, he will head for the big city where uncles stand a better chance of seeing the next sunrise.

"The last time I visited my hometown I asked one of my aunts how she accounted for the fact that small town aunts generally outlive their husbands.

"She said it probably was because small town uncles usually marry women who are younger than they are.

"It may be, then, that the only safe thing to do is marry an old maid who is an only child."

Dick and his family, consisting of one wife, two boys and two girls, were recent visitors in Merkel and we'll be looking forward to their visit next summer.

Services Held For Viet Nam War Victim

Funeral services for Pvt. Edgar L. (Butch) Peterson, 18, who was killed Sept. 17 in Viet Nam while serving with the Marine Corps, were held Monday in the Second Baptist Church, Abilene, with the Rev. Joe Gilmore officiating. Burial was in Elmwood Memorial Park in Abilene.

The military graveside rites began with words by the Rev. Gilmore, then a prayer and a military salute. The U.S. flag was folded and given to the family.

Pvt. Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Peterson of Abilene, was on night patrol near Da Nang Air Base in South Viet Nam, when killed by a sniper bullet.

Survivors include his wife; his parents; two brothers, Robert and Gary, one sister, Donna, all of the home; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Peterson of Merkel; and many aunts and uncles.

Pallbearers were Ronnie McCoy, Eddie Kehl, Eddie Howerton, Lynn Johnson, George Rice and James Thomas.

Taylor Telephone Coop Holds 10th Annual Meet

Population Gain Means Expansion

John Hardesty, manager of Taylor Telephone Cooperative, Inc., welcomed members Tuesday, Sept. 28, to their 10th Annual Meeting, which was held in the Merkel High School Auditorium.

After an audit report, Hardesty explained the proposed future expansion of the cooperative.

"As you are all aware," said Hardesty, "we are in the process of adding a new central office and rebuilding the outside plant for the Potosi exchange." Hardesty explained that the expansion had come about as a "result of the population growth in that area."

"It appears now that the new Potosi facilities will be placed in operation approximately January 1," Hardesty said.

Hardesty brought out the fact that "there were similar needs to make additions in some of the other exchange areas because of the growth around Abilene."

"For example," said Hardesty, "I understand Hawley has formed a water district, which will materially increase growth in that area, and that the Hamby community is in the process of doing the same. Also, there is considerable population growth in South Taylor County, which is going to necessitate expansion there."

Bill Tippin, partner with Bradbury, Tippin, Brown and Clement Attorneys in Abilene, was master of ceremonies for the annual meeting.

Charlie T. Myatt, president of the Cooperative board, expressed "appreciation for such a large membership attendance," before the official ballots were distributed for the election of members to the Board of Directors of Taylor Telephone Cooperative.

Board members elected were: Myatt, Hamby; Troy Sloan, Noodle; Doyle Hefley, Lawn; Jack Farmer, Potosi; L. O. Huddleston, Hawley; Clark Perkins, Nulia; Frank K. Antilley, Wingate; C. A. Fomby, Tuscola, and L. A. Lister, Nolan.

Door prizes for the annual meeting were given by Taylor Electric Cooperative, Starbuck Company, Mellinger's Dry Goods, Boney Insurance Agency, Bragg's Department Store, Carsons Super Market, Merkel Drug, Bullock Hardware, F & M National Bank, Wilson Food Store, Max Murrell Chevrolet, Palmer Motor Co., and Taylor Telephone Cooperative, Inc., all of Merkel.

MERKEL CIVIL DEFENSE WORK BEGAN IN YEAR OF 1949

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Merkel Civil Defense is a vital part of the City of Merkel. This is the first of a series of articles that will appear in The Merkel Mail concerning the civil defense program in Merkel.

FRED STARBUCK

Merkel Civil Defense work was started by Fred Starbuck in 1949, after his appointment by Mayor Henry West.

On February 17, 1958, the Merkel City Council passed an ordinance establishing a department of Civil Defense, at which time Mayor Earl Hughes reappointed Starbuck as Civil Defense Director.

Section 1 of this ordinance states: "This ordinance may be cited as the 'City of Merkel Civil Defense Ordinance,' a synopsis of which follows.

Section 2. The Mayor shall, as provided hereinafter, provide for the organization and coordination of a program of civil defense and disaster relief adequate to protect life and property in this city in case of natural disaster, enemy action or the threat of same.

Section 3. The Mayor, or upon designation, the director of civil defense, is further authorized to negotiate with other political subdivisions of the State of Texas, subject to the approval of the State Defense and Disaster Relief Council, or the governor of the state of Texas, mutual aid compacts for civil defense and disaster relief; to provide for Mobil Support Units, to direct evacuation plans and operations in case of disaster, to prescribe uniform signals, warnings; to provide for dimouts or other precautionary measures to prevent or minimize loss of life or injury to persons or property. The executive head of the department of Civil Defense shall be the mayor.

Section 5. Civil Defense Advisory Council. The five council members shall serve for two years or until their terms of office expires. Other members are a representative of the Base Commander of Dyess Air Force Base to be selected by him; the County Judge of Taylor County, the local executive director of the American Red Cross; the president of the Taylor - Jones County Medical Society or his representative; the president of Merkel Ministerial Alliance; the president of the Merkel P-TA; the Mayor shall be chairman of the Council and mayor - pro tem, vice chairman.

It shall be the duty of the Mayor - Director and Coordinator to execute and enforce orders, rules and regulations as may be made by the Governor of the State of Texas and - or the State Defense and Disaster Relief Council.

"Texas hold first place in the nation in the number of all major disasters," said Mayor Johnny

HOWE-WURST VOWS READ IN HOUSTON

Mary Estelle Howe, daughter of Mrs. Marceline Moore of Houston, and granddaughter of Mrs. Lon Stephens of Merkel, became the bride of Dale F. Wurst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wurst of Merkel, August 20, at the South Park Baptist Church in Houston with the Rev. C. O. Overstreet officiating.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Patsy Frydach, as matron of honor. Mrs. Delores Howe and Miss Linda Gray were bridesmaids. The groomsmen were Jimmie Walker and Frank Frydach, and the best man was Clyde Wurst Jr.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mike Howe, the bride wore a white satin sheath. Seeded pearls accented the neckline and embroidered the outline of applied rose motifs on the bodice and skirt of the gown, extending the full length of the flowing train. Her fingertip veil was crowned with a tiara of pearls and drop crystals. She carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Don Hill (formerly Miss Phyllis Duncan of Merkel) was the organist. Mrs. Christine Fulton sang "Because" preceding the ceremony. After the exchange of rings, the bride and groom knelt at the altar while the vocalist sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The couple was honored with a reception in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Hosts were Mrs. Patricia Perry and Mrs. Eddie Heffington.

After a short wedding trip to Galveston, the couple will be at home in Houston, where Mr. Wurst is employed with the International Plumbing Company.

Local Minister Attends Herald Of Truth Meeting

Dwight Holland, Merkel Church of Christ Minister, participated in the planning of world-wide expansion of Herald of Truth television and radio religious broadcasts at the second Herald of Truth workshop held Sept. 8-9 in Abilene.

Holland was among 275 key workers from 30 states that attended the workshop. Key workers volunteer their efforts to secure local support among churches of Christ for the evangelistic broadcasts.

Herald of Truth radio programs are now broadcast by a total of 315 stations, including 226 stations on two major networks (ABC and Mutual) and 289 independent stations.

Herald of Truth television presentations are currently being telecast by 128 stations. The television and radio programs are broadcast in 14 countries.

The programs are supported by Churches of Christ and interested individuals throughout the world.

Oct. 4-5 Slated For TFWC Board

Mrs. J. L. Ginnings of Pilot Point, president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs with headquarters in Austin has announced that the Annual Fall Board Meeting, with emphasis on workshops, will be held in Austin on October 4-5. Headquarters will be at the Stephen F. Austin Hotel. There will be a "spend the day" at State Headquarters, 2312 San Gabriel Street, on Monday, Oct. 4th, when the board will convene at 9:30 a.m.

Gleaners Class Holds Meeting

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE GETS UNDERWAY

(Special to The Merkel Mail)
The Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association has launched a new general membership drive with a goal of 1,000 new members in 30 days.

Clayton Egger of Mullin, membership chairman, said at the TS&GRA quarterly meeting in Del Rio that the campaign slogan will be "1,000 in 30." Present membership is 5,163, an increase of 476 from a year ago.

The drive will be on a county-by-county basis, with county chairmen and co-chairmen. Present members will help in acquiring new members. Eleven district chairmen will coordinate the program with Egger.

Fifty new members were signed in the first three days of the drive.

A stronger lamb market this year, plus good wool movement, has brightened sheep industry prospects considerably, said Gaylord Hankins of Rocksprings, president. Indications are that Texas sheep numbers by next year will be appreciably larger because most ranchmen are retaining ewe lambs and rebuilding flock numbers trimmed by dry weather and unfavorable markets.

Angora goat numbers in Texas are at a generally high level. TS&GRA represents both wool and mohair producers.

Cox. "Texas is first in tornadoes, second in hurricanes, and first in devastating floods."

"Being adjacent to Dyess Air Force Base," said Cox, "makes us a vulnerable target in case of an enemy air attack."

Cox quoted an army official recently saying that "with all radar and other equipment, it would be impossible to stop all the bombers in a full scale air attack."

Equipment and material Merkel has acquired through Civil Defense and Civil Defense Division of the Texas State Department of Health during the past few years, and the advantages Merkel would have over all the nearby towns in the area, who have none of this equipment, will appear in subsequent articles.

miles west of there. At a rock crushing plant some full tanks had blown down. Barry Scott, who had some cotton on Mrs. Sam Butman's place, lost it in a heavy hail storm. The next damage we saw was almost at Nolan, where the hail had beaten all the leaves off of the cotton, but leaving most of the bolls.

The storm started one-half mile south of Nolan on the Jess Brown farm and reaching some fifteen miles to the east, to end at Mrs. W. T. Perry's ranch, doing a lot of damage.

We would like to mention our college students. Roger Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Moore and Malinee Seymore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Seymore, are both going to McMurry College in Abilene.

Sue and Burl King, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen King, are going to Texas Tech in Lubbock.

Farris Neill, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Neill, is attending Abilene Christian College in Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Del Davis are both majoring in animal husbandry at Abilene Christian College.

Right now, I want to tell Jackie Doan that I like her news column. I think it is real good.

Today's

GOOD TURN

Here's a "Good Turn" to bake and then to freeze for use in the lunch box.

They're called Simple Simon Tarts just because they are so simple to prepare... crisp pastry shells filled with canned apple sauce, cinnamon, nutmeg, brown sugar and lemon rind.

You bake a batch and freeze 'em. Then, serve them either plain or dressed up with cheese strips, whipped cream, more brown sugar, or crumbled peppermint candy. Here's how:

SIMPLE SIMON TARTS

1 package pie crust mix
4 cups canned apple sauce
1/2-3/4 cup brown sugar
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon

1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1 tablespoon grated lemon rind
Pinch salt

Prepare pie crust mix as directed on package. Roll out and press into 6 or 8 tart shells, or muffin cups. Flute edges and chill. Thoroughly mix remaining ingredients and divide evenly between shells. Bake in a hot oven, 425 degrees, 25 minutes or until pastry is gold brown. Cool. If desired, add any of the following toppings before freezing pies—whipped cream, flaked coconut, chocolate curls, crushed peppermint candy, chopped raisins or nuts. Wrap or bag tarts. Freeze until ready to use. Makes 6-8 individual tarts, depending on size preferred. Note: If cheese is used, freeze tarts as directed. Before placing in lunch box, unwrap and add cheese. Rewrap and place in box.

Step Up Search for Former 4-H'ers Who Qualify for Alumni Awards

The Federal Extension Service estimates that there are 23 million former 4-H Club members in the United States today. So it is safe to say that in each of the nearly 3,100 counties and districts within the 50 states reside thousands of men and women who were 4-H'ers.

It is these people whom the national 4-H alumni program seeks to honor locally and nationally through its recognition awards. The program is conducted by the Extension Service and supported by the Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation. Participants sought are persons who have demonstrated leadership, service to youth, adherence to 4-H principles and success in their occupation or profession.

Businessmen, homemakers, farmers, teachers, public officials and others have received alumni awards during the 13 years they have been offered. The main task, according to the National 4-H Service Committee which cooperates in the program, is to make a concentrated effort to keep in touch with former 4-H members. Names of persons can be sent to the National 4-H Service Committee.

If every county from coast to coast named four persons to receive the county alumni recognition pin, more than 12,000 could be honored in a single year. And 200 could be cited for the state plaque award.

Then there are eight national key award recipients to be selected from among the state winners. These eight are guests of Olin during the National 4-H Club Congress at Chicago. An elaborate alumni banquet and other recognition events spotlight the national winners.

"With so much good being done by so many who have shared a common philosophy of service to others and who attained success in life," observed Mr. Kenneth Anderson, associate director of the National 4-H Service Committee, "it's important that these responsible Americans be honored."

He urges residents to check childhood affiliations of prominent neighbors to ascertain if they have a 4-H background. "If so, make him or her your 1966 candidate," he added. "Ways to locate 4-H alumni are at large meetings, local affairs, clubs, church and by just asking around."

Information supplied on the form below will be sent to the proper extension office for follow-up.

New Law to Aid World War II Disabled Veteran

Veterans with severe, service-connected disabilities will have an additional ten years to complete needed training as a result of a new law enacted by the 88th Congress and approved by the President.

Jack Coker, Manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Waco said the new law is of particular importance to seriously disabled veterans of World War II who have had long periods of hospitalization and have only recently reached the point where the program of training is possible.

Other veterans who were not considered seriously disabled, and originally did not feel in need of rehabilitation, have now become unemployed because their service-connected disabilities have worsened, the VA manager added. These veterans now will have an opportunity under the new law to enter planned vocational rehabilitation.

Even though seriously disabled, many veterans can be made employable by carefully planned occupational training, Coker said.

Compere HD Club Gives Programs

The September meetings for the Compere Home Demonstration Club featured discussions on furniture refinishing and on clothing.

The September 8 meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Ab Hunter Jr., with Mrs. Hunter giving a program on "Furniture Refinishing."

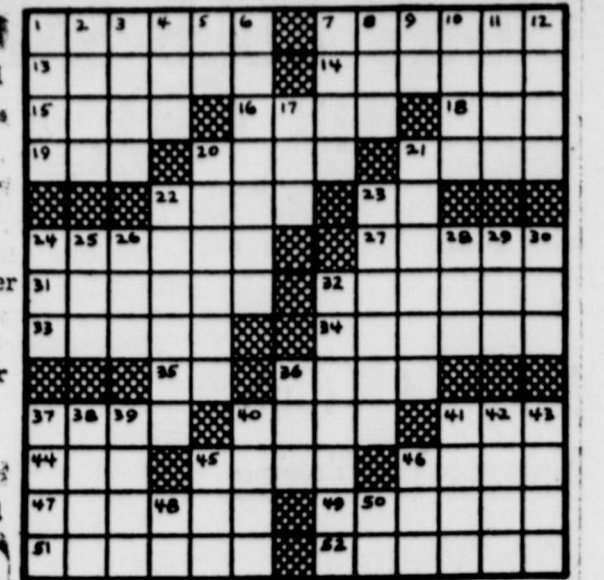

Karen Sullivan, Noodle 4-H Club member, presented the September 23 meeting with a program on clothing. She discussed the importance of "planning your wardrobe as well as the cost."

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. J. E. Touchstone. Mrs. W. D. Ramsey, president, presided at both September meetings.

Peace Corps Test Scheduled Oct. 9

(Special to The Merkel Mail)

An opportunity for Merkel area residents to offer their abilities to the Peace Corps will come at 8 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 9, at Room 2201, New Post Office Bldg., in Abilene.

The opportunity is the Peace Corps Placement Test, which is not passed or failed and you can not study for it. It measures general aptitude and the ability to learn a language. If, for example, test scores indicate limited language acquiring ability, the Peace Corps tries to place the applicant in an English-speaking area. The test is used by the Peace Corps only as a tool in the matching of Volunteers and jobs. The Peace Corps application is the most important indicator of suitability for Peace Corps service. It must be filled out and brought to the exam unless previously submitted. Applicants should plan on about one and a half hours at the testing centers, unless they wish to take the Spanish or French language achievement test, which requires an additional hour.
