

Farmers Union Sets Convention

The Taylor County Farmers Union Convention will be held in Merkel this Saturday, Nov. 6 at the high school cafeteria, according to president, Billy Bob Toombs.

Principal speaker at the 7 p.m. meeting will be Kenneth Moss, of Lubbock, organizational director of the Texas Farmers Union.

A barbecue dinner will be served to members and their families attending. Heading the food committee are Stanley Toombs, Freddy Toombs and Cramer Reynolds.

Following the dinner hour, Resolution Committee chairman Buddy Smith, will read resolutions to members for their approval to be submitted to the State Resolutions Committee.

WTU Open House Registers Over 200

Attendance at West Texas Utilities' Open House last Friday totaled 209, according to manager, Bill Button.

"We had 209 register for door prizes, plus some 50 employees and their families," said Button. "And we always look forward to Open House when it affords us a time to meet our friends and customers."

Winners were Mrs. Almeda Bullock, waffle iron; Mrs. Ford Smith Jr., electric coffee maker; and Mrs. Lillian Floyd, electric can opener.

West Texas Utilities home economists served coffee, cold drinks, cookies and ham to those attending.

Officials from the Abilene office also attended the Open House, said Button.

Seniors Looking For Firewood

Merkel High School seniors are busy (after school hours) this week collecting things for their annual bonfire, to be held on Friday evening, Nov. 12, preceding Homecoming on Saturday.

"If you have any old wood, buildings, wooden boxes or anything that will burn in our bonfire, we would appreciate having them," said Debbie Fincher, MHS senior.

A call for Debbie at 928-4859 after school hours or a call to Mrs. Ida Mae Graham at high school office, 928-5813, will get a bunch of seniors on the job.

BOOSTERS-COACHES END GAME TIED 6-6

The touch, six-man bout last evening between the Merkel School coaches and Boosters members ended in a score of 6-6.

At halftime it looked as though the coaches would be the winners with the score 6-0, but a lengthy rest period and pep talk by Booster "coaches" Alvin Wozencraft, Arthur Moore, Vincent Barnett and Lawrence Hewitt revived the Boosters enough to come back with a TD in third quarter.

Star players for the Boosters were all over the field — David Scott, John Ford, Lou David Allen, Grady Knight, Bill Whisenhunt, Don Purser, Gaylon Doan, Tony Doan, Pat Williams, Johnny Thompson and John Brady, who was carried off the field with "injuries."

Attending Brady following his injuries was the Booster Club's doctor, Fred Starbuck; however, Brady was not able to play during the rest of the game.

Coaches fighting to "untie" the score were head coach Paul Woodfin, Bill Tate, David Burson,

GIRL SCOUTS BUSY WITH PROJECTS

Visitors to the Scout House on meeting days see many and varied projects currently being undertaken.

"With money given us by the Merkel Community Fund, we have been able to purchase many supplies," said Mrs. Dan Glasscock, Scout leader. "And along with art supplies, we have purchased cleaning supplies, hot water heater, cookstove, sink, refrigerator, craft books, Scout pins and Scout handbooks and song books."

Scouts and Brownies, along with adults have built benches and repaired windows and shutters. "The most important part is that almost all purchases have been made right here in Merkel," said Mrs. Glasscock.

"Members and volunteers have really worked hard at cleaning the building, cutting weeds and grass, sawing trees and raking," she said. "And everyone is invited to come by and see what we have done."

Special recognition has been given the Merkel Telephone Company for donating a large table for project work, and to others who donated chairs, and to Mrs. E. V. Walters for repairing plumbing.

Articles the Scouts are currently in the process of gathering include egg cartons, milk cartons, empty spoons, paper rollers of all sizes, coffee cans, and small cans.

Also old scissors, rags, crayons, yarn, oatmeal boxes and juice cans.

"We can use almost anything that you have to throw away," said Mrs. Glasscock. "Just bring them by the Scout Hut on meeting days or call 928-4883 for pickup."

Presently there are 43 girls in junior Scouts, six cadettes and

BADGERS AND TIGERS AT ANSON FRIDAY

The Badgers are all "fired up" for a win this Friday night over the Anson Tigers after their walloping from the Haskell Indians here in Badger Stadium last Friday evening.

"It's gonna be a tough game," said head coach, Paul Woodfin, "but I believe our boys can come out on top if they keep up the drive they've been showing all week."

Game time at the Tiger Stadium is 7:30 p.m., and there's still some tickets that can be purchased at the Merkel High School office.

"It's good to see the Badger fans up there in the stands and we hope we have a stadium full this Friday night," commented Woodfin.

Woodfin also commented on the Boosters being at workout last Wednesday. "We like to have them out there with us," he said, "and we're looking forward to them being there again."

Last Friday's bout with the Haskell Indians wound up with a score of 44-0, with Haskell's first touchdown coming 30 seconds after kickoff.

Merkel fumbled on its first play from scrimmage, and the Indians' Jackie Young scored on the 19-yarder — Jim Mickler's kick made it 7-0.

Another TD for the Indians came when Bobby Cobb passed 23 yards to Ivy and score went up — 13-0. Another score for the Indians was made by Witten on a 15 yard pass and another from Whitaker from the Badgers' 21. Score then was 37-0.

Haskell's Cox on a six yard run and a conversion kick by Mickler raised the score to 44-0.

Fruits And Tendencies
Of Evolution No. 1

Typical of true evolution is this statement from "The Meaning of Evolution," by G. G. Simpson: "Man is the result of a purposeless and materialistic process that did not have him in mind." A more recent statement by the famed evolutionist, Julian Huxley, vibrates with the same tone: "Darwinism REMOVED THE WHOLE IDEA OF GOD as the creator of organisms from the sphere of rational discussion. Darwin pointed out that no supernatural designer was needed; since natural selection could account for any known form of life, there is NO ROOM FOR A SUPERNATURAL AGENCY in its evolution." (emphasis is mine — B.P.) On the cover of Gamaliel Bradford's work, "Darwin," is the statement: "The life of a gentle, tolerant, and loveable man, who overturned the world of thought shifted the whole attitude of science, and upheaved the very foundation of religion and morality. He made Hell a laughing stock and heaven a dream."

Such statements reveal the true nature of modern evolutionary thinking. Lying at the root of all evolutionary ideals is a basic ANTI-CREATION, ANTI-GOD attitude. It is principally a materialistic philosophy with nothing to offer the human race but doubt and confusion. Those who hold to the theory have, it would seem, an automatic barrier which rejects at the very mention of anything opposing evolution.

Evolution cannot be harmonized with the Word of God. It contradicts the book of Genesis, the word of Jesus himself because he quoted Genesis, and every passage that says God is a "God of Love" and every promise of eternal life."

A visitor to the Merkel Mail this week was CARL "COBB" SMITH who brought in a cluster of green tomatoes to prove that he was "growing 'em big" these days. Cobb's hobby is growing tomatoes, and frankly, they were the largest we had seen in many a moon. There was one big 'un that weighed over a half pound all by itself. Wonder how large they would be if he waited until they were ripe.

HATS OFF to all the people in Merkel who participated in Halloween activities this past Saturday evening. Making a special tour around town Saturday evening the Mail reporters were pleasantly surprised at how well activities had been planned for the little ghosts and goblins that were out — parents too. There was the "Haunted" House plus Dunkin Sam at United Methodist Church and then a trip out the 1235 Farm to Market Road we "discovered" the other Haunted House that that we were not able to find prior to Halloween.

It was something else, and if you didn't find it, you missed a lot of screeching, moaning and groaning. Incidentally, we were informed that $0.63 was collected and has been turned over to the Goodfellows for use this Christmas. Some Merkelites to thank for this extra special fete for youngsters — and oldsters — are the Kent Satterwhites, T. J. Bird, Verna Doan, Lee Tuckers, E. A. Conleys, Margie Bird and Peggy Bowen.

THE SAM JONES' weekend visitors included Sgt. and Mrs. Chester Dupont and children of Lawton, Okla. Having just returned from Germany they visited other relatives in Merkel besides Sam, Mrs. Dupont's uncle. Also visiting Sam and Faye were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Farmer of Plano, and Mrs. Mary Jane Anderson of Waco.

Tarvin-Wilburn Annual Reunion

Descendants of Douglas Tarvin and Emory Wilburn met for their annual reunion on Oct. 31 at the Community Center.

Attending were Howard and Mildred Tarvin, Fort Davis; Millie Cardwell, Junction; Alta and Emmett Howard, Junction; A. C. Tarvin, Barstow, Calif.; E. C. and Alma Tarvin, Barnhart; and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bright, Fort Worth.

Also Mrs. Burlie Bond and Randy, Merkel; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wilburn, Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Agnew and Mrs. Norma Bond, Merkel.

Also Ralph Wilburn, Mrs. Lenora Wilburn, and Glen Wilburn, Sue Copeland, Pam, Mark and Melissa, Mr. and Mrs. Don Eiland, all of Abilene, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Gibson and Jay.

HALLOWEEN PARTY FETES GIRL SCOUTS

Halloween was made a very special occasion for the Merkel Girl Scouts in Troop 313, when they were treated to a party Saturday night, Oct. 30 at the Scout House.

As the Scouts arrived in costume, they were registered on a jack-o-lantern registry and had a ghost, pumpkin or cat pinned on them for playing games. Games were played outdoors and were directed by Mrs. Don Hart, assisted by Mmes. Jerry Russell and Jack South. Team prizes were given.

Upon entering the Scout House, girls found it decorated with white sheets, streamers, Halloween characters, masks, and apples hanging from rafters by strings for apple bobbing. After rescuing her apple, each girl participated in a musical number game directed by Mrs. Russell.

Refreshments were served from an orange covered table, centered by a black cat, pumpkin, and a witch standing by a cauldron pot, overflowing with favors of bags of candy with jack-o-lantern suckers peeping out of each bag.

These and all decorations were prepared by Mrs. Hart.

For refreshments, punch, made by Mrs. South, was served, and a Halloween cake made by Mrs. Melba Glasscock, troop leader, was cut. For the delight of the girls, a giant black spider had been frozen in an ice ring to float in the punch.

Those attending were Lesa Hart, Cindy Boone, Billie Clendenne, Mary Goodman, Carla Rister, Betty Lindsey, Taresia English and Leslie Stewart.

Also Pam Crenshaw, Deborah Glasscock, Shannon Bagby, Mary Roeder, Jodie Jenkins, Sherry Roeder and Janice South.

Also Tammy Thomas, Janet Wade, Gina Farmer, Jeannessa Cypert, Lugenia Guenther and Patsy Biera.

Also Lupe Ortega, Vivian Arney, Danna Russell, Kelly Ann Barnes, Lori Barnes and Robbie Baker.

Adults attending were Mmes. Hart, Russell, South, Glasscock, Jenkins and Edith Kennedy. Also Judy and David Glasscock, Christi Jenkins, Alan Glascock and Ferrell Bagley.

Lesa Hart is Girl Scout reporter.

THE JOE LASSITERS ATTEND REUNION

Tulsa, Oklahoma, was the setting of a reunion of a group of WWII officers and their wives, Oct. 22, 23, 24. Those attending came from New York, Ohio, Massachusetts, Minnesota, North Carolina, Connecticut, Indiana, Oklahoma and Texas. Texas was best represented with four attending from Fort Worth, Berger, San Antonio, with Joe and Ruth Lassiter joining the group from Merkel.

During the War the group was a part of the 324th Air Service Group who went first to North Africa and from there to Italy where they were in service until November, 1945. Most of the officers served a minimum of 23 months of foreign service, and had shipped over together in January of 1943.

"It had been 25 years since I had seen any of my fellow officers, except the one from Fort Worth," Lassiter said.

The Adjutant of the 324th, Milton J. Gordon, who now lives in Tulsa, was the host for the reunion. Among the highlights of the reunion, planned by Adjutant Gordon was a tour of Oral Roberts University; Gilcrease Institute of American History and Art; and a surprise to me — "Tulsa Port of Catoosa."

"I did not know that a seaport of any sort came as inland as Tulsa," Lassiter commented.

Another interesting trip carried the group to Claremore, and a visit to the Will Rogers Memorial and a tour of the J. M. Davis Gun Museum in Claremore, valued at more than eight million dollars. ($8,000,000.00).

"The Mayor of Tulsa, the Hon. Robert J. LaFortune and the Governor of Oklahoma, the Hon.

The Funeral Director is Your Personal Representative in . . . CARING FOR THE DEAD

Man has always buried his dead with respect and ceremony—beginning with the early Egyptians, about 3000 B.C., right up to the familiar American funeral of today.

The roots of American funeral customs and practices extend back through western civilization into early Judaeo-Christian beliefs concerning the nature of God, man, and the hereafter. Most people believe that the sacred quality of man exists in the soul or spirit and that the body which housed the soul during life deserves dignified treatment after death.

Regarded only as a physical fact, a dead body is a worthless thing. But nothing can deny or obscure the knowledge that just a brief moment ago it was someone dearly loved who loved in return. And so, for what it was, rather than what it is, the body is almost universally treated with reverence and dignity.

Macaroni Is Number One

According to the National Macaroni Institute, celebrating National Macaroni Week October 7-16, macaroni is "number one" in popularity. And also in convenience, versatility and economy.

Who's to argue? Everybody loves spaghetti and egg noodles and all shapes of macaroni. And macaroni products are certainly easy to keep on hand and use on a moment's notice. They combine with practically any other food you can think of and can be used for almost any occasion when you serve food. As for economy, every wise homemaker knows how macaroni stretches out the food budget!

So here's a dish which illustrates all the great virtues of pasta, and one you can serve to celebrate National Macaroni Week. Nobody knows how Macaroni Mickey Mouse came by its amusing name...but everyone who's tasted it agrees it's a great dish!

MACARONI MICKEY MOUSE (Makes 6 servings)

- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1 1/2 quarts boiling water
- 1 cup elbow macaroni (4 ounces)
- 1/4 cup butter or margarine
- 1 cup soft bread crumbs
- 1 1/2 cup milk, scalded
- 1 canned pimiento, minced
- 1 tablespoon chopped parsley or celery
- 1 tablespoon chopped onion
- 1 teaspoon salt

Macaroni Mickey Mouse

- 1/8 teaspoon pepper
- Dash paprika
- 3 eggs, beaten
- 1 1/2 cups grated Cheddar cheese
- 2 strips bacon, cooked and chopped (optional)

Add 1 1/2 teaspoons salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add macaroni so that water continues to boil.

Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander.

Return macaroni to pot, add butter and toss until butter melts. Add remaining ingredients and mix well. Turn into 2-quart casserole. Bake in 350° oven 40 to 45 minutes. Garnish with bacon, as desired. Serve with cheese sauce if desired.
