CARTER WINS HERE

Spears Captures Local JP Position

A FEW YEARS AGO we began to hear the term "silent majority" being used. It pertained to the rank and file Americans, who go about their business without causing a great deal of stir, but who, with their ballots, wealth or influence, silently cause the major events to happen.

We don't know if you'd call the results of Tuesday's election the work of the silent majority, but in many ways it applies.

About all you heard during the closing weeks of the campaign from the news media was about how President Ford was closing the margin between himself and Jimmy Carter, and how he apparently, like a pro football team in the final two-minute drill, was moving in for the sure 11th hour win.

You also heard a lot to the effect that voter turnout was going to be low. Many people commented as to the cause of the predicted voter apathy, especially during our Bicentennial election year.

A lot of this turned out to be just so much talk Tuesday, as American voters, apparently tired of such things as Watergate, low farm prices, high gas prices and a questionable energy program, voted to return a Democrat to the White House for the next four years.

And they did so in record numbers in many places, including Parmer County, where the voter turnout was over 72 per cent of the registered voters, probably a record percentage of people voting, and definitely a record number.

After visiting with several farmers, it was no surprise to us that they were going to vote for Jimmy Carter. Farmers in this area have watched the price for their commodities slip to a three and four-year low in some cases, while at the same time their cost of production, particularly in the field of natural gas, has doubled and quadrupled.

As we have noted before, the farmers have felt for some time as though they were a voice crying in the wilderness. By electing a fraternal brother to the nation's highest office, surely if things change at all for the farmer, it will be for the better.

At one time we attempted to figure out who the last American president had been who had actually pursued farming as an occupation. We never did pinpoint him, and decided that it may have been George Washington. No doubt some enterprising reporter will come up with a more accurate answer to this one.

At any rate, the silent majority has spoken. Carter did not (at least at this early hour) receive an overwhelming mandate, but the Wayne Spears won the Justice of the Peace unexpired term for the Bovina-Rhea precinct Tuesday, climaxing a successful write-in campaign by a margin of 49 votes.

In a record turnout of voters locally, Spears received 344 votes in the precinct to 295 for Mrs. Edna Estes, who had been appointed to the position by the county Democratic Committee, and had her name on the ballot.

Spears led the voting in the Bovina box, 313 to 247. Mrs. Estes led at Rhea, 33-21, and she also had the most absentee votes, 15-10.

The write-in campaign helped swell the Bovina voting turnout to 606, a new record. The previous high vote was 550 here in the 1968 presidential election.

Across the county, the voting turnout of 3482, representing around 72 per cent of the registered voters, was a record turnout, topping the former record by 336 votes. The vote total was boosted by excellent fall weather, with the temperature reaching 70 degrees on election day.

Bovina voters joined those across the county, state and nation in giving their majority to president-elect Jimmy Carter. The Carter-Mondale ticket won the Bovina box by a 373-217 margin.

The Democratic ticket led every voting box in the county except at Farwell, where Ford and Dole held a 323-300 margin, and at Rhea, where each ticket received exactly 36 votes.

Carter led the county totals with 1,914 votes to 1,487 for Ford. The Georgia governor had 56.3 per cent of the county totals to 43.7 for Ford. Carter's winning margin in Bovina was 62.3 per cent.

Congressman George Mahon of Lubbock, facing his first opposition in 30 years, was given a big boost by county voters in successfully outpolling Jim Reese of Odessa. Mahon won every county box in winning, 2059-1289. He won the Bovina box, 358-215.

Senator Lloyd Bentsen, who likewise was successful in his re-election bid, coasted to a 2133-1147 edge over Alan Steelman.

Jon Newton was an easy winner in the Railroad Commissioner race with 2210 votes.

In the race for associate justice of the Texas Supreme Court, county voters got a late word on the write-in effort by attorneys Sam Houston and Tom Lorange, but still wrote in a surprising 831 votes in this race. Yarbrough, the candidate under fire because of his personal record, still received 1640 votes in Parmer County.

County voters were in a "write-in mood," as they tallied over 1400 write-ins, including the 344 for Spears, and another 190 in the commissioner's race at Friona. Bill Denney received 28 write-in votes for sheriff.

The two proposed amendments, which did not fare too well statewide, were given comfortable margins in Parmer County. Number one (water treatment for cities) passed by 2071-692, and number two (sewerage treatment) passed by 1936-730.

16th Annual Turkey Meal Set Sunday

The 16th Annual Turkey Dinner, sponsored by St. Ann's Society of St. Ann's Catholic Church, will be held Sunday in Parish Hall of the church.

Serving will begin at 11:30 a.m. and continue until 2 p.m. Admission will be $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for children under 10.

Menu for the annual event will be baked turkey and dressing, creamed potatoes, green beans, cabbage slaw, cranberries, French bread, pumpkin or chocolate cake and tea or coffee.

Door prizes will be given and a hand-made bicentennial quilt will be raffled at the conclusion of the dinner. A Country Store will also be featured.

The dinner is a popular event in Bovina and a large crowd usually turns out each year. Everyone in the community is invited to attend.

School Out Here Friday

Friday will be a holiday for students at Bovina, as teachers will be attending a District Teachers Meeting in Amarillo.

Classes will dismiss at the regular time on Thursday. Students get a long weekend, with the exception of the football game here Friday night against Vega.

is placing his ballot in the box. Marie Venable is the election clerk. Election judge Jay Sherrill is behind Mrs. Venable.

Donna Grissom Wins Contest

Donna Grissom was the first prize winner for the ninth week of the Bovina Blade's football contest.

Mrs. Grissom, who lives in the Oklahoma Lane Community, was the only one of 127 contestants to correctly pick 12 games on the contest slate.

Donna's only miss, besides the tie game was in picking Denver City to beat Post on the number six game. This was one of the most often missed games on the slate.

Once again, for the seventh week out of nine this season, the 14-game lineup contained a tie. This week, it turned out to be the District 3-AA game between Olton and Littlefield. Another game in that district, Morton and Dimmitt, also ended up in a tie, but this game was not on the contest lineup.

Ten other contestants had scores of 11 for the week, and two of these took second and third in the weekly guessing event.

Leon Grissom was the second place winner in the contest, making two members of the same family for first and second. Leon took the prize on the basis of his tie-breaker score for the Bovina vs Kress game. Grissom pegged the game to end up 23-13, when the actual score was 27-12, making him five points off the actual score.

Third place went to Steven Stone, whose score was 24-8, making him seven points off the actual score.

Other contestants with scores of 11 were Darlene Caldwell, Frances Johnson, Andy Martinez, Mike Nabers, Wendy Sherrill, Yvonne Stevenson, Sandra Ware and B.J. Whitecotton.

After nine weeks, there have been eight tie games included in the weekly contest games, surely a record. The contest has missed having a tie only twice in nine weeks, but one week there were two ties on the slate, to more or less make up for the omission.

In the race for grand prize, Bobby Drake of Friona and L.F. Jacobs retained their status quo. Both contestants scored 10 correct for the week. Drake leads the event with a score of 83. Jacobs is two points back with a score of 81.

OFFER REPEATED

The Blade repeats its offer to double the customary $7.50 first prize for the first contestant to correctly pick all 14 games in a weekly contest. In case more than one contestant gets all 14 games right, the regular tie-breaker score will determine the one who gets the $15.00.

OFFER REPEATED

Contestants are shooting for a grand prize of $100 after the completion of the 13-week event, co-sponsored with the Blade by 14 local sports-minded businesses.

Another contest appears on Page 3 of this issue. Contestants are also reminded of the offer of $5.00 to any contestant correctly picking a tie. As many ties as there have been this year, it might be a good time to try one.

FIRST SNOWMAN....Robbie Moody was one of the first Bovina residents to build a snowman for 1976. Last Thursday's freak snowstorm left up to five inches of snow in the Bovina area, interrupting harvest operations, bringing good moisture to the area.

Reflections

From The Blade

20 YEARS AGO—OCTOBER 31, 1956

John Wilson is the new water superintendent for City of Bovina. Announcement of Wilson's appointment was made earlier this week by Mayor J.E. Sherrill, Jr.

Everything is big in Texas. Ors, so goes the saying, and the ballot which Farmer County voters will be facing when they go to the polls to vote in the November 6 general election is in line with other Texas monstrosities.

The largest in history, the ballot measures 28 inches in length. It was so large that there wasn't a job printing press in the printing plant that would handle it, and it has to be printed on the newspaper press.

According to a poll of typical Farmer County voters taken jointly by the Bovina Blade, the Friona Star and the State Line Tribune, Adlai Stevenson and the Democratic ticket will win the election in Farmer County by a landslide.

15 YEARS AGO—NOV. 1, 1961

Riding the crest of a four-game winning streak, including three district wins, the Bovina Mustangs go to Vega Friday night to take on the Longhorns in what could be termed "District 2-B Championship

Lazbuddie Voters OK Bond Issue

Voters in the Lazbuddie school district passed a $575,000 bond issue for construction of new facilities in a bond election Tuesday of this week.

Voter turnout for the election was determined "very good." Three hundred persons cast votes in the election, with 193 votes cast in favor of the proposal, and 107 against it.

The bonds will provide funds for construction of a new physical education center and gymnasium, the addition of a band hall to the existing auditorium, a new industrial arts shop and classroom, a bus repair shelter, duplex housing for teachers and a concession stand and restroom facilities for the football and track field.

Superintendent Sam Barnes says the district will accept bids on the bonds Dec. 6 and said construction should start sometime in January.

Battle." Because of the records of the two teams, Bovina will be the favorite. However, Vega (4-4), will be expected to extend every effort to get by the Mustangs, who are 6-3.

A norther, combined with half an inch or more of moisture, moved into the area Sunday night. Moisture was enough to postpone all harvest plans. Area grain sorghum was considered 80 to 90 per cent cut, however, and the moisture will be of little damage to that crop.

10 YEARS AGO—NOV. 2, 1966

First and seventh grade students in Bovina Schools, along with all other students whose parents gave their permission, will receive tuberculin tests Tuesday, according to Mrs. Katherine Lockhart, school nurse.

The community medical survey for medical assistance conducted by the Bovina Woman's Study Club for the Sears-Roebuck Foundation will be completed by the end of this week, according to Mrs. Jesse Walling, chairman of the community improvement committee.

County voters go to the polls Tuesday in a statewide general election with the office of U.S. Senator and that of Congressman of the 18th District stealing the spotlight in this area. Seeking the U.S. Senate post are Republican John Tower, incumbent, and Texas' current Attorney General, Waggoner Carr. In the congressional race, Dee Miller of Amarillo opposes Bob Price of Pampa, the Republican candidate.

5 YEARS AGO—NOV. 3, 1971

Mrs. Flossie Rhinehart is Bovina's Champion First Freeze predictor for 1971. She hit the freeze date exactly with the prediction of Sunday, Oct. 31.

The area's delayed milo harvest, some 30 days behind schedule now, is on the brink of getting into full swing. Moisture is the only thing which could hold the harvest back, as farmers are eager to get the crop into the elevators after weeks of delay due to rain and late maturity of the grain.

Corky Criswell, assistant Mustang football coach, emerged the winner of the Bovina Businesses Cotton Bowl Football Contest last week. Criswell was one of four contestants with a perfect entry, and his tie-breaker score was 25 points off on the actual 48-0 count as Bovina toppled Sudan.

Bovina Native Gets New Army Position

Colonel Nolan C. Rhodes, a native of Bovina, has assumed duties as deputy division engineer for civil works, US Army Corps of Engineers, Southwestern Division, Dallas.

As such, he will coordinate the Corps' civil works programs including planning, design, construction and operation throughout all or a portion of eight states.

This is the colonel's third assignment with the Division. He formerly served as deputy district engineer of the Tulsa, Oklahoma District and as district engineer in Galveston. From there he went to Europe to command the 130th Engineer Brigade and his most recent assignment was as deputy engineer, US Army Engineer Division, Europe.

Colonel Rhodes has had assignments in almost all areas available to a career officer, some of which include: company officer and later staff officer at Headquarters, Seventh Army and executive officer of the 23d Engineer Battalion, 3d Armored Division, Europe. In Korea he was a battalion and group staff officer and in Vietnam commanding officer, 19th Engineer Combat Battalion.

COL. NOLAN C. RHODES

Following service in the US Navy throughout World War II, Rhodes was commissioned in the US Army Corps of Engineers upon graduation from Texas Technological College, Lubbock. He did his graduate work at Ohio State University in Columbus and is a graduate of the US Army Engineer School, Command and General Staff College and the Army War College.

Colonel Rhodes is married to the former Betty J. White of Midland. They have three children.

BHS Grad On Committee

A BOVINA HIGH SCHOOL graduate, Bill Richards, has been named chairman of the New Mexico Activities Association's Girls Athletic Committee.

Richards, a 1956 graduate of BHS, started the girls athletic program at Reserve High School in New Mexico, and began what has been termed a dynasty of victories and championships.

His girls teams at Reserve have compiled the uncanny record of 108 wins against only eight losses, a cool winning percentage of 93.3.

Richards' best finish was in 1974 when his team reached the state semi-finals, losing to Clovis.

He not only started the girls basketball program, but also began a football team at Reserve in 1962. He coached football for six years and had a 33-17 won-lost record. He had eleven players who gained first team all-state honors.

Richards attended both Texas A&M and West Texas State University where he received a BA degree in 1960. He began his coaching career in the El Paso school system in 1961, and has been head coach at Reserve since 1962.

And it appears that his dynasty will continue at least another year in girls basketball. For the 1976-77 season, Richards has 11 lettermen, including four starters, back from last year's team.

agri-facts By John Ricci

Narrow row cotton gets its most comprehensive test this year with some 50,000 acres to be harvested. First started as a novelty idea three or four years ago, the concept has steadily increased in popularity. Pioneers of the system, Elmer Hudspeth and Levon Ray, say their initial test block produced exceptional yields of nearly three bales per acre. More recent narrow row results show yield increases of ten to fifteen percent . . . good enough to make the system more popular every year. General recommendation for planting on a 40 inch bed is to space the rows from 8 to 10 inches apart. With the sizeable acreage in the field this year lots of us will be taking a close look at gin tickets in the fall to see how the narrow row breed does in its most comprehensive test.

Three Teachers Attend Workshop

The Region XVI Career Education Curriculum Writing Workshop was held October 26 and 27. The purpose of the workshop was to write curriculum modules which would help a teacher infuse career education as a part of the ongoing curricula in all subject areas and grade levels.

The project was sponsored by the Texas Education Association. The workshop proposed that career education was to encourage students to think about different occupations and not necessarily to promote the feeling that all students should enter college.

Bovina teachers participating in the workshop were: Mrs. Anna Hefflin, junior high; Mrs. Barbara Charles, elementary, and Mrs. Marue Snodgrass, high school.

Cub Scouts Have Halloween Party

Some of the activities of the Cub Scouts recently included a talk about safety by Gary Gillespie, City Marshall. The Cubs made voter tags to hang on door knobs to remind people to vote. Posters were made for the homecoming pep rally, also.

Recently the Cubs toured the feed yards west of Bovina with Sue Naegle leading the tour.

A Halloween Party was held Tuesday night at the American Legion Hall. The parents were invited and ribbons were given to the most original costume, the most scary, and the funniest costume. The most original costume was won by Charles Johnson, first place; and Clay Dutton, second place. Ricky McKay won first place for the most scary costume and second place was won by Jimmie Heard. The first place winner for the funniest costume was Justin Powell with Kenneth Hughes winning second place.

Wanda The Witch and a Halloween mummy visited the party to add some fright to the fun.

HALLOWEEN PARTY....Tuesday night the Bovina Cub Scouts got a head start on Halloween with a party at the American Legion Hall. The Cubs came dressed in their "very best" for the party. Also at the party were an old witch, a mummy and a clown from Halloween's past.

LOVE AS CHRIST LOVED

Christians are not only commanded to love, but to love as Christ loved. Jno. 13:34. God's will has always been that men love one another, but here a new depth of love is added, "Love one another as I have loved you." The important thing in our life is not what is happening to us, but rather what is happening in us.

Christ's love was a love that served. He was always serving others about him. Matt. 20:26-28. His love always obeyed his Father's will (Jno. 6:38). Even when approaching the cross he prayed, "Not my will, but Thine be done."

Christ's love was a love that brought about a spirit of unity (Jno. 13:35). Is there a greater paradox in any land than a divided religious world pleading to a divided world for unity. When bitter and harsh words are spoken among us will the world get too excited about our plea for unity? Zeal and sincerity is not substitute for love. I may never know who is on the right side of an issue, but I do know that whoever loses his love for his brother and mankind is on the wrong side of God.

Christ loved those who did not love him. He loved those we did not deserve his love. He loved those who were unlovable. He had a love for all men (Jno. 3:16). His love was a love that gave the best he had, his very life. His love was a love that forgave.

To love as Christ loved is not difficult to accent in theory, but it is extremely difficult to accept in practice. The reason: it conflicts with our human behavior. This kind of love is easier to preach than to practice. We will admit the importance of love in our minds, but we need to admit it in our lives. Our greatest and most important need is to love as Christ loved.

voice of the voter was heard, all the way from Bovina to Washington.

And, while the two major parties did not, as George Mahon pointed out here last week, build their platform around the farmers in order to win, the farming segment had a lot to say in the final analysis, as to who our next president would be.

At this writing, for instance, the 26 electoral votes from Texas made the difference in Carter's column. And if Ford had made more of an effort for the farm vote here, as well as in his own midwest backyard (at this writing the state of Ohio was too close to call), that could have turned the whole election around.

MUSTANGS OF THE WEEK

ANTHONY RAMON, a sophomore, plays tackle for the Mustang varsity team this year. He played football two years in junior high and has played for the Mustangs both years in high school. Ramon has been in Bovina schools for seven years. Ramon also enjoys hunting, bowling and basketball. Mr. and Mrs. C.G. Ramon are the parents of Anthony.

PAT WARE began school in Bovina and is a sophomore here this year. Ware plays linebacker for the Mustang team. Ware has played football four years, two in junior high and two in high school. He also enjoys playing basketball, golf, and snow skiing.

Ware's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ware.

DISTRICT BATTLE

Ponies Fall To Mud, Cold, Kress

A frustrated young Bovina Mustang team was not able to beat the combination of mud, cold and Kangaroos as Kress downed them 27-12 in district play last Friday night at Kress.

Kangaroo runningback Dane Sisemore somehow found a way to run through the slime as he slipped and slid for 145 yards.

"We played a pretty good ball game considering the conditions," said Mustang head coach Joe Christian. "The field was really muddy and it was very hard for both teams." The playing field had been cleared of an accumulation of snow prior to the game.

The Mustangs have had a strong passing game behind the arm of sophomore quarterback Ronnie Cary. The cold and wetness cut down on the effectiveness of Bovina's offense.

According to Coach Christian, "There were not that many turnovers, considering the condition of the playing field, but we need to throw the football more and the snow and wetness severely hurt our passing."

The Mustangs have been plagued by inexperience and injuries this season, but are making a very good showing in spite of their problems. Mustang fans should be very proud of the team. They've played very good football and will be a team to reckon with no matter what happens the rest of the 1976 season. The Mustangs' last two games will be very tough, but they can still upset someone before the year is over, and you can bet coach Christian and his boys will be out there trying.

Friday night's game was high scoring considering the conditions. Bovina drew first blood on a pass play from quarterback Ronnie Cary to Danny Harris. Harris rambled 35 yards for the TD. The Mustangs tried for two points and failed.

Kress' first score also came in the first quarter with Dane Sisemore slipping in from the one yard line. The Billy Boggs' kick for the extra point was good and the score stood 7-6, Kress.

The Mustangs' offense was stymied by the solid Kangaroo defense the remainder of the half, giving the ball up on downs inside the Kress 20 with only seconds remaining in the second period.

The Kangaroos, however, scored twice during the second stanza. The first TD came on a one yard plunge by Sisemore. Boggs kicked the PAT and the score was Kress 14, Bovina 6.

The Kangaroos' second TD was accomplished by a 20 yard pass play from Benny Durham to Lyndon Bird. Boggs' kick was again good and Kress took a 15 point lead with them into the locker room at halftime, 21-6.

Neither team was able to generate a lot of offense the third quarter, until Kress took the ball down to Bovina's five. From there Armando Vuittonet struggled in on a five-yard run. The kick for the PAT was blocked and the Kangaroos were on top, 27-6.

The Mustangs would not give up easily and managed to punch in the last score of the ball game on a 30-yard pass play from Cary to Harris. The two point conversion try failed and the Mustangs were forced to accept their third straight district loss.

The Mustang's next opponent will be the Vega Longhorns. The game will be at Bovina, Friday, November 5, at 7:30 p.m.

Mustangs Host Vega In 1976 Home Finale

The Bovina Mustangs will face the Vega Longhorns in their fourth district confrontation Friday, November 5 in Bovina.

Both teams hold identical 0-3 records in District 3-A competition, with the Mustangs losing to Kress last week 27-12, while Vega was bested by a strong Farwell team, 29-20.

Farwell's Travis Bibbs ran for three touchdowns against the Longhorns last Friday night in Vega. Bibbs scored on runs of 21, two and one yards.

Vega's scores came on two TD passes by Mike Yell—one nine yarder to Marvin Mode and an 80 yard pass play to Davis Doshier. Quarterback Yell ran in from the two yard line for the Longhorn's other TD.

Even though both own 0-3 district records, both teams have the talent and ability to play an exciting game and neither one gives up until the final gun.

"Vega has a very good team in spite of their record," said Mustang head coach Joe Christian. "They're big and strong and have the ability and experience."

The Longhorns returned 13 lettermen to this season's team from a strong 1975 team. The Horns came on during the final half of the season to post a 4-1 record in District 3-A, losing only to Hart in the final game by a touchdown 25-18.

Vega head coach Jimmy Duncan has had six defensive and five offensive starters off his 1975 team to work with this season, including their highly regarded two-way starter David Doshier, a 5-9, 165 pound fullback-linebacker.

Two other heavily-relied-upon two-way men are end-linebacker Kyle Moore and center-tackle Jeff Ferguson.

Neither team should be discounted because of their record. If they play up to their abilities, it should be an interesting and exciting ball game with plenty of passing by both teams.

The game will begin at 7:30 p.m. Friday night in Bovina.

Little Loop Sets Meeting

All parents of Little League players, and all people who work with the Little League, including coaches are urged to attend a meeting at the First State Bank Community Room at 7:30 p.m. November 9.

Purpose of the meeting, according to George Powell, Little League president, is to discuss proposed changes in the local summer baseball program.

"The meeting will not be for assigning jobs—it is to get ideas from everyone concerned, and discuss the possibility of changing to a parent organization other than Little League. Please come and voice your opinion," Powell said.
