By Bill Ellis

THE EARTH SUMMIT has been underway in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, for the past two weeks.

Many Americans have been disappointed in the failure of the United States to assume a leadership role at the summit, let alone keep up with the efforts of other nations attending the summit.

The U.S. has failed to sign the biodiversity treaty, which protects plant and animal species. However, our nation's reasoning is that the pact as it stands would require additional aid from the United States to poor countries, and would harm America's biotechnology industry.

President Bush promised that America would spend an additional $150 million to protect forests.

However, a recent TV program we watched makes you wonder just how interested the U.S. leaders really are in preserving forests.

The program showed how "clear cut" logging has destroyed entire forests in the Pacific Northwest.

This type of logging ignores the selective method of harvesting trees in a forest, and literally takes every tree in a particular area of ground.

This creates a myriad of problems, including tremendous erosion due to the loss of trees. Environmentalists point out that animal species are threatened by the clear cut method.

The worst aspect of the piece we watched on television was the fact that the clear-cut logging which was documented, was being done in our National Forests, which are under control of the federal government.

Many people are surprised to learn that logging is allowed at all in the National Forests, when the truth is that more trees are probably harvested each year from this source than otherwise.

The fact that the government allows the clear-cut logging to be carried out in the National Forests, makes you wonder if our national leaders are even interested in the environment, or conservation in general.

Most Americans today are convinced of the necessity of conserving, in order to make our natural resources stretch out.

We'd like to see our top officials take the lead and set some examples for the rest of us to follow.

THE CITY OF Plainview has done a good job in recent years of landing industries, including their Excel plant, the Walmart regional warehouse, and other coups.

This summer, the High Plains city scored big again when Paramount Pictures decided to film the new Steve Martin movie, "Leap of Faith," mainly in Plainview.

Plainview residents are all abuzz with excitement over the movie work which is underway there, and rightly so.

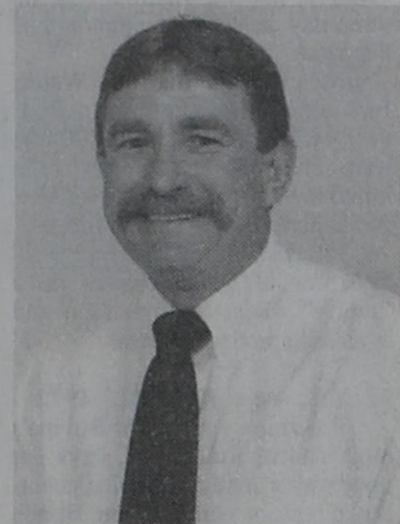

It has been stated that the movie industry spends an average of $26 million per film, and that approximately 50 per cent of a film's budget is spent locally.

This would mean the spending of approximately $13 million in the Plainview area, and that ain't small potatoes.

Of course, the folks who spotted Steve Martin at Plainview's Furr's Cafeteria a couple of Sundays back probably figure this was the main benefit as far as they are concerned.

Other filming is expected to be done in Groom, Amarillo and Lubbock for "Leap of Faith."

RON STEELE BHS Grad Heads WT Football

West Texas State University took the first step in rejuvenating its intercollegiate football program on December 20, 1992, when Athletic Director Mike Chandler named Ron Steele as the twenty-third head football coach at WTSU. A University long on tradition and football success, Steele and staff will have their work cut out for them in preparation for the 1992 season.

The Bovina native played an instrumental role in the rebirth of intercollegiate football at Midwestern State University during the 1988 season. Steele held the position of assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Midwestern for three seasons (1988-90) before accepting the position of defensive coordinator at Stanton High School for the 1991 football season.

With the experience of having been associated with resurrecting football at Midwestern, Steele believes he and his staff will be able to avoid some of the mistakes made by a first-year coaching staff. After a first year record of 4-6, Midwestern recouped their rewards by finishing 9-3 in 1991. A similar four-year plan will be used by the new WTSU coaching staff.

"The program at MSU had a solid direction and at the end of the four-year plan they had a payoff. Hopefully we can move things a little quicker here at WTSU, avoiding many of the mistakes while using our experiences to our advantage," said Steele.

Steele began his coaching career as an assistant football coach at Clyde High School in 1980-81. He moved on to Graham High School from there, staying a total of six years (1981-86). In 1986, the WTSU head football mentor held the position of Athletic Director, Head Football and Track Coach at Munday High School. He stayed in Munday, Texas, until accepting the position at Midwestern State University.

Coach Steele received his bachelor's degree in secondary education from McMurry College in 1980. While at Midwestern he finished his requirements for a M.S. degree in physical education in 1989. Coach Ron Steele and his wife Susan have two children.

Parents Warned Of Incident

Parents need to be warned that about three weeks ago three individuals riding in a "white over gold colored Ford LTD" unsuccessfully attempted to pick up some young girls in Bovina.

The young girls reported the incident, leading to the arrest of three men. The three men were Willie Garcia, 31, Plainview; Jesus Garcia, 27, Tulia; and Patrick Pruitt, 24, of Tulia.

Parents--please make sure that your children know the dangers of talking to strangers and if someone should try to pick them up make sure they know what to do. It is a good idea not to let your children walk alone; always try the buddy system.

Dyer Wins Trip To Convention

Tobyn Dyer, of Bovina High School, was one of four Future Farmers of America members who recently won a trip to the national FFA convention, courtesy of Southwestern Public Service Company.

Tobyn earned the trip by scoring highest in the motors class at the 30th annual SPS-FFA Electric Workshop, held June 8-10 in Amarillo.

The three-day workshop featured demonstrations, videos and lectures, in part, on wiring farm buildings, assembly of electric controls and electric safety.

"These are skills that these young people can use every day on the farm," said Dave Kruppnick, SPS manager of agricultural and wholesale marketing. "And the students who come here are really eager to learn."

Among the FFA advisors and agricultural-science instructors helping conduct the workshop was Art Hunter of Bovina High School.

Southwestern Public Service Company is a regional electric utility that primarily provides electric service to a population of about one million people in a 52,000-square-mile area comprising eastern and southeastern New Mexico, the South Plains and Panhandle of Texas, the Oklahoma Panhandle and southwestern Kansas. Corporate headquarters are in Amarillo, Texas.

Long-awaited construction began Tuesday morning on the widening of Highway 60 where it goes through Bovina. The present width is now 20 feet and will be increased to a width of 80 feet.

The tax rate increase, which Parmer County taxpayers have been asked to approve July 25, will be only for increasing revenue for the acquisition of farm-to-market roads, it was pointed out this week by A.D. Smith, county judge.

Plans are being made for Bovina's fourth annual Fourth of July community picnic. Lions Club directors and committeemen are busily laying groundwork for the celebration, which is just 15 days away.

Bovina Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture is having five signs constructed to be erected on highway entrances to Bovina, Mack McCracken, manager, announces.

Thunderstorms Sunday night and Monday brought relief in form of moisture to the lengthy dry spell here. The rain, in some areas, was combined with hail which did some damage to ready-to-harvest wheat and young row crops.

James Lee Calaway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Calaway, was one of the top ropers in Clovis Junior Rodeo which was held last week.

25 Yrs. Ago-June 21, 1967

A Series Of Informative "Plain Talk" Thoughts Regarding Your Money Matters

Auto Loans Borrow, Then Buy

First you get an idea of how much you would like to finance on a car purchase. Then you come in and see us and line up your money. Now you're ready to "kick tires," "kick salesmen," or do whatever you have to do in order to get the best deal on a car. It's much easier to bargain when financing is already handled.

Some of the car companies offer low interest financing in order to move their cars but when you stop to think about it--if they are that anxious to sell the cars by lowering their interest rates, they are probably just as anxious to make a deal with a cash buyer.

A Kids' Guide To Schlitterbahn

by R.J. Maxx

Ok, so you've finally got your parents to set the date for a visit to Schlitterbahn Waterpark in New Braunfels. Don't let down the charm now. You've got to convince them to get there early and stay late. Appeal to their pocket books by reminding them that you really get your money's worth if you're the first people in the park and the last to leave.

Once that's settled, and you know you've got a good ten hours to spend at the part, start mapping out your route. My friends and I start with a map of Schlitterbahn (the one the park hands out) and circle our favorite rides. This year, there's no contest. We always agree to start at the Boogie Bahn. That's the radical new surfing ride in the Surfenburg addition. If you get there early, you get the best choice of body boards and the line is shorter. Plan to spend at least an hour at the Boogie Bahn. If you've never tried it before, it will take you a few turns to get the hang of it. Everybody wipes out at first, but just keep at it and watch the best riders. The lifeguards will give you some tips and sometimes they body board or body surf on their breaks. You can pick up some good techniques watching them.

About once an hour, they blast a loud horn to let you know they're turning the Boogie Bahn water all the way up to make awesome waves in the Kristal River connected to the ride. They call it Thunderous River and it really rolls. The only problem is that you can't always find a tube in time to catch the best waves. So ask the lifeguards when they are making Thunderous River and be ready. The best place to wait is right across from the ramp where the Boogie Bahn riders exit into the Kristal River.

About this time your parents will probably want you to do something with them (quality time, you know!). Eating is always a good choice--you can bring your own food or you can buy things there, like sausage on a stick, turkey legs and pizza. After that, impress your parents by invite them to go tubing on the rapids in the Comal River. It's right down the hill from Surfenburg. If they're not too settled in, get them to hop on the free tram for a ride over to the main section of the part.

This is where you really need to use your time wisely. There are 17 water slides and 9 inner tube chutes, plus a wave pool, hot tubs and the lagoon with water volleyball. If it's your first time at Schlitterbahn, head for the castle and try the Raging River tube chute. It gives you a 45-minute ride that's like a water tour of the part, so you can decide where to go from there.

One of my friends always makes the same circuit--starting at one end of the park and riding everything (except the kid stuff, of course) until he gets to the other end. Not too imaginative, but it works. I think the best approach is to zero in on your favorite rides, working your way across the park. Fill you parents in on your game plan and set times and places to meet. (A Schlittercone booth is a smart choice.)

Whatever your plan, stay flexible. You never know when a cute girl will need some help carrying her inner tube.

From May 29 through August 30, Schlitterbahn opens every day at 10 a.m. (Open weekends only from September 5 through 19.) Adult all-day admission is $16.97. Child all-day admission (3 to 11 years) is $13.74. Discounts are available for mid-day admission (3:30 to closing), two-day passes, spectators and groups. For more information, call Schlitterbahn Waterpark in New Braunfels, Texas, (512) 625-2351.

R.J. MAXX practices on the new Boogie Bahn surfing ride at Schlitterbahn Waterpark. The 11-year-old Schlitterbahn expert offers tips to help kids get the most out of a day at the New Braunfels water park, such as "get there early and stay late."

Tiny Fleas Can Be Big Trouble For Pet Owners

Fleas can be a major threat this time of year, according to Lee Van Sant, Manager of the Amarillo Service Center of Terminix International.

"For the past week or so, our office has been flooded with telephone calls from homeowners concerned about flea infestation," says Van Sant.

It is not a concern Van Sant takes lightly. She says, "Fleas can infest any home. They can bite a child, live on a pet, make you sick and transmit tapeworm to your dog. Many people are allergic to flea bites, and almost everyone experiences severe itching and painful irritation when bitten."

Fleas Are Vicious

According to Van Sant, adult fleas feed on blood. They usually attack your cat or dog, but they will also bite any members of your family. And they are one of the hardest pests to control. "Fleas are survivors. They can survive months without food, and they can remain frozen for a year and then revive to jump on a dog or a child," says Van Sant. "Fleas have been around for millions of years, and they breed at an astonishing rate. They can jump 150 times their own length, which is equivalent to a human jumping nearly 1,000 feet."

Fleas Are Hard To Control

Van Sant says adult fleas can live in your home, on your pet, and outside in your yard or kennel. Flea larvae can live in your pet's bed, in carpets and rugs, or in cracks in the floor. Once you get fleas, they are extremely hard to get rid of. Fleas keep coming back. They hatch from eggs already laid and they are brought back into the house on pets.

Tips For Controlling Fleas

Van Sant says there are several things homeowners can do to help control fleas.

1. Follow your veterinarian's advice about bathing your pet with "Flea" soap.
2. Wash all pet bedding in hot soapy water on a regular basis.
3. Thoroughly vacuum your home to remove flea eggs, larvae, and potential food sources.
4. Pay particular attention to cracks or crevices under furniture, and underneath sofa cushions, especially in areas frequented by the pet.
5. Discard vacuum cleaner bag or sweepings in an outside container immediately.

Heavy Flea Infestation May Require Professional Help

Controlling fleas is a tough job that may require the services of a professional pest control company, and sometimes even they may have difficulty getting rid of all the fleas with one treatment.

If you do seek professional help, Van Sant recommends that you follow these simple guidelines when choosing a pest control company.

1. Be sure the company you contact is reputable and reliable. (If you have doubts, call the Better Business Bureau.)
2. Many firms offer free inspections. Ask about this service when you call.
3. Get more than one estimate and compare services.

4. Make sure the pest control company you choose guarantees their work.

Lazbuddie Farmer Is Elected

In the second statewide election since the Texas Corn Producers Board became a statewide entity in 1990, six board members were elected or re-elected in elections held in March and April.

Prior to the election, the TCPB had divided the state into eight separate "Voting Regions" so that board members would more closely represent the corn interests of a particular region of the state, and so that all Texas corn producers would have representation on the Board. As there are 15 board seats on the TCPB, the voting regions are designed for each seat to represent 1/15th of the total corn production in Texas as reported by the Texas Crop Reporting Service. The Texas Department of Agriculture approved the voting region plan.

There were two seats up for election in Voting Region One, which consisted of Lamb and Castro Counties in the Panhandle. Lois Wales of Dimmitt and Carl King of Dimmitt won those seats.

However, since Carl King is also Executive Director of the Texas Corn Producers Board, he chose to resign his seat so that the board would have broader representation. The board then elected the third highest vote winner, Doug Higgins of Kress, to fill the vacant seat. Both Lois Wales and Doug Higgins will serve until 1998.

Jerry Don Glover of Lazbuddie won the single seat in Voting Region Two consisting of five counties in the Western Panhandle centered on Hereford and Littlefield. Jerry Don will also serve until 1998.

Winning the two seats in the largest voting region in the state were Andy Armstrong of Ennis and John Baker of Temple. Voting Region Six consists of 121 counties, and stretches from El Paso to Texarkana. Both men will serve until 1998.

The six new board members were sworn in on May 6th in Austin by Bob Tarrant, Coordinator, Commodity Board Program, Texas Department of Agriculture. The board then moved to elect officers for the 1992-1994 term. Elected as chairman was Bert Williams of Farwell, Texas; Vice Chairman is Gerald Donaldson of Boling, Texas; and Jerry Don Glover of Lazbuddie, Texas, was elected Secretary-Treasurer.

Press releases and legal notices on the election were sent to all major newspapers in the state where elections were to occur. Over eight thousand ballots were distributed. The voting period was from March 9, 1992, until April 10, 1992. The next election will be in March, 1994.

There will be four seats up for election in 1994, three in the Panhandle area and one seat in the Coastal Bend area.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

JETHRO'S FORESIGHT!

WHEN JETHRO, MOSES' FATHER-IN-LAW, WAS VISITING THE CAMP OF THE ISRAELITES HE CAUTIONED MOSES WITH A BIT OF ADVICE. AND BECAUSE OF HIS ADVICE PEOPLE EVEN TODAY DELEGATE AUTHORITY IN A LIKE MANNER. WHAT JETHRO SAW, THAT CAUSED HIM CONCERN, WAS THE FACT THAT MOSES SPENT FROM MORNING TILL NIGHT LISTENING TO THE TROUBLES OF HIS FOLLOWERS AND STRAIGHTENING OUT SQUABBLES AMONG FAMILIES, ETC., TO THE EXTENT THAT MORE IMPORTANT NEEDS WERE NEGLECTED. HE RECOMMENDED ASSIGNING MEN TO SPECIFIC DUTIES TO RELIEVE MOSES OF PETTY DETAILS. "...MEN OF TRUTH... TO BE RULERS OF THOUSANDS, AND RULERS OF HUNDREDS, RULERS OF FIFTIES, AND RULERS OF TENS; AND LET THEM JUDGE THE PEOPLE AT ALL SEASONS..." (EXODUS 18:21,22) AND TO THIS DAY JETHRO'S ADVICE IS POTENTLY PRACTICAL!

JETHRO WATCHES AND LISTENS WITH GREAT INTEREST.

BUT IT IS ONLY A BEGINNING! SOON, A LONG LINE OF MEN HAS FORMED, ALL SEEKING JUDGEMENTS! WHO IS THE RIGHTFUL OWNER OF A JAR OF WILD HONEY? THE OWNER OF THE JAR--OR THE MAN WHO GATHERED THE HONEY? TO WHOM DOES A CERTAIN GOAT BELONG? WHICH MAN INHERITS HIS FATHER'S GOODS? IT IS OBVIOUS THAT THIS IS A DAILY DUTY FOR MOSES!

AND JETHRO'S SAGE ADVICE CHANGES ALL THIS FOREVER!

JOHN LEHTI

Intimacy- Everybody Wants It

by Ron Trusler, M.Ed.,
LPC, LCDC, LMFT,
Director of Clinical and Substance Abuse Services,
Central Plains Center for MHMR & Substance Abuse

It's the buzz word of the of the 90's. Most folks are looking for it in their relationships as a matter of equity. In other words, "If you will, I will" type thing. We want a relationship that will provide us with someone who will be intimate with us. This actually provides us with reassurance that we are lovable.

Intimacy develops through self-disclosure and that may not come by both people doing it at the same time. If a person waits for a "we" in the intimacy idea, they may find a low-level of satisfaction and resentment.

Intimacy is not the search for care from others, but an independent sense of self that gives us the ability to display our inner-self to our partner. With at least one partner capable of sustained self-disclosure, there is a chance for the other person to take part in the self-disclosure.

Intimacy is not just sex--it is the sharing of the deep parts of the inner-self: our fears, desires, hopes, etc. Better sex may be involved with a committed relationship. Better sex is not just relaxing and garter belts. Sex is not a matter of paraphernalia but persona. Intimacy moves sex from the area of quiet complacency to responses of "where did you learn that?"

Linda's Lines

By LINDA MARSHALL

I want to thank Scooter for helping me out while I was gone. I took my daughter, Nita, down to freshman orientation at Texas A&M last week.

Cain Neal rode down with us for orientation also; however, Cain stayed to work for the summer. The weather was not too hot and humid yet and the campus was just beautiful. We are now officially Aggies!

Cathy, Jamie, and Cory Graves also went to freshman orientation at Texas A&M. We all ate lunch together one day and then we just kind've went our own ways.

Buster and Mearle Morgan have had company and still have company. Deanna Cooner, their daughter, and Amy Cooner, their granddaughter, was down from Blanchard, Oklahoma to visit for a few days Deanna had to go home but Amy stayed and is planning to be here for a week. Amy had a friend with her, Chandelle Casey, who rode back to Oklahoma with Deanna.

Stephanie Woltman, Buster's niece, from Albuquerque, was here visiting. Jonathon, their grandson, and his wife, Leithane were here from Dimmitt.

Bobby and Shirley Calaway of Kansas visited in Bovina with Bobby's parents, Robert and Emmagene Calaway.

Bobby and Shirley were on their way home from visiting their son, Bill and family in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Emmagene said she and her husband Robert, celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary on June 13. They were married in Portales, New Mexico.

Marie Venable called to say they had a good visit with Almeda Gordon of Eules, Texas. Almeda lived with the Venables about 35 years ago when she didn't have a home and finished school in Bovina. They had not seen her since then.

Richard Grisham has recently returned from spending two weeks in Kansas City, Missouri at the Mid-Western Baptist Seminar where he took part in the Doctrinal Seminar on Worship and Preaching. He had a nice time but said it was a long time to be away from home.

On Sunday Grisham was invited to preach at the Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church north of Kansas City near Blythdale, Missouri. He was pastor of this small church in 1972-73, and visited with some of the members that he knew at that time.

Our deepest sympathy to the family of Gloria Leal, who died in Dallas. Gloria grew up in Bovina and went to school here. She was the mother of two children. Services are pending. Gloria was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Cruz of Bovina.

Tony and Dottie Neal met Mike and Mendy Scheffler at the airport in Amarillo on Friday, June 5, to go to Eagle-Vaile for their vacation. Dottie said that they fished and just relaxed.

16 Attend Society Meeting

St. Ann's Society met Monday, June 15 for the final meeting before summer. Sixteen members were present.

Father Timothy Dran, pastor, will be celebrating his 42nd anniversary in the Priesthood on June 17. He will be presented with a plant and flowers will also be purchased for the altar on Father's Day.

Dona Rejino reported on the upcoming garage sale to be held Saturday, June 20 at 8:30 a.m.

Members are working on a quilt which will be quilted this summer and raffled off in November.

St. Ann's sponsored a trip to Wonderland Park and to eat pizza for the altar boys.

Refreshments were served by Mary Mesman and Lupe DeLeon. The meeting was closed with a prayer.

Dottie got to relax a little more than she wanted to because the whole time they were gone she had a pinched nerve in her neck. It rained every day they were down there but it was a slow, relaxing rain.

Mike and Mendy left on Thursday to go home and when they stopped at the Royal Gorge they ran into some friends that had just gotten married. Tony and Dottie came home on Sunday.

Maggie Terry, her children, and grandchildren went to the Glover-Ellison cabin at Nogal for a weekend. Maggie said that they had a picnic, played games, and just enjoyed the mountains. Some of the family went to Ruidoso on Saturday.

Mrs. Ruth Terry from Friona was over visiting with Maggie.

Maggie Terry, Phyllis Steelman, Arnold, Amy, and Brad Hromas, Galen, Judy, Darren, Matt, and Lisa Hromas attended the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Jay and Ruth Boone.

We want to extend our sympathy to Mary Jane Wilson on the loss of her long time friend, Jerry (Tootie) Hipps. A.M. and Mary Jane went to San Antonio to the funeral.

They picked Suzanne up at Abilene and she went with them. Casey Bell rode down to San Antonio with them and is staying with her cousins, Loren and Jessica Bybee.

We also want to extend our sympathy to Jill Timms on the loss of her grandfather, E.E. Jourden.

Happy Father's Day to all our fathers! I have a little poem for you and after you read it you may really think about what it is to be a father.

JUST LIKE HIS DAD
"Well, what are you going to be my boy? When you have reached manhood's years;

A doctor, a lawyer or actor treat, moving throngs to laughter and tears?"

But he shook his head as he gave reply, in a serious way he said:

"I don't think I'd care to be any of them. I want to be like my dad."

He wants to be like his dad, you men, did you ever think as you pause,

That the boy who watches your every move, is building a set of laws?

He's molding a life you're the model for, and whether its good or bad,

Depends on the kind of example set to the boy who'd be like his dad.

Would you have him go anywhere you go, have him do just the things you do,

And see everything your eyes behold and woo all the gods you woo?

When you see the worship that shines in the eyes of your lovable little lad,

Could you rest content, if he gets his wish and grows to be like his dad?

It's a job that none but yourself can fill; It's a charge you must answer for;

It's a duty to show him the road to tread ere he reaches his manhood's door.

It's a debt you owe for the greatest joy on this old earth to be had;

This pleasure of having a boy to train who wants to be like his dad.

Call us at 238-1523 with your news items. We want to know about your trips, visitors and vacations.
