NURSE'S STORY OF ULCER CURE

Case of Six Months' Standing Entirely Healed.

After long suffering and the use of many ineffectual medicines, this case from Augusta, Me., comes to light as entirely healed. The authenticity of the case is apparent when you appreciate that the bearer of the tale is a graduate nurse. The following is the letter, as received:

"I must write and tell you the good Resinol Ointment has done. I applied it to a ulcerated leg of six months' standing. Almost everything had been tried to heal it. Resinol was applied twice a day for four weeks, and the ulcers are entirely healed. It is now six months since the treatment and no indication of a return of the trouble. I have used Resinol for eruptions on children's faces, and for everything that seemed to need an ointment, with satisfactory results in every case."

Mrs. I. E. CAMERON, Augusta, Me.

The first application of Resinol will relieve itching and irritation in skin diseases, and stop pain in burns and scalds. Frequently chafing, sunburn and poison ivy eruptions are cured overnight.

It is highly beneficial as a general skin remedy, and after one trial you will appreciate this to such an extent that you will never be without it. You can procure Resinol Ointment, Resinol Soap and Resinol Medicated Shaving Stick from any druggist. Sample sent free if you will mention Department No. 59. Resinol Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md.

Not in Circulation There.

An error of a new clerk in the mailing department of an eastern publisher was responsible, the other day, for the mailing of a prospectus to a world-famous statesman, who had been dead for some years. The letter was returned a few days later with the following indorsement: "In Heaven, —, 1211. Gentlemen: As your publications are not permitted to circulate here, I believe it would be useless for me to subscribe to them. Yours respectfully," and here followed the name of the famous statesman.

Overheard in Venice.

"Isn't it romantic, John, dear," said she, as they sat in the little Venetian garden, "to sit here and listen to these Italian troubadours singing their ballads bathed in the moonlight?"

"Yes, dear," replied John, with a deep-drawn sigh. "But I sometimes wish they'd bathe in something besides moonlight, don't you. It might less romantic, but it would be a darn sight more hygienic."—Harper's Weekly.

Not Craped.

The head partner of a flourishing firm had recently died. A few days after the funeral an old friend called at the office and said:

"I'm grieved to hear you have sustained such a loss in Mr. —, and I can see you all feel it very much by hanging crape on the wall."

"That's no crape," replied the clerk; "that's the office boy's towel!"

To Much for Bill.

"I dunno how Bill's agoin' to vote in this election," said the campaign worker. "I've heard he's on the fence."

"He was that," replied the neighbor. "but one of the candidates let fall a dollar on the off side of the fence, and Bill got dizzy an' fell over."—Christian Register.

The Kind.

"Don't laugh at Miss Gladys Gooseberry as trivial. She is a scientific woman."

"She scientific? What kind?"

"You must admit she is a chemical blonde."

Early Standards of Mendacity.

Eye meditated.

"I think that story Adam told me is a lie out of the whole lot," she announced.

ITALIAN INVADERS OCCUPY TRIPOLI

CITY AND FORTIFICATIONS SIMPLY A PICK UP.

'T WAS BLOODLESS CONFLICT

Neither Power Prepared for a Long Continued War, and Peace Negotiations Under Way.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Through a haze of conflicting and confusing telegrams, many of them bearing the earmarks of the "man behind" the typewriter, any real information regarding the Italian-Turko affair is difficult to obtain and verify. It is certain that Tripoli is taken and held by the Italians, and that its conquest was practically bloodless, so sudden did the enemy come upon it, resistance was impossible. Five of Italy's strongest vessels form a chain of steel around Tripoli.

It is understood that the Turkish garrison numbered 2,000 supported by about 1,000 irregulars. Therefore, there is no immediate danger for the Italians, but the 10,000 rifles that were landed from Dermas as well as a large quantity of ammunition, have been removed to the interior, where armed bands are being raised.

The military Governor has taken possession of the castle. Sailors occupy all the streets. The city is recovering its former animated appearance. The streets are crowded with Arabs, who have sent delegations to do homage to the governor.

According to reports from Rome, Italy, which at one time was ready to pay Turkey a large compensation, now will pay nothing, although she would not impose a war indemnity if peace were concluded forthwith. If hostilities are prolonged, however, the reports say, Italy will insist upon a heavy indemnity.

On the other hand, it is commonly known that Italy is in poor condition to hold together body and soul at home to say nothing of a war of conquest, which would drain the country of its money and its remnant of effective men. For many years the young, active and virile men of Italy have poured out of that country in a constant stream to all parts of the earth.

So far as Italy is concerned, it may be that she is only a catspaw used by the great powers to draw out the chestnuts of the final division of the estate of the "Sick Man of the East." Such a thing is not at all unreasonable in view of the peculiar political methods European powers have for the "peaceful (to themselves) assimilation" of desirable territory or maritime positions of advantage.

WACO'S SHOW IS GROWING

Live Stock and Poultry Shows Surpass Expectation.

Waco: Work has begun upon barns and stables that are to be used for the live stock exhibits of the Texas Cotton Palace. Practically every stable has been engaged, and there is no longer any doubt as to the live stock features of the exposition.

N. G. Crews, manager of the poultry exhibition, says that there will be fully 1,000 birds entered in that department, and that the poultry exhibit will be one of the largest that has ever been held in the State.

2000 PEOPLE ARE HOMELESS

Every grocery and meat market in towns has disappeared in the deluge. Two dozen dwellings have been swept away, and unless there is a sudden change in the current many more will disappear in the torrent which still roars in what was once the heart of the city. MUNYON PREACHES HOPE PHILOSOPHY

New Association Gaining Many Members.

FAITH'S CURATIVE POWER

NOTED HEALTH EXPERT GIVES REASON FOR BIG SUCCESS IN MEDICINE

Tremendous success has attended the organization of the new Munyon "Hope Culture" Mission. Munyon claims that he has secured more converts than he even anticipated, and says that his "Hope Cult" is growing in leaps and bounds. It is said that the total membership of the cult throughout the United States is now well over the half million mark.

In a statement for publication Prof. Munyon said:

"I want to talk to every sick, ailing and despondent person in this city. I want to preach my new creed to them. I want to tell them about my new philosophy of health, which is the fruit of a lifetime of study and experience in dealing with sick folk."

He went on to expound the Great Truth that I have learned that there is more curative power in an ounce of Hope than in pounds of Dope. "That sick people should not take medicine except a medium through which the great curative power of Hope may be made effective. Medicines are necessary in the present state of the world's progress because they give a patient physical support and strength and reassure their will which to brace up the will power."

One knows, from the action of the proper medicine, that he or she is feeling better by this inspired hope and faith, which completes the cure. I think that probably a million persons at least in the United States have declared themselves cured by my medicines, and I know that these people have had the best remedies medical science had to offer. I have always contended that if there is any virtue in medicine my followers should have the best. I very believe that more than one-half of those who have been lifted to health from the bondage of chronic diseases through taking my medicines, have been truly cured by the knowledge that they had the utmost in medical science at their command, and the Hope this inspired."

I am not an ordinary practicing physician. I employ at my laboratories in Philadelphia a large staff of expert physicians and chemists. I have had many other physicians in various cities of the United States detailed to give free clinics to the sick and afflicted. My headquarters are at Munyon's Laboratories, 522 North Tenth Street, Philadelphia, and I have a staff of duly registered physicians and consulting experts. I do not sell my medicines, but I offer the best of medical advice absolutely free of charge."

Write today, addressing Prof. J. M. Munyon personally and your letter will have a special care.

RASH ALL OVER BABY'S BODY Itched So He Could Not Sleep

"On July 27, 1909, we left Boston for a trip to England and Ireland, taking baby with us. After being in Ireland a few days a nasty rash came out all over his body. We took him to a doctor who gave us medicine for him. The trouble started in the form of a rash and was all over baby's body, head and face, at different times. It was so itchy that baby would scratch it with all his might. The consequence was it developed into sores, and we were afraid it would leave nasty scars on his face.

"When we reached England we took baby to another doctor, who said his condition was due to change of food and climate, and gave more medicine. The rash got no better, and it used to itch and burn at night so bad that the child could not sleep. He was completely covered with it at different times. It was at this time that my mother advised us to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After using Cuticura Soap and Ointment for about nine months the places disappeared. There are not any scars, or other kind of disfigurement, and baby is completely cured by the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. We have no further trouble with baby's skin. Nothing stopped the itching, and allowed baby to sleep but Cuticura Soap and Ointment." (Signed) Mrs. Margaret Gunn, 29 Burrell St., Roxbury, Mass., March 12, 1911.

Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold everywhere, a sample of each, with 32-page book, will be mailed free on application to Cuticura, Dept. 14 K, Boston.

SEEMS EASIER TO REMEMBER

Remarks of Writer in Cleveland Plain Dealer Appear to Contain Much Sense.

There is a new science called mnemonics, which is trying to get itself introduced into our public schools. We have no knock on this science—only it seems to us to be a roundabout way of arriving at facts that you ought to remember right off the bat. It appears to work something in this manner:

"When was Lincoln born?" asks the teacher.

"I—I-f-forget," whines the pupil.

"Naturally you do. Go at it right. How many Muses are there in mythology?"

"Nine."

"Right. Now double that number."

"Twice-nine—eighteen."

"Right again. Multiply it by 100."

"1809."

"Good. Add the number of Muses to that."

A FINE NIGHT-CAP

The Best Thing in the World to Go to Bed and Sleep On.

"My wife and I find that 4 teaspoonfuls of Grape-Nuts and a cup of hot milk, or some cream, with it, makes the finest night-cap in the world," says an Allegheny, Pa., man.

"We go to sleep as soon as we strike the bed, and slumber like babies till rising time in the morning."

"It is about 3 years now since we began to use Grape-Nuts food, and we always have it for breakfast and before retiring and sometimes for lunch. I was so sick from what the doctors called acute indigestion and brain fog before I began to use Grape-Nuts that I could neither eat, sleep nor work with any comfort."

"I was afflicted at the same time with the most intense pains, accompanied by a packing headache and backache, which I tried to eat anything. Notwithstanding an unusual pressure from my professional duties, I was compelled for a time to give up my work altogether."

"Then I put myself on a diet of Grape-Nuts and cream alone, with an occasional cup of Postum as a runner-up, and sometimes a little dry toast. I assure you that in less than a week I felt like a new man; I had gained six pounds in weight, could sleep well and think well."

"The good work went on, and I was soon ready to return to business, and have been hard at it, and enjoying it ever since."

"Command me at any time any one enquires as to the merits of Grape-Nuts. You will find me always ready to testify." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

If a man is pious because he is afraid of hell, in the end, he is likely to get what he is most afraid of.

Our public school is one of the things which is pointed to with pride by our citizens. Good schools will build up any town.

Wanted:—A Hogthief. If there is a hogthief in the country, he would confer a special favor on the citizens of this town by swiping the stray hogs that roam the streets at night, dealing destruction to the gardens and misery to the people. It is not often that the presence of such a gent in our midst would be appreciated, but just now the public peace and comfort demands it.

The Mayor of Indianapolis, Ind., in order to prevent extortionate prices for the commission merchants' combine, took a hand in the potato business himself. With his own money, he bought potatoes in car lots and sold them to the people at actual cost, thereby saving his people from the greed of those who would exact an exorbitant price on their food. The people of that state ought to make a government out of him.

A road overseer had been summoned to serve on the jury in our last District Court. Judge Timmins asked if there was any reason why anyone of those who had been summoned should not serve on the jury, and this man rose and informed the judge that he was a road overseer, and by virtue of his office claimed his exemption from jury duty. "Have you worked your road this year?" asked the Judge. "No, sir," answered the road overseer. "In that case," said the Judge, "you are not excused—take your seat among the jurors."

It seems that a road overseer must have worked his road in order to be exempt from jury duty.

CHINESE LAW IS STRINGENT.

Foreigners Must Be Ten Years in Country Before They Can Be Naturalized.

The Chinese government has just decided upon the following important naturalization laws besides others of minor significance:

- 1. Foreigners wishing to become Chinese subjects must first of all be without other nationality, and in the second place must have resided in China ten years. Even then the sanction of the ministry of the interior must be obtained.
2. Chinese wishing to become naturalized subjects of other countries must under all circumstances obtain the consent of the ministry of the interior. They can in no other way divest themselves of their Chinese nationality.
3. Chinese women wishing to marry foreigners must obtain the consent of the ministry of the interior before they can divest themselves of Chinese nationality.
There is much in the above rules to class with European laws or rules on this subject.

EDWARDS WILL PROBABLY HANG

Unless Gov. Cruce Commutes Death Sentence Slay-er of W. B. Gray Will Pay Penalty

Oklahoma City, Ok., Oct. 10.—Unless Gov. Cruce commutes the sentence of Frank Edwards of Pontotoc county, given the death penalty for the murder of William B. Gray near Hart, Ok., Edwards will be hanged at Wewoka Oct. 20. In a letter from the Judge of the Criminal Court of Appeals, written by Judge Thomas H. Doyle, Gov. Cruce is told that the record disclosed no error in the trial of Edwards, therefore the conviction is legal. This procedure is followed when appeals are not taken. Commenting upon the conviction the Judges of the Criminal Court of Appeals said to the Governor:

"The admission of the defendant alone shows him to be guilty of one of the most atrocious murders ever perpetrated, and when the horrible details are considered we can but admire the fortitude and forbearance of the community where it occurred. It permitted the law to vindicate itself in his punishment with its own extreme penalty."

Edwards was tried in Seminole County on a charge of venue, the testimony showing that the purpose of the crime was robbery. He is 31 years of age and formerly resided in Comanche County.—Dallas News.

W. B. Gray was formerly a citizen of this county, and we have heretofore given an account of his murder. The above is near the closing chapter of the story of a most brutal murder of an old and harmless man.

WALTER FISHER IS HERE

Our old time friend and ex-fellow townsman, Walter Fisher, who moved to Corpus Christi last year, is here shaking hands with old friends.

Mr. Fisher spent 29 years in helping to make Sterling what it is, and of course he feels a personal interest in the country and its people.

He says he likes his new home, and that he is doing a good business there, but he says he can never forget Sterling and its people. He says that, man for man, West Texas has got almost any other portion of the State skinned when it comes to good people.

Mr. Fisher will be with us for several days.

Ministers Not Eligible For Office Under Old Constitution

Article V, Section 1, of the Constitution of the Republic of Texas, reads: "Ministers of the gospel, being, by their profession, dedicated to God and the care of souls, ought not to be diverted from the great duties of their functions; therefore no minister of the gospel, or priest of any denomination whatever, shall be eligible to the office of Executive of the Republic nor to a seat in either branch of the Congress of the same."

This provision, so far as it pertained to the legislative branch, was brought forward in our state constitution, and remained until 1870.

Strikes

When a man is dissatisfied with his job, he has a perfect right to quit; but when he seeks to prevent others from taking his place, he is usurping authority that is not his.

This paper belongs to its proprietors and no one else. We bought it, paid for it, and installed it, and, by all human laws, it is ours to do what we please with it, so long as we use it so as "not to injure others." We have the right to employ whom we please to work on it, and our employees have a right to quit when they see proper; but when they, or anyone else, seeks to prevent us from employing others to fill their place, they are violating every principle of right.

Our sympathy are with those who toil, for we are a part of them; but when they leave the paths of rectitude and seek to oppress others by threats and violence, we denounce them as unworthy of the consideration of honest men.

The strike which is now on in parts of the country is doing more to injure the cause of labor than anything the labor unions could do. These men have a right to quit their jobs, but they have no right to injure the property of the railroads or by violent means seek to prevent others from taking their places. When they do this, they not only bring misery to the whole public, but they inflict misery on themselves and those dependent upon them for support. When they do this the unions become trusts of the most dangerous and malignant type, for if they had the strength they could throttle the industries of the world and starve mankind into the most abject slavery.

The death and destruction inflicted by these misguided people in the recent strike on the Harriman lines should be a pointer to our statesmen that the time has come to call a halt, and that laws should be enacted to prevent a repetition of these tragedies. If the laboring people wish to strike, let them strike; but let them be orderly about it or go to jail. Let them learn to give and take as others have to. Let them learn that others have rights which they are bound to respect or suffer the consequences. The sooner the deviltries committed by the hoodlum element of the labor unions feel the iron hand of law and order, and learn the Golden Rule, the better it will be for all parties concerned.

S. L. Hull county commissioner of precinct No. 3, desires us to say that having moved out of that precinct, the office of commissioner is therefore vacant. It is now in order for the people of that precinct to recommend a good man to fill Mr. Hull's place.

Re-stocking His Range

Four carloads of steers, which passed through San Angelo during the past week, enroute to Sterling will be placed on the H. G. Ratliff ranch to feed during the winter. Mr. Ratliff shipped them from his ranch near Brownwood.

During the past few weeks he has been stocking his Sterling county ranch with cattle from Brown county.

Several ranchmen in Sterling, Coke, and nearby counties are looking for cattle to graze on their range this winter. Experienced ranchmen say that several thousand head of livestock can find good pasturage in the San Angelo country this winter in addition to the stock already here.—San Angelo Standard.

TEXAS NEEDS GREAT MEN

IX. DISCOVERIES.

COLUMBUS discovered America and Galileo discovered solar systems and planets and throughout all ages, civilization has been indebted to wise men who could think beyond the age in which they lived. We need in State government men who can see across two continents and look into the horizon of Twentieth Century civilization and discover new zones of trade, new worlds of industry and new planets of prosperity.

We are standing on the edge of the ocean of discovery in Texas. Our mountains are the mineral vaults of the universe; artesian lakes of boundless area lie underneath our surface; our agricultural domain awaits men who can work inspiration into the soil and give a powerful impulse to progress. We need a Columbus to sail the high seas of our magnificent possibilities, to discover new continents in agriculture, to explore our mineral kingdoms, to colonize our industrial opportunities and give us a new world to live in. Texas needs great men.

ERADICATION OF TICK

Great Progress Is Being Made in Mississippi.

It is Expected That State Will Be First to Completely Destroy Injurious Little Insect—Co-Operation is Urged.

The following is a letter from Dr. J. A. Kiernan, inspector in charge of the tick eradication work in the south, to G. H. Alford of the demonstration work, who is co-operating with the tick eradication forces:

Great progress has been and is being made in the state in eradicating the ticks and an effort is being made to put the work on a state-wide basis and if only the proper energy is brought to bear and sufficient interest shown by the officials, stockmen and farmers, the expectation that Mississippi will be the first southern state to completely eradicate the tick ticks from her borders will be fulfilled. With this result accomplished and the state released from quarantine, her cattle production can be shipped or driven to any part of the country for any purpose, and on account of this fact, and also that their condition will be actually better because of being tick free and healthy, they will sell from 1/4 to 3/8 cents more per pound than when they were being sucked by ticks and under quarantine restrictions because of the ticks.

Active work is now being conducted in the following named counties: Coahoma, Panola, Lincoln, Claiborne, Clay, Grenada, Holmes, Wilkinson, Neshoba, Chickasaw, Carroll, Issaquena, Adams, Lowndes, Marshall, Warren, Hinds, Jefferson, Monroe and Benton. The following counties are in the free area: Desoto, Tata, Tunica and parts of Marshall and Benton.

The following named counties will be visited June 5 by state and bureau officials in an effort to get the supervisors to start tick eradication by arranging for the building of dipping vats: Bolivar, Sunflower, Yalobusha, Attala, Franklin, Kemper, Washington, Tallahatchie, Montgomery, Madison, Amite, Lauderdale, Sharkey, Leflore.

SELECTION OF COTTON SEED
Production of Early Variety is Now Absolutely Necessary to Get Ahead of Weevils.

Most of the over-wintered weevils are out of winter quarters by the time the cotton begins to set squares. A race that means much and a race that is watched by all the world then begins. The cotton runs the race of its life to set squares faster than the weevils can multiply and puncture the squares. If the cotton is an early rapid fruiting variety, the soil quick, making the seasons ideal for the growing of cotton, and the crop given intensive shallow cultivation, it goes out under the wire far in the lead with a bale or more per acre. But if the cotton is a late, slow-fruited variety planted on "late" land, the rainfall above the normal so that frequent and shallow cultivation cannot be practiced, the weevils soon destroy all the squares and then destroy all the bolls.

The production of an early cotton is now absolutely necessary. We must plant early rapid-fruited, productive cotton. We must either buy early and rapid-fruited cotton seed or select seed from cotton plants with low fruit limbs and short joints on the main stem and fruit limbs. The necessity for seed selection has not been so apparent, but with the coming of the weevil the interest in this work is becoming intense. Many planters have imported cotton seed from the northern and northeastern edge of the cotton belt. These seed have generally proven wholly unsuited to our conditions.

The results from experiment stations have proven conclusively that we may develop early, rapid-fruited and productive strains of cotton by careful seed selection and thereby save ourselves great losses in the weevil territory. The results obtained show that one selection made from early, rapid-fruited, productive cotton plants with low fruit limbs, short joints, and continuous-growing, long fruit limbs increases the earliness and productivity to a surprising extent.

The results of cotton breeding by R. L. Bennett, special agent of the bureau of plant industry, show that for early fruiting "the first fruit limbs must be low—not higher than the fifth joint above the seed leaf joint and the primary or wood limbs must be low—the first not above the fifth joint and not exceeding four in number is desirable." His results show that for rapid fruiting "the joints on the main stem, fruit limbs, and the primary limbs, must be short; not to exceed two or three inches is desirable and that fruit limbs should grow in suc-

TOO MUCH FOR HACK DRIVER

High-Sounding Name Made Old Man Think There Was Something Mysterious in the Wind.

After a long, hot, and dusty journey by train the New York commercial traveler arrived in Richmond, brushed enough dust off his face to make sure that the right man was getting off, and hailed one of the little sea-going hacks common in the Old Dominion city. It was driven by an aged negro. "Drive me to a haberdashery," said the traveling man surveyed his soiled raiment with disfavor. "Yessuh," said the negro. "Giddup." The old horse started off at a little stiff-legged jog trot. The driver seemed to be thinking deeply. By and by he pulled the horse to a stop, and leaned backward to his fare. "Excuse me, suh," said he, "but we do you all want to go?" "Drive me to a haberdashery," said the traveling man. "Oh, yessuh," said the negro. "To be sure. 'Giddup.'" The hack rattled on for a little while, and then the negro stopped, got off the box and poked his head in over the little door. "Mebbe Ah didn't get dat name just right," said he. "Would you all mine repeatin' it, suh?" The traveling man said for the third time that he wanted to go to a haberdashery. The old driver shook his gray wool and looked grieved. "Ah'm an ole man," said he. "Youah kin trust me. Wheah is it you really want to go?"

WANTED TO BE AN AVIATOR

Missouri Girl Evidently Very Much in Earnest in Her Desire to Navigate the Air.

Mr. Claude Grahame-White, the famous English aviator, is constantly besought by young women to teach them to become aviators. Many make application by letter. One of these letters reached him the other day from a point in Missouri. Cleared of its errors in grammar, spelling and capitalization, it read something like this:

"Oh, Mr. Grahame-White, teach me to be a 'plainer.' I saw one of them at Kansas City, and I think it is just heavenly. I would like to run a Wright monoplane or a Bleriot biplane, but if you have a better flyer I would try that. I think I would look cute running a baby flyer. Pa says he wouldn't mind my having a baby one. Couldn't you bring one out here for a week or so and show me how to run it? I assure you a good time?"

Mr. Grahame-White was compelled to decline the young woman's kind invitation.

He Balked at That.

"I positively and absolutely refuse!" cried the candidate with great emphasis.

"Refuse what?" asked the campaign manager.

"I've kissed all the babies in my district," he replied, "but I'll be gungwogged if I'll kiss Mrs. Astorbilt's poodle, even if it costs the whole suffrage vote!"

A Reader Cures His Constipation—Try It Free

Simple Way for Any Family to Retain the Good Health of All Its Members.

The editors of "Health Hint" and "Questions and Answers" have one question that is put to them more often than any other, and which, strangely enough, they find the most difficult to answer. That is "How can I cure my constipation?"

Dr. Caldwell, an eminent specialist in diseases of the stomach, liver and bowels has looked the whole field over, has practiced the specialty for forty years and is convinced that the ingredients contained in what is called Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, has the best claim to attention from constipated people.

Its success in the cure of stubborn constipation has done much to displace the use of salts, waters, strong cathartics and such things. Syrup Pepsin, by training the stomach and bowels, makes it again do their work naturally, and with its tonic ingredients, strengthening the nerves, brings about a lasting cure.

Among its strongest supporters are Mr. John Graveline of 88 Milwaukee Ave., Detroit, Mich., Mr. J. A. Vernon of Oklahoma City and thousands of others. It can be obtained in any druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a free sample bottle can be obtained by writing the doctor.
