Pay your poll tax.

January 31st is the last day of grace to pay your poll tax.

We have good prospects for a crop of weeds in the court yard this year.

Don't forget the picnic at the school grounds tomorrow. Come out and help plant trees.

With only Cullin Fido in the "elimination" primary, he ought to win the nomination in a walk.

This is election year and you will want to vote for your man, but you can't do it unless you pay your poll tax.

There is nothing that beats the Boy Scout movement to keep boys out of devilment. A Boy Scout is required by the rules to deport himself honorably and do at least one good act every day. The scout master looks after their welfare and teaches them the things they should know and sees that they keep out of mischief.

A Boy Scout troop with Prof. W. E. Roberts as scoutmaster has been organized here and the boys are earnestly training and otherwise preparing for the State encampment which will be held at the Kellis dam in the U pasture the two first weeks in June next. This is a splendid move our boys are making and they should be encouraged in their enterprise. This State encampment will be a great event for Sterling and we should prepare to show the 400 youngsters a great time.

TEXAS ALMANAC

We beg to acknowledge the receipt of a copy of the Texas Almanac complimentary of the Galveston-Dallas News.

This work is the result of the labor of years and without doubt the most reliable and complete encyclopedia of facts concerning the economic industries of Texas that has ever before been published.

Each county in the state is accurately described as to its topography, natural resources and industries. This feature alone is worth double the price of the book.

A list of the postoffices up to Jan. 1, 1914, is given so that anyone can easily locate any postoffice in the state.

There are thousands of facts set forth in this little book that make it an indispensable adjunct to every home, office, workshop, and library.

JOHN STEWART SHOT TO DEATH

Shot on The Streets of Snyder Last Tuesday by Mrs. W. F. Latham, Who Immediately Surrenders.

Last Tuesday the people of this town were shocked by a message from Snyder to W. A. Stewart, of this place, that his brother, John Stewart, had been shot and killed by a woman on the streets of that town that afternoon.

Mr. Stewart immediately left in a car driven by R. P. Brown for the scene of the tragedy. Near Jolant they met Roy Stewart, another brother of the dead man, on his way to Sterling on horseback, who left his horse and boarded the swift car and accompanied his brother to the place where their dead brother lay.

As near as we can gather, the facts of the killing are as follows: Late in the afternoon before the killing, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Latham came to Snyder in an automobile. Mr. Latham left Mrs. Latham at a hotel and then left town. It is said that a strange woman, wearing a heavy veil, walked the streets of Snyder until about 11 o'clock at night as if in search of something or someone. Early in the afternoon of Tuesday the strange veiled woman was seen to approach John Stewart, who was standing near the city marshal on the sidewalk. When she was in a few feet of the deceased, she suddenly threw off her veil, drew a 32-calibre colts automatic pistol and fired four shots into the body of John Stewart, one of them passing through the hand of the city marshal. It is said the first shot penetrated the heart of the victim and he fell dead on the sidewalk and the three remaining shots were fired into his body after he had fallen. It seems that the marshal in trying to prevent the

A RELIC FROM TEXAS

Mr. George H. McIntyre, of Sterling City, Texas, who with his wife is on a visit to relatives in this city, is exhibiting a curiosity in the shape of a handsome solid silver trophy cup, which was evidently given as a prize at some race meet of nearly a hundred years ago. The cup was exhumed from an Indian mound near Sterling City, Texas, by W. F. Kellis, editor of the paper at that place. As stated above, it is hand carved, and bears the inscription "For the Best Carlisle Colts, 1831." Diligent search by the finder has revealed no information as to the nature of the event at which the cup was evidently given as a trophy, but it is supposed that it was at some race meet or horse show that it was presented. Some who have seen the cup, that the "Carlisle Colts" refers to a certain breed of horses, but investigation by those interested, in Kentucky and elsewhere, in horse raising sections has failed to confirm this supposition. On the other hand some who have seen the cup think that "Carlisle" refers to some man who raised horses, but the real solution to the mystery will probably never be known.

The above was clipped from a Sumpter, S. C., paper and sent to us by Geo. McEntire, who with Mrs. McEntire and son, George, are visiting relatives there.

In an effort to locate the owner, or someone who can tell something of the history of the cup, we loaned it to Mr. McEntire to show to his friends in the Palmetto state in the hope that someone might be found who might reveal its story.

WHO IS HARGRAVE?

Following is a copy of what your neighbors in an adjoining county have to say of him:

FIRST NATIONAL BANK, MERTZOP, TEXAS, Sept. 4th, 1913.

To any Bank, Company, or Individual Anywhere:

J. W. Hargrave, the bearer of this, has been for more than two years conducting the most up-to-date modern dry goods and gents furnishing store this country has ever known. Selling out his business a few days ago, you hear regrets from far and near all over this country. When Mr. Hargrave first established this store seemingly all odds were against him, but with an iron determination, experience, honesty, a square deal, and perseverance as his basis, he has won for himself an enviable record as a progressive, modern, up-to-date business man; honest, conservative, and a man of his word. From time to time this bank has loaned him money and helped him in different ways without regret, and it gives us much pleasure to recommend him to all good citizens. He is competent to carry through anything he undertakes. Any town or country can be proud of such men as Mr. Hargrave for a citizen. Few towns have better business men. He is thoroughly competent, thoroughly progressive, he is honest and qualified. By helping him you help this entire country. We are all his friends and lose him with much regret. Yours truly, DWAIN HUGHES, Cashier.

W. J. CARSON, FAYETT TANKESLEY, Directors.

Mr. Hargrave has requested us to say through the News-Record that he has had twenty-one years experience with some of the best department stores in the state, a part of this time having been occupied as traveling salesman for a large wholesale dry goods firm. Further, that he proposes to put in Sterling City one of the most modern and up-to-date, best selected stock of dry goods, gents furnishings and millinery to be found in West Texas. Miss Louise Branch, of Mertzop, who is an experienced milliner, will have complete charge of the dress goods and millinery department. Mr. Hargrave leaves for St. Louis Saturday, Jan. 17th, where he will buy his entire stock, everything brand new. Watch for big opening. He expects to have everything complete in detail by March 1st.

HELL OR FORTY DOLLARS

If you were offered a good life insurance policy for a small sum you would gladly accept it. And yet for the sum of $40—the cost of a perpetual membership in the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, you can insure your soul forever.

Endowment, future income, or dividend-paying policies are excellent things, but what are they in comparison to a policy of that sort—one which for one payment (and a small one, at that) endows your soul, assures it a future income and pays dividends forever?

You will never be forgotten. Your policy will never expire. You will never cease collecting on it as long as the Society, for the Propagation of the Faith lasts, and that will be as long as the world exists!

One payment, the entire sum of $40, or the same amount in small payments, spread over one year, will make you the holder of a valuable soul insurance policy. Today is yours. Tomorrow belongs to God. Now is the acceptable time. The chance put aside now may never present itself to you again—Western Watchman, Dec. 11, 1913.

We have seen fakes, we have heard of gold bricks and we have heard of how the devil offered to trade the world and all it contains to Jesus Christ in consideration that He would join forces with him, but we have never before heard of a man or set of men who had the nerve to offer through the public prints of the country to save a man's soul from hell for the sum of forty dollars.

If a layman were to use the United States mails in selling a fire or life insurance policy without first showing that he could make good in the event of loss, he would be sent to the penitentiary in a holy minute. If he were to use the mails for the purpose of selling forty acres of land which did not exist, a United States marshal would put the "comer-als" on him before he had time to take a fresh chew of "spit quick-or-drown." But the "Society for the Propagation of the Faith" in St. Louis seems to have a corner on hell, an absolute lease on heaven and an everlasting franchise on the United States mails.

They are offering for the sum of $40 to insure a man's soul against hell, when anybody with intelligence enough to be third assistant to a tumbler bug knows that hell is so full of such fakes that their legs are protruding over its hot rim.

We have heard of smooth schemes to pry fools loose from their money, but this soul insurance policy fake is the limit. Why this bunch of pirates, who in the name of religion are allowed to prey on the hard earnings of the ignorant and superstitious are not apprehended, charged and punished by those who are in authority, is more than we can understand.

If the News-Record were to publish the result of an innocent lottery whereby some one had a chance to draw a cash prize, your Uncle Sam would condemn it as unclean and exclude it from the mails. On the other hand the Western Watchman in the name of the priesthood can offer for sale a policy which pretends to insure a man's soul from hell, when they, and all others, know that they are liars and frauds fresh from the work shops of the devil, yet this Western Watchman is allowed to befool the mails and to carry its fraudulent lies to the unsuspecting and superstitious with impunity.

We don't like it. Uncle Sam's post-office inspectors are either asleep or winking. We are not attacking the Catholic creed in this article,—we allow every man his untrammelled opinion on religion, but if a Catholic or anyone else believes that a priest for $40 can insure a man's soul against hell, God help him! If there be anyone who for a moment believes that a priest or anyone else except God, Jesus and the angels can save a man's soul from hell, we challenge him to make good his faith by going to hell and there wait until some insured soul comes.

This Western Watchman outfit is the same bunch of old prostituted blisters who last year said that the people of Texas were the offspring of thieves, bandits and murderers. They are the ones who said that Uncle Sam stole Texas from Mexico. If we were called upon to give opinion of these flannel mouled fakirs, we might say some thing as pleasant about them, for the reason that if hell is as bad a place as these old sharks say it is, and if hell have power to keep people out of it, and won't do it because they have not got the $40 to pay them, they are fiends incarnate and ought to be in hell this minute.

WHY WE DETEST PARASITES

Feeling of instinctive Revulsion is Justified, for They Are Carriers of Disease.

The feeling of instinctive revulsion against parasites of all kinds that characterizes humanity generally, and which is due to something much more than the mere pain or annoyance that their bites might inflict, becomes more interesting as further discoveries show the role of insects in the spread of disease.

Unfortunately this natural abhorrence has not been enough to prevent man under conditions of poverty and uncleanness from harboring such parasites, and now those who understand how much more than a mere personal annoyance is in question from the existence of parasites must take up the problem to eradicate them.

The possibility of the badger recovering relapsing fever, typhoid and leprosy has been suggested and apparently there is no parasite of man that may not be a mode of disease conveyance. Piles, fleas, mosquitoes and bugs not only are all under suspicion, but most of them are actually demonstrated as ordinary and frequent conveyors of diseases of various kinds.

Health authorities must now take up the problem of getting rid of insect parasites in order to stamp out disease. — From the Journal of the American Medical Association.

MILK INSPECTION IS NO FOLLY

Incident Showing How Hard it is to Force Sanitary Rules on Dirty People.

The trials and tribulations of a milk inspector trying to force insanitary people to live according to sanitary rules are shown in the issue of the Healthologist, the official organ of the Milwaukee health department. The story follows:

A Milwaukee milk inspector during a farm inspection, came upon a place hopelessly filthy, disorderly and run down. A motherly person with a big heart, but firm and weird convictions, listened to the young man's suggestions. Then looking over her spectacles pityingly, she said:

"Boy, my mother was ninety-nine years old when she died. She was dirtier than I am, and lived in a dirtier house and drank dirtier milk. If she could stand it I guess you ain't no reason why I and the other folks may get milk from this farm, can't stand it too!"

And not being able to answer the argument, the milk inspector left her indignation over "them there old fangled ideas of cleanliness."

THE BASKET BALL GAME

Our basket ball girls played Colorado's crack team an interesting game on the field here last Saturday, winning over their visitors by a score of 13 to 20. The game was clean and most satisfactory all the way through.

The line up was as follows:
 COLORADO.
 Katy Buchan and Eva Davis
 Lorena Jones and Roina Hester
 Claudia Smith and Winnie Vaughn
 MAE SULLIVAN AND ORA CHURCHILL
 Pearl Colbaugh and Ernestine
 Alma Crawford and Kate Graham

Referee: Jack Farmer.
 Umpire: Robt. A. Collins.

In the early part of the game
 Colorado's forwards were more accurate in pitching goals than our girls, but we got our stride later.
 Our girls were in far better form in passing the ball. We kept the ball almost all the time during the last half of the game. Colorado's jumping center knocked the ball over Pearl Colbaugh, thus gaining an advantage, but Pearl and Ernestine regained this by their excellent ball rustling, passing and getting away from guards.

This was Alma's first game, but she played like an old player. She and Kate broke up Colorado plays right along.

Ora and Mae played all around their guards, who could never seriously interfere with them.

IRELAND'S NATIONAL COLOR.

Now that the "earing of the green" is no longer a hanging matter for Irishmen they seem inclined to discard it altogether. Sir Edward Burne-Jones is quoted as saying that "Green isn't a lucky color for any Celtic creature to wear," while it is remembered that Parnell had positive superstitions against it.
 Indeed, he was inclined to believe that Ireland's bad luck was due to her adoption of green as the national color and he always looked forward with pleasure to being in a position to change it. And yet this may not have been wholly a superstition.
 Color is now a recognized curative force in medicine and it is conceivable that a concentration of national sentiment upon a particular hue might have its effect upon temperament.

AVED IN PRIMITIVE TIMES

Sharp Pieces of Flint or Shark's Teeth Answered in the Early Days for Razors.

We wear things and use things daily of the origin of which we have not the slightest idea, and were we to be asked concerning their history we would be at a loss to answer, the Post-Elizabeth Advertiser remarks: This was illustrated when two young men were admiring a well known picture of life in the time of Julius Caesar which was exhibited in a show window. One of the men remarked, while looking at the picture, that he wondered how the Romans kept their faces smooth, and whether they ever shaved, and if they shaved, what were their razors like? Neither of the men could answer the question, and so they immediately consulted various authorities on the subject and found, to their surprise, that razors were used for shaving in a very early part of the world's history.

The Egyptian used some kind of a razor, though the Levitical code expressly forbade the shaving of the beard. It is believed the primitive shaving instruments were made of sharpened flints. Savages in the remote islands scattered throughout the Pacific still use two pieces of flint of the same size for this purpose, and pieces of shells or shark's teeth are also used.

PRECIOUS METALS IN TEXAS.

Precious and semi-precious metals, consisting of gold, silver, copper, lead and zinc produced in Texas in 1912, had a value of $269,798, which is $38,798 more than the output of the previous year. The most important of these minerals is silver, valued at $249,731, or 93 per cent of the total. The actual production of silver in 1912, compared with that of 1911, shows a decrease of 18,327 ounces in quantity, but an increase in value of $24,802. Due to the in- crease in price from 53 cents in 1911 to 61 1/2 cents per ounce in 1912.

The first discovery of silver in Texas is said to have been made more than a half century ago, but the first mining recorded by the United States Geological Survey was in 1885, when 169,342 ounces with a value of $181,196, were produced. Since that date up to the present time, nearly eleven million ounces have been mined, with a commercial value of $7,372,000.

The value of other precious and semi-precious metals produced in Texas in 1912 is: Zinc, $16,422; lead, $2,929; copper, $110, and gold, $63.

TEXAS SECOND IN QUICK-SILVER.

More than a million dollars worth of quicksilver was produced in the United States in 1912, according to a recent report of the Geological Survey, and a large portion of the output came from the Texas mines. The principal quicksilver states are California, Texas and Nevada, and they rank in the order mentioned. The Texas output is 3,320 flasks, valued at $154,413, according to the latest reports.

Prior to the discovery of quick- silver in Brewster county, California furnished practically the entire out- put of the United States. With the increased production there has also been an enlargement of its uses and during the past thirteen years the functions of this mineral have prac- tically doubled. The Texas product is consumed mainly in the manu- facture of explosive caps, dynamite, electric lighting and other scientific apparatus and in the recovery of gold by amalgamation.

CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

It is cruel to force nauseating, harsh physic into a sick child.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Adv.

What It Came To. "I've figured the whole thing out, father," said Mabel. "The car, to begin with, will cost $5,000, which at six per cent. is $300 a year.

"What in thunder are you smoking?" asked Carmichael. "A fine cigar," replied Ginter.

"Oh," said Carmichael sadly. "I thought it was an umbrella."—Popular Magazine.

Deep Disgrace. "I haven't seen Hemmandhaw for a week."

"No, he hasn't been out of the house since his accident."

FALLING HAIR MEANS DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Save Your Hair! Get a 25 Cent Bottle of Danderine Right Now—Also Stops Itching Scalp.

This, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp, of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its luster, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any store, and after the first application your hair will be as beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks a use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp. Sharp Student. "If 20 men reap a field in eight hours, how long will it take 15 men to reap the same field?" a student was asked.

"Then it's lying on the wrong side!" "We'll send a man right out."

Sisterly. "Isn't Percy Greener the most polite man you ever saw? He'll go out of his way any time to say sweet things about people."

Yes, but I don't believe he's at all sincere. "Of course he isn't. Why, only yesterday he told me what a perfect figure you had."

A Relic of Summer. "I felt like Robinson Crusoe just now," said the man who was spending a belated vacation at a deserted summer resort.

"Make a discovery?" asked the hotel clerk. "Yes, I found the print of a girl's shoe in the sand."

Got the Worst of It. Collector Hm, fairly good specimen. I'll give you $50 for it.

Curio Dealer—No, sir. I've just sold that for a hundred guineas. Collector—A hundred—! Good heavens, you've been swindled! It's worth twice as much!—London Punch.

The Professor's Compliment. "The professor paid me a compliment that I don't know whether to like or not."

"How is that, my girl?" "He says I am so interesting that he is going to name a germ after me."

No Sport. "How is your son coming on at college?" "Not at all." "Why, what's the matter?" "He won't do anything but study."

The Decline of the Language. "They say the hostess is considered a very brilliant woman."

"Brilliant! I should say she was! Why, she wore a white silver dress with a diamond crown and perfectly magnificent rope of pearls."

Not to Blame. "Adam was a cad. No man with gentlemanly instincts would try to lay the blame on a woman."

"True, but what could you expect? It takes three generations to make a gentleman, you know."

GOOD JOKES

TEETH AND WISDOM.

"I shall be dreadfully stupid now," said the wife, who had just returned from the dentist's.

"Why so, my dear?" asked her husband. "I have had all my wisdom teeth pulled out," she replied.

"Of course, my love," said her husband, with the best intention in the world, "you know it is nothing but a superstitious idea that wisdom teeth have anything to do with wisdom. If you were to have every tooth in your head drawn it couldn't make you any more stupid, you know."

One on Ginter. Jesse Carmichael was walking downtown in New York with his friend, Bob Ginter. Bob was puffing industriously on a fat, dark cigar, and had succeeded in consuming about half of it, causing the covering to curl up with the heat.

"What in thunder are you smoking?" asked Carmichael. "A fine cigar," replied Ginter.

"Oh," said Carmichael sadly. "I thought it was an umbrella."—Popular Magazine.

FIRST DAYS OF PHOTOGRAPHY

Painters Feared Discovery Would Do Away With Demand for Products of Their Art.

Perhaps it is difficult fully to understand the panic into which the followers of the art of painting were thrown on the discovery of photography, since to us the place of the two arts is so thoroughly assured and so assuredly separate.

"Figure to yourself," cries a writer in shrill excitement in the Montreuil, January 14, 1839, "figure to yourself a mirror which, after receiving your image, presents your portrait, as indelible as a painting and much more faithful!"

What sort of a fellow is Jones to get along with?" asked the fat one. "He's an otherwise," said the thin one, sourly.

"What do you mean by an otherwise?" "I'll tell you when he's talking to a Democrat, he's a Republican. When he's talking to a Republican, he's a Democrat. When he's talking to a capitalist, he's a Socialist. And when he's talking to me, he's just a darned fool!"

Irish Diplomacy. A number of offenders had been disposed of by the magistrate, and there was brought before him a son of the old sod.

"Phwat name?" snapped the magistrate, as he looked at the prisoner. "Patrick Casey, sir."

"Hov ye ever been before me before?" "No, your honor. O'iv been to wan face that looked like yours, an' that was the picture of an O'irish king."

"Discharged!" announced his honor. "Call the next case!"—Harpers' Magazine.

Lively Enough. "Do you not find the dead, humdrum monotony of prison life maddening?" asked the humane visitor.

"Oh, I don't know," answered the convict. "I've been in four riots, had two transfers, one fight with a keeper and have escaped and been recaptured three times. That's crowding more excitement in two years than most law-abiding men get in a lifetime."

Canned Honeymoon. "Marcella—I understand Myrtle Hemmandhaw isn't going to marry young Shirley Shimmerpate."

Waverly—No, he is entirely too thrifty for her. "But I thought they were engaged."

"They were, but she gave him the mitten when he proposed to spend their honeymoon looking at travel views in a moving picture show."

A Silent Scream. "You didn't scream when he kissed you?" "I'm not deaf and dumb."

"What do you mean?" "Only a dumb girl can scream while she is being kissed."

"I don't see—"

A dumb girl screams with her hands."

As Things Are Going. "Did you take an summer boarders this year?"

"Yes," replied Farmer Cornbosel. "We didn't care about the money, but them city folks is goin' to be wantin' gas as farm hands one of these days an' we thought we'd kind of get 'em acquainted with us an' mebbe have first call on their services."

They used to say that "east is east." It isn't any longer. It's west.—Kansas City Star.

DIZZY, HEADACHY, SICK, "CASCARETS"

Gently cleanse your liver and sluggish bowels while you sleep.

Get a 10-cent box. Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, foul taste and bad breath—always trace them to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. Adv.

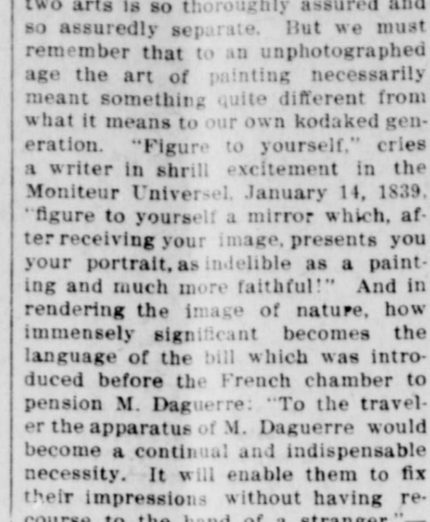

Keeping It Shady. Patience—She's on the shady side of thirty, all right. Patrice—Why, she's forty if she's a day. "But she says she's only twenty-eight."

The Needle Scare. "What's all this needle scare among girls?" "I don't know. Can it be that some girl's mother has asked her to do a little sewing?"

A Popular Movement. "I thought you said you wanted to sit this dance out?" "Well, aren't we doing that?" "You keep turkey trotting with your shoulders."

EACH IN A DEPENDENT MOOD

Much Truth in Season's Greetings Exchanged Between Mr. Bjinks and His Employer.

Our friend, Mr. Bjinks, works as an underling in a real estate office. His returns haven't been very promising of late, but then neither have the returns of anybody else in the office. And the boss has been worried.

Wednesday morning Bjinks met his boss as he was starting out to work. "I wish you a merry Christmas!" said Bjinks.

"That depends on you, sir!" answered the boss, without smiling. "Next morning Bjinks met his boss again, but the latter was in a better mood.

"I wish you a happy New Year!" said the boss. "That depends on you, sir!" faltered Bjinks, respectfully.

GREAT CHANGE IN TWENTY YEARS

Shaw Lady Looks Younger Instead of Older with Lapse of Time.

Shaw, Miss—Mrs. V. N. Smith, of this city, makes an interesting statement of her experiences, as follows: "Twenty-nine years ago, I contracted a serious form of womanly trouble. We called in our family physician, and he treated me for it, but it seemed to do no good. It went on into other bad troubles, and I commenced taking all kinds of medicines to see if I could get relief, but to no avail.

I suffered with that trouble up until eleven years ago, when I read about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and bought a full treatment. It relieved me at once, and after taking the full treatment, I am now well and stout.

I sent my brother, whom I had not seen in twenty years, one of my photographs, and he wrote me that I looked younger than when he last saw me.

For more than 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength. No other tonic gives the same results as Cardui. No other woman's medicine has the long record of success in treating cases of womanly weakness and disease.

Cardui will surely help you. Try it.

Significant. Miss Elsie De Wolfe, commenting at a tea in New York on the engagement to her mother's French maid of a young man belonging to a rich old Knickerbocker family, said: "Marriages of that type are seldom happy. They turn out like the boot-maker's."

Miss De Wolfe, smilingly, resumed: "A retired bootmaker, who had married his servant as his second spouse, was once asked by a friend how he was getting on. His significant reply was: "Soles make stiff uppers."

Solid Appreciation. "Did the count promise to love Miss Millions forever?" "No; for her money."—Cornell Widow.
