OTHER GERMAN CRUISER IN U. S. PORT

COMMANDER SAYS HE ENTERED PORT WITHOUT BEING SEEN BY BRITISH WATCHERS.

LARGE EIGHT MONTHS

Report Out of New York Harbor on August 3, 1914, and Had Since Preyed on Atlantic Shipping.

Report News, Va.—The German raider Kronprinz Wilhelm, after raiding commerce in the North Sea, slipped into this port Sunday and asked for fuel and provisions. The North German Lloyd liner, the hostilities which she had been ordered to the bottom, and her officers and crew were forced to steal her way out of the harbor. The four French and British cruisers in the Virginia capes in order to reach the port.

Food and Fuel Short.

When she dropped anchor the Kronprinz Wilhelm had less than 25 tons of food and 500 prisoners for the week. Of the 14 ships that were stranded, 15,000-ton cruiser, six were British, four French and one Norwegian. The value of the ships and their cargoes officers of the Wilhelm estimated at $7,000.

Following in the wake of the Kronprinz Wilhelm, which arrived here a month ago, after similar operations in the North Sea, the German raider, the Kronprinz, came dashing through the channel of enemy warships which had been in the area for weeks before the Kronprinz was interned.

In her raid of the seas since she slipped out of New York harbor August 3, the Kronprinz Wilhelm had touched land and took 960 prisoners from various vessels destroyed. Most of these were sent to South American ports at different times on German ships which met the raider in response to wireless calls. The 61 men on board, who were landed here, the British sailors taken from the Tamar, destroyed March 27, and Coleby, destroyed March 27.

EXPLOSION WRECKS BUILDING.

Damage Estimated at $750,000 is Sustained by Cudaly Packing Co.

Kansas City, Mo.—An explosion, believed by the police to have been caused by a bomb, wrecked the 10-story cooling plant of the Cudaly Packing company's plant here, causing loss estimated at $750,000. Two men working in the building at the time were injured.

Investigation, however, developed traces of an explosive of any sort. Company officials asserted there was gas in the building and that the cooling pipes contained no ammonia or other material that might explode. More than 200 men are employed in the building on week days, but Sunday only Patrick Lyons, a fireman, and Silver Bennett, a temperature man, were on duty.

Warships Are Active in East and West.

London.—There has been a considerable extension of the battlefields both in the Carpathians and in the Woerze district of France, where fighting of extreme violence continues by day and night, without, however, any definite decision having been reached in either region. The Russians have made themselves masters of the principal chain of mountains from Dukla to Tiszaok pass and have begun an attack on the German forces which held the hills from the latter pass westward to the Beskid pass.

Route Selected for New Alaska Road.

Washington.—The Seward-Fairbanks route has been selected for the government railway in Alaska. Secretary Lane has announced. The property of the Alaska Northern railway company from Seward over the first stage of the journey has been purchased for $1,150,000. The government system will include a 58-mile branch to tap the Matanuska coal fields. The estimated cost of the entire system is given as $28,900,000. Congress provided not more than $35,000,000. Construction work will begin at once.

Canada Asked to Send More Troops.

Ottawa, Ont.—Lord Kitchener has called on Canada for a second expeditionary force. Three months ago Gen. Kitchener was informed that the force was ready in Canada to board troops and sail for Europe. Now that the summons had come, the second expeditionary force would go forward at an un-revealed date in the near future to join the first expeditionary campaign force now at the front. The announcement was received with cheers from both parties in the house.

TEXAS NEWS CONDENSED

Two new drills have commenced drilling in new parts of the Strawn oil field.

An election is called for April 30 to vote on a $30,000 bond issue for a public school building at Jefferson.

The American Public Service Corporation of New York has purchased the Longview Ice and Electric Light Plant and will make some very extensive improvements.

The Orient Milling company of Chillicothe, has commenced work of enlarging the mill's capacity from 250 to 400 barrels. A $20,000 elevator is also being built.

An oil that yields 60 per cent high grade distillate, something hitherto unknown in Texas has been discovered in the Habbington well, three miles southwest of Coleman.

John L. Vaughan, who was elected mayor of Mart at the recent city election, is a Republican. The town has a population of 4,000 persons, 95 per cent of whom are Democrats.

For the first weekday in nine years, and perhaps longer, there was not a marriage license issued by the county clerk of Dallas county Friday, April 9.

Gas is coming from the Guthrie-Rust well, four miles north of San Angelo. The drilling is being paid for by San Angelo citizens, who are anxious to find what the bowels of the earth in this section contain.

The city of Burkburnett has just closed a contract with the electric power plant of Wichita Falls for a lead wire to that place, which is 18 miles in length. The construction of the line will begin at once.

The Panhandle Press association met in Plainview Friday. The address of welcome was delivered by Judge L. S. Kinder of Plainview. He told of the efforts of the citizens of Plainview 27 years ago to get a newspaper.

A $15,000 school building is to be erected at Godley, so as to be ready for occupancy at the beginning of the school year. The structure is to be two stories high and will contain eight or nine rooms and an auditorium.

C. Knaerner of Brenham, former county superintendent of public instruction of Washington county, at a called meeting of the state library and historical commission, was elected state librarian in place of E. W. Winkler.

All arrangements have been completed in Grand Saline for the putting down of a test well for oil. For many years the surface indications around Grand Saline have been considered very favorable for oil and it is very recently that all interests have gotten together to make this test.

A special meeting of the shareholders of the Texas company has been called for May 1 to vote on a proposition to increase the capital stock from $30,000,000 to $37,000,000. The meeting will be held at Houston, Texas; $5,000,000 of the new stock will be offered to shareholders and $1,000,000 to employees.

Two $60,000 bond issue propositions were voted on in Ruppels county last week. One at Ballinger and the other at Winters.

Permanent improvements to be made a cost of approximately $300,000 are authorized in the statement of work determined upon during the month of March, issued by the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe. Building of three new depots, one at Santa Anna, Goldthwaite and Beaumont was authorized.

Fire destroyed an entire brick block at Thornton. Estimated loss is $65,000, with approximately $35,000 insurance.

One of the most important contracts to be let in Dallas during the current year was closed last week by the Central Presbyterian congregation for the erection of the new church edifice to be designated as the City temple. The cost of the building is to be, approximately, $200,000.

Hull, England.—The Dutch steamer Schieland was blown up in the North Sea at a point 24 miles from Spurn, on the east coast of England at the entrance to the Humber. One man of the vessel's crew was killed.

Paris.—The senate has adopted a bill which already has passed the chamber of deputies providing for the advancing to Serbia, Belgium, Greece and Montenegro, as friends of the allies; the sum of 1,350,000,000 francs ($270,000,000).

EVENTS BOILED DOWN

DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN HAPPENINGS SERVED UP IN ATTRACTIVE STYLE.

NOTHING GOOD GOT AWAY

Everything Important That Could Be Confined to a Small Space Is Here Found.

European War Happenings:

A dispatch from Berlin says that on April 1, 812,808 prisoners of war being held in Germany—19,175 officers and 802,633 men.

The German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich has been entered at the Norfolk navy yard, where she will remain until the end of the European war.

Italian steamers in American ports have been ordered to postpone all sailings until April 20, according to a Rome dispatch.

The general in command of the army of the Vosges, with the consent of General Joffre, has forbidden the sale of spirituous liquors in the territory occupied by his army. Violators of the order will be court-martialed.

The German consuls in the principal cities of Italy lately called together the members of their respective colonies and advised every one not detained on urgent and unavoidable business to quit the country at the earliest possible moment.

The advance of the Russians in the Carpathians has cut the Austrian army under General Boerovitch in two places. The eastern wing of his army is in a precarious position. The Russians have captured Smolnik, east of Lufkowi pass. The Russians have also thrown back the Austrians in the district of Bartfeld and in the district of Lufkowi. Having advanced through the Rostock pass, they have forced a wedge between the Austrian armies.

Germany has sent to the United States a note complaining that the latter has accomplished nothing in its diplomatic correspondence with the allies to obtain for American exporters the right to ship foodstuffs to the civilian population of a belligerent country. The communication intimates also that the United States has virtually acquiesced in the British order in council prohibiting commerce with Germany.

With transactions aggregating almost 1,200,000 shares, and gains extending from 3 to 7 1/2 points in leading issues Friday's stock market was the most exciting and noteworthy of any day since July 30 last, which marked the issuance of Germany's ultimatum on Russia.

A new movement of the old Cutlebra cut slide on the west bank of the Panama canal has closed the canal. Several ships were tied up, among them the Kenkon Maru, the first Japanese ship to use the waterway. She was bound for Newport News.

On behalf of the owners of the American ship William P. Frye, sunk by the Prinz Eitel Friedrich, the United States government in a note made public has asked Germany to pay an indemnity of $228,059.54, which represents the cost of the vessel, the freight charges for its cargo and damages resulting from being deprived of the use of the ship.

The Littlefield school district of Lamb county will vote May 1 on an issue of $15,000 in bonds for the erection of a modern brick school building.

Henry D. Lindsley was elected mayor of Dallas at Tuesday's election of municipal officers. Out of a total vote of 12,859 Mr. Lindsley received 7,836 and his opponent, James J. Collins, a former city attorney, received 4,955. This vote was the largest cast in a city election in Dallas.

Carl Busch, 37 years old, son of the late Adolphus Busch and brother of August A. Busch, head of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing association, died in Pasadena, Cal. He had been an invalid seven years.

The Hague.—Gifford Pinchot, ex-chief forester of the United States, who, it is understood, has been acting as special agent for the state department at Washington in the European war zone, has been expelled from Belgium by the German authorities.

Announcement is made that the stockholders of the Detroit United Railways have authorized the directors of the company to accept the city's offer of $24,000,000 for lines.

Orders have gone out from the department of justice to field agents to suspend investigation in all cases involving claims arising from confiscation of property during the civil war. The department estimates that the claims involved aggregate $14,000,000.

The Bert Hahn Construction company is establishing an asphalt crushing plant in Ada, Okla., the plant having a capacity of 110 tons per day.

Contract has been let at Sulphur Springs for several brick buildings replacing those recently burned on the public square, and work will begin immediately.

An eight-hour day for women employees of the Western Union Telegraph company is in effect in its larger offices. The order affects about 2,000 women and girls on day duty.

The senate of Oklahoma adjourned at noon Friday without day. It was as a court of impeachment that the senate has been in session since adjournment of the legislature March 23.

Harry J. Parker, on the Palmer tract near Shreveport, brought in well No. 4, making on a partial day's gauge at the rate of 3,335 barrels initial maximum production the first 24 hours.

Christopher Paulus, 61, a member of the Wisconsin state assembly, jumped from the tenth story of a bank building in Milwaukee, ending his life. Financial trouble is given as the cause of the act.

Executors of the estate of Joseph Kammerer, Washington, Penn., emptied 245 gallons of whiskey, from 20 to 45 years old, and valued at $2,000 into a sewer. The liquor had belonged to Kammerer, who was a distiller, but because that county is "dry" the executors were not permitted to either sell or give it away.

First reports of the operation of the operation of the federal employment bureau, inaugurated recently by the department of labor in co-operation with the agricultural and postoffice departments, show that during the month of February and March, 1,245 persons obtained work through the government agents.

The Building Constructors Employers' association of Chicago, adopted a lockout order directed at every union which allows its wage agreement with the employer to lapse. Leaders in the local labor disturbance declared the action was the most drastic in Chicago since the lockout order of 1910.

Not only has the European war stripped the American markets of hundreds of small foreign made novelties, principally of German goods, but it has cut in half the supply of high grade cotton cloths, laces, silk and cut diamonds, champagnes, macaroni and hundreds of other things to wear, drink and eat, to which America has depended on Europe to furnish.

Hundreds of thousands of packages of seeds, provided and distributed at Uncle Sam's expense, are being poured into the mails from the capitol. Each senator and representative is shipping 25,000 packets of seed, mostly vegetable, to constituents in his state. Each packet contains five different varieties, making a total of close to 75,000,000 packages.

Fifty-nine employees of the United States Indian agency at Muskogee, have been released from further service, effective April 5. Gabo E. Parker, superintendent of the five tribes, says that a deficiency in the appropriation compels curtailment and that 14 divisions have been combined into seven. The agency has in the fall some wild fruit, it apparently does no damage in this way.

The annual report of the receipts at the Sherman postoffice shows a total of $61,482.99 for the year ending March 31. This is a net increase of $5,391.34 over the preceding year.

The Southern Pine Lumber company, hardwood mill, Dibol, Angelina county, Texas, burned. The origin of the fire is unknown. Ample water pressure and a favorable wind saved two pine mills, planing mill and lumber yard. The probable loss is $90,000, partly covered by insurance.

The construction of a $50,000 home for J. S. Coaden of the Coaden Refining company, Tulsa, Okla., has begun. This home will be one of the finest in Oklahoma.

A new passenger and freight steamship to cost $900,000 has been contracted for by the Mallory line to replace the steamship Denver, lost at sea March 23. The new vessel will be named after a Texas river and will be used in the New York-Galveston trade.

The Dutch steamer Schieland was blown up in the North sea at a point 24 miles from Spurn, on the east coast of England at the entrance to the Humber. One man of the vessel's crew was killed.

Lawrence Baker, expert in charge of water resource investigations in Texas for the university of Texas, bureau of economic geology, will address the meeting of the Panhandle Press association at Plainview, April 16 and 17.

The HOME BEAUTIFUL

Flowers and Shrubbery
Their Care and Cultivation

It will please you more than roses to advertise your egg business, because customers very often judge a man's business by first impressions of package and contents when they are received. The best package for shipping eggs is a basket, although many breeders do not use them. The basket should hold one or two sets, and these can be got for two cents from any manufacturer. A thick layer of excelsior should cover the bottom, and all eggs should be wrapped in soft paper and so packed with fine excelsior that they will not touch each other. When the eggs are packed put another layer of excelsior over the top and cover with a thin board. Next to the basket is the egg box made for holding 13 or 15 eggs. This is arranged with cardboard compartments with room for excelsior or other packing at the top and bottom. This box is provided with a wire handle and the cover slides into grooves which may then be screwed or tacked down with small nails. Never ship a package that is not screwed or nailed down, because this will save eggs from being flayed by curious persons who can open the package in transit. Never ship a soiled egg. Nothing so disgusts a customer as to receive a setting of eggs which are dirty and of poor shape. Eggs should be selected so that each setting will be uniform in size, shape and color when possible.

GET THE INCUBATOR STARTED
Delay in Starting on Broiler Crop Means Big Loss—Watch the Temperature Carefully.
Get the incubator at work on the broiler crop as early as possible, delay means loss. Trim the lamps at the same time each day, no matter if they are warranted to run 48 hours. You cannot afford to forget them once. Watch the thermometer and do not expect a good hatch if you allow the machines to run from 95 to 105 as it happens. Regulate the brooders at 100 before putting the chickens in. Remember that they are taken from an incubator where it probably registers 105. Use covered baskets "with cushions in" to transfer them and they will not get a chill. Give them warm water, dry rolled oats and sharp sand for the first three days and avoid future trouble. Take pains in teaching the way in and out of the brooders; it will save loss. Remember that a box of finely broken charcoal is as necessary as food. Keep the water dishes sweet and clean, and warm the water given in the coldest weather.

Peas and Oats
Canada field peas and oats sown at the rate of about 1 1/2 bushels of each per acre, as early as the ground will permit, will furnish good early pasturage.
Comfort and Cheerfulness.
There is comfort, health and cheerfulness in a stable that has pure air and plenty of sunshine.

LOYALTY IS NEEDED

Now the Time for All True Followers of Christ to Stand by the Church.

These are solemn and testing hours. Who knows but that you may have come to the kingdom for such a day as this? Now are the times to make men see how glorious and transcendent a thing religion is. How infinitely greater it is than any of its social or personal manifestations! Never again confound religion with mere amiable living or mechanical believing. Never think of it as being concerned only, or chiefly, with the issues of this present life. Religion maintains itself in perennial power because men have never been willing to believe that they belonged only to this present life, and have never been able to satisfy themselves with anything or everything which this life has to give. For always, when men have looked abroad upon their world, they have seen the inextricable mingling of good and evil, the mystery of its strife and pain and injustice. And always when they have looked within, upon themselves, they have faced the inexpressible sorrow, shame and loneliness of human life. Thereby they have been forced to concern themselves with the solemn questions which have to do with the origin and the meaning and the destiny of the race. Where did we all come from? Where are we all going? Is there anything after this life which can possibly compensate for it? If a man die, shall he live again?

Church Must Answer.
It is the office of the church to answer these questions. To be able to say: We know from whence we came. We came out from an eternal life, a loving and a gracious spirit. And we know where we are going. We shall return to that from which in the beginning we came. In God we live and move and have our being. In God we now exist and shall exist forever and ever. He is our refuge, our strength, our everlasting arms. And so I ask for your renewed, inward and spiritual loyalty to this part of the church of Jesus Christ in the present world. That church was never more needed, nor ever had a larger and more difficult opportunity than now. Let us acknowledge with sincerity and shame her many and obvious defects. For long she conceived of herself as an ark of salvation to which the elect withdrew from a perishing and somewhat contemptible world. Sometimes she has lived off the community, rather than for it; she has been more concerned with the conserving of her prestige and the perpetuation of her organization than with the service of her day and generation. To the social and industrial strife of the moment she was not ever-ready to apply the teaching of Jesus, nor, as she contemplated the comfortable, bourgeois aristocracy which filled her pews, was she eager to socialize her ethics. But also now let us boldly reaffirm that today, as in every day, she is doing patiently and steadfastly the indispensable work of the community. She is bringing to the modern state what no other organization can bring—its spiritual dynamics, its renewed motives, that vision which is the hope of the soul in its struggle against time—the vision of a purified and glorified humanity made one with itself in God. Down through the centuries, for all her pride of place and lust of power, for all her follies and mistakes, the church alone has been able, in dark days like these, to say to men: You, too, very human race, shall sometime see the travail of its soul and be satisfied. Let us then stand by her, as she has ever stood by our fathers and by us!—Rev. Albert Parker Fitch, D. D.

Bright Side of the War.
What fortitude we are seeing in the world—fortitude, that most splendid of Christian virtues! "The men are simply splendid," writes officer after officer to me from the trenches; "plastered with mud from head to foot, up to their knees in cold water and mud, with no sleep by night for fear of a night attack, and little by day because of the wet, they are always bright and cheerful."
With such testimony on all sides, can we deny that there is a bright side to war? It does not mean for a moment that war is not a cursed thing in itself, so was the Cross; it was definitely cursed. . . . Still the war may redeem the world; it may give a taste for public duty which may never die away; it may weld classes together into a brotherhood which nothing can break; it may cast out of Europe an evil spirit, even though the evil spirit tears Europe as he goes out; it may produce, when that evil spirit has gone out, permanent peace.—The Bishop of London.

Obeys Call Now.
Obey his blessed call now, and having obeyed it once, never again disobey any call within you, to do his will. While we mourn our neglect of past calls, our sorrow, which is still his gift and call within us, will draw down his gladdening look, which will anew call us unto him. Pass we by no call which, however indistinctly, we may have, and he will cheer us with clearer and gladder calls. Our very sorrow and fear will be our joy and hope; our very stumblings our strength, and dimness our light, while stumbling or in darkness we feel after him who is our Stay, our Light, our Joy.—Edward B. Pusey.

Barring hail and frost, Sterling will enjoy a big fruit crop this year.

The rain last week made range and crop conditions here ideal. While the cold weather hung on late, yet, the range is getting fine and the stockmen and farmers are happy.

There will be some cotton planted here, but from reliable sources we learn that the acreage is cut down about 50 per cent. That means more feedstuff and grain next fall.

Senior Don Huerta is reported to be on his way to Mexico to assist in prolonging the misery in that unfortunate land. If the friends of the murdered Madero don't get Huerta's "goat," Mexican nature has undergone a radical change.

When travelling along the country roads one will often see where a desperate effort has been made to make water run up hill. It is a well known law of physics that water never runs up hill, and no man ever tries to do so until he works on the public roads. The money wasted in trying to evade the levelman's fees amounts to over a million dollars a year in Texas.

While plowing in a field, near Odessa last week, a young man named Bishop was killed by a bullet from a high power rifle. Some hunters in the vicinity were shooting and it is supposed that one of their bullets did the deadly work. The ordinary high power rifle will kill a man nearly two miles away, and anyone using these deadly guns should be extremely careful where he points it when he shoots.

HOW'S THIS?

Did it ever occur to you that a man's life is full of cussedness? He comes into the world without his consent and goes out against his will, and the trip between is exceedingly rocky. When he is little the big girls kiss him; when he is big, the little girls kiss him. If he is poor he is a bad manager; if he is rich, he's a crook. If he is prosperous, everybody wants to do him a favor; if he needs credit they hand him a lemon.

If he is in politics he is in for graft; if out of politics, he is in for no good to his country. If he doesn't give to charity, he is a tightwad; if he does, he is a hypocrite; and if he takes no interest in religion, he is a heathen.

If he is affectionate, he is a soft mark; if he cares for no one, he is cold blooded. If he dies young, there was a great future for him; if he lives to an old age, he missed his calling. If you don't fight, you're yellow; if you do, you're a brute.

If you save your money, you're a grouch; if you spend it, you're a loafer; if you get it, you're a grafter, and if you don't get it, you're a bum. So what's the use?—Concho Herald. Use, did you say? Why, man, just think of the flowers they will put on your grave when you are dead! Of course, they would not give you even a jimson blossom while you live, but remember the roses they will put on your grave when you are dead. To be sure, the roses would be greatly appreciated if you could have them while you can see their beauty and scent their fragrance; but the roses belong to the giver, and the giver has the right to give them at a time when they will do the least good.

Take preserved peaches and cut into tiny pieces till you have enough to fill a teaspoon. Beat the whites of five eggs to a very stiff froth, then add gradually six tablespoonfuls of confectioners' sugar, beating it hard for 20 minutes; then beat in the peaches, and set it on ice till thoroughly chilled. Put rice, sweetened cream in the glass and liberal portion of the peach moonshine. Pineapple or fruit can be served in the same way.

Pressed Beans and Sausage. Let one pint pea beans soak over night, wash, drain and cook until very tender, but not broken, in boiling water. Put the beans in baking dish with sausage here and there, using one-half pound sausage. Discard the water and add a little water to the beans, adding more, if needed. Bake five or six hours and serve hot with catchup, or any other table sauce.

Orris Root for Laundering. When washing handkerchiefs, break up a quarter of an ounce of orris root and tie it in a piece of muslin, boiling it in with the handkerchiefs for a quarter of an hour.

Chocolate Fudge. One cupful brown sugar, one cupful white sugar, one-half cupful milk, two squares of chocolate, boil five minutes, not too hard, but keeping boiling all over. Just before removing from the fire add a small piece of butter about one-half size of egg. Remove and beat, add a few drops of vanilla, turn into a greased pan before it gets too hard.

Old-Fashioned Rice. One quart milk, one-half cupful raw rice, pinch salt, large two-thirds cupful of sugar, one cupful raisins. Put in double boiler and dust with nutmeg or cinnamon on top. Cook two hours until pudding is creamy. Stir occasionally. Put in oven and bake one hour without stirring, cooking three hours in all. Serve with milk or cream.

WIMODAUGHSIS BANQUET The ladies of the Wimodaughsis club held a banquet in the library Friday night, the purpose of the evening being to raise money for a contest for subscriptions to the club, in which Mrs. Alice Foster and Miss Vera Kellis were the leaders. Each side getting an equal number, the whole club joined in the preparation.

The evening was spent in playing games, and the Edison phonograph added greatly to the enjoyment of those present. Mrs. R. L. Lowe reviewed the club's work in regard to what the club had accomplished in the way of furnishing the library with book cases, chairs, rugs, shades, tables, lamps, phonograph and a number of records, encyclopedias, 230 books, and sides giving a number of complimentary tickets to all who had donated five dollars or more to the library.

Mrs. Lowe was toast mistress, and responding were: Mesdames Minyard, Whorter, Butler, Alice Foster, Ellen, Miss Ethel Foster and A. R. Pool. The place cards carried out the hostess idea, and were very appropriate.

Wanted It Complete. Several days ago a housewife in a shop on Chestnut street, west of Broad, had a display of bathroom soap in their window. In one corner was a portable shower with a roll of soap attached which had cost $10. A man came into the store and said to the salesman, "I'll take the shower." The latter was rather surprised that such a seedy-looking individual would make such a purchase and said, "We do not sell these 'C. O. D.'s." That's all right," he replied, and took a ten-dollar bill from a roll of bills. In the course of the day the shower was delivered to a certain address. The next day a little girl came into the shop, and giving the address of the purchaser of the day before said, "We got the shower all right, but my father wants to know where the shower is." The firm sent for the shower and returned the $10 bill without comment.—Philadelphia Ledger.

COMPANY DISHES.

Salpicon of Fruit.—Remove the skins from half a pound of white grapes and take out the seeds after cutting the grapes in halves. Cut three oranges and three grapefruits in halves and take out the pulp in sections as little as possible. Sprinkle with sugar, set aside and ready to serve arrange in glasses with a sprinkling of sugar over each glass of fruit.

Larded Beef Tenderloin With Bacon.—Cut the salt pork for larding from the portion next the rind. Remove the rind, cut in slices of an inch thick and a fourth of an inch long as long as the beef. Insert about a fourth of an inch of the lard in the groove, using a needle and thread. Sew through, tying in a loose knot at the lardons in rows and dredge with flour. Sear in a hot fry pan until well browned. Then cook slowly until done, basting occasionally. Surround with small cooked onions and serve with:

Peivrade Sauce.—Put two tablespoonfuls of the trimmings of the salt pork into a saucepan and let the fat run out. Add two slices of onion, five carrots, two sprigs of parsley, a quarter of a bay leaf, a slice of green pepper and half a chili pepper; cook until all are softened, drain off the fat, add a fourth of a cupful of vinegar and let simmer on the back part of the stove until the vinegar is reduced to half. To the fat add enough water to make four tablespoonfuls, add the same amount of flour and mix until smooth, then add a cupful of milk and a half of brown stock, the vegetables and the vinegar, boil once, strain over a half cupful of sliced raisins cooked in boiling water until tender, finish with three tablespoonfuls of currant jelly and orange marmalade.

Reading is to the mind, what exercise is to the body. As by one, health is preserved, strengthened and invigorated; by the other, virtue (which is the health of the mind) is kept alive, cherished and confirmed.—Addison.

FAVORITE DISHES OF OTHER NATIONS.

Cock-a-leekie.—Chop two pounds of veal and put to soak in a gallon and a half of cold water for an hour. Heat slowly and simmer until the liquor is rich. Pour this over a roasting capon or fowl and cook five minutes. Remove the fowl, bone it, chop fine and return to the pan. Add a pint of leeks, season and cook until the leeks are tender.

Spanish Macaroni.—Fry onions in a bit of butter and olive oil until brown, add a tablespoonful of Worcestershire sauce and a teaspoonful of chili powder. Put a half cupful of macaroni into boiling water, salted, and cook until tender, about twenty-five minutes. Place the drained macaroni in a buttered baking dish and pour the onions and half a can of tomatoes over it. Mix well and sprinkle with grated cheese. Bake a half hour in a moderate oven.

English Stuffed Ham.—Select a fresh-cured ham and have the bone removed. Fill with a stuffing made of bread crumbs, parsley, green pepper, chopped, and seasonings of salt and pepper, with butter to make the right consistency. Tie up securely with water proof cloth and put into a pot of boiling water and simmer gently for two or three hours, allowing twenty minutes for each pound weight. After the ham is cooked remove the crust, pare off the skin carefully, so as not to injure the shape of the ham, put into a roasting pan, sprinkle with crumbs, and roast, allowing six minutes to the pound.

DAIRY BARN OF LATEST DESIGN

Constructed to Stable Twenty-Two Cows and at Least Six or Eight Horses.

INTENDED FOR SMALL FARM

Built on Scientific Principles. With Large Storage for Roughage—Material May Be Bought at Any Lumber Yard—Cow Stable Airtight.

By WILLIAM A. RADFORD.
 Mr. William A. Radford will answer questions and give advice FREE OF COST on all subjects pertaining to the subject of building work on the farm, for his wide experience as Editor, Author and Manufacturer, he is, without doubt, the highest authority on all these subjects. Address all inquiries to William A. Radford, No. 1827 Prairie avenue, Chicago, Ill., and only inclose two-cent stamp for reply.

A dairy barn to stable 22 cows and six to eight horses is shown in the accompanying perspective and detail floor plan. The barn is 36 feet in width by 74 feet in length, which makes a convenient-sized barn for a farm of the size of the barn is better appreciated when the elevation is studied.

This plan gives a distance of about forty feet between the concrete stable floor and the peak of the roof, or more than thirty feet from the threshing floor to the peak. This space is used almost exclusively for the storage of alfalfa, clover hay and straw, and it makes a roomy mow, free from beams, posts or obstructions of any kind.

Such a mow usually is filled with hay by means of a horse fork, and it is a pleasure to turn the muzzle of the separator straw blower into one end and pile up the straw at threshing time under cover, without the aid of human stackers.

Many details of construction in connection with this barn are well worth careful consideration. In the first place the framework is built of two-inch stuff. Plank frame construction is the term applied by carpenters to this style of building. The first advantage is that the material may be bought at any lumber yard, because only stock lengths are called for. In the second place, the cost is less than when the dimension timbers are ordered, and there is a saving in the delay caused by ordering timbers of special lengths or sizes.

The only heavy timbers in the barn are the girders, which are supported by columns over the cow mangers, and these girders are built by bolting together two-inch planks, enough of them to make the desired size and length. Sixteen-foot plank works in well for this purpose. The planks are cut in such a way as to bring the abutting joints four feet apart, so that always a girder is three planks thick for a length of four feet without a joint, and it makes a continuous girder the whole length of the barn.

The sills and plates are light, but they are built up in the same manner. Otherwise the framework is constructed on the truss principle, each pair of rafters forming a truss. This brings the trusses three feet apart, which in the average makes a very strong roof.

The building is tied together crosswise by the floor joists. These floor joists are 12 feet in length, butted together on the girders and the joists are spiked by short extra lengths and well spiked. The joists also are spiked into the studding at the sides of the building, which makes a very substantial tie to receive the end thrust of the first set of roof braces.

The lower rafters are 18 feet in length and the upper rafters are 12 feet, which gives natural easy angles to both the upper and lower pitches of the roof.

The cow stable part of the basement is very carefully constructed to make a stable that is warm in winter, cool in summer and well ventilated at all seasons. The concrete floor includes both gutters and both mangers in one solid monolith concrete slab which reaches across the stable from one concrete foundation side wall to the other. Also there are heavy concrete supporting piers at intervals under the mangers to form bases for the columns which support the girders. Considerable weight comes on these posts, and for this reason the piers should have ample bases and be set down well in the ground to prevent settling.

A mow as big as this, when filled, settled and refilled, contains a heavy weight of fodder, the main part of which rests on these center supports.

The cow stable is made airtight except at the doors, and these are fitted as close as possible. An airtight stable is an uncomfortable place unless it is thoroughly well ventilated by a ventilating system that works under all conditions of weather. Airtight stables are built for the purpose of keeping cows comfortable in cold weather, so they can benefit by the feeding of carefully compounded rations, worked out under the most approved feeding systems.

This plan provides foul-air shafts to take the devitalized air from near the floor behind the cows and to carry it up to be disposed of by the metal ventilators on the roof. Fresh air from outdoors is supplied to the cows by intake shafts that enter the building just above the concrete wall. From here the fresh air is carried to the ceiling and let out over the cows in such a way as to prevent a draft, so the fresh air from outdoors mixes with the stable air, which becomes heavier as it loads up with impurities, so that it settles to the floor and is carried off as above mentioned.

In the horse stable there are two ventilating flues to carry off the foul air, but fresh air is admitted into this end of the barn through various doors and windows.

The general plan of both stables is the same. The center feed alley and the two manure alleys extend clear through the building and have outlet doors at the four corners. There is a partition to divide the horse department from the cow stable, and there are sliding doors in the partitions which are closed or left open as needed.

The construction of the foundation wall of this stable is a little different from the ordinary, because it is carried up four feet above grade. With this construction the windows are placed directly on the wooden sill of the building. This is a compromise between a wooden sill and a concrete wall that extends clear to the ceiling. The amount of wall around a cow stable varies usually with local conditions. If materials to make concrete are comparatively cheap it is customary to build a concrete wall eight feet high above grade and to start the wooden framework at the ceiling of the cow stable. This is a detail of construction that must be known before hand.

Dairy stables are finished carefully on the inside to make them as smooth as possible for easy cleaning. Every year dairymen are raising the standard until competition is becoming very keen in the furnishing of high grade milk to get higher prices. A stable constructed on this plan has every advantage, provided the work is carefully and thoroughly well done. All inside surfaces, including side walls, ceiling posts, girders, windows, stall partitions, etc., are required to be made smooth. In a well-kept stable all these inside surfaces are gone over with cleaning mops or brushes at frequent intervals, to remove all dust and dirt.

The gutters are made with a slight grade, to drain at the most convenient end of the building. After the stables are cleaned the gutters are washed with water from the hose. The cows are kept clean and the milkers wear linen duck uniforms and are required to keep themselves particularly clean. The cows in a well-kept dairy are curried and are otherwise as carefully cared for as a high-priced horse.

In Gorgeous Raiment.—A love of gorgeous raiment, such as characterized M. Emile Verhaeren in his youth, has been common to many famous writers. Disraeli as a young man startled the town by an evening dress comprising green velvet trousers, a canary-colored waistcoat, and a coat with lace cuffs. Dickens, likewise, was fond of a certain bright green waistcoat which he wore in accompaniment with a vivid scarlet tie, and he turned up at Frith's studio one day in a sky-blue overcoat with red cuffs. Even more fearful and wonderful was Dumas' appearance at an ambassador's reception in "a shirt on which were depicted a number of little red demons sporting themselves amid flames of yellow fire." "My costume was a great success," he wrote; "everyone thronged round and made much of me."—London Chronicle.

In a Braid.—A youthful bride had undertaken to keep house. She went to the municipal markets, of course. One day the man at the vegetable stall displayed, for her admiration, a bunch of fine asparagus, "picked not three hours ago," he said. The new housekeeper gazed upon the asparagus with unaffected amazement. "Does it grow like that?" she asked. "I always supposed the cook braided the ends of it."

No Trained Nurse.—Mrs. Flannick (entering kitchen with newspaper)—"Norah, a celebrated doctor says that brooms are full of microbes, so hereafter you'll have to give your broom an antiseptic bath every day." Norah—"Shure O'ill not! Next thing ye'll be askin' me to give it massage threathments and hipperdermic injections, an' ye may as well understand right now that O'ill no trained nurse."

BIRDS DESTROY MANY HARMFUL INSECTS

Crow Blackbird (Quiscalus, Quiscalus).

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

In the spring the crow blackbird (grackle) follows the plow in search of large grubs and larvae and literally crams its stomach with this pest which is so annoying to the farmer. During the breeding season also this bird does much good by eating insects and by feeding them to its young, which are reared almost entirely on this food.

The crow blackbird or grackle in one or more of its subspecies is a familiar object in all the states east of the Rocky mountains. In the Mississippi valley it is one of the most abundant of birds, preferring to nest in the artificial groves and windbreaks near farms instead of in the natural "timber" which it formerly used. It breeds also in parks and near buildings, often in considerable colonies. Farther east, in New England, it is only locally abundant, though frequently seen in migration.

In the latter days of August and throughout September it is found in immense numbers before moving southward.

The grackle is accused of many sins, such as stealing grain and fruit and robbing the nests of other birds. An examination of 2,346 stomachs shows that nearly one-third of its food consists of insects, most of which are injurious. The bird also eats a few snails, crawfishes, salamanders, small fish, and occasionally a mouse.

It is on account of its vegetable food that the grackle most deserves condemnation. Grain is eaten during the whole year, and only for a short time in summer is other food attracted.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

The apples and nuts we may treasure,
 And grain fields that ripen to gold,
 But springtime is teeming with hope
 And our dreaming
 Is freighted with pleasures untold.
 Where diamonds in icicles shine
 And memory treasures the long winter pleasures
 But spring is the season divine.

SOME COMMON DISHES.

For a homely pudding which is well liked try:

Brown Betty.—Slice six large apples after peeling and coring, one heaping cupful of bread crumbs, one-half cupful of chopped suet, one tablespoonful of butter, three tablespoonfuls of brown sugar, salt to taste and one-half teaspoonful of grated nutmeg. Chop the suet, sprinkle the sugar and crumbs in layers with the chopped apple, add the butter to a few of the crumbs to finish the top and bake with the addition of a little fruit juice or water. Serve hot with hard sauce.

Irish Stew.—Take a pound of the neck of mutton, a pint of potatoes, cut in small pieces, four onions, a bunch of herbs, a teaspoonful of chopped parsley, pepper and salt, one tablespoonful of flour. Put the butter into a saucepan with the mutton, cut in small pieces. Add the onions, cut in quarters, with the herbs and parsley. Cover with water. Lay the potatoes over the meat, sprinkle with salt and pepper and boil. Then add flour and let simmer for two hours. Serve on a hot platter with the vegetables around the meat. Remove the herbs before serving.

Potato Croquettes.—Take a quart of mashed potato, two eggs, two tablespoonfuls of butter, one tablespoonful of chopped parsley, salt, pepper and red pepper to taste. Mash the potatoes by putting them through a ricer, melt the butter and add with the seasonings, then the well-beaten eggs. Mix and divide into ten or more pieces and form into croquettes; brush with egg yolk, toss in crumbs and fry in smoking hot fat.

Ladies' Cabbage.—Chop a small head of cabbage quite fine. Throw into boiling salted water and cook in an open kettle half an hour. Drain and add two tablespoonfuls of butter mixed with one of flour, add a cupful of rich milk, salt and paprika and simmer ten minutes.

Also: how easily things go wrong!
 A sign too deep or a kiss too long,
 And then comes a mist and a weeping rain
 And life is never the same again.
 —George Macdonald.

SOUR CREAM DISHES.

Among the women in the dairy districts the question is asked every day: "How can we use the small amounts of left-over sour cream that are always accumulating from the cream cans?" Here is the answer:

Salad dressings of various kinds are improved by the addition of cream. It may be whipped and added to a boiled dressing and make it a most rich and tasty dressing. Simply adding sour cream with sugar and salt to sliced cucumbers or cabbage, with a dash of salt and pepper, you have a most appetizing salad ready to eat.

Sour cream used as a white sauce in place of milk to serve with fish is another dish not half appreciated or known.

Sour-Cream Biscuit.—There is no more enjoyable hot biscuit than the one enriched by sour cream. To each cupful of sour cream add a half teaspoonful of soda, using two or three tablespoonfuls of shortening, according to the richness of the cream.

Drop Cookies.—Take a half cupful of butter, soften it, add to one cupful of sugar, beat well, add a beaten egg, two cupfuls of flour, a fourth of a teaspoonful of soda and three and a half teaspoonfuls of baking powder and a half cupful of sour cream, mix well, and drop by spoonfuls on a buttered sheet. Sprinkle with granulated sugar and bake in a moderate oven.

Gingerbread.—Beat a quarter of a cupful of sugar, add a cupful of molasses, two well-beaten eggs, one cupful of sour cream and three cupfuls of flour. A teaspoonful of soda and a tablespoonful of ginger. Beat well and bake in a large dripping pan.

Sour Cream Griddle Cakes, Gems and Spice Cake, Sour Cream, one cupful, with the same of sugar and nutmeats cooked together until thick makes the most delicious cake filling one can imagine.

The "Restful Lunch."—A custom observed by many employers is that of serving the seamstress in the middle of the afternoon with tea or coffee and crackers or sandwiches or, in the summer, with a cool drink. This attention as well as the "restful lunch" is sure to be appreciated. In bad weather or even on pleasant days if the family carriage or the motor is at the door or is not being used, it is easy to have the coachman or chauffeur take the tired seamstress to the nearest subway or elevated station or home as the case may be.

GREAT OCEAN to OCEAN HIGHWAY

IN GLENWOOD CANYON

ON BATTLE MOUNTAIN

IN THE PASS

CLIMBING THE CONTINENTAL DIVIDE

bility party. "Every mile of the way is interesting; most of it is pleasant, and some of it is both charming and thrilling. No one can truthfully say that he has seen the grandeur and beauty of the Rocky mountains unless he has made this trip. We enter the mountains at Manitou, through historic Ute pass. The canyon broadens, and then the road winds over pine-covered hills. The bright colors of the rock change to gray, and rugged formations to comparatively smooth hills; a great rock basin, miles across, lies before us; we catch glimpses of snow-capped mountains 50 miles away. We climb through picturesque wooded hills, and as we reach the top of a small pass get our first view of South park—a great tableland, 20 miles long and 40 wide. Beyond, a winding road leads to Buena Vista, and as we follow up the Arkansas river, we pass over the "Eye Brow" road. It is not long until we catch glimpses of Twin lakes—great crystal gems that nestle about the feet of towering mountains. A boulevard leads to Leadville, world-famed mining camp, and the highest city of its size in the world. It is only nine miles to the Continental divide—Tennessee pass, two miles above sea level. The road is smooth as a boulevard, and the upgrade is only a per cent. After leaving the Continental divide the road runs over an abandoned railroad grade around and through a valley of infernal charm; we pass into a rugged canyon to the town of Red Cliff and begin the ascent of Battle mountain. Half way up the mountain one forgets his scare in the fascination of the panorama which unfolds before him. Now we proceed along the top of the canyon rim past a mining camp; and again we are thrilled as we look into the yawning depths below.

Each turn in the canyon brings new charms, and still the decorated walls, the rushing river that hurls itself in sinuous curves over the stony bed until at last we pass out of the canyon directly into the delightful resort of Glenwood Springs. The ride to Rifle is most refreshing; in place of the ruggedness of the awesome canyon, we find a broad fertile valley, framed by gently rising, bright red mountains. Here the Pikes Peak Ocean to Ocean highway leaves the railroad and turns north, through a country of quiet, pleasing but varied beauty, to Meeker, an island town in the broad, fertile valley of White river. After leaving the rich, irrigated land, much of the country is not particularly interesting, and between Rangely and the Utah line is the only section of desert, 25 miles, traversed by this highway. As soon as we cross over into Utah we reach a graded road, through flat tableland skirted with rolling, rocky hills. Jensen on the Green river is surrounded by a fertile, well-cultivated valley, and it is most refreshing to come into this prosperous agricultural country which continues as we go westward through the Utah basin. To the weary traveler, Vernal is an oasis in a desert; some day a railroad will run through this country, and when it does, this will be one of the richest and most desirable sections in the West. We pass through Fort Duchesne, an abandoned military fort; then on to Roosevelt and Myton, both new, modern, progressive towns. All the way from the Utah line to Duchesne we have good, traveled roads; here there are two auto roads to the railroad; one to Colton, 51 miles, and the other to Heber, 89 miles. The road to Provo is through Provo canyon, one of the most beautiful scenic canyons in the mountains. Provo is a modern city, picturesquely located between the mountains and Utah lake, and is an attractive place to visit. A splendid graded road, running sufficiently high above the great Utah valley to give a pleasing view of mountain and plain and fields of billowing grain, completes the run into Salt Lake City.

Other things being equal, the transcontinental tourist will naturally seek the route of greatest scenic interest. Because it does traverse the heart of the scenic country of Colorado and Utah, the Pikes Peak Ocean to Ocean highway, therefore, holds the key to the transcontinental situation. It is the natural and logical way—and its further development is assured by the states, cities, counties and communities through which it passes. Merely drawing a line on a map and giving it a name does not make a transcontinental highway, and the important fact about the Pikes Peak Ocean to Ocean highway is that the state units were already in high state of development before any effort was made to attract travel or to federate for the development of the highway.

"The trip from Colorado Springs to Salt Lake City by auto over the Pikes Peak Ocean to Ocean highway leaves the memory full of pleasant impressions," said one of the members of the reliability party. # STOP CALOMEL! TAKE DODSON'S LIVER TONE

New Discovery! Takes Place of Dangerous Calomel—It Puts Your Liver To Work Without Making You Sick—Eat Anything—It Can Not Salivate—Don't Lose a Day's Work!

I discovered a vegetable compound that does the work of dangerous, sickening calomel and I want every reader of this paper to try a bottle and if it doesn't straighten you up better and quicker than salivating calomel just go back to the store and get your money. I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your thirty feet of bowels of the sour bile and constipation poison which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that one spoonful of this harmless liquid liver medicine will relieve the headache, biliousness, coated tongue, ague, malaria, sour stomach or any other distress caused by a torpid liver as quickly as a dose of vile, nauseating calomel, besides it will not make you sick or keep you from a day's work. I want to see a bottle of this wonderful liver medicine in every home in the South. Calomel is poison—it's mercury—it attacks the bones often causing rheumatism. Calomel is dangerous. It sickens—while my Dodson's Liver Tone is safe, pleasant and harmless. Eat anything afterwards, because it can not salivate. Give it to the children because it doesn't upset the stomach or shock the liver. Take a spoonful tonight and wake up feeling fine and ready for a full day's work. Get a bottle! Try it! If it doesn't do exactly what I say, tell your dealer to hand your money back. Every drugist and store keeper in the South knows me and knows of my wonderful discovery of a medicine that takes the place of dangerous calomel.

MISTAKE MADE BY MOTHERS ARE NOT YET GOOD FRIENDS AS IT SOMETIMES HAPPENS

Effort to Exercise Too Great a Restraint on Child is Depreciated by Writer. Reported Incident Seems to Show That Belgians and Germans Do Not Fraternize.

In the Woman's Home Companion appears the first of a series of articles on the care of children entitled "Your Children's Clothes." The author tells the following story and gives some good advice: "A child's clothing is a factor of very great importance in the development of the body and character. Last summer at the seashore a mother complained to me of her four-year-old boy, Johnnie, who could not keep his clothes clean for five minutes! "I watched the little boy at play, and though I saw the truth of the mother's complaint my sympathies were decidedly with the little boy, because the person at fault was not the child, but the mother. All that morning the little boy was harassed and suppressed as he probably had been from his earliest childhood, by such phrases as "Don't, Johnnie, you will get your clothes dirty!" "Here was a child whose development was stunted and sacrificed for the sake of his clothes. He had never been given a chance to play freely, to exercise freely, to learn to do things by the actual doing of them, and so, therefore, he naturally had never gained control over his muscles. He was flabby and clumsy, he stumbled over everything, he could hardly throw a pebble into the water without falling into it. This child, though apparently well and strong, and bright enough, was practically helpless playfully, and by his lack of muscle coordination his mentality and spirit were affected."

Children Not to Blame. Mrs. Bacon—I see several French artists have agreed to sign all their works in future with thumb prints to prevent frauds upon purchasers. Mr. Bacon—Now, dear, when you see any thumb prints on our paintings don't, for pity sakes, blame it on the poor innocent children!

The Correct Classification. "I hope, Uncle Mose, you are not a misanthrope." "No, sah; I'm a Baptist."

Along about the time she is twenty-five a girl gets over the fear that somebody will marry her for her money.

The Generous Man. "This paper," says the ice cream consumption of the United States is estimated at five quarts per capita annually, George," said the sweet young thing. "Yes, dear; I guess that's right," replied the young man. "Well, bless you, George! You must be giving me some other girl's per capita, then."

Her Thought. Patience—The witch tree of Nevada is so luminous that a person standing near it can read ordinary print easily. The tree itself can be seen for a mile on the darkest nights. Patrice—That, evidently, is no place for a hammock.

Any Time— Post Toasties

These Superior Corn Flakes are not only a delicious breakfast food—they make an appetizing lunch at any hour of the day. And how the kiddies do enjoy them! After play time—for lunch or supper—the crinkly brown flakes just hit the spot. Post Toasties are made of choicest selected Indian corn; steam-cooked, daintily seasoned, rolled and toasted to a delicate golden-brown. Post Toasties reach you all ready to serve—just add cream or milk. Little or no sugar is required as pure sugar is cooked in. Also mighty good with any kind of fruit. Ask Your Grocer. Post Toasties—the Superior Corn Flakes!

THE European war has focused attention more strongly than ever before upon the idea embodied in the phrase, "See America First." Thousands who have been in the habit of spending their vacations, winter or summer, abroad are scanning the map of the United States with renewed interest and are discovering that natural attractions, scenic wonders and good roads which they had hardly thought in existence to be found without the necessity of making an ocean voyage.

With the great impetus which the automobile has within recent years given to touring and with the rapid development of better roads, the motorist has been traveling the highways and byways in search of scenes that are new and roads that are good. This year, 1915, will see a great stream of travel from east to west and west to east—attracted by the two California expositions and by the novelty of a transcontinental tour by motor.

Definite routes have been established, and the automobile owner now has almost as great a choice of routes as has the traveler by train. A truly remarkable work has been done within the last few years in developing highways and linking them together into interstate and national roads. They are named and marked, mapped and pictured until it is the exception for the motorist to find himself on a nameless route.

The latest of the transcontinental highways is the Pikes Peak Ocean to Ocean highway. This road is being developed by an association resulting from the federation of several strong state units.

The Pikes Peak Ocean to Ocean highway has a distinctive organization from Terre Haute, Ind., to Salt Lake City, Utah, with splendid connections at both these termini. At Terre Haute it joins with the National Old Trails road, which carries it through Indianapolis, Columbus, Wheeling, Cumberland to the national capital, Washington, and thence to New York city. From Springfield, Ill., it also has a good connection through Toledo, Cleveland, Erie, Buffalo, Rochester, Albany and down the Hudson to New York city.

From Terre Haute, it continues westward through Springfield, Ill., crossing the Mississippi river at Hannibal, Mo., thence in a direct line over the Hannibal-St. Joseph Cross State highway through Missouri to St. Joseph. Here it joins the Rock Island highway through northern Kansas, through Belleville, Norton and Colby, to connect at the Colorado line with the Pikes Peak road through Limon to Colorado Springs. Here it enters the mountains through Ute pass, and after crossing the South park, begins the ascent of the continental divide which is achieved, just beyond Leadville, on a 4 per cent grade over an improved road. The top of Tennessee pass, 10,400 feet above sea level, is the highest point on the road between the two oceans, and now begins the descent to the Pacific side. The thrilling ride over Battle mountain is followed by the peaceful Eagle River valley, which leads into the Glenwood canyon, where the road follows the Canyon of the Grand River to Glenwood Springs. At Rifle, the highway turns northward from the railroad, through Meeker, Colo., Vernal, Roosevelt and Duchesne, Utah, to Provo and Salt Lake City. At the Mormon capital it has several connections westward, both to the north and south of the lake, via the Lincoln highway through Reno to San Francisco, or the road by way of Tompah to either Los Angeles or San Francisco.

A look at the map will show that the Pikes Peak Ocean to Ocean highway crosses the central part of the United States in a line as straight as the contour of the country will permit; that it traverses a section rich in natural resources, of diversified commercial agricultural and mining interest; of varying topography; a section of the United States of historic associations, and that it cuts through the heart of the Rocky mountains and makes accessible magnificence and grandeur unrivaled in all the world. To demonstrate the feasibility of this highway, there was held last summer an official inspection trip from St. Joseph to Colorado Springs, followed by a reliability run from that point to Salt Lake City. Regarding that portion of the road between St. Joseph and Colorado Springs a member of the official party said: "This tour holds no dreariness, no weariness, no monotony. This is pleasant thoroughfare. The meeting that was the forerunner of this trail was held in March, 1912, and so busy have the promoters been that you can speed along the whole way at a rate of from twenty-five to thirty-five miles an hour—and we did. Markers everywhere tell you when and how to turn. Hospitality greets you on every hand. There are long, level stretches in Kansas; you'd be disappointed if there weren't. You run through them just long enough to get enjoyment out of the scene, and then you dip down into the most delicious valleys and around wooded trails and through bosky dells. You always think of tolling ox teams and clouds of dust and a dreadful thirst when you turn your mind toward western Kansas. But the real truth is that traveling through this country—and eastern Colorado as well—is a delightful surprise. You get just enough of everything you've heard about as being there, and never too much. You see Jack rabbits, and prairie dogs, and sod houses, and tumble weed—and silos and cornfields—cornfields extending as far over the divide as you can see—and wheat until your eyes get tired of distance. Eastern Colorado is the biggest surprise. You are fascinated throughout by the scenery, the spirit of the country and the history, told you by men and by silent landmarks and tokens along the way."

"The trip from Colorado Springs to Salt Lake City by auto over the Pikes Peak Ocean to Ocean highway leaves the memory full of pleasant impressions," said one of the members of the reliability party. "Every mile of the way is interesting; most of it is pleasant, and some of it is both charming and thrilling. No one can truthfully say that he has seen the grandeur and beauty of the Rocky mountains unless he has made this trip. We enter the mountains at Manitou, through historic Ute pass. A fine rain fell here Wednesday. It came down slowly and put the ground in ideal condition. The total precipitation was about one and a half inches, making over two inches of rain within the past eight days. This puts the country in fine shape and leaves no doubt of a prosperous year.

So far as we can learn, the rain was general over West Texas.

12-16-20 Gauge Hammerless "Pump" Guns Six Quick Shots!

The Marlin

shotgun is a fine-appearing, beautifully-balanced gun, without any objectionable bumps or bumps; no holes on top for gas to blow out through or water to get in; can't freeze up with rain, snow or sleet; its solid steel breech (not a steel of wood) permits a thoroughly symmetrical gun without sacrificing strength or safety; it is the safest breech-loading shotgun ever built. Six shots in 1/2 and 16 gauge; are in 10 gauge.

It is Hammerless with Solid Steel Breech (inside as well as out)—Solid Top—Side Ejection—Matted Barrel (which costs $1.00 extra on other guns)—Prom Button Cartridge Release—to remove loaded cartridges quickly from magazine without working through action; Double Extractors—Take-Down Feature—Trigger and Hammer Safety—Hammer Safety: guaranteed in shooting ability; price standard Grade "A" 12-gauge gun, $22.00; 16- or 20-gauge, $24.00. Send 3 stamps postage for big catalog describing all Marlin repeating shotguns (hammer and hammerless), all Marlin repeating rifles, etc. Do it now!

The Marlin Firearms Co., 42 Willow Street, New Haven, Conn.

If you shoot a rifle, pistol or shotgun, you should have a copy of the Ideal Hand Book—bullets, primers and reloading tools for all standard rifle, pistol and shotgun ammunition; how to measure powder accurately; shows you how to cut your ammunition correct in half and 1/2 more and better shooting. This book is free to any shooter who will send three stamps postage to The Marlin Firearms Co., 42 Willow St., New Haven, Conn.

GLORIOUS INAUGURATION OF WORLD'S GREATEST INTERNATIONAL CELEBRATION ASSURES CONTINUED SUCCESS

WITH an attendance for the first week greater than the combined attendance for the same period of the world's expositions at Chicago and St. Louis, the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco has started on a career that the most conservative judgments predict will break all records for exposition success.

The exposition, opened on February 20, 1906 per cent complete structurally, and opened to an attendance of one quarter of a million people. From every state of the United States and from the nations of the world came critical visitors to pass on the merits of the celebration that had been so widely heralded. They found nothing to criticize. Every claim made by San Francisco and the exposition was fulfilled. It is safe to say that not a single visitor went away disappointed. The result has been that the advertisement by word of mouth, and by letters home and to friends—the most powerful form of advertisement—has been given the exposition. In consequence the transportation companies report a constantly increasing booking for travel to San Francisco both by land and water.

Exceptionally low rates have been given by the transportation companies from all points within the United States to San Francisco, offering many people an opportunity that could not otherwise be taken, of combining a pleasure journey to the exposition with a sightseeing tour through California and the West.

A feature of the exposition that has called for universal comment is the "action" that marks exhibits, every exhibit capable of operation by steam or electricity being shown in motion.

A flood of inquiries concerning rates and hotel accommodations has been received by the information bureau of the exposition since the news of its successful opening was flashed around the world, all such inquiries being given prompt attention. San Francisco and California are fulfilling their host duties and living up to the reputation the West has always had for hospitable treatment for the stranger.

HANDSOME SIXTY-PAGE BOOK ON THE PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION SENT FREE OF CHARGE TO ANY ADDRESS.

Those who are interested in this great exposition may obtain free of charge a handsomely illustrated book of sixty pages, reproducing the exhibit palaces in their natural colors and giving essential data about the exposition, San Francisco, California and the Panama canal. To obtain this book send a letter to the Manager, Bureau of Publication, Panama-Pacific International Exposition Grounds, San Francisco, Calif.

WHEN A QUARTER OF A MILLION OF PEOPLE INAUGURATED THE VAST PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION AT SAN FRANCISCO

Transportation reports show that every state in the United States and most of the nations of the world were represented in the great throng of 250,000 people who inaugurated the Panama-Pacific International exposition at San Francisco on February 20. This picture, showing the mighty South gardens, gives a glimpse of a small fraction of the opening day throng. In the first five days of its progress the exposition had an attendance larger than the combined totals of the Chicago and St. Louis expositions and the ratio continues in a degree to justify predictions of the most spectacular success for the exposition.

WOMAN WOULD NOT GIVE UP

Though Sick and Suffering; At Last Found Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Richmond, Pa.—"When I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was in a dreadful rundown state of health, had internal troubles, and was so extremely nervous and prostrated that if I had given in to my feelings I would have been in bed. As it was I had hardly strength at times to be on my feet and what I did do was by a great effort. I could not sleep at night and of course felt very bad in the morning, and had a steady headache.

"After taking the second bottle I noticed that the headache was no more, I rested better, and my nerves were stronger. I continued its use until it made a new woman of me, and now I can hardly realize that I am able to do so much as I do. Whenever I know any woman in need of a good medicine I highly praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. FRANK CLARK, 3146 N. Tulip St., Richmond, Pa.

Women Have Been Telling Women for forty years how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored their health when suffering with female ills. This accounts for the enormous demand for it from coast to coast. If you are troubled with any ailment peculiar to women why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? It will pay you to do so. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

RHEUMATISM
Here What Others Say:
"I highly recommend your Liniment as the best remedy for rheumatism I ever used. Before using it I spent large sums of money trying to get relief of the misery and pain in limbs and body. So I tried your Liniment both internal and external and I found quick relief, and now am well and strong again."—Geo. Curtis, 225 W. 12th St., Springfield, Ill.

Here's Proof
"I wish to write and tell you about a fall I had down four or five steps and bruised my neck and top very bad. I could not sleep at all. I went my wife for a 25 cent bottle of your Liniment and in two days I was on my feet and now am well and strong again."—Geo. Curtis, 225 W. 12th St., Springfield, Ill.

Have You a Bad Back?

Does your back ache night and day, making work a burden and rest impossible? Do you suffer with aching, darting pains when stooping or lifting? Most bad backs are due to hidden trouble in the kidneys and if the kidney secretions are scant or too frequent of passage, proof of kidney trouble is complete. Day may pay the way to serious kidney life. For bad backs and weak kidneys, use Doan's Kidney Pills—recommended the world over.

A Texas Case

B. T. Hayes, Pittsburg, Texas, says: "My back was weak and painful and I had a headache a week at a time. The kidney secretions were profuse, then again scanty. I had headaches and my sight was affected. Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of all these ailments."

SMILES

A LONG WAY AHEAD. HAD A REASON.

We have just heard about a Lake wood lady who advertised for a girl to do general housework and got a jewel of a personal reply. The young woman who answered the ad was strong, capable, intelligent, neat and possessed of training for the position.

She—Papa wants me to wait until I am thirty before I get married. He—If you're like most girls, you will never admit you're thirty.

Better Late Than Never.
"I don't believe in early weddings." Her mother said: "It's all too soon." "I'm quite agreed," her daughter answered: "I'm willing to wait at noon."

Wanted Him.
Bank Teller—This check is all right, but you must be introduced. Can you bring in your husband?
Woman—Who, Jack? Why, if Jack thought you wanted an introduction to me he'd knock your block off!

Amiable Surmise.
Mrs. Gaddy—What is that queer noise like a rattle in the room?
Visiting Cousin (hopelessly)—Maybe it's the skeleton ma says you have in your closet.

What One Farmer Wanted.
Farmer—Want a job, eh? Do you understand farming?
Applicant—Thoroughly, sir.
Farmer—You wouldn't do. I want a man who is enthusiastic about it.

A Trifle Peevish.
"That broth of mine must be good," said the querulous patient.
"Why?"
"I notice that six different nurses have had a sip of it."

The Remembered Lure.
White—What made Jim Wallstreet rush abroad to fight in the war?
Knight—Somebody told him machine guns in action sounded like a gigantic stock ticker.—Puck.

Its Kind.
"That was a very affectionate sort of sail we took this afternoon."
"How affectionate?"
"All the way the boat was hugging the shore."

The Final Precipitation.
"You treated the accusations with silent contempt, of course?"
"I did."
"And then with haughty indifference?"
"Yes."
"Then you laughed them to scorn?"
"Certainly."
"And finally repelled them with just indignation?"
"Exactly."
"Then, you'd better see a good criminal lawyer next."

Modified.
"I'm a glutton for work!" boasted the man.
But his wife overheard him and asked him to split some wood.
"Er—I mean an epicure!" the man hastened to correct himself.—Puck.

Dangerous Proceeding.
"Where is that fellow Gunn you had around here?"
"I fired him."
"I should think you would have been afraid he would kick."

But Not Calling Mayhap.
Big Sister—Fred says if I don't keep you out of the room when he calls he will stop calling.
Willie—Well, sis, dey's others, you know.

Premature Joy.
He popped the maiden answer, "Yes"—"With joy he thought he'd smother; But she'd not finished: "Yes—today I said 'Yes' to another."

Old Enough for It.
"Sir, I wish to inform you I am an active worker in an anticosmetic movement."
"Well, aunty, I must say you look the part."

Their Attribute.
"There is a trio of English authors who certainly ought to be full of animal magnetism."
"Who are they?"
"Lamb, Hogz and Bacon."

Effect of Variety.
"Why is it, do you suppose, that the course of true love never runs smooth?"
"For the same reason, I guess, that life is not always a grand sweet song. If we didn't get a few bumps occasionally we wouldn't appreciate a level stretch in the road."

CAN'T PRAISE CARDUI ENOUGH

This Lady Was Very Nervous, On Account of Serious Womanly Trouble. But Now She Praises Cardui.

Murrycross, Ala.—The following is from Mrs. W. J. Daugherty, this place: "I will write a full statement of my condition before I had taken Cardui. I was very weak. I had not any nerve at all and could not stand any noise, and had female complaints.

At last my doctor told me to try Cardui and I did so, and I can say, it sure has cured me sound and well, and am glad to tell anyone what it did for me, and it will help any suffering woman.

I can't praise Cardui enough. I wish every woman would believe what I say and give Cardui a trial, and they will find my word to be true.

Albert Pankopf, seventy-eight years old, bent and white-haired, danced blindfold among 18 eggs, laid in two rooms at intervals of a foot, for several minutes without breaking a shell. For more than fifty years Professor Pankopf has been performing this feat, but at the annual Schlichterfest of the Saxonia and General German Benevolent Association he danced as never before. The years dropped from him as he danced. When the music stopped the old man fell into the arms of a spectator. "Weak heart," he gasped. He soon recovered himself and bowed in response to the cheers.—St. Paul Dispatch.

THE PRUNE CLUB

"Why is the bass drummer always a dyspeptic?" asked the thin boarder, coming to breakfast.
"Because the bass drum is tough," said the giddy blonde typewriter between bites.
"Not right," said the thin man.
"Because basses don't agree with him," suggested the fat boarder, wiping his brow with his paper napkin.
"All wrong," came from the thin one. "Guess you'll give it up. Because the drum goes against his stomach."

YES, RESINOL CLEARED AWAY EVERY PIMPLE!
At least once a day—usually twice—I bathed my face for several minutes with plenty of resinol soap and hot water and applied a little resinol ointment gently. I let this stay on for ten minutes or so, and then washed it off with resinol soap and more hot water, finishing with a dash of cold water to close the pores. I was astonished how quickly the healing resinol medication soothed and cleansed the pores, removed pimples and blackheads, and left my complexion clear and velvety.

These are the reasons for Certain-teed Roofing
Every buyer needs the proper assurance, when he pays for the best quality, that a second or third quality will not be delivered. The market is flooded with too many brands. Some manufacturers with poor facilities too often meet competition by cutting quality. Some wholesalers buy any old quality, put their labels on it, and say it is the best. Our Certain-teed label is backed by the written guarantee of the world's largest manufacturer of asphalt roofings. It gives each buyer the assurance wanted, and our unequal facilities for manufacturing enable us to sell it at a very reasonable price.
