"Play Night" Observed

Play night was observed last Friday night at the Hedley high school building, as a "get together" for all the school students of the community.

A concert by the Clarendon high school band opened the program. After the concert various games such as horseshoes, shuffleboard, 42 and the like were much enjoyed.

A very large crowd attended and appeared to have a fine time.

Harris-Tollett

Miss Geraldine Tollett and Jack Harris were united in marriage last Saturday afternoon at Baptist parsonage in Clarendon. Rev. J. Perry King, the pastor, officiated.

The bride was attractive in a blue dress with black accessories. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Taylor and daughter of Clarendon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tollett and attended the Hedley schools. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Harris.

They plan to make their home in Hedley for the present.

A host of friends will join the Informer in extending congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Harris.

Woman's Culture Club

The meeting of the Woman's Culture Club Sept. 7 at the home of Mrs. George Thompson marked the end of the yard contest sponsored by the club and the beginning of the club year.

The dining table which was covered with a beautiful lace tablecloth had as its centerpiece a watermelon boat set on a reflector or surrounded by garden flowers. A three course luncheon was served on designated card tables with tiny pot plants as favors.

The guests at the luncheon were Mesdames Cal Merchant, Evans and Walter Taylor.

BANKING HOURS

9:00 to 3:00

Many people think of 'banking hours' as an extremely short working time because we open only a part of the day. Nothing could be farther from the truth.

Early in the morning and later we close in the afternoon hundreds of accounts must be balanced, thousands of checks cleared, investments analyzed plus many other duties too numerous to mention.

That's why we ask our customers to kindly adhere to banking hours so we may give our business our undivided attention. We know you will cooperate.

Pharaohs Had Refugees; Solved Problem With Slavery

CHICAGO.—Ancient Egypt, no less than the world today, had a refugee problem, Professor Harold H. Nelson of the University of Chicago's Oriental Institute has discovered.
Professor Nelson, director of the epigraphic and architectural survey of the institute, made this discovery on his return from Egypt where he has been directing work on deciphering records on the walls of temples and palaces at Luxor.
The ancient Egyptians were faced with a refugee problem when peoples of neighboring countries were dispossessed by invading barbarians and attempted to overrun Egypt. These refugees were made slaves.
Dictators Held Hazy
"It is interesting to see historically," said Professor Nelson, "that these ancient governments we are studying were dictatorships, though not of the totalitarian types of Germany and Italy."
In conflicts among the ancient states, people of less developed

Comma Outweighs The Mere Period On Super Scales

PITTSFIELD, MASS.—The power behind a mosquito's bite is the punch of a super-lightweight, an exclamation point is four times heavier than a period, and there are about 2,300,000 grains of sugar per pound.
Such irrelevant information has arrived from weight scales by Dr. Harry F. Miller, General Electric microscopist, with super-sensitive scales, a microchemica balance.
The throbbing sting of the mosquito bite results from a small object indeed, according to Dr. Miller's figures. The mosquito's stinger weighs only .000018 of an ounce, .0000006 of an ounce, or .0000003 of an ounce.
Functionation is also a lightweight matter. Dr. Miller's measurements disclose that a period weighs only .0000001 of an ounce, a comma (.), is twice as heavy as an exclamation point weighs, all of .0000003 of an ounce.

WHY OCCIDENTALS MUST LEAVE—Foreign penetration into Pinkney map, which designates areas and cities at rights by grant of the Chinese gov't nominally controlled by Japan, indicating Japan's "new order"

Trend Changed in 1926.
Thus began the new era in China. Through subsequent years the white man's exploitation grew until 1926, when Chiang Kai-shek came to power and began demanding that Occidentals be denied the unusual privileges which had made them practically overlords of China. But Chiang changed his tune in 1934 when Japan's new imperialism forced him to begin seeking help of Americans and Europeans.
That search has continued in the two years since Japan invaded Peiping, flattened Shanghai and crushed Hankow. Driven ever westward by the mighty Tokyo war machine, the Chinese government has not collapsed as the victor planned, but has gained new strength from the support of western democracies. Today, though thousands of square

Steamer Travel Was Big Adventure in Old Days

Among the objects seen by visitors to the Maritime museum of Gothenburg, Sweden, is a steamship ticket issued in 1859. It contains these regulations:
"Each passenger will be furnished the following rations weekly: Seven pounds of ship's bread, two pounds of salt pork, two and one-quarter pounds of flour, one pound of salt herring, and a daily ration of one can of water for drinking and washing purposes. These rations are furnished from the ship's supplies, but each passenger must furnish his own butter, sugar, mustard, syrup, pepper, and vinegar. Each passenger is responsible for bringing his own bed clothing and tin dishes for eating, drinking, and washing purposes. The ship's master has the right to withhold water rations until the promenade deck has been swept and cleaned each day by the passengers."

Refugee Problems Created.

"Populations also were deliberately shifted and a refugee problem created in ancient countries also to break the national power of rival states. The Assyrians practiced this in the Eighth and Seventh centuries B. C.
"Other nations, notably the Romans, shifted populations for a double purpose: To reward or pension soldiers and at the same time garrison strategic border areas. This practice was carried on virtually up to the World War as evidenced by the Turks' shift of Circassians to defend the desert frontier against attacking Arab tribes."
Professor Nelson revealed that the inscriptions on the walls of the ruins at Luxor, when transcribed and annotated, will fill seven huge volumes. Four of these volumes are completed.

Bruckart's Washington Digest Mixed Reaction Created by Huge Money Lending Program

Some Legislators Shout Halleluiahs, Others Are Bitter in Opposition to What They See as Another Gigantic Flop; Government Credit Menaced!

By WILLIAM BRUCKART
WNU Service, National Press Bldg., Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON.—President Roosevelt has asked congress for approval of another gigantic money lending program. He wants to put out $3,860,000,000 as a "stimulant to business." He wants to start right away and he wants to keep the money pouring into sinkholes through the summer and fall and winter and spring and next summer, too.
The President is not proposing government spending, as distinguished from government lending. That is important. While it has been shown by the experiences of the last half dozen years that this spending idea is just as successful as trying to pull one's self up by one's boot straps, those who favor the lending program say this method of bringing about recovery has not yet been fully tested. The brilliant-minded, self-appointed saviors of America, therefore, are out to prove that government cash can end a depression.
Arrival of the President's letter at the Capitol created quite a mixed reaction. Some members shouted their halleluiahs of more manna for the spawning ground for votes. Others expressed approval of parts of the gigantic outpouring of cash and objected to other items of the program. The third group on capitol hill at once voiced their wholehearted opposition to the scheme, offering several reasons why they could not support the President.

Nearly everything that is done in the national government is tinged with or steeped in politics. So the political phases immediately were stressed by the opponents of the program, and they are putting more steam behind their attacks as the days go by. Some of these members are objecting to further outlays by the government because they fear that government credit is about to crack any way, and they predict the newest presidential plan will seriously endanger the government's financial stability. The other group of oppositionists take a brutal position.
Say Roosevelt Is Paving Way for His Renomination
They say Mr. Roosevelt is proposing this new lending program now in order to pave the way for his renomination to a third term in the White House. I expect that we will hear more of this aspect of the situation as the debate develops on the floors of the house and senate.

There is every reason to believe that the President will obtain approval for most of his program. He may not get it all, but when it comes to getting a legislative program through congress, nothing equals the distribution of money as bait.
Thus, it appears to me that we can treat the proposition from the standpoint of what will come from the program in the way of beneficial results, if any, and to find, if possible, what the long range effect will be.
First, let me recall that during the administration of Herbert Hoover, when the present depression first fastened its fangs on our economic structure, there was the first major outpouring of government funds. The Hoover thought was to stimulate business by lending money and by spending for public construction. It was Mr. Hoover, too, who sponsored "self-liquidating projects" for which federal cash would be loaned—the idea being that a self-liquidating project would earn enough money to pay off the government loan. That was the way the reconstruction finance corporation came into being, and that was the greatest mistake of the early days of the world depression insofar as our nation is concerned.
Well, the Hoover administration promoted loans for self-liquidating projects in a big way. As a stimulant of business, the plan was a magnificent flop. The current program, being modeled exactly as Herbert Hoover designed the first one, also will be a glorious flop. There is, as a matter of fact, not one bit of difference between the new Roosevelt program and the futile move in the Hoover day.

Few Have Confidence in Policies of Government

Whether this government lending idea is sponsored by Republicans or Democrats, by Communists or Fascists, the result is bound to be the same as far as accomplishing anything toward business revival. By its very nature, government lending creates a doubt in the minds of every one whether they recognize it just that way or not. The feeling that most every one gets is manifest in the form of a question: well, where are we headed when conditions are so bad that the United States treasury has to supply money upon which business operates? Which, to my way of thinking, is simply saying that few, if any, persons have confidence in the policies of their government. It was distinctly true in the Hoover admini-

Officials Say Thought Is To Help Private Business

It is only fair to report that the top officials in the government say there is no intention to use these funds as was done through the Public Works Administration. There is, they say, no thought of discouraging private business; the thought is to help private business. But it is pointed out, meanwhile, that the funds which are planned to be used in this program will be under the control of half a dozen different agencies. Those who know the set-up in the federal government recognize this fact as important. It means this: Every agency of the federal government always has sought and always will seek to perpetuate itself, to expand its power and its functions. Give it a hundred millions or so to play with; and then express any doubt, if you can, that its officials will overlook any spot where they can boost their own importance. Truly, that would be too much to expect.
Then, give consideration to the fact that the current lending proposal contemplates expanding the original Hoover-initiated program into fields of loaning not hitherto occupied by a government agency. Self-liquidating highways, toll bridges, purchase of railway equipment, construction of more electric lines, to name only a few, are fields where the sloven hand of government bureaucracy will retard and handicap private initiative. Apparently, the dear pee-pul are going to be given a great many things to use whether they need them or not and whether they want them or not. (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

★ So On Through Life
★ Rudy in Another Role
★ Ingenious Quiz Program

By Virginia Vale

IT BEGINS to look as if those girls who made "Four Daughters" what it was (with the aid of John Garfield), have a life-time job. They appear again in the new "Daughters Courageous" with him, and will shortly make "Four Wives." The studio had intended to have them do "Four Mothers" as the next of the series, but now the wives will come first. Of course, they could go on forever, becoming grandmothers, widows, and then possibly "Four Second Wives." Just see what you, the public, started when you acclaimed the three Lane sisters and Gale Page in that first picture!

In case you're interested in that picture Samuel Goldwyn has been making, bringing Jascha Heifetz to the screen, the title has been changed again. "Music School" has been abandoned in favor of "They Shall Have Music," which is going to be a bit harder on the men who fit the names of pictures into theater marquees.

When you see Brian Aherne in "Juarez"—if you haven't already seen him—you might pretend that you're a movie mogul and study his performance with the idea of offering him the role of "Christopher Columbus" in the movie version of that famous Italian's life. That's what Edward Small did.

On second thought, maybe you'd better not bother. For it would be a shame to do anything that would take your mind off the grand picture that Aherne, Paul Muni and Bette Davis made together. "Juarez" deserves all your attention.

For a long time it seemed likely that Rudy Vallee would be remembered as the man who started the "crooner" wave that swept over the country. Now it seems far more likely that he'll be famous as the fellow who discovered and developed more celebrities than anybody else.

Tommy Riggs, Edgar Bergen, Bob Burns—they're just three out of a list of more than one hundred radio celebrities who owe their fame to the chance that he gave them.

Those quiz programs, in one form or another, seem likely to go on forever, which is bad news for all the singers whom they have crowded off the airways.

One of the newest and most ingenious is that presided over by the two writers of mystery stories who sign their output "Ellery Queen." It's known as "The Adventures of Ellery Queen." Each week a mystery story is dramatized, with Mr. Queen and four guest detectives listening. As soon as Queen knows who the murderer is he stops the play, and each guest is asked to give his solution of the mystery. Then the dramatization is resumed and the author's solution given. It's lots of fun to follow from your own arm chair.

One of the radio singers for whom quiz programs hold no threats is Felix Knight, who's just had another renewal of his contract on that half-hour preceding the Vallee show. He appeared on it for one great appearance, something like 24 weeks ago, and has been regular ever since.

Lum and Abner are going back to their old home in Arkansas this summer, partly for a vacation, partly to make sure that they haven't lost their accents (as if they could!) and the home folks are beginning now to prepare a proper celebration.

ODDS AND ENDS—"Taran Finds a Son," with little Johnny Sheffield as the son, is a lot of fun, and just about the time it was released Maureen O'Sullivan, who plays "Taran's" mate, was celebrating the birth of her first baby... Metro has since more temporarily postponed filming "It Can't Happen Here"... Now it's Benjamin Franklin whose life is to be screened... Joan Blondell gives her usual expert performance in "Good Girls Go to Paris, Too"... Whatever you do, don't miss Jack Benny and his wife, Rochester, in "Man About Town". Oilcloth Folders for Your Cooking Booklets

By RUTH WYETH SPEARS
EVERY efficient kitchen has a book shelf. The paper back booklets that all homemakers love to collect may be placed in bright oil cloth folders so that they will make a brave show along with the bound cook books.

The prettiest folders of this sort that I have seen were made in green and yellow to match the kitchen color scheme. The diagrams given here show exactly how they were made.

The folders are stiffened with cardboard so they hold booklets of different sizes neatly. The cardboard should be cut the size of the largest booklet in the group. The fabric side of both pieces of oilcloth should be entirely covered with paste to make it stick smoothly to the cardboard. Letter or write the general subject of the booklets on a label and paste it on the back. Place the folder flat under something heavy until it is dry.

NOTE: Book 1—SEWING, for the Home Decorator, and No. 2, Gifts, Novelties, and Embroideries, are now 15 cents each, or both books for 25 cents. Readers who have not secured their copies of these two books should send in their orders at once, as no more copies will be available when the present stock is sold. Your choice of the QUILT LEAFLET illustrating 38 authentic patchwork stitches; or the RAG RUG LEAFLET, will be included with orders for both books for the present, but the offer may be withdrawn at any time. Leaflets are 6 cents each when ordered without books.

Everyone should have copies of these two books containing 96 HOW TO SEW articles by Mrs. Spears, that have not appeared in the paper. Send your order at once to Mrs. Spears, 210 S. Desplaines St., Chicago, Ill.

BAKED EGGS IN HAM NESTS
See Recipe Below.

Meals That Are Different

A slice of golden-yellow cheese with a time-mellowed sharpness of flavor is the perfect accompaniment for a piece of rich, juicy, apple pie—but all too often we forget that its usefulness doesn't stop there. There are so many varieties of cheese, and so many uses for each, that menu making with this versatile food is fun.

There are rich, full-flavored cheeses, cheeses with a tempting sharpness of flavor, and delicate, mild cheeses—cheeses to suit every taste, and for every use, from appetizer to dessert.

Because cheese is high in food value and comparatively low in cost, meals built around it are nutritious and economical, too. And if you're feeding a family that won't drink milk, remember that serving cheese is an excellent way of getting more milk into the diet, for most cheese is concentrated whole milk (or milk which has been partially skimmed).

This group of cheese recipes, which I've found temptingly delicious, will help you to plan meals that are different and very good to eat. There are new flavor combinations—the sharp tang of mustard added to the mellow taste of old cheese, pungent chives with cottage cheese, and an old favorite—ham and eggs with richly flavored cheese to bring out the best in both. These recipes, which have been tested in my own kitchen, are practical and easy to use.

Swiss Cheese French Toast.
8 slices bread
¼ cup butter
4 square slices Swiss cheese (½-inch thick)
3 eggs
3 tablespoons milk
½ teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
Dash paprika
¼ cup butter

Remove crusts from bread. Spread one side of bread with creamed butter. Make sandwiches of cheese and bread, firmly pressing edges together. Beat eggs and add milk, salt, pepper and paprika. Melt remaining butter in a skillet. Dip sandwiches in egg mixture and fry in hot butter. When golden brown on both sides, remove from pan and serve very hot.

Macaroni and Cheese.
1 cup macaroni (uncooked)
½ cup grated cheese
1 teaspoon salt
Black pepper
2 tablespoons butter
¼ teaspoon paprika
1 cup milk
2 teaspoons prepared mustard
Break macaroni in short lengths, cover with boiling salted water, and cook until soft (25-30 minutes). Drain thoroughly, and place layers of the macaroni, grated cheese, salt and pepper in a baking dish. Dot with butter. Garnish with paprika. Mix the milk and prepared mustard together and pour over the macaroni. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees Fahrenheit) about one-half hour.

Baked Eggs in Ham Nests.
Baked or boiled ham
Eggs
English muffins
American cheese (grated)
Line custard cups with thin slices of baked or boiled ham. Drop a raw egg into each cup, and bake them in a moderate oven, 325 degrees Fahrenheit, 15 to 20 minutes, or until the eggs are done.
Split the muffins, toast them, then sprinkle each half generously with grated cheese. Return to a moderate oven, 325 degrees Fahrenheit, to melt the cheese. Remove the egg and ham nests from the custard cups and place one on each muffin half. Serve immediately.

Cheese Souffle.
(Serves 3)

1½ cups milk
1 cup soft bread crumbs
1 tablespoon butter
½ pound American cheese (sliced thin)
4 eggs (separated)
¼ teaspoon paprika
2 drops tabasco sauce
¼ teaspoon salt

Combine milk, bread crumbs, and butter in the upper part of a double boiler and heat. Add the cheese, and stir until the cheese is melted. Beat egg yolks until very light, add paprika, and tabasco sauce, and gradually stir in the cheese mixture. Add salt to egg whites, beat until stiff, and fold into a hot cheese mixture. Pour into greased baking dish and bake in a slow oven (300 degrees Fahrenheit) for 1 hour and 15 minutes. Serve immediately.

Hot Cheese Dreams.
(Serves 4-5)

6 slices bread
6 slices American cheese
½ cup chili sauce
6 slices bacon

Remove crusts from bread. Toast one side of each slice. On the untoasted side place a slice of cheese and a tablespoon of chili sauce. Cut bacon slices in halves and arrange two strips of the bacon on each sandwich. Broil until the bacon is crisp and brown. Serve with small sweet pickles.

Tomato Jelly Salad With Cottage Cheese.

4 cups canned tomatoes
¾ teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
1 bay leaf
¼ cup celery (chopped)
1 tablespoon onion (chopped)
4 whole cloves
2 tablespoons gelatin
½ cup water
¼ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Combine the tomatoes, salt, pepper, bay leaf, celery, onion and cloves. Cook gently for 10 minutes and strain. Soak gelatin in cold water and add to the hot tomato mixture, together with Worcestershire sauce, stirring well. Chill until set. Turn onto a large platter and serve with cottage cheese with chives in lettuce cups.

Appropriate Draperies
Linen, chintz and homespun draperies are appropriate in a colonial room, such as early American bedrooms where poster beds, patchwork quilts, hand-hocked rug and roomy mahogany highboys furnish charm. Rooms furnished after the Southern colonial manner in lovely Chippendale, Sheraton or Heppelwhite pieces need fine damask or satin draperies and upholstery.

Scratched Furniture
If furniture becomes scratched take a small paint brush, dip it into iodine and paint the place marred. When dry, polish with any good furniture polish.

Play Clothes Smartly Styled Of Dependable Wash Fabrics

PLAY clothes have come to be a theme of themes with costume designers. The idea of wearing just any old duds when you go out to play or to rough it in camp life or mountain climbs or just simple cross-country hikes is completely taboo these days. No woman of modern outlook can afford to sidetrack the issue of being smartly and appropriately garbed wherever she goes. There's absolutely no escaping the new demand for "style" tuned to environs of the time, the place and the game. Indulge in any outdoor pastime you will, but be sure you "look the part" in the matter of correct attire.

Designers have risen so valiantly to the occasion of creating an entire wardrobe of play clothes that all one has to do is to go to specialized departments and make your needs known and you will be outfitted to the 'nth degree of correctness for this sports occasion or that.

However, there is more to the play clothes challenge than just style, for dependable wearability that will withstand the ravages of roughing it is of such vast importance one needs must meet the issue with all the art and science at command. Which is exactly what fabric manufacturers are doing.

Note the play clothes pictured. They are extremely fabric conscious. Full of Nineteenth century yet intensely modern, they are the beach ensemble that will stand up to the most exacting wear in that the flower print cotton which fashions it is pre-shrunk and fast color. Quaint ruffles edge the snug shorts and finish the formal little semi-fitted basque-like top. The platform shoes are also interesting.

Hats, Tiny or Big

There is no excuse for not having a flattering hat this summer for every type is included in the showings from tiniest toques to brims that go to extremes in the matter of size. The diminutive hat for dinner and evening wear, as shown below, gains daily in popularity. It is here interpreted in soft iridescent feathers with a touch of shell pink velvet. The black veil is strikingly embroidered. Compared to some of the new brims the large mushroom hat shown here of black Milan is in reality quite conservative. There's no limit to brim dimensions.

Favor Tweed-Like Linens for Suits

Although this year's linens abound in the traditional snappy finishes of the sort that denote well-bred aristocracy, many new versions are appearing. Something for the home make-your-own-clothes designer to get excited about is the smart new slubbed, nubbed and tweed-like linens which combine the celebrated coolness of flax with a new aptitude for tailoring that insure a suit of distinction and comfort for town or travel wear.

Fruit Trims New White Straw Hats

Perfectly charming among summer-girl fashions are the new, usually large, rough white straw hats that are trimmed with clusters of gay colored fruit instead of the usual flower garnishes. This new fashion is wonderfully effective whether the hat be worn with an all-white costume or with a gay and festive silk print. It adds to the glory of this mode to carry a matching white straw hat bag that is similarly fruit-trimmed.

Deck White Suits In Brass Buttons

There is a tendency to impart a military air to summer dresses and suits made of white seersucker or white gossamer sheer. Cool by the use of handsome brass buttons, and in some instances epaulettes of gold braid have been added. The fad for all white with gold trimming is also carried out in the gold kid belts are being worn with classic white dresses the draping of which takes on a sculptural beauty.

Star Design Dollies Crocheted in Silk

It's good to have a doily at home! Get busy on the some star dollies. They're for luncheon or buffet sets, so easy to crochet in mercerized string. Of course they can be used separately to beautify special tables as well. Pattern contains instructions for dollies; illustrations of stitches; photograph materials needed.

FAMILY REUNION

On Sunday Sept. 3, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Baker's home in Hedley was a place of great enjoyment for Mrs. W. A. Jones, her children and grandchildren. The large group enjoyed to the fullest extent renewing acquaintances and becoming known to newcomers who had united with the family. Much laughter was had by recalling incidents of the family which had occurred many years ago.

At the noon hour a large table was laden with delicious dishes prepared by each member present. The honoree, Mrs. W. A. Jones, who is 78 years old, was seated at the table with her six children who were present: Mrs. M. L. Baker of Hedley, Mrs. Geo. Metcalf of Chillicothe, Mrs. Oscar Gober of Mobeetie, Rev. O. Jones of Haskell, Jasper Jones of Gall and Hardie Jones of Corpus Christi. The remaining members were seated at tables arranged in the yard.

Afternoon games were the children's chief diversion while the elders continued visiting with each other. At a late hour in the afternoon the happy group began to depart to their homes wishing each one God's blessing until such another happy meeting.

Rev. O. Jones and wife of Haskell, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Jones and daughter Jolene of Gall, Mr. and Mrs. Hardie Jones and son Paul and daughters Harlene, Virginia, Mae, LaRue, Helen, Erch-Lou and baby sister of Corpus Christi, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Baker and son Hayden of Hedley, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gober and son Clayton and daughter Alma of Mobeetie, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Metcalf and daughter Frances of Chillicothe, Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Jones and daughter of Brawley, Calif., Mrs. Wilma Andrews and daughter of Wichita Falls, Raymond Sadler of Quanah, Truman Baker and twin Billy and Betty of Claude, Delbert Jones of Throckmorton, Marvin Baker and M. L. Baker Jr. and wife of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Baker and daughter Ethel Fay and Miss Iva Darlene Bingham of Channing, Holland Metcalf and wife of Chillicothe, Mr. and Mrs. William Geber and children of Dumas, Miss Maxine Brock of Chillicothe, Mrs. Lillian Townsend and daughter Patsy Rob and son Moebeil of Haskell, Mrs. Pearl Carpenter and son Horace of Wichita Falls, Perry Gober and wife of Canadian and H. W. Stogner and wife of Hedley, friends of the family and former residents of Haskell.

Mrs. Jones' children who were unable to attend the reunion are W. A. Jones Jr. of Throckmorton, Harlie Jones of Henrietta and Mrs. J. L. Givens of Throckmorton. There were also several grandchildren and great grandchildren who did not get to attend the reunion.
