Party at Wiggins Home

Mr and Mrs Clyde Grimsley and W V Bain were responsible for a delightful 'surprise' party and shower Saturday night for Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Wiggins, recently married, at the home of the former's parents west of town. Guests began arriving at 8:15 bringing gifts, and continued to do so until 10:30. The bride and groom had been 'taken for a ride' by relatives in on the secret and were brought back to find the entrance to their home crowded with cars. About a hundred lovely gifts were arranged for inspection in their room by their friends. Then they were invited to go on an educational tour as part of a game and felt the full force of the "surprise" when they saw the array of gifts. Games of Chinese checkers, dominoes, and 42 were enjoyed by the guests until the return of the bride and groom. Several musical numbers were also on joy-d at intervals throughout the evening. Refreshments consisted of food tea, cookies and cake were served to the following relatives and guests:

Messrs and Mesdames Will Kennedy, Harvey Shaw, Raymond Wilson, Earl Tolett, Ott Saunders, Oile Owens, C. N. Hill and children Janice and Claudine Messrs and Mesdames Lowell Primrose, Ray McKee, Jack Stafford, T. J. Wiggins, Odus Henderson, D. E. Henderson, Olin Uarey, D. B. Leach, Clyde Bain and children Barbara and Charles J. B. Yates, Mrs. Alfred Swaffling, Mrs. E. Davenport, Lyman Davenport, Geneva Leach, Olin and Olay Plank, Ward Grimsley, Wayne Latimer, T. J. Hansard, Katherine Grimsley, W. V. Bain, Vernon Bain, Messrs and Mesdames Clyde Grimsley, E. J. Myers, W. W. Wiggins, Walter Hill and Gran Wiggins and the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Wiggins.

Vacation Church School

A successful vacation Church School is closing at the Methodist church this week end. Some 48 children have been enrolled in the school. Interest has been good, and some fine work has been done.

Birthday Dinner

A lovely picnic dinner was prepared by Mrs. Gene McCracken at the Memphis park Sunday July 14, honoring her father J. W. McPherson, on his birthday.

Those enjoying the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McPherson, Thelmer McPherson, Margie and Joyce Jane Burdine of Hedley, Lequita Blackwell of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. Gene McCracken and son Winfred Gene of Memphis.

For Sale—at a bargain—one auto tent and folding camp cot, gas range (Quick Meal), electric radio all in good condition. Will consider trade.

Coyte Doherty

Mmes. Jora Shadie and Juanita Uarey and daughter Toby Ann of Corona, Calif., and Mrs. George Bailey of Jacksboro visited in the Frank Heath home part of last week.

Donald Bailey returned last Thursday from a visit to McLean and Bennett.

Miss Biggs Honored

Miss Ven Biggs, bride elect of Floyd Bates, was the honoree at a shower given Wednesday in the church parlors by Mrs. Master son, Mrs. Ross Adamsen, and Misses Mary Rains Bridges and Jonimerie Pickett. The parlors were beautifully decorated with cut flowers and pot plants with seats arranged to resemble an old fashioned school room. The program for the afternoon was arranged and directed by Miss Myrtle Reeves who acted the part of the school marm on the afternoon of graduation of her cooking school pupils.

Only one graduate was present Miss Biggs, the rest falling. An amusing partly impromptu program followed including music by Miss Otsey Watkins, songs by Misses Theresa Bain and Idell Biffle, original poems by Mrs. E. Davenport, essay by Mrs. Milt Mosley, and contests by Mrs. Moffitt and Mrs. Thompson. Mrs. Davenport and Mrs. Moreman Mrs. Moffitt and Mrs. Simmons also sang and upon being called back refused to sing again and were kept in after school as punishment. Mrs. Kinslow was scolded by teacher for low test grades, responding in an amusing manner as to the reason. In lieu of a diploma Miss Biggs was presented with a book of recipes contributed by friends and designed to help a bride over the many pitfalls she is likely to encounter in the kitchen after a while. Many beautiful and useful gifts were presented by the friends present and by clubs, Sunday School classes, and many who could not be present. The Good Will Club gave a sandwich spread and members of the Missionary Society presented Miss Biggs with a Silex Panich and cookies were served to the guests.

Gleaners Class

The Gleaner Class met Friday July 12, with Mrs. H. L. Whitfield hostess. Mrs. Whitfield read the devotional, Matt 6:19-34. Our lesson was the elective course for adults and was a good lesson. It would have done everyone good to study it.

Our time for meeting was changed from 8 to 4 o'clock. We will meet with Mrs. Pyle Friday July 26.

Lovely refreshments were served to Meses Pyle, M. G. Whitfield, Hall and the hostess. We closed with a prayer by Mrs. M. G. Whitfield. Every one come to our next class meeting.

Card Of Thanks

We wish to express our appreciation to the many friends who were so kind and sympathetic in the illness and death of our father. We especially wish to thank the Bray Sunday School and all those who gave the beautiful floral offering.

An Old Washstand Becomes a Sideboard

By RUTH WYETH SPEARS

SO MANY of you have written me letters of appreciation about the new SEWING BOOK 5 that I want to thank you all here at one time. In Book 1 is sketched and described methods of making slip covers, curtains, bedspreads, dressing tables and other things for the house. Next came Book 2 with gifts, novelties and a glossary of embroidery stitches. Then, in Book 3, I began to share with you some of the human interest side of this fascinating job of mine, and to tell you about the adventures of many clever women who make the things that they want for their homes—sometimes from almost nothing. There were more of these adventures in Book 4, and there are still more in Book 5.

There is nothing that pleases me so much as when you tell me that my sketches are so clear that you can see at a glance how to make things. I am glad that everything needed is in today's sketch about this remodeled washstand because I have used up all my space now; and the frill around the top shelf is five inches deep. Books are 10 cents each. Send order to:

NEWS THIS WEEK

By LEMUEL F. PARTON
(Consolidated Features—WNU Service.)

NEW YORK.—Howard Lindsay needed makeup to play "Life With Father." Dr. Charles Phillips Cooper, managing editor of the New York Evening Sun, around Dr. C. P. Cooper, around "Natural Lead for 'Life With Father' could have walked right into the part without taking off his hat. As he retires as professor of journalism at Columbia university, after more than 50 years of practicing and teaching journalism, he still commands affection and respect from his one-time proteges, an emotion somehow filial, and somehow belonging in that nostalgic picture which the late Clarence Day and Mr. Lindsay and Russell Crouse have recreated for the stage.

They used to set the type for the old Evening Sun in the local room. Charles A. Dana ordered some linotype machines, found workmen delivering them to the World instead, got into a row about it and said to the devil with the whole business, or words to that effect. At any rate this classic of newspapers for many years thereafter kept clear of all technological entanglements, including typewriters.

Dr. Cooper's spouting mustache was electrified during the ordeal of getting out the paper. Reporters used to say it was like sensitive antennae, catching impulses out of the air. This was the only way they could explain his way of spotting a red-hot news story in some bit of trivia, moving across his desk. They called him "The Human Sieve." That was due to his trick of sifting bugs, libel suits, and sloppily writing out of a piece of copy with a swift slash of his pencil.

When a reporter was beaten on a story, or made a serious error, or otherwise offended, Dr. Cooper would clutch both sides of his desk, lean back, close his eyes and howl. And when one of the boys really put something over (it had to be good) Dr. Cooper would croon and cluck over him affectionately.

He was always yelling for copy and the boys, if the story was hot, had to write it in short takes. There was always a blizzard of copy paper loose in the city room. As press time came near there were yells, bleats, running foot-beats and a bedlam which could be heard all up and down Park Row. Out of all this came a paper as cool and neatly fashioned as a daisy in the meadow—human, subtle, civilized and deftly done. The noise, smells of ink, grease and tobacco, and above all, Dr. Cooper's rip-snorting energies seemed to make a formula for newspaper "oomph."

Dr. Cooper, short and stocky, with his bright brown eyes alert and narrowly focused behind his glasses, joined the Sun staff as a reporter in 1889, after a year with the Hartford (Conn.) Post. He was with the Sun 24 years as city editor, news editor, assistant managing editor and managing editor. He retired to become a teacher of journalism in 1919.

Rounding 74, Dr. Cooper never moans over the good old days, and has no regrets for the passing of personalized journalism. He thinks newspapers of today are doing a better job than their predecessors. Among his colleagues were Arthur Brisbane, Richard Harding Davis, Woodford Patterson, now secretary of Cornell university, Nelson Lloyd, O'Neill Sevier, George Cartaret, Stephen French Whitman, Homer St. Gaudens and a score of other long-remembered names.

IT'S a long stretch from Gen. Adna R. Chafee's small-arm Indian-fighting equipment to Brig. Gen. Adna R. Chafee's new mechanized army corps—a father and son saga. The father was one of the greatest Indian fighters in our history, battling the Kiowas and Comanches along the 900-mile trail to the Sierra Madre in New Mexico. The son, schooled in the mounted service, was a cavalryman like his father, but in recent years has specialized in studies of mechanized warfare.

His new armored divisions are said to be similar in organization to the German panzer units. Army men say they fill a long-felt need in the service. Brigadier General Chafee was born at Junction City, Kan., in 1884, and was graduated from West Point in 1906, a few years too late for the Spanish-American and Philippine workouts, but he is a veteran of our later military engagements in Europe, holding the Distinguished Service Medal and is regarded as a good organizer and fighter—as "boots and saddles!" changes to "man the gear-shifts!"

Democrats Meet Amid Rumbles Of Naval Action in West Indies And Threat of Third Party Action

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)
Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Here you see Martinique—uncomfortably close to the Panama Canal and the United States. Here there had been transhipped 300 U. S. manufactured airplanes for France before that country succumbed to the Hitler juggernaut. Here British war vessels were maintaining a blockade to keep the planes from falling to Germany. And here American naval craft were dispatched to make observations. Here was a new—and complex—angle to the Monroe doctrine.

STORMY ISLAND: Martinique 'On Spot'

In Chicago the Democratic convention was meeting to nominate the 1940 candidates. In Martinique, American airships previously sold to France, formed the prime reason for a British blockade and the rush of several American destroyers to the scene for observation.

What had the one event to do with the other? Much, since the Monroe doctrine occupied both the attention of the platform makers at Chicago and the foreign departments of several nations. A rather pointed exchange of viewpoints on the Monroe doctrine was made between Secretary of State Hull and the Hitler foreign office. "Europe for Europeans, America for Americans," the Berlin statement seemed to say. Skeptics were not reassured. They believe they already saw evidence of Fifth Column work in some of the Americas.

The entire episode also prompted much "isolation" talk in the U. S. and threats of the formation of a third party, avowedly "isolationist" were heard.

U. S. CAMPAIGN: Warming Up

Now that the Democrats have met in convention, the campaign is due to warm up plenty with or without a third party ticket.

Right up to the convention opening Senator Wheeler of Montana kept right on saying he would seek the Democratic nomination at Chicago, no matter what Roosevelt was up to. John Lewis of the C. I. O. thought that Wheeler was the only man who could beat Willkie. Wheeler, felt, apparently, that both Roosevelt and Willkie were interventionists, and that he had inherited the classic mantle of the late Senator Borah and the magnificent elder LaFollette.

Wendell Willkie tried to show himself democratic, of course, with a

NAMES

... in the news

George Bernard Shaw thought that Hitler should be supplied—by England—with food, so they could all fight it out to a finish. Was G. B. S. turning into an insular warhawk? Cross-eyed Ben Turpin, plenty beloved, died in Hollywood at the age of 71.

Pat McKenna died, too. He had been White House door-keeper from Roosevelt to Roosevelt. He was 65. Everybody that knew him liked him.

Max Aitken, son of the British "Hearst" Lord Beaverbrook, a self-made Canadian, won the distinguished flying cross for double-crossing four German aviators. He shot them all down—or, at least, that was his story. British flyers have shot down 107 German planes, in or around the British Isles, since the start of the war.

Germany demanded that the Norwegians depose their king, Haakon VII, who had fled to England. The ex-allies previously deposed Belgium's King Leopold, and so the crowned heads kept a-falling. England was packed with them.

Earl Harrison, Philadelphia attorney, got the job for finger-printing aliens (and registering them) under the new federal law, which begins to operate by September 1. Harrison said "no witch-hunting" and planned an extensive alien educational program.

Wendell Willkie Paul McNutt

"Life is a funny proposition after all," said a popular song in the early part of the century. It was sung rather lustily about 1910, the time that Wendell Willkie, Republican presidential candidate and Paul McNutt, Democratic aspirant, were students at Indiana university. They were at opposite political ends then, too. Only then it was Willkie who was socialistic, and leader of the rabble—the "barbs"—while the McNutt faction was the so-called aristocratic and "Greek letter" fraternity group. In Willkie's senior year, however, they effected peace, Willkie becoming a member of McNutt's frat, the Betas. In 1940 the frat brothers are again fighting each other politically.

PARIS TODAY: No Glamour

Paris, the reports said, was not so glamorous these days. The French cops and firemen still were on duty. But something was gone. One thing that was gone was two-thirds of the population, which was scattered all around France. The French municipal administration carried on, but three German colonels headed the three police departments. In the cafes, the German soldiers sang Lieder. There was a blackout at night, and a curfew at 10 p. m. Lutetia Parisiorum (as the Romans called the place) did not like that curfew.

Once there were a dozen Paris papers. Now there were four: Le Matin, Paris-Soir, and two new ones, one of them anti-semitic. All were anti-British. The Paris banks were closed, and the German troops were always buying tobacco, beer, hard stuff, and chocolates. A German movie theater was running, for the field-grays, and some of the German officers brought their families to town. There seemed to be very little friction between invaders and inhabitants. The Germans were reported especially as purchasers of picture postcards and silk stockings. Anglo-French naval warfare helped the situation along, they said.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y.: Once Again, Yet

Some 800 civilians, who believed in preparedness, went to Plattsburg, N. Y., for a month of military training. It was to be at their own expense. It was a revival of the Plattsburg "idea" of 1915-16. This 1940 bunch were between 25 and 50 years of age. It cost them $43.50 apiece, at 20 cents per meal. Some of them were first World war officers. Winthrop Rockefeller, grandson of old John D. and son of John D. Jr., was put on kitchen police duty, which was abolished in the British army some time back. There were four Plattsburgers per tent, and many of them were Wall Street specimens, or the equivalent. The coffee mugs had no handles. Newbold Morris, president of the New York city council, was there. Said Col. James Muir, in command of the Plattsburg barracks: "This is a fine, body of men."

DEFENSES: Washingtoniana

The program for defenses passed the $10,000,000,000 mark, which is a lot of money. Said the National Economy League: "Confusion still seems the order of the day in Washington." The navy department contracted for 44 vessels, including 13 submarines, 11 cruisers, 20 destroyers, and a seaplane tender. This meant a two-ocean navy, or in other words, two navies. It meant a 70 per cent increase in the navy in the next six years. The indicated lineup was as follows: United States, two navies; next Japan; then England, Italy, and Russia. France and Germany now have virtually no navies, to accomplish anything with. The rest of the world's navies are so much petty junk, and why they have them at all, nobody knows. The proverbial Swiss and Irish navies continue to non-exist. Meanwhile, the American national debt went up to almost 43 billions, and we spent nearly 10 billions during the fiscal year. When Roosevelt came into office, the national debt was around 20 billions. Unemployment, world depression, and Adolf Hitler have come high.

FORODDS & FORENDS:

A rough and bloody Presidential election cost the lives of more than 100 persons in riots through Mexico. Rumania went completely Nazi, with King Carol still on his horse. There were anti-semitic riots, anti-semitic laws, and British technicians were fired from the oil fields, and elsewhere. Many of the Rumanian Nazis wanted to oust Carol entirely.

The radical Hindu patriot, Subhas Chandra Bose, was arrested in Calcutta by the British.

Common Sense About Constipation

A doctor would tell you that the best thing to do with constipation is get at its cause. That way you don't have to endure it first and try to "cure" it afterward—you can avoid having it. Chances are you won't have to look far for the cause if you eat the super-refined foods most people do. Most likely you don't get enough "bulk!" And "bulk" doesn't mean a lot of food. It means a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines. If this is what you lack, try crisp crunchy Kellogg's All-Bran for breakfast. It contains just the "bulk" you need. Eat All-Bran often, drink plenty of water, and "Join the Regulars." Made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek. If your condition is chronic, it is wise to consult a physician.

Max Boyer, candidate for State Senator, enters the final days of the democratic primary campaign with the statement, "I have no last-minute suggestions to make to the voters of the 31st district. When I asked for the honor of representing the people of this district, I told them that I based my plea for their support on the record I had made in serving as Representative of the ten northern counties of the Panhandle. I have asked them to check the records at their court houses and find out if Max Boyer has ever been a member of a bloc of state officials who impeded or have told them repeatedly that I have worked and voted for a reasonable solution for the all important Social Security Program of this state, and in a paid advertisement in this paper you will find the volume and page numbers of the House Journal to verify this record. I have proven my friendship to the agricultural voters of this district with my record of work for for the state soil conservation legislation, the successful fight to retain the gasoline tax refund to farmers, the live stock legislation, the freight rate fight for lower rates on agricultural products. These facts remain the same as they were when I made my first announcement, and I shall repeat again if I have proven by my record that I deserve promotion, then I urge every voter to support me at the polls July 27. If I have not tried to do the best I could for the people who trusted me with the office of Representative, then certainly you should not return me to the capital to represent a larger group of Panhandle citizens."

Lewis P. Fields, candidate for Congress, has spent his 44 years in Texas 35 of them in the Panhandle; having lived on farms and ranches in Hemphill, Donley and Carson counties; and has lived in Amarillo since 1920, being engaged in the General Insurance business. He makes the following statement:

"I feel that I know the needs of our district and will draw upon the experiences I have had as a farmer, stockman and business man, and upon information gained as civic worker, in advancing legislation favorable to the district and nation.

"As a lifelong Democrat, I do not believe in making promises that I cannot fulfill; but I do pledge myself to support the principles of good and economical government, and at all times to put foremost the interests of my constituents and the nation.

"As a veteran of the A. E. F., during the World War, I know what war means, and will not be jumpy over the war situation; but I do advocate immediate national defense and deportation of undesirable aliens, who comprise much of the 'Fifth Column' in our country, and I shall always strive to eliminate the profits from war and national defense programs.

"I have always studied the farm problem and it is my firm belief that the best farm program is one which will permit the man who tills the soil to own the land, and discourage the operation of large farm units by interests who completely mechanize and use a minimum of hired labor.

"I have at all times been interested in our schools and churches, civic and charitable organizations, and I will continue that interest. I have for more than twenty years been active in behalf of our disabled service men, their widows, and orphans; and I will continue to fight for them.

"I am advocating a common sense administration, and say that if elected I will try to do the job like I think the people would have me do it."

Favors Speaks in McLean

Ennis Favore, candidate for State Representative, while speaking in McLean last Saturday afternoon lashed out at Legislators who used their office last time for publicity purposes and for condemning certain individuals, and promise to cooperate with the Governor if elected State Representative.

Mr. Favore said he favored paying the old folks in full and carrying out the Social Security program to the letter. He advocated raising the 7000 lb truck load limit to a minimum of 14,000 lbs. and said he believed the poll tax payment should be reduced, or abolished as a qualification for voting.

Mr. Favore advocated a State law requiring all Legislators to reveal the source of their income under oath every six months and to file the same of record so as the people would know who they were working for while in Austin.

Wells Visits Here

This is no time to forget the importance of farm problems, Deskins Wells told his audience in an address at Claude Saturday afternoon.

"With many nations at war, with many of the markets for farm products out of there is a clear need for continuing the farm program. It should be improved and simplified in every practical way. The rules and regulations should be such that

"For 15 years I have been a student of farm problems, not from books so much as actual conditions affecting farm families. Since the government program was started, Deskins Wells has worked to make it effective. This is the reason the farmers and ranchers where I am best known have pledged their support to me. They met and endorsed me without waiting to hear what I stand for, because they already knew," he declared.

Mr. Wells visited in Hedley Saturday morning. He said: "Coming to Hedley isn't like going out to lay down a platform. It's more like a visit to a neighbor, and some of the people in this very section have at one time or another been actual neighbors of mine."

STAGE SCREEN RADIO

By VIRGINIA VALE
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

JOE E. BROWN'S first week before the cameras in the Columbia picture, "So You Won't Talk," marking his return to the screen after a serious automobile accident that put him in the hospital for four months, left no doubt that he was fully recovered.

In the first three days Joe fell off beds, crawled under them, jumped out of a second-story window, and swung a haymaker to Charles Wilson's jaw that connected accidentally and knocked the actor senseless for two minutes.

"So You Won't Talk" is a comedy in which Brown plays the dual role of a timid book reviewer and a gang baron for whom he is mistaken; Frances Robinson plays opposite him.

JOE E. BROWN
Sporting whiskers he grew while recuperating.

Ace Director Clarence Brown recalls that in the days of the silent pictures the saying was that the worst pictures had the most titles, and a really great picture such as "The Last Laugh" had no titles at all. Now it seems likely that one of the great talking pictures has proved that the bigger they are, the less the actors say.

"Edison, the Man," Mr. Brown's latest directorial effort, goes a long way toward proving that fact. There is perhaps half a reel during the climactic sequence in which hardly a word is spoken. "The suspense during the 40-hour test of Edison's first electric bulb, I tried to relate entirely in pictorial terms," said the director. "And that is the stretch during which the audience is most acutely attentive."

Wayne Morris can't escape the Lane sisters. If he isn't acting with Frisella, he's acting with Rosemary. Frisella's one up on her sister; she teamed with him in "Love, Honor and Behave," "Brother Rat," and "Brother Rat and a Baby." Rosemary won him in "An Angel From Texas," and she's his romance again in "Ladies Must Live," their current picture at Warner Brothers'. Meanwhile the romance of his personal life seems to have hit the rocks.

Betty Brewer, Paramount's 13-year-old discovery who is making her film debut opposite Fred MacMurray in "Rangers of Fortune," has a suggestion for anyone who wants to learn a foreign language. She suggests that the would-be student live next door to a family which speaks no English, be broke and hungry, and have to ask the foreigners for food, in their native tongue.

"That's how I learned to speak Spanish," she explained.

If you're one of the vast army of fans who've enjoyed the pictures made by Osa Johnson and her late husband, Martin, you'll want to see "I Married Adventure," which Columbia is releasing the last of this month.

It is based on Mrs. Johnson's autobiography, and is the first pictorial dramatic thriller of a famous woman explorer. It tells the story of 27 years of adventure, shared by the Johnsons.

The Court of Missing Heirs, a half-hour radio program which has been taking only 25 minutes because of Elmer Davis' news broadcasts, has moved from its customary spot on CBS to one-half an hour earlier, which will give it a full half hour. Even in its 25 minute weekly broadcasts it has not done so badly at digging up missing legacies; in 28 weeks under its present sponsorship the program has found claimants to more than $120,000—more than $6,000 a week.

ODDS AND ENDS

John Scott Trotter, orchestra leader, finished his work in Bing Crosby's "Rhythm on the Range," rushed for a plane, and flew 2,200 miles to eat the birthday cake baked by his mother for his thirty-second birthday. Half his home town turned out to welcome him back. But the home town is Charlotte, N. C., which is also Randolph Scott's home town, so the citizens are accustomed to having local boys make good.

James Cagney, George Brent and Pat O'Brien, stars of "The Fighting 69th," will go to war together again in "The Lost Battalion."

ENTERTAINING WHEN THE WEATHER'S WARM

(See Recipes Below)

If the mercury seems likely to pop right through the top of the thermometer, and guests are coming for dinner, you can still keep cool!

Plan your menu to permit as much preparation as possible in the cooler hours of the morning. Remember, when you plan the meal, that quality rather than quantity will please your guests, and that a beautiful, cool, crisp salad will be more appetite-tempting, by far, than all the complicated hot dishes you can name!

It's wise, of course, to include one hot food in your menu, even though the weather's torrid. There's something about the contrast of hot foods and cold that makes a meal more pleasant to the taste (and to the digestion, as well).

A cup of clear, hot soup, which might be prepared the day before and reheated just before serving, a hot main dish that's not too hearty or just a hot beverage, if you prefer it, will do the trick.

You'll find menus and tested recipes for all kinds of summer entertaining in my cook book, "Easy Entertaining." There are menus (and recipes) for teas, for buffet suppers, children's parties, and for a wedding reception, too.

Orange-Grape-Pear Salad in Ice-Lined Salad Bowl.

(Serves 8)

Oranges, pears, grapes—summer's juiciest fruits—in an ice-chilled salad bowl! What a decorative answer to every cook's prayer for something tempting to serve on hot weather menus. For a buffet party, serve it in a double bowl with ice to keep the salad chilled to just the right degree.

With a sharp knife, peel 8 oranges, removing skin and inner membrane down to juicy meat. Cut in thin even slices. (California oranges are firm-meated and practically seedless, which makes them especially suited to slicing.) Peel and core 4 pears. Cut in slices. Halve and seed 2 cups of grapes. Combine fruits and put in salad bowl, which has been lined with romaine and watercress. These two salad greens incidentally give an interesting color contrast of light and dark green that is refreshing and that may well be used in any salad.

Serve with sweet french dressing. Sweet French Dressing. ½ cup lemon juice ½ cup salad oil ½ cup red jelly or honey 1 teaspoon salt 1 teaspoon paprika

Shake well before serving. The lemon juice gives a flavor to dressings that is especially good with fruit salads. (Makes 1½ cups.)

Sparkling Vegetable Soup.

(Serves 8)

4 pounds beef shin 2½ quarts water 1 tablespoon salt 4 sprigs parsley 2 bay leaves 10 pepper corns 3 whole cloves ½ cup sliced carrot ½ cup sliced onion ½ cup celery and celery leaves

Have bones cracked at the market. Wipe bone and meat with cloth. Remove half the meat from the bone, and cut in 1-inch cubes. Brown the meat on all sides, add bones, remaining meat and water. Add remaining ingredients and bring to a boil. Skim, then simmer for 3 to 4 hours, with the lid of the kettle tilted slightly. Strain through sieve lined with cheese cloth, and cool quickly, uncovered. Chill until fat is solid, then remove fat. To clarify the soup, allow 1 egg white and crushed shell mixed with 2 tablespoons of cold water, for each quart of stock. Add to cold stock and bring to a boil, stirring constantly. Remove from heat, add ¼ cup cold water, and let settle until cold. Carefully strain through 4 thicknesses of cheese cloth wrung out of very cold water.

Just before serving, add vegetables as follows:

½ cup tomato (cut very fine) ½ cup carrot (diced fine) ½ cup new cabbage (cut very fine) ½ cup celery (cut very fine) 2½ cups water ½ teaspoon salt 3 tablespoons parsley (minced)

Cook tomato, carrot, cabbage and celery in boiling, salted water, just until the vegetables are tender. Strain, and add to hot soup just before serving. Garnish with minced parsley.

Waffled Strawberry Shortcake.

2 cups pastry flour 2 teaspoons baking powder 1 teaspoon salt 1 teaspoon sugar 3 eggs—separated 1½ cups milk 3 tablespoons melted butter

Mix and sift all dry ingredients. Beat egg yolks and add to them the milk and melted butter. Stir liquid mixture into dry ingredients. Fold in stiffly beaten egg white. Bake in hot waffle iron, leaving iron closed until steam no longer escapes between the two halves.

Rice Rolls. (Makes 3 dozen)

½ cup cooked rice ½ cup liquid from rice ½ cup milk ½ cup shortening 2 teaspoons salt 6 tablespoons sugar 1 yeast cake softened in ¼ cup lukewarm water 1 egg (beaten) 5 cups flour

Drain the cooked rice thoroughly. Combine ½ cup of the water in which the rice was cooked, with ½ cup milk and scald. Pour over the shortening, salt, and sugar, cool slightly, and add the rice. Combine softened yeast with the beaten egg and add to the cooled milk mixture. Beat in about half of the flour, and mix well. Add remaining flour. Place in greased bowl, grease top of dough slightly and cover the bowl. Allow dough to rise until double in bulk (about 1½ hours). Punch down, and let rise again for about 45 minutes. Shape into small balls and place in greased muffin pans. Let rise until double in bulk, then brush with milk. Bake in a moderately hot oven with the thermostat set at 400 degrees, for about 20 minutes.

Jellied Ham Salad. (Serves 8)

2 cups cooked ham (finely ground) ¼ cup mayonnaise 1 tablespoon sweet pickle (cut fine) 2 whole cloves 1 bay leaf 2 cups water 1 tablespoon granulated unflavored gelatin 2 tablespoons cold water 1 cup cooked ham (cut in small strips)

Combine ground ham, mayonnaise and pickle and blend thoroughly. Chill. Add cloves and bay leaf to water and boil for about 5 minutes. Then strain. Add gelatin which has been soaked in cold water and stir until dissolved. Chill until mixture begins to thicken; then add ham mixture. Pour in individual salad molds and chill 2 or 3 hours, or until set. Unmold on crisp lettuce or watercress, top with mayonnaise and strips of cooked ham and serve very cold.

Cheese Cornucopias—Salad Accompaniment.

Cheese cornucopias are an unusual, but delicious, salad accompaniment. Make ordinary pastry as for pie and roll out. Make tiny cornucopias (about 3 inches long) from any stiff paper. Wrap pastry around cornucopia and bake 12 minutes in a hot oven (450 degrees). Remove paper and when cool, fill cornucopias with highly flavored cream cheese. Serve with any salad.

HOUSEHOLD QUESTIONS

Tumblers that have been used with milk should always be washed in cold water before they are washed in hot. When this is done the milk will not stick to the glass and they will not have a cloudy appearance.

Wash the leaves of a rubber plant with warm water and castile soapsuds. When dry, rub each leaf with a cloth-wet in olive oil.

Sometimes perspiration stains on dresses can be removed and the color restored by holding the stained portion of the garment over a bottle of ammonia.

Scorched Linen—The marks can be taken out by rubbing with a cut onion and then soaking in cold water. This takes out both the smell and the marks.

To keep bread in the best condition store in a clean, well-aired, covered, ventilated container and keep in a cool place.

To remove mustard stains from table linen, boil stained part in a quart of water to which one teaspoon of washing soda has been added.

A slice of lemon in the water in which clothes are boiled will make them whiter.

Try adding a few raisins to the dumplings you serve with stews.

For added flavor, spread your cake with peanut butter before frosting it.

Pomanders, oranges stuck with cloves, will scent dresser drawers and clothes closets.

Light Baggage

Mr. Smith had been lecturing in a neighboring town. "How did you get on, dear?" asked his wife. "Did you carry your audience with you?" "No," he replied. "But I could easily have done so. It was small enough."

A permanent income is better than a permanent wave. But, says the glamour girl, the one may help you to get the other.

Only Means

Jean—I hear you have married a man of means. Joan—Well, if there was ever a man who means to do this, that, and the other—but never does—he's the man.

Fresh Eggs

"Are your hens good layers?" "Splendid. They haven't laid a bad egg yet."

Under Orders

Jones leaned over the fence and watched his friend Brown hard at work in the garden. "Been at it long?" he asked. "Yes," sighed Brown, dejectedly; "since seven o'clock." "Good gracious!" gasped the other. "I wouldn't think of such a thing."

"I wouldn't, either," Brown explained, casting a nervous glance towards his house. "My wife thought of it."

Marie Clawson Dies

The following was taken from a Littlefield newspaper:

Miss Elsie Marie Clawson, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Clawson of Bula, passed away at 8:15 p. m. Friday, July 5, at a Littlefield hospital, as a result of typhoid fever, from which she had been suffering since the Monday previous.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Methodist Church, Bula, with Rev. Crockett pastor, officiating, assisted by Rev. Peters, a former pastor, and Rev. Richards, Baptist pastor. Interment in charge of Hammon Funeral Home, took place in the Littlefield Cemetery.

Bearers were Kenneth Lynn, Willard Dykes, Buster Evans, H. G. Pollard Jr., L. H. Medlin Jr., and Belvin Simmons, while the flower bearers were Pauline Medlin, Irene Evans, Ethel Lynn, Geneva Terry, Ruth Light, Dorothy Pollard, Lorena Dyke, Flora Richardson and Betty Jo Gage.

Deceased was born February 24, 1921, near Brie; was converted at Hedley, at the age of 18 years. She joined the Bula Methodist Church at the age of 16 and since that time had been a faithful worker in the Sunday School and Epworth League.

Marie was a member the 1928-29 class of Sudan High School.

Surviving the deceased are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Clawson, a sister, Thelma, two brothers, Delbert and Jack, and a sister in law, Mrs. Delbert Clawson all of Bula. Several out of town relatives and friends attended the funeral.

The Informer extends deepest sympathy to the bereaved.

To the Citizens of Donley County

In regard to the Sheriff's office we have two good men running for that office, but we are interested in qualifications, as we believe every one should be

Guy Wright has had six years experience as a deputy sheriff. You know the standing Donley county has in Texas in regard to law enforcement. We are right at the top. Guy Wright has helped to put it there. He is qualified in every respect to fill the office of sheriff. You can't hire the law enforced without you can be there and lead.

As to office work, Guy Wright has a good education and can handle that part of the job. There are lots of boys and girls with good educations you can hire for office work, but law enforcement is a different proposition. You need a man who can do the job himself.

Guy Wright has made about the same amount of wages in six years as deputy sheriff as the tax collector and assessor will make in two years. Guy Wright has been shot down and one eye shot out in line of duty here in Donley county. While neither honor we ask for sympathy on that score we believe that he is entitled to some consideration on that score. He has been willing at all times to give his all for law enforcement. There is no one who needs the job any more than he does.

There is no one running for a second term for this office. The present sheriff has been in office for ten years, and the office of collector and assessor has been dissolved and the duties added to that of the sheriff's office. The law says the sheriff shall assess and collect taxes. The office of assessor and collector has been done away with. So all that we ask the voters to do is to be fair to themselves and the two candidates. Put them side by side and ask yourself which man will make you the best sheriff, and vote your convictions regardless of friendship.

It seems to us in times like this that law enforcement should be looked after more than anything else. There is nothing that will beat old hard experience and Guy Wright has that and knows how and what to do.
