Hedley Schools to Open

Presenting the public school faculty:

Mrs. Mary Reast, grade one
 Mrs. Myrtle Tinsley, grade two
 W. O. Payne, supt
 Miss Mary Lou Hawkins, grade six
 Miss Alice Bishop, grade five
 Mrs. Lois B. Owen, English
 Miss Wilhelmina Cleek, grade four
 Miss Minnie Bergner, Home Economics
 Vernon E. Ballard, Science
 Virgil W. Gregg, H. S. principal
 Miss Dorothy Mathis, grade three

The opening exercises of the 1940-41 school session will begin at 9 o'clock Sept. 2. All are cordially invited to attend.

Registration of pupils will be the only other school activity and will be completed in time for the pupils to return home to lunch.

The bus will make the route on Monday and will follow the same route as last year with the exception that it will travel two miles north from the Hall corner and will not travel the one-half mile west from the Hall corner.

Seventh graders are to be incorporated with the high school and will register with the high school principal.

New Congressman

EUGENE WORLEY

In the second primary election last Saturday, 807 votes were cast in the Hedley box. Due to the fact that there were no county offices to vote on, the total fell sharply from the 463 which were cast in the first primary July 27th. The totals were as follows:

For Chief Justice
 Lattimore 196, Alexander 92
 For R. R. Commissioner
 Culberson 175, Brooks 124
 For State Senator
 Hazelwood 161, Boyer 145
 For Congress
 Worley 180, Wells 124

Eugene Worley of Shamrock was elected to Congress to succeed Marvin Jence, who had held the post 24 years. He received a total of about 80,000 votes to some 28,000 for Deskins Wells of Wellington.

Grady Basswood of Amarillo was elected State Senator by a margin of around 3,000 votes over Max Boyer of Perryton.

Buckler-Moffitt

Miss Ruby Moffitt of Clovis and G. J. Buckler of Albuquerque were united in marriage at the latter place Monday.

The bride is the daughter of W. L. Moffitt of Hedley. She received her education here, graduating from Hedley high school in 1928. For some time she has been employed in the O. R. Anthony store in Clovis.

The groom is a traveling salesman with headquarters in Albuquerque.

After a wedding trip to the Grand Canyon, the couple will be at home at the El Fidel Hotel in Albuquerque.

The Informer joins their many friends in extending best wishes to the couple.

New Grocery Here

J. H. Boren of Lakeview is opening a new grocery store just south of the M & M Co., and plans to have his formal opening day Saturday. He states that he will have a complete line of staple and fancy groceries, and invites you to come in and look over his stock. He intends to add a full line of sack feeds soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Boren moved here from Lakeview about two weeks ago.

Rev. Brecklove of Amarillo preached at the Baptist Church Sunday morning and night. Rev. Telf of Alamo filled the pulpit Monday night.

Mrs. L. A. Daniel and daughter of Amberst and W. O. Campbell and family of Cotton Center visited in the F. M. Perkins home Sunday.

Family Reunion

A family reunion was held Sunday in the A. B. Langford home, honoring J. H. Langford on his 76th birthday, also Roy Langford and Mrs. Lonnie Langford on their birthdays. About 40 attended, and enjoyed a big dinner at noon. The afternoon was spent in pleasant conversation and in making pictures.

Those present were Roy Langford and family of Tulsa, Okla., Lonnie Langford and family of Pampa, J. O. Langford and family of Coalgate, Ariz., J. H. Langford and wife of Houston, J. C. Perdue and family, Kenneth Langford and wife, D. L. Hickey and wife, Peggy, Bonnie Fay and Doble Everett and A. B. Langford and family.

Birthday Party

Mrs. Ted Dudley entertained Monday, Aug. 26, with a party honoring her daughter, Blanche Sue, on her 7th birthday. Numerous games were played, after which punch and cake were served to Laura Ann and Betty Thompson, Mary Alice Hunsucker, Sarah Ann Rains, Joan Ray Moreman, Martha Jo Alexander, Carolyn Reeves and the honoree.

The honoree received a number of nice gifts.

Gleaners Class

The Gleaner class met Friday, Aug. 16, with Mrs. Kendall.

Devotional, John 18, Mrs. Kendall
 Song, Blessed Be the Tie That Binds, class
 Prayer, Mrs. Kendall

We will meet with Mrs. Koening Sept. 13 with an all day meeting, the losing side will entertain the winners. Bring what you like best for a program and your thimble for Mrs. Koening may have a quilt up.

We had six members present. Mrs. Kendall served good cold watermelon to Mesdames Bail Whitfield, Pyle, Koening and Whitfield.

We endeavor to serve in a way that honors those whose work is done and helps those who yet have work to do.

Star Dust
STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO
By VIRGINIA VALE
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

HERBERT MARSHALL'S first talking picture was "The Letter," in which he played Jeanne Eagel's lover, whom she killed. Now he's playing in it again, but this time he's the husband of the heroine, played by Bette Davis. He prefers his current role.

"I'd rather be a betrayed, but live, husband, than a dead lover!" he commented.

Incidentally, two of the most interesting photographs that have come this way recently are of Bette Davis and her stand-in. They're dressed alike, posed alike. If anything, the stand-in is a little prettier than the talented Bette, but she suffers sadly by contrast. Those photographs show the difference between an expert and an amateur, and they're worthy of any girl's careful study.

Twentieth Century-Fox finally got the screen rights to the play "Tobacco Road," which has been running in New York for years. RKO wanted it too—it's rumored that the price was more than $100,000. Unless all censorship bars are let down, considerable rewriting will have to be done.

Although the two girls have been on the same lot for more than a year, Dorothy Lamour and Mary Martin didn't meet until recently, when they were rehearsing dance numbers with LeRoy Prinz. The Sarong Siren was brushing up on her rumba for "Moon Over Burma," and the "My Heart Belongs to Daddy" girl was rehearsing intricate tap routines for "Love Thy Neighbor," in which she appears with Jack Benny and Fred Allen.

According to Ray Milland, "The greatest gift an actor can get is a chance to play with Claudette Colbert."

Here's the record that proves it. One of Milland's first pictures was

CLAUDETTE COLBERT

"The Gilded Lily," made six years ago; it gave him a good start toward his present success. A young man named Fred MacMurray got his start in that picture, too; he was so scared that he shook when he was making tests, and Miss Colbert kidded him out of his panic.

Melvyn Douglas was a polite but sinister "heavy" until he worked opposite her in "She Married Her Boss" and surprised everybody but himself by proving to be an excellent light comedian. "I Met Him in Paris" gave the public another light comedian, Robert Young, who until then had been a serious young man on the screen. Clark Gable had been slipping at the box office until he and the charming Claudette made the hilarious "It Happened One Night."

A giant gorilla has been worrying the executives of the zoo at Bristol, England; it costs $48 a day to feed him, and they feared that he'd have to destroy him to save his rations.

A giant gorilla has also been worrying Producer Jack Moss of Paramount—he needed one for "D. O. A." (Dead on Arrival) a mystery thriller featuring Ellen Drew, Rod Cameron, and various others. He's cabled to Bristol to ask how much he'd have to pay for Alfred, the gorilla, and what could be done about transporting him with a trailer to this country. Seems that Hollywood zoos can't offer anything big and scary enough to suit his purpose.

After finishing a picture most stars make a great to-do about escaping Hollywood and its crowds to get away to some quiet place. But after finishing "The Howards of Virginia," Cary Grant rushed straight to Broadway, and Martha Scott headed for a crowded and fashionable hotel in Santa Barbara, Calif. Hats off to them! The stars who declare that they wish the public would let them alone are likely to rage and storm if people don't notice them—Garbo excepted, of course.

COOL DRINKS ARE REFRESHING ON HOT SUMMER DAYS
(Recipes Below.)

Household News
By Eleanor Howe

Even on the stickiest, hottest summer day, a good tart, icy drink will refresh you. Fruit drinks, in particular, are good; when you drink a frosty tumbler of lemonade or chilled orange juice, you not only feel cooler, you are cooler. Fresh fruit drinks actually ward off the heat of summer.

Fruit beverages provide the minerals and vitamins the body requires, and, because of the sugar added for sweetening, are fairly high in food energy.

It's very easy to serve "soda fountain specials" at home. Any combination of fruit juices makes a delightful and refreshing beverage—provided some of the more tart juices, such as those from lemons, slightly sour oranges, or rhubarb—are used to keep the beverage from tasting too sweet and flat. Use slices of orange or lemon, mint leaves, whole, fresh or canned cherries or berries, for garnishing. Ice cubes for chilling fruit drinks or iced tea might be frozen from orange or lemon juice, to avoid diluting the beverage. Mint leaves, bits of lemon peel or cherries can be frozen into the cubes. For iced coffee, pour some of the coffee into the freezing tray of your refrigerator, and freeze. Then use the coffee cubes for chilling the drink.

Sugar syrup, used for sweetening, is easily mixed throughout the whole drink, and makes a smoother tasting, smoother textured drink, than when unmelted sugar has been added. To make the sugar syrup, boil 4 cups of sugar with 4 cups of water, for 10 minutes. Pour into clean, hot jars, and seal. Store in refrigerator, and use as needed.

Serve crisp cookies or dainty sandwiches with iced drinks for simple afternoon or evening refreshments.

Lemonade.
Follow these three rules if you want to make perfect lemonade: Use fresh lemon juice and plenty of it; sweeten to the taste of each—not too much sweetening for folks who like it sour—sweeten for those with a sweet tooth; use ice and more ice. For each person served, allow:
1 lemon
1 to 2 tablespoons sugar or honey
1 cup cold water
Ice
Extract lemon juice. Add sugar or honey to taste. Stir to dissolve. Add water. Serve over ice in large glasses. Garnish with lemon slice on rim of glass. To make lemon fizz, make lemonade with carbonated water.

"Simple Desserts for Summer Menus" is an article you'll want to read. Watch for it in this column next week.

Sugar Cookies.
¾ cup butter
¾ cup granulated sugar
1 egg, well beaten
1½ cups pastry flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
¾ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
Cream butter, add sugar and egg. Sift dry ingredients and add with the extracts. Flour and sugar the board and roll the cookies on it. Dust heavily with sugar, roll it in a little, cut in cookie shapes, and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) 10 to 12 minutes.

Chocolate Chip Ice Cream.
(Makes 1 gallon)
1 cup sugar
½ cup flour
2 quarts milk (scalded)
4 eggs (separated)
4 teaspoons vanilla
½ teaspoon salt
2 cups semi-sweet chocolate (cut in bits)
Combine sugar and flour, and add scalded milk slowly. Then cook over low heat, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Beat egg yolks, and blend with ½ cup of the hot mixture, then add to the custard, together with vanilla and salt. Chill. Pour into the freezing compartment of ice cream freezer. Pour in the stiffly beaten egg whites, assemble the freezer, and cover. Pack with mixture of three parts crushed ice to one part rock salt. Freeze, until turning becomes difficult. Remove dasher, fold in chocolate, and pack down the cream with a spoon. Cover, and allow to ripen for one hour before serving.

Pineapple Raspberry Punch.
(Serves 25)
6 cups crushed pineapple
6 cups raspberry juice
3 quarts gingerale
Crushed ice
Mix crushed pineapple and the raspberry juice thoroughly. Just before serving, add gingerale and ice.

Fool Proof Cookies.
(Yield 3 dozen)
2 cups flour
½ cup brown sugar
¼ cup butter
Mix and sift flour and sugar together. Then work butter into the mixture with the finger tips, forming a soft dough. Roll to ½-inch in thickness and cut with cookie cutter in any desired shape. Brush with yolk of one egg, beaten, and diluted with ¼ teaspoon water. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) approximately 12 minutes.

Is Father fussy about his food? Then you'll surely want Eleanor Howe's cook book, "Feeding Father." of ice cream freezer. Pour in the stiffly beaten egg whites, assemble the freezer, and cover. Pack with mixture of three parts crushed ice to one part rock salt. Freeze, until turning becomes difficult. Remove dasher, fold in chocolate, and pack down the cream with a spoon. Cover, and allow to ripen for one hour before serving.

Pineapple Raspberry Punch.
(Serves 25)
6 cups crushed pineapple
6 cups raspberry juice
3 quarts gingerale
Crushed ice
Mix crushed pineapple and the raspberry juice thoroughly. Just before serving, add gingerale and ice.

Fool Proof Cookies.
(Yield 3 dozen)
2 cups flour
½ cup brown sugar
¼ cup butter
Mix and sift flour and sugar together. Then work butter into the mixture with the finger tips, forming a soft dough. Roll to ½-inch in thickness and cut with cookie cutter in any desired shape. Brush with yolk of one egg, beaten, and diluted with ¼ teaspoon water. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) approximately 12 minutes.

Chocolate Freeze.
(Makes 4 large glasses)
4 tablespoons sugar
4 tablespoons cocoa
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup boiling water
2 cups milk (scalded)
½ teaspoon vanilla
Crushed ice
Whipped cream
Combine sugar, cocoa and salt. Add boiling water and cook for 2 minutes. Remove from fire, and combine with scalded milk. Pour into glasses filled with crushed ice, and serve with a spoonful of whipped cream garnishing each glass.

Blackberry Cocktail.
(Serves 4)
Mix together 2 cups blackberry juice, 1 cup orange juice, ¼ cup lemon juice, and 1 cup water. Add ¼ cup sugar syrup and blend. Pour over ice and shake thoroughly. Garnish with very thin slices of orange.

Sugar syrup—Boil 1 cup water and 2 cups sugar together for 1 minute.
Iced Coffee.
Make coffee a little stronger than usual. Cool, and serve in tall glasses filled with cracked ice. Top with whipped cream. If desired, cream may be poured on the ice before the coffee is added.

Iced Tea.
Rinse teapot with boiling water. Place tea in pot, allowing one teaspoon of the tea per cup. Pour freshly boiling water over the tea leaves and allow to steep, not boil, for 3 to 5 minutes. Pour tea over chilled ice, to cool it quickly. Serve in tall glasses garnished with lemon slices and sprigs of mint.

Tips on Wash Dresses
When purchasing materials for washable garments, make sure that buttons, belt buckles and shoulder paddings are of the sort that will stand up under frequent tubbings and that contrasting materials for trimmings, braid or bindings are also color-fast.

Double Duty Equipment
Ingenuously designed to do double duty are two new pieces of household equipment—a washer that becomes a useful kitchen table when it isn't in action and an ironer that folds into a handsome hardwood cabinet, suitable for use in the living room.

HOUSEHOLD QUESTIONS

A tablespoon of vinegar poured into glue that has become hardened in a bottle will soften it.

To cool a pie quickly as soon as it comes from the oven place it on a colander and the air can circulate under it so that it will cool quickly.

The broad side of a knife which has been dipped in cold water will flatten cookies so that they may be more easily rolled.

Store salad oil in a dry, cold place. Keep coffee, tea, sugar, baking powder, spices, soda, cream of tartar and cereals tightly covered in a dry, dark place.

Lemon slices cut thin and sprinkled with chopped parsley, served alternately with plain lemon slices, add much to the attractiveness of a fish salad.

To make fruit waffles add crushed pineapple, candied cherries and chopped candied orange peel to your favorite fritter batter.

Recollections
"John, do you remember—it was in a storm like this that you declared your love for me."
"Yes, it was a terrible night."

NARROW CONFINES

"I think I must be wandering in my mind."
"Don't worry. You can't stray far."

Sample Approved
Entering a very smart little restaurant, the farmer ordered a rump-steak. Ten minutes passed. Then the haughty waitress brought him a very large plate, in the center of which lay a very small strip of meat.

The farmer looked at it closely, turned it over, and looked at it again. Then he said affably:
"Yes, that's the sort of thing. Bring me some."

League of Notions
"What is this new show everyone is talking about?"
"It's an American production of an English comedy borrowed from a French farce taken from a Viennese operetta adapted from a Russian version of a German burlesque based on an Italian revision of a Greek tragedy."

Incomplete Trial
"If this sewing machine isn't satisfactory, you can return it in 12 days."
"Oh, but my good man, I can't get all my sewing done in 12 days."

Face powder may catch a man, but it takes baking powder to hold him. We might add: That depends on how it is used!

Memory Failing
"I'm 80, young man, and I can't remember ever having told a lie."
"Well, you can't expect your memory to be reliable at your age."

Up in Years
"Now, boys, if Columbus were alive today, he'd be looked upon as a very remarkable man."
"Yes, sir, he'd be 500 years old."

Scot
Running a Poor Second

For many months the canny Scottish wooer had come courting a village lass without committing himself. Then he felt the time had come for him to begin to speak. Producing a well-thumbed notebook, he said:

"Maggie, I've been weighing up your good points, and I've counted up to ten. When I get to the dozen, I'll hae something to say to ye."

"Well, I wish ye luck, Jock," the maiden coolly responded, with a jerk of her head. "An' I've been reckoning up your bad points, an' I've reached nineteen. When it gets to twenty, I'm mairriving Ferguson, the plumber."

Opportunities in Naval Reserve

Ex navy men, up to the age of 50 years, are now being enlisted in Class V 6 U S Naval Reserve and in rating held at time of discharge from the navy, except where manner of their employment since separation from the naval service has qualified such men for higher rating.

Men with no previous naval service but especially qualified in seamanship or trades used in the navy are also desired for enlistment in Class V-6 Naval Reserve. Age limits are from 17 to 50 years. Married men will be enlisted only if qualified to fill higher ratings.

Enlistment in Class V-6 Naval Reserve carries with it no compulsory obligations to perform drills or training duty as, by law, no member of the Volunteer Naval Reserve can be ordered to active duty without his own consent, except during war or national emergency.

Boyer Makes Statement

Perryton, Texas, Aug. 26 - Rep. Perryton, Texas, Aug. 26 - Representative Max Boyer of Perryton, issued a statement today in which he expressed appreciation to the friends and supporters throughout the Panhandle who worked for him during the recent campaign in connection with his race for State Senator. "The many fine friends I became associated with in the campaign which just closed afforded me an opportunity to more clearly know the type of people who live in the Panhandle. There are no alibis or excuses which I have to make as to our defeat. I ran the kind of a race that I have always conducted and if I were running again, I would act the same way as I did in this campaign. As a citizen, I shall continue to observe closely all legislative activities in Austin. I wish I had the time and money to personally thank each friend who did his bit for me."

Wells Expresses Thanks

Deskins Wells expresses his thanks to the people of Donley county for their help in the congressional race. "I wish to take this means of thanking my friends who stood by me so loyally during the congressional campaign. Due to the fact that I have spent all the money I had saved and still have bills to pay, it will be impossible for me to even write you a personal letter at the present time. I take this means of thanking you, and I want each and every one of you to know that even in defeat, it warms my heart to think of your consideration and your steadfast friendship. To those who voted for me whom I had never met personally, I also extend my thanks for your confidence in me and your confidence in those who knew me. I will always be grateful to you."

Worley Thanks Voters

Eugene Worley has issued the following statement to the voters of the 18th district.

"To say that I am grateful to the people of Donley county for their loyal support would be putting it mildly. I shall devote my full time from now until Congress convenes in thoroughly familiarizing myself with all pending legislation. I also plan a trip over the entire district before January and will appreciate the people calling my attention to any local problems which they might have. In short, I hope to be of any possible service to the people of this district and want more than anything their full and complete cooperation because the hardest part of being a good Congressman is yet to come."

"Our mutual friend, Marvin Jones has offered his complete cooperation and my other friends in Congress with whom I served in the Legislature have pledged their assistance in any way possible."

"With the help of all the people together with the Divine Guidance all of us constantly request I will do my utmost for all the people and all the people alike."

YOU see, I work for the electric company and so the other night at a little party I got to sounding off about the way electric rates have been steadily reduced to about half what they were twelve or fifteen years ago.

Boy, did I get the horse laugh!

"Sure," says one of the fellows, "I suppose that's why my electric bill is higher than it ever was."

"Hold on," I said. "I know what's bothering you. Your bill is as big as it ever was. Maybe bigger. So is mine. But you forget we're using more juice. We didn't always have radios, refrigerators, clocks, and percolators, and irons, and maybe a dozen other things."

"That's not all," I said. "You not only get twice as much juice for your money. You get better service than you ever got. And what does it cost?" I ask. "For most of our customers it's less than a dime a day. Light, music, refrigeration, cool breezes, good coffee, hot toast, cool ironing, and it costs about a dime a day. It's the biggest bargain there is, and it's getting bigger all the time."

When we were saying goodbye on the porch I gave them one more shot.

"You not only get twice as much electricity for your money," I said, "but you cut your own rate every time you use more. The way modern electric rates are now, the more you use, the lower the price." So I say good night and what a good time I had.

P.S. It sure was a swell party! They asked me to come again.
