Registration Day Oct. 16 Methodist Homecoming

County Commissioner Claud Nash has received instructions from Governor W. Lee O'Daniel on the registration of all men between the ages of 21 to 35, inclusive, which will be held on Oct. 16.

All eligible men must register on that date and are requested to register at their regular voting place. The local registration place will be the Hedley City Hall, which will be open from 7 a. m. until 9 p. m. on the 16th. The commissioners court has requested the various election judges of the county to take charge of the registration, and every regular voting box in the county will be a registration place.

New Baptist Pastor

Rev. Taaff of Alamo is expected to arrive this week, together with his wife and three children, to assume the pastorate of the First Baptist Church.

All members of the church are urged to attend the services Sunday and welcome the new pastor and his family.

W. S. G. S.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service held a fifth Monday Open House Monday Sept. 30 with 16 members present. An inspiring devotional brought by Mrs. Masterson, an hour of busy work mixed with friendly, happy fellowship and a melon feast served by Mesdames Adamson and Dudley all together made it a good meeting.

Next Monday is your last opportunity to become a charter member of this organization. Please do not let the time pass without enlisting in woman's work for women around the world.

Following is the program:
Leader, Mrs. Kendall
Subject, Returns on Missionary Investment
Song, Bringing in the Sheaves
Whence Came Woman's Heritage, Mrs. Jones
Return on Investments in Philippine Islands, Esia Card
Japan, Ola Card
Korea, Mrs. Duncan
China, Mrs. Dudley
Malaya and Sumatra, Mrs. Pyle
India, Mrs. Newman
Bulgaria and Poland, Mrs. Cherry
Africa, Mrs. Pickett
South America, Mrs. Adamson
Mexico, Mrs. Masterson
Homeland and Islands, Mrs. Biggs

We will soon begin a study of "Uprooted Americans." All Christian workers are interested in this subject.

Mrs. Roy Darnell has returned from an extended visit to Tucson, Ariz.

The home coming services at the Methodist Church last Sunday was well attended. Some 50 out of town visitors registered during the day.

Rev. Rex Kendall of Vega preached at the 11 o'clock hour. Dinner was served in the basement, which was ample for every one. A memorial service was held in the afternoon, consisting of talks by the visitors, the sacrament of the Lord's Supper and a review of the church history, with the date each pastor and presiding elder who served this church since it was completed in 1912.

Rev. G. E. Bryant, who assisted in building the church and served as the first pastor and who is now pastor at Moran was present as was also Bro. L. A. Ravis and wife of Rearing Springs.

Space will not permit mentioning each one individually, but they were there from Vega on the north to Wichita Falls on the south.

Those who were fortunate enough to be here pronounced it a perfect day; the sermon in the morning, the beautiful dinner, the memorial service in the afternoon, and the fellowship of meeting old friends of other days, all contributed to the success of the occasion. Many expressed themselves as hoping other occasions like this would occur, so that they might return and enjoy the hospitality of the good people of Hedley once again.

For Sale or Trade—1939 Ford deluxe tudor, good shape. See Glenn Marrs at the Bowling Alley.

Tom Luther of Mathis, Texas, Miss Ann Luther of Palacios, Travis Luther of New Gulf, and Homer Luther and wife of Houston visited their sister, Mrs. V. A. Hunsard, Wednesday. They were enroute to Claude.

Family Reunion

A group of relatives and friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Langford on Sunday Sept. 29 for a family reunion.

102 were present and enjoyed a beautiful dinner at the noon hour. Singing and picture making were features of the afternoon.

The following relatives were present: O. O. Scott and family and Fred Norman and family of Chidress, L. M. Tucker and family and Clarence Tucker and family of Samnorwood, Garbott Morre and wife of Lela, T. C. Jones and family of Bushland, E. M. Tucker and family and I. L. Tucker and family of Amarillo, J. W. Moffitt and family, Mrs. J. W. Sullivan and family, J. C. McFett and wife, Farris Seaton and wife, Virgil Adams and family, Earl Givings and family and Lawrence Sullivan and family of Clarendon, O. G. Tucker and family and Clyde Scott and family of Odessa, J. T. Scott and wife of Wichita Falls, Mrs. J. E. Bryan of Windgate, J. E. Langford and wife of Houston, Kenneth Langford and wife of Hedley and J. S. Fardus Jr. and wife of Hedgins.

Visitors included Geraldine and Mary Nell Fardus of Hedgins, Henry Matlock and wife of Memphis, Emery Talley and family and Fay, Bobby and Peggy Everett of Hedley.

We endeavor to serve in a way that honors those whose work is done and helps those who yet have work to do.

83 English Refugee Children Perish As Ship Is Torpedoed in Mid-Atlantic; Kidnapers of 3-Year-Old Lad Captured And Boy Returned, Unharmed, to Home

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.) (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

CRIME:

California Kidnaping

Three days after Marc de Tristan Jr.'s abductor seized him from the street near his home in Hillsborough, Calif., he was returned to his nobleman father, Count de Tristan, in San Francisco.

The child was rescued unharmed from the kidnaper, identified as Wilhelm Jakob Muhlenbroich, a 40-year-old German alien, by two woodsmen at Pine River, in the Sierra foothills 200 miles from Hillsborough.

For this elaborately plotted and boldly executed crime, the kidnaper, a German alien, received no $100,000 as demanded in a beautifully phrased ransom note of 800 words, but he got a black eye, a gashed head, a bruised body, and he faces almost certain imprisonment for life. The lumbermen, Cecil Wetzel and Ellis Woods, violently manhandled him when they found him and the child in an automobile on a dead-end road.

MARC DE TRISTAN JR. Back home, safe and sound.

THE WAR:

Aerialists

The British said it would take Hitler 40 years to wipe out London, at the present rate of progress. But at the same rate of progress, the German air force might be wiped out in 40 weeks.

For the first time, just the same, a funny thing happened. The British and Germans both admitted that the other side had outshot them. The British said they had lost at a ratio of 7 to 4. The Germans said they had lost at a ratio of 3 to 1. This was completely unprecedented, not only in the checkered annals of Anglo-German warfare in the clouds, but also in Sino-Japanese, Jap-Russian, and Spanish civil conflicts. Nobody could quite figure it out. It seemed peculiar.

The big question, which vexed the critics, was whether the Germans would actually try a land invasion of England this fall. There were all sorts of stories. The royal air force bombed alleged German troop concentrations along the channel coast, and in Norway. They damaged flat-boats and similar equipment. Whether this equipment was merely a blind, or not, remained to be seen.

There was a yarn that 200,000 Nazis were massed in Norway, for a drive across. Some critics declared that the light German tank had proved utterly vulnerable to the two-pounder British anti-tank gun. This, they added, had caused Hitler to delay his invasion, and might postpone it indefinitely. That, again, remained to be seen.

NAMES

... in the news

¶ Elliott Roosevelt, son of the President, applied for a commission in the U. S. army air corps. He is 30 years old, and it was reported he might be assigned to the "specialist reserve."

¶ Mayor LaGuardia of New York city told a United States conference of burgomasters that the U. S. has an 80 per cent chance of escaping war, with the acquisition of the new Atlantic naval and air bases. The conference was held in N. Y.

¶ Martin ("Bugsy") Goldstein and Harry ("Pittsburgh Phil") Strauss were convicted of murder in the first degree for the Brooklyn, N. Y., murder-syndicate killing of Irving ("Puggy") Feinstein, a fellow mafioso.

¶ Westminster cathedral got into the news. A Nazi dive-bomber just missed the dome, 284 feet high. It dropped a 250-pound bomb in the asphalt playground, adjoining Westminster cathedral is the Roman Catholic headquarters in England, a sort of rival to the Anglican (Episcopal) Westminster Abbey.

Just Kids

A very large number of the Nazi fliers up over England were young kids in their teens. They had been raised under the totalitarian system, and had the reckless fanaticism of utter youth. Their only enthusiasm was Hitler. They almost courted death. The Nazi regime seemed to be deliberately exploiting these amateur wild-men. Their bombs might almost be termed: gifts to the school-children of London, from the high school boys of Berlin (or Breslau, or Augsburg, or whatever). No regime in history, said one historian, had ever sacrificed youth in this completely cold-blooded manner—that is, its own youth. The Goering flying circus might well be renamed the Goering suicide squad.

More Kids

The London press screamed "murder" at the announcement by the British government of the sinking of an English refugee ship with a toll of 293 persons, 83 of whom were children en route to Canada.

The ship, her name not disclosed, was torpedoed 600 miles west of England and sank in a stormy sea within 20 minutes after she was attacked.

Of 406 men, women, and children aboard, only 113 were brought back alive by a warship—almost eight hours after the torpedo struck. Stories of heroism and horror told by survivors of the disaster indicated that many lives were lost in the terrific explosion which ripped the vessel. Many others were swept from lifeboats or died of injuries and exposure.

The children were from 5 to 15 years old, and were the first lost in the child evacuation movements which have been under way ever since the war began.

The attacking submarine was not identified, but the tragedy was described as "another example of the barbarous methods associated with Nazi Germany."

CAMPAIGN:

Spirit of 1776-40

The drums beat. The bugles blared, the fife tooted, the crowds cheered, the urchins ducked in and out, while women fainted, and candidates kissed babies, and wrapped themselves in the old red, white and blue bunting. The electoral campaign of 1940 still was in progress.

The latest Gallup poll galloped all over Mr. Willkie's chances. It told the following sad tale—that is—for

CANDIDATE McNARY

Republican Vice Presidential Nominee McNary is pictured as he spoke at Aurora, Ill., opening his midwest campaign. He engaged in a bitter attack on the Hull reciprocal trade agreements. Henry Wallace, Democratic candidate for the same post, has already toured this section of the country and is busy elsewhere upholding his party's cause.

the Grande Olde Partisans. According to Gallup, Roosevelt would get 37 states and 453 electoral votes. According to the same Mr. Gallup, Willkie would get 10 states and 78 electoral votes. This did not look any too encouraging for the Willkisti. Said an old cynic: "This is one golf game where the caddies are going to beat the country-club members."

The Republicans, of course, failed to agree with this estimate. Sam Pryor, director of the eastern division of the Republican national committee, couldn't endorse the Gallup estimate. Pryor thought that Willkie would get 300 or more electoral votes, leaving Roosevelt with 231 or less. Pryor added that about two-thirds of the country editors were for Willkie, and that these editors conceded Willkie more than half of the popular votes in their editorial districts.

Etc., Etc.

Each side accused the other side of dictatorial ambitions. The Democrats said the Willkisti were planning a "fascist" big-business dictatorship, while the Republicans said the Rooseveltens were scheming a personal sort of "war" dictatorship. Earl Browder wanted the dictatorship of the proletariat, and that left only Norman Thomas, whom one prominent literary critic described as a 1940 streamlined Jefferson. But nobody expected many votes for Mr. Thomas, and perhaps he didn't either.

Mrs. Chips

MRS. ELLA DONAT, wife of Robert Donat, famous English actor, who has just arrived in the United States from their home in Aylesbury, Buckinghamshire, England, with their three children, stated on her arrival that she believed England would emerge from the war victorious and that she would ultimately return to her green-hilled home to rejoin her actor-husband, best known in the U. S. for his starring role in the motion picture, "Goodbye, Mr. Chips."

RUMANIA: Transylvania

Rumania was settling down, under the anti-Carol dictatorship of Gen. John Antonescu, who had been locked up in a monastery until recently. Antonescu helped to chase Carol out of the country, with his hated, red-headed girl-pal Lupescu. Then it turned out that Carol and Lupescu were married, and had been since perhaps 1929. This news cheered the Mrs. Grundy's of the entire world.

Antonescu's new Rumania was pro-Nazi and anti-Jewish. It had lost about two-thirds of its territory: Bessarabia and Bukovina to Russia, Transylvania to Hungary, and the southern part of the Dobruja province to little Bulgaria. Antonescu didn't care for all this. The Rumanians accused the Hungarians of committing all sorts of atrocities in Transylvania province as they marched in. The Hungarian-Rumanian tension seemed scheduled to go on forever.

The Germans and Italians had forced Rumania to cede territory to Hungary and the Bulgarians. Now, the Rumanians began to talk about Germany and Italy forcing the Hungarians, etc., etc., to cede territory back to them. Meanwhile, Rumanian oil exports to Germany were soaring. The best high-test airplane gas comes from the Rumanian wells and today one can consider Rumania as General Goering's "kept" filling station.

CHALLENGE:

Duelo

General Goering, flying chief of the Third Reich, was up over London in his own Junkers 88 bomber. Goering was the former commander of the Richthofen flying circus in the first world war, and an ace of great renown. Like many an old war horse, in the second world war he couldn't keep his hands off the controls. It was the first time, in a very long time, that a general led his own troops into battle.

Goering may be the black eagle of Germany. But Harlem—New York city's Negro section—has a black eagle, too. His august name is Col. Hubert Fauntleroy Julian. Julian had just finished reading Hitler's book, "Mein Kampf." Julian's blood boiled over, at Hitler's remarks on the colored race. This is what happened:

Colonel Julian issued a challenge to General Goering, to meet him in a single, solitary combat. The place was to be up over the English channel. The weapons were to be Messerschmitt planes. Colonel Julian inferred that General Goering was a "lousy 0 divided by 0." Goering was to have 30 days in which to accept the Julian challenge. The challenge itself read as follows:

"I therefore challenge and defy you, Herman Goering, as head of the Nazi air force, to meet me at 10,000 feet, to fight an aerial duel to avenge the cowardly insult to my race. Neutral correspondents must be the referees." Colonel Julian added that he would buy a Messerschmitt from the British government, which had two captured ones up for sale. Colonel Julian overlooked one detail. General Goering is probably too fat to get into a Messerschmitt.

Julian was Haile Selassie's only fier in the Ethiopian war.

BRITISH TROUBLE:

Egypt

The Italians came out of Tripoli-Libya, and started to invade Egypt, up the long coastline. Already, they had conquered British Somaliland down in East Africa. The British in Egypt were slowly retreating along the coast before Mussolini's Marshal Graziani.

The object of the Italian high command was to cut the Suez canal. This would sever the imperial life-line of England to India.

Star Dust STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO

By VIRGINIA VALE (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

EVER hear of a slendang? Well, neither has practically everybody else. Betty Field has, for in Paramount's "Victory" she's invading Dorothy Lamour's territory and wearing one. It's a sort of glorified sarong, and the first day after the first batch of photos showing the lady in it was released the studio received 27 requests for the garment.

Fred Allen and Jack Benny are supposed to be the battlers in "Love Thy Neighbor," but it seems to be Mary Martin, their co-star, who is really the victim. The famous feudists battle with words. As for Mary, her schedule includes being caught up on a derrick hook in a scene on a dock, being tossed into the ocean and having to swim with all her clothes on, being nearly strangled by Benny in one scene and manhandled by Allen in another.

Mary Martin

She does two dance routines, one of which involves a lot of struggling, and another shot finds her rolling around the back end of a wildly driven cab. Nice work for a girl who can keep audiences happy just by singing!

In Hollywood, Burgess Meredith, working in "Second Chorus" with Fred Astaire and Paulette Goddard, had not yet acquired a car. Nevertheless a sign on a fence at General Service studios carried the warning, "This place reserved for Mr. Meredith."

That vacant space, amid the cars belonging to other stars, was too much for Miss Goddard. So she filled the vacancy with a brand new motor scooter, decorated with ribbons and equipped with a bottle of iodine, just in case of accident.

It's been quite a while since Brenda Marshall couldn't have any dress that she wanted, but the success that made that possible also stood in her way the other day when she fell in love with a frock and then couldn't have it.

The dress was designed for her to wear in Warner Brothers' "East of the River," and she liked it so much that she wanted to have it copied for her own wardrobe. But the production office turned thumbs down. The reason was that she is a target for cameras wherever she goes. The dress might be copied by fashion bootleggers, and the style wouldn't be new when the picture is released.

If the war news in your daily paper and on the radio means a lot to you you'll certainly want to see the new March of Time, "On Foreign Newsfronts." It shows how U. S. newsmen are covering the biggest news story in modern history—tells how men like H. V. Kaltenborn were forced to leave Germany. It records the story of this first year of World War II from the viewpoint of the men who report it to the American people, and shows why the United States today is the last stronghold of a free press, and its citizens the best informed in the world.

Apparently people who earn their livings by appearing in public just can't help being superstitious—even athletes are susceptible, as Babe Ruth used to prove when he never went out to left field or returned without kicking second base on the way.

Burns and Allen are no exception. Burns never approaches the microphone without touching his left toe to the bottom of Artie Shaw's music stand. Gracie always sits on the right side of the stage and has two chairs, one to sit on and the other for her script. This latter chair is always turned so that its back is to the audience. She's never missed this arrangement in seven years, and judging by her success it must be a good one.

Dinah Shore, lately with the Chamber Music Society of Lower Basin street, that solemnly spoofing swing program, and with the Revuers, will be on the new Eddie Cantor program that starts in October. A bachelor of arts from Vanderbilt university, she's taken her singing seriously since she was ten—now she's cashing in on her perseverance. A lot of people don't want to hear "Orchids of Remembrance," again unless she sings it, because of the way she did it recently on Westinghouse's "Musical Americana."

AROUND the HOUSE Items of Interest to the Housewife

An alarm clock will save much worry in cooking. Set the alarm for the time the cooking is to be completed—or as a reminder for inspection. Undivided attention may then be given to the other household interests.

To keep marshmallows moist, store them in the bread box.

For a little variety bake your pies in square or rectangular-shaped pans. Often they are easier to cut into equal portions from such a shape.

Veal requires longer cooking than beef because it has less fat and more connective tissue. Additional seasonings—such as chopped celery, onions and parsley placed over the top during its baking—improve the flavor. Beef, lamb and pork, however, require only salt and pepper for seasoning.

Assembly

The school body was entertained Thursday by the grade school chorus and the seventh grade. The first number was "America" sung by the audience with Miss Cleek at the piano and Mrs. Owen leading. Then Mr. Payne presented our new flag which was given to the school by the West Texas Utilities Co. The class that has the most parents at P. T. A. each month will get to keep the flag in their room for one month. The second grade will keep the flag this month.

The program was as follows: "Fair Hills and Valleys" and "Taps" sung by a grade school chorus made up of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades.

A minstrel show by the seventh grade under direction of Miss Mathis. They sang "God Bless America", "Swing Low Sweet Chariot", "Dark Town Strutters Ball", and "Mammy's Little Baby Loves Shortening Bread". A good many jokes were told which caused some good laughs. The seventh grade promises to be one of our most entertaining groups in high school.

American Boy is Companion To Thousands

Hundreds of thousands of boys and young men read The American Boy Magazine every month and considers it more as a living companion than as a magazine.

"It's as much a buddy to me as my neighborhood chum," writes one high school senior. "The American Boy seems to understand a boy's problems and considers them in such a sympathetic and helpful way. It gives advice and entertaining reading on every subject in which a young fellow is interested. It is particularly helpful in sports. I made our school basketball team because of playing tips I read in The American Boy."

Many famous athletes in all sports credit much of their success to helpful suggestions received from sports articles carried in The American Boy Magazine. Virtually every issue offers advice from a famous coach or player. Football, basketball, track, tennis, in fact every major sport is covered in fiction and fact articles.

Teachers, librarians, parents and leaders of boys' clubs also recommend The American Boy enthusiastically. They have found that as a general rule regular readers of The American Boy advance more rapidly and develop more worthwhile characteristics than do boys who do not read it.

Trained writers and artists, famous coaches and athletes, explorers, scientists and men successful in business and industry join with an experienced staff to produce in The American Boy, the sort of reading matter boys like best.

The American Boy sells on most newsstands at 25¢ a copy. Subscription prices are $2.00 for one year or $3.50 for three years. Foreign and Canadian rates 50¢ a year extra. To subscribe simply send your name, address and remittance direct to The American Boy, 7430 Second Blvd., Detroit, Michigan.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS By Roger Shaw 16,500,000 Expected to Register for Draft On October 16, as President Signs Bill; U. S. Political Campaign Is Warming Up; Nazis Continue 'Hammering' of London

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

CONSCRIPTION: Ready, Set—!

Congress passed and sent to the President the Burke-Wadsworth military conscription bill, which provides that all male citizens between the ages of 21 and 36 will be required to register for possible service with the armed forces.

Under present plans, such registration will take place on October 16, 1940, with 400,000 trainees scheduled to be dressed in khaki by the end of the year.

The much-debated Fish amendment to the measure, which provided for a 60-day volunteer plan before the draft would be invoked, was dropped before the law was finally passed.

Draft boards will be set up in each community to handle the registration.

THE WAR: Hammers

The war had taken this turn. It was the hammer of Thor, wielded by Hitler, beating down on the more or less solid English anvil.

When a hammer hits an anvil, one of several things can happen. Either the anvil eventually cracks, or the hammer finally shivers in the hands of the blacksmith.

This nonchalant London gent, who is taking in his milk from the doorstep, is typical of many Englishmen today.

an irresistible force meet an immovable object.

Hitler might hammer England, until his air force began to weaken. That was perfectly possible. But if Hitler turned himself into an anvil, how could the English anvil turn itself into a hammer?

WHO'S NEWS THIS WEEK

By LEMUEL F. PARTON (Consolidated Features—WNU Service.)

NEW YORK.—The urgency of the times is such that perhaps this country needs a good alchemist more than a good five-cent cigar.

At the Detroit meeting of the American Chemical society, starting its national defense inventory of chemical skills and resources, Dr. Lind reports a startling advance toward the power riches of the metal uranium 235.

From his native McMinnville, Tenn., where he was born in 1879, he went to Washington and Lee university and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

He added that the 35 Czech firms in question were "under duress."

HARVEST HOME PARTY
 (See Recipes Below)

Household News By Eleanor Howe

Everybody enjoys singing a song of harvest home, even if they haven't had a personal stake in bringing in the crops. At your harvest home party, if you follow tradition, you'll have cornucopias filled with fall fruits and garlands of wheat or grasses grouped at the center of your festive board. Little dolls dressed in overalls and aprons make amusing favors.

Farmer in the dell, blindman's buff, puss in corner, and the never to be forgotten game of charades, in which the participants can give their all in dramatic acting, are traditional juvenile game favorites that are likely to give the grown-up contingent an equally good time. You may want to do a little bit of folk dancing, with the old time fiddler, the pianist, and even an accordionist hitting off "country" songs.

When it comes to refreshments, you may decide upon anything from a big picnic spread to cookies and a refreshing beverage. A fruit pie is the most appropriate happy ending to your harvest home feast. Just a hint to you homemakers if you have trouble keeping the delicious juice in a pie; quick cooking tapioca may be used as a thickener, thus eliminating the traditional hazard of runaway juice.

Doughnuts and hot spicy cider are always an attractive and favorite combination to serve at a party of this type. Or you may like to use the old oaken bucket for serving punch.

Cherry Pie.

- 2½ tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
- 1 cup sugar
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 1 tablespoon melted butter
- 1 No. 2 can sour cherries (2½ cups)
- ¾ cup cherry juice and 2 tablespoons water (to make 1 cup)

1 recipe pastry
 Combine quick-cooking tapioca, sugar, salt, butter, cherries, and cherry juice; let stand about 15 minutes. Line a 9-inch pie plate with half of pastry rolled ¼ inch thick, allowing pastry to extend 1 inch beyond edge of plate. Fold edge back to form rim. Fill with cherry mixture. Moisten edge of pastry with cold water; arrange lattice of pastry strips across top. Flute rim with fingers. Bake in a hot oven (450 degrees) 15 minutes, then decrease heat to moderate (350 degrees) and bake 30 minutes longer.

Rich Drop Doughnuts.

- 2 eggs
  - 6 tablespoons sugar
  - 2 tablespoons shortening (melted)
  - 2 cups flour
  - ¾ teaspoon salt
  - 2 teaspoons baking powder
  - ¼ teaspoon nutmeg
  - 6 tablespoons milk
- Beat eggs until very light, and gradually beat in the sugar. Add melted shortening. Sift together the flour, salt, baking powder and nutmeg, and add to the first mixture alternately with the milk. Drop from a teaspoon into deep fat heated to 375 degrees, and fry until well browned. Drain on unglazed paper. Sprinkle with confectioner's or powdered sugar.

Hot Spiced Cider.

- 2 quarts cider
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 1 6-inch stick cinnamon
- 6 whole cloves
- 1 teaspoon allspice

Add spices and sugar to cider; place in kettle and let simmer over heat (not boil) for 15 minutes. Strain and serve hot in small glasses. Add a little grated nutmeg, if desired.

Baked Ham.

- 1 whole ham
- 1 teaspoon whole cloves
- 1½ cups sweet cider
- 1½ cups brown sugar
- ½ cup orange juice

Wipe ham with a damp cloth and place in an uncovered roaster, skin side up. Roast in a very slow oven (300 degrees) allowing 25 minutes per pound of ham. About ½ hour before the ham has finished baking take from oven. Remove skin and pour off all excess fat. Cook cider and sugar together to thick syrup stage. Add orange juice and pour mixture over ham. Dot with whole cloves. Return to oven and bake ½ hour longer, basting frequently with liquid in pan.

Old Fashioned Jelly Roll.

- 4 eggs
- ¾ teaspoon baking powder
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ¼ cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- ¾ cup cake flour
- 1 cup jelly

Break the eggs into a bowl and allow them to warm to room temperature. Then combine eggs with baking powder and salt. Set the bowl of eggs in a smaller bowl in which you have poured hot water. With a Dover beater, beat the eggs, baking powder, and salt mixture until it is thick and light. Gradually beat in the sugar and continue beating until very light and fluffy. Remove the bowl from the hot water and, with a spoon or spatula, fold in the vanilla and the flour which has been sifted several times. Line a 10 by 15 inch jelly roll pan with buttered wax paper, and pour the batter into the pan. Bake for about 12 minutes in a moderate oven (350 degrees). Remove cake from pan and turn onto a towel which has been dusted with confectioner's sugar. Pull off paper and trim edges from the cake. Roll, and cool. When the cake has cooled, unroll it and spread with jelly which has been whipped to make it spread more readily.

Date Nut Cake.

- 3 cups raisins
- 2 cups dates (cut fine)
- 1 cup pecan nut meats (cut fine)
- 1 teaspoon soda
- 1 cup boiling water

Put fruit and nuts into bowl; dissolve soda in boiling water and pour over the fruit. Let stand while preparing the following batter mixture:
 ¼ cup butter
 1 cup sugar
 1 egg
 2½ cups cake flour
 1 teaspoon baking powder
 ¼ teaspoon salt
 1 cup milk
 1 teaspoon vanilla extract

Cream butter and add sugar gradually. Add egg and mix well. Add fruit mixture. Mix and sift all dry ingredients and add alternately with the milk and vanilla extract. Place batter in three well-greased layer-cake pans. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for approximately 35 minutes. When cool, put layers together with boiled icing to which chopped dates and raisins have been added. Then ice with the plain boiled icing.

Chocolate Nut Gingerbread.

- ¾ cup butter
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 2 ounces chocolate (melted)
- 2 eggs
- 1½ cups cake flour
- 1½ teaspoons baking powder
- 2 teaspoons ginger
- ¼ teaspoon cloves
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ¾ cup milk
- ¾ cup nut meats (chopped fine)

Cream butter thoroughly and add the sugar slowly. Add melted chocolate and eggs, one at a time, beating well. Sift dry ingredients and add alternately with the milk, beating between each addition. Add nut meats. Bake as a loaf cake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for approximately 45 minutes. Serve with whipped cream, sprinkled with cinnamon, or with chocolate fudge icing.

Magic Fruited Macaroons.

- ¾ cup sweetened condensed milk
- 2 cups coconut (shredded)
- 1 cup dates (chopped fine)

Mix together the sweetened condensed milk and coconut. Add finely chopped dates. Drop by spoonfuls on greased baking sheet, about 1 inch apart. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) 10 minutes, or until a delicate brown. Remove from pan at once.

New York Failed to Vote

New York failed to cast its vote for President in the first election, which made Washington President. As the Constitution provided, each state was to appoint presidential electors "in such a manner as the legislature thereof may direct." In some states electors for the first election of 1789 were chosen by popular vote; in others, the legislatures appointed them. The New York legislature could not agree on the manner of selecting the electors. As a result, none was chosen, and New York failed to cast any vote for President—Pathfinder.

Pull the Trigger on Lazy Bowels

With herb laxative, combined with syrup pepsin to make it agreeable and easy to take

When constipation brings on acid indigestion, floating, dizzy spells, gas, coated tongue, sour taste and bad breath, your stomach is probably "crying the blues" because your bowels don't move. It calls for Laxative Senna to pull the trigger on those lazy bowels, combined with good old Syrup Pepsin to make your laxative more agreeable and easier to take. For years many Doctors have used pepsin compounds, as agreeable carriers to make other medicines more palatable when your "taster" feels easily upset. So be sure your laxative contains Syrup Pepsin. Insist on Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Senna, combined with Syrup Pepsin. See how wonderfully its herb Laxative Senna wakes up lazy nerves and muscles in your intestines, to bring welcome relief from constipation. And see how its Syrup Pepsin makes Dr. Caldwell's medicine so smooth and agreeable to a touchy gullet. Even finicky children love the taste of this pleasant family laxative. Buy Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Senna at your druggist's today. Try one laxative that won't bring on violent distaste, even when you take it after a full meal.

 Kind looks, kind words, kind acts, and warm handshakes—these are secondary means of grace when men are in trouble and are fighting their unseen battles.—John Hall.

Strength to Suffer
 Fear not in a world like this, and thou shalt know ere long, know how sublime a thing it is to suffer and be strong.—Longfellow.

Careless With Life
 There is nothing of which men are so fond, and withal so careless, as life.
