Parent-Teacher Ass'n.

An unusually large number of parents attended the regular monthly meeting of the Parent and Teacher Association on Thursday afternoon at 4 p. m. During the business session, the body voted to observe Texas Parent and Teacher Week. The membership committee reported fifty four paid members to date. The roommothers will conduct a membership campaign for others. The body accepted the recommendation of the executive committee to have a school carnival on Halloween, and to sponsor a queen contest. This year there is to be a queen from each grade. The future regular meetings will be at night so that the fathers may attend.

The body accepted the report of the committee concerning the wash basin in the ward school and instructed to have the basin installed.

The body accepted the by laws submitted by Mrs. W. C. Bridges and her committee. When the count was taken the second grade won the dollar and will keep the flag for another month.

The theme of the program was Texas Birthday. The program was incomplete because some were unable to attend; however Mrs. Ted Dudley read "The Quest" and Miss Mathis played two numbers on the piano.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 14, at 7:30 in the high school auditorium. Everybody is urged to attend.

PROCLAMATION By the Governor of Texas

To all to whom these presents shall come:

Whereas, on October 19 the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers will celebrate its 31st Anniversary in Texas; and

Whereas, the State of Texas is fortunate enough to have such an organization whose purpose is to promote child welfare through cooperative efforts of parents and teachers; and

Whereas, Because of the necessity for proper coordination between the home and school in the life of our future citizenship, the continued advancement of parent-teacher associations is of great importance to the state as a whole; and

In recognition of the splendid work of the Texas Congress throughout its existence in Texas;

Now, therefore, I, W. Lee O'Daniel, Governor of the State of Texas, do hereby set aside and proclaim the week of October 18, 19 as Parent Teacher Week in Texas, and I call upon our citizens to aid and encourage the Texas Congress in the splendid work it is doing for the welfare of our school children, who will soon be called upon to assume the responsibilities of citizenship.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto signed my name and caused the Seal of State to be affixed hereon, at Austin, this the 3rd day of August, 1940.

W. Lee O'Daniel,
Governor of Texas

(Seal)
By the Governor:
M. O. Flowers,
Secretary of State.

Pearl Hunt of Kanger was a Hedley visitor part of this week.

Noel Jeter of Dallas is visiting here this week.

Bell-Grigsby

Miss Zella Grigsby of Hedley and Walter Bell of Farwell were united in marriage on Tuesday, Oct. 15, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Adamson here. Rev. E. M. Grigsby, pastor of the Baptist church at Turkey, read the ceremony.

The couple entered to the strains of Lohengrin played by Mrs. Adamson. The bride was attended by her sister, Janice Grigsby. The best man was the groom's nephew, Dudie Gentry of Amarillo.

The bride was attired in a soldier blue dress with black accessories, and wore a corsage of pink carnations.

Mrs. Bell is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. M. Grigsby. She graduated from Hedley high school in 1933, and has been employed the past three years in the M & M Dry Goods Co. here.

The groom is the son of Mitch Bell of Clarendon and is a graduate of the Clarendon high school.

Following the ceremony the wedding cake was served to Rev. and Mrs. Grigsby, Mitch Bell, Dorothy and Janice Grigsby, Dudie Gentry, Messrs. and Mrs. James Ross Adamson and J. B. Masterson.

After a wedding trip to Clevis, the couple will be at home near Farwell, where the groom is engaged in farming.

A wide circle of friends will join the Informer in extending congratulations and best wishes to the couple.

Shower

Miss Zella Grigsby, bride elect of Walter Bell of Farwell, was honored Friday afternoon at a tea and miscellaneous shower given by Meses. Ross Adamson, Hobart McFitt, J. B. Masterson, Clifford Johnson and Miss Myrtle Reeves in the annex of the Baptist Church.

The tea table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with fall flowers around a crystal bowl. The room was decorated with roses and dahlias.

Miss Myrtle Reeves presented a charming little musical comedy "Sweethearts," pantomimed by a number of little tots in costume. The stage was transformed into a colorful gypsy camp. The gypsies sang appropriate songs as Cupid Den Reeves shot arrows into the hearts of each couple.

As the gypsies sang "All by Yourself in the Moonlight," Pauline Bellver, dressed as a young man, ushered the bride elect to the gypsy fortune tellers, and she found many gifts in the pot of brew.

About 65 guests attended.

Golden Holland and family of Amarillo visited relatives and friends here Monday.

Miss Sarah Hendricks of Turkey visited in Hedley Saturday.

We endeavor to serve in a way that honors those whose work is done and helps those who yet have work to do.

German Troops March Into Rumania To Protect Oil Supply From British; U. S. Army Tanks Delivered to Canada; Chamberlain Leaves Britain's Cabinet

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

THE WAR:

Whither, Hitler?

It really looked as if the German invasion of England was called off for the season. The fogs were getting worse, and the channel was getting stormier. The German flat-boats along the Franco-Flemish coastline had taken an awful hammering from the royal air force, and that seemed to be that.

The low-down was simply this: The Germans had gone through France, like a knife through a hunk of over-ripe cheese. It surprised everybody, including the Germans themselves. They had expected victory—but only after a much harder fight than they got. Hence, when they landed on the French and ficial leader of the powerful Conservative party, which has a heavy majority in parliament. This had been an added tower of strength to the so-called "great appeaser."

Chamberlain and Churchill had always been unfriendly. The former was a typical Nineteenth-century Victorian (rather of the tory type) while the other tends to be a dashing, reckless cross between the Eighteenth and the Twentieth centuries (more the aristo-democratic liberal type). Churchill used to call Chamberlain (so the story goes)—"the undertaker from Birmingham."

Labor

Ernest Bevin, a radical Labor man, was admitted to the inner British war cabinet. Bevin had been the engineering brain behind the terrific British general strike, back in 1926, which very nearly succeeded. His executive, driving genius has been an important factor in the present war, and people spoke of him as Churchill's future successor. If Bevin did actually succeed Churchill, it would mean some sort of social revolution in England, and the Tories realize this. But Labor is getting more and more of its members into the British government, Hugh Dalton and Herbert Morrison being two of the other "pink" up-and-comers.

ASIA:

Trouble Ahead?

Events in the Orient worried U. S. State Department officials to the point of informing consulates in China, Manchukuo, French-Indo-China and Japan, that American citizens within those territories should return to this country as soon as possible. Especial emphasis was placed on the early departure of all women and children and men in non-essential posts.

Approximately 9,000 white Americans live within the affected zone, plus some 2,000 Chinese-Americans and Japanese-Americans.

DEFENSE:

Tanking

There was a new angle to national defense, which evoked violent differences of opinion. The Canadian

SIR JOHN ANDERSON
A former Home Secretary and Minister of Home Security, Sir John succeeded Neville Chamberlain as Lord President of the Council.

Flemish coasts, they were far, far ahead of schedule, and totally unprepared for any proper invasion of the British Isles. The net result has been the aerial duel that has raged all over western Europe. The hammer of Thor is battering the British anvil, but to what ultimate purpose, none can tell.

But if invasion of England was not under way, Hitler's troops were by no means idle. For from Bucharest came word that German troops had entered Rumania. Berlin sources confirmed this news and readily explained the purpose of the infiltration. They said that oil and gasoline supplies are essential to the Nazi war machine and that they had heard rumors of an English plot to sabotage these supplies.

Rumania's government, now under control of the dictator Ion Antonescu, had earlier charged that British oil men with interests in Rumania had plotted to blow up oil fields. There was some indication, too, that the Nazi soldiers would be used in training Rumanian troops and would also assist in building a large naval and air base on the Black sea.

Italo

Meanwhile, the Italians had bogged down in Egypt. They had invaded the land of the Pharos from their own Lybian colony, next door, and were proceeding along the coast. Their ultimate objective was the Suez canal, England's trap-door at the eastern end of the Mediterranean. But, it appears, the Italians did not do so well. The Germans began to take over the direction of the Egyptian campaign. It was rumored that the Nazis would "winter in Egypt," while the Goering flying circus continued to make Hitler-hush out of London. It was believed that if the Germans really went to work in Egypt, they would perhaps clean up the place, and the Suez canal, too. Egypt itself, supposedly an English ally, like Turkey, another English ally, continued to be a neutral.

NEVILLE:

Chamberlain

Neville Chamberlain finally left the British cabinet. Winston Churchill had taken away his premiership last May, but Chamberlain's pale ghost had lingered on in the cabinet. Then Chamberlain had a serious operation, for an intestinal obstruction, and his health visibly slowed up after that. His retirement had been expected for some time. Chamberlain was also the of-

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—Posing modestly before some of the 600 dozen prize eggs at the Northeast Poultry Producers convention here, is the "Miss America" of the fowl world. The biddy is a Rhode Island Red who scored 91.43 points in the judging. Producing 340 eggs in 51 weeks, "Miss America" topped all comers from all sections of the United States. She is owned by E. B. CAMPAIGN:

Roughage

One metal wastepaper basket
Three eggs
Melons and/or tomatoes
One stone, via a dining-car window.

These were the tributes of certain enthusiastic New Dealers to Willkie, who was barn-storming around in Michigan. Detroit, especially, proved itself Rooseveltian, tough, and exuberant in its proletarian fervor, and in its roughhouse tactics.

Mr. Roosevelt and Boss Flynn, the Democratic campaign manager, were quick to repudiate such behavior, and they were courteous and correct in their sporting attitude. But it showed a significant thing, alas and alack. The wave of unthinking brutality which is sweeping the world, has its echoes even in the United States. The Detroit incidents seemed un-American, but they did not seem un-totalitarian, somehow. Willkie took the matter in a spirit of good humor.

Sidelight

This sidelight might well be labelled "ouch." It hurt. Three of the Michigan egg-throwers contra Willkie, were young lads of 15 or 16. They came from Pontiac, and they evidently took after big chief Pontiac, who panicked plenty of Yankees in his time. The juvenile court judge sentenced the three laddies to "a good old-fashioned whipping." Juvenile authorities offered to do the triple-job, but the stoical parents volunteered to do it themselves. Then the guilty were to write apologies, to be read in person before the student body of the Pontiac high school. Just how hard the parents beat the offspring, nobody seemed to know. Two other boys, implicated in the great eggy push, escaped the corporal punishment of the luckless trio afore mentioned.

NAZI:

Nags

German soldiers and German farmers are reported as having a very tough time in teaching the dulcet Teuton tongue to draft horses, requisitioned from France, Poland, Belgium and the Netherlands. There are a great many of these, ranging from the elephantine percherons of Belgium and northern France, to the wiry little ponies of the flat Polish steppes. The huge percherons, by the way, are the direct descendants of the old-time steeds of medieval knights. They can't gallop; they can only trot.

German grammar, always intricate, according to foreign correspondents, is giving the kidnaped horsemens special trouble. Dutch and French grammar is much simpler.

MISCELLANY:

H. G. Wells came over for a visit. We had already had Bertrand, Earl of Russell, Sir Norman Angell, and Sir George Paish, not to mention Capt. Alfred Duff Cooper and Lady Diana Manners.

None of these gentlemen agreed about anything. H. G., for instance, hoped the United States would stay out of the war. He also denounced the religious Lord Halifax (a semi-mystic with one arm) as "the quintessence of all that England should be afraid of." Lord Halifax is the British foreign minister, and a super-aristocrat, while Wells is inclined to the plebeian side, genius or no genius.

Wells said London was betting 10 to 1 against a German invasion in 1940. Like a good many others, he disapproved of the evacuation of children to the New world. He was pleased by the Chamberlain ouster. He added that Hitler was at the end of his "tether." He described some of the German pilots shot down over England, as merely boy-gangsters, and hardly trained aviators at all. The Wellsian freedom of speech was a happy augur of British democracy, even under the Churchill dictatorship.

Minutes

The meeting was called to order by the temporary chairman on October 4, 1940. The minutes were read and approved. Letta

Bain read the aims and purpose for a Language club. The class voted on whether or not we should organize such a club. The motion was carried. We then elected officers: Donald Bailey was elected president, Letta Bain, secretary, and Johnnie Ray Everett, vice president. The class had a discussion on whether or not we should have a treasurer. The election was postponed until the next meeting. The meeting was adjourned.

Junior Picnic

The Junior class and their sponsor, Mr. Ballard, had their first picnic of the year on Friday, October 4th. At 6:20 we all met at the school house and then went to the Giles Park.

When everyone arrived at the park we ate sandwiches, potato chips, cookies and fruit. After staying at the park for about an hour some of us went to ball game at Memphis and went to see the film, "The House of Seven Gables."

We had as guests Mrs. Clyde Bridges, Miss Bergner, Mrs. Dalton Malone, our room mother, Mrs. Ray Deberry, and most of the seniors. Everyone seemed to have a good time and we hope to have other good times in the future.

Assembly

Assembly for this week was divided into three groups. The second grade boys and girls gave the flag salute. They marched to the song "America" and sang a flag song. Next on the program was the Home Economics girls giving a play on safety in the home. The play showed how a baby crying can cause so many accidents. When the baby started crying the mother dropped hot scalding water on the child playing on the floor. When she ran across the floor she fell on a toy. This excitement caused a lady standing on some boxes to fall. The play ended with every one getting hurt because of carelessness. Last on the program was the agriculture boys giving us some rules on fire prevention. A rule about safety on

Blondes in Majority in School

A survey has been made by a member of the Hoot staff this week. He finds that the blondes have the majority over the brunettes and reds by a small margin. There are only ten people with red hair in school, one hundred and two brunettes and one hundred and thirty eight blondes. He also finds that the children in the lower grades are more inclined toward the blonde side than those in the upper grades. Here are the statistics:

Freshmen Got Books

The Freshman class of '41 recently purchased some fictional books with the money they had left over from last year. With Miss Hawkins help they purchased the following books: In The Saddle With Uncle Bill by James Diddy Dumps and Tot by Pyrene, Toby Tyler by Otis, The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn and The Adventures of Tom Sawyer by Twain.

FHT Club

The F. H. T. club was called to order by the president, Ida Lou, in the auditorium on October 11. Jo Ann called the roll and gave the secretary's reports. Marjorie Burdine gave the treasurer's report. We had a discussion on the point system. Then the program was turned over to Margaret. It was as follows:
"Piano solo, "Deep Purple" by Ida Lou.

1 I work for the utilities and the other night I had supper over at Jim and Edith's house. It was a swell supper and I told Edith so. "Cooking," she said, "is easy. We have nearly everything electric." "There is a point," I says, excited-like. "And you're using about twice as much electricity today as you did 10 years ago for the same money." "Maybe you mean the bill is twice as high nowadays," Jim chimed in. "It may be just as high, Jim," I said. "Mine is, too. But there's a good reason for it. Look here..."

2 Then I took them around the house, pointing out their refrigerator, electric washer, the percolator, radio, toaster, iron, and all the other electric appliances, not to mention the better-light-better-sight lamps. I said: "Now, honestly, aren't you using a whole of a lot more electricity than you did just a few years ago?" They said that was right.

3 Then I tossed a couple nickels on the table, real dramatic-like, and said: "The average person pays only about a dime a day for electric service! Some pay less, some a little more. And the more you use, the lower the rate!"

4 "Is this a bargain or isn't it?" I asked Edith. "Never thought of it like that," she said. "I certainly do get my money's worth!"

To Thousands

Hundreds of thousands of boys and young men read The American Boy Magazine every month and consider it more as a living companion than as a magazine.

"It's as much a buddy to me as my neighborhood chum," writes one high school senior. "The American Boy seems to understand a boy's problems and considers them in such a sympathetic and helpful way. It gives advice and entertaining reading on every subject in which a young fellow is interested. It is particularly helpful in sports. I made our school basketball team because of playing tips I read in The American Boy."

Many famous athletes in all sports credit much of their success to helpful suggestions received from sports articles carried in The American Boy Magazine. Virtually every issue offers advice from a famous coach or player. Football, basketball, track, tennis, in fact every major sport is covered in fiction and fact articles.

Teachers, librarians, parents and leaders of boys' clubs also recommend The American Boy enthusiastically. They have found that as a general rule regular readers of The American Boy advance more rapidly and develop more worthwhile characteristics than do boys who do not read it.

Trained writers and artists, famous coaches and athletes, explorers, scientists and men successful in business and industry join with an experienced staff to produce in The American Boy, the sort of reading matter boys like best.

The American Boy sells on most newsstands at 25c a copy. Subscription prices are $2.00 for one year or $5.50 for three years. Foreign and Canadian rates for a year extra. To subscribe simply send your name, address and remittance direct to The American Boy, 7480 Second Blvd., Detroit, Michigan.

Pull the Trigger on Lazy Bowels

With herb laxative, combined with syrup pepsin to make it agreeable and easy to take

When constipation brings on acid indigestion, bloating, dizzy spells, gas coated tongue, sour taste and bad breath, your stomach is probably "crying the blues" because your bowels don't move. It calls for Laxative Senna to pull the trigger on those lazy bowels, combined with good old Syrup Pepsin to make your laxative more agreeable and easier to take. For years many Doctors have used pepsin compounds, as agreeable carriers to make other medicines more palatable when your "taster" feels easily upset. So be sure your laxative contains Syrup Pepsin. Insist on Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Senna, combined with Syrup Pepsin. See how wonderfully it herb Laxative Senna wakes up lazy nerves and muscles in your intestines to bring welcome relief from constipation. And see how its Syrup Pepsin makes Dr. Caldwell's medicine so smooth and agreeable to a touchy gut. Even finicky children love the taste of this pleasant family laxative. Buy Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Senna at your druggist's today. Try one laxative that won't bring on violent distaste, even when you take it after a full meal.

Star Dust

STAGE SCREEN RADIO
By VIRGINIA VALE
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

"THE Howards of Virginia" has been released, and people are trying to concoct new bouquets to throw at it. One of New York's best film critics, Bosley Crowther, wrote, "Never, to our recollection, has the screen pictured in more magnificent detail the period of American history preceding and including the Revolution."

Even if American history doesn't mean much to you, you'll want to see the picture. Frank Lloyd has done a masterful job of directing, Martha Scott, Cary Grant, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, and the rest of the cast give excellent performances, and the life of Colonial Virginia has been magnificently reproduced.

There's an old saying in show business: "Always be kind to the property boy. He may be the boss tomorrow."

Edward Arnold, Gary Cooper, Barbara Stanwyck and James Gleason were reminiscing on Frank Capra's "Meet John Doe" set at Warners'. Gleason told of starring 30 years ago in his father's company at the old Morocco and Burbank theaters. Then Capra joined the group, and reminded them that among the players in that company were Marjorie Rambeau, Lewis Stone and others still prominent.

"Did you ever see them?" asked Gleason, in surprise.
"I should say I did," laughed Capra. "I saw them every night. I used to sell newspapers to them."

The special effects department at Paramount could have been forgiven for going stark, staring mad recently when an order came in for a flock of sheep that "look like Jack Benny." The sheep were needed for a dream sequence in "Love Thy Neighbor," in which Fred Allen, Benny's mortal enemy, puts himself to sleep by counting sheep.

Allen insisted that finding the sheep should be easy. "All sheep look like Benny," he insisted, "Benny looks like a sheep anyway."

The sound man on Dorothy Lamour's "Moon Over Burma" had a problem too. He had to fake the sound of elephants crashing through a forest. It was simple enough to record the footsteps of Miss Lamour, Preston Foster, Robert Preston and a group of natives, but the four-ton pachyderms ran so quietly that the noise didn't register. However, movie audiences expect elephants to crash through jungles, so these are going to crash, even though it's done artificially.

For once the cast of a motion picture seems to be taking the title seriously. The title is "This Thing Called Love," and it's influencing Rosalind Russell, Binnie Barnes and Gloria Dickson.

Three days after the picture had gone into production Miss Barnes announced her plan to marry Mike Frankovitch, radio commentator. Rumors circulated to the effect that Miss Dickson and her husband, Pgre Westmore, would become reconciled. Nobody knows yet what will happen to Miss Russell, but just before the picture was begun she caught the bridal bouquet at her sister's wedding, and the day preceding that a fortune teller predicted that she'd be married within a year.

Ellery Queen, the famous detective of many books whose adventures have also made a successful radio series, is going to make his screen debut. He will be the hero of a series of pictures to be produced by Larry Darmour for Columbia Pictures. Ralph Bellamy has the title role.

ODDS AND ENDS

Phyllis Hamilton, of Warners' "The Lady With Red Hair," in which the ladies wear costumes of the 90s, has solved the bustle problem—carries her bustle in hers... Warners' snappy Buster Davis to Samuel Goldwyn, for "The Little Foxes," in return for Gary Cooper, for "Sergeant York"... Bing Crosby's brother Bob has his first film lead in RKO's "Malvina Swings It"... Denver as it was 50 years ago has been recreated for Paramount's "The Roundup"... The cadets at Randolph Field, Texas, chose Veronica Lake as the girl they would prefer to be lost with on a stratosphere flight.

HOW to SEW By RUTH WYETH SPEARS

ONE day there came a letter with a rough sketch of the old rocker at the upper right. The last line of the letter said, "I will remove the rockers if you say so. Mrs. Spears, but I would like to keep them." Well, why not? There is nothing smarter now than things Victorian. Old oil lamps with flowered globes are being wired for electricity so, why not redesign this rocker along simple lines? Cover it with plain rep in a nice shade of blue perhaps, and give it a matching foot stool and a hem stitched linen chair set all tricked out in tassels?

Here is the result of that idea and the diagram shows all the steps that led up to it. Almost any old chair may be transformed with a slip cover if a little work

Strange Facts

Roving Banks
Prison Board Bill
Odd Sugar Sources

About a century ago when some states allowed banks to move from town to town at will, many went into hiding so their notes could not be presented for redemption in gold. One of them, the Bank of Morocco, was found by detectives, after a year's search, in a cabin in a dense Indiana forest.

Although Michigan enacted a law in 1935 requiring prisoners who are financially able to pay for their maintenance (about a dollar a day) the state has only been able to collect this payment from two of the approximate 20,000 persons who have passed in and out of its prisons during this time.

Of the hundreds of different kinds of sugars, some of which are bitter and poisonous, many are made from such odd substances as seaweed, cottonmeal, chicory, dahlias, artichokes and ivory nuts.—Collier's.

Mount Fujiyama

In Japanese legend, Mt. Fujiyama, recently renamed Huzi by official decree, came into being as a result of a quarrel between the mountain goddess, Fuji-San, and the other Nipponese deities. The goddess, in one night, set up this mighty peak, 12,300 feet high, where she could live in peace and solitude. Despite its regular eruptions, its height caused it to become a sacred symbol in Japanese life of all that is lofty and beautiful. It is also regarded as a source of good luck.—Pathfinder.

Why Let Yourself Get Constipated?

Why endure those dull headachy days due to constipation, plus the inevitable trips to the medicine chest, if you can avoid both by getting at the cause of the trouble? If your constipation, like that of millions, is due to lack of "bulk" in the diet, the "better way" is to eat Kellogg's All-Bran. This crunchy toasted breakfast cereal is the cause of prevention that's worth a pound of emergency relief. It helps you not only to get regular but to keep regular, day after day and month after month, by the pleasant means you ever knew. Eat Kellogg's All-Bran regularly, drink plenty of water, and see if you don't forget all about constipation. Made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek. If your condition is chronic, it is wise to consult a physician.
