Favors Leaves for Austin

ENNIS FAVORS

A letter from Ennis Favors of Pampa, new state representative for this district, states that he and his wife and baby are leaving Thursday for Austin, where the Legislature convenes Jan 14.

Mr Favors states that he expects a harmonious session of the Legislature which will have 92 new members in the House and 16 in the Senate, and that he believes that the social security program will be taken care of by something like an omnibus tax bill. He also anticipates a raise of the truck load limit to perhaps twenty thousand pounds or more. Mr Favors will represent Col. Hogeworth, Donley, Gray and Wheeler Counties in the Legislature.

Church of the Nazarene News

I would like to take the privilege of expressing my appreciation to editor of this paper, for the kindness that he has shown in regard to our church work, in printing all of the announcements of the church work. Thanks, Mr Editor, we surely do appreciate every kindness that has been shown us in every way. I hope I may be able to return them in some way. I want to be a blessing to our town. I am enjoying my work here in Hedley.

I want to invite each and every one to attend our services. Especially do I want to insist that you attend the revival meeting, that will begin Jan. 19th. Come one, come all. Dr. Stricklin Killed

The following appeared in Tuesday's Amarillo News:

Dr. Mark L. Stricklin, prominent physician and surgeon of Clarendon was killed instantly today when his car skidded off the J. A. Ranch road into a deep canyon below.

His body was found pinned beneath the wreckage of his car by members of a seismograph crew.

There were no witnesses to the accident. Dr. Stricklin was alone. When he was found about 1:15 o'clock it was believed the accident had happened about a half hour before.

Dr. Stricklin had been on a call to the J. A. Ranch and was returning home. The accident occurred about 10 miles from Clarendon.

Sheriff Guy Wright, members of the Texas Highway Patrol, and a coroner investigated the accident.

Bank's Annual Meeting

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Security State Bank of Hedley, Texas held on the 7th of January the following officers and directors were elected: J. W. Noel, President; J. B. Masterson, Vice President; O. L. Johnson, Cashier; directors T. M. Potts, M. G. Allen, Tom McDougal, J. B. Masterson and J. W. Noel. Other employees of the bank are Miss June Wansley and Mrs. Ruby Naylor, bookkeepers.

The bank enjoyed another successful year, their deposits and profits being about the same as the last three years; the increase in business having offset the shorter crop and lower prices. The bank paid the stockholders a 6% dividend and added $2500.00 to their surplus account during the year.

With the amount of season now in the ground and the general business activity over the nation the bank believes the prospects are to be better for the year of 1941.

Mr. and Mrs. Glad Seividge announce the arrival on Sunday, Jan 5 of a fine boy, weight 9 lbs.

The Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church had its first meeting of the new year in the home of the president, Mrs. J. B. Masterson, Monday, Jan 6 at 2:30. Work for an hour on our two quilts kept us busy. A short business session in which our pledge of service, study and money was made. Lovely refreshments were served to sixteen members, (one new) and two visitors. On each plate was a slip of paper bearing the name of a Bible character. Much pleasure and knowledge was given in the description of these.

Next Monday at 2:30 we meet with Mrs. Dudley. Be sure you are present.

Lovely Frock for School or Parties

HERE'S an unusually sweet princess frock for junior girls that you'll want two ways for Sunday and everyday! This is the most becoming line in the world for petite figures. There are adroit gathers at the sides of the front panel to give a little roundness where roundness is needed, and the waist scoops in to beguiling thinness, above the piquant flare of the skirt.

In velveteen or taffeta, with a white silk pique collar, design No. 1269-B will be the prettiest kind of party frock. In flannel, rayon or corduroy it will be smart for classroom, all in one color or, as shown in the small sketch, with a wide splash of contrast down the front.

Barbara Bell Pattern No. 1269-B is designed for sizes 11, 13, 15, 17 and 19. Corresponding bust measurements 29, 31, 33, 35 and 37. Size 13 (31) requires 4 1/4 yards of 39-inch material without nap; 3/4 yard contrast for collar. Send order to:

Pull the Trigger on Lazy Bowels, and Comfort Stomach, too

When constipation brings on acid indigestion, stomach upset, bloating, dizzy spells, gas, coated tongue, sour taste and bad breath, your stomach is probably "crying the blues" because your bowels don't move. It calls for Laxative-Senna to pull the trigger on those lazy bowels, combined with Syrup Pepsin to save your touchy stomach from further distress. For years, many Doctors have used Laxative-Senna as vehicles, or carriers to make other medicines agreeable to your stomach. So be sure your laxative contains Syrup Pepsin. Insist on Dr. Caldwell's Laxative-Senna combined with Syrup Pepsin. See how wonderfully the Laxative-Senna wakes up lazy nerves and muscles in your intestines to bring welcome relief from constipation. And the good old Syrup Pepsin makes this laxative so comfortable and easy on your stomach. Even finicky children love the taste of this pleasant family laxative. Buy Dr. Caldwell's Laxative-Senna at your drug store today. Try one laxative that comforts your stomach, too.

Contentment
And we shall be made truly wise if we be made content; content, too, not only with what we can understand, but content with what we do not understand—the habit of mind which theologians call—and rightly—faith in God.—Kingsley.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS By Edward C. Wayne

President Scores 'Peace Offensives' And Urges Additional Aid for Britain; Nazis Pour More Troops Into Rumania; English Bombers Pound Invasion Ports

EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper. (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE—A picture released by the German censors, purporting to show French newspaper men being shown the effect of German cannon fire on the Maginot line fortifications. The line, upon which France once pinned its faith against invasion, is now a bad memory of the past for those in occupied France.

PEACE: U. S. Offensive

As the U. S. administration moved ever more vigorously toward aiding Britain, isolationists groups in senate and house started individual "peace offensives" which the President had scored in no uncertain terms in his radio address Sunday before New Year's.

Basic of them all was the familiar theme of asking the U. S. to demand that Britain and Germany state their war aims and that this country make one last effort to bring the two chief warring nations together before the world as it now exists falls apart.

The theory back of it all seemed to be a feeling on some of the administration's heartiest opponents that President Roosevelt still would like to see himself in the role of peacemaker, on any basis. But the President himself indicated that there could be no negotiations with the Axis powers bent on "conquering the world" by the use of gangster tactics.

The demand of Knudsen that manufacturers work for "victory," and by his evidently meaning a British victory, was seen as enough indication of the true temper of White House feeling in the matter.

Editorially, the anti-British American press hailed this domestic "peace offensive," and the Anglophil press editorially condemned it, saying that normally intelligent senators and congressmen were allowing themselves unwittingly to be made tools of Hitler.

Defense Capacity

America's productive capacity for defense is rapidly expanding to meet the nation's armament needs. According to the defense commission, the nation's arms output has reached 2,400 aircraft engines, 700 planes, more than 10,000 semi-automatic rifles and 100 tanks a month.

The commission added that more than a million persons have been put to work in the last two months and that "several million more" will be needed by next November.

GREECE: New Anxious

There were two schools of thought as to the reports that Germany was sending anywhere from 100,000 to 500,000 soldiers into Rumania via Hungary.

School No. 1 figured that these troops were aimed to be shot into Greece through Bulgaria, thus attempting to keep Italy going, and that perhaps hurling Russia and Turkey into the southeastern end of the World war.

School No. 2 doped it out that this latter eventuality was just what Germany sought to avoid, and that the troop movements, if any, were largely a "smoke screen" to cover a severe invasion attempt on the West Front.

The British evidently belonged wholeheartedly to School No. 2, for they followed the unofficial holiday truce by hurling an average of 10 bombs a minute on the invasion ports, giving them a taste of war from the air that they hadn't had since October.

Early advices from England's scouts on the continent seemed to indicate that the objective had been attained, and that any invasion attempt would have to be postponed again.

At the same time the British put into volume production a new type of torpedo boat, said to travel 70 miles per hour, barely touching the tops of the waves, highly maneuverable, and carrying all sorts of armament, including one cannon and several torpedoes.

Purpose of this boat is to be a counter-move against any troop-carrying barges that may seek to cross the channel.

BRITISH: Get Second Wind

The campaign in Egypt, which saw the British capture upward of 35,000 prisoners and huge quantities of war material while hurling the Italians not only out of foreign territory but well back within their own Libya, reached a point where the British sat still for a while, apparently catching their "second wind."

Sit-down point was Bardia, where a state of siege was declared, and the British, under General Wavell, apparently decided to shell the defenders into submission with artillery from land and sea and bombs from the air rather than to risk heavy casualties in a direct assault on the well-fortified town.

Bardia is said to be defended by 20,000 Italians, and while cut off from outside help or supplies, and apparently doomed to fall, showed signs of being able to hold out for a while. Prisoners who deserted from within the town and ran the gamut of fire to the comparative safety of surrender, said Bardia was a hell-on-earth.

They described the havoc wrought by British fire, and felt themselves well out of it all. Rome was slow to admit British successes, but there were signs of sweeping further changes in command. These mostly came from British sources, which announced that as the Italian air force was fighting more vigorously, they assumed that Italy once more had fired a general and hired a new one.

DIPLOMACY: Beats the Punch

Diplomatic circles did a bit of shadow-boxing around a supposed plan of President Roosevelt to widen the neutrality area to include Ireland, thus permitting British-aid-carrying American vessels to run to west Irish ports.

The diplomats themselves said nothing, but the newspapers in the dictator nations opened fire on this proposal before it was made, and their barbs shot in all directions and across all oceans.

German papers threatened America with everything, practically including a declaration of war if the move was made. The ships would be sunk without warning, they said. They called it Britain's "dirtiest trick" that the English have tried to foist on America.

Following this the Rome press followed suit, going ever further, and promising Ireland that the Axis powers would give Eire full aid if she were to go to war with Britain. And this shot fell into Ireland and set the Irish almost at each other's throats again.

Camera, Action—!

Here is Richard Green, motion picture actor, climbing out of a tank "Somewhere in England," where he is training with the tank unit in which he enlisted. Sometime before his enlistment was accepted in England he made a flying trip from Hollywood to Vancouver, B. C., in an attempt to enlist in the Canadian army. He was rejected there but is now serving with the British forces.

QUAKE: But No Sabotage

New England and a large part of the surrounding country was treated to a pair of earthquake shocks, one of the few disasters in recent months that hasn't been investigated by the FBI or the Dies investigators or both.

Most remarkable was the prediction of one quake expert that the shocks felt are just a preliminary, and left New England sitting on the anxious seat. For this scientist predicted that within eight months the earth's fault will really settle, and that a truly disastrous quake will occur.

New Englanders, who have smugly sat back for decades looking over at sunny California, studying their own gloomy climate and saying "well, anyway, we don't have earthquakes," are now revising their slogans accordingly.

And such is their confidence in college professors that New England won't be "sitting pretty" until the eight months have passed away—without a quake!

NLRB: Gets 'Red' Tag

The Smith committee of the house of representatives tendered its final report, branding the National Labor Relations board as "avowed enemies of constitutional government," and recommending not its disbandment, but a thorough house-cleaning.

The committee approved the President's naming of Dr. Harry A. Mills and Dr. William S. Leiserson to the board, and the ousting of Edwin S. Smith.

Rep. Howard W. Smith's group turned its chief barbs against Smith. Ending 17 months of investigation of the NLRB, the committee recommended and charged:

1. Prompt dismissal of all members of Communist "front" groups.
2. Sweeping revision of the Wagner Labor Relations act.
3. Institution by congress of an investigation of the entire field of labor relations.

TRIAL BY BOMBS: Air War Continues

For periods of as much as two days no German planes appeared over England. Then in a lightning raid a devastating blow is struck. One such blow was on the port of Liverpool and another at Manchester. Damage was admitted heavy.

The British, on the other hand, conducted nightly raids, and sought to make them on the same giant scale. Their most serious blow was on Mannerheim, home of the huge I. G. Farbenindustrie, one of the largest plants in the world. The bombings were not confined to Germany, however, but strung out from northern Norway to Italy. One night B. A. F. planes flew as far as Venice, dropped bombs and returned.

Neutrals also felt the effects of the air war. Several towns in both Northern Ireland (Ulster) and Southern Ireland (Eire) were struck. Civilian casualties were recorded as well in Switzerland.

Otherwise on the war front: German Junker planes were reported carrying Italian soldiers from the east coast to Albania. It was denied any German troops were being ferried.

The British submarine, Swordfish, which attained a notable record, was missing with its crew of 40 and considered lost.

The house of parliament again was struck by a bomb. Hitler told his Nazi soldiers in a New Year's message that the "year 1941 will bring the greatest victory in our history."

WHO'S NEWS THIS WEEK

By LEMUEL F. PARTON

(Consolidated Features—WNU Service.)

NEW YORK—Joseph C. Grew, ambassador to Japan, got his start by crawling into a cave and getting a half-nelson on a tiger. No wonder he Bear-Wrangler, isn't afraid to Tiger-Tilter Was Diplomat Grew Foreign Minister Matsuoka and to tell him that "The American people are firmly determined in certain matters."

About that tiger. Just out of Harvard, the young Bostonian headed for Singapore, to piece out his sheepskin with a tiger skin. He hunted big game for two years in southern Asia, engaging in a great deal of jungle milling before he found the open door in China—the entrance to the tiger's cave which was his gateway to a distinguished diplomatic career.

When the tiger story was published, it caught the eye of President Theodore Roosevelt, but it was a later bear story which really stirred his interest. Young Mr. Grew took three straight falls from an angry bear. Naturally, T. R. saw in that the makings of a diplomat. Cahles the next day routed the bear-wrangler and tiger-tilter into a lifetime career in diplomacy, starting a post with the Egyptian consulate-general at Cairo.

He was paced steadily on up through posts at Mexico City, Petrograd, Berlin, Vienna, Copenhagen and Berne. He is rounding 60, 36 years in the diplomatic service, tall, erect, weathered, graying. His durable career typewriter has come along with him down the years, and on it he raps out his terse reports to the state department. Bear-wrangling, diplomacy and this and that has left him with only one good ear, but it serves to register a bigger earful than most diplomats get with two.

Mrs. Grew is a granddaughter of Commodore Perry, who opened Japan to the western world—or vice versa. Living with them at the embassy is their daughter, Mrs. Cecil Lyon, with her two children.

VERNE MARSHALL was born and grew up in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and for 26 years has been editor of the Cedar Rapids Gazette.

He likes to stay put, and believes the U. S. thinks the U. S. A. ought to do the same.

In New York, he becomes the organizer and director of the No Foreign War Committee, which puts him in the opposite corner to William Allen White, the other sage of mid-western newspapering, who heads the committee to Defend America. Not that Mr. White wants war, but their ideas are so opposed that they already are pumping large-caliber editorials at each other.

Mr. Marshall lost one war. For his courageous anti-graft campaign in Cedar Rapids, he was awarded the Pulitzer prize, on May 4, 1938. But while the cheers were still echoing, the Iowa Supreme court, the next day, knocked out his graft charges against 31 persons. He kept on slugging, however, and is highly esteemed in those parts as a self-starting, hard-hitting editor.

He was in London in 1911, writing for the London Chronicle, returned home and later left his newspaper desk for a stretch of machine-gunning in the big war. He didn't like it and now says enough is enough. He is the father of six children.

NO CUSTOMER who ever dropped in at Jacques De Sieres' Fifth avenue perfume shop for a spot of "fleur d'amour" would ever have thought of the elegant M. De Sieres as a fighting man. But that's the way it is with the French—elegant, but tough, on occasion. M. De Sieres was a flying ace in the World war, lost a leg, was wounded five times and is now looking for a return engagement as he serves as the personal representative of Gen. Charles De Gaulle, to rally the "free French" in this country. Just now, with three other members of General De Gaulle's American committee, he gives vehement assurance that the present political machinations of the Nazis will consolidate France and steel it for final resistance.

M. De Sieres was a classmate and intimate friend of General De Gaulle at the St. Cyr military academy. They lost touch with each other during the World war and M. De Sieres has not seen his old friend since he left Paris in 1926. But he cabied the general when the latter made a new base in London and issued his stirring appeal for the support of free Frenchmen throughout the world, pledging unchanged loyalty. The result was "his personal representation of the general here

The Fifth Grade News

The fifth grade welcomes a new pupil, Lee Roy Diggs. Lee Roy came to our school Dec 31, from Ashtola.

We have a new reading table, eight feet long and three feet wide. We earned the money for the table by making name pins. We want to express our appreciation to Mr. Woods for building the table.

We have been wondering about the pin which our teacher began wearing in November. Since our curiosity got the best of us, we asked about it. We learned that it is a fraternity key. Miss Bishop has been honored with membership in Gamma Kappa chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society, a national honor fraternity in education.

THE TRUTH SIMPLY TOLD

These physicians, too, approve every word of advertising you read, the objective of which is only to recommend Doan's Pills as a good diuretic treatment for disorder of the kidney function and for relief of the pain and worry it causes. If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove waste that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole body suffers when kidneys lag, and diuretic medication would be more often employed. Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warn of disturbed kidney function. You may suffer nagging backache, persistent headaches, attacks of dizziness, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel weak, nervous, all played out. Use Doan's Pills. It is better to rely on a medicine that has won world-wide acclaim than on something less favorably known. Ask your neighbor!

LET US TELL YOU MORE ABOUT IT

Star Dust STAGE SCREEN RADIO

By VIRGINIA VALE (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

IF YOU lived within a ten-mile radius of Priscilla Lane's home you'd be more than likely to encounter her at one of the neighborhood movie houses in that vicinity, and to see her afterward buttonholing the manager.

The "Four Mothers" star takes her movie-making very seriously, so she quizzes the men who make money by showing movies. "What do you think of that picture?" "Does it seem to be drawing?" "Do the fans here like that star?" That's the kind of thing Priscilla wants to know. When she's working she covers two or three pictures a week; other times she takes in four or five.

Metro previewed "Flight Command" aboard an airplane in flight one evening recently; afterward Bedell Monroe, president of Pennsylvania Central Airlines, predicted that pictures will be shown regularly on all commercial air lines within the next few years, as they are on ocean liners. Robert Taylor stars in "Flight Command," a naval aviation story.

We're to have "The Trial of Mary Dugan" again, with Robert Young in the leading male role. Remember it when Norma Shearer made it nine years ago? Laraine Day will play "Mary Dugan." (You probably saw her in "Foreign Correspondent.")

Edward J. Peters, chief engineer of Paramount's air conditioning department, has perfected a new type of ice. He calls it "snow ice," and because it lasts almost one-third longer than ordinary ice and requires a third less time to produce, it may affect the commercial ice industry.

It was developed because Director Charles Vidor was shooting a scene in "New York Town" (Fred MacMurray, Mary Martin and Robert Preston co-starring); bright set lights striking ordinary transparent ice in water made the ice invisible to the camera. Vidor wanted the ice to show, to emphasize an important story point. Hence the new ice.

Hollywood's biggest variety show—Al Pearce and His Gang—takes nine microphones to get their Friday broadcasts on the CBS network.

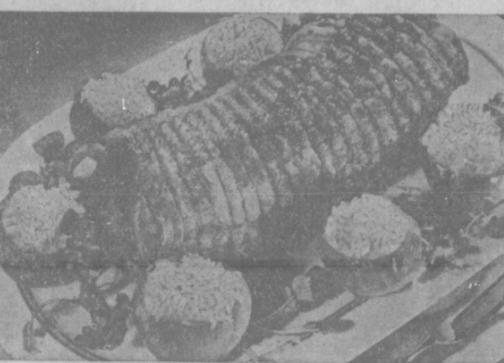

Carl Hoff's orchestra alone takes three; Pearce has one, and the rest of the cast another. Billy Gould gets a sixth one for his sound effects, and Wendell Niles has a booth, equipped with a microphone, of course, for his closing commercial. There's an audience applause microphone, so that we who listen may know how much those who are present are enjoying it, and when Bill Jordan and George Kent present their two-piano numbers the ninth mike is added to the engineer's problems.

Apparently quiz shows are as popular as ever with radio audiences—two new ones will take to the air shortly, over the CBS Pacific Network. They're "Don't Be Personal" and "Talk Your Way Out of This One"—studio audiences will participate, and the winners will receive cash prizes.

Girls who have ambitions to act on the screen or on the air might take a tip from Lurene Tuttle; she never misses a Helen Hayes broadcast, because she learns so much from Miss Hayes, and she studies Bette Davis' work in pictures—she says that when she worked with Miss Davis, the star gave her many valuable suggestions on the technique of acting. Now Lurene's learning still more from working with John Barrymore on the Vallee programs.

ODDS AND ENDS
 "Here Comes the Navy," made by James Cagney and Pat O'Brien in 1934, is being re-released by Warner Brothers.
 George Burns and Gracie Allen have renounced the pledge they signed a year ago to support a certain number of youngsters at Boystown, Neb.
 Donald Crisp ends a six-month vacation with a role in "Fingered Victory."
 "Kitty Foyle" is the forty-second picture in which Ginger Rogers has been featured or starred.
 Guy Kibbee got the title role in "Scattergood Baines" at the request of the author.

Household News By Eleanor Howe

A CHANGE IN THE MEAT COURSE (See Recipes Below)

"Meat makes the meal," especially when there are husky, hard-working men to feed. But for those behind the scenes in the kitchen, thinking up a different and a flavorful meat dish for each day out of the seven is no small task.

There are two ways to approach the problem. First, investigate some of the less-common cuts. You'll find them thrifty to buy because the demand for them is less.

Most of them fairly abound in good flavor and need only to be properly cooked to be serious rivals to more expensive cuts.

If you are buying pork, ask the meat dealer to prepare you a handsome rolled sirloin roast. It's a thrifty cut not so well known as the pork loin roast but it has decided advantages. Two sections of the pork sirloin are boned and tied together into a solid roll of meat. The round, compact slices offer no obstructions to the knife, and are the answer to a carver's prayer. The picnic shoulder of pork is another cut of exceptional flavor. Have it boned, stuff it with spinach and roast it.

If it's too soon for another leg of lamb, buy a section of lamb breast and have it rolled with a layer of sausage. Slice off the meat as you would a jelly-roll; you'll have the neatest pinwheels imaginable. Lamb shoulder and lamb shoulder chops are two other not-so-well-known possibilities.

The second way to coax some variety into your meat dishes is to try new ways of flavoring cuts that you serve often. If much of your meat supply comes from a frozen foods locker, this is your best bet. Have pork chops cut double thick and stuff them with a tart mixture of sauerkraut and apple. Your family will beam approval when you serve that combination! Or make your next ham loaf like an upside-down cake so that when you turn it out, there are rows of bright-as-a-dollar apricots across the top. Try canned gooseberries as a relish with ham or beef, or canned Damsen plums with veal.

Pork Chops Stuffed With Sauerkraut And Apple (Serves 6)
 6 loin pork chops (cut 1-inch thick)
 1 cup sauerkraut (drained)
 1 cup tart, red cooking apple (diced) (unpared)
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 2 tablespoons fat
 1/2 cup sauerkraut juice.

Have a pocket made from the outside of each chop. Combine sauerkraut with finely diced unpeeled apple and stuff the chops with the mixture. Season them with salt and pepper and brown on both sides in hot fat in a heavy skillet. Add sauerkraut juice, cover, and finish the cooking in a moderate oven (350 degrees). Bake for 1 1/2 hours, and remove the cover during the last 15 minutes of baking to brown the chops.

Round Steak, Western Style. (Serves 6)
 2 pounds round steak
 2 tablespoons butter
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 2 medium onions (sliced)
 1/2 lemon (sliced)
 1 No. 1 can condensed tomato soup (1 1/2 cups)
 1 cup water

Have round steak cut 3/4 inch thick. Spread with butter and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Arrange slices of thinly cut onion and lemon over steak. Dilute tomato soup with water and pour over steak. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 2 hours uncovered.

Boneless Sirloin Pork Roast With Stuffed Apples.
 Have the meat retailer remove the tenderloin and bones from two sirloin sections, reverse the ends, and tie the two boneless pieces together in a compact rolled roast. Season with salt and pepper and place with the fat side up in an open roasting pan. Make an incision to the center of the roast and insert a meat thermometer so that the center of the bulb reaches the center of the fieshest part of the center. Place the roast in a moderate oven (350 degrees) and roast until the thermometer registers 185 degrees Fahrenheit. Allow about 30 minutes per pound for roasting. Serve with rice-stuffed apples.

Rice-Stuffed Apples.
 6 medium-sized baking apples
 2 tablespoons brown sugar
 1 cup rice (cooked)
 1 tablespoon butter
 1/2 cup water

Wash apples and cut a slice from the top of each. Remove the cores and seeds and sprinkle the cavities with brown sugar. Mix cooked rice with melted butter and stuff each apple. Arrange them in a baking pan with the water in the bottom and bake for 1 1/2 hours, or until tender in a moderate oven (350 degrees).

Lamb Pinwheels. (Serves 5)
 Boned breast of lamb (about 3 1/2 pounds)
 3/4 pound bulk pork sausage
 2 tablespoons fat
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 1 small onion (sliced)
 1 cup tomatoes (canned)
 2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce

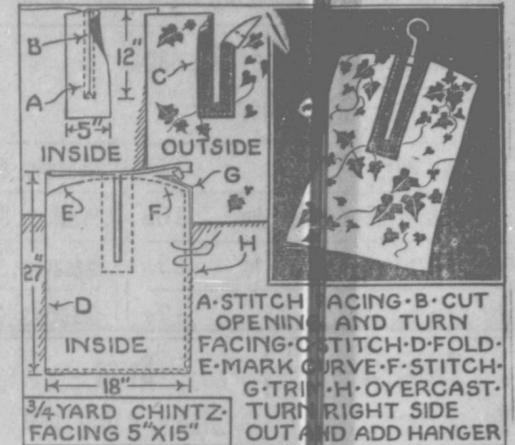

Have the lamb breast boned, spread with bulk pork sausage, rolled, and tied or skewered into shape at the market. Wipe the meat with a damp cloth and dry. Then brown on all sides in hot fat. Pour off the fat in the pan, leaving 2 tablespoons only. Season the roll with salt and pepper. Add sliced onion, tomatoes and Worcestershire sauce. Cover tightly and cook very slowly until done, about 1 1/2 hours. Slice into pinwheels, using a very sharp knife.

Cushion Style Pork Shoulder With Spinach Stuffing. (Serves 10)
 Boned picnic shoulder (about 5 pounds)
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 1 1/2 cups drained spinach (cooked or canned)
 2 tablespoons onion (minced)
 2 tablespoons butter
 2 tablespoons lemon juice
 2 cups fine, soft bread crumbs
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon pepper

Have the picnic shoulder boned and sewed on two sides at the market. This leaves one side open for inserting the stuffing. Season the surface of the pork shoulder with salt and pepper. Combine the spinach, onion, butter, lemon juice and bread crumbs. Season with salt and pepper and use to fill the cavity of the roast. Sew or skewer the edges together. Place the shoulder, fat side up, on a rack in an open roasting pan and roast in a moderate oven (350 degrees) until done. Allow about 60 minutes per pound for the roasting.

(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

HOW TO SEW by Ruth Wyeth Spears

ARE you planning things that will sell well at a Fair or Bazaar? Or is this the season that you catch up on odds and ends of sewing for the house? In either case you will like to stitch up a bag like this one. Everyone seems to have a special use for one of these bags on a hanger. I have one that I use for laundry when I go traveling. Men and boys like them for closet laundry bags too, as they are plenty big enough for shirts. A little girl I know has a small version of one of these in which she keeps doll clothes scraps. I have also seen them used for everything from dress patterns to dust rags.

Something with animals or toys is a landscape in the design. I saw a material the other day with a pattern showing all kinds of rope knots. A boy would like that. Each step in making the bag is shown in the sketch.

In SEWING Book 3 there are directions for another type of bag on a hanger; also a pocket for the pantry door. This book contains directions for the spool shelf, stocking cat; "The rug that grew up with the family," and many other of your favorites among articles that have appeared in the paper. Filling the icebox with scraps of left-over food is a waste of room and, usually of food. Never allow them to accumulate.

A little sweet cream spread over the top crust of a pie before it is put into the oven will make the crust brown and flaky.

When a splinter has gone very deep into the flesh, try extraction by steam. Heat a wide-mouthed bottle and fill it two-thirds full of very hot water and place under the injured spot. The suction in a few minutes removes both splinter and inflammation. This method is particularly good when the splinter has been in for some time.

Social Security Notes

In developing information pertaining to claims for Federal old age and survivors insurance, it has been found that some employers do not understand that wages may include other items than cash. Dewey Reed, manager of the Amarillo Social Security Board office said today.

"In instances where an employer hires a person and agrees to pay him a certain amount of cash per day, week or month, plus his board and lodging, then those two last items are considered wages and are taxable under the law."

It was explained that the taxes similar to premiums paid on an insurance policy, represent a percentage of the worker's wage. Until 1943 the tax is 1% paid by the worker and 1% paid by the employer. Employers deduct each worker's tax from his pay and send it in quarterly, with an equal amount of their own, to the Bureau of Internal Revenue. At the same time, the employer makes a report showing the amount of wages paid to each employee.

"The worker's wages," Reed said, "as reported by his employer when he turns in his taxes, are credited to the individual 'social security account' kept for each worker according to his social security account number by the Social Security Board. When a claim is filed, the wages credited to that worker's account are used to compute the amount of
