Homer Mulkey

One of the largest funeral services ever held in Donley County was witnessed Sunday afternoon when hundreds of friends and acquaintances gathered at the First Christian Church in Clarendon to pay a final tribute to Homer Mulkey, well known Clarendon theatre owner and beloved civic leader.

Mr. Mulkey had passed away Thursday in Harris Memorial Hospital at Ft. Worth after a major operation. He was 65 years of age and had lived in the Panhandle some fifty years.

The services were conducted by all the ministers in Clarendon with the Clarendon Masons in charge. Rev. E. W. Henshaw delivered the opening prayer. The choir, led by Sam M. Braaswell, sang Mr. Mulkey's favorite song, "When They Ring the Golden Bells." Rev. J. Perry King read the obituary. Wilford Hest sang a solo, "Face to Face," followed by a prayer by Rev. M. M. Miller. The 23rd psalm was read by Rev. J. O. Quastlebaum, and Elder Oland Smith gave the Scripture reading from the New Testament. The funeral oration was given by Rev. Cecil E. Harvey, Mr. Mulkey's pastor.

Pallbearers were G. O. Watson, Ralph Keys, G. A. Anderson, Frank White, C. J. Douglas and F. O. Johnson.

The burial was in accordance with full Masonic rites. The impressive oration was given by an old friend, Phil Farley of Groom, who acted as Worshipful Master. Masonic pallbearers included N. W. Durham, J. F. Blocker, C. J. Douglas, G. A. Anderson, Tom Gosally and Bill Ray.

Homer Mulkey was born Dec. 14, 1875, in Gamaliel, Kentucky. He spent his boyhood in Chilton, Texas. His first job was as a cowboy on the X I T ranch near Dalhart. There he saved enough money to take a course in photography, and established a studio in Clarendon in 1904. In 1910 he bought the Pastime Theatre there, thus becoming the oldest theatre owner in Texas.

During his life in Clarendon, he was active in every type of civic progress and improvement. At various times he was president of the Chamber of Commerce, president of the Lions Club, chairman of the county Red Cross chapter, and director of West Texas Chamber of Commerce. He was a 32nd degree Mason, a Knight Templar and Shriner. He was an Elder and faithful member of the First Christian Church.

Mr. Mulkey will be greatly missed by every citizen of the county. He was never too busy to give aid to the sick or unfortunate, regardless of their station in life. His many kindnesses and generosity will be remembered by all who knew him.

He is survived by his wife, two brothers, Willie of San Bernardino, Calif., and James of Wewita, Okla., and three sisters, Mrs. Verna Morris of Rush Springs, Okla., Mrs. R. L. Spears of Chickasha, Okla., and Mrs. Marshal Cole of Brokenito, Okla.

The Informer extends sincere sympathies to the bereaved.

Hedley Masons attending the funeral of Homer Mulkey at Clarendon Sunday were J. P. Davine, W. O. Payne, T. W. Bain, W. O. Bridges and Roy Jewel. A large number of other Hedleyans also attended.

Parent-Teacher Ass'n.

"Safety" was the subject of discussion for Parent and Teacher's meeting on Thursday evening, Jan. 9. Mrs. W. C. Bridges, leader of the program, explained that the state is divided into districts, and that statistics show that the number of accidents was less for 1940 in this district because of educational measures to prevent hazards on the highways streets, in the school, and homes.

Mrs. A. S. Martin discussed fire prevention and gave us ten simple rules to protect property and life.

Mrs. I. E. Biggs discussed recreational hazards and fatalities. She explained that a knowledge and training in first aid treatment in cases of emergency would reduce the number of fatalities.

Mrs. P. L. Dishman explained the need for drivers to take the test for licenses. Many drivers have accidents because of faulty sight or hearing, of which they may not be aware. There is a need for skilled drivers of private owned cars.

The organization voted to distribute the money raised by the carnival on the following equipment for the school: basket ball suits for both boys and girls, a slide for the playground, an abridged dictionary for the study hall, a mirror for the Home Economics department, a first aid kit for the high school and library books.

The second, ninth and eleventh grades tied for the room representatives, for the dollar and the flag.

The next meeting of Parents and Teachers will be on February 12, at 7:00 p. m. This will be a Founder's Day program.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS By Edward C. Wayne

President Calls for Armaments Drive With Increased Aid for Democracies; Irish Investigate Bombings of Dublin; New Congress Tackles Vital Problems

EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper. (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

CONGRESS: State of the Nation

Calling upon all U. S. citizens to "make the sacrifices that the emergency—so serious as war itself—demands," President Roosevelt in his personally delivered message to the new Seventy-seventh congress pledged full defense and help for those "people who are keeping war away from our hemisphere."

He pointed out that he believed the United States to be facing an unprecedented foreign peril and he asked for a "swift and driving increase" in armament production. Both the United States and the "democracies" would reap the benefits of such increased production, according to the President.

"I also ask this congress," said the President, "for authority and for funds sufficient to manufacture additional munitions and war supplies of many kinds, to be turned over to those nations which are now in actual war with aggressor nations." While he did not actually list the nations to which such aid would go it is generally believed that he meant Britain, China and Greece.

President Roosevelt then proceeded to make clear that he did not consider such aid an "act of war even if a dictator should unilaterally

IRELAND: On War's Brink

Aerial war reports were featured by a small but continued bombing of neutral Ireland, and George Bernard Shaw rushed an interview over the cables saying that either Britain or Hitler would get Ireland into the war somehow before long.

Hitler, said Shaw, wants Ireland on the Axis side, to give him a possible landing site for aerial invaders. England wants Ireland actively in on the British side to give her good naval bases and a better defense against submarine activities in the eastern Atlantic.

Investigation of the bombs that dropped at first seemed to indicate that the Germans were attempting to line the Irish coast with magnetic mines and that some of them had inadvertently landed inshore.

This, however, was not borne out, for later bombs were not of the marine type, and then came a full daylight raid, with no excuse for missing, and popped one or two right into the streets of Dublin.

Examination of the bombs showed them to be of German manufacture. The Axis, both Rome and Berlin, immediately leaped into print claiming that the bombs had been taken from downed planes by the British, who had been calmly bombing her neighbor, trying to get the Irish mad enough to declare war on Germany.

GREEKS: Still on Move

Despite the rumbling thunder of Germans about to swoop through Bulgaria toward Salonika, the Greek armies, facing worst blizzards in Albanian history, continued to move forward, but more slowly in the face of stiffening Fascist resistance.

Chief gains were made on the southwestern front, but gains were reported in all sectors. Interesting were the dispatches telling of how Italians were taking to skis with disastrous results, and how Italian mechanized forces were bogging down.

Picture editors in this country continued to get dozens of photos of Italians surrendering, one of the captions even saying that when a cameraman happened not to be present at one "surrender scene," the Fascist troops obligingly posed for the picture when one finally showed up.

"Tirana by Christmas" did not materialize, and the Italian stiff-necked resistance did—but there was continued evidence that if the Greeks were to be beaten back and Italy kept in the war, German planes and German troops would have it to do.

Hitler's statement, made when he was "mad" with Italy before her entrance into the war on the eve of the fall of France, that it would take 10 to 15 divisions to keep Italy going if she did come in, seemed to have been conservative.

Estimates of German troops already available for an invasion of Greece through the Bulgarian door had risen to half a million, or four times the maximum of Hitler's estimate.

FOREIGN BRIEFS:

LONDON.—British report that since October 15, more than a dozen German infantrymen, representing eight different units of the German army, have been captured on British soil. They called them the "first men of the invasion army" to reach England alive.

ROME.—The Axis will knock England out of the war before U. S. aid can arrive for Britain, the Lavoro Fascista prophesied.

Star Dust STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO

By VIRGINIA VALE (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

SOME years ago when Joseph P. Kennedy, until recently our ambassador to the Court of St. James's, was associated in the financial management of Paramount, he was rather skeptical about the valuation that Hollywood places upon its stars.

In fact, he remarked that practically anybody able to "make faces" was a potential movie actor.

Now Paramount is screening "One Night in Lisbon," with Fred MacMurray and Madeleine Carroll costarred. It's a story of the current European war, with the opening sequences laid in beleaguered London. There is a role that fits Mr. Kennedy perfectly. Producer-director Edward H. Griffith offered the role to our friend Kennedy, who dared to accept this chance to try his own ability to make faces. Incidentally, Madeleine Carroll tried her best to get out of making "One Night in Lisbon." Her 19-year-old sister was killed not long ago, you'll remember, during a bombing raid in London.

Just being home from the hospital is a vacation that Mrs. Eddie Bracken is still on. She and her husband started off in their car for a vacation trip East, as soon as he finished his work in "Reaching for the Sun." They were hardly well on their way when they were in a spectacular automobile accident, in which she was seriously injured.

There's no telling where this custom of playing oneself on the screen will end. Jack Benny and Fred Allen take a whirl at it in "Love Thy Neighbor"; Oscar Levant, of radio's "Information Please," was obviously Oscar himself in "Rhythm on the River"; Deems Taylor, music commentator of the air, steps right out as Deems Taylor in "The Harboiled Canary" with Susanna Foster, and also in "Fantasia." And of course band leaders play themselves; two of the newest balloon-riding performances are those of Artie Shaw in "Second Chorus" and Orrin Tucker in "Las Vegas Nights."

Members of the cast of that same "Las Vegas Nights" were slightly slap-happy after a memorable day's shooting in which practically everybody slapped somebody else. Virginia Dale slapped Francetta Mallory, who slapped right back; after that it continued, spreading to other actors, until Assistant Director Eddie Selvan had counted 97 blows. Then he stopped counting and sent for a studio nurse and some aspirin.

Jane Withers was borrowed by Twentieth Century-Fox from Columbia to play opposite Jackie Cooper in "See First Beau," a role for which both Edith Fellows and Benita Granville had been mentioned. She'll report for it in February, when she's finished "A Very Young Lady," also for Fox.

Anna Neagle, the English screen actress, is going to give us still another of those musical comedies of yester-year. She's done "Irene" and "No, No Nanette" so far, and now we hear that the next one will be "Sunny." There doesn't seem to be any very good reason for these endeavors; neither "Irene" nor "No, No Nanette" was very good—the latter has just been released, and in spite of an excellent cast it's not Grade A entertainment. And for some reason the music which made the musical a standout is now merely incidental.

ODDS AND ENDS

Universal's in the market for really ancient automobiles, such as Pope Toledo and Winton—they're needed for the Vanderbilt Cup race scene in the remake of "Back Street."

Claudette Colbert has signed for two years more with Paramount, making one picture a year. Her next one will be "Slylock," based on a successful stage play, which was based on a magazine serial which you probably read.

Dorothy Thompson, writer and commentator, has been signed for another thirteen weeks over MBS.

Here's a Change From Old Stand-Bys: Cereal Cookies; So Tasty, Low in Cost

DID you ever hear of a "cereal?" No, it's not a breakfast food. It's the festival that the ancient Romans staged every year in honor of Ceres, Goddess of the Grains. You can have a cereal of your own; a Cookie Cerealia, for when it comes to turning out those batches of cookies, there's nothing that adds so much taste and variety at such a low cost as the well-known morning cereal.

Nice part about making cereal cookies is that the cereal is already cooked and tested in the manufacturer's ovens. All you need do is mix it in according to directions. But nicer still are the gorgeous-tasting delicacies that you can produce from just ordinary, every-day corn flakes and the like. Sort of a change from the old stand-bys, the sand-tarts and ginger snaps.

Bran Butterscotch Cookies.

1 cup butter 1 cup all-bran
2 cups brown sugar 3 cups flour
1 egg 2 teaspoons baking powder

Cream butter; add sugar gradually and beat until light and fluffy. Add egg and beat well. Stir in all-bran. Sift flour with baking powder and work into first mixture, a small amount at a time. Knead and shape into rolls about 1½ inches in diameter; wrap in waxed paper, covering ends so that dough will not dry out. Store in refrigerator until firm. Cut into thin slices and bake on ungreased cookie sheet in moderately hot oven (425 degrees F.) about 10 minutes.

New Zealand Corn Flake Kisses.

½ cup butter 1 teaspoon baking powder
1 cup sugar ½ teaspoon salt
1 egg 1 cup finely cut dates
1½ cups flour ½ cup corn flake crumbs

Cream butter and sugar thoroughly; add egg and beat until fluffy. Sift flour with baking powder and salt; add to first mixture along with dates. Mix well. Roll one teaspoon of mixture in corn flake crumbs and flatten down on greased cookie sheet. Bake in slow oven (325 degrees F.) about 20 minutes. Remove from pan while warm.

Mincemeat Hermits.

½ cup butter 1½ teaspoons clove
1½ cups sugar 1 teaspoon mace
2 eggs ½ teaspoon nutmeg
½ cup milk 1 teaspoon salt
¾ cup all-bran 1 cup mincemeat
¾ cup flour 1 cup mincemeat powder

Blend butter and sugar thoroughly; add egg and beat well. Add milk and all-bran. Sift flour with remaining dry ingredients and add to first mixture; mix well and chill. Roll dough to about ¼ inch thickness on lightly floured board and cut into rounds. Place teaspoonful of mincemeat on one round, cover with second and press edges together. Bake on greased baking sheet in moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) for about 12 minutes.

Peppies.

¾ cup shortening 4 cups flour
1 cup sugar ½ teaspoon salt
2 eggs 1 teaspoon soda
1 cup molasses 1 teaspoon ginger
1 cup vitamin-1 1 teaspoon cinnamon
enriched wheat ½ cup sour cream flakes

Blend shortening and sugar thoroughly. Add well beaten eggs, molasses and wheat flakes. Sift flour with salt, soda and spices; add alternately to first mixture with cream. Chill thoroughly. Roll to ¼-inch thickness; cut and bake on greased baking sheet in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) about 20 minutes.

Orange and Lemon Cookies.

(Makes about 5 dozen cookies)
1 cup sugar ¾ cups flour (sifted)
½ cup orange juice 2 teaspoons baking powder
½ cup lemon juice 1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon lemon peel (grated) ½ cup butter (melted)
1 teaspoon orange peel (grated)

Mix sugar and fruit juices well. Add grated peel, dry ingredients and melted butter. Stir well. Dough should be firm enough to roll. Roll very thin and cut with fancy cutter in various shapes. Bake on a greased sheet in a moderately hot oven (375 degrees) for about 10 minutes, or until lightly browned on the edges.

Albert Martin Reviews Trip to Cuba

In English II Thursday, Jan 9, Albert Martin gave the high points of his trip to Cuba. He with his parents left Abilene Dec 26 for Cuba. From Abilene they went to Houston. It was during the night therefore there was not much interest. From Houston to Louisiana was mostly rice fields. A few miles before reaching New Orleans they crossed the Huey Long Bridge, constructed at the cost of $13,000,000 dollars and it took three years to build it. The bridge is four and one half miles long and has an asphalt road on each side; it is so long that it took fifteen minutes to cross it.

They took a pullman from New Orleans and woke up in Florida a country booming with beautiful flowers. There was lots of tobacco and lumber around Tallahassee, which is the capital of Florida. The capitol is built on a hill and can be seen from the railroad station.

Albert arrived at Miami Florida, Dec 29. They rode a bus out to Miami beach, where there were hundreds and hundreds of people. They saw the light cruiser Memphis and a Florida steamship. The first night in Miami they saw the Orange Bowl Queen owned. On New Year's eve they watched the Orange Bowl parade from their hotel window. Next morning, after trying to sleep a little, they went to the beautiful airport to take a clipper for Havana. At 9 a. m. they started with a perfect take off. They arrived at Havana at 10:30 a. m. after registering at a hotel they went to the capitol. In the center of the capitol floor, under the dome was a 24 karat diamond. The ceilings were 18 karat gold.

and the furniture was mahogany and brass gold with marble tops.

Sugar cane, roses, citrus fruits, banana, tobacco, pineapple and many other things grow in Cuba. They saw in Havana a fort which was built in 1587 and is now used for training purposes. They saw the torture chamber, sharks nest, Chinese social chamber, a dungeon, ten feet deep and the place where the battleship Maine was sunk. The streets in Havana were very small and the small shops were very high. They went to the President's home which was very beautiful on the waterfront. They started for home on Friday night. Albert made the class feel as if it were on this delightful adventure.

In spite of the big reduction in electric rates in recent years, many folks say their bills have not been reduced. In many homes that is true because today people are using bigger lamp bulbs, they have radios, refrigerators, washing machines, and in many cases ranges and water heaters they didn't used to have. Their bills are about what they've always been, but today they get from twice to three or four times as much Electric Service for their money. For example, in 1928, $5 bought about 20 kilowatt-hours but today it buys 100 kilowatt-hours, or five times as much for your money.

Making a Frame For Rug Hooking

By RUTH WYETH SPEARS
TWO of the nicest hook rugs I have were made without a frame. Many rug makers like to work this way so that they may turn the work as they do different parts of the design. Then, too, whenever rug hookers meet there is sure to be an exchange of treasured bits of colored fabrics. In no time at all a rug making group is meeting and it is difficult to carry a frame when one goes visiting.

You can see by this that I rather favor working without a frame though I know perfectly well that it is more efficient to work with one. Almost all professionals have frames that rest on a permanent base. I have sketched here the type of frame that most amateurs use. You can buy the corner clamps at the hardware store and put the frame together quickly. It may be the size of your rug or smaller. If it is smaller, just part of the rug is stretched on the frame at one time.

SEWING Book 5 tells you exactly how to prepare the burlap for a hooked rug like the one in this sketch and gives much other valuable information on rug hooking. There is still another hooked rug design in Book 5; also a braided and a crocheted rug. Send order to:

COLD-WEATHER HOSPITALITY

(See Recipes Below)

What if the radio weatherman does predict a drop to 10 degrees below zero! That is no reason to put all hospitality in cold storage, too. Not if our grandmothers could have gotten together even when they had to drive the horses through the snow and stay the whole day!

And so, no matter how blustery the weather, clubs will still have their afternoon meetings, there will be cheerful teas in church parlors, and friends will drop in informally to spend the evening. If it is warm inside and there is fragrant, inviting food in the offing, the sharpness of the wind won't matter.

You will want to have a few new recipes at your fingers' ends to make such cold weather hospitality easy. If you are feeding the club, using the bridge table method, you might serve beef creole in individual rice rings, a plate of celery hearts, carrot sticks and stuffed olives, together with hot rolls of your own making. Let the dessert course be coffee and an eggnog pie—a creamy yellow chiffon pie with a thin covering of whipped cream and a dusting of nutmeg over the top.

If you're planning a tea, remember that hot Russian tea is super-fine with cinnamon doughnuts, split and toasted. For informal evening affairs at your own fireside, hot coffee cake with currant jelly and coffee will be enough to serve. If you have a wooden cheese board or a handsome plate, show it off with a collection of cheese and crackers and a bowl of assorted fruit like that shown in the picture above.

Russian Tea.

(Makes 14 servings)

- 1 cup sugar
- 1 cup water
- 1 3-inch stick cinnamon
- ¾ cup orange juice (3 oranges)
- 6 tablespoons lemon juice (2 lemons)
- 1 12-ounce can pineapple juice (1½ cups)
- 1½ quarts water
- 1 cup strong tea infusion
- 1 lemon (for garnishing)

Boil 1 cup of the water, with sugar and stick cinnamon for 5 minutes. Add juice of oranges, lemons, and pineapple juice. Boil orange and lemon rinds in ¼ quart of the water for 3 minutes. Strain and combine with the fruit juice mixture. Add the remaining 1 quart of water. Set aside. Just before serving, heat the fruit juice mixture and combine with the tea infusion. To make the infusion, pour one cup of rapidly boiling water over 4 level teaspoons of tea. Let steep 3 minutes, then stir briefly and strain. Serve the tea hot in tall glasses or cups (¾ cup to a serving) and garnish each with a slice of lemon.

Eggnog Pie.

- 1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
- ¼ cup cold water
- 4 eggs
- 1 cup sugar
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ½ cup milk
- ¼ teaspoon nutmeg
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- ½ cup whipping cream

Let gelatin soak in cold water for 5 minutes. Beat egg yolks until light; stir in ½ cup of sugar and salt. Gradually add milk and cook over boiling water until it is the consistency of custard, about 5 minutes. Stir constantly during cooking. Add softened gelatin to custard mixture, stirring until it is completely dissolved, then add nutmeg and vanilla. Chill the filling until it is partially congealed. Beat egg whites until frothy. Add ½ cup of sugar gradually, beating until the meringue stands in stiff peaks and will not flow when the bowl is partially inverted. Fold meringue into partially congealed custard mixture, pour into a baked 9-inch pie shell and chill in the refrigerator for 2 hours or longer. When ready to serve, spread a thin layer of whipped cream over the top and sprinkle with additional nutmeg.

Streusel Coffee Cake.

(1 9-inch cake)

- 1½ cups general purpose flour
- 3 teaspoons baking powder
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ¾ cup sugar
- ¼ cup shortening
- 1 egg
- ½ cup milk
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Sift flour once before measuring. Then sift flour, baking powder, salt and sugar together. Cut in shortening with two knives or a pastry blender (or rub it in with the fingers) until the mixture is like coarse meal. Blend in well-beaten egg mixed with milk. Then stir in vanilla and beat just enough to mix well. Pour the batter into a well-greased 9-inch layer cake pan. Sprinkle with streusel topping. Bake 25 to 30 minutes in a moderate oven (375 degrees).

Streusel Topping.

- ½ cup brown sugar (firmly packed)
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 2 teaspoons cinnamon
- ¼ cup chopped nuts
- 2 tablespoons butter (melted)

Mix flour, sugar and cinnamon together. Blend in melted butter and stir in chopped nuts.

Pecan Confections.

(Makes 2 dozen 2-inch cookies)

- 1 egg white
- 1 cup brown sugar (firmly packed)
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 1 cup chopped pecans

Beat the egg white until it will stand in stiff peaks, then gradually beat in with a rotary beater the brown sugar. Stir in flour, salt and chopped pecans. Drop the mixture from the tip of a spoon onto greased cookie sheets, spacing the cookies at least 2 inches apart. Bake in a very slow oven (275 degrees) for 25 minutes. Cool somewhat, then remove from the tin onto a cake cooler covered with waxed paper.

Cheese Board.

- 1 3-ounce package cream cheese
- 1 4-ounce package Liederkranz cheese
- 1 2-ounce package Swiss cheese
- 4 1½-ounce wedges of Camembert cheese
- 12 radishes
- Crackers

Arrange as desired on a large plate or wooden cheese tray.

Rice Rings.

- 3 cups cooked rice (hot)
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 1 tablespoon butter
- 2 egg yolks
- 3 tablespoons cream

Add salt and melted butter to cooked rice. Beat egg yolks with cream and stir into rice mixture. Grease 6 individual ring molds and pack rice in firmly. Place in pan of hot water for 8 to 10 minutes. Remove from molds and fill centers with beef creole.

A General Quiz

The Questions

1. What is the population of Greece?
2. What standards are used by the Bureau of the Census in computing the number of illiterates in the country?
3. Under what conditions may a private in the U. S. army wed?
4. What does a panegyric piece of writing do?
5. "Now God be praised, I die happy" are the dying words of what general?
6. President Andrew Johnson escaped impeachment by how many votes?
7. Does the moon, when it is half full, shed half as much light on the earth as it does when it reaches the full stage?
8. Which is the world's largest flower?

The Answers

1. The population of Greece is 6,204,684.
2. The Bureau of the Census rules that any person 10 years of age or older who cannot read or write in any language is an illiterate.
3. With his commanding officer's permission.
4. Praise.
5. James Wolfe (after his victory at Quebec).
6. One. The vote was 35 to 19; a two-thirds majority was necessary for conviction.
7. No, a half-full moon sheds only about one-ninth as much light on the earth as one that is full.
8. The krubi which grows in Sumatra and takes 12 years to bloom. It is over 8 feet high and 12 feet in diameter. It is bell-shaped and has a disagreeable odor.

ONE special beauty of this design (No. 8836) is that you can make it up in household cottons for home wear, cutting the sleeves off short, and in spun rayon or thin wool for runabout, cutting the sleeves long! And it's so easy to make that you're certain to repeat it many times.

Belted only in the back, with lengthening bodice panels that accent height, thus making you look slimmer, and gathers beneath the yoke portions, this dress is cleverly detailed to give exactly the effect that women's sizes require. The v-neckline is finished with a deeply notched collar, the sleeves are trimmed with narrow cuffs. And you'll find it one of the most comfortable fashions you ever put on!

Eyes Right! and WRONG!

Is the strip between the two fields wider where the up-and-down line crosses? We'll admit it looks wider, but that's because your eyes fool you—the strip is the same width from end to end.
