William Press Clarke

The following was taken from the Knox County Herald:

Knox City and the surrounding towns were deeply grieved to learn of the passing of Press Clarke, long time resident of this city, who passed away at the Knox County Hospital at 8:10 p. m. Sunday afternoon. Mr. Clarke had been ill for several weeks preceding his death.

Mr. Clarke's presence from the town will be greatly missed. He cooperated in every way possible toward progress of the community.

William Press Clarke was born in Granberry, Texas, on June 7, 1882. At an early age he moved to Hill county, Texas, with his parents, where he lived until he was a young man. He was married to Miss Nettie Hutchinson in November, 1912 at Graham, Texas. To this union were born two children. The family lived in Newcastle, Olney and Elia until before moving to Knox City in 1924 and they have made their home here since that time.

Mr. Clarke was converted in Newcastle in 1914 and joined the Baptist church there and upon moving here he moved his membership to the First Baptist Church here. He was active in church work and at the time of his death was chairman of the ushers.

Immediate survivors are his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Fred Warren of Seagraves, Texas; one son, David Clarke of Stephenville; one granddaughter, Patricia Ann Warren, of Seagraves. Also surviving are five sisters and three brothers. The sisters are Mrs. M. C. Jones of Dallas, Mrs. Ernest Carter of Austin, Mrs. Carl Herring of Mexia, Mrs. Walter Redding of Hubbard and Mrs. John Brown of Osona. The brothers are Tom Clarke of Knox City, Jim Clarke of Hedley, and Dee Clarke of Minnsville. Many nieces and nephews also survive.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Baptist Church with the Rev. J. W. English of Truett officiating. He was assisted by the Rev. J. S. Tierce of the local church. A choir under the direction of Press Hitchcock sang two numbers. A quartet composed of Mrs. Gordon Acker of Truett, Mrs. H. P. Arledge, Press Hitchcock and Horace Finley, sang and Mrs. Acker also sang a solo. The accompaniments were played by Mrs. E. Q. Warren.

Mrs. R. G. Adamson

Hedley friends were sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. E. G. Adamson of Denver, Colo., who passed away at her home there Sunday after a lengthy illness.

Funeral services were held Wednesday from the First Baptist Church here by Rev. A. L. Tass.

Palbearers were Will Dickson, John Dickson, Milt Mosley, Hobart Moffitt, Earle Wilson and Marshall Stone.

Flower bearers were Orvetta Keon, Lois Stout, Opal Thomas, Peggy Doherty, Pauline Koonis and Sarah Je Mosley.

Interment was in Rowe cemetery, under direction of Womack Funeral Home.

Mrs. Adamson was born Aug. 31, 1891, at Temple. She was married July 21, 1910, at Clarendon to E. G. Adamson. To this union three children were born, all of whom survive. They are Morad and S. L. of Denver, and Mrs. Dalton Malone of Hedley.

She is also survived by three grandchildren, Darwyn, Harold and Bobbie Malone of Hedley, two sisters, Mrs. Mable Deweer of Dallas and Gladie Arnett of California, and one brother, Howard Arnett of McGrath, Alaska.

She was converted and joined the First Baptist Church here, where she held membership until her death. She spent all her married life in Hedley until she moved to Denver in 1937.

Mrs. Adamson possessed a personality that won her many friends, and was loving and devoted to her family. Her friends here will long remember her many kind and neighborly deeds.

The Informer joins a host of friends in extending sincere sympathy to the bereaved.

Church of the Nazarene News

Rev. O. M. Whitley began the revival at the Church of the Nazarene Sunday morning with good interest. He is doing fine preaching both morning and night. We urge everyone of the town to cooperate in this revival. Sister Whitley is in charge of the Juniors, and she is very fine with them, so bring the children.

Sunday morning, Bro. Whitley will tell the story of how his brother was captured by the head hunters in South America, and how he escaped. Please remember this and come. We will also have dinner on the ground Sunday. We invite everyone to come to services Sunday and stay for dinner. We invite every one to attend this revival meeting.

Accenting the Width Of a Narrow Room

By RUTH WYETH SPEARS

ON A Thursday afternoon the south end of a certain dining room was as shown here in the upper sketch. The following Monday it appeared as shown below. Cupboards had been added to display china and give storage space, yet the room actually seemed wider and more spacious than before.

The transformation was made by the handy man with no tools but a hammer, saw and screw driver plus the aid of his willing helper with needle, thread and paint brush. The new curtain treatment, shown in the sketch, made the window seem wider and the strong horizontal lines of the cupboards also helped to create an illusion of width. The cupboards were eight inches deep and made of one-inch lumber with doors of plywood for the lower part.

NOTE: Mrs. Spears' Books 1 and 3 are full of other practical ideas for making and hanging curtains. Each book has 32 pages of pictures showing you how to modernize and beautify your home. Send order to:

Pull the Trigger on Lazy Bowels, and Comfort Stomach, too

When constipation brings on acid indigestion, stomach upset, bloating, dizzy spells, gas, coated tongue, sour taste and bad breath, your stomach is probably "crying the blues" because your bowels don't move. It calls for Laxative-Senna to pull the trigger on those lazy bowels, combined with Syrup Pepsin to save your touchy stomach from further distress. For years, many Doctors have used pepsin compounds as vehicles, or carriers to make other medicines agreeable to your stomach. So be sure your laxative contains Syrup Pepsin. Insist on Dr. Caldwell's Laxative-Senna combined with Syrup Pepsin. See how wonderfully the Laxative-Senna wakes up lazy nerves and muscles in your intestines to bring welcome relief from constipation. And the good old Syrup Pepsin makes this laxative so comfortable and easy on your stomach. Even finicky children love the taste of this pleasant family laxative. Buy Dr. Caldwell's Laxative-Senna at your druggist today. Try one laxative that comforts your stomach, too.

 Men's plans should be regulated by the circumstances, not circumstances by the plans.—Livy.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.

Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength.

Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS By Edward C. Wayne

'Lend-Lease' Bill Would Give President Broad Powers in 'Aid-to-Britain' Plans; Greeks Continue to Push Back Italians As British Speed Up Campaign in Libya

EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper. (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

BILLIONS: In Double Figures

Congress knew what was coming when the Roosevelt message on the budget was handed them, but it was a shock none the less.

Some things shock one even when one knows in advance all about them.

Seventeen and a half billions. More billions (unmentioned and extra-budgetary) when the lend-lease plan goes into effect.

A debit limit probably up to 60 billions. Heavy-headed congressmen harked back to the days when they worried about awarding a mere pitance of a billion and a half to World War veterans for the soldier bonus.

Yet the temper of the congress was such that even while being shot back on their heels by the magnitude of the thing, they agreed it would pass, and the lend-lease measure along with it.

And as to the "all-out" aid to Britain, the congress and the administration were seeing eye to eye, or at least nearly so.

The lend-lease and the presidential message were received in quick succession along the ocean. The Nazi and vell, trim British commander of the top-flight colonialists in Africa.

Learning their lesson in Flanders that shock, surprise and speed are the primary qualifications of a successful attack, the British have kept going, even at the cost of getting hundreds of dangerous miles away from their sources of supply.

The despairing cry of Tommy Atkins in Flanders fields and on the road to Dunquerque was "give us planes!" General Wavell was not holding back the planes in the African offensive. Indeed inside information was that of the RAF pilots the banner men were in the Mediterranean offensive, operating both on the Albanian front and in Africa.

Sidi Barrani fell to the Italians without resistance. There they bogged down, never reaching the next stop, Marsa Matruh. Graziani halted and prepared, and waited for supplies that never came. Suddenly the British struck.

Sidi Barrani fell, then in quick succession Salum and Bardia. Then Tobruk was cut off, and the spearhead of the attack split in one direction toward Benghazi, the capital, and toward Derna, the only remaining coastal town of importance.

Fireside critics and editorialists were warning Wavell of "over-reaching" but Wavell's answer to these was to move faster and farther.

After Bardia, the British announced 44,000 officers and men killed or captured. Rendered ineffective since the campaign started, the estimate was around 100,000, or half Graziani's army.

Australian forces are being given much of the credit for the successful drive by the force of the British empire. Famous for their courage and ability in the war of 1914-18, the Aussies had their first major test in the battle for Bardia and they lived up to expectations. When the time came to attack the city there was no stopping them.

SENATORS: Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky, Senate majority leader, and Senator Walter F. George of Georgia, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, are pictured as they looked over the 'lend-lease' bill before presenting it to congress.

the Fascist press were vocal in their distaste of the whole proceeding, while the Russian press was relatively silent.

Britain, not counting its chickens before hatching, nor its ships before receiving, was quietly appreciative, but seemed to feel her fate was safe in the hands of the President and congress. Whatever aid can be given will be given, the British felt sure, or why whoop it up?

SHOCK: For Isolationists

Those in favor of knitting our own socks whether Europe collapses or not gasp shock that had nothing to do with the budget.

Senator Nye of North Dakota declared there were between 30 and 35 positive votes (14 to 19 short of a majority) for the United States to declare war on Germany right away with no more "beating around the bush."

Nye, a leader of the non-interventionist bloc, hasn't the faintest hope that the lend-lease bill (dubbed "blank check aid for England") will be debated in either house.

He, however, flatly calls this bill a "declaration of war." He gave the 305 positive vote figure in case President Roosevelt should, after passage of the unofficial declaration, ask the congress to "make it official" with a formal declaration.

Nye's pessimistic (from his viewpoint) prediction of passage of the bill in some form was echoed by most of his colleagues in the non-intervention bloc, and they seemed ready to center their fight on a basis of some form of revision of the (to them) more drastic provisions.

President Roosevelt, admitting the bill would give him vast powers, sat back quietly waiting for victory in the vote, saying "I know it, but somebody had to have the power."

BRITISH: Show Speed

Rolling even the blitzkrieg that swamped France out of the war was a swift attack on Libya put on by the forces of Gen. Sir Archibald Wa-

FIRE: And the Reply

As Germany continued its newest policy of raining 100 fire bombs to one explosive on Britain's more or less inflammable cities and towns, especially including London, the British found two replies, each (they hoped) more or less effective.

Basic defense against this warfare has been the naming of a new corps of volunteer roof-top fire-watchers, who have been showing extraordinary bravery in quenching blazes as soon as started, even during the heaviest bombing raids.

Second reply has been an increased tempo of British bombing attack on invasion ports and German cities, Bremen having been given a going over that lasted three days, and this was followed by an invasion port attack in which more than 550 British planes took part, more than 100 of them bombers and the rest machine-gunning fighters who held the Nazis on the ground.

JUNK: Dealers 'Told'

Leon Henderson, styled by his introducer on the speaker's platform as the administration's "No. 1 Economist," but officially titled "Defense Commissioner for Price Stabilization," talked turkey to the scrap-metal suppliers at their institute convention.

Briefly he said:

"The government is not satisfied with the soaring price of scrap steel ($16 a ton in October—$24 a ton).

"We are giving you a last chance to handle this yourselves."

"Otherwise we will handle you."

Junk dealers and brokers looked solemn. Then he said:

"We've got to have a supply of scrap steel. We'll get it where we can."

"As for me, I'd make a deal with the Devil to lick Hitler."

Solemn faces broadened, broke into cheers. The convention broke up, the dealers resolved to "go home and be good boys."

RUSSIA: Scouts Around

The Soviet, acting on the heels of America's "all-out" effort to aid Britain and the democracies to win, announced a treaty with Nazi Germany whereby "Russia would feed Nazis."

Diplomatic rustlings and whisperings followed this report, all of which aimed at knowing "what's next?" from Russia. Indignance in some quarters was followed by this from the Soviet:

"The treaty with Germany on foodstuffs and supplies is not aimed at any other power. We are seeking similar alliances with other nations."

All of which seemed to boil down to more Muscovite fishing in troubled waters—this time for an export market—with the seas boiling with torpedoes and mines, if not actually closed.

UNREST: Reports Grow

Surveys of unrest in conquered democracies or semi-democracies in Europe showed increases in hostility to Germany and Italy, and the newspaper evidence that Italy was suffering internal pains was growing.

The latter stories were mostly centered around "uncensored" reports filtering back to the United States apparently from members of the Mazzini, Italian-American organization opposed to Fascism.

One report, typical, said 500 of these men were on one Italy-bound ship, landed, dispersed through the country, and were spreading unrest.

Most of the other stories emanated from returning travelers who had been in France, Norway, or other occupied zones, and had managed to make a getaway.

Tales of hunger, of the autocratic domineering of the soldiery, of financial sabotage, of purchases of goods for marks that practically amounted to theft on a super-wholesale basis, were common.

French Hero

NEW YORK CITY.—E. Casanave-Cabanne, a demobilized French soldier, is shown as he arrived in New York aboard the SS San Domingue. He sports a Croix de Guerre, awarded him for shooting down a Heinkel bomber during the "battle of France."

WHO'S NEWS THIS WEEK

By LEMUEL F. PARTON
 (Consolidated Features—WNU Service.)

NEW YORK.—Just how far Dr. Arnulfo Arias, new president of Panama, will co-operate with the U. S. A. in defending the Canal Zone

Cuban Allegiance To Hemisphere Is Bit Dubious

has been a topic of considerable argument in the last several weeks, some of it out in the open. Several correspondents have flicked the president with charges of Fascist leanings and have quoted him as saying that any grants for naval bases would not necessarily be limited to the United States. Not necessarily as a riposte to these thrusts, he now pledges co-operation with his northern neighbor, but makes certain qualifications. He proposes to abandon no sovereignty and demands "understanding and unselfishness from the United States." Which seems fair enough at this distance.

President Arias, son of a wealthy cattle-raiser, attended Hartwick college, Oneonta, N. Y., took a bachelor of science degree at the University of Chicago, and a medical degree at Harvard. He began practice as a surgeon, but was diverted to politics in 1931, being in the diplomatic service at Paris and Rome. At the age of 39, he is the youngest chief executive in Latin-America.

One cause of much pulling and hauling over the president's political leanings was the new constitution which he promulgated within 17 days of his election last fall. It withdrew citizenship from about 90,000 non-Spanish speaking Panamanians, many from the West Indies, and left them without a country. It extended the powers of the state in the expropriation of property; and the president, in decreeing its adoption, said it would provide "state socialism consonant with new social movements." This take-off, with many later references to a "disciplined people" stirred, possibly irresponsible, talk of foreign derivation of the new constitution.

Good-looking, handsomely tailored, a facile orator, Dr. Arias was elected by the largest majority ever given a Panamanian president. Washington has shown no official concern over the liberal and left charges of doubtful allegiance.

JOHN P. FREY, president of the metal trades department of the A. F. of L., announces the "no strike" and full co-operation policy of his organization in the national defense effort.

Chief Is Firm for Labor Status Quo

Mr. Frey, one of the most eminent of the elder statesmen of the labor movement, is, like Ernest Bevin of England, a staunch conservative who has cracked down on the left-wingers and has singled out radicals, rather than employers as the most dangerous foes of labor.

When the C. I. O. was established he raked John L. Lewis as "a tool of Moscow" and never ceased firing until Mr. Lewis' withdrawal. It is understood that his animus is considerably less toward Philip Murray, Mr. Lewis' successor, and the more optimistic among labor critics and onlookers see hope of peace, under the unifying stress of the defense call. Mr. Frey has great influence in the A. F. of L. and his metal trade workers, nearly a million of them, are in a key spot.

White-haired, baldish, clerical in appearance, facile in speech and a ready writer and controversialist, Mr. Frey is a veteran jouster in many wordy tournaments in which he has expounded the old-line Sam Gompers gospel of labor padding its own canoe and not getting caught in any errant political or intellectual drifts.

Gompers repeatedly warned labor to fight shy of governmental entanglements, and Mr. Frey has carried on from where he left off. This drive has brought him into some violent collisions with the New Deal labor program. He has vigorously assailed the Labor Relations board and the wages and hours act.

Mr. Frey has been known as a "labor educator" for many years. Among the half-dozen books and scores of labor tracts and pamphlets that he has written, there is only one that deviates from orthodox conservative opinion, "Bankers' Domination," written in 1933 and charging the depression to the bankers. He is 70 years old. He was editor of the Molders' Journal from 1903 to 1927. He has lectured on trade unionism at the University of Chicago, and was president of the Ohio State Federation of Labor from 1924 to 1928.

Explosive Dusts

Among the various household dusts that have been known to explode when coming in contact with a flame or a spark are those of face powder, chocolate, dried milk, sugar and flour, says Collier's.

Not so long ago in England a woman threw a bag of old flour down the incinerator shaft of an apartment house and the resultant explosion killed her and three other tenants, and wrecked the building.

Wonders:
If Mr. Bullard can't teach the boys how to get out of entanglements now that he has had some experience.

If Billy C. and Chancey Ruth had rather stay in than quit talking in the study hall. From the looks of the detention hall it seems that more people need to change their talking period to after school.

Why Mrs. Owen put on her new dress the day the Supervisor came.

Why it is that Wayne Ray spends so much time with Guy and D. vs.

Why Jane Ruth catches Billy Bridges eye when she enters the study hall.

Billy Bob Harrison is seen with Edith Swafford quite often; I wonder if Dan Cupid is really working on them.

Why Imogene is always seen out on the campus at noon watching some of the boys play football. It usually happens that

Ray Kinder is usually out there. If the case between Albert Martin and Margie Burdine is really as serious as it looks sometimes.

FHT Party

The members of F H T Club were entertained with a party in the high school building, Jan 16. It was an "I Am an American" party. The home economics room was decorated with red, white and blue crepe paper and balloons. The center of the back of the room was covered with white crepe paper and the words "I Am an American" were fixed in red on the paper.

The first game we played was Professor Quis. Colleen Baker was the professor and Mr. Bullard was her helper. The prizes were candy kisses.

For the initiation the new members were lined up and each was given a large, juicy slice of onion. Then they had to roll a spool of thread across the gymnasium floor with their nose. Then they were taken into a room lighted by candles. The old members, dressed in sheets, gave them some suggestions on how to become good members of the F H T Club. After the initiation a very delicious supper was served to members of the F H T Club, Miss Bergner, and our guests: Miss Mathis, Miss Olesk, Mr. Bullard, Mr. Gregg and some high school girls.

Deputy State Supt. Visits School

Mr. Lofland, Deputy State Superintendent of Texas Public Schools, accompanied by Ruth Richardson, County Superintendent, visited the Hedley Public Schools on the afternoon of Jan 16. Mr. Lofland made a thorough investigation of every room and inspected examples of the students' work. Since he offered no adverse criticism while he was here, the teachers feel that his report will be favorable.

Assembly

The assembly for Thursday morning was given by the Junior class. The program consisted of three parts. First was songs by the student body. They were "America", "The More We Get Together", and "The Eyes of Texas". Second part consisted of the prophecy of 1941 Juniors ten years from now, having a reunion. The third was a group of Junior girls, Camilla Doherty, Colleen Baker, June Kirkpatrick, Chancey Ruth Key and Jane Ruth Hall who sang "Only Forever," and "There I Go." Last was a piano duet played by Jane Ruth Hall and Chancey Ruth Key.

Making a Frame For Rug Hooking

By RUTH WYETH SPEARS
TWO of the nicest hook rugs I have were made without a frame. Many rug makers like to work this way so that they may turn the work as they do different parts of the design. Then, too, whenever rug hookers meet there is sure to be an exchange of treasured bits of colored fabrics. In no time at all a rug making group is meeting and it is difficult to carry a frame when one goes visiting.

You can see by this that I rather favor working without a frame though I know perfectly well that it is more efficient to work with one. Almost all professionals have frames that rest on a permanent base. I have sketched here the type of frame that most amateurs use. You can buy the corner clamps at the hardware store and put the frame together quickly. It may be the size of your rug or smaller. If it is smaller, just part of the rug is stretched on the frame at one time.

SEWING Book 5 tells you exactly how to prepare the burrap for a hooked rug like the one in this sketch and gives much other valuable information on rug hooking. There is still another hooked rug design in Book 5: also a braided and a crocheted rug. Send order to:

COLD-WEATHER HOSPITALITY (See Recipes Below)

What if the radio weatherman does predict a drop to 10 degrees below zero? That is no reason to put all hospitality in cold storage, too. Not if our grandmothers could have gotten together even when they had to drive the horses through the snow and stay the whole day!

And, no matter how blustery the weather, clubs will still have their afternoon meetings, there will be cheerful teas in church parlors, and friends will drop in informally to spend the evening. If it is warm inside and there is fragrant, inviting food in the offing, the sharpness of the wind won't matter.

You will want to have a few new recipes at your fingers' ends to make such cold weather hospitality easy. If you are feeding the club, using the bridge table method, you might serve beef creole in individual rice rings, a plate of celery hearts, carrot sticks and stuffed olives, together with hot rolls of your own making. Let the dessert course be coffee and an eggnog pie—a creamy yellow chiffon pie with a thin coating of whipped cream and a dusting of nutmeg over the top.

If you're planning a tea, remember that hot Russian tea is super-fine with cinnamon doughnuts, split and toasted. For informal evening affairs at your own fireside, hot coffee cakes with currant jelly and coffee will be enough to serve. If you have a wooden cheese board or a handsome plate, show it off with a collection of cheese and crackers and a bowl of assorted fruit like that shown in the picture above.

Russian Tea.

- (Makes 14 servings)
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 cup water
- 1 3-inch stick cinnamon
- 3/4 cup orange juice (3 oranges)
- 6 tablespoons lemon juice (2 lemons)
- 1 12-ounce can pineapple juice (1 1/2 cups)
- 1 1/2 quarts water
- 1 cup strong tea infusion
- 1 lemon (for garnishing)

Boil 1/2 cup of the water, with sugar and stick cinnamon for 5 minutes. Add juice of oranges, lemons, and pineapple juice. Boil orange and lemon rinds in 1/2 quart of the water for 3 minutes. Strain and combine with the fruit juice mixture. Add the remaining 1/2 quart of water.

Set aside. Just before serving, heat the fruit juice mixture and combine with the tea infusion. Make the infusion, pour one cup of rapidly boiling water over 4 level teaspoons of tea. Let steep 3 minutes, then stir briefly and strain. Serve the tea hot in tall glasses or cups (3/4 cup to a serving) and garnish each with a slice of lemon.

Eggnog Pie.

- 1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
- 1/4 cup cold water
- 4 eggs
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup milk
- 3/4 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1/2 cup whipping cream

Let gelatin soak in cold water for 5 minutes. Beat egg yolks until light; stir in 1/2 cup of sugar and salt. Gradually add milk and cook over boiling water until it is the consistency of custard, about 5 minutes. Stir constantly during cooking. Add softened gelatin to custard mixture, stirring until it is completely dissolved, then add nutmeg and vanilla. Chill the filling until it is partially congealed. Beat egg whites until frothy. Add 1/2 cup of sugar gradually, beating until the meringue stands in stiff peaks and will not fall when the bowl is partially inverted. Fold meringue into partially congealed custard mixture, pour into a baked 9-inch pie shell and chill in the refrigerator for 2 hours or longer. When ready to serve, spread a thin layer of whipped cream over the top and sprinkle with additional nutmeg.

Streusel Coffee Cake.

- (1 9-inch cake)
- 1 1/2 cups general purpose flour
- 3 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 1/4 cup shortening
- 1 egg
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Sift flour once before measuring. Then sift flour, baking powder, salt and sugar together. Cut in shortening with two knives or a pastry blender (or rub it in with the fingers) until the mixture is like coarse cornmeal. Blend in well-beaten egg mixed with milk. Then stir in vanilla and beat just enough to mix well. Pour the batter into a well-greased 9-inch layer cake pan. Sprinkle with streusel topping. Bake 25 to 30 minutes in a moderate oven (375 degrees).

Streusel Topping.

- 1/2 cup brown sugar (firmly packed)
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 2 teaspoons cinnamon
- 1/2 cup chopped nuts
- 2 tablespoons butter (melted)

Mix flour, sugar and cinnamon together. Blend in melted butter and stir in chopped nuts.

Pecan Confections.

- (Makes 2 dozen 2-inch cookies)
- 1 egg white
- 1 cup brown sugar (firmly packed)
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 1 cup chopped pecans

Beat the egg white until it will stand in stiff peaks, then gradually beat in with a rotary beater the brown sugar. Stir in flour, salt and chopped pecans. Drop the mixture from the tip of a spoon onto greased cookie sheets, spacing the cookies at least 2 inches apart. Bake in a very slow oven (275 degrees) for 25 minutes. Cool somewhat, then remove from the tin onto a cake cooler covered with waxed paper.

Cheese Board.

- 1 3-ounce package cream cheese
- 1 4-ounce package Liederkranz cheese
- 1 8-ounce package Swiss cheese
- 4 1/4-ounce wedges of Camembert cheese
- 12 radishes
- Crackers

Arrange as desired on a large plate or wooden cheese tray.

Rice Rings.

- 3 cups cooked rice (hot)
- 3/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 tablespoon butter
- 2 egg yolks
- 3 tablespoons cream

Add salt and melted butter to cooked rice. Beat egg yolks with cream and stir into rice mixture. Grease 6 individual ring molds and pack rice in firmly. Place in pan of hot water for 8 to 10 minutes. Remove from molds and fill centers with beef creole.

Ask Me Another A General Quiz

The Questions

1. What is the population of Greece?
2. What standards are used by the Bureau of the Census in computing the number of illiterates in the country?
3. Under what conditions may a private in the U. S. army wed?
4. What does a panegyric piece of writing do?
5. "Now God be praised, I die happy" are the dying words of what general?
6. President Andrew Johnson escaped impeachment by how many votes?
7. Does the moon, when it is half full, shed half as much light on the earth as it does when it reaches the full stage?
8. Which is the world's largest flower?

The Answers

1. The population of Greece is 6,204,684.
2. The Bureau of the Census rules that any person 10 years of age or older who cannot read or write in any language is an illiterate.
3. With his commanding officer's permission.
4. Praise.
5. James Wolfe (after his victory at Quebec).
6. One. The vote was 35 to 19; a two-thirds majority was necessary for conviction.
7. No, a half-full moon sheds only about one-ninth as much light on the earth as one that is full.
8. The krubi which grows in Sumatra and takes 12 years to bloom. It is over 8 feet high and 12 feet in diameter. It is bell-shaped and has a disagreeable odor.

ONE special beauty of this design (No. 8836) is that you can make it up in household cottons for home wear, cutting the sleeves off short, and in spun rayon or thin wool for runabout, cutting the sleeves long! And it's so easy to make that you're certain to repeat it many times.

Belted only in the back, with lengthening bodice panels that accent height, thus making you look slimmer, and gathers beneath the yoke portions, this dress is cleverly detailed to give exactly the effect that women's sizes require. The v-neckline is finished with a deeply notched collar, the sleeves are trimmed with narrow cuffs. And you'll find it one of the most comfortable fashions you ever put on!

HOUSEHOLD QUESTIONS

Best time to clean the egg beater is immediately after using it—before the egg dries and makes washing difficult.

Cookies should be cooled completely before storing in a covered jar or box.

Save left-over griddle batter and use it for dipping chops, cutlets and so on.

To get the best results from electric light bulbs, remove them and dust the glass part occasionally. At long intervals they may be given a bath with a damp cloth, but be sure the bulbs are dry before replacing them and keep the damp cloth away from all sockets.

Fruit gelatin mixtures gain in favor and nutritive value if fruit juices are substituted for the liquid called for in the recipe. Left-over canned fruit juices are as good as juice from fresh fruit.

Be careful not to season meat gravies so much that they lose their characteristic flavors. Usually salt and pepper or paprika are enough. If you like a prepared meat sauce add only a dash. Better yet, pass the sauce and let the family use what they please.

Try this candle arrangement for a youngster's birthday cake: Arrange small candles to form the numerals telling the age. Or place them on the cake to form the child's initials. If the first name is short it can be spelled out with tiny candles or small, hard candies.

To remove mustard stains from linen, soak the linen as quickly as possible in cold water to cover. This loosens the mustard so that it will come out when laundered in the usual way—in plenty of warm water and soap suds.

Star Dust
STAGE SCREEN RADIO

By VIRGINIA VALE
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

WHEN talk began of 50,000 airplanes a year, the American public was surprised to learn that it takes at least five men on the ground to keep one man in the air, but the picture makers of Hollywood considered the number rather small; you see, they use anywhere from thirty to forty persons behind the camera to keep one actor in front of it.

In a scene made for "That Uncertain Feeling," in which Merle Oberon appeared alone before the camera, there were 35 persons on the set to help him make a shot which will last 15 seconds on the screen. If you're interested, the list included two assistant directors, a cameraman, a camera operator, two camera assistants, ten electricians, three carpenters, two property men, four sound men, a painter, a wardrobe woman, a makeup man, a body makeup woman, a hairdresser, a still photographer, a playback operator, a pianist for off-stage sound and a stand-in. The thirty-fifth was Director Ernst Lubitsch.

Betty Brewer's ship has really come in at last. Betty's the attractive but not beautiful youngster who made such a hit in "Rangers of Fortune," remember? She's been the bread winner for her family of five for a year—she's 13 now. Her family migrated from Joplin, Mo., to Sacramento, Calif., in a flivver, but her father couldn't find work there and Betty began singing at conventions and banquets.

She went to Hollywood, sang on the radio, lost her job and had to go on relief. She was singing on the streets for pennies when Sam Wood, the director, discovered her. Her second picture was "The Roundup"; she's working now in "Las Vegas Nights," and next will do "Two Bad Angels," and she's just signed a brand new contract with Paramount.

Katharine Hepburn has had her revenge on the people who not so awfully long ago considered her "poison at the box office"; her new Metro picture, "The Philadelphia Story," topped all records for New York's huge Radio City Music Hall for the last five years. Cary Grant, James Stewart, Roland Young and Ruth Hussey give her perfect support. Miss Hepburn evidently knew that she had a good thing when she found "The Philadelphia Story"; she is still starring in the stage version—she is part owner of the play—and she is full owner of the picture, as well as its star.

The success of "Teeny," Fibber McGee and Molly's little "I betcha!" girl, is no flash in the pan. Marian Jordan, who plays "Teeny," as well as "Molly," was one of radio's pioneers in adding a child's voice to her repertoire of characters. She did her little-girl routine fully 12 years ago in Chicago as part of Kallenmeyer's Kindergarten, one of radio's first network children shows.

Fibber McGee and Molly weren't even names on a radio script until six years later, when Don Quinn, the Jordans' script writer, thought them up.

If the "Quiz Kids" are among your radio favorites prepare to see them on the screen before long. They're making a series of shorts at Paramount's Long Island studios. The star performer is sure to be that very young man, Gerard Darrow, who ranks with John Kieran of "Information Please" when it comes to natural history.

Don't be surprised if you happen to meet your favorite radio stars and discover that their voices sound altogether different than they do when you hear them on the screen or radio. Rudy Vallee, John Barrymore and Billie Burke are outstanding examples of this difference in voices; theirs are all pitched lower naturally than they are when they come over the air.

ODDS AND ENDS
Franchot Tone has signed up to make two pictures a year for five years for Universal.
Charles Boyer co-stars with Deanna Durbin in "Ready for Romance"—which Deanna is.
James Cagney and the newly-wed Betty Davis will co-star for the first time in "The Bride Came C. O. D."
Bing Crosby and Bob Hope are going to play golf for Britain. They've announced that they will begin a golfing tour in March, teamed with two golf professionals, the proceeds going to British war relief.

MID-WINTER MENUS
(See Recipes Below)

You may have a mental filing system for your menus, or you may jot down your meal ideas and slip them into a recipe box. Either way, the chances are that mid-winter finds you in the market for some fresh and workable ideas for what to feed the family.

First and foremost, you will want your winter menus to be warming and heartening. The calorie content may be a little higher because more energy is needed to supply heat and because the cold stimulates us to more activity. Vitamin suppliers need to be carefully watched. With your garden adrift with snow, not so many fresh vegetables and fruits will find their way to your table without a special effort on your part.

Even if fresh peas, green beans and vine-ripened tomatoes are out of reach, almost any market boasts whole bins filled with apples, sweet potatoes, cabbage and carrots—all of them potent sources of vitamins. Plenty of grapefruit, oranges and tomato juice will help to replace the fresh tomatoes.

But now for the menus! Two are dinners—one built around a fragrant, red-brown dish of Hungarian goulash served with plenty of hot buttered noodles; the other, sausages baked under a covering of Yorkshire pudding. The third meal is a hot soup luncheon.

- Hungarian Goulash
- Buttered Noodles
- Salad Bowl (spinach, carrot, raw cauliflower)
- Brazil Nut Cherry Pie
- Coffee Milk
- Yorkshire Sausages
- Canned Green Beans with Mustard Butter Sauce
- Whole Carrots
- Red Cabbage Salad
- Honey Spice Cake
- Coffee Milk
- Tomato Chicken Soup
- Swiss Cheese Sandwiches
- Grapefruit and Apple Salad
- Frosted Ginger Bars
- Tea Milk
- Red Cabbage Salad. (Serves 5 to 6)

2 cups red cabbage (shredded fine)
3 tart, red cooking apples (unpeeled) (diced)
1 cup grated carrot
4 tablespoons brown sugar
3 tablespoons vinegar
2 tablespoons French dressing (prepared)

Buy a small, solid young head of red cabbage, one with thin, tender leaves. Remove core, and shred very fine. Place shredded cabbage in ice water for 30 minutes to crisp it. Combine cabbage, diced apple and grated carrot. Mix brown sugar, vinegar and French dressing and pour over salad. Toss lightly, until dressing is thoroughly mixed with salad.

Hungarian Goulash (Serves 4 to 5)
1 1/2 pounds beef round (cubed)
3 tablespoons fat
3 beef bouillon cubes
3 cups hot water
1/2 clove garlic
1/2 bay leaf
1/2 teaspoon salt
Few grains cayenne pepper
2 cups cubed potatoes
3 tablespoons butter
1 1/2 tablespoons flour
1 tablespoon paprika
1 cup canned tomatoes (sieved)

Have beef cut in 1 1/2-inch cubes. Brown on all sides in hot fat, then add bouillon cubes dissolved in hot water. Add garlic, bay leaf, salt and cayenne pepper and simmer the mixture for 2 hours. Remove garlic and bay leaf, and add potatoes cut in 1/2-inch cubes. Cook 30 minutes, then remove 1/4 cup of broth from pan and cool. Combine with melted butter, flour, and paprika and blend into a smooth paste. Add to goulash, stirring constantly; cook until thick, about 5 minutes. Add sieved tomato and cook 10 more minutes.

Brazil Nut Cherry Pie.
(Makes 1 9-inch pie)
2 1/2 cups sour, red cherries (canned)
1 cup cherry juice
3 tablespoons cornstarch
1 cup sugar
1 tablespoon butter
1/2 cup sliced Brazil nuts
Drain cherries, and set aside the juice. Blend cornstarch and sugar in a saucepan; add cherry juice. Place over heat and cook, stirring constantly until thickened, about 3 minutes. Remove from the heat, add drained cherries, butter and Brazil nuts. Pour the filling into a 9-inch pie plate lined with pastry. Moisten the edge of the pie with cold water; arrange lattice of pastry strips across pie. Press down rim with fork. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees Fahrenheit) 15 minutes, then in moderate oven (350 degrees Fahrenheit) for 30 minutes.

Honey Spice Cake.
3 cups sifted cake flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon soda
1 1/2 teaspoons cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon cloves
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
3/4 cup butter or other shortening
1/2 cup sugar
3/4 cup strained honey
2 egg yolks, well beaten
1/2 cup chopped nut meats
1 teaspoon vanilla
3/4 cup water
2 egg whites (stiffly beaten)
Sift cake flour once, add baking powder, salt, soda, and spices and sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add honey gradually. Beat after each addition. Add egg yolks, nuts, and vanilla; beat well. Add flour, alternately with water, a small amount at a time. Beat after each addition until smooth. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake in a paper-lined greased loaf pan (9 by 13 by 2 inches) in moderate oven (350 degrees) for 50 minutes.

Tomato Chicken Soup.
(Serves 6)
2 tablespoons onion (finely chopped)
1 tablespoon butter

2 No. 1 cans condensed chicken soup
1 No. 1 can condensed tomato soup
1 1/2 cups water
1 1/2 cup light cream or milk

1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon white pepper
Saute onion in butter until yellow and transparent. Add chicken soup, tomato soup, water, milk, salt and white pepper. Stir thoroughly and heat to serving temperature.

Apricot Sweet Potatoes.
(Serves 6)
6 medium-sized sweet potatoes
1/2 pound dried apricots
3/4 cup water
3/4 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
Peel sweet potatoes and cook in boiling salted water (1 teaspoon per quart) until tender, about 35 minutes. Mash with a potato masher. Cover apricots with water and let soak for 30 minutes. Then simmer until tender, about 25 minutes. Mash the fruit to a pulp and add sugar and salt. Whip apricot pulp with sweet potatoes until very well blended. Serve very hot. Apricot sweet potatoes are especially good with ham and broccoli.

WHEN DAUGHTER LEARNS TO COOK

Pinafore-Jumper For the Little Tot

NO WONDER she looks sweet as pie and decidedly pleased with herself! This little miss, with the bows in her curls and her doll by the arm, is wearing the newest and best of pinafore-jumper fashions, and one that you should make up immediately for your own small daughter. The pinafore-jumper is so deliciously full, below that down-scooped cut in the front, and the sash bow in the back accents its saucy flare. The little guimpe is plain and tailored, as it should be for school and kindergarten, with a round, tailored collar and a little neck bow.

Send for the pattern right away (the number is 8860). Make the pinafore-jumper of checked gingham, printed calico or plain chambray, and trim with braid or bias binding. Repeat the guimpe several times in batiste, lawn, dimity or linen.

Pattern No. 8860 is designed for sizes 2, 4, 6 and 8 years. Size 4 requires 2 1/2 yards of 35-inch material for pinafore-jumper; 1 3/4 yards trimming; 1/4 yard for blouse. Send order to:

Bloomin' Parrot Was Posing Its Lesson On

It had spent hours trying to teach his parrot to say "Hello, Uncle," ready for the visit of his wealthy relative.

Uncle came—the parrot was dumb. It seized the bird by the throat, "Say 'Hello, Uncle,' or I'll wring your bloomin' neck," he roared.

And when silence continued he twisted the bird's neck and threw it into the towel pen.

Other squawks drew him to the towel pen next morning. On the ground were three dead hens. The parrot had a fourth by the neck, shaking him and shouting: "Say, 'Hello, Uncle,' or I'll wring your bloomin' neck."

Accident

A near serious accident occurred Monday morning when the Giles school bus, traveling south and east, was driven by Chester Hill, going east, crashed into each other at the intersection of 2nd and Jones streets. Both bus and car were badly damaged. The bus was driven by Mr. Wilmoth of the Giles grammar school pupils, several of whom suffered scratches and minor injuries. The Giles school has been dismissed pending repair of the bus or purchase of a new one.
