Fariletta Mae Seets

Fariletta Mae Seets of New in 14 years of age, passed away Sunday in a Memphis hospital after a lengthy illness. She was the daughter of W. E. Seets of New in and was a niece of Mrs. Marshall Stone and Mrs. A. B. Harris of Hedley.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday from the First Baptist church at Memphis by Rev. A. L. Teaf of Hedley. Flower girls were her classmates.

Interment was made in Memphis cemetery under direction of Womack Funeral Home.

She is survived by her father and one brother, Charles. Her mother preceded her in death in 1932.

The Informer extends sincere sympathy to the bereaved.

Harrison-Wade

Miss La Verne Wade and Herbert H. Harrison, both of Hedley, were united in marriage Saturday at Newlin by the bride's grandfather, Rev. L. J. Crawford. A group of relatives attended the couple.

The bride wore a blue dress with accessories to match. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a trip to Texline.

Mrs. Harrison is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. F. Wade. She attended Hedley high school, graduating with the class of 1940.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Harrison. He attended school in Shamrock and Hedley.

They plan to make their home near Shamrock.

Both bride and groom have many friends who will join us in extending congratulations and best wishes.

Church of the Nazarene News

I am glad to report that we had a very fine revival, and that the church is doing fine. We took a number into the church and several new members to the Sunday School. Every one enjoyed hearing Bro. Whitley, and the congregation voted Sunday night for him to return in the summer. We take this opportunity to say thanks, one and all for your cooperation during the meeting.

Remember us also in our regular services. Come and worship with us. There is always a friend by we come awaiting you.

Pastor Betty Ellis

M. & M. Store Sold

J. B. Masterson has sold the stock and fixtures of the M & M Dry Goods Co. to P. F. Allread of Ft. Worth, who plans to move the stock there Monday.

Mr. Masterson states that he deeply appreciates the patronage given him during the 31 years he has been in business here, and extends best wishes to all his customers. He is retiring from business, but will continue to make his home here, devoting himself to looking after his farming interests.

Mrs. Fannie Franklin

Saint Jo, Texas, Feb. 2—Mrs. Fannie Jane Franklin, 81, well known pioneer woman of Montague county, died at her home here at 1:35 o'clock this morning after a lengthy illness.

She and her husband, who died in 1918, owned considerable holdings of property including some oil land in Cooke and Montague counties.

Mrs. Franklin was born March 9, 1859. She had lived here for 20 years.

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Rev. Shelby West, assisted by Rev. Lee Morris and Rev. Albert McOlelland, will conduct the rites from the Baptist church.

Burial will be in the Aber cemetery near Sulcher.

Surviving are three sons, Bernie and Guin Franklin of Saint Jo and W. D. Franklin of Hedley; three daughters, Mrs. Jewel Collier of Illinois Bend, Mrs. Will Walker of Hedley and Mrs. Jessie Harris of Gainesville; a sister, a brother, seven grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Baptist Church Notes

Last Sunday morning the pastor used Job 21:15b as a basis for his message on "Does Prayer Pay?" At the evening hour, his subject was "The Secret of Paul's Success." He said that concentration was the one word that revealed the secret: 1 Singleness of belief—"I know Him"; 2 Singleness of action—"This one thing I do"; 3 Singleness of message—"I determined not to know any thing among you save Jesus Christ and Him crucified."

A Sun Beam Band and a Girls Auxiliary (G. A.) were organized last Monday. There were eleven present for the Sun Beam Band, and seven present for the G. A. The future meetings will be held on Wednesday afternoons, the first and third Wednesdays in each month.

The Woman's Missionary Union of the association will have its quarterly meeting at the local church on Tuesday Feb. 11 beginning at 10:00 a. m.

The Associational Brotherhood will meet at the local church at 8 p. m. Tuesday, Feb. 11.

A welcome is extended to all to attend all of the services of our church.

Next Sunday Feb. 9, the local church is taking a special offering to provide pieces of worship and workers in all of the new military camps in Texas. The goal for this work among the Baptist churches in Texas is $50,000. Each member is urged to have a part in the worthy cause.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS By Edward C. Wayne

Both Sides Are Heard on 'Lend-Lease' As Congress Continues Open Hearings; Reports Reach U. S. of Italian Revolts; FDR Meets British Envoy on U. S. Arrival

EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper. (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

LEND-LEND: Line Up

To the administration's lineup which included the chief cabinet members and Bullitt, Dorothy Thompson and General O'Ryan (who urged that we get in the war right away), the rebuttal forces brought several notable figures, but none who produced the sensation that Colonel Lindbergh.

In fact, the much-heralded statement by Ambassador Kennedy fell far short of being critical enough of the administration to suit the lend-lease opponents, as he generally favored the plan, only thought the President's powers should be limited.

Bar Lindbergh minced no words, though the administration adherents fired questions at him, hoping to trap the flying colonel into some admission that he was "pro-Nazi" and "anti-British."

The closest they came was when Bloom asked him point-blank: "Who do you hope wins the war?" And to this Lindbergh said: "I hope neither side wins. I am hoping for a negotiated peace."

They went back to "Lindy's" previous address, in which he had showed more marked anti-British sentiments, and all they could get was:

"I admit that if I had it to do over I would not have made that speech." Lindbergh's plan was simple—that we stop all aid to Britain, disassociate ourselves entirely from the war, let it muddle itself out as best it could.

At the same time, he urged, let us manufacture a fleet of 20,000 planes, 10,000 on the first line and the same in reserve, and a two-ocean navy, with plenty of bases in North and South America. Let us take our stand on the Monroe Doctrine, and make ourselves strong to attack, entering a war immediately, however, if the Monroe Doctrine is abused.

When the anti-bill smoke blew away, Lindbergh stood as the chief witness.

BULLITT: Then—and Now
Former French Ambassador Bullitt in testifying before the lend-lease bill investigation of the house foreign affairs committee, told Chairman Bloom that he was in entire accord with President Roosevelt's plan for all-out aid to Britain since war.

He used the strongest phrases, such as "this terrible, terrible emergency," and stressed the need of "moving time" for the United States to prepare.

He said that if England fell, we must be prepared to defend these shores by 1946 at least. He asserted he was of the view held by many that if England fell, the British navy also must fall, if not actually in the fall of England, then that it could be rendered useless because the Nazis would threaten the officers and crews of surviving vessels with reprisals against their relatives ashore.

Bullitt asserted that therefore, unless Britain were to survive, this nation would find itself with a one-ocean navy, needing two. He also asserted that during 1941, he would find the Japanese navy raised to equal force with ours.

This evidence was given extremely unusual point when Chairman Bloom

Foreign Jottings...

Rome—The Italian government ruled Cecil Brown, CBA board officer, off the air because, it was said, the government did not like the "general attitude" of his broadcasts. London—The Daily Worker, communist paper, limited to a single sheet, was published in its last issue with a guard of Scotland Yard detectives standing in the newspaper's offices.

introduced a letter he had written to Acting Secretary of State Moore in 1936 in which he gave Moore the inside "dope" on the French attitude toward a struggle that everyone believed inevitable.

In this letter Bullitt had expressed the belief that the French were strongly depending on promises of American aid in the form of a navy and army, and pointed out that he was just as surely promising the French that they could count on nothing of the kind.

The closing paragraphs of his letter, however, expressed the conviction

WITNESS BULLITT Candid camera photos of the former U. S. ambassador to France as he testified on the Lend-Lease bill.

tion that Britain, also, was counting on American help and that this would not be forthcoming. Yet Bullitt was standing before the committee advocating a course of all-out aid to Britain, a course to which President Roosevelt was committed.

ITALY: Germans Take Hold

Most sensational of the ever-recurring reports of serious unrest and disaffection inside Italy culminated in a dual report (emanating from a radio source in Belgrade, and confirmed by N. Y. Times) that three Italian generals had been shot by Nazi soldiers in rioting in northern Italy.

Guardedly, from the capital of Yugoslavia, came the report which tended to show that Italy, on the verge of internal collapse following the reverses in Greece and Albania, also on the African fronts, is now virtually under Nazi occupation and control.

That this long has been so was often previously hinted at, but that it was now a completed fact appeared reasonable and certain after the just-concluded conference between Mussolini and Hitler, so closely followed by the reports from Belgrade.

These showed that the civilians and soldiers of the army in northern Italy, in such centers as Milan and Turin, were practically in open revolt against continuance of the war. They were being subdued and fought in bloody street battles by Nazi troops with the aid of Fascist blackshirts, who function in similar manner to the Nazi storm-troopers who quelled anti-Nazi fermentations in Germany some years ago.

A long-range view of the situation also compelled the belief, ever growing, that the flop of Italy as a war partner and agent in world conquest would leave Germany alone in the fight, but by no means less powerful, for German leaders, with Italian troops organized and led by Nazi-trained groups, could still conduct the Albanian and African campaigns, and certainly, it was held, not less successfully than the Italians had been doing under their own training and leadership.

PRECEDENTS: Shatter Again

President Roosevelt, sending a dramatic situation in the sudden and unheralded arrival of Lord and Lady Halifax on the King George V, Britain's newest battleship, right in his front yard (Annapolis), broke all precedents by auto-riding to greet him, and boarding the Potomac to make it a "water's edge" greeting.

The battlewagon was anchored off Annapolis by 3 p. m., but it was 7:10 p. m. before the lanky British ambassador, preceded by attractive Lady Halifax, descended the Potomac's gangplank and greeted newsmen with a prepared statement for their attention.

He read a good deal of this to them, while they took notes, then a voice said "The President is coming." Lord Halifax hastily stuffed his notes back into his pocket again, told the reporters carbon copies would be available to them on the dock, and joined the President.

Dressed by U. S.

NORTH DORSET, ENGLAND.—Shirley Cook, six-year-old Cockney—like many another English lass of 1941—is pictured warmly clad through the efforts of the United States Red Cross. Now living in North Dorset because her own neighborhood, "Somehow (else) in England," has been bombed, the tot seemed pleased with her pet and her clothes—"Made in the United States."

RUMANIA: Follows Suit

The Rumanian situation, similar to that in Italy, was quite as dramatic, and had the most unusual feature of showing the Germans apparently sitting on the fence, prepared instantly to throw in their hand with either of the rebel factions which might get the upper hand.

Where in Italy the army leaders were apparently turning anti-Mussolini and anti-Hitler, in Rumania both factions, that led by Antonescu and that led by Sima, claimed that they bore the official ukase of Hitler.

Sima, with his Iron Guard legionnaires, attacked Jews and looted Jewish homes in the approved Nazi fashion, but just as soon as the Antonescu forces gained the upper hand, the government leader asserted in his address to the people that he had "the favoring shadow of Der Fuehrer" hovering over him.

The Rumanian situation still bore many traces of anarchy and chaos, despite the fact that Antonescu seemed in the saddle, and one thing seemed certain, that before long Rumania, like so many other nations, would lose its identity and simply become another base for Germany to loot for supplies, another base for German troops and munitions, another link in the German chain of conquered peoples.

Sitting right in the center of the strategically important Balkans, and the only really productive territory in the whole 280,000 square miles, the importance of Rumania could not be overexaggerated in the Nazi scheme of things.

It was another important well of supplies of oil and wheat, two tremendous essentials needed by Germany in prosecution of the war.

INVASION: Three Dates

Three sources, all of them for various reasons worth quoting, gave various versions of the Nazi plans to invade England, but all of them were agreed that a serious and desperate attempt is to be made, and probably soon.

Ronald Cross, British minister of shipping, said it would come in 60 to 90 days, and that while the British would be able, he thought, to beat it off, it would cost England about 250,000 men and maybe half of the fleet.

He stressed the need of American aid in building ships to meet the shortage that would result. Lord Halifax also gave the 60 to 90 day time and set it as "probably in May," and also expressed the belief that England would be successful in beating back the invaders, and also urged full U. S. aid.

The third authority was a Nazi captured air pilot, who leaped from a prisoners' train into a Canadian snowbank head-first, ferried himself across the raging St. Lawrence rapids on a stolen boat, and was captured in Ogdensburg, N. Y. The youthful pilot, Baron Von Werra, said he believed the invasion attempt would come in March, would last two weeks and would be successful. He said he was trying to escape back to Germany because he "wanted to be in on the fun."

Americana...

Detroit—Charles J. Kalish, 23, got a 20-week contract at $200 a week for a part in a radio show. The next day he boarded a train for Camp Custer—in an army uniform—a private.

Hollywood—The first film actor called in the draft was Paul Barrett. He was playing the part of a Nazi storm trooper in a war picture when he got his marching orders

THE TRUTH SIMPLY TOLD Today's popularity of Doan's Pills, after many years of world-wide use, surely must be accepted as evidence of satisfactory use. And favorable public opinion supports that of the able physicians who test the value of Doan's under exacting laboratory conditions. These physicians, too, approve every word of advertising you read, the objective of which is only to recommend Doan's Pills as a good diuretic treatment for disorder of the kidney function and for relief of the pain and worry it causes. If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove waste that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole body suffers when kidneys lag, and diuretic medication would be more often employed. Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns of disturbed kidney function. You may suffer sleeping headache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up at night, swelling, painness under the eyes—feel weak, nervous, all played out. Use Doan's Pills. It is better to rely on a medicine that has won world-wide acclaim than on something less favorably known. Ask your neighbor!

Pull the Trigger on Lazy Bowels, and Comfort Stomach, too

When constipation brings on acid indigestion, stomach upset, bloating, dizzy spells, gas, coated tongue, sour taste and bad breath, your stomach is probably "crying the blues" because your bowels don't move. It calls for Laxative-Senna to pull the trigger on those lazy bowels, combined with Syrup Pepsin to save your touchy stomach from further distress. For years, many Doctors have used pepsin compounds as vehicles, or carriers to make other medicines agreeable to your stomach. So be sure your laxative contains Syrup Pepsin. Insist on Dr. Caldwell's Laxative-Senna combined with Syrup Pepsin. See how wonderfully the Laxative-Senna wakes up lazy nerves and muscles in your intestines to bring welcome relief from constipation. And the good old Syrup Pepsin makes this laxative so comfortable and easy on your stomach. Even snicky children love the taste of this pleasant family laxative. Buy Dr. Caldwell's Laxative-Senna at your drugstore today. Try one laxative that comforts your stomach, too.

Wonder:
 Why some of the girls can't see that they are treading on dangerous grounds when they go with J. M. Ida Lou, you should not be so judgmental.

Why a tan V8 Ford is seen at the school house so often when the girls are having their noon hour. Well folks if you really want to know just ask Flora Bell Morgan and Lucile Phelan because they are usually seen in it.

Why it is that the lovers get to moving so fast when Mrs. Owen comes down the hall.

What has happened that Billy Bridges doesn't need to speak to Camilla about his lessons so often. Just why should Ida Lou welcome the chance to slap O. L.'s "sassy face" in the chapel program.

Why should Travis Alexander demand that the bus driver turn the lights on in the bus Tuesday night, we'd like to know.

Could it be that Billy Clifford and V. A. are lining up with the "courtship party"? They give Mrs. Owens plenty of anxiety as king to Chancey Ruth and Colonel.

Josie Plunk Is Nominee For D. A. R. Pilgrimage

Josie Plunk is the senior whose name will be submitted from our high school as a possible representative from Texas for the Citizenship Pilgrimage to Washington D. C. This pilgrimage is sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution, and the trip will be made later in the spring.

Josie was chosen by the class as the most outstanding girl in scholarship character and citizenship. She received two thirds of the vote of the entire class.

It is our hope that Josie's good fairy will put her name in the hands of the one who draws the lucky slip from the box containing the names the Texas high school senior nominees.

Assembly

The program Thursday morning was a convention of famous comic characters. Mrs. Owen succeeded in securing the presence of the famous characters and their assistants. Since we are not allowed to read, here at school, of their pranks and antics they demonstrated them in person for our entertainment. These comic characters who had part in the convention were:

Skippy—Bernard Adamson and Floyd Sims
 Willets—V. A. Hansard, Merle Peabody, Joan Shaw and Mattie I Mobley
 Alexander Smart—Jane Ruth Hall, Paul Dishman
 Mutt and Jeff—Wayne Ray and James Biggs

Boots and her Baddies—Peggy Doherty, Billy C. Johnson, Ida Lou Johnson and O. L. McQueen
 Blendie—Keith Bain, Billy Bridges and Herbert Saunders
 Popeye—Billy Biffin, Leora Adamson, Edith Swafford and Robert Grimley
 Moon Mullins—Josie Plunk, Carter Hoffmann, Mary Frances

Meeke and Albert Martin.

The program was announced by Adell Myers. Chancey Ruth Key and Ida Lou Johnson had charge of the music.

Josie and V. A. for Who's Who

Josie Plunk and V. A. Hansard are the Hedley Seniors whose names will appear in the 1941 Who's Who among Texas High Students. These outstanding students were not given this honor for any single quality or characteristic, but the combined qualities of scholarship, sportsmanship, extra-curricular activities, leadership, and character.

To determine who should represent the school, the faculty prepared a ballot of four names and gave to the Senior class; the seniors then by secret ballot selected two.

This honor conferred upon deserving students for two years, is rapidly becoming one of the greatest honors that high school students can obtain. It is the hope of the Who's Who promoters that it will carry prestige in recommendations and monetary values in the near future for ambitious students.

The other names which appeared on the ballot were Billy C. Johnson and Peggy Doherty.

Jan. 25, Lakeview brought three teams to Hedley and played the Owls and Owlets.

The Owls' A team rolled over the Lakeview A team 20 to 10. J. M. Dickson was high scorer with 9 points.

The Owls' B string defeated the visiting B team 14 to 9, and the Hedley girls swamped the Lakeview girls 24 to 4.

Jan. 28 the Hedley teams went to Quail and played the powerful Quails. The Quail boys defeated the Owls 26 to 24, and the Owlets lost 11 to 10. Billy Clifford was high scorer with 10 points.

Jan. 31, the Owls were host to the Turkey Turks. The Owls' A team defeated the Turks' A team 29 to 19. J. M. Dickson was high scorer with 12 points. The Owls' B string defeated the Turks' B team 26 to 5.

The Owlets defeated the Oatland girls of Hedley 16 to 5.

TEXAS IS READY!

Give that valve a quarter turn, Old Man Texas, when Uncle Sam needs the oil for national defense. With the pioneer spirit typical of Texans, our oil men have found and developed petroleum reserves far beyond all civilian and military needs now indicated. Even if defense requirements total 150 million barrels more a year, Texas can supply them without waste by a quarter turn of valves on wells already drilled. This can be done at a moment's notice without depriving anyone of a single gallon of gasoline or quart of motor oil. Surplus pipe line capacity is ready to carry all this oil from the fields. Surplus refinery capacity exists to turn it into essential products. Texas goes ahead in the search for more petroleum reserves. New fields are being found... more efficient producing, refining and transportation methods are constantly being perfected.... TEXAS IS READY!

STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO

By VIRGINIA VALE
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

THE baton Judy Garland carried fourteen years ago in an act which she did with her sisters at a Lancaster theater has been rejuvenated for her starring role in "Ziegfeld Girl."

Four-year-old Judy kept the "stick" among her souvenirs of "The Gumm Sisters" era. During "Pigskin Parade," in which she first won screen recognition, she carried it again. Now as the drum majorette in the M-G-M musical finale number, it once again comes out of hiding—but with a difference.

Judy Garland Like Judy, it's been glamorized.

Painted in silver, it has 100 sparkling rhinestones studding the head. "I'm sure if it had been as impressive 14 years ago as it is now, we would have received more than 50 cents apiece for our 'Gumm Sisters' act," chuckled the young star.

It's pretty Ellen Drew who gets the feminine lead in "The Night of January 15th" when it finally goes before the cameras. Patricia Morrison was to have had it. Casting difficulties for the picture began last February, when Don Ameche refused to have anything to do with it; Robert Preston is now slated for the Ameche role.

Frank Capra's "Meet John Doe" will be more than just a good picture; its release celebrates his 20 years of picture making. He's made 26 pictures and is one of Hollywood's few directors who can be depended on to turn out top-notch ones.

Rise Stevens, young American mezzo-soprano of the Metropolitan Opera company, who made her first appearance at the White House when she participated in the inaugural concert this year, has been signed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Her first picture will be a Technicolor musical; she'll leave for Hollywood at the end of April, after the completion of her concert and radio season, and begin work in May.

Rise Stevens

She made her debut with the Metropolitan in 1938 (she'd shattered a 55-year-old record, when she was 19, by informing Metropolitan officials that she was "not yet ready to accept the greatest opportunity opened to a young artist"). Still in her mid-twenties, she is one of the company's leading mezzo-sopranos, and lovely looking to boot. She's going to offer very, very keen competition for Jeanette MacDonald.

It was aching arms, not art, that lent a new and more sinister note to Humphrey Bogart's performance in Warner Brothers' "High Sierra." Visitors to the set noticed a new and sinister alertness, produced by Bogart's carrying his arms out from his body as if ready for a quick draw.

But—"When you have a holster strapped tight under each arm all day, you get tired of the contact and involuntarily hold your arms away from your body," Bogart explained. "But I may as well confess; when I found that it gave a sinister effect, I kept doing it, even without guns."

Boris Karloff is appearing on the New York stage in a goofy and hilarious murder mystery entitled, "Arsenic and Old Lace." He's cast as a man who terrifies people because he looks so much like Boris Karloff of the movies. And even highly sophisticated members of the audience are audibly delighted when they recognize him. Mr. Karloff, incidentally, gives an excellent performance as the man who resembles him.

Turban Selahettin Shultavy Bey is a new name in American motion pictures; its owner is a young man of distinguished lineage in Turkey. But when 24-year-old Turhan came to this country to seek his fortune he left his dignified and aristocratic past behind him. Which was just as well, for when the cast and crew of "Murder on the Second Floor" had difficulty pronouncing his name they just dubbed him "Bay Rum."

ODDS AND ENDS—Doris Dudley dyed her blonde hair midnight blue for a role in the Miriam Hopkins stage play "Battle of the Angels"; now the play has been called off, and Doris must turn blonde again, just, for a role in another play, "The Bo Tree" . . . Since the hectic days of July, 1939, Raymond Gram Swing has been broadcasting almost every day without missing a single program because of illness; recently he took a three weeks' vacation, and spent most of it in bed, sick . . . It's reported that Dick Powell, who recently left the radio program, is forming his own orchestra for another radio program.

VEGETABLES SERVED STREAMLINED FASHION
(See Recipes Below.)

NEW WAYS WITH VEGETABLES

The time may come when we will get all our vitamins in little pellets, but I doubt it—not when eating vegetables is as much fun as it is. There would be a big gap in our meals if such things as tender little green beans or whole carrots rolled in butter, disappeared from the dinner table.

Success in cooking vegetables depends on such small things—the amount of water in the pan, whether the cover is on or off, whether the vegetables are removed from the heat when they are just tender or allowed to continue cooking until they become slightly mushy.

Remember, it's "covers off," for all green-colored vegetables. Then the acids which are given off during cooking are not held in the pan where they turn the brilliant green color to a dull olive. To keep the vitamins in the vegetables instead of losing them in the cooking water use just a little liquid as possible. For mild-flavored vegetables an inch of water in the bottom of the pan to keep the pieces from burning is ample. Vegetables like spinach, which contain a great deal of water, should be cooked in the moisture which clings to the leaves after washing.

And if you value your vitamins, never, never discard the liquid from canned vegetables. Place it in a saucepan, heat until the liquor evaporates to about one-half, then add the vegetable and heat to serving temperature.

Lima Bean Casserole.
(Makes 6 servings)
1 10-ounce can tomatoes (1½ cups)
2 medium-sized onions (minced)
1 small green pepper (finely chopped)
2 tablespoons molasses
¼ teaspoon dry mustard
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 No. 2 can green lima beans (2½ cups)
6 strips bacon

Put tomatoes through sieve, add minced onion and green pepper and simmer for 15 minutes. Then add molasses, mustard, salt, pepper and butter. Stir until well mixed. Drain lima beans and arrange in a shallow, well-greased casserole. Pour sauce over them and arrange strips of bacon over top. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees Fahrenheit) for 20 minutes or until bacon is crisp. Serve piping hot.

Beets, Orange-Style.
(Makes 6 servings)
3 tablespoons grated orange rind
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon paprika
1 tablespoon sugar
1 tablespoon water
2 tablespoons lemon juice
4 tablespoons butter
½ cup orange juice
½ tablespoon cornstarch
1 tablespoon water
3 cups cooked beets (sliced)

Place orange rind, salt, paprika, sugar, water and lemon juice in saucepan and simmer for 5 minutes. Cream butter until soft, and add it to hot mixture together with orange juice. Blend cornstarch and water to a smooth paste and add to sauce. Cook slowly, stirring occasionally, until sauce is thickened and cornstarch is thoroughly cooked, about 15 minutes. Pour over hot cooked beets and mix lightly but thoroughly. For company dinners serve the beets in orange shells.

Corn and Bacon Rings.
(Makes 7 servings)
7 slices bacon
2 eggs
1 12-ounce can whole kernel corn
2 tablespoons flour
¼ teaspoon salt
Few grains pepper
¼ teaspoon baking powder
¼ cup milk

Line muffin tins or custard cups with sliced bacon. Snip edges with kitchen scissors to prevent curling. Beat eggs slightly, and add well-drained corn. Sift flour, salt, pepper and baking powder together and add to corn together with milk. Fill bacon rings with this mixture. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees Fahrenheit) for 35 to 40 minutes, or until firm.

Peanut Butter Crust.
1 cup flour (all-purpose)
Few grains salt
2 tablespoons peanut butter
4 tablespoons shortening
2 tablespoons ice water (about)

Sift flour once before measuring, then sift together with salt. Cut in peanut butter and shortening with a pastry blender, two knives or rub it in with the fingers. Lightly stir in ice water, using a fork, until mixture forms a stiff dough. Turn out onto a lightly floured board, and roll out to fit top of casserole. Cut several slits in crust to allow steam to escape. Place over top of casserole and seal edges.

French-Fried Green Pepper Rings.
(Makes 6 servings)
4 large green peppers
1 egg (well-beaten)
1 tablespoon water
¼ cup fine, dry bread crumbs
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ cup flour

Wash green peppers, cut into thin slices (about ¼ inch thick) and remove seeds and membrane. Combine beaten egg with water. Season bread crumbs with salt. Dip rings first in egg mixture, then in flour. Dip again in the egg mixture, and finally in crumbs. Fry them, a few at a time, in deep fat at (375 degrees Fahrenheit) until nicely browned, 2 to 3 minutes. Drain on absorbent paper. The green pepper rings are excellent with broiled steak.

Any-Season Spinach.
(Makes 4 servings)
1 14-ounce box quick-frozen spinach
1 cup water
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons butter
1 hard-cooked egg

Place water in saucepan, add salt and heat to a brisk boil. Drop frozen spinach into boiling water, bring again to a boil and cook 4 to 6 minutes or until just tender, separating the leaves with fork during cooking. Remove from fire and drain thoroughly at once. Add butter, salt and pepper. Garnish with slices of hard-cooked egg. Reserve the liquid to use in a vegetable soup or stew.

Vegetable Pie, Peanut Butter Crust.
(Makes 6 servings)

12 small white onions
3 carrots (sliced)
2 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
1½ cups hot water
2 beef bouillon cubes
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon paprika
¼ teaspoon celery salt
1 cup canned or cooked peas
1 cup canned or cooked green beans

Place onions in saucepan with 1 cup water. Cook for 10 minutes, then add sliced carrots and continue to cook until both vegetables are tender (about 15 minutes). Cooked leftover onions and carrots may be substituted. Melt butter and blend with flour to a smooth paste. Dissolve bouillon cubes in hot water and add to flour together with salt, paprika, and celery salt. Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened, about 10 minutes. Combine onions, carrots, peas, and beans with sauce and place in shallow greased baking dish. The ingredients should come nearly to the top of the dish. Top with peanut butter pastry and bake in a hot oven (425 degrees Fahrenheit) for about 20 minutes.

Weddings

The following articles were clipped from Sunday's Amarillo News:

Miss Maurine Dickerson became the bride of Gordon Hickman, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. Hickman of 1208 Western Avenue in a ceremony performed Thursday at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. L. H. Dickerson, 511 East Fourteenth Avenue.

Rev. S. R. Braanon of Plainview pastor of the Church of Nazarenes, performed the marriage ceremony in the presence of relatives and close friends.

The bride wore a dusty rose crepe dress, with black patent accessories and corsage of white carnations.

After the reception, which was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hickman left on a wedding trip to Oklahoma City.

After Wednesday, the couple will be at home in Amarillo. Mrs. Hickman is a graduate of Amarillo High School. Mr. Hickman is employed by Leo McMurtry building contractor.

Miss Mrs. Bell Watkins of Berger, daughter of Mrs. E. T. Watkins of this city, and Enar Hanson of Berger were married Friday night, Jan. 24, in the parsonage of the First Baptist Church, Rev. A. D. Foxman, Jr., officiated.

The bride wore a navy blue crepe ensemble with dusty pink and black accessories and a corsage of gardenias and pink roses.

Attending the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Olin Vaadergiff of Amarillo, sister and brother-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Edith Bookery and George Waugh of Berger.

After the ceremony, the couple left on a short trip to Oklahoma City.

The bride was graduated from West Texas State College, Canyon, and has been teaching in the Berger public schools for the past three years.

Mr. Hanson is chief electrician for the United Carbon Company. The couple is temporarily at home at the Colonial Apartments, Berger.
