TAKE A MOMENT To Think

Right now, you are probably earning more money than you have for some time. How long will it last? If we can judge the future by the past, these boom times won't last indefinitely.

In looking over our accounts we are impressed by one thing smart people are saving money. They are building up a reserve to fall back on when the going gets rough.

As we see it here in the bank this is a big opportunity to save. See that a part of what you make is laid away—and stays there. You'll be ready for anything.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS By Edward C. Wayne

Reports of Czechoslovakian Unrest And Nazi Claims of Important Gains Highlight News of European Fighting; Russia Says Enemy Needs Oil to Win

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.) (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

RUSSIA: Adding Machines

While Berlin had been making its adding machines ring out to them joyous accounting of the utter Soviet collapse of resistance to the south, asserting that 665,000 prisoners had been taken, and "some 300,000" had been slain, the Russians still painted a different picture.

Berlin had announced that "Russia has been all but knocked out of the war and the real turning point has come."

At the same time Russia had reported a sort of "inland Dunquerque" on the southern front, claiming that Marshal Semeon Budenny had succeeded in withdrawing considerable of his army, and that of 15 Russian divisions admittedly trapped in the Kiev battle, 10 divisions had escaped, and the other five "were in a position to give a good account of themselves."

Two towns had been named by the Russians as the critical points, one Achtyrka, and the other Konstantinograd, where Marshal Timo-

UNREST: Spreading

Reports of unrest in Italy succeeded to stories of uprisings in most of the occupied countries of Europe, and the latest dispatches along this line came from the London radio describing conditions in Czechoslovakia, second of Europe's countries to be taken over by the Nazis.

It had been announced that Reinhardt Heydrich, former chief of police in Berlin, had been placed in charge of the protectorate of the Czechs, succeeding Baron Von Neurath.

Reports were, it had been stated, that there had been mysterious breakdowns in factories, explosions in munitions plants, train derailments, and that friction between Czechs and the German authorities was becoming "open."

Heydrich, London reported, would immediately set up courts martial with power to mete out death sentences for anti-Nazi activities.

Berlin sources reported an attempted revolt by part of the army in Czechoslovakia had been uncovered and at least 24 persons executed for their part in it.

At the same time Berlin declared that two residents of Germany itself had been condemned to death for listening to foreign radio stations, the first capital penalties exacted for this crime.

Also it had been reported that 22 more executions in occupied countries had been carried out.

A Brussels paper had reported 20 of these in connection with the belief by the authorities that Communists had stolen explosives from a storage place in northern France, and had used them to attack French trains and German army transport trucks.

One of the Germans sentenced for radio listening had been publishing pamphlets against Hitler, it was said, while the other was a Polish woman working for a German doctor. She was accused of using her employer's radio for her nefarious and illegal listening.

PROFITS: And Patriotism

Profits, or restriction of them, had been linked to patriotic war efforts by Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau in a proposal for a bill for a profit-ceiling of 6 per cent on invested capital.

This had received a warm reception in certain capital circles, and not so warm in others. Senator George of Georgia, head of the senate finance committee, bitterly at-shenko had been reported as attempting to separate the German forces to permit trapped troops to escape.

Two of the divisions the Russian communique dated the same as the German had said, had completed their junction with the Timoshenko forces "only that morning."

The Russians admitted the Crimea was cut off from the mainland, but asserted that defense lines had been holding firm both from frontal attacks and from an air-borne invasion from the rear.

In fact the Russians claimed that the positions of her troops in the Crimea and at Odessa constituted a menace to the German right wing which the Nazis were fighting desperately to remove.

The Germans listed, in addition to the Kiev-southern successes, which they had maintained were complete and in the mopping up stage, drastic defeats of Russian naval forces, the "dooming" of Leningrad, and that it was "too late" for effective aid from the United States or Britain.

North American and British help for Russia, said the German statements, ignoring the reports of British planes actually on the front and fighting, "is on paper and will stay there if Russia must depend on transport through Iran and through Arctic seas, or through Siberia.

OIL NEED: Seen by Reds

The Soviet, declaring that the advent of heavy snows will be a death-blow to Nazi hopes of quick victory, pointed to the all-out German drive toward the Caucasus as a sure sign that Germany needs oil to win the war.

The Moscow News had published an article saying, in part:

"It is only on the east front that winter plays a big part, and on the west front, where Hitler has unsolved problems, the need of oil is terrific."

"He is playing for big stakes in this furious drive toward the Caucasian oil fields."

"Effective action east and west is essential to foil Hitler's attempt to keep his war machine going."

The paper further stated that Germany had used up two-thirds of her oil reserves in the war against Russia.

ITALY:

Italy, according to reports both from Rome and from Alexandria, showing both sides of the picture, had been suffering heavily in late weeks of the war.

It was a "black" sea-month for Italian vessels, said the British African command, claiming that sinkings had totaled more than 200,000 tons, that four liners of more than 20,000 tons each, and each of them capable of carrying 5,000 German troops to Africa, had been put out of commission.

Royal Review

WINDSORS: And Echoes

As the duke and duchess of Windsor passed through the United States via Chicago toward their ranch in Alberta, they were greeted enthusiastically throughout, one woman hopefully leaving her autograph book on the train platform when the duchess declined to sign it.

At the same time echoes of the marital tangles which wound up in Edward's abdication as king were heard when society columns reported the critical illness of Mrs. Ernest A. Simpson, which once was the name of the duchess.

The former Wallis Warfield, now the duchess, and Mary Kirk, silver heiress, had been girlhood chums and class and camp-mates in Baltimore.

Through this friendship came Wallis' meeting with Capt. Ernest A. Simpson, whom she married, and her meeting with the king of England, whom she married after his abdication.

The former Mary Kirk, who had become Mrs. Jacques Raffray, succeeded "Wally" as Mrs. Simpson.

They had one child, who was sent to the United States for safe-keeping, according to these stories, and where Mrs. Simpson came to visit him. She became critically ill, it was said, and when her life was despaired of, through state department intervention, she was permitted to fly via Clipper to Lisbon and thence to London, where she had been reported to be in a dying condition.

WAR GAMES: On Huge Scale

Louisiana, North Carolina and Virginia had been scenes of the biggest war games in the history of the United States, with large armies taking part, and using, either actually or in token, the most modern weapons of modern war.

There were tanks, airplanes, parachutists, anti-tank battalions, engineers with "made to measure" bridges, every device learned from the present war and some that the American army had thought up itself.

Big cities near the scene of the maneuvers were becoming used to being "sirened" to the curb by police escorts of flying truck-trains carrying thousands of men in fierce dashes over the highways from distant spots—just to test the carrying power of the roads.

The movement of 75,000 men in a few hours from New Jersey to the Virginia battleground was carried out twice in rehearsal by divisions, and then the whole army moved at once—to prove it could be done.

While the maneuvers generally were proving the power of swift attack, generals reported that in some instances the defenders were getting at least an even break, if not the best of it.

MISCELLANY:

London: The British tank factories have managed to up their production by 10 per cent in the month following the pledge to turn over their whole production to Russia.

La Paz, Bolivia: Word had been received of the resignation of the Bolivian cabinet after the discovery of a Nazi plot within the country.

New York: Having returned to this country, Demaree Bess, foreign correspondent, declared the decisive battles of the war would be fought in the Middle East. He said he believed the war would last three more years, and that neither side had shown a sign of cracking. The implication, he said, would be an American expeditionary force.

Teheran: The ousted shah of Persia had sailed away from his country following the outbreak of a Kurdish revolution, and reports were that his destination was South America.

On Friday Sept. 26, the Sophomores packed all their books away for the week-end and loaded up their lunches to go to the Memphis Park. This was the occasion of the first entertainment of the year of our class and we were all looking forward to a fine time. We had fun watching the quirkels play, see sawing, swing- ing, swimming and other games. Supper was spread and afterwards some went to the skating rink and some to the show. A good time was had by Lou Ann Wall, Myrtle Tollett, Gwyneth Davis, Imogene Fortenberry, Mary Jo Lewis, Dorothy Jo Reeves, Lavonia Grimsley, Pauline King, Anna Jean Meed, Wilma Langford, Wanda Lou Saunders, L. When Mr. Payne announced in assembly that we were to dismiss school Monday to attend the fair at Amarillo, I could hardly believe my ears. This only happens to Hedley students once in a lifetime. More than that he said that forty five lucky students could ride the bus for a dime. Monday morning in spite of the gloomy weather, we met at the school house at 8 o'clock. We were herded into the bus by Mr. Pitcock, Miss Shearer and Mr. Buckner. Then we started joyfully toward Amarillo.

As we came nearer and nearer to our destination, the weather grew more dense. But in spite of the weather our spirits soared high and stayed that pitch until we reached the fair grounds. Then we noticed that the fair grounds were knee deep in mud (almost). The exhibits were only partly up and the midway in traction was not there. Were we disappointed? (I'll say we were). We stepped from the bus, pulled our seats closer about us, put our hands on our pocket books and started about the fairgrounds. The mud was so thick that some of us stepped out of our shoes several times.

We toured the Boy and Girl Scout buildings, merchants building and agricultural building. Hot dog stands were open so we feasted on hot dogs and soda pop. By taxi and bus most of us reached Polk Street where some toured the Kress Woolworth and Crestway stores. We visited Cal Farley's broadcast where we saw in person the Sons of the West and Stuttering Sam.

Our driver didn't have to bank twice for us for every one was ready to start home at five o'clock as agreed upon. Although the fair was a great disappointment, the day as a whole was enjoyed by everyone.

Science Class Visits Gins

The Applied Science Class visited two of the Hedley Gins Tuesday, September 20, to discover some of the things which were there which we had studied in Science. The first gin which we visited was the Farmer's Gin. It gets its power from a Diesel engine. The head of each cylinder had to be heated by two torches which were gasoline and air.

The engine was water cooled. The means of regulating the speed of the engine was a coil spring governor which stretched or recoiled according to the speed and load.

The press was worked by a hydraulic lift run off the line shaft. A small piston pumping the liquid made the big piston raise with a force of 18,000 pounds to press the cotton into bales.

Their fire extinguishers were filled with carbon tetrachloride which forms a gas quickly when put on a fire. It was demonstrated to us by starting a fire in a bucket of gasoline. The flame was extinguished immediately upon contact with the carbon tetrachloride. There is also another means of fighting fire in the form of plenty of water hose.

We also visited the McDougal gin. This gin is run by a steam engine which operates under 115 pound pressure. The steam is generated by gas.

In addition to the hand extinguishers, this gin has a system of pop off sprinklers which are placed every eight feet. When hot the sprinklers pop off thus starting a water spray and giving an alarm.

JOBS FOR TOMORROW

The chemical laboratories of the petroleum industry are now laying the foundation for industries of the future.

Out of their research are being created new products and more efficient ways of making old ones. Synthetic rubber, plastics, explosives, basic chemicals and scores of other essentials developed in petroleum laboratories are already being made on a commercial scale.

These scientific discoveries of materials vital to peace-time needs, as well as National defense, are opening up new fields of industrial activity.

Texas as the leading oil State is playing an important part in the creation of these new American enterprises. As a result, many young Texans now preparing themselves in our schools and colleges will find places in the industries resulting from this research.

The test tubes of today make the jobs of tomorrow.

THE TRUTH SIMPLY TOLD

Today's popularity of Doan's Pills, after many years of world-wide use, surely must be accepted as evidence of satisfactory use. And favorable public opinion supports that of the able physicians who test the value of Doan's under exacting laboratory conditions.
Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warn of disturbed kidney function. You may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel weak, nervous, all mixed up.
If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove waste that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole body suffers when kidney's lag, and diuretic medicine would be more often employed.
Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warn of disturbed kidney function. You may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel weak, nervous, all mixed up.
Use Doan's Pills. It is better to rely on a medicine that has won world-wide acclaim than on something less favorably known. Ask your neighbor!

DOAN'S PILLS

Star Dust
STAGE SCREEN RADIO

By VIRGINIA VALE
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)
"CAPTAINS of the Clouds" (Warner Bros.) brought the war right home to Hollywood. More than 100 pilots of the company who worked for a month in Canada are now in service overseas. James Cagney, Alan Hale, George Tobias and Dennis Morgan now would rather talk about the Royal Canadian Air force than about anything else. They have so many friends in it!

By the time the picture is released, virtually every one of the Canadian fliers who appear in it will be overseas.

Jean Phillips has finally taken it for granted that she'll have to change the color of her hair for each new picture. Naturally blonde, it's been dyed four times for her last four films. She thought she could just be herself for "Sweater Girl," but June Preisser and Betty Jane Rhodes have the other top roles, and they're both blondes. Back to the hairdresser's for Miss Phillips!

JEAN PHILLIPS

Samuel Goldwyn has acquired rights to the famous "off to work we go" song of the little men in "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." It will be used as theme music for the seven droll professors in "Ball of Fire," starring Barbara Stanwyck and Gary Cooper.

Twentieth Century-Fox sort of faced a problem recently; Ginger Rogers was to make one picture for the company, and there just wasn't a good story for her. And Ginger's valuable property nowadays. So she's going to appear in a re-make of "Chicago," which probably will be called "Roxy Hart." She's also scheduled to start in "Self-Made Cinderella," Lubitsch's first one for Fox.

Too bad the off-stage dialogue of Myrna Loy and William Powell can't be used in "The Shadow of the Thin Man." The other day they made a scene in which Asta, the famous dog, had to sit on Powell's chest. Asta seemed to feel sort of silly. Powell retired to his dressing room for a few minutes, and when he returned they tried it again, and Asta adored sitting on his chest.

"I changed my necktie for a few strips of bacon," Powell explained, exhibiting a neat bow.
"Do you suppose Asta was interested in the bacon," asked Miss Loy, "or in the ham?"

The fourth picture dealing with the Burma road will be Metro's "China Caravan." Columbia plans "Burma Road," Fox plans "Over the Burma Road," Universal has "Burma Convoy" all done. Evidently everybody decided at the same moment that the Burma road was news.

To make factual, uncolored news available to the people of Central and South America, one of the big radio makers is sponsoring a daily program of press association news over local radio stations throughout Latin America; it's the first special news program for general distribution there to be sponsored by a United States company.

There are more ways than one to make an excellent living and a solid reputation in radio. Alice Youngman is doing it via the dramatized commercial route; she has assignments on "Are You a Missing Heir?", "Helen's Home" and the Lanny Ross programs.

ODDS AND ENDS—Radio's Dinah Shore, singing star of the Eddie Cantor show, has a new college degree—Doctor of Blues, presented to her by Harvard freshmen. . . Monogram's going to bring "Black Beauty" back to the screen. . . And Metro will do the same for the play, "Her Cardboard Lover," which was made way back in 1932 under the title of "The Passionate Plumber" . . . Sanja Henie has signed a new long-term contract with Fox; starts work again January first. . . Olivia de Havilland, escapes from hoop skirts and bustles for her role as the young wife of college professor Henry Fonda in "The Male Animal!"

PIE PERFECTION—A WINNER EVERY TIME
(See Recipes Below)

AMERICA'S FAVORITE DESSERT

Confess now, how often would you turn down a tart lemon pie, a deep-dish apple pie, or a juicy cranberry one with the bright berries peeking out of the lattice crust? Not often, I imagine, or pie wouldn't be our country's favorite dessert. So here's to pie, favorite at dessert time or at a bakery sale, made in big tins or as individual servings:

Lemon Angel Pie.
(Makes one 8-inch pie)
4 egg yolks
¼ cup sugar
¼ cup lemon juice
1 tablespoon butter
2 egg whites, stiffly beaten

Cream egg yolks and sugar together. Add lemon juice and cook in double boiler until thickened, stirring often. Add butter. Remove from heat and fold in beaten egg whites. Pour into a baked pie shell. Top with meringue and brown in moderate (325 degrees) oven for 15 minutes.

Meringue.
2 egg whites, beaten until frothy
4 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon lemon juice
Add sugar gradually to egg whites and continue beating until egg holds up in peaks. Fold in lemon juice.

Any pie is as good as its crust, and if you've mastered the art, your pies will always be something to come back for. A good crust is tender, short, flaky, well flavored and smart enough to stand by itself. If you make a crust to be filled, cool the filling before it comes in contact with the crust so you won't have soggy pie.

Flaky Pie Crust.
2 cups flour
½ cup shortening
¼ teaspoon salt
About ¼ cup ice water

Mix and sift flour with salt. Work in shortening using pastry blender, fork, knives, or fingertips, until mixture appears crumbled. Moisten with water until dough just holds together. Roll out on floured board and cut to fit pie tins. This makes enough for a double crust for a 9-inch pie tin. For a one-crust pie, use: 1 cup flour, ¼ cup shortening, ¼ teaspoon salt, and 2½ to 3 tablespoons water.

Delicious Rhubarb Pie.
1½ tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
1½ cups sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
1 tablespoon melted butter
4 cups cut rhubarb
1 pie crust

Combine ingredients and let stand about 15 minutes. Line a 9-inch pie plate with pastry rolled one-eighth inch thick, allowing pastry to extend 1 inch beyond edge. Fold edge back to form standing rim. Fill with rhubarb mixture. Moisten edge of pastry with cold water; arrange lattice

LYNN SAYS:

To keep your pie crust short, have the shortening and water ice cold. If possible, have your bowl cold, too, and when handling the crust, use your fingers as little as you can, to keep the heat from the hands from getting into the dough.

Avoid rolling extra flour into the dough for this makes tough pastry. Fold the pastry over several times while rolling to help make flaky pastry. Never stretch the pastry into the pan. Make it large enough before fitting into pan.

Pie crust should be baked quickly on the lower shelf of the oven to prevent sogginess. The intense heat of the oven expands the cold liquid in pastry into steam, making the crust rise in flaky layers.

of pastry strips across top. Flute rim with fingers. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees) for 15 minutes; then decrease heat to 350 degrees and bake 30 minutes longer.

Apple Pie.
1 recipe flaky pie crust
2 pounds cooking apples
1½ cups sugar
2 teaspoons cinnamon
2 tablespoons butter
1½ tablespoons cornstarch

Pare, core, and slice apples. Mix with sugar, cinnamon, and cornstarch. Fill pie tin which has been covered with crust and dot fruit with butter. Lay on top crust which has been pricked with a fork, and flute edges. Bake 45 to 50 minutes in a moderate (350-375 degrees) oven.

Tang and color are this cranberry pie's delectable recommendations, so make enough to have seconds. You can have your vitamins, too, for cranberries are an excellent source of vitamin C, necessary for teeth and bones, and also a fair source of vitamin A which promotes appetite, stimulates growth, and makes for general well-being. Make it with a criss-cross crust and you'll come in with top honors:

Spicy Cranberry Pie.
(Makes one 9-inch pie)
1 recipe pie crust
4 cups cranberries
2½ cups sugar
2 tablespoons lemon juice
Grated rind of 1 lemon
1 teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon ground cloves
1½ tablespoons cornstarch
½ cup water

Wash and pick over berries. Bring to a boil with the water, add sugar, boil gently, being careful not to break berries. Boil 5 minutes, remove from fire, cool, and add lemon juice, rind, and spices. Fill unbaked pie crust, cover top with strips, and bake 30 minutes in a hot (400 degrees) oven.

There are pies in which you bake just the crust, pies in which you bake crust and filling, and other pies which you don't bake at all. In this latter class are those pies whose crust is placed in the icebox to cool, then filled with filling and cooled until set. Here's a pie with crust, rich and crumbly, a filling that really melts in your mouth:

Coconut Custard Pie.
(Makes one 9-inch pie)
2 egg yolks
1½ cups milk
½ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons gelatin
¼ cup cold water

Soak gelatin in cold water. Cook egg yolks, milk and sugar in double boiler until thick and pour over gelatin. Cool, add vanilla, and pour over a crust made of:

3 cups oven-popped rice cereal, rolled fine
¼ cup butter melted
¼ cup sugar

Combine cereal crumbs, sugar and butter and press evenly around the sides and bottom of a pie pan. Chill before filling. Pile meringue on top of filling. Use 2 egg whites stiffly beaten, to which add ¼ cup sugar slowly, and ¼ cup of coconut. Brown lightly in broiler.

In making a successful meringue, beat the egg whites until stiff and glossy, then blend in sugar completely to prevent beads of syrup from forming on top of the meringue. Leave the pie on the top of the oven after it is baked. Cold air striking the meringue will cause it to fall.

"Mail call sounds as sweet as pay call when the folks back home send a carton of cigarettes or a tin of tobacco." This is the consensus among men in all branches of the service who have ranked tobacco first in the gift line. Actual sales records from service stores—in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard—showing the favorite cigarette is Camel. The popular smoking tobacco is Prince Albert. Baptist Church Notes

There was good interest and attendance at all the services last Sunday at the First Baptist church. Pastor A. L. Teaff preached at the morning hour on the subject, The Christian's Relation to God the Father, and in the evening on Building a Life.
Sunday marked the pastor's first anniversary with the church as well as the beginning of a new year's work with the newly elected corp of officers and teachers.
Several new classes have been begun, including a nursery for babies up to three years of age with Mrs. Claud Bain as teacher. Several new teachers have been added to the teaching force and prospects are good for a fruitful year ahead.
The young people had a very enjoyable social on Thursday night of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Harris. Twenty three were present for the evening of fun and fellowship.
A study course is in progress at the church this week for the teachers and officers of the Sunday school and other interested adults. There were sixteen who enrolled the first night. Building a Standard Sunday School is the book being studied.

Church of the Nazarene

Rev John L. Knight, Superintendent of the Abilene district will be at the Church of the Nazarene, Friday, Oct. 10. I urge all Nazarenes to be present as this is the close of the assembly year.
We invite each and every one to attend on Sunday. In the morning I will preach and Sunday night Rev. Willard South, an evangelist will preach. You will enjoy hearing him. Everyone is welcome.
