To Donley Co. Citizens:

With the leasing of the Adair Hospital to Drs. Stricklin, Goldston and Bernook, it passed out of the picture as a public institution. It is now a private hospital and will, we hope, be able to take care of the suffering humanity as well in the future as it has in the past. Nevertheless, the Commissioner's Court regrets very much the loss of the Adair Hospital as a public institution for the reason that, although it was and has been costing the taxpayers of Donley County about $5,000 per year, it furnished the means whereby county patients could be cared for; and, without a public hospital in the county, Donley County is now powerless to provide hospitalization for its indigent sick and afflicted citizens. That point has been definitely settled by the higher court in the late case of Willacy County vs. Valley Baptist Hospital, 29 S. W. 2d, page 450; in that case the court said in part, "The duty and authority of the commissioners' court to send the indigent sick to hospitals within the county, which provision, by necessary implication, excludes any duty or authority to send such persons to a private hospital, or to public hospitals without the county."

The return of the Adair Hospital into private control, as well as the decision of the Court of Appeals, is "water that has already passed under the bridge." Now let us decide our future hospital. Do we want a public hospital? If so, contact your commissioner at once. "Wherever there is a will there is a way." But first of all, contact your county commissioner and let him know just what you want.

PTA Halloween Carnival

Don't forget the Halloween Carnival next Friday, October 31, sponsored by the P. T. A. Save up your nickies and dimes and come out and enjoy the fun.

Baptist Church Notes

Our new Nursery Class had 8 present last Sunday. This class is for children from birth to 3 years of age. Mrs. Claude Bain keeps these children during the Sunday School hour, thus permitting the mothers to attend their class. Mothers of young children, here is your opportunity to really enjoy your class. And we need the babies in this class and they need the class. We need at least one more baby bed donated for this class. Thanks to some body in advance for caring for this need.

The Training Union is really getting along in a fine way. The enrollment, attendance and interest are all gradually climbing. We have fine unions which take care of the different age groups. We will be looking for you next Sunday evening. There is a place for you.

There will be a baptizing next Sunday evening at the preaching hour.

The pastor is calling the men of the church together at the church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Every man member of our church is urged to be present.

"More is spent on places to play than on places to pray."
A. L. Tomlin, pastor.

John Paul Vinyard

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 16—Capt John P. Vinyard, Texas, who graduated from Texas Tech last year, was killed Thursday when his training plane crashed twenty eight miles from the Jacksonville Naval Air Station.

A Navy spokesman said the tail of Vinyard's plane, flying in formation, was nicked in a slight collision with another craft. The cadet's body was found 100 feet from the plane, his parachute partly open.

Vinyard, 24, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Vinyard of Turkey, Texas.

The Vinyards were formerly Hedley residents and have many friends here who will join us in extending sincere sympathy to the bereaved.

Goodwin-Bland

Mrs. Ruby Bland of Hedley and L. R. Goodwin of Amarillo were united in marriage Oct. 12 at Amarillo. Rev. Luther G. Roberts read the ceremony at his home.

The bride is the daughter of J. W. Aldridge of Hedley, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Goodwin of Amarillo.

They will make their home in Amarillo, where the groom is engaged in the jewelry business.

Red Cross Certificates

Certificates have been received at the Donley County chapter of the Red Cross, for eight Hedley people who completed the authorized course taught here in August, by W. A. Riney of the Texas Highway Dept.

Eight won their certificates in the final examinations. Lewis T. Simmonds won a certificate for advanced work, while Albert Martin, B. G. Clifton, G. E. Hunsaker, Leon Reeves, Floyd Naylor, Viola Simmonds and Paul L. Dishman got certificates for the standard course.

Church of Christ

Sunday morning at eleven. Subject: Buy the Truth and Sell it Not Prov. 23:23

1 The truth of God is the most precious treasure to which mortals can lay a claim

2 It is by obedience to the truth which is the word of God (Jan. 17) that the soul is purified. 1 Pet 1:22

3 It is by the truth that people are made free from sin. Jas. 1:8: 21 22. If you continue in my word then are you my disciples indeed and you shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free

We welcome you all. Let's be friendly

Gleaners Class

The Gleaners class met Oct 19 with Mrs. H. L. Whitfield with 8 members present. It was decided to entertain Mrs. R. E. Newman's class at the next meeting, Friday Oct 24 at the Methodist church at 2:30 p. m.

After the business session we enjoyed the Bible study conducted by Mrs. Kendall. The devotion at 1:35 a. m. was by Mrs. H. L. Whitfield. Delicious cake and hot cocoa was served to those present.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS By Edward C. Wayne

Methods of Providing Aid to Russia Before Nazis Win Complete Victory Is Big Problem for U. S. and Britain; Japanese Move Again in Indo-China

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Disconsolate Russian prisoners are shown marching through an unnamed town on their way to a prison camp behind the German lines, reads the caption accompanying this picture from Berlin. The caption further states that this is a part of the huge bag of prisoners taken on the far-flung Russian front.

RUSSIANS: Deep Trouble
As the Nazi blitz moved into high gear on the central and south fronts of the great battle of the east front, the question began to be seriously asked whether Russia, like France, Greece and so many other nations, was going to be forced out of the war as a combatant, willing before the heat and ferocity of the Nazi war machine.

Indeed, when the German spearheads had been announced 65 miles away from Moscow, the stories of peace and truce offers began to come over the cables, and one of them even declared that Stalin was considering an armistice. However, these rumors were promptly denied from Berlin, Italy, London and Moscow, the Axis denials stating that objectives were far from being reached, and London and Moscow sources declaring the Russians were still able to fight.

Be that as it may, it was obvious that the crisis was being reached, and that once again the great manpower of Russia must decide if it were better to give in to the Nazi, or to battle it out as the Chinese did against the Japs.

Few believed that Germany or any group of European powers could finally defeat Russia with the backing of England and the United States, provided Russia were willing to fight the sort of rear-guard action that China used with such success.

But whether the willingness was there, or the philosophical temperament needed for such a defense was a question.

Harriman, American envoy to the U. S. mission to Moscow, answered it this way:

"I believe the leaders of Russia will lead the people to fight on." Beaverbrook felt the same way.

MATERIAL AID: But How?
The Soviet crisis left the lease-lend ideas of Britain and this country very much "out on a limb."

That both countries were dispatching aid was apparent. But how much and how long were difficult problems. "Barkis was willin'," but the Iranian railway from the head of the Persian gulf to the shores of the Caspian sea, thence into boats and again to Russian railways and roads in the Caucasus seemed the only practicable route.

Britain had material to give and was giving it—not only planes but squadrons and pilots and gunners. Much of this was of the heavier types which could be flown direct to the scene of service, put into action and, if surviving an eventual Russian defeat, presumably could be saved.

But much of it, such as tanks and guns, had to be shipped in. The British took the attitude that they were not only willing to give of their own store, but of the American lease-lend store. They said, in effect:

"We get it from the United States this way, and we shall do for Russia what the United States is doing for us."

Britain felt that the Americans should give what they could, but the task they wanted this country to take over, the keeping of Soviet's "Burma road" open seemed a task that it was a little dubious how we could accomplish.

LEASE-LEND: Second Edition
Everyone had expected the second lease-lend bill of six billions of dollars to pass the house, but the vote, 328-67, was considerable of a surprise to the anti-interventionists, who had made part of the fight a battle against aid to Russia.

The smashing victory for the proponents of the President's lease lend policy, and for implementing it with a huge sum was repeated in the defeat of the no-aid-to-Russia amendment.

NAVY: Takes Prisoners

The United States came its closest to actual participation in the war when the navy announced that it had taken prisoner about 20 "Nazis," whether actual German citizens or Norwegians under German domination was not immediately clear.

The American naval patrol, including Iceland and Greenland in its orbit, was searching the coastline of the latter island for an alleged German submarine base when it came upon a small Norwegian vessel.

The ship was stopped, questions were put to its crew and the vessel was thoroughly searched. Not only did the navy announce that it was determined that the men were Nazi agents under the direction of the Gestapo, but the questioning led to the finding of a radio station set up on the mainland of Greenland.

This station, apparently, was being set up by the Germans, the report had stated, for the purpose of broadcasting weather information to the Nazis.

The purpose might have been for the flights of planes that had been "traffing" shipping in the north Atlantic; it might have been for guidance of submarines; it might have been to give locations of lease-lend ships to surface raiders, planes or U-boats.

At all events ship, crew and radio station were all taken over by the navy, which announced that all were on their way to the United States.

It had been the first move of this type since President Roosevelt had issued the "shoot on sight" order.

JAPAN: Moves Again

Considerable alarm about the Pacific situation was caused when Tokyo made another move associated with her expansion into Indochina.

The Japanese demanded control of the Indo-Chinese railway system. They also had demanded the right to control customs collections and postal censorship.

At the same time the Japanese demanded the arsenal at Saigon, and this was considered highly significant because at this arsenal the French had set up what was regarded as the most powerful radio direction-finding outfit in the Orient.

The Japanese armed forces in Indo China were continuing their maneuvers along the Thailand frontier, back of which, and in Malaya, there were heavy concentrations of British troops.

The Saigon moves, the British said, were being closely watched, because of the likelihood that if any plane attacks were to be made against Singapore or Manila, Saigon would be the proper hopping-off spot.

VIERECK: Revelations

What many believed to be true, that Nazi agents in the United States were using the non-interventionists, the isolationists and other enemies of the President's foreign policy for their own ends was declared to be a fact by George Sylvester Viereck, author, poet and registered Nazi agent.

Viereck was being tried in Washington on charges that he had not told the state department the whole story about his activities.

It was perhaps a joke, but at all events a sensation when, at the outset of his trial, he was asked to "name his associates" and he listed two assistants of Secretary Hull, Joseph Davies, former ambassador to Russia, and William Phillips, now ambassador to Rome.

The nub of the case against Viereck was that he listed his activities only as an employee of the German library of information; as correspondent for a Munich newspaper. The library had been closed down by the government for alleged improper activities.

Guess Who?

Mr. Winston Churchill of Natick, Mass., is the above pictured gentleman's name, and he is a paper-hanger and painter by profession. Although he is not related in any way to the British prime minister, he could boast about his ancestors who landed in America, way back in 1670. Anyway there's another paper-hanger that THE Winston Churchill is at present more worried about than this one, say the local wags.

STRIKES: Menace Again

Though the strike front in the United States had been at a quiet ebb for some time, the labor situation was anything but peaceful in the United States, and seething under the surface were many difficulties that had not yet flared into strikes.

Barring a couple of rubber factory troubles and a small row in an airplane accessory plant, the Mediation Board was having a relatively easy time of it.

But the type of thing that was worrying the OPM was the Detroit case, in which on Sidney Hillman's recommendation, a contract was withheld from the low bidder on the ground that he was unfair to the building trades.

Now came the protest from C.I.O. quarters that Hillman favored the A.F.L. building unions and the working out of this case in Detroit was envisioned by many labor leaders as packed with dynamite for labor peace.

An oddity in the situation was an article in the Daily Worker, Communist daily, entitled "Every Factory Part of the Battle Front Against Hitler," and continuing: "Interference with production of needed war materials can only help Hitler and weaken the United States."

This was a loud outcry against strikes—and coming from the chief Communist paper.

All union circles agreed that a Hitler victory would mean a disaster to organized labor, yet during Russia's partnership with Hitler the Communists had been accused of obstructing the defense effort—now they were not only aiding it, but eschewing strikes.

CHINA: On the Move

Chungking issued reports showing that her military effort was beginning to shove the Japanese back toward the coast.

The town of Ichang, high-water mark of the Japanese advance into China was reported recaptured, and the garrison of 1,000 Nipponese surrounded and placed under artillery fire in a fortress.

A Japanese plane passed overhead, dropping eight men in parachutes, evidently with orders for the garrison. The Chinese said they captured two and shot six to death before they landed.

Subsequent reports had declared that the Japanese were on the retreat in Hunan Province, and that the drive toward Changsha, important objective, had been put into reverse.

Two-thirds of the Japanese advance in this province had been wiped out, the reports stated. Chungking was in a state of wild celebration at the news.

BRIEFS:

Rome: It was predicted in Rome that Myron C. Taylor would be made a full-fledged ambassador and would represent the nation at the Vatican.

New York: Helen Morgan, famous singer, who drew repeatedly salaries as high as $3,500 a week, died penniless, it was revealed. Friends raised $600 to pay her hotel bill.

Baltimore: The duke and duchess of Windsor (the duchess a former Baltimore debutante, Wallis Warfield) were welcomed by thousands on their visit to this city. It was the duchess' first trip to Maryland in more than 20 years.

New York: In the navy were all sorts of youths—including a South Carolina legislator, Stratton Christiansen; Robert Train, famous Yale end; Maury Maverick McGarragh, nephew of the former mayor of Sar Antonio.

Star Dust
STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO

By VIRGINIA VALE
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

"PANAMA HATTIE," M-G-M's lavish version of the successful Broadway musical, is well under way. The initial set disclosed Ann Sothern in a night club, singing one of the show's best songs, and dancing while two hundred soldiers, sailors, marines and tourists served as a background.

An expert passed judgment on the set, uniforms, etc.—she is Mamie Kelly, for 25 years operator of the most famous night club in Central America, at Panama City. She declared that Rags Ragland looked more like a sailor than a sailor himself—and she's seen thousands of them!

For the eighteenth time in his life Richard Dix was made an honorary sheriff the other day; he's making "Tombstone," and his role is that of Wyatt Earp, the famous peace officer of Arizona in the state's wilder days.

Not since flame-haired Clara Bow took the movie world by storm has Hollywood seen a personality so vibrant as Frances Neal, according to Frank O'Connor, who directed the famous "It" girl in most of her films. He's playing an important role in RKO Radio's "Lady Scarface," in which she makes her film debut. Director Frank Woodruff dubbed her "Titan TNT," and O'Connor thinks it fits.

The job of doing the raucous, old-fashioned ring-master's voice for Walt Disney's "Dumbo" has been handed to Herman Bing. The task of recording voices for the part seemed endless—actual ring masters, rodeo and prize fight announcers and circus barkers were tried out for it, before Herman won by a throat full of r's.

Bob Hope and Jerry Colonna have acquired new honors, too. They are honorary members of the Salt Lake City police force; the award was made at the city's recent police show, with some 10,000 people looking on.

Rosalind Russell is right at home in M-G-M's "Her Honor," in which she's a woman judge. Her family's practically all lawyers on the male side—she can count seven without pausing to think. As a child she used to hide in her father's court room in Waterbury, Conn.—once she managed to do it when he was trying a thrilling murder case. She'd probably have been a lawyer if she hadn't had what it takes to be a movie star; as it is, she draws up her own contracts and lets it go at that.

Preston Foster, star of Paramount's "The Morning After," had a swell idea the other day. He bought two football tickets for every game to be played by the University of California at Los Angeles, and the University of Southern California, and sent them to the morale office at Camp San Luis Obispo; the office is to conduct hard luck contests, and the buck private who'd had the toughest luck each week will be given the tickets, put up at the best quarters in Los Angeles, and provided with a pretty girl as a companion at the game.

Joe Marshall has a bigger job than washing an elephant each day; he paints one every morning. Sprays a two-ton beast from ears to toenails with gray-white water color so that he won't blend into the background during Technicolor shots for "Malaya," the Dorothy Lamour jungle thriller.

ODDS AND ENDS—Constance Bennett sings a nice little ditty in Warner Bros' "Wild Bill Hickok Rides"—it's called "The Lady Got a Shady Deal" . . . The famed University of Southern California Trojan band marches and plays in the big football rally scene in "The Male Animal" . . . Baseball's clown, Al Schacht, is still lamenting because he had to miss the World Series, for the first time in years; he was in Hollywood testing to play himself in Goldwyn's Lou Gehrig picture . . . Now the movies will again make the name of Smith famous—this time with Robert Young playing the title role in "Joe Smith, American."

Elementary Science

This year the Fourth and Fifth grades are studying Elementary Science. They have just completed a unit on Insect Life.

Some facts I have learned about insects:

There are more insects in the world than all other animals.

Some insects help us but many of them do us harm.

Most insects live in these four forms, one after the other: egg, larva, pupa, grown insect.

Red ants often keep some black ants as slaves. Fireflies are not flies, they are beetles.

White grubs are the larvae of June bugs.

Many small animals which look like insects are not insects. Insects are animals which have 6 legs.

Aphids are often called plant lice. They make a juice which ants like to eat. They make a very pleasing dinner to ants.

Wanda Lee Shaw

Grade four

Did you know that:

A cocoon is the pupa of a moth? A family of ants is made up of these grown ants, queen, a worker, a queen's husband and a soldier?

Butterfly larvae are called caterpillars?

In a hive of bees there is never more than one queen bee?

A worm in an apple is the larva of a sodding moth?

Bees carry pollen from flower to flower?

Stink comes from a moth's cocoon?

Yellow fever and malaria are two diseases that are carried from sick people to healthy people by mosquitoes.

A praying mantis eats many insects that do us harm?

Termites are often called "white ants"?

A few insects live first as an egg then as nymph and last as a grown insect?

A walking stick when it is not moving look like a stick?

That is its protection from its enemies?

Bobbie Lee Hall
Grade Five

Let's Go Eat

Yum! Yum! Do you smell what I smell? If you don't just come to the high school building between nine and twelve and follow your nose to the home economics room. What is there? Well, let's take a look. As you go into the room, the corner next to the stove holds year eyes. There you will find bushel baskets of apples, dozen and half cans of peas and corn, one hundred pound sack of sugar, flour and meal. Next let us look on the cabinet. We will see a gallon of milk to be used for bread and 10 pounds of ground meat. Then we will turn around and find fruit juice by the ergates. Sounds inviting doesn't it?

Now let's go back at twelve. At that time you will find over 100 students lined up in the hall. As they go to the door Mr. Payne checks their tickets. When you go in the door you will find Mrs. Bailey, the supervisor, Mr. Perkins and Mr. Kyser as cooks in their white aprons and caps. You walk up to one table and get your napkin and silverware, then to another table where you are served. On your plate you will find 2 vegetables, a meat or meat substitute, usually a salad, a dessert, home made bread and a drink. You eat either in the English room, laboratory or room 1. After everyone is in his place, one of the cooks bring in the drink.

Of course a well balanced meal of nourishing food is of prime importance in this lunch room project but good manners, congenial conversation are also developed.

Bring your boot orders to Ken Isala Shoe Shop and save money.

Assembly

The patriotic part of our program for Friday Oct. 10 was introduced by Mrs. Watkins by playing "God Bless America."

The Junior class was in charge of the presentation of the Colors with Teddy Joe Myers and Albert Martin as bearers and James Biggs and Zebbie Lard as the escorts. Paul Dishman gave the pledge of allegiance. Then Star Spangled Banner, Texas Our Texas and Victory March was sung by the group. After the patriotic part was over they sang Billy Boy.

The sixth grade had charge of the program based upon Table Manners which everyone enjoyed very much. They presented a Hog Family and a Manners Family. The songs that were sung by the sixth grade were written by Darrel Proctor, Elsie Howell explained about each sketch. The other members were Mary Sue Seales, Dorothy Johnson, Ruby McLaughlin, Bob Phelan, Treva Bert King, Charles Neal Johnson, Lynn Cherry, Leon Deberly, Harvey Thomas, Joyce Dean, Mary Ellen Floyd, Velva Johnson, Lillian Marshall, Evelyn Morris, Lola Faye Owens, Saralyn Teaff, Dorothy Thomas, Billie Rich Tipton and Willie Vie Goode.

We were happy to see so many parents and invite them and others back next week.

State Supt. Visits School

Mr. Carl Clift, the deputy state superintendent, and Miss Ruth Riebersen, county superintendent, were visitors of Hedley school Wednesday, October 15.

The purpose of the visit was to check on the financial standards of this school.

Mr. Clift recommended maximum state aid for Hedley School. The intermediate pupils greatly enjoyed Mr. Clift's because of his method of entertaining them, especially grade five.

Your Electric Servant

Is Classified as a "National Defense Utility"

This Company is serving Camp Barkley, Abilene; Goodfellow Field, San Angelo; Bruce Field, Ballinger; Arledge Field, Stamford; Victory Field, Vernon; and other associated and cooperative projects, all of which are defined as National Defense Premises.

The Company, therefore, is classified as a National Defense Utility, and its property is protected by an Act of the Congress of the United States (Chapter 926-3D, Session 76 Congress) approved April 20, 1918; and Texas Labor-Violence Law (H. B. 800) passed by the Legislature on April 4, 1941.

Section 5 of the Federal Law reads as follows:

"That whoever, with intent to injure, interfere with, or obstruct the national defense of the United States, shall wilfully injure or destroy, or shall attempt to so injure or destroy, any national-defense material, national-defense premises, or national-defense utilities, as herein defined, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisonment not more than ten years, or both."

Section 1 of Texas H. B. No. 800 reads as follows:

"It shall be unlawful for any person by the use of force or violence, or threat of the use of force or violence, to prevent or to attempt to prevent any person from engaging in any lawful vocation within this state. Any person guilty of violating this Section shall be deemed guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by confinement in the State Penitentiary for not less than one (1) year nor more than two (2) years."

ished by confinement in the State Penitentiary for not less than one (1) year nor more than two (2) years."

Section 2 of Texas H. B. No. 800 reads as follows:

"It shall be unlawful for any person acting in concert with one or more other persons to assemble at or near any place where a 'labor dispute' exists and by force or violence prevent or attempt to prevent any person from engaging in any lawful vocation, or for any person, acting either by himself or as a member of any group or organization, or acting in concert with one or more other persons, to promote, encourage, or aid any such unlawful assemblage. Any person guilty of violating this Section shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by confinement in the State Penitentiary for not less than one (1) year, nor more than (2) years."

In these times of national emergency, it is the patriotic duty of every American to report any act or plot which endangers the country's safety. Thus, Your Electric Servant feels free in requesting that you report to local law enforcement agencies or to the nearest WTU office, any person or persons violating or planning to violate any of the provisions of the above acts, of which you have any knowledge.

Watch Your Kidneys!
Help Them Cleanse the Blood
of Harmful Body Waste
Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.
Symptoms may be nagging headache,
persistent headache, attacks of dizziness,
getting up nights, swelling, puffiness
under the eyes, feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength.
Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

treatment is wiser than neglect. Use

HALLOWEEN TRICKS FOR OCTOBER'S FAVORITE PARTY
(See Recipes Below)

WITCHES' NIGHT OUT

Spooks and fun while the goblins,
black cats and ghosts make merry—isn't that an inspiration to have
one grand, merry
party before the winter sets in?
Come, let's plan
stew and brew
and set the
witches' cauldron
boiling and bubbling!

You'll need hearty sandwiches,
plentiful and hot since the weather's slightly nipped with frost. Of course you'll have cider and doughnuts because they're wedded together and traditional. To top it off, have a witches' cake, a chocolaty, moist and crumbly, and perhaps one of those pumpkin shaped molds of ice cream, or at least orange ice, to carry out October's orange and black color scheme.

The party starts as soon as the invitations are sent out. These can be pumpkin, black cat or cauldron shaped, made double with the invitation written on the inside. Send them early so your guests won't make other plans. The more, the merrier.

Twirl some streamers of orange and black crepe paper around the room, bring out the frayed straw hats, checked shirts, and grandmother's costumes from that trunk
in the attic. All set? Here we go:

Sandwiches.
These can be made on the buffet
or at the table if you have a sandwich toaster. If made in the kitchen use the broiler. Have assorted bread, butter, place cheese on first layer, then another slice of buttered bread, then a slice of ham, and top with a slice of bread. Toast, cut in three, and fasten with toothpicks.

To bewitch your family and guests completely serve them a cake with that agreeable melt-in-your-
mouth quality.
Measure the ingredients carefull-
ly so you'll attain
that feathery
lightness so essential to a goocake. After the icing is spread on the cake, make decorations with melted chocolate.

Witches' Cake, (Devil's Food)
2 cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons double acting baking powder
½ teaspoon soda
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup butter or shortening
1 cup sugar
2 egg yolks, well beaten
3 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted
1½ cups milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 egg whites, stiffly beaten
Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt and soda. Sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar, and cream

LYNN SAYS:

A Halloween party can be a success without the least fuss.
First of all, decorations and table settings don't have to be letter perfect, for you can have the most fun in the midst of the basement or barn decorated with sheaves of cornstalk, pumpkin faces, rakes, hoes and goblins
made of sheets.

For your table use a large piece of burlap or cotton sacks sewed together and dyed scarlet or gold. A centerpiece of pumpkin with candles inside the hollow or fruit and burnished autumn leaves will bring cheers.

Write fortunes and place them in apples or nuts. Play pin the tail on the cat. Bob for apples.
Have target practice with bean shooters. Dance the Virginia Reel and other square dances if your floor can stand it—all amid plenty of black and orange crepe paper.
Halloween's the time for all this noisy fun.

together until light. Add egg yolks, beat well, then chocolate and blend well. Add flour alternately with milk and beat well each time. Beat until smooth, add vanilla, and fold in egg whites. Bake in two greased 9-inch layer pans in a moderate (350 degrees) oven. Ice with:
Seven Minute Frosting.

2 egg whites
1½ cups sugar
4 tablespoons water
1½ teaspoons vanilla
¼ teaspoon cream of tartar Put egg whites, water, sugar, in top of double boiler and set over boiling water. Beat constantly for seven minutes with rotary beater
then remove from fire. Add vanilla and cream of tartar and beat until of consistency to spread. Marshmallows (about 12 to 15) cut in pieces may be added.

Speaking of luscious cakes, there's another type of cake which will be just as much of a success either at your Halloween
party or cake
sale. As different from a chocolate
cake as night
from day, is this light, tender Silver Moon cake.
Its velvety texture is no trick if you use a good shortening and
cream it well!

Silver Moon Cake.
½ cup shortening
1¼ cups granulated sugar
2 cups sifted cake flour
2½ teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon almond extract
¾ cup milk
5 egg whites

Cream shortening and sugar until light, then add milk and sifted dry ingredients alternately, beating after each addition until smooth. Fold in stiffly beaten whites and flavoring last. Bake in three layers in a moderate (375 degrees) oven, 25 minutes. Frost with a butter frosting:

Uncooked Butter Icing.
¼ cup butter
2 cups powdered sugar
3 tablespoons hot milk
1 teaspoon lemon or almond
flavoring
Cream butter and shortening, add milk and blend until smooth. Add flavoring. For variation, add 2½ squares semi-sweet chocolate melted before blending in milk. Flavor chocolate icing with vanilla.

A cake that wins a place in the Hall of Fame is this spice cake
without which no cake sale is complete. But it isn't just an ordinary spice cake for it has the subtle flavor of bananas combined with the spices:

Spice Cake.
(Makes three 9-inch layers)
½ cup butter
2 cups brown sugar
4 eggs
1 cup milk
1 teaspoon each, cinnamon, nutmeg
¼ teaspoon each, allspice, cloves
2½ cups flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
2 bananas, mashed fine

Cream together the butter and sugar until light and fluffy. Add beaten egg yolks and bananas and blend well. Sift together the dry ingredients twice. Add them alternately with the milk, beating smooth after each addition. Last, fold in egg whites. Bake in three layer pans, in a moderate (350 degrees) oven, for 35 to 40 minutes. Ice between layers with a double recipe
of the Seven minute icing or Chocolate flavored uncooked icing. For a fruity spice cake, ½ cup raisins and ¼ cup nuts may be added with the flour.

HINTS

Buttonholes in sweaters should be sewn up before sweater is washed. Treated in this way buttonholes will not stretch.

Beat eggs only slightly when used in custards, puddings, sauces etc. Beat well when used to make food light, as in sponge cakes, puffy omelets, etc.

Stuff centers of apricots, pears or peaches, with cubes of mint or currant jelly. Brush with melted butter and broil five minutes.
Serve with meat, fish or fowl.

Four a cup of cold water over cooked cereal before leaving it for the night. This prevents a hard crust forming on cereal. Pour off water in the morning and reheat cereal.

Brooms and sweeping brushes should be hung up when not in use. If left standing on the bristles, the bristles get bent and will not do their work.

Invented Half-tone

The process of reproducing the tones of a photograph by means of dotted or checkered spots was invented in 1880 by Stephen Henry Horgan, an American photographer, says Pathfinder. The first half-tone ever printed appeared in the New York Daily Graphic in 1880. But Horgan's process was not immediately accepted. In fact, he was fired as art director of the New York Herald in 1893 when he suggested using half-tones to publisher James Gordon Bennett.
The values of half-tones are achieved by interposing a screen between the original photograph and the plate to be etched. Mr.
Horgan also experimented with transmitting photographs by wire, inventing a method in 1879.

As might be expected since Camel cigarettes are America's favorite, the induction into service of thousands of selectees and volunteers has only emphasized the service man's preference for Camels. Actual sales records from service stores show Camel is the favorite with men in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard.
Prince Albert is another big favorite with men in camp or on ships. Since service men have indicated in all surveys to date that tobacco ranks first in the gift lineup with them, it is natural that local tobacco dealers are featur-
