Robert Henry Jones

Another Hedley pioneer passed away Thursday when R. H. Jones died at the home of his daughter in Ft. Worth, where he had been ill for some time. He was 85 years of age.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church here Saturday by Rev. Russell Wingert, Presbyterian minister of Memphis, assisted by Rev. G. R. Le Mond. Interment was in Rowe cemetery under direction of Womack Funeral Home. The Masonic Lodge was in charge.

Robert Henry Jones was born Feb. 14, 1857, in Dallas county, Texas, where Garland now stands. He married Miss Sadie Price Stinson on Dec. 31, 1882, near Valley View, Cooke county. He moved to Greer county in 1889 and engaged in the cattle business, coming to Donley county in 1897.

He united with the Presbyterian church at Howe in 1904. He had been a Mason since Nov. 22, 1879 and was a charter member of Hedley Lodge No. 991 since its organization May 15, 1909.

He was one of the founders of the city of Hedley, was formerly mayor here, and was once a county commissioner.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sadie Jones of Hedley, four children, W. H. Jones of Hedley, Mrs. May Shelton and Miss Clara Jones of Ft. Worth, and Mrs. Ruby Mathan of Dallas, seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Other out-of-town relatives and friends attending the funeral service included H. W. Jones and Ora Jones Joyce of Garland, J. T. Jones, Minnie Joyce Reed and Lucile Jones Holland of Dallas, Earl Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Neely, Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Oster, Ivan Jones and H. C. Nash and family of Amarillo, Mrs. Ed Dishman and Bill Day of Cleardon. The Informer extends sincere sympathy to the bereaved.

Mothers Day Program

The Good Will Club entertained with a Mother's Day program as is their yearly custom Tuesday May 5th, at the home of Mrs. J. B. Masterson.

The guests registered as they entered and then were served punch. The Welcome was given by Mrs. J. B. Masterson. The guests then had a word guessing contest in which Mrs. Frank Kendall won the prize. Mrs. Earl Tollett then gave a reading. Then Mrs. J. W. Reese won a prize in the word guessing contest. Mrs. Thava Crawford and Mrs. Opal Adams sang to Our Mothers. Mrs. Ruth L. Duncan received the prize for being the oldest mother present. Everyone joined in singing several songs.

Refreshments of cake and ice cream were served to the following: Mesdames E. E. Newman, J. A. Mereman, E. L. Duncan, R. E. Mann, E. B. Watt, J. W. Reese, W. W. Bowden, Frank Kendall, Billy Brinson, F. M. Whittington, Martha J. Seab, Mattie Kilian, C. E. Johnson, M. T. Bethany, V. A. Mansard, Frank Heath, W. B. Morgan, W. E. Lawson, Thava Crawford, Opal Adams, C. E. LeMond, and Miss Sallie Page and Mary Alice Hunsacker.

The following club members were present: Mrs. J. B. Masterson, Earl Tollett, Dick Vallance, T. J. Mansard, C. E. Hunsacker, Wendell Smith, Paul Pyle, Lewis Simmonds, Bialne Doherty and M. W. Mosley.

Red Cross Notes

The Junior Red group has finished knitting two Afghans. They will soon be assembled, then on display. These girls are to be commended. When the class was started not one of them knew how to knit, now we have a fine group of knitters. We wish to thank each of you who helped the girls by buying thread.

An adult group has begun to knit sweaters. Mrs. G. B. Brinson has the honor of finishing the first sweater and is now knitting on her second one.

Through the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. Lake Dishman we will open our Red Cross Work Room in their building since they have discontinued their Confectionery business.

This work is volunteer work. It is for all, so don't wait to be invited. Watch for days to work, come and help. At present we will meet on Wednesday. Bring large needles to use in wool yarn next Thursday. If you want a sweater to knit notify your chair man.

Set aside Thursday, May 14 for Red Cross work.

Lions Club

The Lions Club will meet on the first and third Thursday night of each month.

Plants Tomatoes and cabbage 30c per hundred.

Mrs. W. G. Brinson

Wifadosos Club

The Wifadosos club will meet Tuesday, May 12, because of the Mother-Daughter banquet which is to be held on that date. The club's next meeting will be Tuesday, May 19.

Cash on the Counter With Each Proposal

An elderly widow had been spending a week-end with an old friend, and found himself very charmed with the daughter of the house.

So much so, in fact, that he took the first opportunity when they were alone in the park to pop the question to her.

"Oh, Jessie, my dear," he sighed explosively, "I go through anything for you, darling! Anything, if you will have me!"

The girl eyed the reading hair and the obvious "stuck" teeth. Then she replied, with an air of business:

"And, Mr. Macintyre, how much, may I ask you, have you got to go through?"

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS By Edward C. Wayne

British Aerial War Against Germany Relieves Pressure on Russian Front; President Moves to Halt Inflation; Gas Rationing Marked by Conflicts

EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper. (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Sir Claude Auchinleck, British commander in chief in the Middle East, (left) is shown with Maj. Gen. Napier Clavering, head of the British military mission to the Egyptian army, and Nahas Pasha, (right) prime minister of Egypt. The gathering, in Cairo, was in celebration of King Farouk's birthday.

BRITISH: Increase Tempo
The tempo of bombings by the Royal Air force planes on objectives in Europe had been vastly stepped up, and there had been indications that more and more deliberately the British were attempting in these raids to aid Russia.

Ever eastward had moved the objectives, first Luebeck, then Stettin, and then Rostock.

On this latter town, in two raids, the Royal Air force fliers had dumped a total of 900,000 pounds of bombs. The destruction was said to be most complete. Particular emphasis had been placed on the Heinkel aircraft factory.

But these were not the only objectives. On one day six giant raids had been carried out, with more than 600 planes zooming over the channel, bound on their lethal task.

British losses were not increasing, showing that with more constant practice, the British fliers were stepping up their technique and managing to get home in increasing numbers all the time.

Daylight hours had lengthened, weather had been favorable, and all of this was working to the liking of the British who were giving Germany, they believed, a worse and more continuous strafing than anything the Nazis had meted out to them earlier in the war.

Germany had begun to increase their retaliatory raids, and the British, ducking again into their shelters, hoped that these planes had been withdrawn from the Russian and Libyan fronts, thus giving the Red and the British troops more respite from attack.

Of the six raids in one day, three were on Baltic ports and the other three on channel coast points, the air ministry had said.

Heaviest hit town of England had been Exeter, home of a famous boys' school, where hundreds were said to have been made homeless and 12 deaths had resulted. But only 25 planes had taken part in this attack and this small number the British counted as a moral victory.

GASOLINE: Rationing

The order that all gasoline in the eastern seaboard states would go under severe rationing on May 15 had remained much in the air with Ickes' office and that of Henderson sending out daily statements which now and then were reconciled, but for the most part were marked by strong conflict.

One moment it would be announced that rationing would be 2½ to 5 gallons weekly for nonessential cars, and the next moment it would be, from the opposite source, announced that the ration would be 30 to 50 gallons a month.

At the same time it had been announced in Washington that new car rationing would be relaxed in order to put them in owners' hands and thus gain valuable storage space.

Henderson's office issued regulations which included that men having essential need of automobiles could get them if the present cars were declared inadequate. This seemed to boil down to a car being a 1939 or earlier model, or having been driven more than 40,000 miles.

NEW CALEDONIA . . . Reaction to Laval

The first positive and active aftermath of the Laval situation in Vichy was shown when the United States troops landed in force on the strategic Free French island of New Caledonia in the Southwest Pacific. There had been a small garrison of Free French on the island, and it was announced that the considerable American force landed there. The DeGaulleists had only recently seized the island, and still more re-

BEAVERBROOK: Leads With Chin In Call for Invasion

Lord Beaverbrook, in his masterful speech in which he praised Churchill to the skies, but called for a desperate and sudden invasion of the continent in order to create a second front and thus win the war swiftly while Russia is at her peak, caused a storm of controversy to arise in Britain.

It appeared the famous publisher had led with his oddly shaped chin. And his opposition press was not long in taking a shot at it.

One influential newspaper in Britain after another criticized Beaverbrook's speech, most of them taking the attitude that while Britain had been keyed up more and more for an invasion attempt, there was no spirit in the country to attempt it until the "last bullet necessary for success was ready and in the hands of the troops."

Britain, these papers said, "will not be hustled" into a decision to attack on the continent.

This had put somewhat of a damper on the previous reports, which had emanated in the form of hints at the time of General Marshall's visit to London, that an invasion on a large scale of some part of the continent was definitely in the immediate offing.

It made it look as though high quarters were chastising Beaverbrook, and that his speech indeed had been ill-advised.

That the British were definitely on the offensive in the air could not be denied. But that a land offensive would come soon seemed wishful thinking.

ARGENTINE: Swinging Over

Favorable news to the Allied nations had finally come from Buenos Aires.

It had been learned that the new Argentine chamber of deputies, following an election, had swung over to the United Nations side.

Thus the opposition coalition had gained control. Radical Deputy Jose Luis Cantillo had been elected president of the chamber.

It had been a dramatic scene, with supporters of Acting President Castillo, the "neutrality toward all" leader, leaving the room in an effort to prevent a quorum. But 81 deputies, one more than a quorum, remained on the floor, thus giving the coalition its victory.

DEPUTY JOSE LUIS CANTILLO
Argentine's man of the hour.

Argentina and Chile had remained the only two South American republics to fail to break off relations with the Axis powers. A resolution to break off relations immediately had been offered in the new Argentine chamber, and it was expected to pass.

Cantillo was viewed as the man of the hour.

JAPAN:

The Japanese fleet, heavily concentrated in two general sectors, the Southwest Pacific (including the Indian ocean) and in home waters near Japan, was rumored to be on the move toward the northeast, the Japs having decided that the bombers of Tokyo had been based on the Aleutian islands.

Observers had been quoted that if this should be the case, then there was a chance of a major sea battle in these waters, with at least an even chance that the United States navy would win.

True, the Japs had 13 aircraft carriers against about four for the Americans, but it had been said that the Japs could only marshal, on these carriers, 800 planes as against about 700 for the American fleet.

As close a margin as this would give the United States, on the basis of past performances, a definite edge, sufficient to win the battle in all probability.

BURMA:

British and Chinese defenders of Burma, the former mostly Indian territorial troops, of which the British army had in it more divisions than those from Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa combined (believe it or not), were still on the retreat under terrific Japanese pressure.

MISCELLANY:

Rio de Janeiro: A Spanish ship was carrying Axis diplomats back to Europe from various South American republics which had severed relations. It had been held up for more than two weeks trying to buy oil fuel for the journey.

New York: A Norwegian ship managed to make port under its own power after trading shots at sea with a German submarine.

ALL-BRAN FUDGE SQUARES—BEST YOU EVER TASTED!

Every mother in the land will want to bake these scrumptious cookies. Children will demolish a plate of them in a wink. Grown-ups rave about their "different" taste and new crunchy texture. They're made, of course, with the famous cereal, Kellogg's All-Bran.

CELLOG'S ALL-BRAN FUDGE SQUARES
3 squares un-sweetened
1/2 cup flour
1/2 cup All-Bran
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup nuts
2 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla extract

Melt chocolate over hot water and add butter. Beat eggs well, add sugar and beat until light and fluffy. Add melted chocolate and butter. Stir in flour, All-Bran, chopped nuts and vanilla. Pour into greased pan, making a layer about one-third inch thick. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) about 20 minutes. Yield: Sixteen 3-inch squares (8 x 8 inch pan).

Spreading News in Tibet

In Tibet news is read aloud by the priests to the populace. There are two reasons for this: Few Tibetans can read, and only 50 copies of their one newspaper are printed.

Walter Asboe, a European, does the job on a hand press. Then he sends the 50 papers to the lamas or priests, who summon the people of the neighboring villages to listen to the news.

The papers are then forwarded to another group of lamas. By the time they have traveled to the far frontiers of Tibet, the news may be from six months to two years old!

Senior Class Will

The last will and testament of the Class of 1942, of the Hedley High School:

We, the members of the said class, being of sane mind, do here by decree and bestow our legacies in full and unconditionally, to wit and as follows:

To our beloved teachers we bequeath the memory of our class brilliancy, our remarkable recitations, our industrious habits, our proper conduct on all occasions, our sunny dispositions, our beauty and our wit. May this memory ever remain bright and be a comfort to them in lonely hours of the future.

To the classes who have been associated with us, and especially to the Juniors, we leave our wonderful example as a modern class. May they ever follow in our footsteps in an effort to attain perfection as we have attained it (According to us and not our instructors.)

Also to the Junior class, the next year's Seniors, we hope, we leave a large supply of our most sincere sympathy because its members will not be able to attain our high standards of wit, wisdom and gab.

To Teddy Joe Myers we bequeath Earl Porter's ability to look wise when he doesn't know his lessons.

We leave to Travis Bailey, Bill Pruitt's ability to escape after the 9:30 bell has rung.

To Kenneth Brinson we leave Chesney Ruth Key's and Jane Kirkpatrick's talents of talking in the Study Hall without being caught by a teacher.

To Harold Clifton we bestow Truel Hoffman's ability to talk back to the teachers and get away with it.

To P. A. Dabman we leave Earl Porter's streamlined torso

To Margie Burdine we bequeath Colleen Baker's engaging smile
To Robert Johnson we leave Warren Baker's good disposition
We leave to Zebbie and Lottie Mae Randall's ability to act

To Foy Langford we leave Bertie Ruth Urey's ability to read chicken tracks, which is really shorthand.

Billy Bridges leaves Albert Martin all the hours he spends at Billie's

Joel Pink will receive Jane Rath Hall's ability to argue math problems with Mr. Payne.

To Ila Fas we bequeath Alice Dedson's sweet disposition

To Dorothy Jean Kiebertson we bequeath Peggy Nell Everett's ability at making Albert

Genius Doherty bestows upon Margie Barone her art of talking without saying anything

To Jo Ann Shaw we leave Margaret Beach's ladylike manner
Adele Myers hands down to Odell Pruitt his classily attitud to the girls.

O. L. McQueen with his ability to look innocent when he is in mischief to Albert Martin.

Assembly

The devotional part of our assembly program for May 1 was conducted by Brother Vermillion. He began the devotional with a prayer. His subject was "Silent Speech". He gave Christ as an example for people to pattern their lives after and to control their tongues as he did.

The Sophomore class had charge of the regular color ceremony with Dorothy Jo Reeves, Gwyneth Davis, Elaine King and Mary Jo Lowe participating. Mardice Tipton gave the pledge to the flag and W. W. Langford led the singing.

The program was then turned over to the first grade who used the stage as a radio studio. Just before the curtain was drawn Charlene Barnett announced that the program was to be conducted about a story they had read. Bill Payne acted as the radio announcer and the radio station was Station W. O. S. The audience was invited to the studio with Jack Moreman's master of ceremonies. The group sang four songs, Good Morning Every body, My Morning Song, My Mother's Gingerbread and Small Boats.

Caroline Reeves next read the story of a little girl named Sally who was lost in the woods. The group sang a last song, Salute to the Flag, and then the pledge to the flag was given by Jack Quisenberry. Bill Payne signed off for his station.

Mr. Payne greeted the visitors and made announcements. The children retired to their places while Mrs. Wainwright played Anchors Aweigh.

Confusing

"But why do you always look puzzled when I say I'm a self-made man?"
"I just can't decide whether you're bragging or apologizing."

There's one fellow who can fool all the women all the time. He's the one who changes the fashions.

His Trouble

"My advice to you, colonel, is to go through the movements of driving without using the ball," said the golf instructor.

"My dear fellow," answered the colonel, "that's precisely what I'm trying to overcome!"

In an automobile accident, absence of body is better than presence of mind.

Hard to Raise

Brown—Why has Jones carried that mortgage on his house so long?
Smith—Because he can't lift it, I guess.

That Nagging Backache
May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action
Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—the risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.
You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.
Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

Star Dust
STAGE SCREEN RADIO
By VIRGINIA VALE
(Revised by Western Newspaper Union.)

IF THAT Victory Caravan appears anywhere in your vicinity you'll certainly want to see it. Players enlisted by the Hollywood Victory committee to tour for Army and Navy relief are Charles Boyer, Eleanor Powell, Merle Oberon, Rise Stevens, Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy, Bert Lahr, Frank McHugh, Ray MacDonald, Desi Arnaz, Cary Grant, James Cagney, Joan Bennett and Olivia de Havilland.

It wasn't hard for Paramount to line up a cast for "Wake Island"—Brian Donlevy, Robert Preston, Macdonald Carey, Albert Dekker and Barbara Britton lead it. But stunt pilots were a necessity—and only four could be found! Fifteen years ago there were at least 100 who vied for jobs in such pictures as "Wings" and "Hell's Angels"; now they're in the army, navy, marine corps and Royal Canadian Air force.

When Betty Jane Rhodes was a child actress, appearing in "Forgotten Faces," Herbert Marshall used to buy her miniature airplanes as gifts. Reginald Denny gave her two model planes with tiny gas engines. She's a welder in an aircraft plant in the new musical, "Priorities of 1942," completely surrounded by planes, and is air-minded enough to be perfectly happy.

Richard Lyons, seven-year-old son of Bebe Daniels and Ben Lyons, is carrying on with his screen career while his parents star on the radio in England instead of on the American screen. He has an important role in "Atlantic Convoy"; is playing an English refugee, which comes close to his own life.

Pat O'Brien's youngsters—Maureen, seven, and Sean, five, visited their father on location at the Alhambra airport for "He's My Old Man," and persuaded the technical advisor to take them on a flight. The "flight" consisted of taxiing from one end of the field to the other.

Lynn Martin appeared several weeks ago in a singing commercial on the air's Radio Theater, and received so much praise that when a night club sequence appeared in a later script she was promptly signed for it. Also, she was engaged to sing with Ray Noble's band on the Edgar Bergen show.

The last picture John Beal did in Hollywood before he went to New York to appear in a stage play was "The Man Who Found Himself," in which Joan Fontaine was getting her start. He gave her a pep talk, told her to stick to it and some day she'd win the Academy Award. She visited him on the set of "Atlantic Convoy" the other day. "I just came to tell you that you told me so!" she said.

Pct Friday, another young singer recently heard with Bergen, told Ray Noble that he played Cupid for her and her aviator-husband. They were listening to his orchestra, at a Los Angeles hotel, and to its music her husband told her that she was the most beautiful girl in the world. She thinks the music had a lot to do with it—"But it was so beautifully done that I just had to marry him!"

Jean Tennyson, star of "Great Moments in Music," has inaugurated a "Share Your Birthday With Men in the Service" campaign—she took her 45 pound birthday cake to the Stage Door Canteen in New York and divided it among men of the armed forces.

ODDS AND ENDS—Evelyn Keyes wears exotic perfumes—so pity Glenn Ford, playing opposite her in "He's My Old Man," as he's allergic to perfumes... Sounds like a record of some kind—in his first few pictures Roger Clark kissed Merlene Dietrich, Barbara Stanwyck, Lupe Velez, Ruth Ford and Eileen O'Hearn... Robert Ryan has reported to RKO Radio for one of the choicest roles ever handed a screen newcomer, that of the lead in "Name, Age and Occupation"... "Parachute Nurse" brought Marguerite Chapman and William Wright their first screen kiss—and when he grasped her the first time she slipped and turned her ankle!

Perfect Close for a Meal—Apricot Jelly Roll (See Recipes Below)

Mother-Daughter Luncheon

Once a year it is becoming for Daughter to don the cook's cap and uniform and come out with a whole meal cooked to please Mother. And the day Mother appreciates it most is on her day of the year—Mother's day! So, today, I've planned a menu which even the youngest cooks can make into a glorified meal to which they can invite their mothers.

Now, young cooks, on your toes if you would gather laurels at Mother's day luncheon time! Bring out the measuring cups and ingredients, first. Then read the recipes over several times and visualize each step before you start. Ready? Good. Your first course—served in small glass cups with a sprig of mint, if you can get it—will stimulate the appetites and brighten the table:

- *Fruit Cup. (Serves 8).
- 3 oranges, peeled
- 1 grapefruit, peeled
- 1 pint strawberries, hulled
- 2 bananas

Section the oranges and grapefruit. Peel the bananas and dice. Mix with fruit sections. Sprinkle lemon juice over the fruit, sweeten to taste. Let stand and chill. When ready to serve, place in fruit cups.

Eggs are plentiful now because the government asked farmers to have their hens work overtime to increase egg production that they might be sent abroad and have enough for home use.

So, bring out the eggs and their surplus of nutrition to menus by choosing one of these two recipes for your main luncheon dish. Eggs are noted for the facility with which they can be cooked, and there is but one major rule to follow in cooking them: use as little heat as possible to get a tender product.

- *Eggs a la King. (Serves 6-8).
- 4 tablespoons butter
- 4 tablespoons flour
- 2 cups hot milk
- 1 teaspoon salt
- Pepper
- 1/2 tablespoon chopped onion
- 1 tablespoon chopped green pepper

Lynn Says:
The Score Card: The nation's sugar bowl is due to be somewhat smaller than last year's because we will have to get along with a third less sugar than we had before. This means we will be using several substitutes.

You smart homemakers will learn how to use maple sugar, where you like maple flavoring. One and one-third cups of maple sugar may be substituted for one cup of granulated sugar.

Honey, oldest sweetening, has versatile uses. Use it on your breakfast fruits, cereals, sauce for ice cream, in cakes, quick-breads, cookies, even in sugars, jams and jellies. Since honey has a distinctive flavor, use half honey and half sugar in recipes or the consistency and color of the product you make may be changed considerably.

Corn syrup may be substituted cup for cup for granulated sugar, but when using it, cut the liquid in the recipe down by one-third. Molasses makes your ginger-breads, baked beans, brown bread, cakes and even cookies. Besides these substitutes you'll have dried fruits which are high in sugar content. When stewing fruits, add sugar toward the end of the cooking period; it will take less to sweeten the fruit.

This Week's Menu

- Mother-Daughter Banquet
- *Fruit Cup
- *Eggs a la King
- Asparagus
- *Orange Frosted Berry Salad
- Biscuits and Honey
- *Jelly Roll
- Tea or Coffee
- *Recipe Given

1/2 tablespoon chopped pimiento
6 hard cooked eggs
1/2 cup sliced, cooked mushrooms
Melt the butter, add the flour and stir until smooth. Combine with hot milk. Let cook eight minutes over hot water (in a double boiler). Stir with egg beater. Add onion, green pepper, pimiento, sliced eggs and mushrooms. Let cook five minutes. Serve hot on buttered toast.

Eggs a la Rockefeller.
(Makes 1 serving)
1 slice bread
1 thick slice tomato
1 soft cooked egg
2 tablespoons cheese sauce
Parsley

Toast the bread slightly and spread thinly with butter. Place the slice of tomato on the bread, then on the tomato, put the soft boiled egg. Over this pour the cheese sauce and garnish with parsley.

Cheese sauce: Add 1/2 cup finely grated or finely cut cheese to 1 cup hot white sauce, and stir until cheese is dissolved.

*Orange Frosted Berry Salad. (Serves 6)
1 tablespoon gelatin
2 tablespoons cold water
1/2 cup orange juice, heated
1/2 cup orange juice, unheated
1/4 cup sugar

1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 cup orange pieces
1/4 cup berries or seedless grapes
1/2 cup sliced peaches
Orange sections
Frosted berries

Soften the gelatin in the water 5 minutes. Dissolve in the heated orange juice. Cool and add the unheated orange juice. When slightly thickened add the orange pieces, grapes, and sliced peaches. Pour into individual molds. Chill until firm. Unmold and garnish with orange sections and clusters of frosted berries. (To frost berries, dip in slightly beaten egg white and roll in granulated sugar. Spread on paper to dry.) Serve salad with lemon flavored mayonnaise.

As you go into your sugar-rationing period, are you keeping your eyes peeled for recipes that take it easy on the sugar without sacrificing any of their appetite appeal? For that very reason you'll like this one of jelly roll because it uses naturally sweetened apricots for the filling and eliminates the powdered sugar sprinkled over the top.

- *Jelly Roll. (Makes 10-12 slices)
- 3 eggs
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 cup sifted cake flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 5 tablespoons flour
- 2 tablespoons butter

Add salt and vanilla to eggs, beat until light and fluffy. Add sugar in 2-tablespoon portions, beating after each addition. Add sifted flour and baking powder. Fold in carefully and quickly. Stir in water and butter, heated together until butter is melted. Pour into a jelly roll pan, about 16 by 11 by 1 inch that has been greased and lined with paper, then greased again. Bake in a moderately hot (375-degree) oven about 18 minutes or until nicely risen and delicately brown over the surface. Loosen edges and turn onto a piece of waxed paper or a towel sprinkled with powdered sugar. Remove pan and peel off waxed paper. Spread with dried fruit—cook your favorite dried fruit (apricot, prunes or peaches are good) in a minimum of water, then put through a sieve, cool and spread. Roll lengthwise, cool on a cake rack.

Household Hints

Never let eggs stand in a warm place. The lower shelf of the refrigerator while the temperature is about 40 degrees F., is the best place to place them.

If the liquid from canned vegetables is drained before serving, it should be placed in the refrigerator in a tight covered container. The vitamins will be better preserved if the liquid is not exposed to air.

Try light brown sugar on any breakfast cereal. It takes less and adds greatly to the taste.

If cooking utensils are soaked immediately after the food has been removed, they may be easily cleansed. Cold water is best for eggs, milk or oily substances. Hot water acts more quickly on greasy foods.

A dibber is a good tool for bulb planting. Learn the knack of giving it a swinging twist to make the bottom of the hole round so the bulbs will not be "hung" with air space under them.

Wooden saws and bows are likely to warp unless they are washed and stored carefully. Wash them quickly in warm water—never let them soak—and store them in a cool, dry place.

First Baptist Church Notes

We are in the midst of a revival. The attendance at both services have increased since Monday and the interest is growing. And, friends if there was ever a time when people ought to be interested in revivals and in the things of God, this is the day. To say, "I do not need reviving" is to try to cover up a sinful life! Remember: The day service at 8:00 p. m.; the evening service at 8:45 p. m.
We will have a special Mother's Day Service Sunday morning. The Sunday School will give a brief program at the assembly period, about 10:45 and the sermon at 11 a. m. will be in harmony. Pray and come.

Resolution of Respect

Whereas, our brother, R. H. Jones, A. Master Mason, since November 22, 1879, and a Charter Member of Hedley Lodge No. 991 A. F. & A. M. since its organization on May 15, 1909 was on the thirtieth day of April 1942 called from his duties on earth to join that innumerable caravan from whence no traveler returns;
Whereas, he was one of the founders of the City of Hedley, once one of Dunley County's Commissioners, and a participant in the civic life of our community;
Whereas, he was a member of the Presbyterian Church and an elder in the same, a worthy brother, a faithful husband, and a good father who was constantly laying good and wholesome instruction before his family and fellowmen;
Be it resolved, that our Lodge has suffered a great loss by the summons of our brother from the walks of life; and that we hold his life as a worthy example to the rising generations because of his truthness of heart and uprightness of conduct;
Be it further resolved, that we extend to the family of our deceased brother our heartfelt sympathy in this sad hour as they mourn the loss of their loved one; and that a copy of these resolutions be furnished the family.
Be it further resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the Lodge; and that a copy be published in the Hedley Informer.
