Hedley Boys In Service

Following is a partial list of the Hedley boys in the service. A farther list will be printed soon. See or phone us if you know any names which should be listed. Our citizens are proud of these boys, and want them to know that they are remembered.

Memorial Service

A memorial service for Hedley's boys who are in the armed services was held Thursday morning at the First Baptist Church. Rev. Helen Coffman was in charge of the program, which opened with the Star Spangled Banner, played by Mrs. A. L. Teaf. The congregation then sang America.

The high school and upper grade school marobed in carrying American flags. After two songs, Battle Hymn of the Republic and Faith of Our Fathers, Rev. O. K. LeMond and Rev. V. A. Hansard led in prayer.

School Supt. G. O. Hill then made a very timely and inspiring address on the war, after which Rev. Teaf read the names of all Hedley boys in the service.

After a short talk by Rev. Goffman the program was closed with the song Trust and Obey.

Lions Club Meeting

At the last meeting of the local club we were honored with the presence of three Lions from the sponsoring club of Glarendon. They were Lions L. E. Thompson (president of the club), E. E. Drennan and Olan Lewry. Lion Thompson spoke on his recent trip to the Lion's International at Toronto, Canada. Lion Drennan spoke of his trip three years ago to the International. Interesting remarks were also made by Lion Olan Lewry. Mrs. Robert Watkins, Club sweetheart, favored the club with two plane soles. An enjoyable evening was spent by all in attendance. Mrs. J. B. Masterson was in charge of the serving.

The time of meeting was changed from 9:00 to 8:30 p. m.

The following Thursday night in business session the club accepted the application for membership of Chester O. Hill and Ed Belivar. The club meets the 1st and 3rd Thursdays of each month.

Revival

The meeting at the Church of the Nazarene is now going on. We got a good start and are looking forward to a good time in the services. The Rev. Mrs. Maud Busby is doing the preaching. Mr. Nelson Seago has charge of the singing, and Mrs. G. W. Imel is playing the piano. We hope to see many new faces in these services, and wish to say that you are always welcome. Come in time for the prayer meeting and help pray for lost people. The meeting will run through the 13th of September.

Rowe Cemetery Club

The Cemetery Club is out of money. We lacked $23 having enough to pay for the last work done. Do you feel we have used the money, as we promised, for the upkeep of the cemetery. We feel you are pleased with our cemetery.

This year for some reason so many failed to help with the money. It has taken more work and money because wages are higher. We need to have another drive for funds now. If we quit now we will have lost all previous work.

Won't you help again? Don't neglect this; do it today.

See W. I. Raines, Claude Nash, John Dixon, Mrs. Clyde Bridges Jr. Security State Bank.

We wish to thank each of you who have helped this good work.

METHODIST CHURCH

The pastor, Rev. G. R. LeMond is away this week in Revival Services at Lissare on the Acme Circuit, where he was pastor for three years. He returned last Monday from Marshall Community on the same Circuit. There will be preaching services as usual Sunday morning at the regular time. It is hoped that a good congregation will greet the guest preacher of the morning. In accord with the practice of cooperation we will not have our evening preaching service. The League will meet as usual. The membership is invited to worship with the Nazarenes, whose meeting will be in progress at this time.

Polka don't forget the meeting at the Methodist church starts Sept. 11th. We hope to see the house well filled from the beginning. Will you help to make this possible?

First Baptist Church Notes

Rev. Helen Coffman of Dallas closed a successful revival at the First Baptist Church Sunday. John Sparks of Rhame led the song services.

Attendance at the meeting was good, and much interest was shown. The attendance from the other church was much appreciated.

Ten additions to the church were made, six by letter and four by baptism.

NOTICE

THINGS for You TO MAKE

BEAUTY comes to the linen closet in fascinating pairs when pillow slips are embroidered with these new motifs. At top, there is a picture treatment, unusual and interesting. Next—a scalloped band of dainty flowers in all white is effectively relieved by pastel center flowers. For the third pair, the perennial butterfly emerges in a new and lovely design; lastly, pots of tulips furnish distinctive embroidery in cross stitch.

You'll agree there is beauty in all four designs, and you'll be glad to know they are all in one usable—several-times transfer—23244, 15 cents. Send your order to:

Mr. Chu's Name Is Not One to Be Sneezed At!

At a United China Relief dinner Mr. Kah Chu, prominent business man from Foochow, China, was scheduled to make a speech. Before that event began the master of ceremonies came over, very solicitously asked Mr. Chu how to pronounce his name. Mr. Chu smiled, suggested: "If you will remember 'kerchoo,' I think the association will help you get it right." The toastmaster thanked him, rose a few minutes later to introduce the speaker. "This evening," he said, "we are very proud to present Mr. . . . He fumbled around in his subsistence a moment for the association, then came out triumphantly with: " . . . Mr. Sneeze."

In the Navy a floor is a "deck," doors are "bulkheads," downstairs is "below," and a cigarette is a "Camel." WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Brazil's Declaration of War on Axis Aids Western Hemisphere Solidarity; 'Largest' U. S. Convoy Reaches Britain; Marines Score Again in Pacific Drive

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper. Released by Western Newspaper Union.

U. S. fliers in London celebrate after the first raid on Hitler's European arsenals. Target of the first raid was Rouen, France, which was left in flames. Center: Holding the wire from the first bomb dropped by a Flying Fortress is Capt. William Musselwhite of Jackson, Miss.

LARGEST CONVOY: Arrives in England

Shape of things to come in Europe was clearly etched by the announcement that the largest U. S. troop convoy ever attempted in this war had landed safely in Great Britain. Military experts quickly viewed this move as a speed-up gesture in United Nations' second front plans. Included in the convoy were "many thousands" of soldiers and airmen plus vast quantities of war materials. Troops were swiftly disembarked and scattered to the interior of England, there to join other units already in training for the attack on German held Europe. "Special units" and "task forces" in the convoy added weight to the theory that U. S. troops will play an increasing role in future Commando raids or other action on the continent.

MORE ACTION: In the Pacific

As U. S. forces were continuing their mopping up activities in the Solomon Islands word from another sector of the Pacific indicated that the marines had done it again. This time it was the Gilbert Islands that felt the power of a marine detachment as it smashed a Jap seaplane base, radio installations and stores on the island of Makin, island in the Gilbert group. This action came in the form of a hit and run attack. Caught entirely by surprise, the Japs were so confused that bombers from other bases actually destroyed their Jap planes on the ground.

Meanwhile all was not quiet in the Solomons, scene of the earlier and more extensive action by the U. S. forces. Here the marines were busy cleaning out the Japs that retreated to the hills after initial successes were scored by the American attackers.

Trouble for the marines came from another source but an official communique from Pearl Harbor revealed that it had been treated with typical marine thoroughness. This was a night attack by fast boats of 700 Japs who stormed the marine-held positions from the sea. After a night and day of fighting, 670 Japs were dead and the other 30 were captured. Marine losses were 28 killed and 72 injured.

WAR PRODUCTION: An Important Date

Straight from the source that should know—the War Production board—the nation learned how it was doing in the battle of the assembly lines. Donald Nelson, WPB chief, told the U. S. frankly where it stood. It amounted to this: War production is ahead in some categories, behind schedule in others. Biggest problems are shortages of materials and balancing of output among various agencies and service branches. These, he said, are getting vigorous attention.

Such production also now has a date objective. Nelson said that U. S. war production is being planned to provide the maximum impact on the enemy by July 1, 1943. This does not mean that our offensive will necessarily reach its peak by that date but this is the definite strategic goal of production and all production will be gauged by the one question: "How much will it contribute to the war effort by July 1, 1943?"

ELECTRIC POWER: Less for Civilians

In a move to readjust its wartime power expansion program the War Production board has halted or suspended work on 85 public and private power projects. In addition, the WPB assigned such low priority ratings to 23 federal projects that completion probably will be postponed until after the war, unless new demands arise. The WPB said that "civilian inconvenience and sacrifice must be expected."

BRAZIL AT WAR: First in South America

Angered by months of Axis aggression, Brazil became the first South American nation to declare war upon Germany and Italy, thus swelling the ranks of the United Nations to 29. Brazil's declaration of a state of war climaxed a week filled with mass demonstrations against the Axis sinking of five Brazilian ships with the loss of approximately 600 lives.

The state of war did not include Japan, although Brazil broke diplomatic relations with all three Axis nations last January. The declaration of war cleared the way for immediate measures to secure the protection of what has been termed the most vulnerable land area on the Atlantic side of the Western hemisphere—the Natal bulge only 1,600 miles from Dakar in Africa. Military men long have pointed to this sector as the place where Axis forces would strike first if they were able to consolidate their African and European positions.

Brig. Gen. Amaro Soares Bittencourt, Brazilian military attaché to the United States, said that Brazil "is defending the continent," and that "we must congregate and reunite all our military elements for the defense of the northeast, the strategic point on the bulge of Brazil for invasion by the Axis."

RUSSIA: Bloody Battle

Good news resulting from Allied offensives in the Pacific was offset by continued reversals on the Russian front. As the Nazi pincer movement drove relentlessly toward Stalingrad, the official Soviet communique admitted new crossings of the Don river.

"In the area northeast of Kotelnikovo," the communique said, "our troops fought intensive battles with large tank and infantry forces. On various sectors the Germans, at the cost of tremendous losses, managed to advance."

Fresh Nazi reinforcements, brought out of the reserve pool or shifted from other sectors, were thrown into the bloody battle for Stalingrad. The reckless disregard of losses gave evidence of Nazi desperation for a knockout blow to the Red army.

Stalingrad is a rich prize. Its prime importance is in its location on the Volga river, along which the oil of Baku and Allied supplies shipped through the Persian gulf reach central Russia. In addition, the city's huge plants produce tanks and war supplies, and its oil refineries add to its strategic value.

COMMANDO RAID: 'Official Success'

As Allied service chiefs studied the results of the Commando raid on Dieppe, official sources declared that the operation fulfilled its objective. Valuable information on Nazi defenses was secured.

The raid, employing British and Canadian Commandos supported by American Rangers, was a nine-hour battle on the Nazi-fortified coastal defenses at Dieppe, midway between Calais and Le Havre. Initial German estimates placed the invader force at 15,000, but the exact number remained an Allied secret. The force carried tanks and artillery with them.

"As the result of heavy fighting . . . our casualties were high but not unduly so in view of the operation," the British communique said. "The navy lost a fairly large number of landing craft because naval craft did not leave the French coast until it was known that every possible man had been taken off."

The raiders were reported to have destroyed ammunition dumps, a six-gun shore artillery battery, a large anti-aircraft battery and a radio location station. Reports from Vichy placed British dead at 500.

ALLOTMENT: Speed-Up

Dependents of enlisted men in the U. S. armed forces will be getting their allotments earlier than November 1 under the terms of a bill passed by Congress and now signed by the President.

After the President had affixed his signature the navy said it would issue such allotment checks "very soon" and the army announced that their payments would start early in September.

Originally these payments would have started November 1, although applications filed early would be retroactive to June 1. Basic payment to dependents is $50 per month, servicemen contributing $22 and the army or navy $28.

It could not be determined how many applications for such payments had been made to the army or navy. It was estimated however that about half the men in the service would have dependents receiving the allotments.

YOUR DRAFT STATUS: May Change Soon

Married men and men now deferred because they work in essential industry will be called in the draft in the not distant future. That was the statement of Brig. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, national director of selective service, before a well-packed forum at a Chicago university.

In respect to men deferred because of war work, Gen. Hershey said: "You just can't go on deferring a man for work reasons alone if you can find an older man, a woman, or a physically handicapped person to take that man's place. It's going to be necessary to reclassify those 2A's and 2B's (war-work deferments) — and necessary means just that, necessary. Just because they are in war industry is no reason for permanent deferment. The industrialists will simply have to train substitutes."

BRIG. GEN. LEWIS B. HERSHEY

He was also asked about the prospects for 3A's—deferred because of dependencies. "The first in order are the so-called 'grandmother cases,' the men with second-class dependents—grandparents, mothers, brothers, step-brothers and so on. I think they're under the light right now. As sure as September 1 comes around—well, obviously, those fellows are next."

"And the men with wives only are just as obviously next after that. Then would come the men with wives and children, and the question there seems to be what is the degree of dependency?"

COFFEE, OVERALLS: One Down; the Other Up

The possibilities of coffee rationing appeared more imminent with the government's order to restrict deliveries to dealers to 65 per cent of last year's deliveries as compared with the present monthly quota of 75 per cent.

The decrease in coffee deliveries was but one of several actions which will bring the war ever closer to Mr. and Mrs. John Public.

Increased employment has resulted in steps by the War Production board to make cotton looms turn out more rugged fabrics needed for serviceable work clothes.

The theater-going public may have reduced fare in the pot so distant future. Operators of movie and stage theaters were warned by WPB that shortages of materials would make it increasingly difficult to keep all show houses open.

MISCELLANY:

COMMANDER: An ace of World War I, Brig. Gen. Clayton L. Bissell, was appointed commander of U. S. army air forces in China, Burma and India.

IMPROVED: Returning from an official tour of Alaska, Sen. Mon C. Wallgren of Washington announced himself "much improved by the improved military situation" in the Aleutians.

SUNK: American submarines, hammering at Japan's extended Pacific communication lines, sank four and damaged two more enemy ships. Two cargo ships and a large transport were sunk in the western Pacific. A large merchant ship was sunk off the Aleutians.

TEAM: Henry Kaiser, western shipbuilding wizard, and Howard Hughes, noted round-the-world flier, have announced they are joining in a program to build a fleet of 500 "flying freighters" to carry important war supplies to the fighting fronts in all parts of the world.

Fifth Column in Argentine

By Herbert M. Clark

(WNU Feature—Through special arrangement with American Magazine)

Members of a powerful Axis organization, which is bustling today in Argentina, have a plan of South American conquest. They are working to carry out by infiltration, by arming a militant fifth column, by propaganda, by sabotage, by espionage.

The only reason they are getting away with it is that Argentina, unlike other South American republics, has not broken off relations with the totalitarians, nor done anything effective to curb the activities of totalitarian agents.

Other South American nations have driven Axis agents underground and cut their communications with Berlin. But in Argentina the agents find it easy to cable or telephone from Buenos Aires to Tokyo, Berlin, Madrid, or Rome. So Argentina today is even more vital to Axis plans than when Hitler first drafted those plans.

In fact, that sharply pointed southern tip of South America which is Argentina has become a dagger aimed at the heart of the Americas. It is our greatest danger point in South America.

Militant Hitlerism.

Here the Nazis already have a military organization numbering about 65,000. Japanese and other Axis nationals, together with Argentine sympathizers, would swell this "army" to more than 100,000—greater than the entire Argentine army, which numbers less than 90,000.

This Nazi army is a camouflaged and hidden army. Its members, who have sworn allegiance to Der Fuehrer, are found in sports and social clubs, singing societies and charity organizations. Behind these false fronts, selected Nazi leaders have brought drill and organization and equipment to such perfection that the entire force could be mobilized within one hour by calling out motorized messengers.

This army is equipped with arms. Government raids are infrequent, and only a handful have been successful. But the few caches discovered have yielded hundreds of rifles, automatic rifles, and light and heavy machine guns, together with thousands of rounds of ammunition and crates of hand grenades, some produced locally in German metal shops and chemical plants.

Command was vested in Gen. Gunther Niedenfuhr, military attaché to the Nazi embassy in Argentina. He is out of action now, however, for he was also accredited to Brazil, and was in Rio when the Vargas government severed relations with the totalitarians and set in motion the machinery which in April deported all Axis diplomatic personnel.

Strongly Organized.

I have not been able to identify Niedenfuhr's successor, but I know he left behind a general staff drawn from other military and naval attaches, from friendly elements in local armed forces, and from officers, especially of the German and Japanese army and navy, who have "retired to South America," and who now turn up as cooks and farm laborers, business men and dentists, tradesmen and sailors, and even priests.

Such is the Nazi strength, as compared with Argentina's defenses, that a retired Argentine general, Ramon Molina, stated: "In case of invasion, Argentina would beyond doubt be forced to capitulate in a very few days."

Local Leadership.

The people of Argentina would bring this Nazi fifth column to a dead stop if they could. But their government stands in the way. At least 85 per cent of the 13,000,000 people are actively opposed to the totalitarians. Unfortunately, the remaining 15 per cent, including the Nazis and the "nazionalists," includes a disproportionate number of government officials.

Acting President Ramon Castillo is not pro-Nazi. But he is conservative, even reactionary, and his administration has certainly not been anti-Nazi. Each government department has its clique, small but effective, of men who are pro-Nazi and who occupy key positions.

The official policy, based on denial that any danger exists, is one of indifference, which lets the Germans and their Axis and Argentine colleagues go right on working.

The people of Argentina, however, are determined to fight any attempt to install a totalitarian regime, whether by internal uprising or invasion, or both together.

The Nazis, in their plans for invasion, expect assistance from at least parts of Argentina's armed forces. By the admission of their own officers, these forces would not offer much resistance.

Hedley School News

Mr Hill is checking material and personnel for a school band. A school band would also be a benefit for the town as well as the school. If anyone has an instrument that he would lend or sell, any of the teachers would like to contact him.

The Sophomores have elected the following officers: Jack Snowden, president; Johnnie Ray Everett, vice president; Ward Horn, secretary; Letha Bain, reporter. The sponsor has not yet been elected.

We Seniors of Hedley High School met August 20th to organize our class. First of all Travis Bailey was chosen to act as presiding chairman for this first meeting. The class officers chosen were as follows: Joel P. Funk, president; Anna Lee Hill, vice-president; Margie Burdine, secretary; treasurer Jeanette Tipton; reporter Miss Hawkins was chosen sponsor and Mrs. Jap Shaw as class mother.

So far only thirteen students have enrolled as seniors for this school term. Although we are a small class, with the help of Miss Hawkins we are going to make this a record year for any senior class that has graduated from Hedley High School.

ON THE HOME FRONT
with RUTH WYETH SPEARS

THIS is another design in the series planned to use up odds and ends of woolen materials to make lasting floor coverings. The design is very old and was made by other women during other wars. Dimensions are given in the sketch for making your own patterns for the links and the fleur de lis. The shaded parts of the diagrams show a half and a quarter of the design drawn on folded paper. The dotted lines show how the pattern will appear when the paper has been cut. The design is outlined on the burlap by drawing around the cut-out pattern with wax crayon.

The rug colorings have been planned to repeat tones in the room color schemes.

NOTE: There are suggestions for preparing hooked rug materials and for making original designs in BOOK 3 of the series which Mrs. Spears has prepared for readers. Book 3 contains directions for a hooked rug that any beginner can make easily and quickly. Booklets are 10 cents each. If you order both booklets you will receive a pattern and directions for the Add-A-Square Rug. Be sure to request it with your order. Address:

Summerless Year

The New England Yankee called the year 1816 "Eighteen Hundred and Froze to Death." There was frost and snow every month during 1816 in New England, according to reports. January of 1816 was only slightly colder than normal; February was warmer than usual. But Maine got a heavy snowfall in April, with farmers planting their crops while wearing ear muffs and mittens. The ice did not go off Lake Erie until May 10. On May 15, it was freezing in Pennsylvania and Virginia. The abnormal cold of 1816 also hit Europe.

All summer prayers for warm weather to save the crops were offered up in Swedish churches. It was cold even in northern Africa in the summer of 1816.

Star Dust
STAGE SCREEN RADIO
By VIRGINIA VALE
Released by Western Newspaper Union.

AT NINE O'CLOCK on a night of Tuesday, September 1, every theater in the land is expected to stop its program and stage a "Salute to Our Heroes"; it's planned as one of the features of the treasury's billion-dollar war bond and stamp drive. Patriotic airs will be played as a color guard marches down the aisle, a one-minute speech will be made, the audience will give three cheers and then sing the national anthem. If every movie theater is filled, 11,000,000 people will participate.

Bobby Breen, once famous as a child singing star, who retired from the screen in 1933 at the age of 13, is coming back to it. In Republic's "Johnny Doughboy" he will play himself, a passe movie star, appearing with Jane Withers and Patrick Brook.

During the past year Ginny Simms has been working for RKO, under the usual six-month contract, with options. There's been no big publicity build-up. But recently she signed as the singing mistress of ceremonies for the new "Johnny Presents" radio show, starting September 8—immediately she was cast for three important films, and two other studios that wanted to borrow her were refused!

Orson Welles has given us another superb picture; "The Magnificent Ambersons" rates right along with "Citizen Kane." He makes a story really come to life. And he has done as all a service in bringing Dolores Costello back to the screen.

Dorothy Lamour has a brand-new makeup for "White Cargo," but it sounds like one of those things that one would rather do without. She wears five successive layers of a fluid foundation that combines cream with powder; each is applied all over her body with a sponge and allowed to dry before the next is applied. Then she's sprayed with a film containing gold dust!

"The War Against Mrs. Hadley" has been selected by the Kate Smith radio hour for a nation-wide salute on September 25. It features Edward Arnold, Fay Bainter, Spring Byington, Richard Ney, Jean Rogers and Van Johnson. Quite a way to launch a picture, as the Kate Smith hour is broadcast over 104 stations, and is said to attract more than 30,000,000 listeners.

Susan Hayward can thank her stars that she's a good screamer. Few actresses can scream convincingly, but Susan let out such a good yell when testing for "Reap the Wild Wind" that C. B. DeMille promptly signed her up for the second feminine lead. As a result of her performance, those in the know are predicting stardom for the pretty little redhead within a year.

Joan Davis can thank broadcasting for furthering her movie career. Though she's such a clever comedienne, her roles just seemed to be getting smaller and smaller. Then Rudy Vallee asked her to guest star on his program a few times, and she was such a hit that he made her a regular. Whereupon the film studios began to wake up to what they'd been missing, and she's in demand once more.

Lesley Woods, who stars in Columbia's "Joyce Jordan" every afternoon, likes to remember when she and Tyrone Power were on the payroll of the Motion Picture Exhibit at the Century of Progress Exposition in 1933. She says they stood around and tried to look like movie stars and ate ham sandwiches.

ODDS AND ENDS—When Jacqueline White, reported on the set of "Styway to Glory" she was handed a telegram wishing her good luck, signed "Uncle Frank"—meaning Frank Knox, secretary of the navy... Dave Elman, the "Hobby Lobby" man of radio, has been so busy that he hasn't been able to catch up with his own hobby for months; he's a stamp collector... Meyer Davis heads a committee of bandleaders to collect musical instruments for American prisoners of war—the Y. M. C. A. will distribute them... William Powell and Hedy Lamarr teamed to sell in "Crossroads" that they'll be starred in "Starlight," a story of marital complications.

Household Hints
by Lynn Chambers

Turn a Meal Into a Banquet With Blueberry Muffins (See Recipes Below.)

Prepare for Week-Ends

Lazy days with first signs of fall in the air, wilted appetites and the whole family home for the week-end are a heavy drain on the homemaker. If she expects to spend any time with her family, Madame Housewife must scurry around and plan a preparedness campaign which will stock her refrigerator with foods that can be pulled—like the traditional bunny out of the hat—and still keep her reputation as the "best cook around here."

It's a mistaken notion that the main dish has to be an elaborate hot and heavy affair that sends the hostess to the head of her table sweltering after-hours of preparation. A much better idea would be to have a cool, tempting Chicken-Ham Mousse such as I've planned for you today.

Wash the vegetables and store them in the cold compartment and they're ready to toss together in a few minutes, crisp, and chewy, coated with a flavorful dressing, in a salad supreme. If the family really has its heart set on "something hot" bring out some bran muffins, all moist and tasty with blueberries. These take but a short time to bake.

Your table should be bright and gay with oranges and yellows, reds, rich browns to add warm notes to the porch supper or lunch—indoors or out. Let your imagination run riot with the dry leaves, bright berries, sprays from the wayside or fall's bountiful fruits.

Remember, you can do more for your table by arranging Concord grapes tastefully with a few golden pears, bluish red apples on rich brown leaves or in well polished pewter, copper or brass vessels than rare, expensive flowers that your family does not know how to appreciate. Then, of course, if you have a few yellow or deep red chrysanthemums in your fall garden, let them fall gracefully in and out among their own leaves in a burnished bowl, and you leave nothing to be desired.

Here's the mousse which you can have as a main dish. Make it the night before and it's already to serve just with unrolling:

- *Chicken-Ham Mousse. (Serves 6)
3 egg yolks, slightly beaten
¼ teaspoon salt
1½ cups chicken broth
1½ cups ground, cooked chicken
1½ cups ground, cooked ham
¼ cup salad dressing
1 minced scallion
¼ cup whipped cream
1 package lemon-flavored gelatin
Add salt to egg yolks, then broth. Cook over boiling water, stirring constantly until mixture coats a spoon.

Lynn Says:
Easier Way to Live: One good way by which to simplify home-making is to get rid of trouble-makers in your household furnishings as fast as you can.

If you have an expensively upholstered sofa or chair which requires special cleaning often, make a slip-cover for it out of one of the practical cottons or other washable fabrics which are so numerous in the stores these days. A quick trip through the household washer now and then will keep it spic-and-span. Whisk it off and let the regular covering show when special guests are coming, or use the slip-covers day in and day out, for they are so attractive in themselves.

When your draperies wear out, or when you decide to do over a room, look at the beautiful wash fabrics which you can buy for your windows. Make them up with washable linings, these pre-shrunk, too, of course, and save yourself troublesome cleaning from then on. In time, you can "re-plan" many of your furnishings for practical washing machine handling.

This Week's Menu

- *Chicken-Ham Mousse
- *All-Bran Blueberry Muffins
- Butter
- *Julienne Salad
- *Whipped Cream Sugarless Cake
- *Recipes Given.

Pour over gelatin and stir until dissolved. Cool. Fold in remaining ingredients. Place strips of green pepper, sliced olives, sliced hard-cooked eggs on bottom of oiled mold. Pour in mousse. Let chill until firm. Unmold on lettuce and garnish with romaine, endive and tomato wedges.

Dispositions will all be the merrier when you serve these bran-blueberry muffins because the B-vitamins, often called morale builders, in the bran and the magnesium in the blueberries, which is reputed to create kindlier feelings toward your fellow men, really get together and do their best for the system!

- *All-Bran Blueberry Muffins. (Makes 12 small muffins)
2 tablespoons shortening
¼ cup sugar
1 egg
1 cup all-bran
¼ cup milk
1 cup flour
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon baking powder
½ cup fresh blueberries

Cream shortening and sugar until fluffy. Add egg and beat well. Stir in all-bran and milk and let soak until all moisture is taken up. Sift dry ingredients and add blueberries. Add to first mixture and stir just until flour disappears. Fill greased muffin tins until two-thirds full and bake in a moderately hot (400-degree) oven about 30 minutes.

Greens tossed together with mellow french dressing are attention-getters:

- *Julienne Salad Bowl. (Serves 6)
1 cup cabbage
1 cup carrots
½ cup green pepper
¼ cup red radishes
Garlic
Curly endive or shredded lettuce
Shred all the vegetables fine. Arrange mounds of them in a bowl, and toss french dressing over them. Rub the bowl in which they are served with garlic.
A main dish that will go well with the Julienne Salad is this Baked Bean dish:

- Baked Bean Rarebit.
1 can baked beans
¼ pound American cheese, grated
3 slices bacon, fried crisp
½ green pepper sliced
Mix beans, green pepper and crumbled bacon with grated cheese and pour into a casserole. Bake in a moderate oven 35-40 minutes.
A cake that's a tasty sugar saver is this one:

- *Whipped Cream Sugarless Cake.
2½ cups sifted cake flour
2½ teaspoons double acting baking powder
¾ teaspoon salt
½ cup butter or shortening
1 cup light corn syrup
2 eggs, unbeaten
½ cup orange juice
2 teaspoons grated orange rind
1 cup cream, whipped

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift dry ingredients together three times. Cream shortening, add orange rind, and then syrup beating well after each addition. Add ¼ of flour and beat until smooth and well blended. Add eggs one at a time, beating well after each. Add remaining flour in thirds alternately with orange juice, beating after each addition for best results. Bake in two greased 8-inch layer pans in a moderate (375-degree) oven 30 minutes. Cool. Spread whipped cream between and on top of layers.

What are your food problems? Cake making? Bread making? Pickles, jams, jellies? Children's lunches? Miss Lynn Chambers will be glad to give you expert advice on your particular problem, if you write her explaining what you want to know, at Western Newspaper Union, 210 South Desplines Street, Chicago, Ill. 1629-B

WHAT will look prettier or fresher on the summer landscape than you in this trim, slim "two-piece" made up in a cool linen, a rayon weave or a crisp cotton? Pattern No. 1629-B presents that all-time love, the dress which looks like a suit, in a sprick-and-span tailored version. Risk turn-down collar and lapels, patch pockets and darts at the waist give the top a precisely tailored air; the skirt has front and back pleats which give it good walking fullness while it maintains the slim silhouette wanted today.

Barbara Bell Pattern No. 1629-B is designed for sizes 11, 13, 15, 17 and 19. Corresponding bust measurements 29, 31, 33, 35 and 37. Size 13 (31) with short sleeves requires 4½ yards 35-inch material.

J. Fuller Pep
By JERRY LINK

The Deacon used to say, "Bad news doesn't need any pushin'. It moves along fast enough by itself. But good news is kinda sluggish. So nudge it along all you can!" I sort of like that idea myself. So I'm nudging along to you how KELLOGG'S PEP is extra-rich in vitamins B and D—the two vitamins hardest to get enough of in ordinary meals. And nothing that tastes as good as PEP has any business being good for you! Try it. I just know you'll like it!

Kellogg's Pep
A delicious cereal that supplies per serving (1 cc.) the full minimum daily need of vitamin D; 1/4 the daily need of vitamin B.

NOTICE

The annual meeting of the Panhandle Baptist Association will be held at Turkey, Sept. 8

Parent-Teacher Ass'n.

The Hedley Parent-Teacher Association will have its first meeting of the year on Friday evening September 11, at 8:30 in the Hedley School auditorium. The second Friday in each month has been set as the regular time for meetings throughout the school year. Local officers for 1942-43 of the Association are: president, Mrs. Minnie Snowden, vice president, vacant, recording secretary Miss Mary Lou Hawkins, corresponding secretary, Charles Rains, treasurer, Mrs. Temple Cherry. Committee Chairmen, elected by the officers of the Association are: program, Mrs. Ray Moreman, publicity, Miss Alice Bishop, publication, Mrs. Jessie Faye Pitcock, membership, Mrs. Temple Cherry, welfare, Rev. C. R. LeMond, social, Mrs. C. L. Johnson.

These are the objectives of the National Organization of the Parent-Teacher Association (from National bylaws, Article III):

To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church and community; To raise the standards of home life; To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth; To bring into closer relation the home and school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the training of the child; To develop between educators and general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social and spiritual education.

Let us, a local unit of the PTA, strive to achieve to the best of our ability the objectives from our National bylaws.
