Mail Xmas Gifts Early!

The Post Office Department now is starting the most gigantic task in its history, the movement of a deluge of Christmas parcels, cards and letters while maintaining the regular flow of millions of pieces of mail daily to and from our armed forces all over the world.

Indications are that the volume of Christmas mail will be the largest on record. Already in September, latest month for which figures are available, retail sales available, retail sales had reached a level second only to the record month of December, 1941, according to the Department of Commerce, and sales are rising. Such heavy purchases always pressage heavy mailings.

If thousands of our soldiers, sailors, marines and civilian friends are not to be disappointed at Christmas time, the public must cooperate by mailing earlier than ever before and by addressing letters and parcels properly. The best efforts of the Post Office Department alone cannot be enough, in view of wartime difficulties faced by the postal system. The public must assist.

About 25,000 experienced postal workers already have been taken by the war services. Arrangements are under way to add thousands of temporary personnel to postal staffs, but this manpower is hard to find and is inexperienced. Facilities of railroads and airlines are heavily taxed by movements of huge quantities of war materials and personnel. Extra trucks are almost impossible to obtain. Winter weather, hampering transportation, is beginning.

The free-mailing privilege granted to members of the armed forces has raised their mailings some 30 percent, it is estimated. Expansion of those forces also is adding rapidly to the postal burden.

The deadline already is past for mailing gifts to army and navy personnel overseas with assurance that the parcels will arrive by Christmas. The New York post office reports that in late October, 250,000 such parcels were handled daily in that office alone.

The Post Office Department is making strenuous efforts to avoid such a terrific jam as it faced in 1918 under similar conditions during the First World War. It can succeed in those efforts, and avoid many heartaches for its patrons, if the public will cooperate by mailing early.

Lions Club Meeting

The local Lions were honored Tuesday night with a visit from the other Lion Clubs in the zone composed of Childress, Memphis and Clarendon. There were around forty men present. A fine spirit of fellowship was evidenced by all in attendance. The clubs adjourned to meet in their next regular meetings. The regular meetings of the local club are the first and third Thursday nights of each month. You are invited to attend and become one of us. Several new members have been received recently.

The meal for the evening was prepared and served by the young people's department of the Methodist Church assisted by some of the ladies of the church. We wish to take this means of thanking the following ladies for their gracious assistance: Mesdames E. W. Seales, W. H. Hill, C. O. Hill, G. L. Johnson and G. E. LeMond.

Rationing Board News

The OPA announced Wednesday that gasoline rationing would be postponed from Nov. 22 to Dec. 1, and that the registration is postponed from Nov. 12 to 14 inclusive to Nov. 18 to 20. This change was necessary because books and forms to be used in the registration have not been received in time for the earlier dates.

The registration will take place at the high school building as previously announced. Car owners should bring their 1942 registration receipt and should be able to give the license number, year model, make and body type, and the serial numbers of all five tires. If the tire has no serial number the size and make must be given. No book will be issued to owners having over 5 tires for a passenger car, unless mounted on a vehicle, touching the ground. No spare is allowed for trailers.

The gas panel of the rationing board will be Gap Morris, chairman, J. W. Noel, Quin Aten and John Hermesmeyer.

Hodges-Tate

Miss Thelma Tate daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tate of Hedley, and Staff Sgt. John C. Hodges, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hodges of Dalhart, were united in marriage Sunday, Nov. 8. The wedding took place at 5:30 p. m. at the Polk St. Methodist Church in Amarillo with Rev. Earl Hamlett performing the ring ceremony in the presence of a number of relatives and friends.

The bride wore an aqua blue dress with black accessories and a corsage of gladiolus. She is a graduate of Hedley High School and Clarendon Junior College and is now employed with the South Western Bell Telephone Co.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Dalhart High School and attended Texas Tech. Sgt. Hodges is an instructor and is stationed at Sheppard Field.

I will pick up carcasses of horses and cows within a radius of 15 miles. Phone 22 4a.

SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER

Japan now controls about 89% of the rubber plantations of the world. Regardless of whether synthetic rubber is made from petroleum, grain, starch or chemicals it will be some time before our country will be able to purchase synthetic rubber tires. War purposes have first call. A tonstone marks the spot near Sussex, England, where a tire that had served for over 12 years was conscientiously buried. 300 rubber parts, not including tires and tubes, are used in the modern automobile. Without rubber the car would truly be a "job" wagon. There is talk these days of replacing 25,000,000 tires a year! Only a jump from the 2,400,000 replaced—retrograde mark of 1937. Automobiles were on over 56% of all U. S. farms in 1940; 18.3% of the farms had motor trucks and 23.1% motor tractors.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Heavy Artillery, Planes Dominate Action As British Strike at Rommel Positions; See 10 1/2 Billion Farm Income for 1943; Baruch Urged to Make Manpower Study

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper. Released by Western Newspaper Union.

The above radiophoto from Cairo, Egypt, shows one result of the initial Allied thrust against the Axis in the western desert. A member of Marshal Rommel's Afrika Korps lies dead in the dust following the capture of a forward strong point in the Nazi lines.

SOUTH PACIFIC Costly Exchange

When Navy Secretary Frank Knox told his press conference that Jap fleet units had retired from the scene of action around Guadalcanal and that the "first round of the battle" was over naval experts began trying to figure out who got the decision in the encounter. U. S. citizens heard the bad news first: the navy had lost the destroyer Porter and an aircraft carrier. (This was in addition to the loss of the carrier Wasp, announced earlier.) This brought to a total of four plane carriers that have been destroyed by the Japs in this war.

Then came news of a bit brighter note: Before the Japs left the area to "lick their wounds" and return for more action, U. S. forces had damaged two aircraft carriers, two battleships and three cruisers. More than 100 enemy airplanes were destroyed and about 50 others probably destroyed in what the navy described as the greatest battle yet fought in the Solomons area.

But the most important result of this heavy sea and air fighting was that it brought at least temporary relief to the hard-pressed marine and army units holding their positions on Guadalcanal itself. The Jap objective in launching the big battle had been to dislodge these outnumbered units who in mid-August had pushed the Japs out.

Meanwhile, dispatches from U. S. headquarters in Australia revealed that land-based army planes had been slashing constantly at Jap positions in the areas of the Buin-Faisi harbor in the northern Solomons and at Rabaul, New Britain island. Forty Jap ships were reported hit in a ten-day period. All of this meant much-needed diversion of Jap strength which was directed at capture of the Solomons, and then pushing forward to cut supply lines from the U. S. to Australia.

DESERT WARFARE Allied Air Umbrella

Slam-bang warfare continued on the Alamein line between the Mediterranean sea and the Qattara depression in Egypt as Britain's eighth army struck sledgehammer blows at German and Italian positions.

Although Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's forces struck back savagely, the British infantry held on to early gains. Protected by hundreds of guns and a supreme Allied air umbrella, the infantry jolted enemy troops loose from another section of the Alamein line.

The great tank battles of previous campaigns in the desert were missing in the initial onslaught of the new British drive. Heavy artillery and planes played the dominant role. American fliers strengthened the drive, sweeping over enemy areas, shooting up troop concentrations, tanks and airfields.

Cairo reports to British newspapers said that Allied forces had "trapped several thousand Axis troops" in a narrow pocket west of El Alamein near the Mediterranean coast.

While it was the avowed intention of the British command to destroy Rommel and his army, some sources saw another effect: Germany might be forced to withdraw German planes and men from Russia to meet the even more critical threat on the desert.

HIGHLIGHTS in the week's news

PUNCTURE: The Office of Price Administration has reiterated its approval of a proposal that retail grocers punch holes in the tops of vacuum packed coffee cans to discourage hoarding. DEPORTED: Twenty-six Germans and five Italians, alleged to have engaged in Nazi and Fascist activities, have been deported from Nicaragua to the United States.

FARM INCOME: Increase to Continue

Estimating the net farm income for 1942 at $9,800,000,000, including government payments, the department of agriculture forecast that next year's net income will total approximately $10,500,000,000.

The 1942 figure is about $1,000,000,000 above the previous record of 1919, the department said. Total agricultural production this year is nearly 12 per cent greater than the record set in 1941, and 40 per cent greater than in 1918.

The department stated "October estimates indicated, for the first time, that the corn crop this year may exceed the record set in 1920; and it is being grown on 12 per cent less acreage. Abundant feed supplies and good prices are expected to stimulate increased livestock production again next year. However, unless the weather is again exceptionally favorable it is unlikely that crop production will equal the volume of 1942, when per acre yields appear to be averaging 13 per cent above previous records."

The department reported that military and lend-lease food purchases next year are expected to be 50 per cent greater than in 1942 and will take one-fifth of current farm production. Civilian demands will continue to advance slowly and prices for farm products in 1943 under ceiling limitations will be about 6 per cent above the average estimated for all of 1942.

LABOR SUPPLY: Untapped Source

Even as he disclosed tentative plans for the nation-wide registration of women for work in war industries, President Roosevelt stated that the administration has reached no decision on means of solving the critical man-power problem. He warned against premature conclusions that plans for nation service or "labor draft" legislation have been abandoned.

The President pointed out that legislation will be necessary before the registration of women could be ordered. He emphasized that plans call only for the registration of women (between 18 and 65), and that there are no plans for a labor draft of women.

He stated that his recent meeting with the AFL-CIO labor war cabinet followed this general line:

With approximately 6,000,000 men now in uniform, there are not very many remaining to fill future needs of war industries, which are expected to require from four to five million additional workers. Although the labor supply problem looks satisfactory for the immediate present, wisdom dictates that it be studied from the long-range viewpoint. The registration of women is concerned with these future war needs, it was pointed out.

Baruch Study?

Meanwhile, the board of directors of the United States Chamber of Commerce proposed that the Baruch committee, which studied the rubber problem, now turn to a study of the man-power shortage. The board's statement said that "of the many serious problems now confronting this nation and its people, the problem of the proper use of man-power is undoubtedly paramount."

RUSSIAN FRONT: Initiative Reversed

While the Germans continued to grind forward across the Nalchik plains in the Caucasus sector the Russians had taken up the initiative in key regions further north. Stalingrad communique were often similar in their content. This was typical of Russian announcements: "Soviet troops repulsed enemy attacks. In certain sectors our troops counterattacked and forged ahead somewhat."

Neutral military observers saw in the news from Russia that the Nazis had shifted the main weight of their drive to the Caucasus mountains. There the fury of the attack was unabated. Definitely the Russians were fighting defensive actions all along this front. Always the Soviet claimed the infliction of heavy losses of Nazi men and machines as they retreated before the furious, continuous onslaught.

IDLE DOLLARS: Are Slackers

Attributing the rise of money in circulation to the demands of war financing and huge wartime payrolls, Federal Reserve officials in Washington at the same time declared in effect that "idle dollars are slacker dollars." Yet there are "comparatively few" dollars being hoarded among the more than $14,000,000,000 now in circulation. Treasury department and Federal Reserve experts have been carefully watching for signs of hoarding but there is no indication that it is widespread among U. S. citizens throughout the country.

A chart showing both money in circulation and wages paid shows that the upturn in the total money in circulation exactly parallels the rise in wages. While the 14 billion dollars is the largest amount ever in circulation in U. S. history government officials explained that any upturn in business as widespread as the present war spending always increases the demand for currency because it places cash in the pockets of those people without bank connections.

FOOD PROBLEM: Gets Attention

Although little official news came from Washington, it was reported that President Roosevelt is studying an urgent proposal for the appointment of an over-all administrator to stabilize the nation's confused food situation.

The recommendation, made by Donald M. Nelson, WPB chairman, with the approval of Secretary of Agriculture Wickard, named no specific candidate for the job. However, two frequently mentioned candidates are Milo Perkins, executive director of the Board of Economic Warfare, and Lee Marshall, food consultant to Nelson. Perkins was director of the Agricultural Adjustment administration's surplus commodity food stamp plan during the depression.

POSTWAR CHINA: To Need Billions

China must have from five to ten billion dollars in foreign credits for postwar reconstruction, Foreign Minister T. V. Soong has reported to the People's Political Council in Chungking.

The foreign minister, according to authentic reports, made the following points: The outcome of India's demands for independence from British rule is of deep concern to China. "The future of India is closely connected with the future of China," Soong said.

Germany will be defeated by England and the United States with gigantic land forces in Europe. Japan will be defeated with overwhelming naval forces in the Pacific.

Following the war, Japan will be forced to evacuate Manchuria, Korea and the Luki Islands. The latter areas will become sovereign states.

CARGO PLANES: New Contract

Andrew J. Higgins and New Orleans building facilities were back in the news again. Last July when the government cancelled his contract to build 200 freighters there was plenty of official and unofficial steam blasted in Washington. Now Higgins has disclosed that he has obtained a contract to construct 1,200 army cargo planes in the same shipyards where he was to have built the freighters last summer.

FOR years Hollywood has complained that there were too many extras for too few jobs. Now it begins to look as if the shoe might be put on the other foot. For the extras are getting jobs in war plants. The other day at Columbia they were shooting a big banquet scene for "The Power of the Press," with Lee Tracy, Gloria Gibson, Guy Kibbee and Otto Kruger. There were also 150 dressed-up extras—and practically all of them were studying books on welding, die sinking, etc., between shots.

Pat O'Brien ("The Navy Comes Through") is keeping him busy) owes his dramatic experience to the fact that the state of Wisconsin paid ex-service men $30 a month to complete their educations, after the last war. Discharged as a seaman, second class, he went to New York and enrolled in dramatic school, and landed on Broadway. "The Front Page," his first film, put him on the movie map.

When the Red Cross army and navy nurses who were feted at Abbott and Costello's roller skating party left for foreign duty they took with them a book of radio scripts from the comics—material for the soldiers' own entertainments.

Raymond Massey played a touching farewell scene, his biggest one, when, in Warner's "Action in the North Atlantic," he bade good-by to his wife, played by Ruth Gordon. When the picture's done he'll join the Royal Canadian army as a major; he was an officer with them in the last war.

If you're homesick for the dear old days of vaudeville you mustn't miss Metro's "For Me and My Gal," with Judy Garland and Gene Kelly. It'll send you away singing the old songs. Judy and Kelly will do "Anchors Away" after she finishes "Girl Crazy."

"My Sister Eileen," with Rosalind Russell, Brian Aherne and Janet Blair, is as funny as the stage play, which is saying a lot. Even though the Hays office stepped on the script—but lightly—it hasn't lost much. Don't miss it!

Since Esther Williams finished work in "Andy Hardy Steps Out" he's been waiting so sorely for her next assignment that somebody asked her how she did it. "When I was badly defeated at my first swimming meet," said she, "my mother said, 'Remember, you have to lose a long time before you win.'" And that's practically perfect advice for all young actresses, most of whom need it.

On his return from South America Orson Welles saw his "Journey Into Fear" for the first time in finished form, and set out for Hollywood and the RKO studios to shoot a new ending, inspired by current world and war events. Dolores Del Rio heads the cast.

Chinese 'Rights'

In New York city, every Chinese who rents a store or some other business building claims that he has a "basic property right" in it and, therefore, will not allow another Chinese to lease it until the man has purchased this right, says Collier's. When such a demand runs into thousands of dollars, the owner is seldom able to rent the property again to a member of this race.

It is not usually advisable to let prepared but uncooked vegetables stand for any time in water; it frequently causes a loss of mineral content.

Take some garden soil, mix in some compost and fertilizer, and put it away where it won't freeze. Then next winter or next spring when you want to do some extra potting of plants, you will have some nice soil ready.

When unsalted fats are used to replace butter or margarine in baking, additional salt may be needed.

Custards can be enhanced by a bay leaf boiled in the milk.

When painting a room the following hints may be found useful: Don't be in a hurry to finish; put down old newspapers before work and remove all curtains and hangings; keep handy a rag soaked in turpentine to wipe off "mistakes"; start painting in the darkest corner of the room and work toward the light; don't drown your brush—immerse it about half an inch; use a piece of stout cardboard with a straight edge to protect woodwork or wall that it is not desired to splash.

When carving a rolled or standing rib roast use a very sharp, thin-bladed, long handled knife. For the rolled roast cut thin slices across the top; for standing roasts cut in thin slices at right angles to the ribs.

In the home, plants give off moisture through the leaves, from the surface of the soil, and from the pot itself if it is of the porous type, so provide sand, sphagnum moss or similar material, to keep the pots moist. And, if possible, keep the temperature down to below 68 degrees.

Be sure that the fruits and nuts are well distributed throughout your fruit-cake mixtures. Chop or grind them into uniform-sized pieces and sprinkle them well with flour to prevent them from sticking together or remaining in one spot in the cake batter.

Broiled vegetables brown better when dipped in salad oil or melted butter.

ON THE HOME FRONT

With RUTH WYETH SPEARS

YOU can't set a wave or even comb a smart new hair-do without seeing the back of your head. A deep curve in the front of a dressing table will allow you to get close enough to a triple mirror. The stool top is pink cotton material; the skirts for it and the table, and the drape for the top shelf, are of light weight white muslin edged in old-fashioned embroidery panty ruffling.

Pink ribbon holds the drape and edges the table. The top frill and center part of the table skirt are snapped to a strip of muslin tacked around the front of the table under the ribbon.

NOTE: Mrs. Spears' Book 1 shows you exactly how to drape dressing tables with drawers. Also directions for slip covers; bedspreads and all types of curtains. Readers may secure copy of Book 1 by sending name and address with 10 cents to:

Gallant Chap's Thoughts Were but Badly Worded

She was young and pretty, and her confusion as she fumbled vainly in her handbag for small change to pay her fare on the bus was quite charming.

"Could you change a five dollar bill for me, please?" she asked, smiling shyly.

"Sorry, miss," replied the conductor. "But don't you worry; you can pay me the ten cents some other time."

"But you may never see me again," quickly replied the young lady.

"Well, what's the odds?" he said, meaning to be gallant. "It won't break my heart if I don't."

Seasickness

Seasickness is rather a mysterious complaint, for the general health of a passenger on board ship does not seem to have much effect upon his resistance to seasickness. Science believes, however, that seasickness is concerned with the upsetting of an individual's physiological balance, which is controlled by what are called the semi-circular canals of the ear. Once that balance is disturbed, the digestive system is the first to be affected, and so vomiting and headaches and mental depression convince the sufferer that he is dangerously ill.

In point of fact, seasickness is more uncomfortable than dangerous. Sedative drugs cure some people, stimulants others.

Dancing High-Jumpers

Tallest tribe of men in the world is the Watutsi, of Belgian Congo; average height, 6 feet 5 inches. The tribal dances are strenuous, and give them springy thigh muscles, which enable them to leap prodigious heights.

Some of their best performers can fly over a bar eight feet from the ground, and on one ceremonial occasion a whole platoon of them jumped seven feet, two inches higher than the present world's high-jump record!

Rationing Board News

Coffee will be rationed starting at midnight, Nov. 28, at a rate of one pound every five weeks for each person over 15 years old. The Office of Price Administration announced Monday.

On the basis of 35 to 40 cups to a pound, the ration means slightly more than a cup a day per person.

Retail sales will be halted at midnight, Nov. 21. Price Administrator L. O. Henderson said for a week-long freezing during which grocers will stock their shelves for the start of rationing.

The first rationed coffee will be purchased on the last stamp in the sugar ration book, stamp No. 28. Subsequent rations will be issued by working backwards thru the sugar book using stamps No. 28 to No. 19, in sequence.

The war production board ordered OPA to take control of consumer distribution to assure an equal supply for all. Henderson said, and attributed the emergency action mainly to "excessive buying by consumers."

Eligibility will be determined by the age shown on war ration book No. 1—the sugar book. If the age shown when the book was issued in May was 15 or older, the holder is entitled to coffee rations; if 14 or younger, the book is not valid for coffee purchases. Use of the book for sugar will continue as in the past.
