Pfc. Foster Pickett is now in Italy.

Charles H. Blanks, S 3-c, is now stationed in San Diego, Calif. He is in the hospital at present.

Lieut. Lionel E. Blankenship writes that he has landed safely in New Guinea, and that we'd be surprised how well he likes it. He says he is feeling splendid and sends greetings to his friends here. He orders the Informer sent to him.

Cpl. Victor M. Williams spent his furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Williams last week. While here Cpl. Williams and his parents visited in Wellington their former home. Cpl. Williams is stationed at Goodfellow Field, San Angelo, Texas and is a musician and arranger with the Air Force Band there.

Tommy Dean Tate of the U. S. Navy is at home on leave.

M. M. 2-c Oral Owens and family of Pasagoula, Miss., visited here part of this week. Oral lived in Hedley about 20 years ago.

To Test Canners

Miss Maurice Berry of Clarendon, chairman of the Donley county food conservation program, will be at the Hedley school next Wednesday, May 24, to conduct a pressure canner clinic. She will test canners to see if the inside temperature corresponds with the gauge.

This is very important, since too cool a canner means spoiled food, while too hot a canner means loss of food values, broken jars, etc.

There is no charge for this service.

We will not meet Monday, May 22 unless it rains and will work the church yard instead. We will have our social meeting May 29 with Mrs. Pickett in an all day meeting.

Donley Co. Memorial Committee Meets

Roy Jewell, R. W. Alewine and C. L. Johnson attended the meeting of the Donley County Memorial Committee held at the American Legion Hall in Clarendon last Tuesday evening.

It was reported that a total of $2422.24 has been turned in to the four banks of the county to date. This is a cash fund that will be kept until the entire fund is raised and will be spent to build a permanent honor roll of the boys and girls from Donley County who serve in the armed forces of our country during this war.

Several communities are over their quotas and others are planning drives to complete the fund. It is hoped that the quotas can all be raised before the next War Bond Drive starts.

Shelton Nash of the White Fish community brought in $54 this week which put them considerably over the top. Hurrah for White Fish! Who's next?

The time to shut the gate is before the cows get out. The time to insure is before you have a fire. Insure with C. L. Johnson at the bank.

Red Cross Notes

We are still working and have another shipment of work now ready. Our work room is the busiest place in town on Tuesday and Thursday.

Some have asked for work to take home and sew. Please call on the days we work to get the work to take out as we have to keep record on all these garments.

We wish to thank all who have contributed used clothing, quilts, sacks, books or any way you have helped.

If you can't work how about a cash offering. There is some extra expense we like to have paid by Hedley, such as machine oil for machines, floor sweep and other small expenses. If you have a donation we will appreciate it.

We have been asked to send some clean white rags to a family who has a sick patient. If you have some rags please bring them to us.

Highway Report

Deeds to the Donley County gap of the Wellington Highway are now ready for the signatures of the respective owners. The map of the highway shows it to run straight down Main Street of Hedley making a curve on the R. W. Scales place going just north of his house and cutting off the northwest corner of the W. C. Plunk place and running almost straight to intersect the pavement at the Collingsworth County line.

We understand that the Commissioners Court is ready to pay off for the right of way as soon as the deeds are turned in. To hurry this up each property owner affected should figure his damages and turn this in to the court as soon as possible so that the county may get its part of the work done.

The sooner we get this done the sooner we can make our plea to the Highway Commission to finish this gap. This will not only be another through highway but a good farm to market road.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Nazi Rail Lines Hammered by Allies In Pre-Invasion Softening Process; Lend-Lease Grants Total 30 Billion; Stilwell Advances in Northern Burma

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.) Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Beachhead—There's more to establishing a beachhead than merely forcing a landing. At Aitape in Dutch New Guinea, Doughboys are shown bringing up supplies for continued operations.

EUROPE: Nazi Preparations

As it was reported that the Germans were prepared to sacrifice 200,000 men along the "Atlantic Wall" to slow up the Allies' landing operations and allow the German high command opportunity to shift large reserves to the most critical battle areas, U. S. and British bombers continued their non-stop bombardment of enemy defense installations and communication lines to blast a forward path for the invasion forces.

As the zero hour approached, the Nazis sought to assure against Allied landings in Holland by preparing to flood the lowlands, part of which already have been inundated following the removal of the inhabitants.

Heavy U. S. and British aerial bombardments reportedly razed Nazi rail lines 100 miles inland from the channel coast, putting a severe crimp into the transport system over which the Nazis hoped to rush seasoned troops to encounter early Allied landings, possibly made in conjunction with a great Russian offensive in the east.

U. S. SEIZURE: Congress Acts

Stirred by U. S. troop seizure of the Chicago plant of Montgomery Ward and company after the latter's refusal to extend a CIO union contract upon order of the War Labor board, both the senate and the house moved to review the whole field of wartime executive authority.

In introducing a resolution for studying the War case which was quickly adopted, Sen. Harry Byrd (Va.) said: "... should lead to correction of legislation under which this (the Ward) seizure of a private business was made."

Previously, Rep. Charles Dewey (Ill.) called upon the house to authorize an investigation of the government's occupation of the Ward plant, a seizure nation's No. 2 mail order company contested in federal court on the ground it is no war industry, and an action the U. S. defended on the strength of its claim that the business sells productive machinery to farmers in advancement of the war effort.

MEAT: Plenty on Hand

Reduction of government purchases of meat in the face of crowded warehouses and heavy hog receipts at markets resulted in OPA's removal of meat rationing except on beef steaks and roasts. On April 1, warehouses held a near record of 1,249,813,000 pounds of meat compared with 780,806,000 pounds were being stretched to the utmost as farmers continued heavy hog shipments, partly because of the tight feed supply recently aggravated by the government's embargo on all private corn sales in 125 mid-west counties to divert stocks to industrial processors.

As a result of the government's program, virtually all wet corn millers were operating, with enough grain pledged for four months.

POLITICS: Army Impartial

The ticklish problem of supplying U. S. soldiers with political information on the 1944 national elections was bravely approached by the war department, with emphasis firmly placed on impartiality. Although doughboys will be permitted to read their favorite magazine or newspaper, the war department ruled that in radio broadcasts and service publications, equal time or space must be granted to both sides.

Motion pictures and entertainments also drew the attention of the war department, with no partial material to be tolerated in either source, and commanding officers to closely guard against the revision of scripts violating the regulation.

HIGHLIGHTS... in the week's news

POSTAL NOTES: A plan to provide "postal notes" for transmission of money by mail in sums under ten dollars for a flat five-cent fee is being considered by the senate postal committee. The house has already approved the proposal. These notes would not supplant the use of the regular money order for small sums but would be a convenient addition to the postal services.

Soldier Daddy Gets Wish To Hold Baby in Arms

He was a young soldier and his face looked red and earnest when he came into the Red Cross Canteen in Los Angeles. Would he like some doughnuts and coffee? "No, thank you." Cigarettes? No. Stationery? No. Still he lingered, his face getting redder. "I wonder—" he finally blurted. "Well, it's this. Four weeks ago my wife had a baby and I've never seen it. I'd just kinda like to hold a baby for a little to see what it would be like. I thought maybe you folks could get one for me." Within an hour the soldier sat contentedly holding a baby—exactly four weeks old.

Bring order out of chaos in your clothes closet by installing a series of containers for shoes, hose, lingerie, and similar items, and by making garment covers to protect your clothing. Cotton flour bags afford an excellent material for these home necessities because the cloth is closely woven, will keep out dust, is washable, and is obtainable without cost. Three bags will make a full-size garment cover. Less material is required for containers for shoes, laundry bags, and smaller handy items. "Bag of Tricks for Home Sewing," a new illustrated booklet which is offered without cost to American housewives, tells how to make scores of serviceable, attractive things for the house. Left-over Chicken Baked in a Roll

Chicken Roll (with apple rings)

There's nothing like the chicken that's served on the farm. There are great heaping platefuls of it, brown, juicy, and tender. Much of this appetizing appearance and flavor can be attributed to the cooking and while roasted chicken used to be the most popular method, broiled chicken is fast becoming its rival. Many farm homes have stoves with broilers, thanks to "bottled" or "tank" gas which gives modern gas service to suburban, small city and farm areas.

Leftover chicken often reappears in tasty dishes which are substantial and satisfying, and best of all, require no meat points. Our suggestion for today is Chicken Roll.

Chicken Roll
 2 cups ground leftover chicken
 1 small onion, ground
 1 teasp. salt
 1/4 teasp. pepper
 1 teasp. bottled horse-radish
 1/4 cup chicken gravy
 2 cups baking powder biscuit dough
 top milk
 Combine chicken, onion, salt, pepper, horse-radish and gravy. Roll out baking powder biscuit dough, using two cups as a basis, into a rectangle about 9" x 12". Spread chicken mixture on dough and roll up, jelly-roll fashion, pinching edges together. Place on greased baking sheet, brush with top milk and bake at 450 degrees for 25 minutes or until done. Serve sliced with a cream sauce garnished with finely chopped chives. Serves 6.

When To Get Canning Sugar

Changes affecting procurement of sugar for home canning were announced today by the Food Division of the District Office of Price Administration.

Two periods have been designated during which consumers may apply for canning sugar. The first issuance will be from May 15 to July 1, and the issuance for this period will be over 10 pounds per person. The second period will be announced later.

This change in procedure is in line with the request made earlier that consumers not apply for home canning sugar until some home grown fruit was available in the Lubbock District.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Guess we're pretty lucky in our town, Judge, that we don't have the youth problem you read about in other places."

"Don't know as you can call it lucky, Harold. We saw it coming with the war and we did something about it before it hit us. We gave our 'teen age youngsters the recreational facilities they needed and really wanted. Those familiar with this wartime problem know that young folks go to places they shouldn't only when the proper places are not provided for them. Young people always want to be with others of their own age and their own type of entertainment. Town after town has found out that once these simple wants are met, the problem is well on its way to being licked."

"Guess I didn't really know how far-sighted our town really is, Judge. If we hadn't looked ahead we wouldn't have had anybody or anything to blame but ourselves, would we?"

MOOS OF THE MOMENT

BY UNCLE BOB

of the Kraft Dairy Farm Service

One of the most interesting developments in dairying, in the past few years, is the subject of rapid milking. Almost all of the agricultural schools and extension services have been conducting experiments on rapid milking and they're pretty enthusiastic about the results. The experiments seem to show that you can get more milk by this new method.

In Circular 283, Missouri tells why this is so. The circular also describes the three steps in rapid milking. These apply whether you use a milking machine or milk by hand.

The steps are: (1) Massage the cow's udder in the process of washing with warm water. (2) Start milking one minute later, removing the milk in 3 to 4 minutes. Strip rapidly. (3) Stop milking as soon as the milk stops flowing.

The increased flow of milk and the shortening of milking-time are advantages any time. They are especially important in war-time.

So, if you would like to have more detailed information on the how and why of rapid milking, I suggest that you write for Circular 283, Agricultural Extension Service, University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri.*

Now, if we could just talk the cows into growing spigots instead of udders, we'd be all set. But the cows no spigot da English.

Two booklets issued by Texas A&M College give some highly useful information on feeding dairy cows. These are Extension Bulletin No. 15 and No. B-69. They point out that profitable dairying depends on an ample supply of good, cheap feed, and that silage is the best substitute for pasture.

Bulletin B-69 says that in normal years over the most of Texas at least three tons of silage per cow should be put down. In dry years six tons is recommended. Dry weather to date this spring suggests that it is worthwhile to plan for plenty of silage for 1944.

Speaking of supplementary grain feeding, these bulletins point out that the kind of grain mixture to use depends on the kind of feed that can be grown and the kind of roughage the cow is getting.

The publications contain tables showing how much and what kind of supplementary feeding to use. To get these bulletins, write the Extension Service at Texas A&M College, College Station, Texas.

Another booklet that belongs in your collection is Minnesota's

Extension Bulletin No. 218. It gives some very helpful facts and suggestions on supplementary summer feeding.

For example, it points out that a cow on good pasture can gather and digest from 100 to 160 pounds of grass daily. A cow consuming 155 pounds of grass a day will have enough feed to produce slightly more than one pound of butterfat a day.

Thus, it is pretty obvious that the cow producing more than a pound of fat a day will need some supplementary feeding, while the cow which produces less should have none. To get this bulletin, write Extension Service, University of Minnesota, St. Paul, Minnesota.*

One nice thing about being a cow is that you can eat all day without having to spend any ration points.

Which reminds me of a very fine booklet on pasture improvement and management by Illinois. This booklet offers helpful advice on nearly every subject concerning pastures.

Particularly important right now is the warning it contains against overgrazing. To prevent this, it suggests alternate grazing. This means dividing the pasture so that the animals may graze one half thoroughly before moving on to the other half.

After the first half has received, the animals may be brought back, while the second half recuperates. The booklet also suggests that you clip your pastures with a mower whenever weeds threaten to smother out the pasture growth. Write for Circular 465, Extension Service, University of Illinois, Urbana, Ill.*

A person can get so absorbed in the amount of feed a cow needs that she sort of easy to forget that she needs plenty of water, too. In fact, a shortage of water will cut down the flow of milk faster than anything else. So be sure your cows are getting plenty of cool, clean water. They need anywhere from 15 to 30 gallons a day.

And put a little chocolate in mine.

*NOTE: There usually is a 5c charge for pamphlets mailed to non-residents of a state; but possibly your own state has a free pamphlet on the same subject. Ask your county agent.

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. Bad kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.

Symptoms may be sagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, steady or too frequent urination.

SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER

Natural rubber is still something of a mystery, even after years of laboratory experiments. It has carbon and hydrogen, but there are other qualities which have not as yet been determined. Before the war, 60 per cent of the tires and tubes made each year were used as replacements, and 80 per cent of these motor vehicles had replaced those annually scrapped. Brazil rubber selling at $3.05 a pound in 1910 stimulated the development of the Middle East plantations to the extent that 3,000,000 acres were under cultivation in 1915, providing the bulk of the world's supplies.

Buck Private Thought It Time for Change of Status

Accompanied by a driver, an American major in a motor vehicle was stopped by the sentry on guard at a cross-roads. "Who goes there?" "One American major, a one-ton truck of fertilizer, and one buck private." They were allowed to proceed, but at every cross-roads they went through the same formula. After a time the driver asked if they were likely to be stopped again. "I guess so," replied the major. BAD NEWS FROM THE RADIO WORLD

America has just had one of the most depressing pieces of news in years. Both the Democratic and Republican conventions are to be broadcast by TELEVISION!

Not only will you be in a position to hear the candidates; you will see them, if you don't exercise excessive precautions.

We had been sort of hoping that, due to the war, there might even be trouble hearing the conventions this year.

It was bad enough in the old days to read about the happenings at a national convention of politicians. Then came radio and we had to listen. And now science is to bring the gasbags right into the old home-stead, halitosis and all.

"Why?" demanded Elmer Twitchell when he heard the news. "What's the novelty in seeing Dewey? Who is in the dark as to how Roosevelt looks? Is there anybody anywhere who regards a peek at Bricker, Stassen, Hannagan or Spangler as a treat?"

Elmer was quite hot about it. "All conventions are the same," he declared. "It would be just as much of a novelty if radio announced a decision to bring Uncle Tom's Cabin to you by television."

"It looks to me as if the television arrangements mean only one thing: they expect a lot of crooners and hillbilly singers to show up for the nominations this year."

"What do you think the effect will be on the run-of-the-mill type of convention candidate?" we asked Elmer.

"It will finish him off," declared Mr. Twitchell. "Good looks and personal charm and entertainment value will be the first essentials for winning the presidential nomination from now on."

"You can imagine the situation," he continued. "Let's assume Bricker gets out ahead by a few votes. Hedy Lamarr will be dragged in to speak for Dewey. That will put Dewey away out in front. Then maybe Stassen will lose in Nancy Carroll to speak for him. Taft may counter with Dorothy Lamour. Finally they'll have to compromise on some handsome guitar player with plenty of oomph."

Elmer has an idea the conventions will open with a Benny Goodman band, that there will be a quiz program on it, that the nominating speeches may be sung by glamour girls and that cash prizes will be offered to voters who can spell "franchise" correctly.

RHYMES IN RETALIATION A New York woman, Ethel Fay, has developed a money-making business through writing verse for hotels to get across messages to the guests. One runs: Before you use that extra towel Think twice and don't forget That war disrupts our laundry staff And linen's hard to get.

It's a good idea, but we can't restrain an impulse to offer our services to the cash customers. They have a viewpoint that needs presenting too. We offer the following free samples:

For a Desk Clerk We know the war is quite a strain And makes you weary, very. But is that desk clerk's hard, cold look So very necessary?

For a Bellhop A quarter isn't what it was And twenty cents ain't thirty. But still I wish the look you give Me wasn't quite so dirty.

A modern de luxe hotel, the Continental, on Cassino heights, has become a Nazi fortress, with gunners in every doorway and window and with huge Nazi tanks racing across the foyer from one position to another. The scene there must be almost as noisy and confusing as during a routine convention.

We can't help wondering how those who didn't like "Chicken Every Sunday" refrained from saying it laid an egg.

Still, quite a few critics wrung its neck.

Hitler's Next Move The last time I saw Paris I saw Napoleon's tomb... I'm planning to go back there. And get in, if there's room!

Star Dust STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO By VIRGINIA VALE Released by Western Newspaper Union.

METRO'S going to do big things the week of June 22nd, in celebration of the organization's twentieth birthday. Their first big picture was "The Big Parade"; their thousandth, now being shown, is "The White Cliffs," starring lovely Irene Dunne. During anniversary week practically every movie theater in the nation will show some Metro picture—a short, a newsreel or a feature. At the studio there'll be a ceremony honoring those who have served the company for 20 years. And a coast-to-coast broadcast will feature every star under contract to the studio. King Vidor's "America" and "Dragon Seed," with Katharine Hepburn, will feature in the celebration.

Chill Williams, model now under contract to RKO, is too popular for the good of her bank account. One photograph in a weekly magazine brought her 40,000 requests from servicemen for pin-up pictures. Think what'll happen after they see her in "Having Wonderful Crime"!

When the temporary chairman of the Republican national convention calls the party delegates to order, the National Broadcasting company will have completed six months of preparation; for the sixth time, they'll handle both the big political conventions.

A program of real importance will originate over about 500 radio stations this month; it's "The Life of Premier and Field Marshal Jan C. Smuts of South Africa." The South African Broadcasting corporation at Johannesburg made a dramatization in 13 episodes, and the discs were flown to New York and there reprocessed into master recordings. The series begins with the discovery of diamonds and gold in South Africa, tells the legendary exploits of the famous field marshal, ends with the Union of South Africa as one of the United Nations.

Relatives and friends in Wadesboro, N. C., of Pvt. Rowland S. Prutt had heard nothing of him since he was reported critically ill in an Italian hospital—until they heard his voice when he spoke from Algiers on the Allan Jones-Frankie Carle air show. His wife and mother were called out of prayer meeting by friends in time to hear his last few words on the broadcast, which later was done over for them by the local station.

Maybe it was because he was kidnaped at the age of three months, or perhaps it's because of his appearance in a mystery play when he was three; Frank Readick doesn't know, but he's been living a profitable life of crime for some time. He played the title role in "The Shadow" for eight years; he's the villain in "The Crime Doctor," "Gangbusters," "Mr. District Attorney," and other air shows, including "Portia Faces Life."

Gen. H. H. Arnold, commanding the army air forces, recently wrote the president of Paramount expressing his appreciation of the company's wide distribution of "The Memphis Belle." There's a picture that no one can afford to miss. It's a four-reel Technicolor documentary film dealing with an American bomber mission over Germany, and "superb" and "thrilling" are much too tame a description of it.

"Double or Nothing," radio's oldest quiz show, is working hand in hand with the movies these days. John Reed King and Frank Forest went to Colorado Springs for the first showing of "Buffalo Bill"; right after that, the quiz show went to Philadelphia for the grand opening of "Mark Twain." Now all they need is some more bigger and better movies, with celebrities to appear on their show.

ODDS AND ENDS—"Girl of the Limberlost," made once by RKO, once by Monogram, will be remade by Columbia, starring Jeff Donnell... W. C. Fields has been chosen pin-up man for Subchaser 1360, now in action against the enemy; seems when everything goes wrong they gaze at his picture and break out in laughter... Hollywood owners of trained shepherd dogs have been taking them to RKO for tests—one will play the second most important role in "The Pumpkin Shell"... Don Ameche has been asked to serve on President Roosevelt's Committee for Italian Relief... Constance Moore's baby can call Mrs. Cary Grant godmother.
