NO. 31

Air-Wac Recruiting Team Now In Amarillo

An Air-Wac recruiting team is now located in the Post Office Building, Amarillo, Texas, recruiting women for assignment primarily to the Army Air Forces, but will accept enlistments for the Army Ground Forces and the Army Service Forces also.

The team, known as an Air-Wac recruiting team, is captained by Lt. Mary E. Cole, WAC, and is being assisted by S-Sgt. Monte Wilhem and Cpl. Fred Hurley. Amarillo is headquarters for the entire Panhandle area.

Recruits, to be eligible for the Womens Army Corps, must be between 20 and 49 years of age, in good health, without dependents under 14 years of age and have at least two years of high school or its equivalent.

No Increase In Shoe Supplies

There is no indication that any increase in shoe supplies will be available for civilians during the remainder of the year, according to a joint statement from the War Production Board and the Office of Price Administration.

Shoe rationing will continue in this country until there is a marked improvement in the supply situation, the officials stated in response to reports that shoes would be lifted from rationing on September 1.

C. E. Johnson at the Hedley Telephone Co. will write your fire and hail insurance.

Phone your news to 101.

Security Bank Gets More Deposit Boxes

Last week the Security State Bank was able to purchase twenty five small size safety deposit boxes. They think this will enable to take care of all the demands for safety deposit boxes of their customers for some time. But anyone wishing a box should see them soon as they are a mighty good place to keep War Bonds and other valuable papers.

Buford Hinds of Abilene came up Friday and returned home Sunday with Mrs. Hinds and daughter Marjorie Ann, who have been visiting in the Frank Kendall home. Mrs. Kendall returned to Abilene with them for a visit.

For Sale—Delta cotton seed, $1.50 per bushel. 293p J. H. Koeninger

Ila Faye Reid is now employed in Amarillo.

Giles News

By Mrs. Arthur Ranson

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Glass, Mrs. F. G. Watt and daughters Virginia and Lela Ruth attended the Order of the Eastern Star Installation at Mobeetie Tuesday night.

S-Sgt. Jackie Johnson from the Army Air Base, at Ardmore, Okla. is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ranson. Sgt. Johnson is a gunnery instructor there.

R. O. Kelley was a Hedley visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Sandridge and Miss Cheshier of Commerce are visiting their brother, O. E. Cheshier for a few days.

Jerry Stotts was home over the week end. He is working at Chillicothe.

Martin Johnson has returned home from Ft. Worth where he was visiting his grandfather, J. H. Nanney.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Johnson of Hedley visited in the Kay Autry home Sunday.

Tom Washem and children, Sidney and Marie from San Angelo visited his sister Mrs. Lutha Johnson this week.

J. M. Baker was transacting business in Hedley Saturday. Theresa Kelley returned home Saturday from Amarillo.

TWENTY YEARS AGO In Giles

Mrs. J. D. McCants and Mrs. J. A. Lemmon were in Memphis Monday afternoon.

Mrs. A. S. Edwards is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. C. Johnson. Earl Fortenberry and Ted Black from McKnight were visitors in Giles Sunday afternoon.

Virgil Bailey of Washburn is here this week visiting Alton Meredith.

The married men and young fellows played a game of ball Sunday afternoon, the former winning by a score of 17 to 15. There were several cars of spectators from surrounding towns.

Bill Conway and a young lady companion from Amarillo visited Mrs. Lyle Beckwith over the week end.

(These news items were written by Mrs. J. A. Lemmon twenty years ago for the Memphis Democrat.)

Lions Club News

Fifty-two Lions and their guests enjoyed a fried chicken supper at last weeks Lions Club meeting.

Guests were Messrs. Davenport, Duval, Spear, Wells and Beavers of Lakeview, who came in the interest of a road from Lakeview to Hedley which would be mighty good for both towns, and Miss Myrtle Reeves, Mrs. Ross Adamson, Mrs. A. B. Cockrell and Miss Evelyn Dean Johnston of Plainview, who appeared on the program.

This week the directors of the Lions Club will meet. Some of the things to come up will be road and highway projects, delegate to International Convention at Chicago, annual picnic June 29th and bond rally to be held June 23rd.

At next weeks meeting new officers and directors are to be elected and a good attendance is expected. The program for that night will be put on by Clarendon folks in the interest of Clarendon Junior College in which we are all interested.

For Sale—Model A roadster, good motor. L. M. Harris

Hedley School News

All pupils of the Giles school will be transferred to Hedley next year, and Supt. Baker of Giles will be in the Hedley school system.

We will be glad to have Mr. Baker and the Giles students coming to Hedley, and believe that the change will prove beneficial to all concerned.

Monroe-Golden

The following was taken from Wednesday's Amarillo News:

Miss Minnie Golden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Golden, and Elzie Monroe, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Monroe, were married Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, near Plainview. Rev. Carl Lamb pastor of the Finney Baptist Church, read the ceremony.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony. The bride is a 1944 graduate of Plainview High School.

News Of The Rationing Board

Stamp 32 in Book Four becomes valid tomorrow, June 16, for five pounds of sugar and is good indefinitely. We repeat ourselves in regard to the canning sugar for the benefit of those who have missed the information heretofore: you may now apply to the local board for your canning sugar either in person or by mail. When making application, be sure to have Book Four on hand so that you may furnish the Board with spare stamp no. 37, not sugar stamp 37 but spare no. 37.

Notice

There has been some complaint about loose cows and chickens injuring gardens, etc. It is a violation of a city ordinance for cows and chickens to run at large, so please keep them fastened up. By Order of the City Council

War Veterans to Speak

Major William Rockford of the Childress Army Air Field wrote our local Lions Club that they would have some war veterans returned from overseas to speak at the Lions Club War Bond Rally at the Hedley High School Auditorium Friday June 23rd. Also they would furnish a Hill Billy Band for the entertainment and anything else they were able to send up from the field.

This bond rally is planned by the Lions Club and local merchants to aid Hedley and surrounding communities to raise their quotas in this bond drive. All the other school districts are invited to participate in this rally and the bonds bought by the residents of each district to be allotted to the quota of their district.

Local business men and others are donating prizes to be auctioned off to the highest bond bidders. Let's all attend this meeting and get a good start in this drive.

W. S. C. S.

The women of the Methodist Church are preparing the quarterly box to be sent to Bethlehem Center at Fort Worth. Kindergarten supplies, first aid supplies and sewing supplies of all kinds are requested by the Center.

All women of the church desiring to help with this project please leave materials at Mrs. Shaw's Variety Store within the next week or ten days.

The time to insure your cotton against hail is before the hail comes. Insure with C. L. Johnson at the bank.

WARTIME WASHINGTON

By Congressman Eugene Worley

News of the invasion has overshadowed everything else in Washington. Official ears were glued to late radio bulletins, and the latest communiques were scanned with anxious eyes. Pressing matters on the homefront were temporarily forgotten. While nearly everyone in Washington expected this greatest of all military operations to begin in June, the secret was so well kept that but a handful of men knew exactly when D-Day would actually begin. Needless to say, interest in the success of the operations was intense. For the past two years, Congress has appropriated multiplied billions of dollars for the express purpose of guaranteeing our men the best training and the best equipment in the world. The wisdom of this policy is reflected when we examine invasion figures. More than eleven thousand planes provided an unbeatable air umbrella for the invasion forces. At least four thousand warships of all kinds were used in the operation. The landing barges, the tanks, the guns and bullets used were the best that could be supplied by the brains and genius of a mighty nation. The equipment lost or destroyed can be replaced, but the lives of the men which would be lost without superior equipment would be gone forever.

YOU CAN'T LOSE

When You Put Your Money on

A SURE THING

Ask any banker or business man, he will tell you that War Bonds are the safest and surest investment you can possibly make. Safe, because all the resources of the richest nation on earth are back of them, making it a sure thing that for every three dollars you invest, four dollars will return to you at the end of ten years.

Our government is asking for sixteen billion dollars in this Fifth War Loan Drive. This represents the greatest financial undertaking in world history. Six billion of this tremendous amount, the government is asking us as individuals, Mr. and Mrs. America, to subscribe, and of this amount a three billion dollar quota has been established in Series "E" Bonds, the peoples bond.

The bonds you have bought and the taxes you have paid has built the mightiest fighting forces the world has ever seen. Now the bonds you MUST buy and the taxes you must pay will keep these same forces, the best armed, the best clothed, the best fed of any nation on earth, and by the same token hasten the day of Victory.

Joan Ray Moreman was brought home Tuesday from a Clarendon hospital, where she underwent an appendectomy last week.

Miss Helen Sargent of Claude is visiting in Hedley this week.

Mrs. C. O. Hill visited in Hollis last week end.

Pfc. Wilson Morgan is now stationed somewhere in North Africa. He says he is well and seeing lots of sights.

Dorothy Dotson is visiting her uncle near Galveston, Texas.

Informer Rates

Please remember that the Informer rate is $1.50 per year in Donley county, and $2.00 per year elsewhere, except that service men get the $1.50 rate.

IMPROVEMENTS

The display of flags Wednesday (Flag Day) by the local business men shows how nice our town can look when it puts on its Sunday clothes. We can't have a big town until the boys and war workers come back but we can have a nice looking clean little town.

The "service men's pickup stand" erected by the local Legionnaires and War Dads aided by the merchants not only will be a help to many boys but also shows that our town has its boys in mind.

The Lions Club has fifty new names to place on the honor roll board making a total of over 200 from here now in service. Much honor is due the club for this board and the Boy Scouts who keep the flag flying over it every day.

The Cooper Hotel's new coat of paint and other improvements have helped the looks of the town quite a bit. We understand that the Masonic Lodge have a committee out in regard to the painting of their Hall and that the Legion and War Dads have already begun work on the Legion Hall.

The government has asked us to conserve on materials. One of the greatest savings is to keep everything exposed to the weather well painted. So let's clean up paint up and fix up our town.

Warns Vacationists

If you start on a vacation trip and find yourself stranded this summer, don't blame the Office of Defense Transportation. Col. J. Monroe Johnson, director of the ODT, has issued a statement that cancellation of Pullman and other travel reservations may come at any time on account of the vital need of accommodations to handle traffic in connection with the invasion of Europe.

Mrs. O. H. Tinsley is recovering nicely after an operation Saturday in a Memphis hospital.

Mrs. V. M. Davison of Wichita Falls is visiting the Informer family.

Imogene Fortenberry is visiting in Rogers, Ark.

Let C. E. Johnson, manager of the Hedley Telephone Co., write your fire and hail insurance.

Notice For Bids

Whereas, at the March term of court in 1942, the City of Hedley bought the property, known as the Edythe Antrobus Maher property, all of Lots No. 4,5&6 in Block No. 18 of the original town plat of Hedley.

And since the two years has expired since that sale, we hereby advertise for bids on said property. Motion was made by W. C. Johnson and seconded by W. M. Biffle and unanimously passed that this property be offered for sale to the highest bidder for cash, the City reserving the right to reject any or all bids.

The City requests that you file your bid at the City Secretary office on or before July 4th, 1944. City of Hedley, Texas By J. P. Devine City Secretary

ON THE HOME FRONT
with RUTH WYETH SPEARS

IT IS easy to make a whole set of these folding stands and plywood trays. Cut all the pieces at one session and then spend an evening putting them together. You are then ready for supper under the trees on the porch.

Carry-a-tray parties are fun for everybody and very little work for the hostess. Each tray may be attractively set with luncheon mat, silver and gay informal dishes.

NOTE—Mrs. Spears has prepared an actual-size pattern to guide you in cutting all the parts of these stands and trays with a complete list of materials required and illustrated directions for assembling. This is pattern No. 268 which will be sent for 15 cents, which covers cost and mailing. Address:

Allied Gains Mark Italy Battle; Plan Four-Power Peace Meeting; 5,000,000 U. S. Men Overseas

EUROPE: Allied Progress

Allied troops cracked the last German defense line on the western end of the front below Rome as enemy forces completed their withdrawal to the east, and the glittering dome of St. Peter's came first into view of fighting U. S. doughboys, wading through hails of Nazi fire.

As Allied forces closed on the Eternal City and the enemy fell back, U. S. and British bombers continued their invasion bombardment of western Europe, and Russian troops in the east withstood a strong Nazi assault designed to upset their alignment for their scheduled big push.

By pulling back the bulk of his 10th army which opposed the Allied onslaught in the Cassino area, Nazi Marshal Kesselring managed to save them from complete annihilation, but U. S. and British forces exacted a heavy toll in the desperate, rearguard fighting, and their battle-planes ranged along the whole line of enemy retreat, shooting up marching columns and vehicles.

As the battle-clouds rumbled over against the Pope Pius XII appealed against the principle of total victory, declaring: total victory or complete annihilation "... works as a stimulant for prolongation of the war, even with those who ... would be inclined to a reasonable peace."

Over There

With 3,637,000 U. S. army men overseas, Secretary of War Henry Stimson declared that they are "... poised to strike victory winning blows against Germany and Japan by land, sea and air."

At the same time, the navy revealed that it had 1,566,000 men afloat or on foreign duty, with 900,000 more in transit or in training for combat service.

The army's 3,637,000 men overseas represented 47 per cent of total strength, and this would be boosted to 5,000,000 men, or two-thirds of total strength, by the end of 1944, Secretary Stimson said.

Declaring that disposition of troops overseas was in conformance with plans of the high command, Secretary Stimson said early transport of forces was to plug holes in the Allies' tottering lines, and later shipments were to crack the Axis' outer defenses for the grand assault, for which preparations long have been under way.

GOVERNORS: State Program

Meeting in Hershey, Pa., the nation's governors called upon the federal government to formulate a postwar policy on public works which might possibly fit into their own extensive plans for such projects.

In addition, the governors declared for:

- The individual states continued administration of unemployment insurance in the estimation of their probable postwar unemployment and the solvency of their insurance funds, the provision for adequate reserves, and development of plans for quick payments;
- Future convocation of a federal-state tax parity to overhaul the nation's entire tax structure and provide each governmental division with sufficient funds for operation;
- Postponement in the formulation of a postwar military policy and army until the war's end offers an opportunity to judge the extent of our responsibilities. Retention of the national guards as provided in the act of 1916.

MISCELLANY

WHEEL TRACTORS: During the week ending May 27, production of farm-type wheel tractors reached the highest point yet attained. In that week 6,098 units were made, the War Production board reports. Average for the preceding five weeks had been 5,906 tractors. Total made in 11 months since the start of the farm year on July 1, 1943, is about 300,000 machines.

FOREIGN POLICY: F. D. R.'s Stand

Closely paralleling the Republican party's celebrated Mackinac Island declaration on foreign policy, President Roosevelt declared for maintenance of U. S. sovereignty or self-determination in the activities of any postwar organization to secure peace.

Said Arch-Nationalist Gerald Nye (N. D.): "It is only too apparent in the light of his statement, that the door has been opened for Roosevelt to become the No. 1 nationalist or isolationist in the campaign next fall if the Republicans adopt a platform tying them to internationalism."

President Roosevelt's declaration came during the course of a press conference, in which he envisaged an international organization of nations cooperating freely and closely in the preservation of peace to prevent future aggression.

New Procedure

President Roosevelt made his statement shortly after Secretary of State Cordell Hull had issued invitations to Great Britain, Russia and China to participate in discussions of forming a postwar peace organization following consultations with members of the senate's foreign relations committee.

By conferring with the senators, the administration sought to eliminate partisanship from the formulation of postwar foreign policy, and, also, avoid Pres. Woodrow Wilson's mistake of seeking senatorial sanction for the World War I Peace Treaty without previously consulting the chamber on its provisions during its composition.

In Secretary Hull's talks with the senators, it was revealed that some of them objected to formal commitment to any organization of enforcing postwar peace until the U. S. was apprized of the nature of the final settlement.

PACIFIC: Bloody Episode

Bloody as any of the fighting in the South Pacific was the U. S. thrust against the enemy airfield on Biak island off Dutch New Guinea, with reinforcements called in to aid in the suppression of the stubborn foe.

With access to the airfield along a roadway below a commanding ridge doughboys found themselves under sight of entrenched enemy snipers in the brush above, and when they climbed to the level of the airfield, they encountered formations of Japanese tanks.

Under cover of the big guns of the 7th naval fleet, however, reinforcements were landed, and doughboys again pressed on the airfield, capture of which would assure the U. S. of another link in the chain of air bases being established in the northwestern New Guinea area for cover for the grand assault on the Philippines or Indies.

PRICE CONTROL: Parity Problem

Extension of the OPA for 18 months appeared certain only after a bitter fight over Sen. John Bankhead's amendment, calling for adjustment of textile prices to reflect parity returns on cotton to farmers.

Headed by Sen. Robert Wagner (N. Y.), opponents of the Bankhead amendment claimed that it would lead to similar demands by other segments of industry, thus increasing the general price level, giving rise to pressure for higher wages, and, in all, destroying the economic stabilization of the last few years.

CHINA: New Drive

As the Chinese pressed their drive in the southwest to join up with Lieut. Gen. Joseph Stilwell's forces in Burma and open a supply road to the embattled country, no less than 180,000 Japanese opened a big offensive farther to the east in an apparent effort to counteract any projected Allied operations resulting from new communication lines.

The Jap offensive got under way shortly after the loss of momentum of their previous drive farther to the north.

WAR-PLANES

American aircraft factories are now turning out far more war planes than both Germany and Japan combined, latest reports show. The United States is now producing at the rate of 100,000 planes a year, as compared with 21,600 for Germany and 14,000 for Japan.

The British empire and the United States together have made about 300,000 planes since Great Britain entered the war, while the Axis reportedly produced 151,000 in the same period.

LABOR: Pressure Effective

As a result of strong union pressure exerted by 8,000 members of the CIO's United Automobile Workers, government agencies announced plans for the resumption of operations at two plants of the Brewster Aeronautical Corp. in New York and Pennsylvania.

Brought to a head when 5,500 UAW members of Brewster's New York plant refused to leave the premises for two days after being discharged due to the navy's cancellation of contracts with the company for Corsair airplanes, the War Production board determined to reopen the plant for the manufacture of spare parts if other concerns making Corsairs can use them.

Earlier, the navy announced it would take over Brewster's Pennsylvania plant and keep its 2,500 employees working.

PEARL HARBOR: Trial Delay

Efforts of Sen. Homer Ferguson (Mich.) to direct the secretaries of war and navy to institute court martial proceedings against Adm. Husband E. Kimmel and Maj. Gen. Walter C. Short for the Pearl Harbor debacle were frustrated by the senate's judiciary committee.

Instead the committee approved a resolution calling upon the secretaries to immediately begin an investigation into the catastrophe, with a view toward ordering court martial proceedings if justified by the facts uncovered.

During the course of the committee's deliberations, it was revealed that Kimmel was anxious to be tried in open court whenever a trial might be held without impairing the war effort. Declaring that any delays might be personally disadvantageous to him because of difficulties of later assembling evidence and witnesses, Kimmel said that the whole story of Pearl Harbor has not been told.

Fifteen Husbands

When the government discovered that it was sending four dependency allotment checks to one woman who claimed to be the legal wife of four soldiers, the FBI undertook an investigation.

Upon probing the case, the FBI learned that not only had red-haired, 35-year-old Marion Horn been married to the four servicemen without bothering to divorce any of them, but she also had been wedded to 11 other men without a legal separation in any case.

Charged with fraudulently receiving benefits under the servicemen's dependents' allowance act, Mrs. Horn remarked about her marriage activities by declaring: "I didn't mean to do anything wrong. I just didn't bother with divorces."

Said her 15th husband, serving in the marine corps: "She is a fine woman, but a little absent-minded..."

SUPREME COURT: Forced Testimony

Although the federal government itself cannot accept evidence against an individual which it obtains against his will, it can use such evidence if supplied by state officials and turned over to it for a trial, the Supreme court ruled in a divided opinion.

In a seven to one decision, the court upheld Wisconsin's 3 per cent tax on dividends paid out of earnings within the state on the grounds that: "... It (Wisconsin) has afforded protection and benefits to ... corporate activities and transactions within the state ... giving rise to the income of stockholders."

In dissenting against the majority's opinion in the first case admitting an individual's forced testimony in federal courts if obtained by state officials, the minority declared: "... The use of testimony obtained by compulsory discovery to convict an accused must be considered 'shocking to the universal sense of justice' and offensive to the common and fundamental ideas of fairness and right."

STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO
By VIRGINIA VALE
Released by Western Newspaper Union.

EVERYONE who's interested in movies has heard of Pickfair, the stately white house that Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford built on a Beverly Hills knoll 25 years ago—where they sat side by side at dinner parties, and lived a dignified and gracious life. Well, RKO persuaded Mary to let its sweeping lawn be used as the backdrop for scenes of "That Hunter Girl," a picture about the richest girl in the world. Laraine Day and Alan Marshal, Marshal Hunt and Alan Jostyn, were to get involved in the sprinkler system. But—RKO had to install special pipes for the water, then the sun wouldn't shine—you'll see Pickfair as a background, but credit RKO with a struggle to show it to you!

Republic Pictures executives are sort of going all out on their new musical, "Brazil," what with casting Tito Guizar, that favorite of concert stage and radio, as the lead, and adding Velox and Yolanda, the dance team, and Edward Everett Horton for good measure.

There was a reason why Carole Landis tossed a dinner party for her co-stars, Pat O'Brien and George Murphy of "Having Wonderful Crime," as well as Producer Bob Fellows and Director Eddie Sutherland, just before the company went to Del Monte on location. Jack Flangini was her cook before resigning two years ago to enroll in the merchant marine—and his ship was in port—and he volunteered to return for an evening.

Italian natives and American and British soldiers on Italian soil are enjoying a daily full-hour of recorded music by Arturo Toscanini and the NBC symphony orchestra; the program is presented every night over the Naples radio station, under the direction of the Allied military authorities, and consists of compilations of recordings, many of which were made from actual Sunday broadcasts heard here.

Jean Heather, Paramount actress, received a cuff link the other day, on the set of "Murder, He Says." She gave it to Lieut. Dan David, and he wore it in his cap while completing 90 missions against the Japs. "Had to bring it back to you," said he, returning it.

Don Barry, star of many Republic action western films, returns to the studio to go to work there, after a six months' tour of army posts on three fighting fronts. His return will be marked by stardom in straight dramatic roles.

Better see "Attack!" The U. S. signal corps is responsible for photographing it; it's a six-reeler which chronicles the Battle for New Britain. It brings to the screen the complete beachhead storming operation from beginning to end, is the first war picture that shows an attack from inception to consummation; it represents the Arawe beach attack on December 15 and the December 25 pressing on to Cape Gloucester.

SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER

Synthetic inner tubes need lubrication before being inserted in a casing. Partially inflates the tube and use ordinary pure soap suds as a lubricant in the absence of a special tube lubrication preparation. Dry synthetic tubes do not "slide" in the tire and unless lubricated may not adjust themselves properly.

Proponents of the continuance of our synthetic rubber insurance policy after the war hold that jungle growth on the rubber plantations could reduce the probability of the Japs wrecking the plantation equipment may mean a loss of two years before normal levels of rubber production can be realized.

THE AMERICAN'S CREED

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign states; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe that it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.

Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength.

Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination. There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

Notice For Bids

Whereas, at the March term of court in 1942, the City of Hedley bought the property, known as the Edythe Antrobus Maher property, all of Lots No. 4, 5 & 6 in Block No. 18 of the original town plat of Hedley.

And since the two years has expired since that sale, we hereby advertise for bids on said property.

Motion was made by W. C. Johnson and seconded by W. M. Biffle and unanimously passed that this property be offered for sale to the highest bidder for cash, the City reserving the right to reject any or all bids.

The City requests that you file your bid at the City Secretary office on or before July 4th, 1944.

MOOS OF THE MOMENT

BY UNCLE BOB

of the Kraft Dairy Farm Service

With the coming of hot summer weather, every dairyman faces the attack of one of our most dangerous enemies—the insect. It's a merciless war and if the insect pests win it means irritated cattle and lowered milk production. The loss that insect pests inflict upon dairymen runs into the scores of millions of dollars every year.

There's no time like the present to open up a "second front" upon these allies of the Axis and we've prepared a handy guide to help you win the fight. It is called "Your Handy Guide for your War on Insects". It contains a brief description of the principal insect pests, where they are found, what they do, and what you can do in the way of control and treatment.

This guide may be tacked to the wall of your barn for ready reference. I am giving this guide away free. There is no charge or obligation of any kind. You may get the guide from your Kraft fieldman or by writing to me in care of the Kraft Cheese Company, 500 Peshtigo Court, Chicago, Illinois.

If we give our insects here at home the kind of a beating that the Allies are handing the "insects" in Asia and Europe, we'll be doing all right.

A few weeks ago I mentioned the studies made at the University of Minnesota which showed how much faster milk could be cooled with water than with air. Since then, I have had several requests for information on how to build a good emergency water cooler. A bulletin from Tennessee illustrates how one may be made from a barrel with a minimum of expense.

The diagram at the left is taken directly from this bulletin. This, of course, is an emergency device. The best cooling system is the milk house tank. If you can use one of the barrel coolers in the meantime, I suggest you write for Dairy Letter No. 4, Department of Agricultural Extension, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Tenn.*

Now if I could just figure out some way of walking around in one of those barrel coolers during hot weather, I'd be mighty happy.

Of course, every dairyman who wants to do the best kind of a job should be thinking right now about the kind of a milk house he intends to have sooner or later.

Your county agent probably has plans for different types of milk houses which have been made up by the state agricultural extension service. Your Kraft fieldman or the manager of your nearest Kraft plant will be glad to co-operate in any way he can.

The fellow who wants to go to the city and make hay — hey, would be a lot better off if he would go to the field and make hay—hay for his cows.

Which brings up the subject of the right time for cutting hay. All of the extension services agree that hay has different food values at different stages of maturity. They also agree that it should be cut early for highest food values.

For example, in Bulletin 218, Minnesota advises that clover hay will be much higher in food value if cut when the first heads begin to open. They also recommend that all grass hays be cut before they come into bloom to get the maximum protein content. Sweet clover, too, should be cut before the first blossoms appear because the stems rapidly grow woody.

In Bulletin 242, Purdue University recommends that alfalfa be cut after the one-tenth bloom stage and before full bloom. In Bulletin 346 on soybeans, Purdue describes a series of chemical analyses to determine the food content of soybean leaves, pods and stems during the later stages of the growing period.

As a result of these analyses, Purdue recommends that soybean hay be cut when the pods are completely formed, the beans practically fully developed in the pods with the lower leaves turning yellow. This stage is superior to earlier ones for both milk and butter-fat production.

If you do not have Minnesota's Bulletin 218, write the Extension Service, University of Minnesota, St. Paul, Minnesota.* For the Purdue Bulletins, write the Extension Service, Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind.*

*NOTE: There usually is a 5c charge for pamphlets mailed to non-residents of a state; but possibly your own state has a free pamphlet on the same subject. Ask your county agent.

DRIVE IT HOME!

"That's the way I like to see them," said Gen. MacArthur when he saw the rows of dead Japs in the Admiralty Islands. In this war—the costliest, cruellest war of all time—our boys must fight with savage fury. Kill or be killed! And on how well each plays his part depends the lives of many of his buddies.

Here on the home front, too, just cheering the attack on isn't enough.

That's why there's a Fifth War Bond drive on now, a drive in which you're needed to support the men on the fighting fronts who are facing the most treacherous forces Americans have ever met in combat. We on the home front can't let them down—and we won't. So resolve now to at least double your bond buying in the 5th War Loan drive. This is the time to do better than your best.

That's why my HANDS are busy here!

MILLIONS of American women are applying their hands over here, answering Uncle Sam's call to help with our national food crisis. With 20 million Victory Gardens and five billion jars of home-canned foods, they conserved our resources of fighting foods in 1943.

In 1944 you are being asked to raise and preserve 20 percent more, to assure every fighting Yank and his brother—as well as the home front—with needed nourishment.

For success, can with care, following proper instructions, and use BALL JARS. They have been the housewife's preference for more than 60 years. Leaders always!

Hedda Hopper: Looking at HOLLYWOOD

MONTY WOOLLEY has gone to war. The whiskered comedian for whom life began at 50 is grumbling thru his beard in a one-angry-man crusade.

The objective of his pet hate is the nest of "schools" situated in Hollywood and elsewhere which hold out a hope and a promise of film stardom to all aspirants with the price of tuition.

That their customers possess talents is no prerequisite. The boys and girls, of course, and their fathers and mothers, too, fall for the old malarkey in droves. There seems to be a widely prevalent notion abroad that anybody short of a deaf mute can master the craft of miming in approximately the time it takes to memorize Hamlet's soliloquy.

Monty Woolley sputters and roars in righteous rage. "Why—why—when I think of mine own kampf—why, damn it all, these arrant tricksters!"

No Bed of Roses... The point is that Monty resents acrimoniously the inference that people can learn to act overnight. He resents this implied slur even more bitterly because a lot of folks seem to think that's what he did.

"If ever a man came up the hard way I did," said he while waiting to do a scene for "Irish Eyes Are Smiling."

"It's true you'll find in Hollywood and New York as well, certain misguided and uninformed persons who'll tell you that Woolley has been guzzling fine wines, feeding on caviar and terrapin, and wearing costly raiment all his life.

"Fooy! Rats! Nonsense!" Family Nixed Stage... His dad owned some very prosperous New York hotels. The Woolleys were rolling in it. But when Monty smeared the family cutcheon with grease paint the old gentleman showed him the door.

Undaunted, Monty kept at it. That was 30 years ago and more, and he had bounce. He still has bounce, an amazing share of it.

The fact is that no poor little rich boy ever had more strikes on him than did Monty in his 30 years' war to get somewhere in the theater.

Moss Hart gave him the big chance that really emancipated him in "The Man Who Came to Dinner." Moss made George Kaufman and Sam Harris see Monty's possibilities and Monty and Twentieth Century Fox did the rest.

As the Rose... There's a bloom on Ann Sheridan I've never seen there before and cute, giggling Jane Wyman makes a nice sidekick for her in "Doughgirls."

We got on the subject of Mexico, and the beautiful things Paulette Goddard brought home from the museum down there. I asked Ann to let me see her collection. She said, "Hedda, are you kidding? I didn't visit the museum."

Director Jim Kern told me how Eve Arden got the Russian part. She was on the lot doing another picture and called up wanting to test for the part, but Jim, who'd known her for years, said, "Eve, dear, you're not the type." Next day Eve dressed up as the Russian, came on the set, spoke in dialect, and the part was hers—which shows even experienced actresses have to beg for parts they want.

An Old-Timer Suggests... Metro is shooting "Ziegfeld Follies," and it all its elements blend the way they did for Ziggy, it should make screen history. You'll find James Melton singing a love song while Esther Williams and 50 mermaids swim to the rhythm of his voice. You'll pardon me for suggesting, but how about rounding up the former Ziegfeld Follies beauties and having them all glamorized as the ready for a number, just as they were in the old days, then switch and let us see what they're doing today. I believe anybody would get a kick out of a scene like that, but then I'm just an old sentimentalist who loves to see "belles of by-gone years" get another chance. Why not? I got mine.

She's a Smart Girl... It didn't take long for Red Skelton to switch from blonde Mariel Morris to a redhead who is just as friendly with Red's Edna as Red is... Gosh! Ed Gardner's swipes Orson Welles' nickname "Genius."

I can't believe that Tommy Mitchell would leave pictures to do "King Lear," even the Arthur Hopkins produce it... Allan Jones fans are hankering to have him back on the screen, but he should worry. His weekly pay check for personal appearances and radio is $3,500.

Star Dust STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO

AREHEARSAL of Frank Sinatra's Wednesday night air show is something to see. Outside the CBS theater the bobby sock brigade waits; even when he's in California they wait; otherwise they'll lose their places in line. Inside, the Voice, be-stacled, chewing gum, has a swell time clowning with Jerry Lester. But when he rehearses his songs Sinatra settles down to business, working like the conscientious professional that he is. Seeing him then, you get a new slant on this likable young man who has shot to the top in the entertainment field so rapidly. He ought to stay there—if the ardent admirers who lie in wait for him don't kill him first; one girl almost choked him a while ago!

Adolphe Menjou, debonair as ever, has been dashing about New York, just back from bond-selling in Canada. Meeting friends, he talks about that trip, and goes on to discuss, not the RKO picture he's just finished with Sinatra, but the fact that he's going to the South Pacific in November. Like other visiting stars, he was booked knee-deep for radio appearances; there's a shortage of "names" in New York.

C. S. Forester, the famous author who wrote "Captain Horatio Hornblower" and "The Ship," will write the story in which Greta Garbo will return to the screen. Producer Lester Cowan engaged him to do a story about fighting sailors, men and women, in the Norwegian merchant marine. Miss Garbo, who hasn't liked other ideas submitted to her, must be in favor of this one.

Don't believe that Penny Singleton is as wacky in real life as she sounds in the title role of the air's "Blondie." She was an established Broadway musical comedy star when she was brought to Hollywood for dramatic and singing roles; before that, she'd studied journalism at Columbia university. She turns out a children's story occasionally.

Anita Colby returned from a nation-wide chore on behalf of "Cover Girl" with a new formula for getting a room in an overcrowded hotel. "When they'd say they were all sold out," said she, "I'd ask if they didn't have one room that just wasn't made up yet. They always had. And I can honestly say now that I've made beds in some of America's best hotels!"

Barton Yarborough finally did it. Playing "Doc Long" in "I Love a Mystery," by Carlton Morse, he did 200 performances without a slip of the tongue. Then, instead of saying "I never believe in sockin' a sleepin' man," he said "I never believe in sleepin' a sockin' man."

Bob Burns, radio's "Arkansas Traveler," had to go on a diet for his new picture, "Belle of the Yukon," with Dinah Shore and Gypsy Rose Lee. "Times have changed," remarked Bob. "Twelve years ago I had to diet because I wasn't makin' a picture."

March of Time director Len Lyne and cameraman Bob Navarro were in Ireland just before Great Britain imposed restriction of travel between the two countries. They got out in time with the thousands of feet of film they had been shooting. The result is an up-to-the-minute picture, "The Irish Question," that shows Ireland and the Irish as they are today. It's informative and good entertainment.

Stuart Buchanan, who now heads the Blue Network's script department, was one of the first to see "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" when it reached Broadway for a return engagement. He'd already seen it at least 1,500 times; he was dialogue director when it was made!

ODDS AND ENDS—Don't be fooled by that carnivorous plant you'll see in "Rainbow Island"; reproduced from a photograph, it operates by electricity... The parks worn by Bob Hope in "Road to Utopia" was presented to him by soldiers when he toured Alaska... That eccentrician who recently released old inhibitions by playing the drums on Milton Berle's "Let Yourself Go" program has had two audition dates, and may land an engagement with a major orchestra soon... The bottom fell out of poultry for Don Ameche the other day when an abandoned well caved in under his chicken yard, and plucked his prize hens into the bottom of a twelve-foot hole.

Household Hints

JUST a few easy-to-crochet medallions joined together make this cool-as-a-breeze calot and bag set. Use any color straw yarn to highlight any costume.

To remove a tight glass stopper, wrap around the neck of the bottle a cloth that has been wrung out of hot water, or soak it in vinegar for a while. Work it gently and it will soon loosen.

If you have any made-up starch left after washing, use it on the linoleum. It lends a gloss and the floor stays clean longer.

Why don't you make a vestee with three jabots that button on for quick change?

To avoid needle marks when shortening a raincoat, use adhesive tape as a hem binder instead of sewing. To lengthen it later, just remove the adhesive tape.

A piece of velvet or corduroy placed in the heel of your shoe will make your stockings wear longer.

When mending woollens, a thread drawn from the hem or side will make a neat and inconspicuous darn. Otherwise, use a mercerized thread in a matching shade. Darn on the right side. Do not use a knot as there is no strain on the material.

Tank-Destroyer Unit Is Very Proud of Its Guns

Combat Team Confident; Differs Little From Battle-Tried Outfit

By Ernie Pyle

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND.—I went out the other day with a tank-destroyer unit. They have been over here long enough to form an opinion of English weather but you can't print it in a nice newspaper like this.

It was the first time in ages I had been with a combat outfit which had not yet been in battle. There isn't so much difference as you might think. The really noticeable difference is their eagerness to "get a crack at the Jerries." After they have been cracking at them a few months they'll be just as eager to let somebody else have a turn at it.

But outside of that they talk and act about the same as men who have been in combat. They cuss a lot, razz each other about their home states, complain about the food, take great pride in their guns, and talk about how they wish they were home, just as though they had been away for years.

This unit has been training together for nearly two years. They don't yet realize what a terrific advantage that gives them, but they will realize it as soon as they are in battle. They are a vast team of firepower composed of dozens of little teams, each one centering around one gun. They have done it so long they know automatically what to do. They all know every man on the team and they know his personality and how he will react. They have faith in each other. Only those who have fought know what confidence that produces.

A typical gun commander is Sergt. Dick Showalter, (535 S. Gharner St.) Muncie, Ind. I have a special reason for mentioning him. For while I was talking with a group of soldiers he came up and introduced himself and said:

"I married a girl from your home town."

Now things like that are always happening to me, except that nine times out of ten the people are mixed up. People will come up and say, "Don't you remember me? I used to deliver papers at your house." And it will turn out they lived in a town I had never heard of, and were thinking of two other fellows.

When Sergeant Showalter said he had married a girl from my home town I slightly arched my handsome eyebrows and said, "Yes?"

"Yes," he said. "I married Edna Kuhns."

"Why," I said, "I was raised with the Kuhns kids. They lived just across the fence from our farm. I've known them all my life."

"That's what I said," said Sergeant Showalter. And then we left the crowd and sat on the grass, leaning against a rock.

Sergeant Showalter worked in factories before the war. He has been commander of his gun for more than a year and a half. He is a small fellow, quiet, serious, conscientious, and extremely proud of his crew and of the way they take their responsibility.

One of Showalter's best buddies in his crew is Pfc. Bob Cartwright of Daytona Beach, Fla. He is a cannoner—a small, reddish, good-natured fellow.

When we met I said, "What's that you've got in your mouth?"

He grinned and said, "Chawin' tobacco." Which was just what I thought it was.

He manages to keep well stocked by trading stuff with boys who don't chew. Bob is very young. He didn't know much when he came into the army, but Showalter says he's the best there is now.

As I said the boys are very proud of their guns. They say they've had fine training and lots of practice on moving targets. They say that on direct fire they can hit a moving tank at about a mile and almost never miss. They're anxious to get at it and get it over with and get back home.

They know it won't be easy on the other side. They're living rough now but they know it will be lots rougher pretty soon.

As they say, the chow is bad here compared to what it was in America, but they don't complain too much because they know it's going to get worse.

They know they'll be on C and K rations, and they've had experience with them on maneuvers. But when I spoke of our best ration—the 10-in-1 field ration—they had never heard of it.

They have been working hard since they hit England. They've made long night trips and done a lot of practice firing and sometimes they have to work as late as 10 o'clock at night.

When I saw them they were making preparations for moving overseas. It takes a lot of work to get your equipment ready for an amphibious move. They've worked so hard they haven't had time to get bored. There are some American outfits that have been here for two years without action, and there are Canadians who have been marching up and down for four years. How they've kept from going nuts is beyond me.

The commander of the tank-destroyer battalion I have been visiting is Lieut. Col. Joseph Deeley of Sheboygan Falls, Wis. He used to run a wool-carding mill there. I like his attitude toward things.

When I first showed up he was perfectly courteous but he made plenty sure I had proper credentials and what not. As he said, they have had plenty of security preached into them back home, and this indeed is a critical period and he isn't taking any chances.

But once he had assured himself I was all right he called in his sergeants and told them to go around and tell their men they were perfectly free to show me any and all equipment they had and talk to me as freely as they wanted to.

As I told him later I don't think he needs any more. For these boys, approaching war for the first time, pumped me so thoroughly on what war is like that I hardly got a chance to ask any questions of them. Maybe I'll have to write some security regulations of my own just out of self-protection. Who the devil is reporting this war,

One company commander, Capt. Charles Harding, of Olmsted Falls, near Cleveland, had just had a letter from home telling him to keep an eye out for me. He figured that in a war this big our paths would never cross, but they did.

Another Ohioan came up and introduced himself. This was Pfc. James Francis McClory of 6711 Guthrie street Cleveland. McClory is what is aptly known in the battalion as a "character." He used to be a prize fighter. Being in the horny-handed world of pugilists, he has a great affinity for apes. There's an almost human ape at the zoo in a nearby city which McClory goes to see every time he gets a pass. He calls him "Alfred the Ape," and says he sure wishes he could take him back to Cleveland.

McClory used to work for the Cleveland Welding company, which made bicycles. When I asked him what he did he said, "Oh, I was just a hod knocker."

You can kid lots with McClory. When I went to write down his name I put "Sergeant" in front of it, and he said, "No no. I'd never get to be a sergeant if the war lasted 50 years."

So I said, "Well, Corporal" then.

But he said, "No, I ain't even got sense enough to be a corporal."

So I said, "Well, we simply can't have you a private. What would the McClorys of the world think with you only a private?"

So we compromised and made him a pfc.

McClory is one of those guys who are good for the morale of an outfit. He is always doing or saying something funny. And he is a good soldier. He is one of the kind who are fanatically loyal.

He has a great affection for his company commander, Capt. John Jay Kennedy of (15 Fawndale road) Roslindale, Mass. Once when some gasoline caught fire McClory threw himself on the captain and knocked him out of the way, saving him from serious injury. Another time, when Captain Kennedy's mother was very ill, McClory took the last money he had and telegraphed home to his own parish to have a mass said for the captain's mother.

Remind yourself to ask for Clarion when Radios are again available

The radios that CLARION will offer in the post-war era will be as fine as engineering and mechanical skill can conceive or money can buy.

Styled right—built right—and priced right—it will pay you to put a reminder string on your finger today so that on some still unknown tomorrow you may go to your favorite retailer to see the CLARION set you have in mind.

Your CLARION dealer will be able to supply you with the radio you want and need—whether a table model, portable, battery set, console or radio-phonograph.

All these will have exquisite tonal quality and accurate selectivity. Somewhere in the CLARION line you'll find the type of set you are looking for, at a pleasing price.

Watch for CLARION when Peace removes all merchandising barriers.

Life With the Tank Destroyer Units

English dogs have begun to attach themselves to the tank-destroyer boys, as they do to any and all camps of soldiers. These boys haven't actually adopted any of them as individual pets, because they can't take them along to the Continent. They say that in the States they had a number of pigs for pets. In that case you could have your pet and eat it too.

The top commanders who have toiled and slaved for months planning the second front have been under a man-killing strain of work and responsibility.

Thousands of men of high rank have labored endlessly. They are up early, they work all day, and after supper they go back to work far into the night. Seldom can you get one of them to take a day off.
