NO. 44

Lions Club News

A large attendance is expected at the Lions Club Ladies Night banquet at the regular meeting place this week. Lions Ray Moreman and Hobart Moffitt have a splendid program arranged.

Lions Leon Reeves and Hobart Moffitt have charge of the annual attendance contest which begins this week and lasts through the first meeting in April. They have chosen sides and the side that has the most members having perfect attendance will be treated to a feed by the losing side.

Next week the Hedley Lions will take a program to Lakeview. It will be in charge of the program committee who are Chas. Rains, Gene Moss, Walter Johnson and C. R. Hunsucker.

The Lions are now planning on some entertainment for the public the first part of October, which will be on the order of a Major Bowles Amateur contest with songs, fiddling and other entertainment with prizes being awarded to the winners.

Smith-Ivey

Miss Jewel Ivey of Hedley and Ira Smith of Dumas were united in marriage last Saturday evening, Sept. 9, at the Baptist parsonage by Rev. H. T. Harris.

The bride wore a blue suit with black accessories, and a corsage of white carnations and pink roses. Witnessing the ceremony were Mrs. W. P. Steen of Clarendon, Mrs. Ted Steen of Matador, Mrs. W. H. Ivey, Billy Glenn Ivey and Modena Spier.

Following the ceremony a supper was enjoyed at the Ivey home, after which the couple left for a trip to Elk City, Tulsa and Oklahoma City.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ivey. She attended school at Giles, McKnight, Hedley and Quail, graduating from Quail high school in 1942. She has been employed in the West Texas Utilities Co. office here about 15 or 16 months.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rainey Smith of Dumas and is a nephew of Mrs. A. A. Cooper of Hedley. The family lived here about 20 years ago. He is a graduate of the Dumas high school and attended W.T.S.C. at Canyon.

The couple will make their home at Dumas, where Mr. Smith is engaged in farming.

"The Wise Old Owl"

In the preceding years, beginning about 1940, gossip columns started in the Informer. In 1941 and 41 it was Mr. X. In 1942 was the Chatterbox. In 1943 nothing was written of the sch news in the paper. Beginning this week until the end of school in 1945 we plan to bring you new column. We hope everyone enjoys it as much as before. title for 1944 and 45 is to be "The Wise Old Owl".

What do Carter and Moore see in each other?

Why is Johnnie not so anxious to stop taking bookkeeping?

Could it be the new teacher? Why can't Buck at home?

Why isn't the cowboy in girls? Could it be Chas. Tires are scarce, but seems to go back and forth to on a rim.

What did James think Wanda went with Kenneth?

What senior girl is waiting sailor?

What girl thinks Dav. goodlooking?

Why did anti-freeze carry back and forth to Joyce in show?

Does Jerald have a girl and could it be Joan Blackwell?

"The Wise Old Owl" knows.

SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER

Sorting the contributions to the nation's scrap rubber drive has been a tremendous job. There are more than 75 types of rubber scrap, but most reclaimed rubber tonnage is derived from one.

Rubber plantations covered over eight million acres at the outbreak of the war and had a potential production capacity of 1,000,000 long tons a year.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Allies Drive on German Border; Expand Navy by 65,000 Ships; August Beef Output Hits Peak

Released by Western Newspaper Union. (EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

Seated on ground at Hotel Majestic following their capture by Free French forces in liberation of Paris, high-ranking German officers await removal to prison quarters.

EUROPE: Nazi Losses

Having suffered losses of 400,000 men since D-day, and with its power in France broken, the once proud German army reeled back toward the Siegfried line guarding the reich's border, there to hole up for a final stand.

Although the bulk of the German armies escaped annihilation in both the north and south, swift moving Allied armor hacked enemy rearwards to shreds, and U. S. and British planes swarming over the battlefields took a heavy toll of men and equipment in the retreating columns.

As the British and Canadians drove up along the Channel coast, they overran many of the enemy's robot-bomb installations, but the continuance of attacks on southeast England with the flying missiles indicated that the Germans moved their dispatching ramps farther inland.

Illustrating the vast scope of Allied operations in France since D-day, Gen. Dwight Eisenhower reported that we had lost 3,000 planes ourselves, required more than 900 tanks for replacements in the first 70 days of fighting, dropped more than 55,000 tons of bombs and used 44,000,000 gallons of aviation gas.

As the battle tempo heightens, and supply lines lengthen, there is also need for more trucks and tires, "He" declared.

Deep in Balkans

Rolling on American wheels, the surging Russian army pushed through Rumania and pointed spear heads at Hungary to the northwest where Marshal Josp Tito's rugged Partisans have been waging relentless guerrilla warfare against the Axis occupational forces.

As the Russian drive carried deep into the heart of the Balkans, Red forces in northern Poland stepped up their pressure against reinforced Nazi troops battling grimly to stave off the capture of Warsaw.

In their developing Rumanian offensive, the Russians sought to exploit an early break into the Carpathian mountains guarding Hungary, where Adolf Hitler desperately sought to keep that country in the war by agreeing to rush reinforcements to bolster its tottering eastern defenses.

By rolling through Bucharest to the southwest, the Reds also had the choice of driving forward for a junction with Tito's Partisans and endangering the entire Nazi hold on the southern Balkans.

BEEF: Cheap Grades Abound

Reflecting the heavy run of grass-fed cattle, August beef production in federally inspected plants reached the all-time record output for that month of 800,000,000 pounds, and 21 per cent higher than the same period last year.

INCOME TAX: New Returns

Thirty million taxpayers earning under $5,000 per year no longer face the ordeal of filling out a complicated income tax form under a new system of the treasury.

Uncle Sam himself will undertake to figure out the taxpayer's liability next year after he has filed a withholding receipt furnished by his employer showing income and pay-as-you-go deductions with space for listing exemptions.

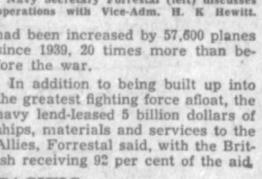

In figuring out the taxpayer's liability, Uncle Sam will allow 10 per cent for charitable contributions, interest, medical expenses, etc., and anyone claiming larger credits for these items will have to file a 1040 form.

U. S. NAVY: Rapid Buildup

Reflecting the American genius for mobilizing the country's tremendous resources, Secretary of the Navy James Forrestal revealed that U. S. naval strength had increased by 65,000 vessels since the outbreak of war in 1939, and personnel had been expanded from 152,086 men to 3,717,000.

Of the 65,000 vessels, 1,150 were major fighting ships.

At the same time, Forrestal divulged that the navy's air strength had been increased by 57,600 planes since 1939, 20 times more than before the war.

In addition to being built up into the greatest fighting force afloat, the navy lend-leased 5 billion dollars of ships, materials and services to the Allies, Forrestal said, with the British receiving 92 per cent of the aid.

PACIFIC: Subs Boost Bag

While U. S. army and navy planes pounded the Japanese Pacific outposts preparatory to further strides along the stepping-stones to the Asiatic mainland, American submarines continued their deadly warfare against enemy shipping.

In latest operations in far Pacific waters, U. S. subs were credited with bagging 17 vessels, including two destroyers, to bring the total number sunk or damaged to 875 since Pearl Harbor.

Operating from advance bases, U. S. bombers hammered Halmahera, strategic gateway to the Philippines, and also hit the enemy's supply lines in neighboring waters.

WAGES: Top Levels

With employment 28 per cent over January, 1941, weekly and hourly earnings in 25 manufacturing industries rose to record levels for June.

WORLD MONOPOLY: Peace Threat

Declaring that cartels—agreements among different international business firms for controlling world trade—formed the basis for Germany's military rejuvenation, Attorney General Francis Biddle told congress that such enterprises must be destroyed if the Allies are to control the enemies' capacity for future war.

As a result of cartel agreements, Biddle said, important companies were kept from South American markets; others could not manufacture such strategic products as synthetic rubber; development of the magnesium industry was retarded; an American company was prevented from selling a certain munition to the British, and restrictions were imposed on plastic production.

Even though certain giant German corporations were prevented from manufacturing military products after the war, Biddle said, they worked around these restrictions by organizing subsidiaries in other countries.

TELEVISION: Here After War

Although television will come into general use after the war, it will be an addition to, and not a substitute for, radio, Chairman James L. Fly of the Federal Communications Commission declared.

Said he: "You can't sit and look at a television screen for 18 hours a day. You can't turn on television, and make the beds, or play bridge, or wash the dishes, as you can with oral broadcasting. Television... will be interspersed with other programs.

Fly also recounted the spectacular rise in revenue of standard stations and networks during the war years, time sales in 1943 amounting to 196 million dollars, with net income of 68 million dollars, as compared with time sales in 1942 of 164 million dollars and profits of 45 million dollars.

Young Wizard

An inventive genius at high school age, Stanley Hiller Jr., now 19, demonstrated a new type helicopter to the army, navy and national advisory committee for aeronautics at San Francisco, Calif., one day before his induction into service.

Using opposite rotating propellers, Hiller's helicopter is designed to overcome the conventional model's torque, or inclination to pull over with the turn of the single blade. Built to cruise at from 175 to 94 miles an hour, with top speed of 100 miles an hour, the new helicopter's longest flight has been about 90 miles.

Son of a pioneer Pacific flour and steamship company president, Hiller founded a large miniature automobile manufacturing business, using a special die-casting process.

WORLD WHEAT: Ample Surplus

With the four great wheat-producing nations of the U. S., Canada, Argentina and Australia expected to harvest 2,000,000,000 bushels in 1944, and with a carry-over of 1,100,000,000 bushels as of July 1, total supplies will approximate 3,000,000,000 bushels for the coming year.

Of the amount, the International Wheat council reported, the four nations will consume about 700,000,000 bushels and use another 700,000,000 for seed and other non-food uses, leaving a reserve of 1,600,000,000 bushels. Of this amount, about 600,000,000 bushels will be exported, the council said, and 200,000,000 will constitute a working stock, leaving a holdover supply of 900,000,000.

As the result of unusually favorable July weather for spring wheat in Minnesota and North Dakota, the U. S. department of agriculture estimated a total wheat crop of 1,132,000,000 bushels for this year, which would make the U. S. harvest about half of the big four's.

POLIO: Incidence Increases

Abating in some sections, infantile paralysis has increased in others, with the result that the U. S. is experiencing its worst polio epidemic in 28 years, although the 6,258 cases reported up to August 19 were far below the 1916 high of 17,375.

Offsetting downward trends reported in North Carolina and Kentucky were increases in New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia and the District of Columbia. States reporting mild or normal incidences include California, Kansas, Utah, Florida, Arkansas, Arizona, Missouri, Wyoming and Oklahoma. New England and the mountain states reported few cases.

As a result of the high incidence in some areas, school openings have been delayed as much as a month. All children under 14 were banned from swimming pools and theaters in Kentucky, and those under 12 were placed under house quarantine in Milwaukee, Wis.

REDEEM BONDS

Holdings of war bonds are cashing them in at a steadily increasing rate, treasury officials reveal. This is particularly true of the smaller denominations, series E, F and G. The percentage of cumulative redemptions compared with cumulative sales of these three series since May 1, 1941, has risen steadily from 9.27 per cent last February to 11.88 per cent in June. Sales since May 1, 1941, amounted to 26 billion, 252 million dollars on July 1, 1942.

HIGHLIGHTS... in the week's news

RICH DIET FOR ARCTIC: A series of tests conducted at the U. of Illinois indicates that the best diet for high flying aviators and soldiers stationed in arctic regions is one rich in starch, sugar and fat. These three food essentials were found to minimize the drop in internal and surface body temperatures and to reduce the effect of cold on the contracting of the muscles.

ALUMINUM MATS: Landing mats made of aluminum are thoroughly satisfactory, the army air force reveals, after a number of tests. Previously steel had been used for this purpose, but when the mat sections have to be transported by air, aluminum, which weighs less than half as much as steel is preferred. The aluminum mats are made of aluminum strips.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"It sounds almost like a miracle, Judge... how did we ever do it?"

"American industry did it, Sally. When the Japs conquered the chief natural rubber producing centers of the world they thought they had dealt a death blow to our war effort. But, in less than two years, we are producing enough synthetic rubber in this country to supply all our military and essential civilian requirements.

"Our rubber experts knew how to make it but the most practical process at the time required huge amounts of industrial alcohol... far beyond the already overtaxed capacity of our industrial alcohol plants. So, overnight, our country's beverage distillers stopped making whiskey and produced hundreds of millions of gallons of the vitally needed alcohol.

"As a matter of fact, Sally, a high government official said recently... synthetic rubber is from 6 to 9 months ahead of where it could have been if alcohol had not been available for butadiene production."

"We were really fortunate, weren't we Judge, to have a beverage distilling industry in existence... able to help perform this great wartime miracle!"

Know How...
274 Years of It!

Two hundred and seventy-four years in the natural gas business!

Think of it—more than two and one-half centuries of knowledge and experience. That takes us back to more than sixty years before George Washington was born . . . to a century before our nation was established in the name of liberty and freedom.

This extensive span of years represents the combined years of service in the natural gas business of the eleven district managers of our companies.

That's a long, long time! It accounts for the "know how" so necessary in maintaining dependable natural gas service. And now this experience and knowledge, united with that of all our employees, are dedicated to the war effort . . . protecting and making secure the liberty and freedom that are our American heritage.

Helping to win the war is STILL our No. 1 Job!

With Ernie Pyle at the Front:

Hysterical Crowd Welcomes Return of Liberating Yanks

Parisians Well Fed and Clothed And City in Excellent Condition

By Ernie Pyle

PARIS.—I had thought that for me there could never again be any elation in war. But I had reckoned without the liberation of Paris—I had reckoned without remembering that I might be a part of this richly historic day.

We are in Paris—on the first day—of the great days of all time. This is being written, as other correspondents are writing their pieces, under an emotional tension, a pent-up semi-delirium.

Our approach to Paris was hectic. We had waited for three days in a near-by town while hourly our reports on what was going on in Paris changed and contradicted themselves. Of a morning it would look as though we were about to break through the German ring around Paris and come to the aid of the brave French Forces of the Interior who were holding parts of the city. By afternoon it would seem the enemy had reinforced until another Stalingrad was developing. We could not bear to think of the destruction of Paris, and yet at times it seemed desperately inevitable.

That was the situation this morning when we left Rambouillet and decided to feel our way timidly toward the very outskirts of Paris. And then, when we were within about eight miles, rumors began to circulate that the French Second armored division was in the city. We argued for half an hour at a crossroads with a French captain who was holding us up, and finally he freed us and waved us on.

For 15 minutes we drove through a flat gardenlike country under a magnificent bright sun and amidst greenery, with distant banks of smoke pillaring the horizon ahead and to our left. And then we came gradually into the suburbs, and soon into Paris itself and a pandemonium of surely the greatest mass joy that has ever happened.

The streets were lined as by Fourth of July parade crowds at home, only this crowd was almost hysterical. The streets of Paris are very wide, and they were packed on each side. The women were all brightly dressed in white or red blouses and colorful peasant skirts, with flowers in their hair and big flashy earrings. Everybody was throwing flowers, and even serpentine.

As our jeep eased through the crowds, thousands of people crowded up, leaving only a narrow corridor, and frantic men, women and children grabbed us and kissed us and shook our hands and beat on our shoulders and slapped our backs and shouted their joy as we passed.

I was in a jeep with Henry Gorrell of the United Press, Capt. Carl Fergler of Washington, D. C., and Corp. Alexander Belon, of Amherst, Mass. We all got kissed until we were literally red in the face, and I must say we enjoyed it.

Once when the jeep was simply swamped in human traffic and had to stop, we were swarmed over and hugged and kissed and torn at. Everybody, even beautiful girls, insisted on kissing you on both cheeks. Somehow I got started kissing babies that were held up by their parents, and for a while it looked like a baby-kissing politician going down the street. The fact that I hadn't shaved for days, and was gray-bearded as well as baldheaded, made no difference. Once when we came to a stop some Frenchman told us there were still snipers shooting, so we put our steel helmets back on.

The people certainly looked well fed and well dressed. The streets were lined with green trees and modern buildings. All the stores were closed in holiday. Bicycles were so thick I have an idea there were plenty of accidents that day, with tanks and jeeps overrunning the populace.

We entered Paris via Rue Aristide Briand and Rue d'Orleans. We were slightly apprehensive, but decided it was all right to keep going as long as there were crowds. But finally we were stymied by the people in the streets, and then above the din we heard some not-too-distant explosions—the Germans trying to destroy bridges across the Seine. And then the rattling of machine guns up the street, and that old battlefield whine of high-velocity shells just overhead. Some of us veterans ducked, but the Parisians just laughed and continued to carry on.

There came running over to our jeep a tall, thin, happy woman in a light brown dress, who spoke perfect American.

She was Mrs. Helen Cardon, who lived in Paris for 21 years and has not been home to America since 1935. Her husband is an officer in French army headquarters and home now after 2½ years as a German prisoner. He was with her, in civilian clothes.

Mrs. Cardon has a sister, Mrs. George Swikart, of New York city, and I can say here to her relatives in America that she is well and happy. Incidentally, her two children, Edgar and Peter, are the only two American children, she says, who have been in Paris throughout the entire war.

We entered Paris from due south and the Germans were still battling in the heart of the city along the Seine when we arrived, but they were doomed. There was a full French armored division in the city, plus American troops entering constantly.

The farthest we got in our first hour in Paris was near the senate building, where some Germans were holed up and firing desperately. So we took a hotel room near by and decided to write while the others fought. By the time you read this I'm sure Paris will once again be free for Frenchmen, and I'll be out all over town getting my bald head kissed. Of all the days of national joy I've ever witnessed this is the biggest.

The other correspondents have written so thoroughly and so well about the fantastic eruption of mass joy when Paris was liberated that I shall not dwell on it much longer. But there are some little things I have to get out of my system, so we'll have at least this one more column on it.

Actually the thing has floored most of us. I know that I have felt totally incapable of reporting it to you. It was so big I felt inadequate to touch it. I didn't know where to start or what to say. The words you put down about it sound feeble to the point of asininity.

I'm not alone in this feeling, for I've heard a dozen other correspondents say the same thing. A good many of us feel we have failed in properly presenting the loveliest, brightest story of our time. It could be that this is because we have been so unused, for so long, to anything bright.

At any rate let's go back to the demonstration. From 2 o'clock in the afternoon until darkness around 10, we few Americans in Paris on that first day were kissed and hauled and mauled by friendly mobs until we hardly knew where we were.

Everybody kissed you—little children, old women, grown-up men, beautiful girls. They jumped and squealed and pushed in a literal frenzy.

They pinned bright little flags and badges all over you. Amateur cameramen took pictures. They tossed flowers and friendly tomatoes into your jeep. One little girl even threw a bottle of cider into ours.

As you drove along, gigantic masses of waving and screaming humanity clapped their hands as though applauding a fine performance in a theater. We in the jeeps smiled back until we had set grins on our faces. We waved until our arms gave out, and then we just wagged our fingers. Those who were swamped instantly. Those who couldn't reach you threw kisses at you, and we threw kisses back.

They sang songs. They sang wonderful French songs we had never heard. And they sang "Tipperary" and "Madelon" and "Over There" and the "Marseillaise."

French policemen saluted formally but smilingly as we passed. The French tanks that went in ahead of us pulled over to the sidewalks and were immediately swarmed over.

Paris Girls Have Beauty and Imagination

Paris seems to have all the beautiful girls we have always heard it had. The women have an art of getting themselves up fascinatingly. Their hair is done crazily, their clothes are worn imaginatively. They dress in riotous colors in this lovely warm season, and when the flag-draped holiday streets are packed with people, the color makes them seem gray. As one soldier remarked, the biggest thrill in getting to Paris is to see people in bright summer clothes again.

Like any city, Paris has its quota of dirty and ugly people. But dirty and ugly people have emotions too, and Hank Gorrell got roundly kissed by one of the dirtiest and ugliest women I have ever seen.

Elephants Are Not Afraid Of Mice; Can't See Them

How would you like to be an elephant and carry those big heavy teeth called tusks around all day? You have heard a lot of things about an elephant that could scarcely be true. For instance, ever hear that elephants are afraid of mice? According to keepers of the zoo at Philadelphia, elephants pay no attention to mice. They probably don't even see them as their eyes are none too good.

But, you say, elephants pick up peanuts with their trunks. They do, but that's no sign they see them. You see, an elephant's trunk tells him what is going on better than eyes or ears.

Radio Intelligence

Since July 1, 1940, the radio intelligence division of the Federal Communications commission has discovered and shut down 375 illegal radio stations. Incidentally, the RID's listening post in Portland, Ore., was the first in the organization to pick up the secret Nazi station being operated in the German embassy in Washington, D. C.

FAULTLESS FUNNIES ... SATURDAY SHOPPING CHATTER

AROUND THE HOUSE

If apples or bananas which are to be used in fruit salads are covered with grapefruit juice and chilled, they will not darken and discolor the salad.

If the surface of a piece of your furniture becomes scratched, rub it with a piece of walnut kernel. The scratch will disappear as if by magic.

Dip the ends of rag rugs in starch after washing and they will lay flat on the floor instead of curling on the edges.

Don't do without a grater just because such articles are scarce in the stores—make one! Take the lid from a mayonnaise or peanut butter jar, and drive nail holes from the inside out. Put them fairly close together, and the rough surface on the outside does the grating.

Save the core wax paper comes on to wrap your dollies on to prevent wrinkling after laundering.

A rag moistened in milk helps to whiten the piano keys.

A few drops of vinegar or lemon juice added to the water used in poaching eggs will help hold them together.

Roosevelt Descendants

Including President Franklin D. Roosevelt, 20 direct descendants of Nicholas Roosevelt (1658-1742) have been listed in the 22 editions of Who's Who in America published since 1899; they constitute the largest number of entries to be descended from one man.

If anyone has a rusty clothes line which can not be replaced for the duration, it can be made nearly as good as new by painting with black automobile enamel.

House plants should have an occasional cool soap and water bath to remove the dust and dirt from the leaves. This may be done by laying the pot on its side, and carefully sponging each leaf with absorbent cotton dipped in cool suds. Then rinse in cold water to remove the soap, taking care that soapy water does not get in the soil.

A "costume box" is suggested where there are children to amuse. Into a certain box put discarded articles of clothing which have "costume" possibilities. Children love to "dress up," and if the box is reserved for certain occasions such as Halloween, vacations, etc., it is enjoyed more than if it is available all the time.

A long-handled dustpan saves homemakers lots of back-tiring stooping. If none is available in the stores, have your husband fashion one from an old mop handle, and your regular dustpan, suggests the Home Editor of Capper's Farmer, whose advice on household matters is read by 1,250,000 farm families. Cleaning bedsprings is a tedious job normally, she adds, but when you use a long-handled dish mop which has been treated with furniture oil, the dust disappears like magic. Moreover, you save time, disposition and many a headache.

Scotch Oat Bread
 Liven's Up a Meal

Breads can do much to "liven up" a meal—especially such ones as the pictured Scotch Oaten Bread, says the Country Cooking editor of Capper's Farmer, a publication of national circulation.

This crusty, tempting loaf is made from a famous recipe handed down by an early Scotch settler. For breakfast, toast it and serve with butter and jam; it's made to order for snacks; or serve for a supper dessert with creamy cottage cheese and a bowl of homemade jelly, advises the Capper's Farmer expert.

Scotch Oaten Bread.

- 2 cups flour 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup oatmeal 1 1/2 cups butter—oil
- 2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder 2 tablespoons shortening
- 1/2 teaspoon soda 1 cup raisins or cooked prunes
- 1 cup quick-cooking rolled oats

Sift flour, then measure. Sift with sugar, baking powder, soda and salt. Add rolled oats and mix thoroughly. Combine milk and melted shortening. Add diced fruit, stirring just enough to moisten dry ingredients. Turn into a well-greased loaf pan and bake in a moderate oven for 1 hour.
