The Crusade For Christ

The Crusade for Christ is four fold in its purpose, emphasis being placed first of all on the raising of $25,000,000 for world relief and reconstruction. Our quota of this sum is $765.00. This offering is not in the regular budget of the Methodist Church. This is over and above our regular contributions. In fact it is only a "Love Offering" to Christ for His goodness to us, for His sacrifice upon the Cross. This money is to be used immediately in all types of service, home and abroad. The need is urgent to begin reconstruction of the bombed and homeless families, orphaned children who have lost their parents by war, to re-open churches and colleges, and to feed and clothe those in need.

This money is definitely not to be used to rebuild churches and colleges, but is to bring to normal again the life of the individual in both the spiritual and physical aspects, so they can help themselves.

The Crusade for Christ is not just another thought up scheme where nothing is done about it, but it is a Crusade for Laymen of the church to have a part in, in the local church. Not only the giving of money, but the giving of self in loyalty to the church for which the Prince of Glory died. Every friend of the Methodist Church will want a part in this Crusade, from the youngest to the oldest. Now is the time to lay our offering on the altar of the Lord, then go on with the rest of Crusade, which is evangelism, stewardship and loyalty to the entire program of the local church. Bring your offering to the church or hand it to the pastor.

SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER The day is not far distant when packages of fruit, vegetables, other foods and perishable materials will be sealed with flexible materials in the form of lacquers, adhesives and plastics. Few sources of substitutes for natural rubber have been overlooked by U. S. scientists. In 1943 more than 2,000 varieties of plants were tested for their rubber possibilities. Rubber-tired vehicles have been mainly responsible for the development of America's 3,000,000 miles of roads and highways—the largest and finest highway system in the world.

ON THE FARM: Not All Profit Although U. S. net farm income for 1944 is officially estimated at about 12.4 billion dollars, figures nearly double that amount have appeared labeled as farm income. A farmer's real farm income is not the total value of his sales of crop and animal products plus the value of things used from the farm but only what is left after business expenses, economists point out.

Nazis Put Homeland to Torch As Russians Sweep into Reich; Yanks Gain in Drive on Manila

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

As huge Allied pincer squeezes Germany from three directions, map indicates disposition of Nazi troops, with majority concentrated in East.

EUROPE: Reach Reich Having severed the rich agricultural province of East Prussia from Germany, the Red tidal wave of upwards of 4,000,000 men rolled clear up to the eastern border of the Reich itself, with the Nazis desperately trying to check the drive. Biggest threat to the Reich lay in the Russian advance on Silesia, the "little Ruhr" of southeastern Germany, where Red columns closed in on the rich coal, zinc and iron resources and the industrial centers built around them. Once able to produce about 700,000,000 tons of coal annually during the height of her conquests, defeats in both the west and east, coupled with severe aerial bombardment, are said to have reduced Germany's output to around 200,000,000 tons.

From Silesia northward, the Germans fell behind the flat, forested banks of the Oder river in an effort to check the Russian tide, relying on defenses reportedly in the making as far back as two years ago, when the Nazis foresaw the probability of being forced to fight alone. Reaching the river, the Russians boldly exploited their initiative, throwing armor across its frozen expanse, and bitter fighting raged as the Germans attempted to contain their bridgeheads.

Fanatical Resistance Having given no quarter during their invasion of Russia, the Germans asked none as the Red tidal wave swept onto their own soil, with the army putting their own villages and factories to the torch to deny the Reds the use of any facilities. Meanwhile, thousands of German refugees streamed back toward the Reich from East Prussia and Warthegau province, which Hitler took from Poland after the latter's fall in 1939, further straining the already burdened transport system. As the German army fell back, women and children were hoisted onto tanks and other military vehicles and carted to the rear.

Rushing to the eastern sector, Home Front Commander Heinrich Himmler was given sweeping powers to complete the organization of the "people's army" (the volks-sturm) for military as well as labor service, evacuate civilians and industrial facilities, and confiscate or dispose of personal property.

Hold in West Despite the seriousness of the Russian attack, the Germans continued to resist Allied pressure in the west in strength as they once again found their backs to the important industrial Rhineland. As the enemy pulled back into the Siegfried Line, reconnaissance showed extensive Nazi troop movements inland, with conjecture that the high command was sending reinforcements to the east. But even as the shifts were being made, the Germans themselves expressed concern over a new Allied drive in the west, with claims that General Eisenhower was massing troops above Aachen.

Meanwhile the British maintained their pressure against German lines above Aachen, while the U. S. 1st and 3rd armies, having ironed out the Belgium bulge, proceeded to Channel Workers "Even as congress considered 'work or fight' legislation for 18,000,000 men, the 18 to 44 year age group, the War Manpower Commission tested a new voluntary plan for channeling employees from unessential to essential industries in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware. Under the WMC's new plan, the number of workers unessential plants can retain is reduced, with men released then offered suitable jobs in essential industry. If they refuse to accept, the United States Employment Service will not give them a referral card, necessary for obtaining work elsewhere.

CLOTHING: Shape Controls In an effort to increase the output of more essential apparel like work clothes, children's wear and underwear, the War Production Board revealed that it would grant priority assistance to manufacturers producing such goods from cotton, wool and rayon. At the same time, the Office of Price Administration announced plans for reducing present clothing prices from 6 to 7 per cent by fixing costs at the average level of the first half of 1943. In reporting its plans, OPA said that better than 100 per cent rise in the nation's clothing bill from 1935 to 1943 threatened the whole anti-inflation program. Although the effect of the WPB's program will eliminate luxury clothing, medium-priced apparel, along with essential grade, will continue to be made, it was said. Quality of cheaper garments will be controlled to provide maximum serviceability.

Dairy Outlook Because of the absence of seasonal adjustments in ceiling prices, prices received by dairy farmers for the next few months probably will decline less than usual. But dairy production payments will continue at record levels, at least during the first quarter of 1945 for which period payments have been announced. Milk production during the first part of 1945 is expected to continue at the record rate of 120 billion pounds in October and November.

It may be caused by disorders of kidney function. It is a warning sign of waste to accumulate. For truly many people feel weak and miserable when the kidneys fail to remove excess acids and other waste matter from the blood. It may suffer nagging backache, rheumatic pains, headaches, dizziness, getting up at night, leg pains, swelling, sometimes frequent and scanty urination with burning and itching in another sign that something is wrong with the kidneys or bladder. There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is what you need. Use Doan's Pills. It is better to rely on a medicine that has won nationwide approval than on something less favorably known. Woman Helps Dairy Farmers Solve Milk Production Program

Meet the "Milk Woman." That is the descriptive title given Mrs. Rosella Cook, field woman for the Kraft Cheese Company, by dairy farm families of East Texas. Throughout the country, Kraft maintains a staff of field men to help dairy farmers raise and maintain the quality of their milk. Mrs. Cook is the only woman with an active part in this program. With headquarters in Sulphur Springs, Tex., she calls on more than 800 families in her territory. Rose Cook, because she has lived on a Texas farm herself, has a first-hand knowledge of rural problems. If the man of the house is absent when Mrs. Cook calls—which he is about half of the time—she talks to his wife as an interested friend, and without interruption of whatever else the housewife may be doing, in fact, in the course of her day's work, Mrs. Cook has found herself milking, weaning, grinding coffee, helping in food canning, wiping dishes, or watching over two-year-old juniors, as well as demonstrating good dairying practices. The trunk of her car is filled with assorted equipment, inexpensive and much of it homemade. In the above photograph, she is demonstrating the construction of a simple barrel milk cooler. The cooler is specially designed for the farmer with a small herd, to help him cool the milk rapidly to 50 degrees F. A barrel is sawed in half, filled with cool water, and the can of milk wrapped in burlap and placed in the barrel. Evaporation brings the milk temperature down quickly. In addition, Rose Cook discusses such matters as proper milk strainers, most effective cleaning agents for dairy equipment, building up dairy herds, pasturage, and other points involved in milk production. She finds the majority of farm families eager to learn the most approved methods of dairying, willing to follow her suggestions. A graduate of Texas Technological College, majoring in vocational home economics, Mrs. Cook was a home demonstrator, agent for the Texas Extension Service for seven years before joining Kraft.

Apple-Ginger Shortcake Is Winter Treat

LIKE falling snow and sleigh riding, apples and warm gingerbread are two things that go with cold winter evenings. Marjorie Griffin, Home Editor of Capper's Farmer, points out. "Combining the two foods gives a color - contrasting, sugar saving Apple-Ginger Shortcake," she tells home-makers in the Country Cooking department of the magazine read by 1,250,000 farm families.

Apple-Ginger Shortcake
 1/2 c. shortening 1 tsp. baking powder
 1/2 c. sugar 1 tsp. soda
 2 eggs, beaten 2 tsp. ginger
 1/2 c. light molasses 2 tsp. cinnamon
 1/2 c. cake flour 1/2 c. boiling water
 1/2 tsp. salt Apple

Cream the shortening and sugar thoroughly. Add eggs and beat well. Add molasses, then the sifted dry ingredients. Pour in water and beat until smooth. Bake in 2 greased 9-inch round pans at 350° F. for 30 minutes. Peel, core and cut apples in eighths. Drop them in syrup made with equal parts of sugar and water. Cook gently until each piece is transparent. Remove and drain on a plate. Put apple slices between layers and on top.

Another appetite-tempting winter eve dessert that's easy on the sugar rations is Cracker Pudding.

Cracker Pudding
 1 qt. milk 6 tbsp. graham cracker crumbs
 4 eggs, beaten Dash of salt

Scald the milk and add finely rolled cracker crumbs. Let cool and add eggs and salt. Pour into custard cups or baking dish. Set in pan of hot water and bake in a moderate oven (325°) for 30 minutes. Serve with Lemon Cream Sauce.

Lemon Cream Sauce
 2 eggs 1/2 c. lemon juice
 1/2 c. sugar 1 c. water
 1 tbsp. cornstarch 1/2 c. cream
 Dash of salt 1/2 tsp. nutmeg

Beat egg yolks. Add to these the sifted sugar, cornstarch and salt. Stir in lemon juice and water and cook over hot water until thickened. Chill, add cream and stiffly beaten egg whites. Sprinkle with grated rind and nutmeg. Serves 6.

MOOS OF THE MOMENT

BY UNCLE BOB

of the Kraft Dairy Farm Service

Lack of the right kind of food can put a man or an animal in an awful run down condition and I've seen some sadly run-down pastures which needed a well-balanced diet, too.

Grass responds to proper feeding better than most anything I know. Many demonstrations proving this have been set up in nearly every state. One of these took place in Wisconsin last year, sponsored by the College of Agriculture soils department.

It showed that as a result of spending $36.00 on ammonium nitrate a dairyman got back $272.94 in increased milk volume.

Liming frequently is the treatment most needed for pastures. A soil test is the first step to take in deciding how much lime and whether nitrogen, phosphate or potash are needed.

In addition to learning what is needed, you may save money by finding out one or another of those plant foods is not needed. Check with your county agent for this soil test.

USDA Farmers' Bulletin No. 1942 will give you some good suggestions on this subject and so will Circular 285 and Circular 289, both from the Extension Service, University of Missouri College of Agriculture, Columbia, Mo.

I bring up this subject now in the hope that you'll make your soil test and get your fertilizer ordered immediately so as to be sure and have it at hand when needed.

Some time ago, I called your attention to an article on proper milking methods, printed in the Kraftsman. Reprints of this article are available and I'll be glad to send a copy. Write me at 500 Peshigo Court, Chicago 90, Ill., and ask for "How to Milk a Cow—and Why."

I could lead up to my next subject by making some remark about this being an udder troublesome matter for dairy farmers, but I'll restrain myself.

The subject is mastitis and it's a big problem. One state estimates its dairymen lose ten million dollars a year because of mastitis.

Your cows should be tested regularly by a qualified veterinarian, to determine whether any animals are infected.

Mastitis can be detected in its early stages. It can be controlled. Neglect will cause more serious infection and may eventually mean complete loss of production.

The secret of controlling mastitis is correct milking procedures: (1) cleaning udders with a chlorine solution before milking, (2) milking clean cows first, mildly infected cows next and badly infected cows last, (3) in hand milking wash hands in sudsy water before each cow is milked, (4) don't let teat cups crawl, (5) sterilize teat cups before each cow is milked.

Circular 365, Extension Service, University of Missouri, Columbia, Mo., and USDA Farmers' Bulletin 1422 will be most helpful to you on this subject.

Maybe you've heard the one about the youngster who was a lot of trouble to his teachers. His mother explained that before the boy was born, she was deeply affected by reading Charles Dickens' "David Copperfield" and added, "Junior has been a little Dickens ever since."

I imagine it would be difficult to prove that point but here's a fact along the same line which has been proved—the care a cow gets at freshening time very largely will determine how productive she will be during her milking period.

Many cows will be freshening in coming weeks and I suggest you get a copy of a special circular "Care at Calving Time is Important" from the Extension Service, University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisc., for recommendations on handling.

It lays down some simple but effective rules which will do much to insure top condition of the cow. It suggests reducing grain feeding two weeks before calving; providing a suitable calving stall; giving the cow warm water and a warm bran mash immediately after the calf is born; bringing cows up to full feed gradually after calving.

*NOTE: There usually is a 5c charge for pamphlets mailed to non-residents of a state; but possibly your own state has a free pamphlet on the same subject. Ask your county agent.

Our thanks to a Country Editor

YOU get a pretty good view of the world from a small-town newspaper office. Sometimes you see things that other folks overlook. For instance, this frank statement by the editor of The Dierks (Arkansas) Banner:

The Banner is one of the last papers in the country to raise its subscription price, many over the U. S. having done so a year or more ago. The cost of practically everything that goes into the production of a newspaper has advanced, except electricity used in running the machinery and lighting the plant. In normal times there was little if any profit in subscriptions at $1.00 a year. If the information contained in even a newspaper publication

We're grateful to the editor for pointing out a fact more and more people are realizing—that at a time when most things are scarce and expensive, electricity is still plentiful and cheap.

That just goes to show what companies like ours can do for you by hard work and experience and sound business management.

Ernie Pyle's Slant on the War:
Navy Lands Troops on Sicily According to Plans
 Some Anxious Moments Were Experienced by Convoy Crew

By Ernie Pyle
 (Editor's Note: This dispatch was written and first published when Pyle was with the G.I.s landing on Sicily. He is now on his way to cover the boys in the Pacific war zones.)
 WITH THE U. S. NAVY ON WAY TO SICILY.—As long as this ship of ours sails the high seas, even after every member of the present crew has been transferred away, I'm sure the story of the searchlights will linger on in the wardroom and forecabin like a written legend.

It is the story of a few minutes when the fate of this ship hung upon the whim of the enemy. For some reason which we probably will never know the command to obliterate us was never given. Our great, bad moment occurred just as we had ended our long invasion voyage from North Africa and stopped at our designated place off the south coast of Sicily. Our ship was about three and a half miles from shore, which in the world of big guns is practically hanging in the cannon muzzle. Two or three smaller ships were in closer than we but the bulk of our invasion fleet stood far out to sea behind us. Our Admiral had the reputation of always getting up close where he could have a hand in the shooting, and he certainly ran true to form throughout this invasion.

We'd been stopped only a minute when big searchlights blinked on from the shore and began to search the waters. Apparently the watchers ashore had heard some sounds at sea. The lights swept back and forth across the dark water and after a few exploratory sweeps one of them centered dead upon us and stopped. Then as we held our breaths the searchlights, one by one, came down with their beams upon our ship. They had found their mark.

Caught By Lights.
 All five of them stretching out over a shore line of several miles pinioned us in their white shafts as we sat there as naked as babies and just as scared. I would have been glad to bawl like one if it would have helped for this searchlight business meant the enemy had us on the block. We not only were discovered, we were caught in a funnel from which there was no escaping.

We couldn't possibly move fast enough to run out of their beams. We were within simple and easy gunning distance. We were a sitting duck. We were stuck on the end of five merciless poles of light. We were utterly helpless.
 "When that fifth searchlight stopped on us all my children became orphans," one of the officers said later.

Another one said, "The straw that broke my back was when the anchor went down."
 A third one said, "The fellow standing next to me was breathing so hard I couldn't hear the anchor go down. Then I realized there wasn't anybody standing next to me."
 We got all set to shoot at the lights but then we waited. Our Admiral decided there was some possibility they couldn't see us through the slight haze, although he was at a loss to explain why all five lights stopped on us if they couldn't see us.

We had three alternatives—to start shooting and thus compel return fire; to up anchor and run for it; or to sit quiet like a mouse and wait in terror. We did the latter.

I don't know how long the five lights were on us. It seemed like hours. It may have been five minutes. At any rate at the end of some unbelievably long time one of them suddenly blinked out. Then one by one, seemingly erratically and with no purpose in mind, the others went out, too. The last one held us a long time as though playing with us. Then it too went out and we were once again alone in the blessed darkness. Not a shot had been fired.

Assault Boats Land.
 Assault boats had been speeding past us all the time and a few minutes later they hit the beach. The searchlights flashed on again but from then on they were busy fanning the beach itself. It didn't take our attacking troops long to shoot the lights out from close range.

Navy's Landing Job at Sicily Finished

By the end of the first week after the Sicilian invasion there was almost no indication of warfare along our beach front. The German radio told us every night that we were getting bombed, but actually a stupefying peace had settled over us.
 Hour by hour we could feel the ship slide back into her normal ways. The watches were dropped down to "Condition Three," which is almost the peacetime regime. The wearing of white hats became optional once more. The men went swimming over the side, and fished with rod and reel from the fore-cabin head. The captain had time on his hands and played gin rummy with me when I got worn out with writing. Finally liberty parties were let ashore for sightseeing.

Ration Free Shoe Sale Coming Up

Limited quantities of men's and women's shoes may be sold to consumers ration-free at specified price reductions during the two weeks period of February 19 through March 3, OPA announces. Two-fold purpose of the temporary ration holiday, OPA states, is to give consumers the benefit of extra shoe mileage that otherwise might remain unused on dealers' shelves, and to help dealers clear their stocks of the normal accumulation of odds and ends and broken sizes. Before rationing, such shoes were customarily disposed of in seasonal clearance sales. OPA estimates that about 4,500, 000 pairs of shoes will be sold in this special ration-free "sale."
