Baseball

The Hedley Baseball team defeated the Amarillo Furniture Co. team here last Sunday by the score of 9 to 2. Amarillo led off with one score on two errors in the first inning but Hedley made five runs in the second inning and kept well ahead the rest of the game. Jonny Everett and Sam Owen, Jr. did the pitching for Hedley and did some of their best pitching of the year. Sterling, a left hander, pitched all the game for Amarillo.

Next Sunday at 3 p. m. Hedley plays Memphis here. July 4th Memphis gave Hedley a good cleaning at Memphis and the Hedley boys are out for revenge. Come out and you will see a good game.

There will be a baseball game at the ball ground Friday afternoon at 6 p. m. between the boys living on the east side of main street and the ones living on the west side. Any boy 15 years old or younger is entitled to play. Ed Wynne will be manager of the East side and Clifford Johnson the West side. Come out and see a real ball game.

Revival Meeting

The annual Summer Revival will begin at the Hedley Methodist Church July 27 and run through August 5th with preaching twice daily, at 10:00 a. m. and 9:00 p. m. The Pastor-Evangelist to be with us is Hugh H. Hunt of Wheeler. He is outstanding as a preacher and pastor as well as an evangelist. He is sincere in his messages, yet he speaks in a language that all can understand, from the least to the greatest. He is a friend of young people and children as well as adults.

We invite everyone of all faiths, creeds, doctrines, and religions to hear Reverend Hunt. This is to be a revival for every one, therefore, make arrangements to attend every service possible, whether you are in business, working for the other fellow, or operating your own farm. We shall be looking for you at every service.

C. E. Johnson at the Hedley Telephone Co. will write your fire and nail insurance.

Behind Your Bonds
Lies the Might of America

CHEESE
American cheese will add to the Nation's post-war prosperity that War Bond buyers will share. Expansion of the business is predicted. Almost half the Nation's cheese is Wisconsin-made. In 1942 the state turned out 513,399,000 pounds, most of it American cheese. Swiss, Munster and Italian cheese are made in impressive quantities. This department of the dairy business helps build our national income and helps to make War Bonds the best investment in the world.

OLD SETTLERS' PICNIC

The Donley County old settlers will meet for their annual picnic Friday, August 17, at Tate Grove, as usual. The various committees, program arrangements, etc., will be announced in next week's paper.

Start planning now to attend the picnic, Donley County's biggest event of the year. If you expect to eat, don't forget to bring a well filled basket. Rationing means that all must take part in bringing the food instead of letting a few families feed the entire crowd.

W. I. (Uncle Bill) Rains is president of the association, W. P. Doherty, vice president, Mrs. Joe Crawford, secretary and Winfield Mosley, assistant secretary.

Ennis Favors For Amendments

State Representative Ennis Favors of Pampa declared today that all four Constitutional Amendments submitted to the people in a State wide election on August 25th this year should pass and that he knew of no serious opposition to any of them, but admitted there was very little interest in the election. He said the first amendment on the ballot permitted members of the armed forces, or ex-members honorably discharged 18 months or less, to vote in all elections for the duration of the war and 18 months thereafter without the payment of any poll tax; the second provided for a continuous salary of all members of the Legislature during their term of office; the third provided for a Nine Judge Supreme Court of Texas; and the fourth increased pensions for the needy old people from $30.00 to $40.00 per month, including both State and Federal funds. Surely he said, only a few people at the outside would object to allowing members, or ex-members of the armed forces vote under the conditions of the First Amendment and that because the Governor vetoed the Statutory Bill, it did not mean that he had any objection to the Constitutional Amendment. As to continuous pay for members of the Legislature, he said that everybody agreed that approximately $600.00 per year was not enough pay for a member of the Legislature, and that 3,600.00 per year would attract bigger and better men to offer for the office and result in fewer and more sensible laws. He insisted that we now have a Nine Judge Supreme Court and that only three wrote the opinions, and said this Amendment would permit all nine Judges to participate in opinions. Favors said naturally it would take more money to pay $40.00 pensions to the needy old people but that no additional State taxes would be required and that he presumed if this Amendment should pass, the next Legislature would transfer more money from the Clearance Fund to the Old Age Assistance Fund, and that if the Amendment failed, the next Legislature would not be so liberal with the old people and probably would reduce appropriations for pensions.

Neal and Barbara Flathers of Perryton underwent tonsil operations here first of the week.

News From Our Men In Service

The following poem was written by Bill Witt, son of J. W. Witt of Bowie and nephew of Mrs. J. F. Reed of Hedley.

There will be a special celebration The day I hit the States. I pray my port will be Los Angeles Or even Frisco's Golden Gates. But then I'd miss that dear, dear lady, The last bit of home I could see, As I sailed from the New York harbor Past the Statue of Liberty.

I was alone for a while with my thoughts, But soon I was with the crowd. I found a thousand soldier boys In the same dismal cloud.

As we sailed the great Atlantic, Our thoughts wandered back To a fine brick house on the avenue Or some shabby little shack.

The house made no real difference To the pounding of our hearts. It's the dear ones we left behind us As we go to do our parts.

This celebration won't be with liquor, Or the things that make up a spree, But with love and devotion to family,

And a prayer dear Lord to Thee. God grant us to return home, And forget war's horrible sights, To kiss away the tears of mothers, And soothe the hearts of wives.

Let me take my dear sweet children And hold them on my knee, To love and cherish and teach them

The truths You've taught to me. Let us work and play together, Ever praising Thee on high. Let us live and work Thy harvest, And know that Thou art nigh.

Then we'll all praise Thee together, Wilma, Barbara, Don and me, For our lives full of love and service, For our God and our country— Amen.

Scalloped Cupboard On Table or Chest

IF YOU have a wall space crying to be filled with an important piece of furniture, here is the answer. A breakfront cupboard effect to hold bright bits of pottery and china and perhaps a few books.

Cost a fortune? Not at all. You can have it and save money for a bond too.

You will need a base which may be a table that you have on hand or a chest of drawers made by taking the mirror off of an old dresser, also some short lengths of lumber and plywood. A simple box cupboard is made to place on this base. The next step is to mark the design for the scalloped front on the plywood and cut it out with a compass saw or take it to a woodworker to be cut with a power saw.

NOTE—Pattern 264 gives large cutting diagrams and illustrated directions for making the box cupboard; also an actual-size pattern for the scalloped front. A list of materials is included. To get Pattern 264, send 15 cents with name and address direct to:

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Big Three Study Peace Terms; Homecomings Beat Schedule; Allies Get Set on Rule of Berlin

Released by Western Newspaper Union. (EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

After a lull of five months, more than 1,000 carrier planes from the Pacific fleet returned to direct attacks upon Tokyo. This map graphically illustrates what they had already been given. The data is based on toll taken by B-29s. Percentages show industries destroyed.

TRUMAN: And Big Three Through chilled North Atlantic waters, President Truman arrived in Potsdam to keep his rendezvous with Prime Minister Churchill and Marshal Stalin.

It is believed that they will be concerned with problems dealing with control of Germany, planned on long-range basis; disposition of territories—Italian and some 30 disputed boundaries to be settled; political and economic questions, including Italy peace terms, what to do with Spain and other "neutrals," which might include Japan.

Diplomats say that the Big Three, while discussing the San Francisco conference, their present work will not be in direct with the West Coast conference and United Nations Charter.

Berlin Rule The rule in Berlin has been split, and for the first time the American and British military governments have moved in and taken up their responsibilities in the German capital.

Rules and regulations established in American and British zones of Berlin, established by the Red army, will remain in effect until General Day and General Lyne and their staffs can formulate permanent methods of operation. Russian policy has been declared to be more realistic than those adopted by other Allies in other sections, and high sources seem to think there will be little change made in Berlin.

Each Allied military government will provide food, coal and other necessities from their part of occupied Germany to take care of German civilians within Berlin. There will be exchanges of different kinds of goods among the British, American, French and Russian authorities, due to scarcities of some items in different sections.

BIGGEST HOMECOMING: Ahead of Schedule

When eight transports docked in New York one day in mid-month, they brought back 35,000 happy veterans of the European war—the largest number returned in a single day since V-E Day. Twenty-eight thousand soldiers were Americans, 7,000 Canadians, five infantry regiments, a hospital unit, various groups of the 8th air force, and numerous smaller units were among the arrivals. The number of troops now back in the states is approaching the half-million mark.

The giant Queen Mary carried more than 15,000 men, including 6,000 of the Canadian contingent. The Westport, which is the navy's largest transport, had 7,600 soldiers aboard, and the John Ericsson about the same number. Three thousand men came home on the James Parker, and four smaller transports returned a total of 1,500.

Aboard the Westport were 33 men who were not happy about the trip. They were Japanese diplomats taken into custody in Europe. An unlisted passenger was Natsie Piavala, nine-year-old Italian orphan, who was smuggled aboard the General Bliss by soldiers of the 3rd division. He was liberated from a German prison camp by American troops. He will be placed in a private home pending decision of immigration authorities.

'DIES' COMMITTEE: New Chairman

Representative Wood (Dem., Ga.) has been elected by the house to the chairmanship of the committee on un-American activities, succeeding Representative Hart (Dem., N. J.), who resigned due to ill health.

Representative Rankin, who has been acting chairman of the group since Hart resigned, called Representative Wood, outstanding and one of the finest Americans in the house.

PLENTY POINTS: But Still In

Eighty-five points doesn't necessarily mean immediate release from the army, as all soldiers know. The trouble is, their families don't realize the catch. Thousands of men who have served long and valiantly are classed as "essential" and are being held indefinitely. In many cases they are having a hard time explaining to their wives just why they aren't coming home soon.

One captain stationed in Germany with an occupation unit has 127 points. His wife is so sure that he could return to the states if he wanted to that she is threatening divorce. She thinks that he wants to stay because he has fallen for some German woman. Chaplains report that dozens of such cases reach them every week. Morale is suffering seriously.

CHARTER: Moves Along

The United Nations charter, meeting with almost no opposition before the senate foreign relations committee, went to the senate for what is said to be certain acceptance without modifications. The committee ended its sessions by a parade of supporters of the charter, after listening to a few individual outspoken opponents.

Final witnesses before the committee included Philip Murray, president of the CIO and William G. Carr, president of the National Education association as well as Norman Thomas, Socialist party leader.

The speed with which the charter has been handled indicates that the United States will become the first nation to officially approve the charter or to pass on it in any form.

NEW WAC CHIEF: Hobby Resigns

Col. Westray Battle Boyce has been named director of the women's army corps, following resignation of Col. Oveta Culp Hobby, who was the first head and organizer of the service.

Colonel Boyce was employed for eight years in federal agencies in Washington before she joined the WACs. She served as a company officer and in public relations work. In North Africa she was WAC staff director. During the last few months she has been chief assistant to Colonel Hobby.

Colonel Hobby, wife of former Governor Hobby of Texas, and mother of two children, says she wants to return to civilian life to make a home for her family.

CHINESE GAINS: On Mainland

Doggedly battling Chinese troops have recaptured two former U. S. air bases in Kiangsi province, it was announced by the Chinese high command. The important Jap base at Kanchow is being encircled, it was said, with fighting going on 12 miles outside the town. This communication center is about 250 miles north of Hong Kong. If another sector, the Chinese are approaching Wuchow, Japanese supply base 130 miles west of Canton on Sikiang river. Capture of this city is a major objective.

New advances are being made in Hunan province, where the Japs are pulling back toward Paoking. They are now only four miles outside the town, which guards the approaches to the Jap-held rail junction of Hengyang.

AUTOS: Ration Free?

More autos will be available to the public by March 31 than originally planned—at least enough to bring announcement from Henry P. Nelson of the War Production board that they would be ration-free.

They will still be hard to get however due to a serious shortage of tin. The present quotas called for some 690,000 new cars by next March 31, which is not much more than 10 per cent of the market demands. Thus while cars may be placed on ration-free lists, little hope is held out that many will be able to secure the family car they have been saving for.

BEEF: Grass Fed

Cattle fattened on grass in Oklahoma and Kansas are beginning to enter the markets in sizable numbers. About 300,000 head have been put to graze on the blue stem grass lands. It is expected that the steers will gain from 200 to 350 pounds on the green feed.

Ordinarily beef from the grass country rates as B grade or worse. Animals that would come up to A grade if finished on corn are being grass fed because of the scarcity of grain. Commission men think the grassy beef will sell for 13 to 14 cents a pound.

MALARIA CONTROL: Manila

Daily "delousing" of Manila by low-flying aircraft with DDT, the wonder insecticide, has resulted in a sharp decline in the fly, mosquito and other pests among its unwashed population, with a material lowering of the number of malaria cases reported.

The planes, mostly transports, fly at rooftop level, spraying the city with a fine mist composed of DDT. The same method has been used effectively on the New York City beaches. The supply is still limited.

Hindus Are Trickily in Reconditioning Elephants

Hindus have a trunkful of tricks to recondition secondhand elephants that are for sale. Body scars made by a poorly fitted kowdah (elephant saddle) are covered with dyes; fancy chalk designs hide injuries on his head and face; foot cracks are filled with putty and even missing toes are glued on.

In fact this last is the most important part of the reconditioning. If an elephant does not have the proper number of toes his market value is seriously affected.

JAMS CAN BE EASY ON SUGAR!

Beautiful but dumb—that's strawberries! Take away their glorious coloring and what have you? Nothing much but dull, uninteresting lumps, incapable of self support!

Strawberries demand sugar just as if it were not rationed and insist upon most of it being granulated. When going into jams or preserves, they will tolerate the substitution of corn sirup or corn sugar for about one-third of the regular sugar called for in the recipe.

These pampered pets of the garden can't stand up and jell without the aid of sugar and pectin. Some of them need lemon juice too. They will not behave right when canned, unless granted more sugar than any other berry wants; then after they get it, they fade, flatten, and flat.

According to Gladys Kimbrough, Home Service Director for Ball Brothers Company, glass jar company with headquarters at Muncie, Indiana, "Tart strawberries with small core and deep red color throughout are less popular with the general public than the sweet, feather-weight ones, but are far better for canning and preserving."

Miss Kimbrough advises home canners to forget about preserves for the duration or until sugar is more plentiful and make up a considerable amount of jam. Jams are easy on sugar. A good one can be made by using one-half pound sugar and one-third pound of corn sirup to each pound of capped berries. Jams need to be cooked a little longer when corn sirup is used. They should be cooked in small batches and stirred often.

Berries Without Sugar
When one runs out of sugar, berries (any kind) may be cleaned, crushed and stewed in their own juice until thick, then canned by processing 10 minutes in a hot-water bath canner. Strawberries, prepared in this manner have an ugly color but will brighten up to some extent later on when sugar is added and the mixture boiled down to Victory jam thickness—meaning not quite so thick as usual. Two cups of sugar are needed for making one quart of crushed berries into jam. Here is a helpful hint. A spoon or two of juice from those beets you canned won't change the flavor but will help the color of jam made from canned blackberries.

Blueberries, huckleberries, blackberries, dewberries, elderberries and many others are far more useful than strawberries and can be beautifully without one speck of sugar. Most of them can best when heated slowly until the juice runs free before they are turned into jars for processing, but blueberries, especially if they are to be used in muffins and the like, are nicer when canned by a recipe we found in the Ball Blue Book.

Place two or three quarts clear blueberries in a square of cheesecloth. Ho'd the cloth by the corners and dip into boiling water until spots appear. Then dip quickly in and out of cold water. Pack into hot jars. (Add neither sugar nor liquid.) Process 20 minutes in hot-water bath.

Wild blackberries have always been a favorite with home canners but the equally useful elderberry is likely to be left to the birds. That wien elderberry pie is so wonderful! Good cooks usually touch it up with a spoonful of lemon juice or vinegar.

We like elderberries and most others best when canned with some sugar, but sugar shortages certainly won't stou us if we can beat the birds to the berries.

Behind Your Bonds Lies the Might of America

LEAD AND SILVER

Discovery of gold attracted the Nation's attention to Idaho in 1860 but the surrounding "worthless rock" that gold hunters spurned 25 years later became the foundation of an enterprise that brought the state into first place in the production of lead and silver. Elimination of waste, big-scale operations and new scientific processes of milling, smelting and refining have enabled the industry to provide livelihood for 50,000 people. It has added to the Nation's wealth that will be enjoyed by holders of War Bonds.

HOME CANNERS ASKED TO "CARRY ON" BY F. D. R.

The food outlook is so dark throughout the world that, in January, our habitually optimistic President asked Victory Gardeners and Home Canners to "carry on until the war is won." Since then we have been told over and over that the only sure way to have enough vegetables for our own use is to grow and can them.

"But please," advises Gladys Kimbrough, Home Service Director for Ball Brothers Company, makers of glass fruit jars, "before you put your shoulder to the home canning wheel, take time to learn how jars and caps should be used. It is also smart to plan ahead, to buy ahead, so that canning time will not find you scurrying around trying to find equipment needed for the job. You may not find your favorite jar and cap unless you shop early in the season or it may be that merchants don't keep them because other styles sell better. If your home is on the West Coast, you may not see any all-glass lightning type jars because most of your neighbors prefer a Mason jar with two-piece metal cap. The opposite is true of New England; the lightning type is a best seller there. The majority of home canners in Southern, Central and Northern states have always demanded Masons with one-piece zinc caps.

Zinc Caps Supply Uncertain
"No zinc caps could be made at the beginning of the war. Now the backlog of zinc has grown large enough to permit the manufacture of a large quantity of caps. Will there be enough to supply the demand? That's a Seventy-Four Dollar question—nobody knows what the demand will be. But, we do know labor is scarce and shipping facilities are not what we would like them to be.

"A great many jars will have Glass Top Seal (glass lid, rubber ring, metal screw band) caps. There will also be Mason jars with two-piece metal vacu-seal caps—these are the ones with sealing compound flowed around the edge of the lid to take the place of a regular jar rubber. The nicest of the two-piece metal caps have dome shaped lids which pull down when a good vacuum seal takes place.

"Half pints are being made and so are wide mouth jars but neither is as plentiful as before the war.

"No matter what size home canning jar and style cap you decide to use, no matter whether it is your first or fiftieth year of canning, it will pay to choose a nationally known brand and to use it by the step-by-step instructions printed on the circular packed with the jars and on the cap carton. It cost the manufacturer money to supply those up-to-date instructions and it is likely to cost home canners time, money, and precious food if instructions are not followed."

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its busy and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strains on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

UTAH'S METALS
 In reckoning the Nation's wealth from which War Bond holders will be beneficiaries in years to come, most people fail to recognize the importance of Utah as a mineral producer. They will be surprised to learn that the value of Utah's total ore in 1943 exceeded that of all other states. It gave the world gold, silver, copper, lead and zinc worth $124,366,439. It topped all states for gold output with $13,301,705 and stood second for copper, $33,993,000; lead $3,005,000 and silver $6,619,392. Its ore deposits have scarcely been touched.

Can Corn Fresh and a Little At a Time for Good Results

Corn is a stumbling block for many an otherwise successful home canner. For some it spoils; for others it turns brown and has poor flavor.

Gladys Kimbrough, Home Service Director for Ball Brothers Company, glass jar company with headquarters at Muncie, Indiana, considers it far from easy to persuade the general public to adopt practices and procedures which give satisfactory results.

If you have never canned corn but want to this season because of rationing, or if you have tried and failed, you may profit by following Miss Kimbrough's advice. In an informal discussion of the subject she said, "Sweet corn, particularly the deep yellow, is rich in flavor and food value, but field corn cans as well, keeps as well as the garden varieties and is the preference of many persons who could, if they chose, grow a patch of sweet corn for table use. So, take your choice but don't pay your money unless you know the corn is fresh from the stalk and that it is at the most perfect stage for table use. At this stage the kernels are plump, shiny, and all but bursting with milk-like juice.

Can Corn Early
 As corn matures, the milk gives way to a substance called dough. Then people say the corn is too hard and they say right because it is hard to keep it by canning once it has passed from the full milk to the dough stage. Bacteria, particularly those which cause flat sour, like warm corn. This is one big reason why it doesn't pay to gather, prepare and can corn by the "wagon load." Flavor is another good reason for the can-little-at-a-time rule. Corn loses its sweetness more rapidly than any other vegetable with the possible exception of green peas. This fact, plus bacteria's special liking for corn which has stood several hours, explains the wisdom of the old slogan, "two hours from garden to canner."

Jars, caps, lids, rubbers, canner and all other utensils needed should be ready for use when the corn is brought in for canning. It is a waste of time, energy, and food to put anything in a jar which can't be sealed airtight. The smallest nick or crack can cause trouble, so smart home canners take time to examine the sealing surface of every jar and lid. Jars, caps, glass lids and rubber caps, lids and rubber washers should be washed in warm soapy water, rinsed, covered with warm water and then boiled. One can't be too clean about canning. Used jars, caps, and lids should be boiled 20 to 30 minutes. New ones need only be brought to boiling and kept hot.

Any jar, cap, lid and rubber worth using is worth using by the manufacturer's instructions. Such instructions are given on a circular packed with the jars and printed on the cap cartons. Two sharp knives are needed—one small, one large. And you will want a cutting board. A well scrubbed plank will do if you have nothing better. When everything is ready lay an ear of corn on the board, then use the strong knife to cut through husks, corn and cob at each end of the ear. Next, stand the ear upright and use both hands to peel off the husks. If eased along with the thumbs, most of the silks will come off with the wrappings. This method may sound troublesome, but after you get the hang of it you will find the work goes faster and with much less muss than when the husking is done in the usual way. Discard any ear of corn which seems a bit hard. Rinse and drain the corn after it has been freed of silks, then cut—don't saw—the kernels from the cob, taking care not to cut the cob. This is where you need that small sharp knife.

The danger of spoilage is far less when whole kernels are used. Cream style is made by slicing the tips of the kernels and then scraping out the pulp. It is folly to can cream style unless one has a steam pressure cooker with an accurate gauge. Pint size jars are best for any kind of corn and practically a must for cream style, because heat passes through corn slowly. It doesn't do to keep corn waiting its turn in the canner. If you happen to have some left over because of faulty judgment in estimating the amount needed to fill the jars, put it in the refrigerator to keep cool until the next batch can go into the canner.

Adding Water Essential
 Be sure to add one and one-quarter cup boiling water to each four cups of whole kernel corn and two cups of boiling water to each four of cream style. The water is needed to help the heat get through the corn in a hurry and to prevent the corn turning brown. That brown color and overcooked flavor you dislike is caused by caramelization of the corn sugar. This doesn't happen when the corn is young and juicy, enough water is used, and the processing done at the right temperature.

Most persons like about one-half teaspoon of salt to each pint of corn. A little sugar won't hurt anything, nor will it hurt if you forget the salt. The amount used is too small to help prevent spoilage. Some persons manage to can corn by processing it three and a half to four hours in a hot-water bath canner but it is far better to use a steam pressure cooker provided it is in the right working order and worked right. That last "right" means Follow the Manufacturer's Instructions!

Handy Chart for Fruit Canning
 (See Recipes Below)

Fruitful Canning

Of all the canning you can do this season, it is the canning of fruits which will pay the biggest dividends. Not only are fruits a good source of vitamins and minerals, but they will enable you to save hundreds of points this year as they did last year.

Since rationing began, fruits have always carried a high ration value, and yet, they are essential and convenient to serve for breakfast, luncheon and dinner. Fruits may be canned with or without sugar, but the fruit will mellow and ripen in the jars much more satisfactorily if a sugar syrup is used. With syrups plentiful, part, usually half, of it is sweetened with a light or dark corn syrup. Honey may be substituted for one-half the sugar, also. It will darken the fruit and give it a somewhat stronger flavor, but it is good.

Only fruits that are good in flavor, uniformly ripened and firm in texture should find their way to the jar. Just as it is true of any other canning and preserving, you get only what you put into the can. Canning is designed for preserving the fruit, not for improving poor quality produce.

When large fruits such as peaches, pears or apples are canned, they require peeling and should be placed in brine (2 teaspoons salt to 1 quart of water) to prevent them from turning dark while peeling.

The open kettle method for canning fruit has been a favorite among homemakers for many generations because it gives such attractive results. However, the hot water bath has found many users because the danger of spoilage is reduced to a minimum and the appearance of the fruit still retains its shape, flavor and texture. On the table, time is also given for processing in the pressure cooker if one is available, but it is not essential for fruit canning as it is for vegetable preserving.

Syrup Making Guide.
 Thin syrups for fruit canning will be most popular this year, because

LYNN SAYS

Fruit Canning Tips: Fruit sometimes discolors at the top of the jar if the fruit is under-ripe or when accurate processing time or temperature is not maintained. Discoloration of the top layers of the fruit is caused by oxidation which means that air has not been expelled from the jar by the heat of processing. If food is packed too solidly or jars filled to overflowing instead of to within a half inch of the top, some of the liquid may boil out of the jars during processing.

Canning powders and preservatives are not necessary in the canning procedure.

SEWING CIRCLE PATTERNS
Scallops Trim Junior Two-Piecer
Tot's Dress for School or Play

Two-Piece Frock
 A SIMPLE and very pretty two-piece frock for juniors that will capture many an admiring glance. Soft scallops make an effective finish on the figure-whitening jacket. A teen-age "must" for summer festivities.

Pattern No. 1354 is designed for sizes 11, 12, 13, 14, 15 and 16. Size 12 requires 3 1/2 yards of 30-inch material for the ensemble.

Puffed Sleeve Dress
 SHE'LL look as bright as a new penny in this adorable little dress with pert puffed sleeves, round yoke and full swinging skirt. Make it for school or play in gay checks or polka-dots, and trim with bright ric rac.

Pattern No. 1322 is designed for sizes 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 years. Size 3 requires 2 1/2 yards of 30-inch material for the ensemble.

Household Hints
 Grass stains on white materials can often be removed by sponging with ammonia and water.

Scrub carrots with a stiff brush. It is easier than scraping or paring and saves vitamins and minerals as well.

Resolve to go easy on the vacuum cleaner motor by emptying the dust bag after every use. Shake out the loose dirt, tie the bag inside out on the clothesline and let the breeze do the job thoroughly for you.

When washing windows, use an up and down stroke on the outside, and the side to side stroke on the inside. This way, you can easily determine which side needs more polishing.
