VOL. 37

HEDLEY, DONLEY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, SEPT. 12, 1947

Swing of SOUTHWEST FARM MARKETS

Southwest farm products sold rally firm to higher last week, with cotton and some cat classes the major exceptions, U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports.

Good demand and light offerings kept egg prices firm last week while all classes of poultry found strength at some markets. Top quality white candled eggs sold generally around 50 to 55 cents per dozen, and grade "A" mixed eggs 45 to 50. Heavy hens ranged largely from 22 to 32 cents per pound, and fryers from 32 to 39.

Spot cotton marketings increased last week, as picking and ginning moved farther north. Strict Low Middling and above found good demand, but farmers sold less freely, as prices declined $4.00 to $6.50 per bale for the week.

Texas hog markets closed the week about even with a week earlier, while other southwest terminals gained mostly 50 cents to $1.00 or more. Top butchers closed at $26.75 at San Antonio, $27.75 at Fort Worth, $28.50 at Oklahoma City and Wichita, and $30.25 at Denver. Sows brought mostly $20 to $25 and pigs $20 to $25.

Slaughter and stocker calves dropped sharply at most southwest markets last week, and cows lost at some places. Common to medium slaughter cows ranged largely from $12 to $16, and calves $13 to $19. Most good calves sold at $19.50 to $22. Common to medium stocker calves brought mostly $16 to $18.50.

Carnival at Memphis

Memphis, Tex.—Plans have been completed for the first annual West Texas Cotton, Chemurgic and Ceramics Carnival to be staged here beginning midnight Thursday, Oct. 2, and continuing through Oct. 4. An around-the-clock schedule of entertainment is promised the thousands who will pay tribute to the natural and industrial resources of West Texas in a "Mardi Gras" festival.

Starting promptly at midnight, Oct. 2, a gala stage revue will be presented in the Ritz Theater featuring the presentation of scores of beautiful girls, each competing for the title "Maid of West Texas" and an all-expense paid vacation. There will also be a two hour stage show presented by Dixie Dice. Following the stage show a street dance will continue until dawn.

Friday, Oct. 3, will be dedicated to inspection of some 100 West Texas and nationally known exhibits and displays, demonstrations, band concerts, lectures by nationally famed cotton and agricultural experts and impromptu street shows. A football game, Memphis vs McLean, is an evening attraction as is a championship rodeo of RCA sponsorship and a gigantic midway and carnival attraction.

The carnival will be in Memphis the entire week of the festival and the Rodeo will be presented Thursday night, Friday night, Saturday afternoon and Saturday night.

The stage show is presented each midnight of the three-day calendar of education and fun.

Saturday, Oct. 4, is "Mardi Gras of West Texas." One of the most colorful parades ever staged in West Texas moves promptly at 11 a. m. headed by Gov. Beauford H. Jester and a score of state and national dignitaries. Bands from all over the region will be in the procession along with the colorful Will Rogers Range Riders of Amarillo.

The sole purpose of the Cotton, Chemurgic & Ceramics Carnival, according to James F. Smith, general chairman, is to acquaint both resident, grower and industrialist with West Texas possibilities.

Uncle Sam Says

Millions of my young nieces and nephews are returning to school to learn from their teachers, schoolmates and books a way of life. Besides grammar, history, arithmetic, home economics and a variety of other courses, they will come face to face with sportsmanship, honesty, self-reliance and the habit of thrift. Facts crammed into the heads of Willie and Jane will come in handy, but thrift is something which will be vital to their well-being every day of their lives. Of course the habit of thrift may be acquired in many ways, but a sure way is the participation of my young nieces and nephews in the United States Treasury Department's School Savings Program. U. S. ## School News

A definite program, emphasizing the best ideas in the field of teaching as a profession, is being carried out at weekly faculty meetings scheduled each Tuesday at 3:45 p. m. Mrs. Davenport will lead a round table discussion next week on the question: What is Teaching? Professional magazines and the latest books on educational trends are to be placed at the disposal of all faculty members eager to improve themselves in a professional way.

Our vocational agriculture program is under way and is rapidly becoming an essential part of the school work. Boys of the high school age are in the program almost one hundred percent. It is our plan to be of service to the farmers of the community in addition to producing persons equipped to direct farm programs in a scientific manner.

The Home Ec classes under supervision of their teacher, Mrs. Longan, are arranging an exhibit for the Donley County Fair to be held the 19th and 20th at Clarendon. They have a large variety of canned vegetables and fruits as well as jam, jellies, etc., labelled and packed in order. Their first unit of work included canning as well as other methods of preserving.

The Lunch Room program may be called a success to date. It is paying its way and serving a good meal every day. It is now serving about eighty-five persons daily. Mesdames Dickson and Johnson are cooking under supervision of Mrs. Longan, who plans menus and selects food. Financial committee members are Mrs. Longan, Messrs. Baker and Groves.

The first ball game of the season has been scheduled between Hedley and Sam Norwood for Tuesday Nov. 23 at Sam Norwood. There will be three big games: Girls vs girls; boys vs boys; and All-Star team vs All-Star team. A definite calendar of events to be scheduled will be announced later.

We have authorized the organization of the following groups as a part of our citizenship development program: Crescendo Music Club; Boys' F. F. A. Club; Girls' F. H. A. Club; The Annual Press Club; The Students' Council; Senior class; Junior class; Sophomore class; and Freshman class. It is our plan to promote respect for dignity and decorum as maintained in formal meetings where certain definite rules should govern. A citizen who respects himself will be law-abiding; understanding of and respect for the formalities of dignified living will never produce juvenile delinquents.

Annuals Bring Abundant Bloom

Most home gardeners like to grow annual flowers. Coming quickly into bloom from seed sown each year, they are the easiest of all flowers to grow and bring a wide range of vivacious color for a long period.

Poppo and bachelor button are two of the earliest. The low-growing edger, sweet alyssum and candytuft, are also fairly quick to flower from seed. The lovely balsam, fragrant pinks, the graceful scabiosa, the hedge-forming four o' clocks, the colorful nasturtiums and petunias are next in line. Later come the tall cosmos, the beloved zinnias and the marigolds. Most annuals are so easy to grow that even children can raise them successfully. Special favorites for children's gardens and those of some grownups are feathered cockscomb, the oddly interesting cockscomb, and the gay woolflower.

The secret of growing near-perfect annuals is to use good seed and sow it thinly. In outdoor planting do not sow deeply but cover the seeds firmly so that they will make immediate contact with warm moist soil for speedy germination. When the seedlings appear, thin the plants so that the remaining ones will have plenty of space to spread and mature.

Most annual flowers are not particular about the kind of soil they grow in but they do like plenty of sunshine and air. Most annuals do not thrive in shady places.

In order to get the most bloom from annual flowers all through the season they need a certain amount of attention. Petunia plants sometimes grow lanky and crowd their neighbors. Cut sprays of blossoms freely and arrange them for indoor enjoyment. The plant will recover quickly and bloom better than ever. Snip off the fading blossoms of zinnia, marigold, cosmos, and other annuals. If left to go to seed they rob the plants of strength to develop new flowers. Keep the edging annuals, such as sweet alyssum and candytuft, from looking frowzy by clipping off the tops with shears after they have bloomed. They will reward you by flowering again and looking pretty for a long season.

Can Your Home 'Measure Up'?

to modern standards of Convenience and Comfort?

MODERN people don't want old-fashioned transportation—they want 1947 automobiles. Modern people are like that too, about their homes. They want them to "measure up" to 1947 standards of convenience and comfort. But many a lovely-looking home has grown "old before its time."

Does your home measure up? Only the all-electric home can meet today's standards. With electric appliances, the last word in cleanliness, convenience, and safety, you can make your home "measure up." A modern home deserves modern electric living.

Electric service is a bargain! Living costs continue to increase, yet the cost of a kilowatt hour of service to residential users has decreased one-third in the last 14 years.

Big engines... long trains

mean lower cost to you!

But union leaders want "half-trains"-double crews!

Big locomotives are built to do a big job in the big country which is America—a big job in peacetime as in wartime. They are built to pull long trains.

Long freight trains can handle more goods at less cost—to you—than short trains.

Long trains mean fewer trains—fewer chances for accidents—fewer interruptions to traffic.

But a few railroad union leaders oppose long trains—among their current 44 demands for changes in rules is one limiting the length of freight trains to 57 average cars. Why do they demand this?

For "safety," they say. But is it? Government figures show definitely that long trains mean greater safety to railroad employes and public alike.

Then, if safety is not the real reason—what is the reason behind this demand? It is to make more jobs which are not needed—to get more pay! This "made work" would be sheer waste. Think of big, modern locomotives using only half their power.

For this waste, you—the public—would have to pay. Higher costs mean a lower standard of living for everybody. Nobody wants that!

Here's the record...

In the quarter century... 1921-1946...

Average length of freight trains has gone up.....	39%
Average speed of freight trains has gone up..	39%
The rate of injuries to railroad employes has gone down.....	60%
Average wages paid railroad workers have gone up.....	84%
Price of railroad materials and supplies has gone up.....	58%
Railroad taxes have gone up.....	76%
But the average charge by railroads for hauling a ton of freight one mile has gone down.....	23%

Serve Chicken for Economy's Sake (See recipes below.)

Chicken Cookery

According to the Commodity Index, which records the rise and fall of wholesale prices, poultry today is selling at prices we were paying in 1926. Needless to say, this means that at a time when other foods have soared, poultry is at a low level.

With a favorable supply and price, you can plan to use a lot of poultry now, and give your family something of a treat with unusually prepared chicken dishes.

Chicken should be cooked to "fork tenderness." There is little excuse for underdone or overdone chicken if you follow the recipes given today, with particular care to temperatures and time for the cookery. A moderate temperature is best to use for chicken so as not to shrink it too much, make it dry or tough.

Most people who like chicken say there's no better way to cook it than to fry it. The generally accepted method is as follows:

1. Rub seasoned flour into pieces. For each pound of chicken, blend 1/4 cup flour, 1 teaspoon paprika, 1/2 teaspoon salt, and scant 1/2 teaspoon pepper. Save left-over flour for gravy.

2. Heat enough fat in a heavy skillet to give a depth of about 1/2 inch, using any desired fat. A drop of water should sizzle when temperature of fat is just hot enough.

3. Start meaty pieces first, slipping less meaty pieces in between as chicken browns. Avoid crowding; use two skillets if necessary.

4. As soon as chicken begins to brown, about 10 minutes, reduce heat, and cook slowly until tender, 30 to 60 minutes, depending on size of pieces. Cover tightly as soon as it is a light, uniform tan.

5. Turn 2 or 3 times with 2 spoons or fork and spoon to brown and cook evenly. Avoid piercing with fork.

6. Add 1 or 2 tablespoons water before covering, especially recommended if pan cannot be covered tightly, or if bird is heavier than 3 pounds.

7. Uncover last 15 minutes to re-crisp skin if desired. The liver and precooked heart, gizzard, and neck may be floured and browned with chicken the last 15 minutes.

8. Lift fried chicken to hot platter. Prepare gravy in pan drippings.

Huntington Chicken (Serves 6 to 8)

2 cups macaroni
1/2 tablespoon butter
1/2 tablespoon flour
1/2 cup cream, scalded
1 cup cream cheese
3 tablespoons pimiento, finely cut
1 cup hot chicken broth
2 cups cooked chicken, diced
Salt
Pepper
Cook macaroni. Make cream sauce of butter, flour, and cream. Add cheese, pimiento, and chicken broth; mix. Add chicken and macaroni, add seasonings. Pour into buttered casserole. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) 30 to 45 minutes.

LYNN SAYS: Know Cookery Terms For All Recipes

To bake means to cook in an oven at a required temperature. Use an oven regulator or an oven thermometer if you have no other control.

To blanch means to dip in boiling water, usually for the purpose of loosening the skins.

To fricassee means to fry in a small amount of fat and to serve with a sauce.

Giblets and neck

Barbecue Sauce
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon garlic salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon paprika
1 tablespoon sugar
1 medium onion, finely chopped
1 cup catsup
1/2 cup fat
1/2 cup giblet stock or water
1/2 cup lemon juice or vinegar
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce

Clean and cook giblets by simmering in seasoned water for 1 to 2 hours or until tender. Prepare Barbecue Sauce by blending salt, pepper, paprika, and sugar in saucepan. Add onion, catsup, fat, and water. Heat to boiling. Remove from heat. Add lemon juice and Worcestershire sauce. For basting during cooking, blend 1/2 cup sauce and 1/2 cup giblet stock. Set aside remaining sauce for serving with cooked chicken.

Place neck and halves of chicken in skillet or Dutch oven. Baste both sides of chicken with the diluted sauce. Cover tightly and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) about 1 hour. Baste once or twice. Remove cover, baste with diluted sauce and continue cooking uncovered until chicken is tender and browned, about 1 hour.

To pan fry is to cook in shallow fat in a skillet. This is sometimes called sauteing.

To broil or grill is to cook over or under a clear fire or in a broiling oven. Do not pierce broiled foods with a fork or they will lose their juices.

Creaming means letting food stand at room temperature until it is softened and then working with a wooden spoon or an electric mixer until it is creamy. The phrase is often used of butter.

By INEZ GERHARD
TAKE Dorothy McGuire's word for it, girls; it's wonderful to have a husband who not only can fly a plane, but owns one too. If you want to go anywhere you don't bother about train, boat or plane reservations, you just go. That's what she's planning at the moment. Wants to fly hither and yon across the country—New Orleans, Washington, New York, Boston, and back to Los Angeles by way of Portland and Seattle.

Marie Wilson, star of the CBS "My Friend Irma," is appearing in the same film with her husband, Alan Nixon, for the first time in the six years of their married life. It's "Linda, Be Good," being made by PRC.

Arthur Godfrey, who is funnier when seen at work than when he's just heard, has a friendly bet every week with the producer of his "Talent Scouts" as to who can guess the winner of each broadcast. The decision of the audience really is final; Godfrey shows you the gadget which measures the applause received by each contestant. But—the night I attended a broadcast first place went to a man I thought should have had fourth, and people near me felt the same. He just had the noisiest friends, "I guess!"

After screening the life stories—so called—of people in many different walks of life, the motion picture industry has finally got around to someone who was just a movie star. The late William S. Hart, hero of hundreds of westerns in the early days of the movies, will be the hero of still one more picture, based on his own life, and filmed by 20th Century-Fox.

There's food for thought in the Magazine of the Air, weekday mornings on ABC; Mrs. Susan Adams deals with everything from beauty tips to cooking demonstrations. There's food for the stomach too; when the pre-tested recipes are actually made before the studio audience, the spectators eat the exhibits when the program is over. The results are as good as the recipes.

There's nothing like having a talent scout in the family. When Director Leo McCarey's daughter Mary was working with the USO she met Richard Ross, master of ceremonies with an army orchestra. The result—Ross will make his screen debut in "Good Sam," directed by Leo McCarey. Ruth Brennan, Walter's daughter, also has a supporting role.

You'll see Robert Taylor in "The High Wall" because he likes to spend a quiet evening at home with his wife, Barbara Stanwyck. He was listening to the radio and heard a mystery he liked. He asked MGM to buy it for him, then went off to Europe with Mrs. Taylor, on their first vacation in years. Came home to find the screen play of "The High Wall" almost completed.

Noticing a pretty girl playing a silent bit as a party guest in "That Hagen Girl," Shirley Temple said to the director, "Put her next to me; maybe someone will discover her as future star material." But—the girl she tried to help didn't need assistance; she proved to be Lonnie Balian, daughter of Warner Bros.' chief talent scout, who didn't know what she was up to.

Remember the once-famous Mauch twins? Bobby gave up acting, and is working in the cutting department of a Hollywood studio. Billy has a featured role in "Mary Hagen," now in production at the same studio.

ODDS AND ENDS—Anne Baxter has been borrowed by MGM from 20th Century-Fox to play Clark Gable's wife in "Homecoming." . . . Tommy Harmon, football star, has been signed to do a one-minute sportscast spot on the Jimmy Durante show this fall. . . . Jack Leonard, former vocalist with Tommy Dorsey's band, has the singing lead in Columbia Pictures' "Glamour Girl." . . . Kathleen Cordell returns to ABC's "David Harding-Counterspy" cast after a vacation in her native England. . . . Mercedes McCambridge, an "Inner Sanctum" favorite, had to extend her European vacation; couldn't get passage back to New York.

First Broadcast Over Air Sans Wires Made in 1892

Nathan B. Stubblefield, as a demonstration to a number of scientists in 1892, broadcast a message through the air that was received without the aid of wires. Stubblefield's first public broadcast was on January 1, 1902. And on May 30, 1902, in Fairmont Park, Philadelphia, his voice was heard a mile away from the transmitter.
