The Wise Old Owl

Even though there has been a lot of snow I still get around to watch over all you kids. So don't think you will get by with anything because it is cold.

Joan Ray, you don't get around much anymore. What's the trouble, don't you care for the boys anymore?

(ib, seems you were sort of disappointed Saturday night. You just can't manage to get a date with her can you?

Gene B. you acted like you were having a nice time Saturday night. What does a certain Soph think about it?

Lillian, we have an apology to make. We hear it was your father's request that you come back with him from the ball game. We will try not to make any more mistakes.

Anita, you had better watch that note writing. Sometimes they get into the wrong hands. What about that, Babe?

Dorothy, did you really think Martha or Wanda would go with Redtop Wednesday night? When I saw them they didn't seem to want to go with anyone.

Jimmy, just why didn't you want Johnnie and Brick to go to Wheeler? You and Corky didn't have any ideas up your sleeve did you?

Martha Jo, what has happened to you lately? You don't seem to want to get around much anymore.

Rita, we are all still wondering just how you managed to keep your boy friend so true to you.

Winter Weather

Hedley has been enjoying the same icy weather as the rest of the Panhandle this week. School buses have not been running, but classes have been continued for those who came.

So far the only damage reported is a caved in cotton warehouse, and the moisture contained in the sleet and ice will be of great benefit to crop prospects.

Two Week Vacation

J. and Shirley Nell of Memphis, returned home Wednesday of last week after spending a two weeks vacation through Xmas in Los Angeles with their daughter and sister, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. He returned home they for a few days leave. On their way home they visited Ray Longshore and family at Phoenix, Ariz., also stopped at Lubbock and visited with their son, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Richards. All enjoyed a real nice trip.

Uncle Sam Says

Ten years can make a big difference. That youngster, now in pigtail, will be grown up and ready for college in 10 years. Or you may be ready to tackle that pet project of yours, a new home, retirement, or starting a small business. Yes, 10 years can make a difference in many things. Money, for instance. If you go about it right you can make today's money grow, right along with those plans for the future.

Figure, today, how much you'll need in 10 years. Then put aside the amount in U. S. Savings Bonds each week, enough to equal the total you have in mind, always remembering that for every three dollars you invest today, you will receive four dollars in 10 years. If you are on a payroll, join the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. If you are self-employed, enroll for the Bond-a-Month Plan at your own bank. U.S. Treasury Department

Basketball News

The Hedley Lions second annual independent basketball tournament was a success financially and in having games. Referees Carter Huff, and Johnnie Everett kept 1 games going fast and smooth with but very few arguments.

Hedley Lions won first place with a 51-28 victory over the Modern Market team of Wellington Saturday night which gave Wellington second place. The Lions reached the finals by beating Claude 66-33 and Wheeler 68-40. Modern Market, winner of 12 straight games and pre-tournament favorites reached the finals by defeating Turkey 51-49 and Quail 61-49. George Colvin's All Stars from Turkey won the consolation prize with a 51-37 victory over the Groom Independents who received second place consolation. Third place went to Boots Graham and his Quail All Stars with a forfeit over Wheeler.

The Lions played their best games of the year during this tournament making 185 points to their opponents 99. The plan to buy a trophy with their prize money to go with the trophies won in the Amarillo AAU in 1947 and the Clarendon Tournament in 1948.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Truman Asserts Red Aims Split As Some Leaders Desire Accord; Dutch Firm on Indonesian Stand

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

COLD WAR: Someone Tiring

If Harry S. Truman were right, then possibility of war with Russia was less than many Americans imagined. In a "surprise" statement during an unheeded appearance at a luncheon in Kansas City, President Truman declared bluntly that "certain leaders" in Russia "are exceedingly anxious to reach an agreement with the United States to end the cold war."

THEN THE PRESIDENT lashed out with an accusation that the Soviets have violated "sacred" agreements and said their government "has a system of morals that are not moral."

Deliberately or not, President Truman was baring some closeted secrets when he said during that speech that the Russians had not kept important agreements made at Yalta and Potsdam. By that statement, the President was conceding charges of long duration that certain commitments were made at these two parleys with the Russians which were not generally known, and results of which led to accusations that American diplomacy had failed miserably in negotiations with Russia's Josef Stalin.

The President's position was far from an earlier expansive statement that Stalin was a "nice old fellow."

He did not identify the Red leaders who prefer an "understanding"—as he put it—with the United States, but he asserted that there are Soviet top men who have no desire for war. Neither did the President say whether any overtures had been made by such Russian leaders. The President said frankly: "I have certain specific agreements at Potsdam, none of which have been kept. Certain agreements were made at Yalta, none of which have been kept."

He reiterated that "all the United States wants is peace."

INDONESIA: Dutch Stubborn

Stubbornness is a characteristic trait of the Dutch—and Holland was running true to form. Despite announcement by the United States, from which she is receiving Marshall plan aid, that the invasion of Indonesia must stop, the Dutch said, in effect, they'd think the order over.

THE UNITED NATIONS was concerned, but a Russian step to the fore in demanding a cease-fire order and troop withdrawal in 24 hours did the Indonesians no good. This time, the U. S. abstained from voting and the Russian proposal lost.

However, the American position was difficult of understanding, and the statement of American delegate Philip Jessup did little to clarify it. "I decline to be put in a false position by other delegations," he said. "The record of the United States on Indonesia is before the world."

BUT ALSO BEFORE the world was the issue of American prestige and the integrity of the Marshall plan. America stood for help for Indonesia; America controlled the powerful weapon of economic aid to the Dutch. Yet, America, as yet, had delivered no ultimatum to the nation whose foray into Indonesia was being helped by American dollars. And the American delegate had declined to vote for a cease-fire order in the Indonesian fighting—joining Great Britain in the vote declination.

Whatever else was true, and regardless of motives, the assertion of the Soviet Ukrainian delegate appeared to be true. He charged: "Without United States financial help, the Netherlands would have been unable to wage war in Indonesia."

Operation 'Tactful'

Sociology was looking up. The Australian Legion of Ex-Servicemen and Women had taken up the task of helping young veterans and their wives with "in-law" troubles. They started a scheme to enable veterans forced by housing shortages to live with parents-in-law to exchange homes with others.

Spokesmen for the legion said many English marriages had been saved from disaster by a similar scheme operating in Britain. They found couples could live happier with strangers where they were paying guests.

ALL MUST PROVE STATUS

Army Checking Newcomers for Red Taint

The army is looking closely to the political integrity of its inductees and applicants for commissions. Army spokesmen have released an announcement that existing regulations now require all inductees and applicants for commissions to certify whether they have been members of subversive organizations. If they had been

Taft Laughed

Usually pontifically serious, Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio was in an expansive mood as he chatted with newsmen on his return to Washington following a tour of Europe. He praised the operation of the economic cooperation administration (Marshall plan).

FOR CHINA: Watch and Wait

U. S. policy on China, for the time being at least, appeared to be one of watching and waiting, coupled with a resounding diplomatic silence.

America had two good considerations upon which to base that policy: 1. THE UNITED STATES stood convinced that nothing other than direct intervention in the military situation in China would change the course of events, and that the government is not prepared to intervene to that extent.

2. There is, in the United States, an inaccurate assumption that American economic aid is a fool-proof solution to the difficulties of other countries; that this aid, if put into a given country as raw materials are put into a machine, would suddenly be processed into an effective, finished product. Life was not precisely like that—especially in China.

To all of which might be added these two additional factors:

1. The United States was caught in this dilemma: If it issues a statement supporting the Nationalists, as Mme. Chiang Kai-shek urged, it might merely associate itself with the collapse of the present Chinese regime without preventing that collapse.

2. On the other hand, if it explains why it is not granting further aid to Chiang, and publishes what has happened to previous aid, it might hasten Chiang's collapse.

Hence, the attitude of watchful waiting.

MARSHALL: How Long?

The question of who would be President Truman's secretary of state was concerning official Washington and the diplomatic centers of the world.

Ailing Gen. George C. Marshall was ordered to rest, observe strict dietary instructions. Evidence was largely at hand that the President was reluctant to trust the touchy problems of international policy in less experienced hands, yet the chief problem persisted: Could Marshall carry on effectively despite his serious ailment—loss of a kidney through operation?

THE PRESIDENT appeared committed to a policy of letting Marshall stay on, or, rather, keeping Marshall on the job despite any desire of the latter to give up his post.

A close associate of the President was quoted as saying the chief executive was willing to wait until Marshall recovered sufficiently to do a full-time job, even if that should require months. Robert A. Lovett, said not to "gee" as well with the President as Marshall did, would continue to act for Marshall while the latter rested.

SOME OF THE President's friends declared that if he should finally decide that Marshall can't carry the load, he probably would like to have Chief Justice Fred Vinson take over.

To do so would mean a great personal sacrifice for the Kentuckian, for his position on the court is permanent, while an administration change might leave him out in the cold—and Vinson is no young man, either.

PROBERS: Want More Law

Probers looking officially into the activity of foreign espionage agents in the United States were becoming irked. Too many witnesses had fallen back on the constitutional guarantee of immunity to questioning by claiming the possibility of self-incrimination.

The probe group would put an end to that—they would provide stiffer penalties for contempt of such groups.

REPRESENTATIVE MUNDT, of South Dakota, and Nixon, of California, Republicans, authors of the proposal, did not specify just how much stiffer they would make the penalty for persons convicted of contempt of congress. They did comment that "offenders should be severely and appropriately punished."

Existing law provides a maximum penalty of one year's imprisonment and a $1,000 fine.

Among "reforms" suggested for probe group procedure was protection of the right of all witnesses to counsel in both closed and open sessions; right of the accused to testify in open session; right of the accused to submit questions.

The new congress was to be given the proposals.

MEDICINE: U. S. on Pan

Plans for socialized medicine received a rough setback when the Hoover committee reported it had found "waste and extravagance" in the present federal setup, which it described as without "any central plan."

FINDINGS of the committee—a "task force" of the Hoover commission on organization of the executive branch of the government—were sure to be hailed with delight by members of the American Medical Association battling against enactment by congress of a program of socialized medicine.

The investigating group, however, made it plain in its report that compulsory health insurance was outside the scope of its inquiry.

But, even so, its declaration that governmental medical agencies and its program were inadequate and inefficient was certain to be construed as whistling over two strikes on the compulsory health insurance adherents.

THE FACT-FINDING group recommended a sweeping reorganization of federal medical services, and urged channeling of federal subsidies to the upbuilding of medical schools and community and private hospitals, with a minimum of supervision by the government.

The report asserted the government is assuming uncalculated obligations without any understanding of their ultimate cost, the lack of professional manpower to carry them out, or their adverse effect on the hospital system of the country.

BEST COWBOY: No Film Star

The small fry could bellow and complain all they liked—the best cowboy was not Gene Autry or Roy Rogers.

Instead he is Gerald Roberts, Phoenix, Ariz., who was top cowboy—world's champion, to get technical—for 1948. The Rodeo Cowboys association announced Roberts was the best all-round cowboy of the year, and they had the records to prove it.

ROBERTS won top honors by leading the 2,100 professional cowboys who were scored in the association's system for 575 rodeos in the U. S. and Canada.

The scoring system was based on one of the most impressive factors in any American competition—the dollar. One point was scored for each dollar won in competition, and Roberts ended the 1948 season with winnings of $21,866 in cash awards. There was no arguing with that sort of record.

Prodigal's Return

Jimmy Dykes, former third baseman of the Philadelphia A's and manager of the Chicago White Sox, gets welcome handshake from Connie Mack after Dykes signed up as coach of the Athletics.

WOMEN: Fever Home

Fewer American married women were staying at home. In a complete reversal of the war years, married women workers in the nation topped single women holding jobs.

A report by the federal census bureau showed that there were in the labor force—those working and looking for work—about 8,200,000 married women and 5,900,000 single women.

Household Hints

Always remember that dark colors are slimming and a dark skirt will minimize large hips.

Pieces cut from an old felt hat or clippers and glued to the bottom of table legs will help prevent scratch marks on kitchen linoleum.

You can improvise shoulder covers to hang over dresses, in the closet with old pillow cases. Just make a slit in the closed end and slip over the hanger.

Save the peels of oranges and tangerines, dry them in the oven, and store in glass jars. They give puddings and custards a delicious flavor.

To line cake pans easily with wax paper, grease pan lightly, cover with a piece of waxed paper and insert another pan identical or nearly so. Trim off the edges.

In sewing braid or rick-rack on any kind of fabric, use scotch tape to hold firmly in place. When the machine work is done, simply peel off the tape.

Many people believe breakfast just isn't breakfast without a bowl of steaming hot cereal every morning. Dried fruits added to the cereal while it cooks gives it a most pleasant flavor.

To save frosting a butter cake, sprinkle the batter with finely chopped filberts before baking; do not use on sponge type cakes since the batter is not heavy enough to hold the nuts and they will sink to the bottom.

Our improved pattern—visual with easy-to-see charts and photos, and complete directions—makes needlework easy.

- 2 cups soft bread crumbs
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/2 cup tomato juice
- 2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine

Chop onion, brown onion and celery in lard. Combine with green pepper, salt, eggs, bread crumbs and water to make a dressing. Add half of the dressing (1 1/2 cups) to the meat, mixing well. Pat out half the meat mixture in a two-quart loaf pan. Cover with remaining dressing, then top with remaining meat mixture. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) 1 1/2 hours. Baste twice with tomato juice and butter or margarine to keep loaf moist. Serves 8.

It may be caused by disorder of kidney function that permits poisonous waste to accumulate. For truly many people feel tired, weak and miserable when the kidneys fail to remove excess acids and other waste matter from the blood.

You may suffer aching backache, rheumatic pains, headaches, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pain, swelling, sometimes frequent urinary irritation with smarting, or burning is another sign that something is wrong with the kidneys of blood.

WHY IS A FEDERAL LAND BANK LOAN POPULAR WITH DONLEY COUNTY FARMERS AND RANCHERS?

One reason is that as stockholders in a strong organization, members of the Donley County National Farm Loan Association have received more than $11,000.00 in dividends since April 1944, thus reducing the cost of financing their agricultural operations.

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS by Lynn Chambers

Like melted cheese and creamy potatoes? They'll be even better when you add some flavor to them with celery, onions and frankfurters and place in potato shells to serve for a supper or lunch.

Winter Vegetables Need Pepped-Up Seasonings For More Meal Appeal

ARE YOU LACKING ideas for the preparation of winter vegetables? Glance through this column for really solid inspiration for I've packed it full of practical ideas and suggestions which you're certain to find helpful.

It's true that we don't have as many vegetables during these cool months as during the summer, but this is the time to dress and glamorize what you have with interesting seasonings as well as different methods of cookery.

Bake instead of boiling all of them just for the sake of interest and you'll save vitamins as well. Bring out the herbs and sauces to add new flavors to common vegetables. Make appetizing color and texture combinations and see how the family eats them up!

Here's a new way with carrots, good to use when you have an oven meal:

- Baked Carrots (Serves 8)
18 small carrots
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 cup boiling water

Scrape or pare carrots and place in a casserole. Cream butter, sugar and cinnamon together; add water and blend. Pour over carrots and bake in a moderate (350 degree) oven for one and one-half hours.

- Spiced Red Cabbage (Serves 6 to 8)
2 tablespoons mixed spices
3 quarts water
1 teaspoon salt
2 pounds red cabbage, shredded
4 tablespoons brown sugar
4 tablespoons vinegar
3 tablespoons butter

Place spices in a small cheesecloth bag. Heat water and salt to boiling, add cabbage and spices and cook 30 minutes. Drain. Dissolve sugar in vinegar, add butter and combine with cabbage.

In place of plain vinegar in the above recipe, you may use basil vinegar for an interesting variation.

HERE'S A COLORFUL vegetable dish which will be a delight to bring to the table. Inexpensive tomato sauce comes in a can, ready to heat and pour over the vegetable.

- *Cauliflower With Tomato Sauce (Serves 6)
1 medium head cauliflower
1 1/2-ounce can tomato sauce
2 tablespoons butter or substitute
4 tablespoons grated cheese

Soak cauliflower in cold, salted water for 15 minutes. Drain. Place in a large pan of rapidly boiling salted water. Cook, covered, for 20 to 25 minutes or until cauliflower is tender. Drain. Place cauliflower in baking dish. Cover top with canned tomato sauce. Dot with butter and sprinkle with cheese. Bake in a moderate (350 degree) oven for 15 minutes.

- *Wax Beans O'Brien (Serves 6 to 8)
6 tablespoons chopped pimiento
6 tablespoons chopped onion
4 tablespoons fat
1/2 teaspoon salt
4 cups cooked wax beans
1/2 cup water

Cook pimiento and onion in fat for two to three minutes. Add salt and

LYNN SAYS: Use These Hints to Make Vegetables Appetizing

Hollow out the halves of eggplant. Stuff the shells with a combination of cooked eggplant mixed with sautéed mushrooms, onion and cream sauce. Cover with crumbs and bake in a casserole in a hot (400°F.) oven for 20 minutes.

Onions may be hollowed out and filled with mushrooms and cheese sauce, then baked in a covered casserole in a moderate oven for an hour.

beans and cook five minutes longer. Add water and heat to boiling.

THERE ARE MORE than creamy potatoes to the following recipe. With the additional ingredients used to glorify them, you may use them for a light lunch or supper.

Stuffed Idaho Surprises (Serves 6)

- 3 Idaho potatoes, baked
6 frankfurters, diced
1 cup diced celery
1 small onion
2 to 3 tablespoons shortening
2 to 3 tablespoons melting cheese

Saute the frankfurters, celery and onion in shortening; add a little water and steam until celery is done. Allow water to evaporate. Cut baked potatoes lengthwise and remove potato from skin. Mash the potato, adding seasoning and milk until they are creamy and smooth. Fill potato shell with frankfurter mixture; then a thin slice of cheese and top with the mashed potato. Place in a moderate (350 degree) oven until tops are lightly browned, about 15 to 20 minutes.

- Escalloped Spinach (Serves 10)
2 eggs, well beaten
2 cups milk
2 cups cracker crumbs
4 tablespoons melted butter
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cups cooked spinach

Mix all ingredients thoroughly, reserving about 1/2 cup of buttered crumbs for the top. Place in a buttered casserole and cover with crumbs. Bake in a slow oven (325 degree) until crumbs are browned and the mixture is set in the center, about 35 minutes.

- French-Fried Cauliflower (Serves 6 to 8)
4 1/2 cups cooked cauliflowerets
2 eggs, slightly beaten
1 cup dry bread crumbs

Dip cauliflower into slightly beaten eggs, roll in bread crumbs and let stand at least one-half hour.

- Cauliflower will look prettier and taste better when you serve it with canned tomato sauce and a bit of Parmesan cheese as a pep-up touch. This may also be used as an idea for a vegetable platter, adding green beans or peas to surround the cauliflower.

Fry in deep, hot fat (350 degree) until brown. Drain on absorbent paper.

- Broccoli Souffle (Serves 4)
3 eggs, separated
1/2 cup hot, thick white sauce
1 cup chopped, cooked broccoli
2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese

Beat egg yolks and add to white sauce. Add broccoli and cheese. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into a buttered baking dish and bake in a moderate (350 degree) oven for 50 minutes. Serve with cheese sauce: make two cups thick white sauce with three tablespoons butter, three tablespoons flour and two cups milk. Season with one-half teaspoon salt, one-eighth teaspoon pepper and add one-half cup grated American cheese. Cook in double boiler until cheese melts.

- Fried Brussels Sprouts (Serves 6)
1 onion, chopped
3 cups cooked Brussels Sprouts

Cook onion in butter until tender, add sprouts and toss gently until heated thoroughly.

- Beets will be zippy if you cut cooked beets into thin strips and heat with 1/2 cup top milk, 2 1/2 teaspoons horseradish and 1 teaspoon salt.

Cauliflower leaves should not be discarded. Cook, covered for 15 minutes and add them to white sauce.

Wax beans will be appetizing when served with toasted, slivered almonds.

Chives or mint, chopped and added to melted butter will do flavor-some thines to cooked carrots.

By INEZ GERHARD
JOIN the Bob Hope show and see the world! Returning from his Christmas-time jaunt to Berlin, Bob is off on a month-long tour of this country, planning to start in the south and work his way up to Washington in time for the inauguration.

There's money in those tours. Hope thinks he may exceed the $500,000 made on a similar tour two years ago.

Edith Head, top dress designer for Paramount, came to New York "on a spying trip," as she put it. She covered the haunts of young business women as Betty Hutton's clothes for "The Broadway Story" must be just right. Delightful, dynamic Miss Head, commenting on the costumes for "Samson and Delilah," said she couldn't let Delilah's be too authentic or the censors would never pass them. But those for "The Heiress" are historically perfect right down to the underwear.

According to the Motion Picture Herald, the top-grossing pictures of the 1947-48 season, September to September, are "The Bachelor and the Bobby Soxer," "Cass Timberlane," "Green Dolphin Street," "Life With Father," "Mother Wore Tights," "Road to Rio" and "Unconquered." A list the country's motion picture critics would never have compiled.

U. S. Attorney General Tom Clark makes his film debut in Universal-International's "Illegal Entry." He and Commissioner Watson B. Miller appear in the prologue. The first documentary film made with the cooperation of the immigration department, it is dedicated to the 43 immigration officers killed in the line of duty.

Helen Craig, featured in "They Live by Night," became a star in a Broadway play in which she spoke no lines. After years of studying diction, she was cast as the deaf mute in the stage's version of "Johnny Belinda."

Robert Cummings and his family plan to live three months in Paris, three in Rome, while he makes two pictures. He expects to come home to find his new house ready—with a diving board from his bedroom overhanging the pool.

Memories of '48—Having Ray Milland "borrow" an oyster from me at lunch, before his arrival—and forgetting to pay it back. Having John Lund tramp blocks through the driving rain to find me a taxi. Riding on a crowded subway with Irene Beasley, who was carrying a canary. Hearing Scott Brady tell about the prayer that carries him over bad moments and brings success.

Betsy Drake was afraid RKO would make her pluck her eyebrows too thin and change her name before she made her film debut in "Every Girl Should Be Married." So she ate a lot of candy, to calm her nerves.

Henry Hull can't believe it. Two years ago he rented his California home to the Joel McCreas who have two young sons. Henry expected to find everything much worse for wear when he moved back recently. But everything was in perfect condition, and the house had been polished from cellar to garret. Henry says he's going to join a McCrea fan club.

ODDS AND ENDS... Danny Kaye's picture, "The Kid From Brooklyn," is playing in Rome under the title "I Prefer a Cow."... Glenn Ford, who has taken or given a beating in every picture he's ever made, wishes Columbia would assign him to just one peaceful one... Busy though she is, Penny Singleton found time to learn to fly, now takes her family on regular weekend flights... Frankie Carli's crew will appear in five pictures this year, made during a four-month stay in California... Eleanor Powell will sail in February to do a command performance for the king of England.
