Bridge Opening

Lions Secretary Clifford Johnson, Booster President Bob Harris and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Cherry attended the dedication ceremonies last Friday of the new 1,232 ft. concrete bridge at the Prairie Dog Fork of Red River near Brice. Delegates from several counties were escorted to the ceremony in a motor caravan, with a siren escort provided by the Hedley Booster Emergency Service Car. James Faulkner, Clarendon Chamber of Commerce manager spoke at the ceremony on behalf of Donley County.

Legion Auxiliary

The American Legion Auxiliary met Tuesday, Sept. 30, with 12 members present. The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Kathryn Latimer, the preamble being led by the president and repeated in unison by all present.

This was a business meeting and the following committees were appointed: Poppy Committee, Mesdames Pie Adamson, Myrtle Kirkpatrick and Mattie Barnett; Year Book Committee, Mesdames Alene Baird, Mary Shaw and Maggie Lou Tate; Finance Committee, Mesdames Mildred Shaw, Kathryn Latimer, Willie Johnson; Courtesy Chairman, Mrs. Mary Shaw; Publicity Chairman, Willie Johnson.

Let's not forget that this is a worthwhile organization and that all eligible women are urged to join. The 1953 dues are $2 and the meeting nights are the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of each month. Child welfare and disabled veterans and their families are our responsibility.

Our fall project is to help support our school band in any way we can. Our Float Chairman for Cotton Festival is Mrs. Elise Adcock. Our meetings are open to the public and all guests are welcome. We have 23 paid members to date.

A social hour was enjoyed with Kathryn Latimer as hostess.

LIONS ROAR

Next week's meeting of the Club will be held at 7 PM as meetings go back to that time after Oct. 1st. Lion B. C. Johnson is in charge of the program. Besides a good feed and a good program, more details of the Cotton Festival will be dis-

MAYOR DECLARES FESTIVAL HOLIDAYS

To The Citizens of Hedley:

It is seldom that an event is staged in any community whereby the benefits reach each individual. Such an event is scheduled for Hedley in the form of the First Annual Hedley Cotton Festival!

Each local merchant, organization, school, and church have an opportunity of enriching their treasuries that in return enrich the life within our home town.

The publicity value of such an event as the proposed Festival is beyond measurement. The thousands of visitors that it will attract will indeed place a deep load of responsibility on this city's facilities and services.

Recognizing, therefore, the value of the Festival to the community and the enjoyment it can bring to all of us, I hereby proclaim the dates of Friday, October 31, and Saturday, November 1, as City Holidays in observance of the celebration of the Cotton Harvest.

I also urge each and every local business man to keep his business open and functioning, both for the financial benefits he will receive, and for the service of our guests.

I order each and every man, woman, and child, to work for the Festival and to enjoy the Festival

Queen Candidates to Appear at Theatre

The thirty-four candidates for Cotton Festival Queen will appear on the stage of the Hedley Theatre Friday night at 9 PM. This will be their final appearance before the contest closes at 6 PM Monday, Oct. 6. The names of the three lucky girls who will reign over the Cotton Festival will be disclosed by Queen Chairman Leon Reeves at the Hedley Theatre Monday night at 9 PM. Each of the other candidates will receive Honorary Princess titles and will be introduced as such at the Queen Coronation and Queen's Ball.

Poll containers will be picked up at 6 PM Monday afternoon and the votes will be counted at the bank by the finance committee. The candidate with the most votes, based on a penny a vote for every penny contributed to her campaign, will be named Queen of the Festival, and the second and third place girls will be official Princesses.

The Queen and her two Princesses will be the guests of the Clarendon Lions Club on Tuesday October 7th and then will start a series of Booster Tours throughout the Panhandle advertising the Hedley Cotton Festival.

J. H. Ward

Funeral services for J. H. Ward, 80, of Newlin who passed away Monday in a Memphis hospital, were held Tuesday afternoon in the First Baptist Church in Memphis, with the pastor, Rev. Roy Shahan, officiating. Burial was in Lakeview Cemetery with Murphy-Spicer Funeral Home.

Pallbearers, all grandsons, were Johnny Ward, Robert Crisman, Fred Crisman, Don Altman, Ray Altman and N. W. Altman Jr.

Survivors include his wife; four sons, John Ward of Giles, W. A. Ward of Hedley, R. E. Ward of Newlin, and J. A. Ward of Hedley; two daughters, Mrs. N. W. Altman of Newlin and Mrs. J. E. Crisman of Clayton; 28 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Miss Carolyn Morris spent the past week end in Amarillo, visiting Mrs. Melvin Jones, attending the fair and the West Texas-McMurry football game there.

Get Acquainted Night

The PTA "Get Acquainted Night," held last Friday night at the high school, was attended by a large and enthusiastic group of parents, teachers, and patrons. A fine program was arranged by the program chairman Mrs. Leon Reeves. Rev. Zell, Nazarene pastor gave the Invocation, followed by several songs by the Choral Club, led by Mrs. Davenport. Mrs. J. B. Howe of Panhandle introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Ralph Randel, PTA Dist. Vice President from Panhandle, who gave a very entertaining and informative talk on PTA work. She stressed the primary purpose of PTA work as being to promote child and youth welfare and adult education. At the close of her talk she conducted a question and answer session. Brief talks were also made by President Mrs. Ray Moreman and Supt. J. S. Hinds, who introduced the teachers.

In a short business session conducted by Mrs. Moreman, minutes of the first meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. J. M. Dickson, committees chosen by the executive committee were read and approved, and a special committee headed by Winfield Mosley was appointed to investigate the possibility of sponsoring a food booth at the Cotton Festival. The fourth Monday night in each month was set as the regular meeting time. It was announced that 144 paid members had been secured to date.

A social hour followed the meeting during which coffee and doughnuts were served by the social committee, which included Mrs. W. B. Wiggins, chairman, and Mesdames D. H. Cox, Lloyd Leggitt, R. M. Saunders, Frank Murray, J. M. Dickson, Clyde Hoggard and Ray Moreman.

LEGION NEWS

There will be a meeting of the 6th Zone of the American Legion at the Legion Hut in Shamrock, Tuesday night, Oct. 7. Posts of Clarendon, Claude, Groom, McLean, Hedley, Shamrock, Wheeler, and Wellington will be represented. Zone Commander Clifford Johnson and Zone Adjutant Wayne Latimer would like to have a good delegation present from both the local Legion Post and the Auxiliary Unit.

Special Events Will Keep Visitors Busy

The Special events committee of the Festival will have it's hands full for the two big days. A running schedule is being set up that includes almost every kind of enjoyable fun. Events scheduled so far, with many more in the planning stages, include band concerts, Boy's Ranch entertainment unit, the Maverick Club's tumbling teams, a greased pig contest, tug of war between West and East Main St., a pet show, and a pie eating contest. Henry Moore heads the committee for the Festival Organization.

"His Followers"

Yes, it's been a long time since we have made a report, but we haven't been completely idle. Our best news: four more of our girls have accepted Christ.

At two class meetings the girls presented Mrs. J. J. Beach with a beautiful lamp and Mrs. Chester Hill, class mother, a set of colonial dolls. We are ending another Sunday School year. God has been good to us, and as we start a new year for Christ, our prayer is that we might be more worthy of His great love and care. Won't you pray for us? Lina Jenkins, Jean Sanders and Margarete Burrol were promoted to the Intermediate Dept. Cora Brown, Vera Holman and Betty Sanders came into our class. New officers elected for the next three months are president, Elnora Butler; vice president, Wilma Moore; secretary, Janice Howell; assist. sec., Beneva Hill; reporter, Mildred Sims; treasurer and helper, Shirley Stone and Mary Helen McKee; room committee, Mary Helen Cora Brown, Vera Holman and Betty Sanders.

We invite all girls, 11 and 12 years old and not in another Sunday School, to come and be in our class. --Beneva Hill

Mrs. W. M. McBrayer and her sisters, Mrs. A J Fowler of Memphis, Mrs. James Smith of Lelia Lake, Mrs. J. D. Jones of Clarendon, visited in Arizona last week with another sister, Mrs. L. A. Eason. Also accompanying them was Mrs. Winfred Miller of Lesley. All reported a pleasant trip.

Tom Adamson is a member of the West Texas State Band at Canyon. The band played some five numbers at the football game Saturday night

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Easterling of Vernon visited here last week end.

Mrs. Gilliland Dies

Mrs. John Gilliland, who had been ill for some time, passed away Wednesday in a Memphis hospital

Funeral services will be held Friday from the Church of Christ here.

An obituary will appear in next week's issue.

B. T. U.

The Adult II class the Baptist Training Union elected new officers Sept. 21 as follows: president, Mrs. W. C. Quisenberry; vice president, Mrs. Frank Davis; secretary, W. C. Quisenberry; Bible Quiz Leader, Mrs. John Nash; Group Captains, Mrs. J. Beach and Lionel Blankenship. Committees have not yet been elected.

We have a wonderful time in this class. Won't you come and help us in Training Union? And do all come to the church picnic Friday night Oct. 3, and enjoy a good fellowship night. It always helps us to have these good times together. When we realize the good things God has in store for us, it makes us more appreciative and more determined to help in the spreading of His Word. That is one thing out Training Union is for. We study His Word and learn how to do His work. Unless we as adults help now, we cannot expect our children to do a good job of carrying on God's work and they are God's workers of tomorrow!—Reporter

Bands at Festival

High school bands will play an important role in the coming Cotton Festival according to Parade Chairman Dr. D. H. Cox. Eight bands so far have been invited with an aggregate membership of over 250 young musicians. More bands are expected to accept invitations prior to Festival days. Indications are now that the Roosevelt High School Band from Roosevelt, Okla. will be named Festival Honor Band and will conduct concerts as well as lead the Grand Parade. The local Hedley High Band will play host to musicians from Pampa, Memphis, Clarendon, Shamrock, Childress, Borger and McLean. Possibility of the 200 piece Amarillo Air Force Band coming is still strong.

Ross and Hodge Adamson of Ropesville visited here last week end.

Wanda Lee Shaw was at home from Plains last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jewell visited in Hereford Sunday.

Merchants Urged to Decorate for Festival

Leon Reeves, chairman of the Merchants Participation Committee for the Cotton Festival, urged all local retailers to build appropriate window displays and to follow the Festival theme in their advertising from now on through the Festival days. Suggestions and information are available from Reeves or his committee.

The American Legion requested that all American Flags be flown during the Festival to add color and patriotism.

Pvt. and Mrs. J. M. Fuller of Lufkin, Pvt. and Mrs. Carlile of Fort Worth, Pvt. Jackson of Dallas and Pvt. Wright of Deweyville visited Pvt. Fuller's grandfather, T. O. McFarland here Wednesday. The four service men are on their way to Germany.

Chaplain Rex Kendall and family came in Monday from Celeste, and will remain here this week. They will be located somewhere in Arizona. They have just returned from spending over three years in Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Howell and son Richard of Artesia, N. Mex., visited here first of the week.

Susan Hopson of Hereford is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jewell this week.

Entertains Club

Mrs. M. W. Mosley was hostess to the Kill Kare Kneedle Klub of Clarendon last Thursday. The highlight of the afternoon was visiting. Jane Mosley assisted her grandmother in serving a salad course to Mesdames Ed C. and Harry Brumley, H. Mulkey, Heath, Hudson, Nolan, Sam Lowe, Barklett, Dawkins, Thomas, Hefner, and Frank White, Misses Ida and Etta Horned, and Mrs. Alva Simmons. The guests were invited to the back yard for a second course of delicious watermelons.

S. E. Reynolds of Riverside, Calif. has returned home after several days visit with his brother George here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Riley and children of Amarillo, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bromley of Clarendon visited here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Toby Bilderback and son, and Mrs. Fern Bilderback of Amarillo visited Mrs. Sarah Bilderback Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Mosley attended Lions Club, Teachers "Get Acquainted" night Tuesday and reported a nice time.

Mrs. Harris Honored

Mrs. Evalyn Holman Harris was honored Tuesday evening with a miscellaneous shower by the Girls Choir of the Baptist Church, in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Garden flowers were used throughout the room, adding a note of color.

The guests were met at the door by Mattie Lou McKee and registered by Wanda Hansard and Sandra Youree. The tea table was centered with a small basket of pink flowers, pink candles on either side. Louise Dodson presided here assisted by Patricia Murray, Sandra Youree and Mrs. J. M. Dickson.

Soft music was played during the tea hour by Nancy Nash. Jane Mosley gave several poems dedicated to the honoree, and a chorus of Jacque Johnson, Joan Youree, Norene Gibson, Jean Bailey, Wanda Lee Moore and Peggy Spear sang several numbers. As the last number "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" was sung, they formed a ring around Evalyn and Mickey Wynn entered the ring with a gift package and a corsage which she pinned on the honoree. She was assisted in presenting the array of beautiful gifts by Wanda Hansard.

Several guests registered during the evening and others who could not attend sent gifts.

First Baptist Church

Mesdames Otis Owens and Burt Stone were hostesses to the Baptist WMU Monday afternoon at the church. They were assisted by Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Harris. The program was taken from our missionary magazine, Royal Service. Mrs. Quisenberry was leader for the lesson on "Japan's Puzzled People." The hymn, "More Love to Thee" was sung, followed by prayer by Mrs. Bain. A beautiful devotional from Psalms and I Cor. was given by the leader. Different phases of our opportunities in Japan were discussed by Mesdames Jones, Owens, C. L. Harris, Beach, Wade, Scales, Carlton, Nash, and Moore. The closing hymn was "He Leadeth Me." Mrs. Jones gave the dismissal prayer. During the social hour delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses. The ladies will meet in a business session at the Church next Monday.

There will be a covered dish supper next Friday night in the Fellowship Hall of the church at 7:30. All the members of the church, together with their families, are urged to come and enjoy the supper and evening together.
