Third Annual Hedley Fat Stock Show

The Hedley Future Farmers of America under the direction of Doyle Messer is holding its third annual Stock Show Wednesday, January 21.

The first Hedley Fat Stock Show was held in 1951 just before the Donley County Show. It was a small show and was something reasonably new to the community. The show was held in the open at the FW&D stock pens. There was only a small amount of stock there including lambs, barrows, and a class of breeding heifers, but the community was behind it and in 1952 the Hedley Fat Stock Show had grown and had more livestock to exhibit. It was held in the seed house of the West Texas Gin due to bad weather, but the crowd was limited also due to the weather.

In 1953 the Hedley Fat Stock Show will be bigger and better. Something new this year are two classes of baby beef calves. Both light and heavyweight will be shown at halter. There will be five different classes of fat barrows besides a class of breeding swine and two classes of fat lambs.

The judging will start at 10:00 AM at the County Commissioner's Barn, rain or shine. Everyone is invited to attend.

The Worker's Conference of the Panhandle Baptist Association will meet January 20 with the Lakeview Baptist Church. The following program has been planned on the theme, "The Message of the Church."

Legion Auxiliary

The American Legion Auxiliary met in the Legion Hall Jan. 6 with nine members present. Colors were advanced by Mrs. Myrtella Deahl, prayer was led by Mrs. Lois Beach, and the president then declared the meeting open.

During the business session the treasurer reported $166.48 in the treasury. Plans are being made to add a kitchen to the Hall. Discussion and information were given about the M. O. Anderson Cancer Hospital at Temple. $20 will be sent as part of our assessment, the rest to be sent later.

Mrs. Pie Adamson has received a 25 membership pin as having 25 members to her credit. She is also the only woman in the 18th District to receive this award. This is the only organization in the District that has gone over the top according to its membership quota.

The program was a roll call with each answering the question, "What is the Legion Doing in Washington?" A poem, "The Freedom Pledge," was read by Mrs. Willie Johnson.

The hostesses for the social hour were Mrs. Lois Beach and Mrs. Alene Baird.

The next meeting will be Feb. 3 at 7:30 P.M.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones attended the golden wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Willis held at the First Nazarene Church in Amarillo last Sunday afternoon.

Jane M., I see you and Don K. together quite a bit. What about Dempy?

Tippie R., what certain army boy were you with Friday and Saturday nights?

Wanda H., you and Alvin just can't seem to get along these days. Did he approve of your date Friday night, or does he know?

Letha M., did you have a good time over the week end? Seems like the Memphis boys are really taking over the Senior girls.

Pat P., who did you have a date with Monday night? You know some people don't keep their word. What about this Lloyd D.?

Barbara J., where was Donald Ray Saturday night? I think some one must have told him he was "robbing the cradle."

Don R., what's happened to you and your Quail gal? Did she "fly the coop" or did you "shoo" her out?

Wanda M., you should have been at school Friday. It's not every day you get a call from Lakeview.

Carolyn M., it seems like you still prefer college boys, even though they are from a different town now.

Looks like two Junior girls have at last found their "ideal man." I hear their from Wellington. What about this girls, is it true?

Willie O., what certain Clarendon boy were you with Sunday night? Have you forgotten Cleo?

Janice L., I hear you're going steady. Who is he?
