Junior-Senior Banquet

The Junior-Senior banquet was held Saturday night in the Hedley school lunch room.

The decorations carried out an Oriental garden theme, with lanterns, wind chimes and incense burners placed throughout the room, and the walls covered with starred paper to simulate an outdoor setting. Favors were Chinese boys and girls.

Allan Cope acted as toastmaster. J. M. Baker gave the invocation, followed by the welcome address by Leon Bevers, responded to by Tomie Pritchard. Jane Mosley sang "Young at Heart." Betty Bilderback and Jane White then sang "Chinatown" and "It's Later Than You Think." Supt. J. S. Hinds gave a short talk on "See No Evil, Hear No Evil, Speak No Evil," and the entire group sang "Farewell To Thee."

Attractively dressed in Chinese costume, Betty Bilderback, Jane White, Wanda Ann Hansard, Gracie Brown and Joyce Stuckey served the delicious meal, which consisted of roast beef and gravy, new potatoes with green beans, tossed vegetable salad, hot rolls, butter, iced tea, angel food cake and lime sherbet.

Seniors present were Pat Pritchard, Tommie Pritchard, Carolyn Morris, Jean Bailey, Oren Allen, Carroll Allen, Wanda Lee Moore, Jo Ann Moore, Wanda Lou Saunders, Vinona Hansard, Janice Lamberson, Red Leeper, Kenneth Painter, Marvin Mullins, Clyde Nivens, Noriene Gibson, Willie Owens, Jane Mosley and Joan Youree; Juniors present were Don Reeves, Don Wells, Louise Bailey, Leon Bevers, Marie Hill Charlene Sargent, Mickey Wynn, Nancy Nash, Allan Cope, V. ## Grand Ole Opry

The Seniors, directed by Mrs. Davenport, presented an excellent version of the "Grand Ole Opry"

Good Rain At Last!

Everyone is rejoicing over the best rain in many moons, totalling about four inches up to Wednesday

Fire Damages Station

Baseball News

Hedley is leading the Caprock League with victories over Pierce St. Greenhouse of Amarillo and Groom. Last week's game was rained out, and Hedley plays at Clarendon next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Tucker, and Mr. and Mrs. Lannie Tucker of Estelline, and Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Newman and Pete visited Mothers Day with Mrs. R. E. Newman and Pete.

Emory Stone and family visited here last week end from Amarillo.

Monday night to a good crowd. Everyone enjoyed the various contests, and the well rendered musical program.

The group netted $104.35, which will help pay for the Senior trip. Members of the class stated that they appreciated very much everyone who helped in any way to put over the program.

Band Awards

The Hedley band gave a concert Friday in school assembly, and announcement was made of awards to be given at the commencement exercises.

Janice Lamberson and Don Springer were chosen as outstanding all around band members. Music merit awards for scholastic standing, musicianship, cooperation, etc., will be given at commencement to Jane Mosley, Don Springer, Nancy Hunsucker, Barbara Johanson, Don Cox, Bobby Couch and Richard Stotts.

The band members enjoyed a picnic Friday night at the Memphis park.

Piano Recital

Mrs. Mary Gibbs will present her pupils in a piano recital at First Baptist Church Wednesday, May 19, at 8:30. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Ideal S. S. Class

The Ideal S. S. class of the First Baptist Church had a party May 6 at Mrs. Jenkins' home. The following members were present: Beneva Hill, Mary McKee, Mildred Sims, Judy Wynn, Ellen Page, Lina Jenkins, Wilma Moore, Wilma Carter, Linda Davis and Elnora Butler, our class auntie, Mrs. Taylor, and our teacher, Mrs. J. J. Beach. Visitors were Loveta Houdashell, Kathleen Spalding and Mrs. Spalding. We were very glad to have our visitors.

The president, Ellen Page, took over and had prayer, then we read poems. Mrs. Taylor read a "Mothers Day" poem and dedicated it to Mrs. Jenkins. After that we went to the kitchen and Mrs. Jenkins served us with sandwiches, cookies, cakes and punch. We played some games selected by Judy Wynn, Kathleen Spalding, Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Beach, and we all had a very nice time. We want to thank Mrs. Jenkins for inviting us to her home.—Reporters, Linda Kay Davis and Elnora Butler

Mrs. W. M. Billingsley of Ardmore, Okla., is visiting in the W. F. Brown home.

Ross and Hodge Adamson visited here from Ropesville over the week end.

LIONS ROAR

Next week is directors meeting. The time is 8 PM. Since there is a lot of business to come up, it will probably be a joint meeting with the Booster Club.

Last Thursday night the Booster Club met with the board of directors. Among the things discussed was a tennis court for school. Enough interest has shown to practically guarantee concrete double tennis court be located at the west end of city park. Cotton Festival committeemen were also discussed put over the third and big Hedley Cotton Festival Oct. 8-9. With the recent rains we may have some cotton this year.

This week is regular meeting. This is a hard times meeting, each member to come as he can and bring his own lunch. This seemed an awfully good idea before the rain and may still be. Last report is that Lions Otis Ower, L. D. Messer, Leon Reeves and Frank Murray have charge of the program. One of them might come up with something good come out.

Cancer Drive

Hedley never fails! Saturday the Cancer Drive was launched and most everyone contributed to this worthy cause, all together went over the top. We have date $106.45. Donley County quota was $480.00, all of which goes to M. D. Anderson Hospital Texas Cancer Research at Houston.

Mrs. Clyde Bridges, chair of the drive, expresses her appreciation to each one who gave their time to work on the drive, especially to Don Cox who contributed literature and all the Giles community for their Thanks!

Let's continue to fight the dreaded disease.

Rowe Cemetery

Funds are now needed on work at Rowe Cemetery. Work is paid for by only. Any amount give will be appreciated. Will be given a reception. Secretary M. O. cemetery com.

Sodalitas Club

The Sodalitas Club was hostess to the 1919 Study Club and the Woman's Culture Club and a few special guests May 6 in the school lunchroom with a buffet supper and musical program.

The guests were greeted by Mrs. Jo Ann Martin and Mrs. Ida Lou Dickson upon arrival. Mrs. Velva Gibson invited them into the lunchroom where a wonderful buffet supper was enjoyed by everyone. The lunchroom was beautifully decorated with flowers. Miss Harlan designed a beautiful table arrangement for the table at which the three presidents, Mrs. Mable Jones, Mrs. Francis Hinds, and Mrs. Velva Gibson, were seated.

The menu consisted of chicken salad on lettuce, fresh potatoes, asparagus, stuffed celery, curled radishes, ripe and green olives, angel food cake with strawberry filling and iced with whipped cream, hot rolls, butter, and iced tea. Mrs. Velva Gibson welcomed the guests and Miss Mattie Lou McKee gave the invocation. Mrs. Hinds and Mrs. Jones gave a very gracious response as spokesmen from their clubs.

Mrs. Opal Evans was in charge of the program. Dixie was sung by the entire group after which Mrs. Edith Cooke played a semi-classical number, Little Madam Mozeil. Miss Thelma Moss and Mrs. Kathryn Latimers sang a duet, I Get So Lonely, accompanied by Mrs. Edith Cooke. Mrs. Joy Stewart played The Waltz You Saved for Me, and Lonely Heart. Several of the members sang Beyond the Sunset, which concluded the musical program. A little skit entitled "Ma and Paw Take the Kids for an Outing" was then given by 12 of the club members.

Those attending were Mesdames D. H. Cox, A. T. Simmons, Hobart Moffitt, W. W. Wiggins, J. S. Hinds, Otis Owens, Ray Moreman, Carrol Deahl, Ethel Kinslow, C. E. Johnson, Winfield Mosley, R. M.
