Jones-Reeves

Miss Carolyn Reeves and Bill Jones were married at 6:30 PM Sunday, Dec. 26, by Rev. R. N. Huckabee, minister of the First Methodist Church in Hedley.

The altar was a winter wonderland with a background of snow glistening trees flanked with cathedral candles rising from the floor to the chancel arch. This candle arrangement was interspersed with sunburst arrangements of white gladioli, pink roses and pink carnations.

The foreground was formed of smaller snow covered trees, candelabra with cathedral candles, and identical flowers.

Ushers were Bill and Don Reeves, brothers of the bride, Adell Myers and Don Cope. Don Reeves and Adell Myers served as candlelighters.

Miss Joan Ray Moreman furnished the traditional wedding music.

Misses Letha Moss and Anna Belle Bailey sang "Indian Love Call."

Travis Jones, brother of the groom, was best man.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. Harold White of Hedley. Her dress was dusty rose brocade, and she carried a crescent bouquet of blue Dutch iris.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her dress was of ice blue taffeta with a bolero trim med with seed pearls. She carried a Bible topped with white orchids and stephanotis.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Leon Reeves, wore a navy blue crepe dress with light blue accessories and a corsage of pink roses and pink carnations. The groom's mother, Mrs. Tate Jones, wore a champagne taffeta dress and a pink rose bud corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was given in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Reeves.

Coffee and fruit cake were served to the guests from a table bearing a beautiful centerpiece of carnations and roses in a silver bowl. Charlene Barnett presided at the register. Mrs. D. H. Cox served assisted by Martha Jo and Kathleen Spalding, Reatha Ranson, Lanell Mendenhall, Nancy Hinds and Mildred Sims.

The couple will be at home at Canyon after a short wedding trip.

Centering the tables were arrangements of white carnations and flocked cedar. White tapers in crystal holders adorned the tables. A silver and white bell tied the place card, on which was a miniature bride and groom.
