Seniors Honored

The Senior Class of Hedley High School with their room mothers and husbands, and the faculty of the school were guests at a banquet of the ladies of the Baptist Church last Thursday evening, Feb. 24th, in the fellowship hall of the church.

On arrival the guests were escorted to one of the upstairs auditoriums where they were served punch by Mrs. Dalton Duggins. After all had arrived, they were invited down to the hall for the evening meal and program.

The long tables featured the George Washington theme with red and white candles, hatchets, cherries, and bouquets of red carnations. The theme was further carried out in other table appointments and in the menu.

Rev. Tipton was master of ceremonies, his tall Washington hat and hatchet gavel adding to the merriment of the evening. America was sung by the group as they gathered at the table, followed by invocation by Mr. Hinds. The Welcome was given by Mrs. Carlton, president of the WMU. Leon Bevers, president of the Senior class gave an appropriate response. Other numbers of the program following courses in the menu of the evening were a reading, "Truthful George" by Sandra Youree, "History of Our Flag" by Jane Mosley assisted by a girls chorus, Sandra Davis, Sandra Youree, Wanda Hansard, Glenda Hansard, and Retha Ranson, singing patriotic songs.

The speaker of the evening was Bill Langston, educational director of Memphis Baptist Church. He brought a very interesting and inspiring message.

The following menu had been prepared by the ladies of the church: chicken and dressing, giblet gravy, green beans, new potatoes, cranberry salad hot rolls, angel food cake topped with strawberries, coffee, and mints.

At the close a sing song by the Senior Class added an enjoyable part to the program. Mr. Baker gave the benediction.

Notice To The Public

It has been brought to our attention that a lot of people are not familiar with some of the laws governing taxation. Some people are under the impression that they are to list only the items suggested by the assessor. The assessor merely makes these suggestions as an aid in making your rendition. It is the duty of the taxpayer to list all of his or her real and personal property. Personal property consists of goods and merchandise of every description, shop equipment, cafe equipment, office equipment, automobiles, trucks, jeeps, or any other motor vehicle, trailers, irrigation pumps, tractors, and all other farming equipment, horses, cattle, sheep, and hogs. Persons owning only a automobile are required to list same for taxation.

The law requires the taxpayer to render his property for taxation by listing the same, making oath thereto, and delivering the same to the assessor, whose duty it is to enter the said property on the tax rolls. If a property owner fails to render property to the assessor, the assessor has the authority to assess the property at what he considers to be the true and full value and place the same on the unrendered roll.

Back assessments of property which has not been assessed or rendered for taxation may be made for any previous year. Therefore, we feel that it is to the advantage of the taxpayer to know his or her duty in regard to rendering property for taxation.

If you fail to render your property for current year taxes, the Board of Equalization are allowed to raise or increase the valuation without having to notify you. If your property is rendered, then any change that is made in the valuation by the equalization board, they in turn must notify the owner of such change.

We suggest that if we fail to contact you for your rendition, you should make it a point to render your property in order to protect you against back assessments and carry your part of the tax load.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank each of you for your cooperation in the past.

Baker-Day

The following was taken from the Ochiltree County Herald, Perryton for February 24.

In an impressive ceremony Sunday afternoon, Feb. 20, in the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church, Miss Valda Jean Day, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Day, became the bride of Bobby J. Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Baker of Hedley.

Reverend Keith McCormick, pastor, read the double-ring service at 3 o'clock.

The ceremony was read before arched candelabra, entwined with greenery, with fern trees and baskets of white gladioli at either side. Lighted tapers marked the bridal aisle.

Joe Erickson, organist, played as a nuptial prelude "Liebes Traum" by Liszt, "Indian Love Call" by Friml and "O Promise Me" by Scott. He accompanied Bob Irby as he sang, "Through the Years" by Youmans, "Because" by D'Hardelot and "Wedding Prayer" by Dunlap as a benediction. "Clair de lune" by De Bussy was played softly during the ceremony and the traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a waltz length gown of imported Chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The fitted lace bodice was fashioned with a scalloped neckline accented with tiny seed pearls and sequins. Small lace covered buttons extended down the back of the bodice into the V shaped low waistline. The fitted sleeves tapered to petal points and closed with tiny covered buttons. The full tulle skirt, worn over crinoline, was gathered at the waistline. The ornamented lace motif was repeated on the skirt.

Her finger-tip veil of imported French illusion scalloped at the edge and showered with appliques of Chantilly lace, was attached to a shell-type headdress of lace, highlighted with seed pearls.

She carried a bouquet of orchids and stephanotis, showered with white satin streamers, atop a white Bible.

Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

For something old she wore her maternal grandmother's wedding ring and for something blue, the traditional blue garter.

Mrs. Vernon Day, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Janice Miller was bridesmaid. They wore identical dresses of aqua antique taffeta, fashioned with draped surplice bodices and molded midriiffs. The full circular skirts, worn over crinoline, were waltz length. They wore small pill box hats of matching taffeta and shoes dyed to match and carried a colonial bouquets of pink carnations outlined with a ruffle of tulle.

Vernon Day, brother of the bride, and James Hagemeyer, cousin of the bride, were candlelighters. Jane and Billy Pletcher, niece and nephew of the bridegroom, were junior candlelighters. Norma Swinney, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl and Warren Hall Baker, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

Jane Pletcher and Norma Swinney wore identical ballerina length dresses of sweetheart pink antique taffeta, designed with low scalloped necklines and cap sleeves. The full, two-tiered skirt formed a ruffle at the hipline. Wide sashes tied in the back. They wore bandeaus of matching taffeta and flowers.

Warren Baker, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Art O'Quinn was groomsman and ushers were Vernon Day, James Hagemeyer, Hershel Swinney and Hubert Jones.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Day chose a navy blue silk two piece dress with navy and white accessories. Her corsage was of mystery gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore a teal blue, two piece dress of Orlon and wool, with pink and navy accessories and a corsage of mystery gardenias.

The reception, which immediately followed the ceremony, was held in the church parlor.

Miss Dixie Conley played piano selections during the reception and Mrs. Buddy Wilkins of Hardesty registered the guests.

The bride's table was laid with a white imported lace cloth over blue. An arrangement of pink snapdragons flanked with blue candles in crystal candelabra formed the centerpiece.

Mrs. Bill Pletcher served the wedding cake and Mrs. Hubert Jones presided at the punch service.

For a wedding trip to points of interest in New Mexico, the bride chose a two piece dress of luggage tan raw silk with champagne and brown lizard accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker will make their home at 215 Southwest Third Ave., Perryton.

Mrs. Baker is a graduate of Perryton high school and attended Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene. She was Miss Perryton and Wheatheart of the Nation in 1952. In high school she was a member of the National Honor Society, an outstanding speech student and a member of the choir and sextette.

Mr. Baker is a graduate of Hedley high school and attended Clarendon Junior College. He is employed with McLellan Stores Inc.

Out of town wedding guests included: Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Moffitt, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Simmons, and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hall of Hedley; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Baker, Warren Hall and Judy, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hagemeyer and James of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Buckley of Borger; Mr. and Mrs. Geo.
