Lowe-Spalding

In an impressive candlelight ceremony Wednesday evening, June 22, at 8:30 in the First Methodist Church of Hedley, Martha Jo Spalding became the bride of Douglas Lowe of Clarendon. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Spalding of Hedley, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lowe of Clarendon. The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. R. N. Huckabee, pastor of the church.

A medley of pre-nuptial music and other selections were presented throughout the service by Don Cox, organist. Miss Annabelle Bailey of Amarillo sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer." The couple exchanged vows before an altar banked with arrangements of white gladioli and pink asters. Groups of seven branched candelabra, holding cathedral candles completed the side altar decorations. Candlelighters were Adell Myers, and Giggs Mann.

Presented by her father, the bride wore a gown of white taffeta, designed with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a crown of orange blossoms. Her short mitts were of tulle. The bride carried a colonial bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and blue French carnations.

Miss Kathleen Spalding, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She wore a pink organdy and carried a nosegay of pink roses.

Wayne Lowe, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers included Adell Myers, Giggs Mann, L. D. Aten, and Freddie Molesworth. As the guests entered the church they were registered by Mrs. Don Wells.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Spalding chose a rose beige frock and wore a corsage of yellow carnations. The groom's mother wore a navy linen with white trim. Her corsage was white carnations.

The bride is a spring graduate of Hedley high school, and the groom is a graduate of Clarendon high school, and of Clarendon Jr. College. They will establish residence in Clarendon until September, when they will move to Lubbock where he will enroll in Texas Tech.

For her wedding trip Mrs. Lowe wore a blue nylon suit, and pink

First Baptist Church

The summer heat and usual vacations have brought a slump to the church going people, and with this thought in mind there is a deep need on the part of the people of God to make a special effort to go to church each Sunday. It is embarrassing for the pastor to preach to empty pews. They will not respond to the message, they cannot sing, they cannot pray, and the preacher's message will be powerless, cold, and often not interesting.

So if you want the pastor to preach soul stirring message, go to church, pray for pastor, sing to the glory of God, your presence will inspire beyond measure. By all means—Go to Church Sunday.

A reception was held in the home of Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Cox following the wedding ceremony, with the bride's parents as hosts. Greeting guests were Mr. and Mrs. Spalding, the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Lowe, and Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Cox. The refreshment table was covered with a white pineapple cloth. Crystal candelabra entwined with pink and white rosebuds illuminated the three tiered cake. Presiding at the crystal punch bowl were Miss Kathleen Spalding and Mrs. Geneva Kinney. Mrs. Jacque Jouette and Miss Retha Ranson served cake. Music was furnished by Miss Joan Ray Moreman during the reception.

The groom's parents were hosts at a rehearsal party Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Jim Anna Greer of Hedley. The refreshment table was covered with a pink cloth, centered with pink roses. Presiding at the punch bowl was Giggs Mann, and Mrs. L. D. Aten served cake.

Mrs. Kilgore has pastored the church here for 20 months, having moved to Hedley the first week in October of 1953. She states that she has certainly enjoyed her work in Hedley and appreciates her many friends in this area. "I believe the friendliest and nicest people in the world live in Hedley," she said.

Mrs. Kilgore will preach her farewell sermon Sunday evening, July 3, at 8 o'clock.
