Wedding Shower

The fellowship hall of the Methodist Church was the scene of a lovely shower Tuesday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Lee Cherry.

Guests were registered as they entered at a small table bearing a centerpiece of a red heart. The Valentine motif was further carried out at the serving table where pink punch and cookie were served. The table was spread with a white satin cloth and centered with a clever arrangement of ceramic cupids in a large red heart.

After being served the guests were invited to view the many lovely gifts on display.

Assisting the hostesses were Kathleen Spalding, Nancy Hinds, Bonnie Alexander, Reatha Ranson and Miss Myrtle Reeves. Kathleen and Nancy also furnished piano music during the evening.

Hostesses were Mesdames W. H. Jones, J. S. Hinds, Ray Moreman, Henry Moore, Ross Springer, J. B. Masterson, Fred Watt, Frank Kendall, Alfred Spalding, and Don Keith Wells.

Farewell Party

A "Farewell Party" was given Saturday night in the Lions Den for Don Reeves and Richard Stotts who are leaving for the army. Many friends of the popular boys came and enjoyed the evening of music, well-planned games and visiting. A large sign saying "Goodby and Good Riddance" was placed behind a large table where refreshments of sandwiches, potato chips, Cokes and cookies were served "help yourself style." Gifts of nice fountain pens were presented the honorees and also a "plug of tobacco" and 75¢ each to renew their supply. Games were directed by Charlene Wells and Mary Ruth White. The very best wishes of the hometown people go with these fine young men. They will be missed.

City Election

According to law, candidates for city aldermen must be filed with the City Secretary at least 30 days before the date of the city election.

This year's election will be on April 2, so all candidates for aldermen must be filed with the City Secretary by March 2.

The place of the meetings will be announced after plans are worked out. Irrigation specialists will be on hand to give information to all interested.

Breedlove says that wells are going down all the time in Donley County and that recently a good well was brought in on the Harve Wilson place.

Methodist Church

Do you let fear master you? Are you what one person has called "to truth a timid friend?" Hear the sermon along this line next Sunday morning, by the pastor Kathleen Spalding leads the youth night program with an unusual approach this Sunday evening. Next Family Night in the church will be Feb. 27. Film slides taken by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones on their summer vacation trip will be shown, after the covered dish supper.

April 22-28 are our spring revival dates. Guest preacher will be the Rev. Lynward Harrison of Wesley Chapel Methodist Church at Lockett.

Life is always asking the question, "Is you is or is you ain't?"

May I take this means of expressing my appreciation for the many cards, letters and gifts sent to me during my recent illness. The messages from my home town really gave me a lift.

May God bless you.

Senator Andy Rogers Introduces Bill

Austin, Texas, Feb. 5—Second and habitual offenders against Texas liquor laws will face stiffer penalties under a bill introduced by Senator Andy Rogers of Childress dealing with bootlegging offences. Senator Rogers, of District 30, said in a statement today that "The bill as I have introduced it is absolutely necessary if we are to protect our youth and human life, especially in the so called 'dry' areas of the state." Sen. Rogers said that stronger penalties are needed because "in too many cases the criminal bootlegger simply treats the fine as a business expense and goes on selling his booze whenever he can—to every man, woman or child.

Under Senate Bill 187 by Sen. Rogers, persons convicted of a second or additional offense, of bootlegging "shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars ($500) nor more than five thousand ($5,000), or shall be imprisoned in the State penitentiary for not more than five years, or both." The bill would change provisions of the Texas Liquor Control Act which now impose fines not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars or one year in the county jail or both.

While present statutes treat bootlegging offenses as misdemeanors, the Rogers bill would make any second or additional offense a felony and subject to the increased penalties.

"No one knows better than the citizens and the law-enforcing agencies of the counties and cities of District 30 what a terrible problem this is," Sen. Rogers said. "I sincerely hope that passage of this measure will provide an added bulwark against this sort of criminal activity."

Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Moffitt attended the hardware convention at Amarillo this week.

Hedley P.-T. A.

The Hedley P T A will hold its regular meeting Monday night, Feb. 18, with the Hedley school board in charge of the program. Henry Moore will serve as leader for the program.

LIONS ROAR

The Adobe Walls Council, Boy Scouts of America, will present new charters to both the Boy Scout Troop and the Cub Scout Troop at this weeks meeting of the Lions Club. Charter to the Explorer Scout Post, also sponsored by the Lions Club, will be presented at a later date.

Also this week, the Memphis Lions Club will bring up a complete program. This program has been presented before several luncheon clubs and is something no Lion should miss. Be there, we meet and eat at 7 P. M.

Scoutmaster for the Troop is, as has been for the last couple of years, a young man who has done a really wonderful job with the boys, Boaz Stotts.

Registered as Scouts with the Troop are Marvin Kennedy, Don Selby, Rusty Mosley, James Younger, Doyle Baggett, Joe Darnell, S. A. Younger, Jack Doherty, Tony Jenkins, David Moberan, Roger Messer, Lonnie Darnell, Larry Combest, Wayland Fronterhouse, Harold Moffitt, Loyd Messer, R. E. Butler, Tinsley Mullins, Gary Alexander, Alvie Butler and Trent Bolin.

This Troop has long been one of the best in the area and it is reasonable to assume that there is no reason for this to change within the next year. Troop 36 should bring up more than its share of the honors whatever the competition.

NO HIT-OR-MISS Rxs FOR YOU

The prescription of years ago was largely a hit-or-miss affair. If one drug didn't work, the doctor tried another . . . then another. Often, none of the drugs did much good. But the day of the hit-or-miss prescription is no more. Now, the doctor knows exactly what each drug can do. The first one he prescribes is usually the right one — the one drug that does a perfect job of curing. That's why . . .

Boy Scout News

The Boy Scouts of America observed their 47th anniversary during National Boy Scout Week Feb 6 to 12.

Today 4,500,000 boys and men are taking an active part in 540 local councils with a membership of 111,000 units.

The Scouts also have an added attraction this year. This is the 100th birthday anniversary of Lord Baden Powell, founder of Scouting, and the 50th anniversary of his first Scout camp on Brownsea Island off the coast of England.

The Boy Scouts of Troop No. 36 of Hedley observed Scout Week with a variety of activities.

Friday evening eighteen members of Troop 36 attended a movie in Memphis, compliments of Mr. Hollis Boren

Saturday, the Scouts assumed duties of the City of Hedley, in such capacities as city police and various officials. Activities during the day netted the troop $70.39, which will go into the troop's Camping Fund.

Last year the troop made $100.18 which was used to purchase three 10 by 12 wall tents and one 8 by 10 wall tent. The price paid for the tents was $116.35. Without the help and backing of the Scouts by the people of Hedley, this would not have been possible.

Sunday morning, Feb. 10, the Scouts met in the home of Dr. D. H. Cox at 7:30 a. m. where they enjoyed various games, at 8:30 a. m. the Scouts enjoyed a breakfast at the Hedley Cafe, given in their honor by Dr. and Mrs. Cox.

After breakfast, the Scouts attended Sunday School in their own church, at 11 a. m. they attended the Baptist Church in a group, with the Rev. J. S. Tipton announcing the Boy Scouts 47th anniversary, and delivering a most interesting sermon.

Monday night, Feb. 11, at Scout meeting the time was spent playing games and singing. James Younger gave the life story of Lord Baden Powell, the Founder of Scouting. Jack D. Doherty gave the history of William Boyce and how he brought Scouting to the American boys in 1910.

Tuesday evening Scoutmaster Boaz Stotts visited with the Cub Scouts and showed movies of former Scout trips to everyone present.

The Scouts wish to thank everyone for courtesies extended and help given during the observance of the Scout anniversary.
