Seniors Honored

The ladies of the First Baptist Church entertained the Senior Class, their room mothers and fathers and the faculty, last Friday evening with a springtime banquet in the fellowship hall of the church.

When the guests arrived they were invited upstairs where punch was served by Judy Wynn and Jean Sanders. Soft piano music was furnished by Linda Davis.

Mrs. Tipton invited the guests to the fellowship hall where the long banquet table was decorated to represent a lovely flower garden. Garden gates with flower entwined arches alternating with yellow and green candles centered the table. The programs and place cards were also made to resemble garden gates.

Lionel Blankenship was "head gardener" or toastmaster and ably directed the program which was cleverly planned around the flower garden theme. After the singing of "Beautiful Garden of Prayer" the invocation was given by Supt. J. S. Hinds. The welcome was given by Mrs. Joe Miller and the response by Bobby Couch. A group of high school girls sang "Moonlight and Roses," "When You Wore A Tulip," "Ramona," and "Memories." Bettye Cameron, dressed as the Easter Bunny, presented each Senior a favor, reciting a clever and appropriate verse as she presented each one. Rev. J. S. Tipton was the speaker of the evening, using "In the Garden of Tomorrow" as his subject. After the singing of "In the Garden" the benediction was given by J. M. Baker.

A delicious meal of chicken and dressing, salad, green lima beans, potatoes, beets, angel food cake with whipped cream, and iced tea was served by the ladies of the church.

T. E. Naylor and family of Dumas visited here last week end.

Foster Pickett and family of Amarillo spent last week end here.

Benefit Program

The talk of the town is that Miss Myrtle Reeves' program at the high school last Thursday night was one of her best and that the Easter Parade and style show number far exceeded any of her previous efforts. The entire community is thankful to Myrtle and her cast for this fine performance.

Proceeds of the show was $67.04 which will be a good start on a new floor and other improvements to the Lions Den, getting ready for Hedley's 50th Anniversary celebration, the sixth annual Cotton Festival and other meetings for community benefits.

Easter Tea

Mrs. Ray Moreman and her daughter, Joan Ray, were hostesses Sunday afternoon in their home at a lovely Easter Tea honoring Miss Mary Alice Hunsucker, whose marriage to Mr. Neil Tibbets of Gainesville is scheduled for the month of June.

Receiving the guests were the hostesses, who in turn presented them to the receiving line consisting of the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Hunsucker, and Mrs. John McKensie of Lubbock, friend of Mary Alice. Mrs. Carroll Deahl also assisted in the receiving room. Names of the guests were registered during the first hour by Mrs. A. T. Simmons, and by Miss Myrtle Reeves during the second hour. After registering, the guests were directed to the tea table by Mrs. James Evans.

The serving table was laid with a white taffeta floor length cloth. Around the top wide folds of pink net had been draped. Looped at intervals in the net were nosegays of white and pink carnations carrying out the honoree's chosen color motif. These colors were also featured in the lovely decorations of other rooms of the home. Presiding over the tea table during the two hours were Mrs. M. L. Sims and Mrs. W. H. Moffitt. Misses Nancy Hunsucker and Faye Baker also assisted during the serving.

Included among the large number of names of guests who registered during the afternoon were several from out of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bailey and daughters Nancy and Linda visited here Monday from Amarillo

Queen Contest

Miss Nancy Hinds will represent the Hedley Lions Club in the district Queen contest at the Lions District Convention to be held in Lubbock May 2, 3 and 4.

Others planning to attend the convention include Miss Myrtle Reeves, Mrs. Dorothy Brinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hinds, L. D. Messer, M. D. Shaw, and Clifford Johnson.
