LIONS ROAR

This week the board of directors of the Lions Club and the Booster Club will meet at the Lions Den. This will count a make up for the Lions who missed last week's meeting.

The purpose of the meeting is to appoint committees for the Cotton Festival and get down to work in making this our biggest and best celebration.

Other matters will be getting the folks out to vote for Saturday's election on the dam and other matters of importance to the community.

Come early and we will get through early.

First Baptist Church

Rev. Leroy McKee of Seattle, Wash., preached at the First Baptist Church Sunday in the absence of the pastor.

Cotton Festival

Master Sergeant Clyde A. Thomas of W. T. S. C. says he will have his rifle team down for all three days of the Festival and they will offer a turkey shoot and other entertainment. Also that his precision drill team will perform one day and hopes to get the Buffalo Band for one day.

Last years vice president in charge of everything, Aubrey Lee Cherry, says he will be back, also Flip Breedlove, James Evans and Bob Ayers so we are sure of four good Masters of Ceremony to keep things moving.

Nearly all of the old events are expected back and many new ones are being contacted. All the dignitaries of the State are being invited so we should be able to hear some good talks.

However it is still going to take the combined efforts of everyone in the community to make this the celebration it merits.

Methodist Church

Rev. H. W. Cox is to be the preacher for the morning service next Sunday, Sept. 1. This is communion Sunday and the pastor will have charge of the service and preach that evening. We are glad to have Brother Cox preach again. Attendance at Sunday School and worship services was lower than the previous Sunday, being 52, 57, and 29 respectively.

On Sept 5 at Childress at 7:30 P. M. the project for a new girls' dormitory at McMurry College at Abilene, named in honor of Bishop William C. Martin, will be presented. Each local church is asked to have several representatives present.

Kathleen Spalding and Nancy Hinds will be taking care of our instrumental music, alternating at the organ and piano. Their work is of a high quality, and is greatly appreciated.

To climax the work of the first quarter, there is to be a meeting of the official board at the church next Monday evening, at eight. Ray Altman is chairman; Mrs. Henry Moore is vice-chairman; and Mrs. Ross Springer is secretary. Other members are Fred Watt, Jr., V. C. Waddell, Ross Springer, Mrs. A. B. Spalding, Walter Pierce, Roy McKee, Carl Morris, Henry Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kendall, W. H. Jones,

An Editorial

There has been some discussion as to who is eligible to vote in Saturday's confirmation election. Since there are no taxes or bonds involved, a voter does not have to be a property owner to vote in this election. Every voter living within the city limits of Hedley, who has paid a poll tax, is eligible to vote.

And we might repeat, there is no reason for anyone to vote against confirmation. In the words of Dr. Townsend, president of the group, "It doesn't cost to look"

This election does not bind Hedley to anything, but it will give us a chance to get the figures on the dam construction and let us decide with our eyes open exactly what is involved.

It would be terribly foolish for Hedleyans to throw away this opportunity, without even getting the facts in the case on which to base a decision.

Let's all go to the polls Saturday and vote FOR confirmation.

Lelia Lake Exes to Meet

A meeting of ex-students of Lelia Lake schools will be held at the Lelia Lake school house on Saturday night, Aug. 31

This meeting will be held to plan for future meetings.

Refreshments will be served, and all ex students of Lelia Lake are urged to be present.

Buy Shaw Drug

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Cherry have bought out the Shaw Drug and will operate it in future as the Cherry Drug. They plan to hold their formal opening Saturday and will serve free coffee on that date. They invite all their friends to call on them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hinds, J. P. Gilbreth, T. J. Cherry, and W. D. Altman.

In attendance at the sub-district M Y F at Clarendon the evening of Aug. 21 was Kathleen Spalding, president; Nancy Hinds, treasurer; Bonnie Alexander, secretary; Mrs. Don Haskins, local counselor; Rev. Melvin Mathis, and Winston Johnson. Next sub-district meeting will be at Hedley in October, District meeting is at Memphis in September.

At 7 o'clock the Scouts, committee men and guests enjoyed a chicken barbecue with all the trimmings. After the barbecue the Scouts hiked out to the Tower Drive-in and attended the show.

The Scouts of Troop No. 36 and their Scoutmaster wish to thank the following people for courtesies extended and help given to make this third annual barbecue a great success:

Transportation was provided by M. D. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Darnell, A. G. Alexander, W. B. Wiggins and Monte Paul Rogers; Mrs. Ethel L. Smith cooked the beans and potato salad, Mrs. J. C. Wilson and Grace made the iced tea and vegetable salad and treated the Scouts to a free swim Saturday morning. The Texas Co. supplied barrels, and the Memphis Lumber Co supplied lumber for the serving table. W. L. Mosley of Bantas Cafe arranged for the chickens and Wood Bros. Market barbecued them.

To these people go our most hearty thanks.
