Aubrey Lynn Leathers Home Town Boy In Dire Need

Funeral services for Aubrey Lynn Leathers, 27, who passed away Friday in the Clarendon hospital, were held Sunday from the First Baptist Church there by Rev. W. F. Vanderburg and Rev. Larry Molane. Burial was in the Clarendon cemetery.

Mr. Leathers died of injuries suffered when a horse he was riding ran into a dead tree, pushing a piece of wood deep into his leg.

He is survived by his wife, Jane, of Clarendon; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kinch Leathers of Lelia Lake and his grandfather, A. J. Harp of Clarendon.

Surprise Party

Mrs. T. E. Bailey was honored Sunday on her 80th birthday with a surprise party given by a number of friends. This was indeed a great occasion for Mrs. Bailey. Besides being her 80th birthday, it was the 34th birthday of her son Paul, the 1st birthday of her great-granddaughter, Karen Bailey, and the 75th birthday of her old friend, M. W. Mosley. The Mosleys and Baileys came to old Rowe at the same time in 1907.

Hostesses for the happy occasion were Mesdames A. E. Ranson, H. E. Darnell, Walter Johnson, Elmore Bailey, Ray Moreman and M. L. Sims.

Coffee, punch and angel food cake were served from a table covered with a hand crocheted cloth made by the honoree. She received many nice gifts, and about 45 registered.

Members of Mrs. Bailey's family present included Elmore Bailey and family of Hedley, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bailey and children Dusty and Debbie of Quitaque, Mrs. Jean Stavenhagen and baby and Stanley Bailey and family of Amarillo.

Basketball News

The Hedley boys and girls closed their basketball season last Friday in the local gym with victories over Lelia Lake.

The boys won 47 to 41, with Cox being high with 11 points, Owens 10, Youree 8, Wiggins 7, Hargrove 6, Roland 3 and Bevers 2.

The girls won 57 to 32. Alexander was high with 20, Thomas made 16, T. Sanders 10, B. Sanders 5, Sims 4 and Davis 2.

A. G. Alexander has received a letter from Pfc. Don Reeves, who sends greetings to all his Hedley friends, but reports a shocking shortage in Germany of one essential item, namely, Tinsley Red Tag chewing tobacco.

This is naturally a situation which cannot be permitted to exist so A. G. proposes that Don's friends get together and supply the lacking article.

If you would like to help encourage Don with a portion of his favorite chew, see Myrtle Reeves or the Hedley Feed and Seed, and leave a small contribution for this purpose. We know Don will really appreciate it.

Jimmie Lynn Promoted

The following article concerning a former Hedley boy, Jimmie Lynn appeared in the Hemet, Calif., News:

J. R. Lynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lynn of 529 South Buena Vista St., Hemet, has been promoted to the rank of first lieutenant in the U. S. Air Force.

A 1953 graduate of Hemet high school, Lt. Lynn attended Chaffey college and Riverside college before entering the service in April, 1955. He is stationed at McClellan Air Force base, Sacramento. The new promotion was received Jan. 25.

The Owl Cafe is now under new management, Mrs. Betty Clark, who has moved here from Childress with her two children, Vickie and Robbie Jr. Mrs. Clark plans to continue to serve lunches and all kinds of good food, and invites the public to call on her.

Club Entertains

The 1919 Study Club members were the guests of the Sodalitas Club at a dinner party in the school lunchroom Thursday, Feb. 6, at 7:30.

The Valentine theme was carried out in the table decorations. The tables were centered with candles in red holders on lace hearts of red. The centerpiece at the head table was an arrangement of red carnations. The menu to an extent followed the heart theme. The salads were tomato aspic decorated with cream cheese hearts, heart shaped cherry tarts were the dessert. In the center of the buffet table was a tray of potato salad decorated with red hearts. The menu also included ham, peas and carrots, hot rolls, butter, tea and coffee. Punch was served as the guests arrived.

The invocation was given by Sue Weatherly. Evelyn Messer gave the welcome and Mrs. Roy Jewell gave the response.

After dinner, Maureen Doherty led the group in a game of questions.

Jessie Mae Roland, Mary Haskins, Mahdeen DeBord and Arlene Thompson, disguised as the "Cloverleaf Boys," pantomimed "Lovey Dovey." Another pantomime, "The Bashful Lovers," was given by Dorothy Brinson, the bashful boy; Mary Ruth White, the shy sweet girl; Sue Weatherly, Mildred Clendennen, Rexie Word, and Dorothy Tate as the "Four Frivolous Flappers." Evelyn Messer was the reader. Joy Stewart played the piano as the guests arrived. Mildred Shaw was the program chairman.

The group enjoyed the pictures taken throughout the evening by Opal Evans with a Polaroid camera.

Members of the 1919 Study Club and other guests present were Mesdames Roy Jewell, Mary Harris, Ethel Kinslow, W. H. Moffitt, C. E. Johnson, Oscar Moore, A. T. Simmons, W. H. Jones, J. M. Baker, Ray Moreman, J. S. Hinds, James Evans, Don Wells, Betty Morgan, and Miss Sandra Youree.

Auto Inspection

Texas motorists may be lined up for blocks before neighborhood automobile service centers as the April 15 deadline nears for obtaining safety inspection stickers for cars and trucks, Maj. R. A. Crowder, Commander of Region 5 of the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced today.

"Of the half million vehicles in the Department of Public Safety's Region 5, only 125,000 have received state inspection stickers," said Captain Alan Johnson, Commander of Motor Vehicle Inspection Service of Region 5. "Eleven weeks remain in which to obtain 1958 stickers and there are 375,000 vehicles still to be inspected in the 60 counties of Region 5."

"Texas law requires that motorists have the safety stickers on all registered motor vehicles by midnight, April 15. In addition, all trailers registered in Texas which exceed 4000 pounds gross weight must have safety stickers," Johnson said.
