Notables To Be Here

Congressman Walter Rogers plans to again be with us at the Festival. Time of his arrival is not definitely set but he will probably be here for the grand parade Saturday and make us a talk some time Saturday.

State Senator Andy Rogers and Rep. Will Earle have been in Austin the last several days looking after the affairs of the Greenbelt Water Authority and other business of the district. They plan to be at the Festival if at all possible.

Attorney Paul Spillman of Wellington, who has made many good talk at our previous Festivals, will be with us again. He will make an address Saturday morning.

Judge R. L. Templeton of Wellington will be with us. Judge Templeton has been in Austin in regard to the hearing on the Greenbelt Dam but will be back for the Festival.

Governor Price Daniel will be unable to attend the Festival on account of a previous commitment. He will be in Ft. Worth on the 10th for a Law Enforcement meeting and back at Austin for a banquet and engagement the 11th. However he says he will send us a message.

Senator Lyndon B. Johnson's schedule will not permit him to attend our Festival. However he and Mrs. Johnson send their best wishes to both the members of the Lions Club and Booster Club for a successful Festival.

Senator Ralph Yarborough, who made us such a fine talk at last year's Festival, hasn't been able to give us a definite answer. We hope to have him back again.

Attend Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Conard Berry of Fort Worth visited in the C. L. Johnson home last week end. Mr. Berry is a brother of Mrs. Johnson.

Mr. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Simmons and Mr. and Mrs. Obe Holland attended the reunion of Co. H, 142nd Inf., 36th Division, which was held at Childress Saturday and Sunday.

Assembly of God Church

Rev. T. E. Gibson of Memphis, who built the Assembly of God Church here, will preach at the church at the morning and evening services on next Sunday, Oct. 12.

Lions District Governor To Crown Queen

Billy Hunter of Amarillo, District Governor of District 2 T 1 Lions International, will be at the Festival all day Saturday. He will be in the Grand Parade at 1 p. m. and will crown the incoming Queen that night. The district governor is also a good entertainer and will give two or three numbers Saturday afternoon.

Fiddling and Dancing

Activities for Friday night of the Festival seem to be well taken care of. Starting at 7 p. m. the Old Fiddlers contest will be under the direction of Milt Mosley.

Wallace Raney will be in charge of the Square Dance exhibitions. He has secured the Oren Baileys Square Dance Band of Altus to do the playing and Milton Beasley of Memphis to do the calling. One of their events will be the grand march in which local people will be invited to participate.

J. B. Yates and his boys also will be on hand to play so there will be plenty of music, singing and dancing, both square and round, which should round out a good evening's entertainment for every one.

Hula Hoop Contest

One of the big kiddie events in this year's festival program is the Hula Hoop Contest at 11:45 Friday morning on main street. All the kiddies in the area are invited to enter, and some fine prizes will be given. This is open to all kids under thirteen years old.

Bingo!

The Boy Scouts will have bingo again this year during the Festival. Visit them in the old M System building.

Cake Walk

The Hedley Civil Defense unit and Fire Dept. will sponsor the cake walk at the Festival. Any good lady who will donate a cake for this purpose please see a member of the Fire Dept.

Your help will be appreciated very much.

Greenbelt Dam News

The following appeared in Tuesday's Amarillo News:

Greenbelt Municipal and Industrial Water Authority today was granted a permit to take water from the Salt Fork of the Red River. The permit was granted by the State Board of Water Engineers Monday without protest.

The permit opens the way for construction of a proposed 9 million dollar dam and reservoir to serve seven towns in the Panhandle and South Plains with municipal and industrial water.

PTA Food Booth

Don't forget to help the P T A by visiting the P T A food booth in the old M System building.

The P T A will also have some pot plants for sale.

KGNC Men to Attend

Both Cotton John and Hal Mayfield from Radio and TV Station KGNC at Amarillo will be down for the Festival. They will arrive Friday afternoon, and Cotton John said they would stay late as he sure didn't want to miss the Old Fiddlers contest and square dance exhibitions.

No Vehicles Allowed

Bicycle riders please note that no bicycles will be allowed on Main Street during Friday and Saturday of the Festival. This also applies to other vehicles during that time, which means no cars, bicycles, tricycles, motor scooters, or any other type of vehicle.

Handwork Wanted

All who have handwork to display, please bring it to the Hedley Variety where it will be displayed during the Festival.

Mrs. W. E. Reeves has been ill in a Memphis hospital.

Mr and Mrs. Virgil Threet of Roswell visited here last week end.

J. H. Craig of Fort Worth visited last week with his daughter, Mrs. Bill Johnson.

Bruce Stewart Jr. of Wichita Falls visited here last week end.

To Lead Parade

Brig. Gen. William L. Lee, Commander of the Amarillo Air Force Base, will be at the Festival and will lead the Grand Parade at 1 p. m. Saturday.

Methodist Church

Morning attendance was only so-so; Sunday School was high; evening worship was above average this Sunday. Numbers mean people. These who are worrying lest they crowd others at church need to drop their fears. There is plenty of room. Next Sunday the pastor will preach in the morning service and the district superintendent, Rev. E. E. White of Childress, will be the speaker in the evening. Service begins at 7. Sue Wilson and Nancy Hinds sang a very beautiful number in the morning service, accompanied by Don Cox. We have a number of good singers in the church.

October 19 is Laymen's Day. J. S. Hinds is lay leader and is in charge of securing speakers for the morning service that day. Tentative plans are to have an MYF program that evening.

Productive harmony comes when people put the work of the Lord first. Then then their smiles are natural and they come more often.

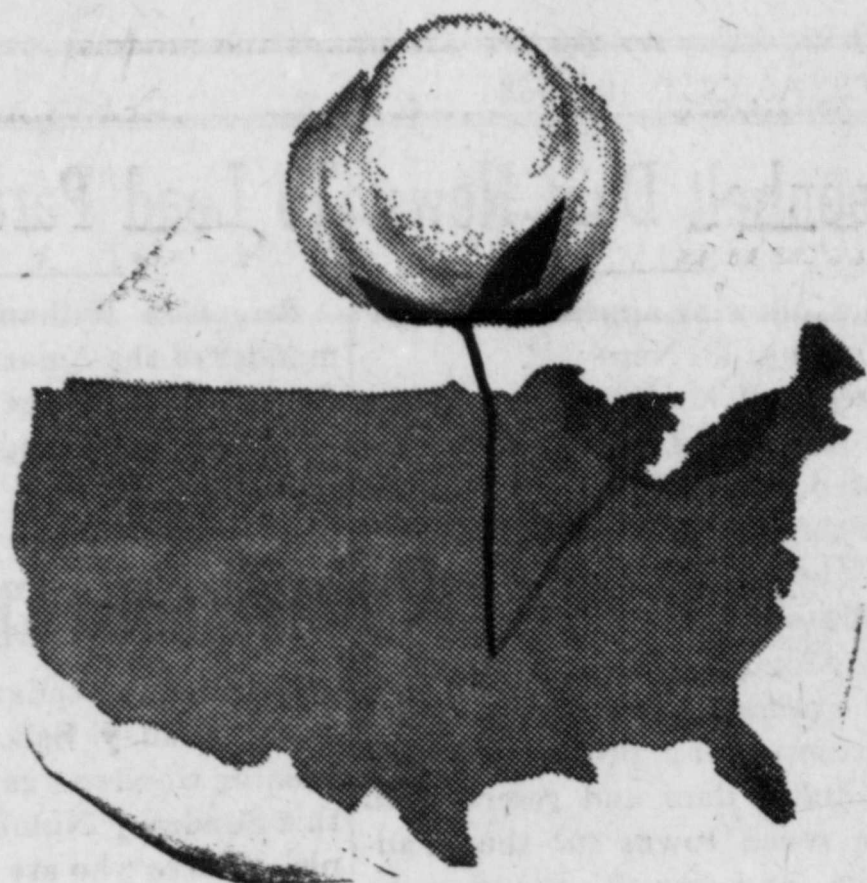

Witches should be swarming through the sky on their broomsticks by Wednesday evening, Oct. 29. That will be a good time for a Family Night program at the church.

Tilson To Be Here

Tilson, the Magician, from Matador will be here for the Festival. He presents a show of mystery, comedy, and illusions with a repertoire of over 50 acts, clean, colorful and spectacular.

Mr. and Mrs. Tilson plan to be in Hedley both days of the Festival. He is one of the few magicians who can present his acts out of doors in broad daylight and without a background. His large assortment of acts will allow him to present three or four shows if needed to entertain the crowds. The entertainment committee should be commended for obtaining such a fine performer.

Mrs. Leland Pickett of Paramount, Calif., has been visiting here.

Florence Reynolds and Karo Kid Coming

Florence (grandma) Reynolds and her trick horse, Karo Kid, will be one of the featured attractions at the Hedley Cotton Festival, Oct. 10 and 11.

Mrs Reynolds, an outstanding horsewoman of the Panhandle area has been riding and training horses since 1920, at which time she was riding with the 101 Wild West Show.

The story of her exciting experiences with horses is vividly told in "The Rawhide Tree" by Ossie Wilson and Ceco Tom Terry. She and Karo have appeared at many shows in the Golden Spread, and most recently played to an enthusiastic crowd at the Boys Ranch Rodeo in early September.

Be sure to attend the Cotton Festival at Hedley and see Florence Reynolds and Karo Kid at their best.
