VOL. 50

HEDLEY, DONLEY COUNTY, TEXAS, JUNE 17, 1960

NO. 34

Hargrove-White

Miss Brenda White, daughter of Mrs. Ocie White of Memphis, became the bride of Rodney Hargrove, son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Hargrove of Jacksonville, Arkansas, on Saturday, June 11, at the First Baptist Church in Hedley.

Minister Alfred White, cousin of the bride, performed the double ring ceremony, assisted by the Rev. J. S. Tipton.

A quartet of ladies from Wellington sang the traditional wedding music. Sue Wilson of Quail sang "Bless This House" and "Because."

An archway covered with greenery and centered by white wrought iron gates flanked by floor candelabra and baskets of white gladioli decorated the altar area. The family pews were marked with white satin bows.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Garrell White. Her ballerina length gown was an Angelo Original, fashioned of white satin and net covered by Chantilly lace. The sabrina neckline was outlined by pearls and iridescent sequins. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell over a Queen of Scots crown of seed pearls. The veil was bordered by Chantilly lace. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the groom. Her bouquet was a white orchid and carnations atop a white Bible.

The bridal attendants wore soft pink, street length dresses fashioned with a scoop neckline and full skirts. Their head pieces were copies of the bride's, with short halo veils. Their bouquets were of pink carnations designed in a fan shape and tied with white satin streamers. The maid of honor was Cordelia Harris. The bridesmaids were Betty Moseley and La Rita Patterson.

Billy Wiggins, cousin of the groom, was best man. Billy Fred Maddox, Bobby Roland, and R. E. Butler served as groomsmen, candlelighters, and ushers.

The mother of the bride wore a dress of pink nylon organza with matching accessories and a white carnation corsage.

The groom's mother wore a dress of white linen and lace over beige taffeta with matching accessories and a corsage of blue carnations.

The bridal couple greeted wedding guests in the foyer of the church immediately following the ceremony. A cousin of the bride,

Mrs. J. B. Reed

Funeral services for Mrs. J. B. Reed of Seymour, a former Hedleyan, who passed away Thursday, were held at Crowell. Burial was in the Crowell cemetery.

She is survived by two sons, Rev. Clarence Reed of Louisiana and Calvin Reed of Lake Jackson, Texas.

Road Committee

On May 16 the citizens road committee met and elected officers for the coming year. Those serving on the committee at present are Ray Moreman, Hobart Moffitt, Chester D. Walker, Doyle Messer, Bernard McClehan, Jack Burr, Charles Hall, R. W. Scales and A. G. Alexander.

The committee reports that the McLean to Hedley highway looks very favorable and with continued cooperation we feel that the project will be under way in the not too distant future.

A. G. Alexander,
Sec. Committee

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lynn of Hemet, Calif., visited friends in Hedley last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mosley and Rusty left Saturday to spend the summer at Taos, N. Mex.

Margie White, was at the register. A reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The tea table was covered by a white linen cutwork cloth over pink and centered by the bridal bouquet flanked by crystal candelabra holding white dinner candles, and a beautiful silver tray of a unique design that contained the couple's wedding invitation.

The three tiered wedding cake was cut and served by Sue Wilson while the punch was poured by Tobytha Sanders. Others assisting with the reception were Mesdames Alva Simmons, Hobart Moffitt, Roy Jewell, Joe Miller, Tommy Bain, Luther Petty, L. D. Messer, and W. C. Quisenberry.

The bride traveled in a pink linen dress with pink and white accessories and a white orchid taken from her bridal bouquet.

After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home in Childress where the groom is employed by the Lone Star Gas Company.

R. F. Newman

Funeral services for Robert F. Newman, who passed away Saturday in an Austin hospital, were held Wednesday from the University Methodist Church at Austin by Dr. James Morgan and Dr. Edmund Heinsohn. Burial was in Austin Memorial Park.

Mr. Newman was the worker representative on the three man Texas Employment Commission. He was born at Quail Aug. 18, 1908. He graduated from West Texas State at Canyon and taught at several West Texas schools before joining Phillips Petroleum Co. in 1939. He had also played professional baseball with several leagues in Oklahoma, Indiana and North Carolina. He began his duties on the Texas Employment Commission in 1957, following an appointment by Governor Allan Shivers.

He is survived by his wife, Daisy, of Austin; two sons, Joe Bob and Tommy; a daughter, Mrs. Mary Ann Cravens of Harlingen; his mother, Mrs. R. E. Newman of Hedley; a brother, Virgil Newman of Hedley; two sisters, Mrs. L. A. Tucker of Estelline and Mrs. Virgil Threet of Roswell; and five grandchildren.

Mrs. R. E. Newman of Hedley and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Tucker of Estelline attended the funeral services.
