Cotton Festival

Anyone interested in helping promote the 11th annual Cotton Festival is urged to attend the meeting this Thursday night, Aug. 16. It will take the combined efforts of everyone in the community. Meeting time is 7:30 p. m.

Festival dates are Friday and Saturday, Oct. 12 and 13, almost the same as last year. The TV show on Cotton John's program over KGNC will be Saturday afternoon, Oct. 6.

Bridal Shower

A bridal shower honoring Mrs. Alta Butler Hefner was given in the Lions Den Saturday afternoon, Aug. 11. The calling hour was from three to four o'clock.

The bride's sister, Miss Marie Butler, received and registered the guests, and Miss Brenda Winn served at the tea table. The table was attractive with its covering of a cloth of lace, and a floral arrangement flanked by white candles. Other table arrangements were of crystal.

The many useful gifts were on display on tables spaced around the room. Several guests called during the hour, among them the groom's mother, Mrs. Hefner, and his sister from Quanah.

The line of hostesses for the afternoon were Mesdames Dixon Latham, Ed Boliver, W. C. Quisenberry, Charlie Foster, O'Neill Weatherly, Luther Petty, M. L. Sims, Oscar Moore, Elva Davis, Linda Stephens, Joe Miller, W. H. Moffitt and A. T. Simmons.

Another courtesy extended the bride was a lingerie shower given in the R. M. Saunders home on Tuesday, July 31. Miss Sandra Saunders was hostess, assisted by Mrs. Saunders and Mrs. Luther O. Thompson.

Marilyn Saunders registered the guests. A nice array of attractive gifts was on display.

Punch and cookies were served to 13 friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Holland and Chitie Ann and Mrs. Tillie Spalding visited relatives at Bridgeport, Denton and in Grayson County last week. They drove across the new mile long bridge across Lake Texoma but didn't try their luck at fishing.

Boliver-Pack

Miss Alene Pack of Lubbock and David Boliver of Hedley were united in marriage last Friday evening, Aug. 10, at the Southcrest Baptist Church in Lubbock. Rev. J. Wayland Edwards, the pastor, read the double ring ceremony. A pyramid of tall white candles formed the background for the ceremony, flanked by gladiolas, mums and greenery. Small blue candles lined the altar rail.

Maid of honor was Miss Frances Wilson of Welch, who wore a cotton satin ice blue street length dress with a cascade of white gladiolas with white satin ribbon streamers. Bridesmaids were Miss Carol Davis of Lubbock and Miss Lana Colvin of Andrews, cousin of the bride. Both wore identical cotton satin ice blue street length dresses with a cascade of white gladiolas with white satin ribbon streamers.

The bride's mother wore a winter pink silk crepe dress and a corsage of white symbidium orchids. The groom's mother wore a medium blue dress of dacron and cotton, and a corsage of white symbidium orchids.

Best man was Jimmy Boliver, brother of the groom. Ushers were Jon and Tom Pat Leggitt, cousins of the groom, Dan Hartman, and Gary Jones, cousin of the bride. Jon and Tom Pat Leggitt also served as groomsmen.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white floor length dress of peau de soie, styled with a bodice of Chantilly lace over tulle and peau de soie sprinkled with seed pearls, and featuring long petal tipped sleeves, scalloped neck, and ballerina length veil of illusion. Her pillbox hat was covered in peau de soie, and she carried a bouquet of white symbidium orchids atop a white Bible.

The love chapter from I Corinthians was read by Miss Janie Allison of Spur, cousin of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Prickett of Lubbock sang "Whither Thou Goest" and Mr. Prickett sang "The Lord's Prayer." They were accompanied by Miss Euteva Coberly at the organ who also provided the traditional nuptial selections.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. In the receiving line were Mrs. Raymon Pack, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Boliver, the bride and groom, the bridesmaids and the maid of honor. In charge of the register was Sandra Lee of Lubbock. Mrs. Garland Jones of Stephenville, aunt of the bride, poured punch from a serving table laid with an ice blue cloth and featuring a centerpiece of blue and white carnations. Mrs. B. F. Barnes of Odessa, also an aunt of the bride, cut and served the beautiful three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymon Pack of 4512 48th St. in Lubbock, is a graduate of Monterey High School there. She has attended Texas Tech and South Plains Junior College. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Boliver of Hedley. He is a graduate of Hedley High School and was a spring graduate of Texas Tech. After the reception the couple left for a honeymoon trip to points in New Mexico and Colorado. For going away the bride wore a blue linen suit with matching accessories. After Sept. 1st they will be at home in Lubbock, where the groom will teach in O. L. Slaton Junior High during the coming year and the bride will continue her studies at Tech.

After the wedding rehearsal on Thursday night, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Boliver hosted a rehearsal dinner at the Chicken Village on 19th St. in Lubbock. The U shaped table featured a centerpiece of blue and white carnations and fern, accented by other blue carnations and fern in bud vases. The arrangement was prepared by Miss Marjorie Harlan of Clarendon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Leggitt and daughters Judy and Joan and Mrs. E. C. Boliver attended the Boliver-Pack wedding at Lubbock last Friday evening.

Bridal Shower

Mrs. Billy Wiggins recent bride of Billy Wiggins, was honored Thursday evening with a miscellaneous shower given in the home of Mrs. James Evans. Co-hostesses were Miss Myrtle Reeves, Meses. Hobart Moffitt, Ray Moreman, D. H. Cox, Kenneth Brinson, Harrison Hall, Oscar Moore and C. L. Johnson.

The table was laid with a white and blue cut-work cloth centered with an arrangement of white gladiolas and dahlias in a crystal and

School Opening Postponed One Week

In their meeting Monday night, the school board decided to postpone the opening of school for one week, due to the hot weather and the fact that two of the teachers could not finish their work by the earlier date. Registration will be on Friday, Aug. 24, and classes will begin on Monday, Aug. 27.

In other business, the board approved the budget for the coming year, and approved the Borden Dairy bid to furnish milk for this school year.

After school starts, a survey will be made among the parents to determine their wishes as to a holiday for cotton picking.

A new teacher has been hired for this year, Mrs. Reatha Pyeatt, who will teach 7th and 8th grade English and history and high school bookkeeping. Mrs. Pyeatt, the former Reatha Ranson, is a graduate of Hedley High School and will receive her degree from West Texas State at Canyon before school starts.

H. P. Mann has been employed as school custodian.

Hills To Observe 60th Anniversary

The annual J. F. Hill family reunion will be held at the J. F. Hill home on Sunday Aug. 19. This will be a special occasion, to observe Mr. and Mrs. Hill's 60th wedding anniversary.

silver epergne flanked with blue candles in crystal candle holders. Other appointments were silver and crystal. The punch bowl was encircled with white dahlias and blue grapes.

In other party rooms decorated with arrangements of summer flowers, gifts were displayed in a very beautiful array.

Guests were received at the door by Mrs. Evans, presented to honoree Tobytha, her mother, Mrs. Sam Sanders, and the groom's mother, Mrs. W. B. Wiggins.

Guests were registered by a sister of the honoree, Mrs. Pete Rice of Quitaque. Presiding at the punch table was another sister, Mrs. James Potts, assisted by Mrs. Kenneth Brinson. Other hostesses assisted with the showing of the gifts.
