15th Cotton Festival Is Success; Beverly McPherson Is New Festival Queen

The 15th annual Cotton Festival came to its climax Saturday night with the crowning of the new Queen, Beverly McPherson, daughter of Mr and Mrs Vergil McPherson. First runnerup was Kim Steele, daughter of Mr and Mrs A J Rowell, and next runnerup was Loretta Hill, daughter of Mr and Mrs Junior Hill. Total receipts for the contest amounted to $1,555.49.

The gym had been very nicely decorated for the program, and an excellent program arranged by Mrs. Letha Springer and Myrtle Reeves. Mike Chesser did a fine job as MC. Supt. Kenneth Sams presented gifts to each entrant in the Queen contest.

High wind and dust Friday forced the Old Settlers to move inside, but they had a good program and much interest. Mrs. W. I. Rains was honored for being the oldest Donley County resident present, and Bud Curtie was honored for being the oldest man. Mr. and Mrs. Eb Hooker of Visalia, Calif., came farthest to the reunion. Bob Ayers was elected the new president of the Old Settlers, Malcolm Glass vice president, J. B. Yates treasurer and Mrs. Mabel Bridges secretary.

Saturday proved to be a beautiful day, and one of our best parades was enjoyed by everyone. It included the Sheriff's Dept and Highway Patrol, the Army color guard, the Amarillo Air Force band, Queen Jamie Evans, a Model A Ford, Foxhall Motor Co., the Army Recruiting Station, the Groom High School band, the Security State Bank float with Judy Leggitt, Cindy and Debbie Upton, Palmer Motor Co., District Lions Queen Miss Gohlke on a Chamberlain float, Miller for Congress, the Amarillo AFB drill team, the Garden Club float with Shirley Nivens, Nancy Saunders and Debbie Stephens, the McLean Junior High band, Bob Price for Congress, the Sodalitas Club float with Tanya White, Laura Ann Wheatly, Carol and Linda Webster, the Clarendon Girl Scouts, the Hedley Girl Scouts, a whale of a bale and family, the Clarendon

Junior High band, Cheryl Woodridge on the Messer Foods float, the Gayettes of Texas, Loretta Hill on the Hedley Lumber Co. float, the Quail singers, the Memphis Fire Dept., Alderson Chevrolet, Kim Steele on the Cherry Drug float, the Clarendon Boy Scouts, Lana Altman on the West Texas Utilities float, Clarendon Fire Dept., Beverly McPherson on the Johnson Insurance-Harlan Flowers float, Dorothy's Beauty Shop, the Kachina Indians, the first bale of cotton with Lions Club Queen Kathy Spier, the Lion District Governor, W. L. Edelman of Friona, Memphis Junior High band, Spicer Funeral Home, First Baptist Church float, Postex Plant, Old Settlers, Sam Owens in old Plymouth, Harrison Hardware, O. B. Radio Club, Painter children, H & M Dry Goods, Owl Cafe, Laura Solomon on the Hedley Cafe float, old Plymouth, Sandy Gerber on the Moffitt Hardware float, 1919 Study Club, three riders from Amarillo, the 4-H Trail Riders from Wellington, the Caprock Trail Riders from Memphis, Coon Dog Davis of Amarillo, the Clarendon Riding Club and the Hedley Riding Club.

For business floats the Security State Bank won first, Messer Foods second and Moffitt Hardware third. For organizations the Sodalitas Club won first, the First Baptist Church second and the Garden Club third. For novelties Coon Dog Davis won first, the Painter children second and the Owl Cafe third. For decorated cars Dorothy's Beauty Shop won first, Chamberlain Motor Co. second and Johnson Insurance third. For riding clubs Memphis won first, Clarendon second and Wellington third. The Sodalitas Club float was declared the overall winner. For bands Clarendon Junior High directed by Phil Anthony, won first, and Memphis Junior High, directed by Mr. Phillips, won second.

There were 14 entries in the Old Fiddlers contest Saturday night. Gene Brown of Amarillo won first, Wes Nivens of Hart won second, and Ed Halstead of Claude won third.

We very much appreciated Sheriff Cornell, Deputy James, and Highway Patrolmen Nichols and Vaughn being with us to help with traffic direction, also Sheriff Elmer Neel of Memphis.

Mrs. S. A. Wolfe

Funeral services for Mrs. S. A. Wolfe, 58, who passed away in an Amarillo hospital last Thursday, were held Saturday in the Goodlett Methodist Church. Burial was at Goodlett.

Mrs. Wolfe was born May 13, 1908 at Cushman, Ark. She was the widow of Rev. S. A. Wolfe, former Methodist pastor here.

Rev. Tipton Honored

Rev. James S. Tipton, pastor since 1964 of Center City Baptist Church in Brownwood, has been named Training Union Director of Mills Baptist Association.

In this work Rev. Tipton is assigned the tasks of providing and promoting programs for training church leaders in the association's Training Union ministry.

A native of Southwestern Oklahoma, Rev. Tipton has attended Wayland Baptist Church in Plainview and has done study through the Baptist Seminary Extension Department.

He has been pastor of churches in Cleburne and Hedley, Tex.

Rev. and Mrs. Tipton, the former Lue Ella Stiles, reside at 2401 Avenue E in Brownwood. They have two children.

W. S. C. S.

The W. S. C. S. met in a regular meeting Oct. 3. The program plans for the next three months were made and assigned.

Mrs. Henry Moore, president, opened the meeting at 2 p. m. The program was:

The Way Out for Yesterday's People, Mrs. C. L. Johnson. Meditation, Mrs. Cecil Guthrie. Dismissed with Prayer, Mrs. Don Altman.

World Day of Prayer will be observed Oct. 28 with a covered dish luncheon. All ladies of the church and community are invited. The time will be 10 a. m. to 2:30 p. m. Be on time.

The program will be given by Mrs. Earl Wheatly.

Card of Thanks

The Festival committee wishes to thank all those from Clarendon and Memphis who took part in the art show and flower show, also the 1913 Study Club and the Atalantean Club of Memphis for their window displays.

Golden Wedding

Mr and Mrs. W. W. Wiggins will be honored with an open house reception on their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home in Hedley, Texas, on October 23, 1966, from two until five P. M. by their four children, Jeff and Oran Wiggins of Pasadena, Texas, Mavis Hargrove of Little Rock, Ark., and W. B. Wiggins of Hedley.

All their friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Altman Pledges

Abilene—Larry Ray Altman, a sophomore at McMurry College, is pledging Alpha Phi Omega, a national service fraternity. The organization helps with many services for the students and the faculty. Alpha Phi Omega has a pledge program for approximately six weeks in which the pledges can get acquainted with the workings of the club.

Altman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Altman, Route one. A 1965 graduate of Hedley High School, Larry was a member of the Student Council, Class President, his junior and senior year, and a member of the annual staff. At McMurry he is a member of the Forum, Methodist Student Movement. He is majoring in Religion and minoring in speech.

Buys Texaco Station

T. Mullins has purchased the Texaco station from R. L. Nivens, and invites everyone to call on him for Texaco products.

Hoggatt To Preach

Johnny Hoggatt will preach at the Turkey Baptist Church next Sunday both morning and evening.

Card of Thanks

I want to offer my sincere thanks to each and every one who helped me in any way to become the 1967 Cotton Festival Queen. These thanks go especially to my sponsors, who were Clifford Johnson Insurance and Harlan's Flowers.

Thank you again
Beverly McPherson

Mr and Mrs. Doyle Clendenen and baby visited here from Amarillo last week end.

Vehicle Inspection

Austin—Colonel Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety has announced that the 1967 vehicle inspection period has begun.

He said that the new inspection period began on Sept. 1 and will end on April 15, 1967. The inspection period is the same as in previous years.

"This means that between now and April 15, 1967, each of the five and one half million Texas registered vehicles will have to secure the new green and white 1967 inspection sticker from one of the 5500 official inspection stations," he said.

Garrison pointed out that Texas inspection stations can be identified by the official vehicle inspection station sign displayed at each station.
