Crop Measurements

As you know, Donley County will again use the producer certification method of determining crop acreages for 1967. It is very important that you measure your diverted acres out before you plant your row crop. If your farm is fully allotted and you plant all of your permitted acres to row crops, you may come up short on diverted acres (due to turnrows ditches, etc.) Be sure and allow enough for diverted acres and you shouldn't have any problem.

This office will again assist you in any way we can by planimetry, etc. However, our assistance does not relieve you of the responsibility of the acreages reported.

These provisions do not pertain to soil bank farms. Acreages on these farms will be determined by this office, as in the past.

Release And Reapportionment

The final day to release any cotton which you do not intend to plant has been extended until March 17th. This will also be the last day to request additional cotton acreage from any that may be released.

Signup

Those few of you who have not yet signed up are reminded that participation in the annual programs is not automatic though it is voluntary. You must sign up not later than March 17th to be eligible for program benefits.

Greenbelt Dam

Clifford Johnson attended the meeting of the board of directors of the Greenbelt Water Authority at Childress last Thursday night. The dam now is 92% complete with only 46% of the time used. The valve has been closed and it has about 20 feet of water in the lake at the dam.

The pipe line from Quanah to Crowell is now less than two miles from downtown Crowell. However work on the filter plant is some 30 days behind schedule. They blame it on labor shortage.
