Getters-Jeffreys

St. John's Episcopal Church, in Farmington, N. Mex., was the setting for the recent wedding of Miss Carol Lynn Jeffreys to Gerald Vernon Getters with the Rev. Milton A. Rohane, pastor, officiating at the double ring ceremony before a candlelit altar.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mary B. Jeffreys of Farmington and Banks R. Jeffreys of Amarillo.

The bridegroom makes his home in Farmington.

The bride, escorted to the altar by a family friend, John R. Rhodes, was radiant in a street length gown of bonded white crepe fashioned in a softly molded A-line sheath with a jewel neckline and sleeveless bodice. The ensemble was topped by a full length white re-embroidered linen lace coat with three quarter length sleeves. Her three tiered hand roiled pouff veil of sheerest silk illusion cascaded from a pearl crown tiara.

She carried a bouquet of white sweetheart roses and stephanotis entwined with blue and white streamers atop a white lace covered Bible.

For something old, the bride wore a diamond lavalier that had been given to her great grandmother, Mrs. W. I. Rains, by her late husband on their wedding day in 1897. Something new was the charm bracelet, a gift from the bridegroom, and something borrowed were the pearl earrings belonging to Miss Sharon Spain. Her blue and white wedding garter completed the bridal tradition.

Miss Spain served as bridesmaid and John Caldwell served as best man.

The bride's mother wore a mint green silk knit sheath with white accessories. Her corsage was of cinnamon pink and mint green carnations.

Miss Sherri Jeffreys, the bride's sister, presided at the guest register.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party traveled to the Redwood Lodge for a wedding dinner.

The bride attended Farmington High School. She is a member of St. John's Episcopal Church and the Order of Rainbow for girls.

Getters, a graduate of Edmond High School, Edmond, Okla., served with the 101st Airborne Division, his tour of duty including 20

The honoree received a large number of lovely and useful gifts.
