Homecoming Banquet

A number of friends gave a homecoming banquet Saturday evening in the Hedley school honoring Ernie Houdashell and Gary Weatherly, who have recently returned from Viet Nam after spending a year there.

Theme for the banquet was "Johnny Comes Marching Home," and decorations carried out the patriotic theme. Tables were decorated with red, white and blue, with centerpieces of chrysanthemums and flags.

Tom Pat Leggitt acted as MC. J. M. Baker gave the invocation, then Mrs Letha Springer, who was in charge of the program, gave a medley of piano numbers. Johnny Woodard sang, as did LaMoss Springer, Sherri Hill and Darlene Webster. Mrs Doyle Messer was speaker for the evening. Alvie Ray Butler thanked everyone who helped with the banquet, and the final number was given by Tom Pat Leggitt, Carroll Kennedy, Bill Hill and Ernie Houdashell.

About 60 friends enjoyed the delicious meal of ham, green beans creamed potatoes, tossed salad, hot rolls, cake, iced tea and coffee.

LIONS ROAR

The next meeting of the Hedley Lions Club will be the fifth Thursday of this month, Nov 30th. It will be ladies night. Lions Springer, Seales and Grimsley have charge of the program.

Cotton Festival Queen Judy Leggitt and first alternate Pam Myers appeared on Cotton John's Farm and Home Show over KGNC television in Amarillo last Saturday. They did a wonderful job advertising the 17th annual Hedley Cotton Festival and the cotton industry.

Also on this show were the Maize Days Queen of Friona and her first and second alternate queen. Thus the two major crops of this area, cotton and maize, were brought to the attention of the TV viewers.

The Hedley chapter of the Future Farmers of America had charge of the program at last week's meeting. Some local Lions missed a good program and a good meal. Better not let it happen again.
